

Chapter 138

"You don't have to inherit Lloyd Group, and you have two brothers! Kole will inherit Lloyd Group, and Walker Lloyd will help him, so you don't need to learn all these deceitful tricks in the business world. You're not like me. Even if I want to see someone, I have to use various means to see her. Do you think I'm a hypocrite?" Hassan looked at Ella. To him, Ella was as naive as an angel.

She didn't need to socialize with anyone at all.

She just needed to study hard.

When she grew up, she could work for Lloyd Group if she wanted to.

Even if she didn't want to work, no one would force her.

When she was old enough to get married, she could have a relationship with someone or her family could find a suitable marriage match for her.

So she had always been carefree.

"Hassan, I ... I'm not like that. And I don't think you're a hypocrite. But there's one thing I don't understand. Why do you want to see Alyssa? If you can't give Alyssa the commission money through your company account, you can still transfer it to her from your private account. If you don't feel comfortable with that, you can ask me to transfer the money to Alyssa. Why do you have to see Alyssa?"

Hassan chuckled at Ella's words. Ella was naive, but she wasn't stupid at all.

She saw through his intention at once.

Suddenly, he put away those thoughts he just had.

Ella noticed that Hassan's gaze was strange when he looked at her. She asked softly, "Hassan, did I say something wrong? If I said something wrong, just tell me. Don't look at me like that."

Hassan's eyes were strange.

She was a little scared.

Hassan laughed at Ella's words, "I'm your cousin, not a bad wolf. What are you afraid of?"

"You just seemed to be angry." Ella looked up at Hassan, "And I feel that you seem to like Alyssa, but Alyssa is already married. She got married last semester. Her husband is the president of Hunter Group, Leon."

Hassan nodded. He didn't have any expression on the surface, but he felt a little unhappy inside.

How could such a brilliant young girl get married so early?

"Hassan, what are you thinking?"

Ella felt as if there was a huge age gap between her and Hassan.

But Hassan was not that much older than her.

Hassan stopped talking.

She couldn't force Hassan to talk either. She simply did not speak and waited for Alyssa.

Half an hour later.

Alyssa and Leon saw Hassan and Ella inside the small pavilion.

Both Hassan and Ella didn't expect that besides Alyssa, Leon was also here.

Hassan saw Leon and took the initiative to greet him, "Mr. Hunter, I really didn't think that we would meet again so soon."

"I came with Alyssa." Leon let go of Alyssa's hand. He thought in his mind that Alyssa would leave after getting the money, but Alyssa took his hand instead.

Alyssa turned her head. Seeing Leon looking at her, she couldn't help but feel happy, "Don't let go of me."

Leon nodded. Being with Alyssa made him feel that Alyssa needed him at all times, which was a particularly good feeling.

It was a sign of Alyssa's dependence on him.

Hassan didn't think he could stay here any longer. He handed Ella the envelope, "Ella, I just remembered that I have an urgent matter to take care of for the company. You help me give the money to your friend. Don't say that I underpay her."

Ella looked at Hassan, hesitated, and took the envelope finally, "You should have done this earlier. It wouldn't have come to this."

Hassan didn't say anything and watched Ella give the envelope to Alyssa.

The moment Alyssa took the money, she looked happy again.

But even so, she did not let go of Leon's hand, and naturally did not look at how much money was in that envelope.

Seeing Alyssa's attitude, Hassan was very unhappy.

He still remembered Alyssa's smile after she got the money in his office last time.

He had thought he would see that smile again today.

Without any expression of displeasure, he turned to leave.

At that moment, Alyssa said, "Mr. Wood, Ella, it's going to be dinner time soon. I've got the money. How about we go out for dinner together?"

"Sure."

"I have something to do."

Alyssa froze slightly at the words of Hassan and Ella.

Hassan stepped forward, "I don't have any social engagements tonight, so I can join you guys for dinner."

"But I have to go out with grandpa tonight. I promised grandpa the day before yesterday, so I can't go." Ella looked at Alyssa apologetically, "Thanks, Alyssa, or else you can invite me alone some other time?"

"That's fine."

Alyssa originally wanted to invite Ella to dinner.

Since Ella had something to do, she couldn't force her. But she had just said that she would invite Hassan to dinner. It wasn't appropriate for her to cancel the dinner now.

Alyssa looked at Leon, and Leon took her hand tightly, "I'll accompany you."

He made a stand.

No matter where she was going.

He would stay with her.

Alyssa was happy to hear his words. She really wanted to give him a hug right now.

She would do what she said.

Six o'clock in the evening.

Hot Pot Restaurant.

Alyssa and Leon sat on one side, and Hassan sat across from them.

Leon and Hassan both wore formal suits. Although they didn't wear ties, they both looked official.

Alyssa came out today in a casual outfit.

Her jacket was also very loose.

In the private room, only Alyssa's image matched the steaming hot pot.

These two men's images did not match the hot pot at all.

Alyssa explained in embarrassment, "I think the hot pot restaurant is more lively. Besides, Ella and I usually come out to eat hot pot. We both prefer to eat this. And, this hot pot restaurant is also considered the best in A City. But ... I guess you guys don't usually come here!"

"Yes, but I didn't know you like the hot pot. Otherwise, I would have come with you long ago." Leon smiled. He really didn't know that Alyssa liked hot pot. She wasn't picky about food, so all he knew was that she especially liked fish. However, ever since she got pregnant, she didn't seem to like fish much anymore.

If he had known she liked hot pot before, he would have brought her here.

Thinking about it, Leon felt that he had missed something again.

Looking at her happy face, he silently memorized that she liked to eat hot pot.

Hassan had been quite reserved, but after hearing Alyssa's words, he suddenly relaxed.
