

Chapter 1431: You Are Too Soft-Hearted

After the pilot held on for a while, he gradually lost too much blood and was exhausted. Jiang Yao looked at the man in front of her and moved. The difference was so significant that he was just trying to hold on.

She also waited until the drug worked on Sergeant Ge, even if it was just a little bit of effect.

The effect of the medicine was slow on people who had taken drugs within 24 hours, but that did not mean that it was not effective at all.

Therefore, Jiang Yao waited quietly for the pilot again. She was also glad that Sergeant Ge was only focused on dealing with Moe and did not notice the stains on his body when she threw the neurotoxin at him.

Jiang Yao could imagine how difficult dealing with a person like that was once they became bad.

Since the pilot was injured and Sergeant Ge had a temper that could not be provoked, Jiang Yao did not dare risk the pilot's life again. She could only wait for the drug to take effect.

Sergeant Ge sneered, "Jiang Yao, your gun is useless. My marksmanship is not worse than yours. If you shoot, I can still be faster than you. Using your life to exchange for that young soldier's life, you have earned it, right? However, I bet that you don't dare and are not willing to shoot me."

Sergeant Ge had interacted with Jiang Yao before, so he concluded, "You are too soft-hearted, so you won't shoot me."

Jiang Yao did not say anything. She did not need to talk to Sergeant Ge at that time.

She just needed to stall for time.

"Sergeant Ge, why don't we put down our guns?" Jiang Yao saw that the pilot was having a hard time, so she said, "Do you know how to fly a helicopter? Anyway, I don't know how to do that. If the pilot loses too much blood and passes out, then this helicopter will crash. If we put away our guns, I can bandage the pilot, and then I'll tell Lu Xingzhi not to chase us. You can choose a place that you think is safe for the pilot to land, and we'll let you go."

Sergeant Ge did not answer, but his eyes turned to Jiang Yao viciously and asked, "What did you put on me just now?"

Sergeant Ge felt that something was wrong with his body!

He knew better than most people what Lu Xingzhi's wife was like!

He did not know whether Jiang Yao was the Divine Doctor's student, but Jiang Yao had always had a relationship with the Divine Doctor. Furthermore, Jiang Yao's medical skills were also awe-inspiring. Most importantly, Jiang Yao and the Divine Doctor had a research institute that specialized in researching medicine. Sergeant Ge had heard about that when he was still in the army.

So when he began to feel that something was wrong with his body, the first thing he thought of was when he was dealing with Jiang Yao's pet cat, which had scratched him and wounded his head. Jiang Yao seemed to have raised her hand inadvertently and swung something at him, a liquid that was as cold as water to his neck.

Sergeant Ge guessed that it might be an external anesthetic or some other liquid that he was not clear about.

Jiang Yao's heart pounded. She did not expect that Sergeant Ge would react to that.

Moe followed Jiang Yao's gaze, and she quickly understood with a glance. Without any warning, Moe jumped from Jiang Yao's shoulder and grabbed Sergeant Ge's hand that was holding the gun.

Sergeant Ge reacted and shot downward. His hand began to numb, and he was losing consciousness!

Jiang Yao quickly picked up Sergeant Ge's gun and threw it out of the window. Then, she used her own gun to fire four shots at Sergeant Ge's limbs to prevent him from resisting when the drug took effect.

Chapter 1432: Can You Fly?

After doing all that, Jiang Yao stared at Sergeant Ge. She could not underestimate the veteran. An injured person could still fight back.

The pilot called out to her. Regardless of whether Jiang Yao could hear him or not, he quickly said, "There is a method to control the helicopter." That button is—"

However, he had lost too much blood. The pilot did not say anything else before he fainted.

Jiang Yao immediately panicked. "Comrade! You can't sleep! You haven't finished speaking. You haven't taught me how to fly the helicopter yet! "

At that moment, Jiang Yao really had the urge to cry. The pilot had fainted. What should she do? She had never touched a helicopter. How could she know how to fly it?

"Moe, do you know how to fly this?" Jiang Yao looked at Moe.

Moe's eyes widened. "How would I know?"

Then, the damaged propeller slowly showed signs of stopping. Jiang Yao looked up at the sky and suddenly felt despair.

"Then, can you fly?" Jiang Yao's voice was weak.

"No..." Moe imitated Jiang Yao's actions and stared blankly at the sky. Or rather, he stared blankly at the propeller that had gradually stopped.

"Cats have nine lives. Don't be afraid." Jiang Yao smiled bitterly. Sergeant Ge had ordered her to throw her phone away.

He would not allow her to have any weapon or means of communication with her.

"Bullsh*t! I only have one life!" Moe's fur stood up straight. He was furious.

How high could a person fall?

Five hundred meters?

Then, what about a thousand meters?

Like a broken machine, the propeller finally stopped after a few clangs. The body of the plane tilted bit by bit and then fell rapidly.

“Captain!”

The people behind the helicopter held their breath as they realized the propeller of the helicopter in front of them had stopped. The helicopter started to fall.

“Yaoyao!”

A shout almost shook half of the sky.

Lu Xingzhi felt his body tremble as if everything before him was pitch black.

He watched helplessly as the helicopter in front of him fell.

Other than the criminal he wanted to capture, his comrade was in that helicopter!

Even his lover was there!

There was only one Lu Xingzhi in that world, but for Lu Xingzhi, there was only one Jiang Yao.

No one could replace her, and no one could erase her.

From the moment he made up his mind to marry her, he was destined to hold her for the rest of his life until he died.

What was the feeling of heartache?

It felt like he did not want to breathe or his heart to continue beating.

The pain pierced through his heart.

There was no pain more unforgettable than that moment.

His words fell through. He swore to protect her, but he still let her get hurt in front of him, time and time again.

Lu Xingzhi had always been conceited. Even though he was born into a wealthy family in a small country, he was still proud.

He had an outstanding ability, and he was proud of that. He was confident that he could control everything in the palm of his hand to become the ruler.

However, in reality, he was an unremarkable person... He still could not change fate.

Chapter 1433: Not Optimistic

Lu Xingzhi did not dare think about it. If something really happened to her, would he still have the courage to live in that world alone?

He had never been a coward, but if he lost her, he would be the biggest coward in the world.

With a loud boom, the helicopter finally fell in a short ten seconds.

Someone beside him shouted excitedly, "Captain! The plane is not on fire! Quickly! Let's land and save them!"

It was a blessing in disguise that the helicopter was not on fire.

Lu Xingzhi quickly landed the helicopter and was the first to jump off the plane and run toward the crashed aircraft.

His footsteps were fast, like a leopard in the jungle.

"Yaoyao! Yaoyao! "Lu Xingzhi knelt on the ground and used a military knife to open the door.

His hands were shaking. The woman leaning against the door had her eyes tightly shut. Her head and shoulders were covered in blood.

The red blood stained her entire body, leaving her face completely unrecognizable.

No matter how much he shouted outside, she did not move.

The door was severely deformed. The helicopter had lost its original structure.

Lu Xingzhi used a lot of strength, but it took him a long time to tilt the warped door. Then, he carefully carried the woman out.

As soon as he touched her, her blood stained his clothes.

Lu Xingzhi lowered his head and wiped her blood-stained face. He kissed her tightly shut eyes and placed his hand on her chest. "Yaoyao... Yaoyao..."

His men dragged the other two people out. Sergeant Ge was already dead. When the plane crashed, some parts had hit his head. He was unlucky and died on the spot.

The pilot was not much better. He was covered in blood, his breath was weak, and countless wounds were on his body.

Moe was unhurt; Jiang Yao had protected him in her arms. He stood in a daze as he stared at Jiang Yao's unconscious body. He looked sorrowful.

"Captain! That is Sister-in-law's medical kit. See if there's anything that you can use. Help her first. Then we'll bring them to the hospital."

Lu Xingzhi acknowledged that and then carried Jiang Yao. He glanced at Moe, who was squatting by the side and then asked his subordinates to take Moe as well.

The pilot and Jiang Yao were on the same plane, while Sergeant Ge, who died on the spot, was put on another plane.

Many medicines were in the medical kit, but Lu Xingzhi did not recognize any of them. Fortunately, he saw Jiang Yao's special hemostatic powder. So, Lu Xingzhi sprinkled them on Jiang Yao's wounds. Then, he ordered another person to sprinkle the powder on the pilot's wounds as well.

Nothing was more important than the hemostatic powder.

After Lu Xingzhi had done all that, he protected the person in his arms in silence. His eyes were fixed on the person in his arms. He took one of her hands and put his other hand on her chest to feel her heartbeat.

"Captain, the Chief had sent a message. Ah, we have their answer now." Someone handed the walkie-talkie to Lu Xingzhi.

Lu Xingzhi spoke with a hoarse voice on the walkie-talkie, "This is Lu Xingzhi. How is Colonel Lin?"

"They're not optimistic about his injuries." Mr. Liang sighed... They were like relatives, and he even considered Colonel Lin his junior.

Chapter 1434: He Went Crazy

Lin Tuan was seriously injured in the mission, and Jiang Yao was also severely wounded.

Mr. G died on the spot. Brother Ding and Brother Jing were caught, and Sister Wen and Wen Yunfang were also captured.

That operation successfully broke through that complicated group and saved thousands of women and children. However, it also made the soldiers who participated in that operation pay a heavy price.

—

The end of March in Province A was already the season where the sun was shining brightly. There was a scene of hundreds of flowers blooming everywhere. Even many beautiful ladies on the streets had begun to wear skirts.

The sky in Province A was blue, and the white clouds were drifting. All of that showed that the city was peaceful and peaceful.

Early in the morning at the end of March, the sun broke through. The tinkling sound of bicycle bells accompanied the warm sun and signified that another new dawn had arrived.

When Jiang Yao opened her eyes, her first reaction was that her bones felt as if they had been dismantled and reassembled. It took her a long time to react. She looked at the unfamiliar environment and detected the faint smell of disinfectant in the air. Then, she looked at the drip in her hand. Jiang Yao finally confirmed that it was a hospital.

Looking out of the window, it looked like it was the morning or evening.

"Xingzhi?"

The first thing Jiang Yao did was look for Lu Xingzhi. She remembered that when she fainted, it was as if someone kept calling her name.

She really wanted to open her eyes to answer him and tell him not to worry, but she could not do it.

She did not know how worried and guilty she would be if she were to see Lu Xingzhi's plane crash.

"Ah, the heroine is awake!"

The nurse responsible for taking care of Jiang Yao was pleased to see that she was awake. "You're finally awake!"

Then, the nurse immediately left to inform the doctor.

Liang Yueze also came with the nurse and the doctor. When they saw that Jiang Yao had woken up, the three of them heaved a sigh of relief.

"Jiang Yao, you scared us to death!"

Zhou Weiqi sat down beside Jiang Yao's bed and said, "When we received Lu Xingzhi's message, we rushed to Shu City. We wanted to go there to protect you, but unexpectedly, something happened first. When we found you and Lu Xingzhi, we saw him carrying you covered in blood as he ran down from the helicopter to look for the doctor. I thought you were dead."

"Zhou Weiqi, if you don't know how to speak, then please keep your mouth shut." Chen Xuyao kicked Zhou Weiqi.

Liang Yueze glanced at Zhou Weiqi and Chen Xuyao. He waited for the doctor to check on Jiang Yao before asking, "Doctor, how is she?"

"Not too bad. She needs to rest well for a period." The doctor adjusted his glasses on his nose and looked at Jiang Yao. "Keep an eye on your condition. You're a doctor too. I believe you understand this well, right?"

Jiang Yao nodded. She asked, "Big Brother, what's going on?"

"Jiang Yao, you're finally awake!"

Chen Xuyao said, "If you don't wake up soon, Lu Xingzhi will be in trouble!"

"Ever since you were warded last night, Lu Xingzhi dared not enter your room. Then, he ran like crazy on the field. No one could stop him. He would hit anyone who would try. None of us could stop him! It's past six o'clock now. It's been seven hours, and he hasn't stopped! He was still running when it rained at midnight last night. And then the rain stopped, and he was still there. No one could stop him except for you."

Chapter 1435: She Is Awake

"What are you babbling about? Hurry up and tell Lu Xingzhi that Jiang Yao is awake!" Zhou Weiqi exclaimed and immediately turned around to run out of the room.

"Help me to the window; I want to take a look," Jiang Yao said to the nurse beside her.

The nurse did not dare and turned to look at the doctor.

The doctor had not wanted to allow it, but he decided that the couple were terrifyingly stubborn after thinking about it. If she did not get up and look at the one running on the field, she probably would not feel at ease. She was the only one who could stop him. It would not be long before they would be able to lie down together.

“Be careful. Help her to the window.” The doctor nodded.

A few nurses immediately acknowledged that and carefully helped Jiang Yao to walk toward the window.

They could see the field from the window. It was a vast sports field.

Jiang Yao looked into the distance and saw a tiny figure running on the large field.

She saw Zhou Weiqi running down the field and chasing after that figure. He reached out to pull the man, but he shouted, “Get lost!”

“Lu Xingzhi! Lu Xingzhi! Jiang Yao is awake and is looking for you!” Zhou Weiqi dodged so fast that he was almost hit. He quickly told Lu Xingzhi why he was there to get him.

Only one sentence was needed to make the man, who had been running for seven hours, stop. As if he had sensed something, he raised his head and looked at the window of a particular ward.

He saw a familiar figure standing behind the window, facing him from afar.

At that moment, Jiang Yao’s tears fell.

Liang Yueze called Zhou Weiqi and asked him to pass the phone to Lu Xingzhi. Then he handed the phone to Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao watched Lu Xingzhi put Zhou Weiqi’s phone to his ear before she said, “Xingzhi, I’m in pain. I miss you. Please come back.”

No one was willing to look away first. Even though tears blurred her vision, and she could not see anything but his figure or understand his emotions, she still stood there and looked at him.

She only knew that he was not there.

“I’m in pain. I miss you. Please come back.” Lu Xingzhi’s heart shattered.

After throwing the phone back to Zhou Weiqi, Lu Xingzhi ran to the ward.

A few nurses helped the crying patient back to the hospital bed, and the doctor left with the nurses.

Liang Yueze looked at Jiang Yao, whose face was covered in tears, and his heart trembled. “Xingzhi blamed himself for your injury. Fortunately, you’re okay.”

Then, Liang Yueze saw Lu Xingzhi’s figure appear at the door. Liang Yueze tactfully pulled Chen Xuyao out of the ward so that the couple could have some privacy.

Lu Xingzhi stood at the door anxiously for a long time. It was not until Jiang Yao reached out her hand toward him that he walked in stiffly.

“Chen Xuyao told me that you went for a run without even taking a look at me after I left the operating room.” Jiang Yao snorted when Lu Xingzhi came in. She retracted her hand and did not let Lu Xingzhi hold it.

Was she angry? Disappointed? She did not even let him touch her hand.

Lu Xingzhi lowered his eyes. It was true. He was incompetent. If it were him, he would also be angry.

She was out of surgery the previous night. It was not that he did not want to guard the ward, but he did not have the courage to do that.

He was afraid to see Jiang Yao’s pale face. No matter how much he called out to her, she did not respond to him.

Chapter 1436: Hug Me

He was scared that if he saw Jiang Yao dying on the hospital bed, he would feel sad for her. His heart ached so badly that he considered shooting himself.

He was even more concerned that he would be met with her unpleasant and dismissive glance when she awoke.

He had been tormenting himself for the whole night. He even reasoned that it would be better if he fled to his death. What right did he have to survive if he was so ineffective?

“Am I injured, deformed, and unattractive? Or am I paralyzed? Is that why you no longer desire me?” Jiang Yao made a faint pout. Her eyes were damp from tears as she gazed at him, ranting about how he did not stay by her side as she slept.

“I expected you to be the first person I saw when I awoke. But you went for a run instead!” Jiang Yao was like a little girl who was causing havoc for no apparent cause. She would have flipped over and hit the back of Lu Xingzhi’s head if it had not been for the ache in her body.

She knew he was punishing himself by jogging all night because of the sorrow and self-hate in his heart and that he was employing such a strategy to clear his thoughts, but she feigned not to know that.

Lu Xingzhi finally recovered his voice. “No, my Yaoyao is gorgeous, no matter what.”

His heart was pounding in his chest. She might still be coquettish and even throw tantrums at him. She did not despise him, and she did not loathe him either.

“I am sorry, Yaoyao...”

Lu Xingzhi drew her into his arms and took her hand in his palm. “There will not be a next time. I was so terrified that I thought I might have a heart attack.”

“I see that your heart is fine. Zhou Weiqi said that you ran for seven hours without stopping, and the rain did not stop either. You’re pretty good! Are you planning to take advantage of my illness to show off your charm and physical strength in front of those young nurses and then hook up with a new wife?”

“I saw you lying there with blood all over your body, and your eyes closed like a dead puppet. At the time, I despised myself and despised you.”

“If you get a cold, don’t come to me and beg for medicine! Look at what you can accomplish—run for seven hours! I would not have endangered my life operating on you at Jindo City Hospital if I had known sooner. I would have just let you whimper in pain! It keeps you from neglecting your own body! Sacrificing oneself is more preferable to rushing to your death!”

“Thank goodness you’re fine.” He covered her hand in his palms and placed it on his cheek like a child.

Jiang Yao felt the warmth in her hand.

Was he sobbing?

Jiang Yao’s reprimand came to an abrupt halt. She could not utter those words as she listened to him.

Her heart was moved. In a moment, an enormous emotion overtook her, and she swallowed all of her feelings.

He had punished himself fiercely only because she had been harmed. He ran for seven hours without thinking about his life. He hid his face in her palm and sobbed silently because she awoke.

He was Lu Xingzhi—it was impossible to harden her heart to him. He always knew how to ease her heart or make it hurt.

She touched his face tenderly with her other hand—gently, thoughtfully, and with a sense of importance.

She stopped scolding him. She moved her hand to gently wipe the corner of his eyes as he slowly raised his head from her palm and murmured, “Hug me.”

Chapter 1437: Kiss Me

It was a soft word, but it was what she wanted to do the most right now.

She missed his embrace. She missed the warmth and strength of being held tightly in his embrace.

Even if her body hurt from being held by him, she was still hoping that time would stop at that second forever.

Lu Xingzhi was especially careful in his embrace. He looked at her for a long time before he slowly stood up. He bent down again and held her gently in his embrace.

Very gently, very carefully.

It was as if he was afraid that he would break her if he were too heavy.

Under his palm was the warmth left behind by his kiss—it was wet.

“Hug me a little tighter.” She leaned her head on his shoulder and hugged him tightly. Her hands were wrapped around his waist tightly.

Even though the sun had already risen, his clothes still carried the cool air of spring. However, unlike his clothes, his back was wet. Perhaps it was the sweat from running for his life for the whole night or the rain marks from the rain last night.

The stubble on his beard was prickly. It would sweep across her face from time to time along with his movements.

After more than half a month, his hair had grown. It was as soft as his previous hair.

“Hug me tighter. Only then can I feel that I am still alive. Only then that can I feel that I am still by your side.”

When the plane crashed, Jiang Yao thought that Lu Xingzhi would send her off, and he would handle her funeral matters.

At that moment, she was still regretting it. What should she do? She had yet to leave a will, and she had yet to tell him that she loved him.

Her arms tightened. Even though Jiang Yao felt she was about to lose her breath, she still could not bear letting go.

She raised her head and used her lips to find Lu Xingzhi's, then pressed them on his.

Jiang Yao was shy when it came to love. She rarely took the initiative to kiss Lu Xingzhi. Even if she had no other choice, she probably only kissed him lightly like a dragonfly.

That was probably the only time she could not wait to kiss him and get close to him.

She traced his lips, then pried his lips open and burrowed into it.

“Kiss me,” she whispered softly, wanting his response.

Nothing could test one's emotions more than the moment of life and death.

If it were not for her brush with death, Jiang Yao would never have known that she loved that man so much, to the extent that it was beyond her expectations. She loved him so much that it melted into her bones and carved into her heart.

The grass was full of warblers and birds' occasional chirping outside the window. The air was filled with the fragrance of the soil after the rain and the scent of flowers.

The spring in March was wonderful. The wind was soft, and the sunshine was very bright and beautiful.

However, what did the beauty of March have to do with them?

There was no one else in that world.

There was only him and her in their world.

A kiss could create a happy world for each other.

There was no noise, no noise, and no danger.

Lu Xingzhi only let go of her reluctantly when he sensed something was wrong with her breath and ended the long kiss.

He picked up a pillow and let her lean against it. Then, he gently covered her with the quilt. However, the hands under the quilt were still intertwined.

Their eyes were even more intertwined than their fingers. The kiss that ended could not separate them from each other. They were so greedy that it seemed like they wanted to hide in their eyes.

Chapter 1438: Don't Believe In Legends

"Don't do anything that makes my heart ache in the future." Jiang Yao let out a soft sigh and broke the silence. The palm under the blanket gently pushed the other hand. "Go take a shower and change out of your wet clothes. You might catch a cold if you wear them for too long."

"Okay."

Lu Xingzhi responded very quickly, like an obedient child who was especially afraid of angering the elders.

He only agreed, but he did not show any intention of letting go of her hand.

He could not bear to part, and he could not bear to leave.

"Go!"

Jiang Yao pushed him with her other hand. "Change your clothes and go buy some breakfast. After you've eaten, come up and rest with me for a while."

Lu Xingzhi moved and let go of her hand. However, he bent down and kissed the corner of her slightly raised lips. He was so sticky that he did not look like a man who was almost 30 years old but like a three-year-old boy.

Jiang Yao was staying in a high-class ward. She had her own pantry and bathroom. After Lu Xingzhi went for a shower, Jiang Yao finally remembered to look for Moe. After searching around the room, she saw Moe lying on the corner of the sofa, staring at her.

"Are you okay?" Jiang Yao asked worriedly.

After all, Moe had crashed with her. Even though she protected Moe in front of her chest, she could not guarantee that he would not get hurt.

Moe's eyes moved, and he jumped onto Jiang Yao's bed. "I'm not hurt."

Moe wagged his tail and looked at Jiang Yao's chest. It was soft, and it saved his cat's life.

"I'm a high-level pet butler, and I only have one life."

Jiang Yao was relieved that Moe was fine, and then she had the heart to tease him. "I thought cats had nine lives."

"Do you believe in legends? Stupid..." He did not say his favorite curse. He curled his tail and looked at the bathroom. "If you didn't wake up, your man would have died."

"He—"

Jiang Yao looked in the direction of the bathroom. She did not see a person taking a shower but a person standing there in a daze with water running over his head. She did not know what he was thinking.

Jiang Yao's heart throbbed violently, and she felt a slight pain.

She was injured. Her body might have been injured, but it was her heart that was in pain.

Jiang Yao could feel it. He blamed himself.

He was terrified. Even now, he was still afraid.

That fearless man was afraid that she would get hurt or die.

Jiang Yao lowered her eyes and averted her gaze from the direction of the bathroom.

After waiting for two to three minutes, Jiang Yao finally spoke in the direction of the bathroom, "Xingzhi, hurry up and take a shower. I'm hungry!"

After shouting, she saw the person in the bathroom snap out of his daze and quickly take off his clothes.

Five minutes later, Lu Xingzhi came out of the bathroom. He must have really thought that Jiang Yao was hungry, so he washed very quickly.

Their luggage had already been sent from Shu City, so Lu Xingzhi changed into clean clothes when he came out of the bathroom.

"I'll buy some porridge for you. Lie down and don't move. Wait for me to come back," Lu Xingzhi said as he put on his thin coat and walked out of the door.

Liang Yueze and the other two had been sitting and waiting in the corridor. When they saw Lu Xingzhi, they quickly went to him and asked, "Where are you going? When Jiang Yao woke up, she looked for you. When she knew that you were running, she asked the nurse to help her to the window to take a look. When she saw you, her heart ached."

Chapter 1439: They Did Not Quarrel

"She's hungry. I'll go buy some breakfast," Lu Xingzhi replied.

"Stay here and accompany Jiang Yao. I'll buy breakfast." Chen Xuyao stood up and was about to leave. However, he only dared to turn around when Lu Xingzhi spoke.

"I'll go."

Without giving Chen Xuyao another chance to speak, Lu Xingzhi left in large strides.

The three of them watched his back as he left in a hurry. They did not know what was going on, but they felt a sense of desolation when they looked at him.

"Did they quarrel?"

Zhou Weiqi scratched his head worriedly. "Why do I feel like Lu Xingzhi's mood seems to have worsened after seeing Jiang Yao?"

He did not hear them fight, so they probably did not. Furthermore, Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao would not have fought. Chen Xuyao said, "Jiang Yao isn't someone who would make trouble for no reason. Lu Xingzhi isn't someone who would argue, so the two of them would not have fought."

Chen Xuyao knew Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao pretty well. The two of them had never quarreled before, and their personalities would not allow that to happen.

Besides, Jiang Yao always accommodated Lu Xingzhi in almost everything, so why would they argue?

“Normally, Lu Xingzhi would have asked us to run errands and stay in the ward to accompany Jiang Yao. But just now, he refused to let Chen Xuyao buy breakfast and insisted on going alone.” The more Lu Xingzhi thought about it, the stranger he felt. Then, he turned to look at Liang Yueze and asked, “Big Brother, do you think what I said makes sense?”

Liang Yueze looked away. He turned his head and glanced at the confused and worried Zhou Weiqi. He hummed and did not explain anything. Then, he walked into Jiang Yao’s ward.

Liang Yueze was aware that Lu Xingzhi’s emotions might not recover in a short period.

The arrogant man almost watched his beloved woman die in front of him. Liang Yueze thought that Lu Xingzhi might need a long time to suppress that matter in his heart.

After all, everyone was too young. They always thought that they could control everything, but in the end, they realized that they could not control anything.

Just like him, he understood Lu Xingzhi’s feelings.

When Liang Yueze entered the ward, the other two men eagerly followed him. When they saw Jiang Yao lying on the hospital bed, she seemed to be in a good mood as she stroked her pet. They squeezed past Liang Yueze and sat down on the side of Jiang Yao’s hospital bed again. “Jiang Yao, your pet is really amazing. We’ve heard of police dogs and military dogs that had professional training, but we’ve never heard of such a powerful cat! And that cat looks like it was born not too long ago.”

“No, this breed of cat can only get this big. In fact, he’s already an adult.” Jiang Yao could only use that answer to explain the difference in Moe. “This breed of cat has a very high IQ.”

“What breed?”

Zhou Weiqi stretched out his hand and poked the cat’s face. “Jiang Yao, can you get me one too?”

“He is unique.”

Jiang Yao smiled. “So you’d better get a military dog.”

“Accidental crossbreeding?”

Zhou Weiqi looked envious. “Jiang Yao, you are too lucky!”

Accidental crossbreeding!

Moe raised his head and rolled his eyes at the idiot beside him. Then, he jumped down from the bed. He thought, ‘I can’t be too close to the idiot because stupidity is contagious.’

Chapter 1440: Lucky

"I also think that I'm lucky." Jiang Yao saw the disdain Moe had for Zhou Weiqi and smiled. "I didn't die from a plane crash, so of course, I'm lucky. By the way, what happened to the others? Where's Colonel Lin? Have they been rescued? Where are Zhou Junmin and the others? Where's the pilot?"

"Zhou Junmin has been locked up ever since he went missing. He didn't even get a drop of water. He was tortured until his skin peeled off, and his bones were broken several times. He was in the operating theater for five to six hours before he came out. Colonel Lin was seriously injured and was shot several times. He almost died in surgery; they had to resuscitate him several times. Later, Doctor Ouyang came to take over the surgery. After that, he finally managed to save Colonel Lin. The Red Garnet was slightly injured. It's nothing serious."

After Chen Xuyao finished his answer, Zhou Weiqi sighed. "We were really worried last night. All of you made us worried. You, Colonel Lin, and Zhou Junmin, all of you. Fortunately, nothing happened."

"Where's the pilot?"

Jiang Yao noticed that they did not mention that person.

Zhou Weiqi and Chen Xuyao looked at each other, not knowing what to say.

So, Liang Yueze said, "He's brain dead, in a vegetative state."

"How can that be?"

Jiang Yao felt uncomfortable when she thought of the young soldier quietly handing her the gun. He trusted her, so he gave her his only weapon.

Liang Yueze replied, "When the plane crashed, some parts hit his head. Even though he used his hand to block a part of it, he still received a heavy blow. He's still recovering in the hospital. The doctor said that it's possible for his body to recover in the future and that it's possible for him to wake up. It's also possible for him to continue sleeping like that. Your medical skills are good. When you are better, you can go and take a look at him."

Everyone in the Liang family knew about Jiang Yao's medical skills and trusted her. They were also very confident in Jiang Yao's medical skills.

Last night, everyone said it would be great if the Divine Doctor were there. It would be great if they could find the Divine Doctor. However, only Liang Yueze and a few others knew that the Divine Doctor was also in surgery.

"What's the result of the operation? And what about Sergeant Ge?" Jiang Yao asked. "Did you catch Ah Da? Did you catch the big boss of the group?"

"Sergeant Ge died on the spot when the plane crashed. He did not even have a chance to be rescued. Ah Da was caught and is being interrogated." Liang Yueze did not tell Jiang Yao that Ah Da was impervious and refused to say a word.

If Sergeant Ge had not died, perhaps he could have escaped. Unfortunately, he died on the spot.

Liang Yueze had mixed feelings when he thought of Sergeant Ge. "You should talk to Xingzhi about what happened to Sergeant Ge. Don't let it get into his head."

“Okay.”

Jiang Yao nodded. She did not need Liang Yueze to explain that to her. Sergeant Ge’s incident had a significant impact on Lu Xingzhi.

While they were talking, Lu Xingzhi had already bought breakfast and came back. He also bought breakfast for his brothers.

Liang Yueze and the others were tactful. They took their breakfast and went to eat elsewhere. They did not stay there.

Lu Xingzhi did not tell them to stay... When the three of them left, he washed the dishes for Jiang Yao.