

Chapter 1431: Gone

This was the only way she could think of.

“I don’t think there’s any other way other than DNA. It’s more convincing.”

Queen Yulia gripped the towel on her lap tightly. Shen Fanxing stared quietly at the poised old lady who couldn’t suppress her nervousness. A few seconds later, she said,

“There’s no need for DNA. Just tell me. Your mother...”

“Your Majesty, the hot water is ready. Please take a hot bath as soon as possible.”

Leah suddenly walked out of the bathroom and interrupted Queen Yulia “unconsciously”.

Only then did the Queen look enlightened. She hurriedly said, “Go take a bath and get rid of the cold.”

Seeing Shen Fanxing enter the bathroom, Leah walked to Queen Yulia.

“Your Majesty, although what Princess Bailey did was wrong, what she said makes sense. You care too much about this matter, so it’s inevitable that you’ll be impulsive...”

“Leah, I know you’re worried.” Queen Yulia interrupted Leah’s earnest persuasion. “I was rash just now, but this is about Phoneix. I can’t not react at all.

I miss her, Leah. I miss her too much... This girl has given me hope... I have a feeling that she is... my daughter’s child...”

Her voice was choked and her heart ached so much that she could barely breathe.

Tears streamed down Queen Yulia’s face again. She clutched her chest tightly and her shoulders trembled.

Her sorrowful expression made one’s heart ache.

Tears glistened in Leah’s eyes.

“Lia knows, Your Majesty... Don’t be too sad. Miss Shen is here. There are still many ways to verify...”

Queen Yulia nodded and looked in the direction of the bathroom, her eyes filled with anticipation.

Ye Jingyun took the shortest time to get here.

When the door was knocked, Queen Yulia frowned.

Leah looked at the electronic device and said softly,

Yulia’s expression darkened. “Why are there only the three of them acting tonight? They said I’m sleeping!”

Leah nodded and walked to the door. She opened it and said softly,

“Princess Ava, the Queen is tired today and has decided to rest. You can come back tomorrow.”

Ye Jingyun frowned slightly, but she smiled and said, “Lia, there are clearly outsiders in Mother’s dormitory. Why are you sleeping now?”

Leah’s eyebrows twitched. “Princess Ava, do we have to make things clear? Her Majesty is very tired and doesn’t want to see anyone. Is that clear?”

Leah repeated the incident again, making Ye Jingyun want to slap this old woman.

Her lips twitched and she couldn’t maintain her expression.

“Lia, I’ve heard some things from Bailey. As my mother’s personal attendant, how can you allow such an unknown person to get close to her? After all, she’s the ruler of Country Y. Can she meet anyone?”

“...”

Ye Jingyun didn’t even give Leah a chance to speak and said,

“Also, please consider our identities and think about how to speak to me... Is it because I’ve been aloof from worldly affairs for so many years and look very easygoing that you’ve forgotten that I’m the princess of Country Y?”

Leah’s face gradually tightened. Soon, her lips curled into a sneer as she said,

“That’s right. Since you know that you’re the noble princess of Country Y, why did you suddenly enter the palace at such a late hour and argue with me at the door? Princess Ava, you’ve never acted so rashly before.

I’m really curious. Other than the special occasion of the state banquet today, why are the three of you so... nervous?”

Ye Jingyun’s eyebrows twitched as panic surged in her heart. Her fingers that were hanging by her sides curled slightly as she gulped and said slowly,

“...A person of unknown origin tried so hard to get close to Mother with ulterior motives. Do you think we shouldn’t be worried?”

“Who said her background is unknown?”

Yulia’s dark and cold voice came from the room. Leah turned and saw her walking out. She immediately turned and stood aside respectfully.

Ye Jingyun straightened her body and strode into the room.

“Mother, what are you thinking? You want to keep anyone by your side...”

Yulia frowned. Now that all her thoughts were focused on one thing, she had no time to argue with her.

“Why are you here so late?”

“Of course, I’m afraid that you’ll be deceived by someone on impulse.”

Ye Jingyun supported Ulea as they walked in. As she spoke, she sized up the room.

Confusion flashed across her eyes when she didn't see anyone.

Queen Yulia said coldly, "As expected of mother and daughter. How stupid do you think I am?"

Ye Jingyun sighed and said earnestly.

"Mother, people are unpredictable. There are many bold people now. It's not impossible for someone to exploit your weakness. You've watched me grow up. You also know how respectful Bailey and Bei Xi are to you. Do you think we're disloyal to you? Don't conclude that she's the person you're looking for just because of a song..."

"Ava," said Queen Yulia suddenly.

"What's wrong, Mother?"

Yulia looked up at Ye Jingyun expressionlessly. "Are you telling me the truth?"

Ye Jingyun was stunned and couldn't react.

"What?"

"Back then, you told me that my daughter, Phoneix, was dead. Is that true?"

Ye Jingyun's face froze and her palms turned cold. Her fingertips trembled uncontrollably.

Back then...

Looking at her, Yulia narrowed her eyes slowly and asked again,

"Was what you said back then true?"

The strong sense of oppression made Ye Jingyun's heart tremble. She didn't even dare to breathe.

"Of course... it's true... I saw her body being cremated with my own eyes..."

Yes, because she was cremated, she would never have the chance to see her daughter again.

However, she was still fantasizing countless times. If her daughter was still around, what kind of life would she be living every day? Would someone give her a good life on New Year's Day? Would she grow up healthily? Would she go to school well? Would she meet the prince she liked? Would she have a handsome and beautiful child?

In her world, her daughter had always been alive, living in a corner of the world.

But Ava was always the one who had to face reality and remind her that her daughter was gone.

Chapter 1432: Still Alive!!!

But Ava was always the one who had to face reality and remind her that her daughter was gone.

"Really?" She stared at Ye Jingyun and replied casually. There was no emotion in her voice or expression.

Ye Jingyun pursed her lips and finally revealed a calm smile.

She had nothing to fear.

A song couldn't mean anything. Moreover, as long as she was around, she wouldn't let her succeed even if she tried her best.

"Yes, Mother. So this Miss Shen today is really suspicious..."

"She never thought of proving anything and she made it clear to Bailey.

It was just a coincidence that I was familiar with the tune. It wasn't a big deal. If Bei Xi hadn't suddenly rushed up and splashed water on her, she would have left the palace long ago.

In order to prevent me from being drenched by the water back then, I felt bad and asked her to come to my room to take a shower and warm up. Where did this liar come from?"

Ye Jingyun frowned deeply. This wretched girl, Bei Xi, was simply a fool who couldn't do anything right!

"... Is that so? Then after Ms Shen has showered, I'll bring her out. I want to go home anyway."

Queen Yulia glanced at her and said nothing.

Just then, the bathroom door opened and Shen Fanxing walked out with a warm blush.

Wrapped in a white bathrobe, she stood at the door and watched them.

"Where are my clothes?"

She had clearly taken it off and placed it on the rack outside the bathroom, but she couldn't find it when she went out.

Leah quickly said, "I got someone to dry it. We've prepared other clothes for you..."

"When will my clothes be ready?"

After all, it was given to her by Ah Chuan.

Queen Yulia stood up and walked towards Shen Fanxing.

"Your hair is still wet," said Queen Yulia with a smile. Leah immediately handed her a towel, as if everything had been arranged in advance.

Shen Fanxing dodged Queen Yulia's attempt to dry her hair.

"I can do it myself."

Queen Yulia handed her the towel, but her gaze fell on her chest where her collar was intertwined.

Shen Fanxing raised her hand to dry her hair, causing the collar of the bathrobe to open slightly before closing again. Her fair skin looked even more delicate after the bath.

Sensing her gaze, Shen Fanxing stopped what she was doing and lowered her gaze to look at Queen Yulia. Her brows twitched and she widened the distance between them.

"Fanxing!"

Queen Yulia shouted anxiously and grabbed Shen Fanxing's arm.

A trace of viciousness flashed across Ye Jingyun's eyes. How could such an attitude only allow her to take a bath?

"Is there anything else?" asked Shen Fanxing as she lowered her hand.

"Can I... take a good look at you?"

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and remained silent for a long time. "Why?"

"I'm begging you."

Her pleading expression and trembling voice made Shen Fanxing's heart tremble violently. A wave of bitterness surged and burned her eyes.

Beg her...

Leah suddenly burst into tears.

Her queen had been proud for her entire life. She had endured for her entire life. She had been strong for her entire life. No matter how difficult it was, she had never heard her beg.

But now... she used the word "beg".

Shen Fanxing couldn't ignore the desire and humility emanating from Queen Yulia.

She shouldn't have done this.

"May I?" asked Queen Yulia again.

Shen Fanxing tightened her grip on the towel and nodded lightly. Her voice was stiff and indifferent.

"... Sure."

Queen Yulia was almost in tears of joy. She looked at her gratefully and slowly raised her hand.

Her hands trembled violently.

Shen Fanxing's heart ached and she averted her gaze.

He placed his warm palm on her cheek and caressed her skin gently, brushing her damp hair to the side.

"My Phoenix doesn't like to dry her hair after showering. She likes to play pranks and insisted on throwing water droplets at me. I don't blame her... Because I'm too busy. I like to hear her laughter after she has her way..."

Shen Fanxing's eyes quivered and she bit her lips silently.

She knew that she had had such a prank when she was young. Her mother would always look angry, but she would always smile helplessly and lovingly.

He tapped her nose lightly as if he was punishing her. "You're so naughty! Who do you take after? Who do you take after?"

Whatever she wanted.

No wonder she had smiled so beautifully then.

Perhaps she had thought of herself when she was young.

Queen Yulia brushed past her eyes and finally lowered her head.

Just as Shen Fanxing thought that this matter was over, she suddenly felt a hand on her collar.

She looked down, but someone had already pulled open the left collar.

Her mind went blank.

She did not expect this kind-looking old lady to suddenly act like a hooligan!

Immediately after, a gasp sounded beside her.

Leah looked at her in surprise, her hands covering her wide-open lips.

“Oh my god...”

Shen Fanxing pulled her collar up immediately, but Queen Yulia refused to let go.

She gripped her clothes tightly, her entire hand turning pale.

“Let go!”

Shen Fanxing was a little angry and her voice darkened.

Even though they were both women, she still felt ashamed when half of her chest was exposed.

Queen Yulia acted as if she didn't hear anything and raised her hand to cover the tattoo on her left chest. Her hand trembled, and the sight of her touching it made one panic.

“What is this? When did this happen?! Who did this to you?!”

Shen Fanxing lowered her head to look at the spot she was caressing. She suddenly understood something.

She lowered her head and looked at the old man who was on the verge of breaking down with a complicated expression.

“It's probably a tattoo. I had it when I could remember. My mother gave it to me personally.”

“Oh my god...” Queen Yulia muttered and looked up at her with a smile. “I knew it. I knew I wouldn't be wrong...”

This action seemed to have exhausted all her energy. Queen Yulia slowly clutched her chest and collapsed to the ground.

“Your Majesty!”

Leah went to her, but Yulia gripped her hand tightly. “It's her, Leah... my daughter... my Phoenix isn't dead... God...”

Tears streamed down Leah's face as she nodded vigorously.

"Yes, yes! That's great, that's really great... The princess is still here, and so is the little princess... All here, all here..."

Chapter 1433: Confidence

"Yes, yes! That's great, that's really great... The princess is still here, and so is the little princess... All here, all here..."

"Yes, yes, there's no mistake, there's no mistake..." The joy on Yulia's face and her tears of joy made Shen Fanxing's heart ache.

So this was what the tattoo on her chest meant...

It turned out that her mother was really... the princess of Country Y...

Her stiff eyes flickered. She still found it unbelievable.

The identity of a princess seemed to be too far away from her.

Even now, she felt that this matter had nothing to do with her.

How could she be...

Queen Yulia's cries of joy and Leia's sobs of comfort echoed in the room. Both her sight and hearing were mixed.

The resentment in her heart had long been disintegrated.

When Ye Jingyun saw this scene, she swayed, not knowing what had happened.

The only thing she could tell was that Queen Yulia had confirmed Shen Fanxing's identity.

'How?'

Her mind was in a mess as she tried to find a reason to respond. However, her trembling legs couldn't help but move towards Shen Fanxing.

She wanted to see what kind of thing could make her mother so certain!

However, Shen Fanxing didn't give her the chance.

When her gaze landed on him, he pulled his collar up. His exquisite eyebrows were stained with a thin layer of coldness, and his cold and sharp eyes glanced at her openly.

Ye Jingyun stopped in her tracks, feeling a chill run down her spine.

This woman...

She retracted her gaze and cursed in her heart. When she saw Queen Yulia, who had lost control of her emotions, she hesitated for a moment before helping her up.

"Mother, don't be agitated. There's no 100% conclusion yet. You have to take care of your health."

Queen Yulia shook her head. “No, my Phoneix is still alive. Fanxing is Phoneix’s daughter, my granddaughter... Please God, my daughter is still alive...”

“Mother!” Ye Jingyun shook her head firmly. “This woman has obviously come prepared! You must calm down and not be bewitched by her so easily...”

Queen Yulia closed her eyes tightly, her brows furrowing.

Even through her eyelids, one could see the impatience and anger in her eyes.

Leah was also furious. Seeing the queen in such a state, she couldn’t help but say,

“Her Majesty has her own considerations. Only she knows if it’s her own kin or not. It’s a joyous occasion to be able to find Princess Phoneix and the little princess! You don’t understand anything, but what you think of is always denial! Why is that?”

Ye Jingyun’s face turned red from Leah’s scolding. She was embarrassed and angry. She immediately glared at Leah and said angrily,

“Lia, you... you’re too presumptuous! Don’t judge a gentleman with your pettiness! I’m doing this because I’m afraid that the higher my mother’s expectations are, the greater her disappointment will be! Why do you think I’m doing this?! Do you want to wait until this woman turns the entire royal family upside down before you’re satisfied?”

If you don’t understand what I said just now, I’ll warn you again. Remember your identity. You’re a servant and I’m the master...”

“Enough.”

Queen Yulia said calmly before slowly opening her eyes. She turned her head to look at Enye Jingyun with a deep expression.

“Mother...”

Queen Yulia turned around and held Shen Fanxing’s hand. Seeing her calm expression, she smiled.

“There’s no need to wait until then. I’m very sure now. She’s my granddaughter. I won’t calculate the trouble that Bei Xi caused today with her. In another way, I should thank her. If she hadn’t splashed half a bucket of water on Fanxing, I might not have found out so quickly... She’s my real granddaughter.”

Ye Jingyun’s body swayed and her voice turned sharp. “Mother!”

“Enough, Ava. It’s late. Hurry back.”

“But...”

Seeing that Queen Yulia had made up her mind, Ye Jingyun still wanted to hold on to something. She had just taken a few steps forward when Leah blocked her way.

“Princess Ava, please!”

Ye Jingyun gritted her teeth and looked at Leah, wishing she could crush her.

Leah's expression was indifferent and unwavering.

After taking one last look at Queen Yulia, Ye Jingyun paused for a few seconds before choosing to leave.

No, she couldn't let these two women live.

Especially Ji Fengmian. It seemed like she had to urge the people there to make a move as soon as possible!

Damn it!

She should have made up her mind to get rid of the mother and daughter as soon as possible. In the end, it had dragged on until now!

She shouldn't have had so many concerns!

It wasn't until Ye Jingyun left unwillingly that Shen Fanxing retracted her gaze. Her eyes glinted coldly.

Her and Bailey's actions today made her suspect that they had long known the truth.

In order to prevent her from leaving Ping Cheng City for the state banquet, they had deliberately found someone to hurt her mother.

She would remember this debt for the time being because she felt that Ye Jingyun had done more than this.

She guessed that a smart and strong woman like her mother would have chosen to jump into the sea herself back then.

After all, she was a member of the royal family. Her methods could not be underestimated.

'Why?'

Was it because he didn't want her and her mother to return to Country Y and snatch away the supreme life they had enjoyed all these years?

Queen Yulia calmed herself down and held Shen Fanxing's hand tightly, as if she would disappear if she loosened her grip.

"Fanxing, do you know? Do you know? I... I'm your grandmother. Your mother is my daughter..."

Shen Fanxing retracted her gaze and looked at Queen Yulia.

"... I know."

She couldn't deny the truth.

Now that she thought about it, there was a reason behind her mother's attitude before she came to Country Y.

Let her acknowledge her roots,

It proved that she was of royal blood.

In that case, there was nothing she could not admit.

She was.

Because it was a fact that her mother was the daughter of Queen Yulia.

It was also a fact that she was Queen Yulia's grandson.

Yulia heaved a sigh of relief. She had thought that with her attitude just now, she would reject this matter.

Yet, he was so straightforward.

Chapter 1434: I Only Trust the People Around Me

"I thought you would deny it..."

Shen Fanxing replied calmly, "So what if I deny it?"

Queen Yulia shook her head and tightened her grip. "No, it's useless to deny it. You're my biological grandson."

As she spoke, she went forward to hug Shen Fanxing.

Like a child, he hugged her tightly, afraid that she would leave.

Her actions made Shen Fanxing smile imperceptibly.

"Then what else is there to say?"

She was stubborn and couldn't explain why she wanted to talk to this high and mighty old lady with slight emotions.

She was no saint.

Her mother had disappeared for nearly forty years and had given all her love to another person. She felt indignant and aggrieved for her mother.

Although she had her own reasons for feeling helpless and sad, the gap of more than thirty years did exist.

She felt wronged herself.

Because Bailey and Bei Xi, who had grown up under her protection, had gone overboard with her.

Queen Yulia didn't care about Shen Fanxing's tone and said,

"Yes, there's nothing much to say. So tomorrow night, you'll attend the banquet with me. I can't wait to announce your identity in front of everyone."

Shen Fanxing frowned and asked, "Can I reject?"

"I can't."

“If I have to...”

“There are no ifs. If you have one, I have mine. The outcome won’t change. You have to attend with me.”

Shen Fanxing was speechless. How was this different from Bo Jinchuan’s rejection?

Shen Fanxing didn’t leave the palace and Queen Yulia arranged a room for her.

Helpless, Shen Fanxing requested to see Tang Jian, the doctor arranged by Bo Jinchuan.

“If you won’t let me out, then bring my personal doctor in.”

Queen Yulia said, “There are many doctors in the palace...”

“Sorry, I only trust the people around me.”

Queen Yulia could only send someone to fetch Tang Jian...

Ye Jingyun couldn’t help but urge Ping Cheng before calling Bei Lei to ask about Bei Xi.

Thinking of how Eulia had mentioned Bei Xi, he wished he could strangle this incompetent idiot!

She had been on guard for more than ten years, but in the end, everything was ruined by her.

This damned beast!

“She’s in the hospital now,” said Bailey.

When Ye Zhiqing rushed to the hospital angrily to skin Bei Xi alive, she saw Bei Xi tilting her chin and nose, preparing for surgery.

His face was indescribably ugly.

Ye Zhiqing was shocked and angry. When she saw this face, she almost fainted!

“Damn it! What’s wrong with the face I gave you?! You actually did plastic surgery for me?!”

She steadied herself and roared. The entire hospital was filled with her angry voice.

“Mom...” Bei Xi cried aggrievedly. “You have to avenge me. That b*tch, Shen Fanxing, was the one who beat me up. Moreover, it was at the state banquet. How embarrassing...”

If not for the fact that she didn’t recognize her face, Ye Jingyun would have slapped her.

In the end, she couldn’t do anything and left the hospital.

“Idiot! Idiot! Idiot!”

She screamed in anger!

She wanted to tear the entire night sky apart.

Even if Bei Lei tried her best, she couldn't stop the news from spreading.

Ye Jingyun had just finished screaming when a few reporters rushed out of the car in front of the hospital and surrounded her.

The two of them were caught off guard and left in a hurry. They didn't even bring their bodyguards!

"Princess Ava, what do you think of what happened at the state banquet?"

"Miss Bailey, why did you insist that Miss Shen is a swindler?"

"I heard that Miss Shen is very likely to be Queen Yulia's real granddaughter. What do you think, Princess Ava?"

...

Ye Jingyun's face darkened.

She had no intention of responding to the reporters' questions.

"Princess Ava, why aren't you answering? According to our investigation, you were once best friends with the queen's biological daughter when you were young. Could there be something going on?"

The reporter's question hit Ye Jingyun's sensitive spot. She looked up abruptly, her gaze cold and her face dark.

"What do you mean? I'm friends with her. What has it got to do with Shen Fanxing being the princess of Country Y?"

The reporter smiled and said, "Because Ms Shen is your friend's daughter..."

Ye Jingyun pursed her lips and gritted her teeth without saying a word.

She wasn't an idiot. This damn reporter was trying to get information out of her!

Bei Lei looked at Ye Jingyun for a few seconds before she suddenly walked to the front and smiled elegantly at the reporters.

"First of all, I want to apologize to all the citizens of Country Y. We didn't expect such a mess to happen on such an important day. I can't deny that I'm indeed responsible for this.

Back then, I was afraid that my grandmother would be deceived by someone. I was driven by anger and worry, so I acted rashly..."

The reporter threw out another question. "Why are you so sure that Ms Shen is a liar?"

Bailey smiled and said,

"Because I've heard from my mother that Grandma's real daughter has died a long time ago. She saw her being cremated with her own eyes. How could she have a granddaughter? Moreover, Grandma also said that she was too agitated. She shouldn't have judged everything just because of a song. Grandma has always been smart. How could she fall for such a trick?"

Ye Jingyun was pushed aside by the reporters. When she heard Bei Lei's words, her mind exploded.

After the reporters left, Ye Jingyun held onto the pillar at the entrance of the hospital for a long time.

One, two...

“Mom, let’s go...”

Bei Lei walked to Ye Jingyun’s side nonchalantly and smiled. In the end, she received a slap from Ye Jingyun.

Her head was knocked to the side.

Bailey was silent for a few seconds before she turned to look at Ye Jingyun.

Ye Jingyun glared at her angrily. “What did you mean by those words just now? Bailey, don’t tell me you didn’t understand that those reporters were trying to get information out of you!”

“Did I say anything wrong? Grandma didn’t say anything at the state banquet back then. Everyone knows that a piano piece can’t prove anything! Isn’t that the truth? What else do you want me to say? That Shen Fanxing is Grandma’s granddaughter?”

“You know that’s not what I’m talking about!”

Bailey suddenly sneered and said in a sinister tone, “That’s the only way I can guarantee a way out. Otherwise, we’ll all be chased out by Grandma!”

“...”

Yuan Zhengchong immediately heard about what happened at the state banquet and smiled.

“You deserve it. How dare you target Country Y’s royal family?”

Yuan Sichun felt relieved and sneered, “Then she has shot herself in the foot this time. She has embarrassed herself all over the world. How satisfying.”

Yuan Zhengchong nodded and said, “With my press conference yesterday and today’s news, the Bo Consortium’s board meeting will let Bo Jinchuan know what it feels like to lose!”

Yuan Sichun laughed maniacally and said, “Yes, I want him to understand how stupid he is to choose Shen Fanxing to give up on me! I want him to lose everything because of Shen Fanxing!”

Chapter 1435: Change of Target

Yuan Zhengchong couldn’t help but take another look at her. However, when he saw her body, he sighed.

“It’s good that you feel better. The banquet is about to start. You two sisters, get ready.”

Only then did Yuan Zhengchong look up at Yuan Muchun, who had been silent all this while. His eyes turned cold.

“When the time comes, accompany your sister! You have to perform well in the future. You should know the nature of this banquet. The Yuan family has raised you for so many years. It’s time to repay them. If you can’t find a suitable person for this banquet, I’ll...”

“Are you going to marry me to that fool from Ping Cheng?”

Yuan Zhengchong paused and looked at Yuan Muchun in surprise. He had never thought that the well-behaved second daughter would speak to him in such a cold tone.

“What nonsense are you spouting?!”

Yuan Muchun’s lips twitched coldly.

The atmosphere was a little awkward. Yuan Sichun said coincidentally, “Muchun, why are you talking to Father like that? Don’t you know how hard it has been for him?”

“Yes, it’s tough, but who caused it?”

Yuan Sichun’s face darkened instantly.

“Muchun, it seems like you’ve misunderstood me...”

Yuan Muchun sneered silently. “Is it a misunderstanding?”

“Enough! What’s the fuss?!”

Yuan Zhengchong felt that Yuan Muchun might have more to say and interrupted their conversation coldly.

“The banquet is about to start. Hurry up and prepare. I’m warning you, don’t cause any more trouble. Otherwise, I’ll teach you a lesson!”

With that, he left, leaving Yuan Sichun and Yuan Muchun in silence.

“Yuan Muchun, why? Have you been looking down on me recently...”

Yuan Muchun grabbed the wheelchair and spun Yuan Sichun around.

Yuan Sichun almost fell off the wheelchair.

“You...”

“Do you think you’re worth anyone’s attention now?”

As she spoke, she pushed the wheelchair towards the state banquet hall.

“Yuan Muchun, do you want to die?”

“Ha.” Yuan Muchun sneered. “Isn’t life worse than death?”

Her voice was calm, and there was no emotion in her eyes. However, her expression made people feel even more terrified.

Yuan Sichun, who was sitting in the wheelchair, couldn’t see her expression. She only snorted and said, “Yes, you’re right. Just wait for a while. I want to see Shen Fanxing’s face now.”

Yuan Muchun snorted. "You really don't learn."

"Yuan Muchun, I'm in a good mood now, so I won't argue with you. You'd better perform well tonight. Otherwise, you'll definitely marry that fool in Ping Cheng."

"I'll wait and see."

From then on, the two of them stopped talking. Yuan Muchun wore a white ankle-length dress. Her hair, which had never been touched by a hair salon, was the most natural color. She only had a simple shawl hairstyle, and her makeup was pure and light. She looked obedient and gentle.

She was beautiful, but on this occasion, it was not surprising.

Seeing her pushing someone in, there was a moment of silence in the banquet hall.

The banquet was held next to the state banquet hall yesterday. It was a place comparable to the state banquet hall.

Everyone's clothes fluttered in the wind, and they wore suits and leather shoes. A few gorgeous and dazzling crystal lights illuminated the entire banquet hall. Everyone held wine glasses in their hands as they weaved through the crowd, chatting and laughing. There were many socialites and gentlemen.

Just by looking at the atmosphere in the banquet hall, Yuan Sichun knew that this was the true upper-class society.

Although there were so-called socialites' gatherings, there was still a gap compared to the royal family's banquet.

There was no doubt that the people here were all from prominent families. As far as the eye could see, they were all second-generation celebrities and officials.

Yuan Sichun pursed her lips. She was too inexperienced.

She had always thought that no other wealthy family could compare to the Bo family.

Now that she took a look, which man of her age didn't have a better family background than the Bo family?

Even if she couldn't compare, how bad could she be?

"Maybe I don't have to hang myself. There might be a more... useful man in this world than Brother Bo."

Yuan Sichun said to Yuan Muchun, who was behind her.

"Really? Then I really hope that you can successfully find a man who is better than him tonight."

Yuan Sichun smiled.

At this moment, a sigh sounded from the crowd.

At the entrance of the banquet hall, Bailey was wearing a snow-white gown. It was a unique one-shoulder design, revealing half of her shoulders. The gown was an irregularly-shaped skirt, and her long wavy hair was draped behind her head. Her ears, neck, and wrists were all adorned with the same diamond jewelry. Not to mention the quality of the diamonds, just looking at each diamond that was a few carats long made one feel noble and luxurious.

There was even the dazzling princess crown on her head, which fully displayed her noble status.

As she walked, a faint fragrance blew past. As her skirt swayed, her straight and fair legs attracted everyone's attention.

Most people usually had a habit. No matter how overboard this person's actions were, as long as they saw her likable and beautiful appearance, this person deserved to be forgiven. Otherwise, they would temporarily lose their memories and forget about the overboard things they had done.

For example, in their eyes, she was the most respected princess of Country Y.

The praises were endless, and the smile on Bailey's face was bright and confident.

Not long after she appeared, people from the royal family entered.

Yuan Sichun's gaze landed on a certain man almost immediately.

Most of the women present had the same reaction as her.

Xiu Wen was wearing a white suit with it in his pocket. He walked out with an indifferent expression.

That face and aura made him look handsome and noble.

"That's Prince Xiuwen. He's really handsome."

"He has a royal bloodline, a noble status, and looks so heaven-defying. He's a prince in reality!"

"I wonder what kind of woman he likes..."

All the men's gazes were attracted by Yuan Sichun, and almost all the women's gazes were on Xiu Wen.

However, no one dared to be the first to approach the "prince" in their hearts.

Yuan Sichun turned her head slightly and suddenly said, "Let's go to his place."

He was naturally referring to Xiu Wen.

Chapter 1436: Pity

Yuan Muchun sneered and pushed Yuan Sichun towards Xiu Wen without saying anything.

"Prince Xiuwen. Hello, I'm Yuan Sichun..."

Xiu Wen lowered his gaze to look at her, but there was no emotion in his eyes.

"What's the matter?"

Yuan Sichun pursed her lips and smiled faintly. "Princess Ava is my aunt. I'm good friends with Bei Lei and Bei Xi. Thank you for taking care of them all these years..."

"You're thinking too much," Prince Xiuwen replied calmly. "I've never treated them as sisters..."

Yuan Sichun's face stiffened. "Did they anger you? They grew up in the palace. I think you should know their temper very well..."

"My sister is someone else. They are not my sister."

As the prince of Country Y, he had to maintain his image. After the chaos at the state banquet yesterday, he could not cause any more trouble today.

Yuan Sichun was stunned by Xiu Wen's words. She suddenly smiled and said,

"Are you talking about Shen Fanxing? Prince Xiuwen, I'm very familiar with Shen Fanxing. She's a descendant of the Shen family in Ping Cheng City. She was born and raised in the Shen family... Besides, Queen Yulia's daughter has long... The news yesterday was very clear... It's not a secret anymore, right... How could she have anything to do with the royal family..."

Not long after Yuan Sichun finished speaking, a commotion broke out in the banquet hall.

From a few doors in the banquet hall, a few people with equipment walked in slowly. Many people could tell at a glance that these people were reporters.

"What's going on? Why are there so many reporters?"

"I don't know. It seems like the royal family allowed it."

"Why did you call so many reporters?"

...

Before this commotion ended, another commotion broke out.

"It's Queen Yulia."

"I didn't expect to see her with my own eyes at today's banquet."

"Queen Yulia has a good reputation in Country Y and even in the International Federation. It's an honor to meet such a respected person."

"It's worth it for a woman to do that..."

Queen Yulia's figure slowly appeared on the stage of the banquet hall. She was dressed in a royal robe that symbolized the nobility of a king.

Everyone applauded and welcomed the appearance of Queen Yulia.

Queen Yulia smiled happily and clasped her hands in front of her.

"Thank you for accepting my request to attend this state banquet. What happened yesterday left an extremely bad experience for all of you. I'm deeply sorry for that! I sincerely apologize to all of you again. I hope that all of you will feel better and not leave Country Y unhappily. God will bless you with a long life."

Thunderous applause erupted.

Queen Yulia nodded in relief and spoke again.

“But regarding what happened at the banquet yesterday, I think if I had another chance, I would still do the same...”

The audience gradually calmed down, leaving only Queen Yulia’s voice.

Ye Jingyun walked to Bailey and whispered,

“Why didn’t anyone tell me that she would appear?”

Bailey shook her head. “I don’t know. Maybe it was arranged at the last minute. After all, such a big thing happened at the state banquet yesterday. There’s nothing wrong with her apologizing.”

Ye Jingyun frowned and looked at Queen Yulia, who was the center of attention. Her face darkened. “But why does she sound like she’s not just apologizing?”

“I’ll naturally try my best to be forgiven...”

Yuan Muchun pushed Yuan Sichun over. Her eyes were filled with mockery.

But she did thank her. If she hadn’t walked onto the stage first and embarrassed Shen Fanxing, she wouldn’t be as happy as she was now.

As she spoke, she looked around and smiled. “Looks like she won’t have the face to attend today’s banquet.”

Upon hearing that, Bailey raised an eyebrow and looked around. She didn’t see Shen Fanxing.

She couldn’t help but smile. “Looks like it. Let’s see how she’ll hold her head high when she returns...”

Yuan Zhengchong smiled in satisfaction. “You can’t blame anyone this time. She played with it herself! It’s not that easy to lay a hand on the Yuan Corporation...”

Yuan Muchun snorted coldly at the side. They were truly family.

The children of the Ye family looked the same.

Ye Zhiqing, Ye Jingyun, and the children they gave birth to.

How much oppression and poverty did they suffer in their previous life? Was that why they felt superior to others in this life?

As the eldest daughter of the Yuan family, she had a sense of superiority.

The royal princess felt a sense of superiority.

These...

Were they all theirs?

Where did this face come from to have such a sense of superiority?

And her so-called father...

Birds of a feather flocked together.

At the thought that everything Shen Fanxing had done in the past would be overturned because of this state banquet, Yuan Sichun felt exceptionally excited.

“With the reversal of her life, she will lose everything she has gained. She will be reviled and despised by everyone. She will eventually be trampled into the dust... Hehehe...”

Yuan Sichun seemed to have imagined Shen Fanxing’s pathetic state. As she spoke, she smiled sickly.

Ye Jingyun and Bailey glanced at her. “What’s wrong with you?”

Yuan Sichun raised her head and looked at Bei Lei excitedly.

“Sister Bailey, I really have to thank you. You’re the best. You ruined that b*tch’s reputation...”

“I’m sure everyone knows that I lost my biological daughter for some reason. For more than thirty years, I’ve been immersed in the sadness of my daughter leaving me forever. But I’m still fantasizing about her appearance and life.

What did she look like every day? What would she look like when she was 18 years old? What would her boyfriend look like? Would the person she was going to marry treat her well? Did she have a baby? Was the baby a boy or a girl? Did she know how to be sensible? Was she obedient...

I once told her that I wanted to watch her grow up day by day and make her the most delicate and beautiful princess in the world. As long as she wanted it, I was willing to give her everything she wanted... However, in reality, I missed every day of her growth.

Losing her is the most painful thing in my life. I can’t forgive myself. I thought I would carry this regret with me for the rest of my life.”

“...” The audience fell silent, immersed in the sorrowful atmosphere of Yulia’s statement.

Queen Yulia’s choked voice paused for a few seconds before she suddenly laughed. Tears of joy flowed down her face.

“But the heavens still pity me. Just yesterday, she gave me a huge gift...”

Chapter 1437: Crazy

The smile on Yuan Sichun’s face widened as she basked in the excitement of Shen Fanxing being stepped on.

“But the heavens still pity me. Just yesterday, she gave me a huge gift...”

Queen Yulia’s sorrowful voice changed, her joy evident.

“She told me that thirty-six years after I lost my daughter, Phoneix, she sent an angel to me and told me that my phoneix wasn’t dead...”

Before she could finish speaking, the banquet hall exploded.

“What?!”

“The queen’s daughter isn’t dead?”

“How is that possible? It’s been so many years. How can she not come back if she’s not dead?”

“Yes, didn’t Princess Ava witness the cremation?”

Ye Jingyun’s face seemed to have lost all color.

She was so shocked by the news that she lost her balance.

Bei Lei seemed to have guessed something, but she couldn’t stop it now.

Queen Yulia’s voice paused for a few seconds. Yuan Sichun looked up belatedly, the excitement still on her face.

“Fanxing, come, come here...”

Everyone’s gaze followed Queen Yulia’s and shifted to the darkness beside her.

When Yuan Sichun saw a tall and slender figure in a gorgeous evening gown walking out into the open, Seeing that familiar and hateful face, all her expressions froze.

Shen Fanxing?

Why was she there?!

Queen Yulia’s previous words suddenly entered her mind. Her daughter wasn’t dead? The heavens had sent an angel to her yesterday...

‘What?’

What bullsh*t angel?!

When everyone saw Shen Fanxing, they were shocked.

This woman was no stranger to them.

She was one of the female leads at the state banquet yesterday. Moreover, many people knew of her existence before that.

They didn’t know the details, but they had heard of the chief perfumer, CEO of Stars International, and the fiancée of the CEO of the Bo Consortium.

Unexpectedly, she had such a shocking identity.

Shen Fanxing was wearing a dark blue evening gown with a gold-embroidered waistline. The feathers on her shoulders were of the same color, making her shoulders look exceptionally beautiful.

There were no unnecessary flowers. Her long dress covered her ankles, making her look dignified and elegant.

The unique aura she exuded was even more eye-catching.

Her expression was cold. The moment she appeared, Queen Yulia held her hand and pulled her to her side lovingly.

Shen Fanxing could clearly feel Queen Yulia's uncontrollable grip on her hand. It was even trembling nervously. She looked up and smiled at her. Then, she felt Queen Yulia tighten her grip.

"Originally, I shouldn't have said so much at today's banquet, nor should I have asked so many reporters to restrain everyone's words and actions. However, I'm too happy. I can't suppress my emotions at this moment. I want to share the happiest moment of my life with you and everyone..."

As she spoke, she glanced at Shen Fanxing and smiled.

"I believe everyone has guessed it. That's right, Fanxing. Her name is Fanxing. She's the biological daughter of my daughter, Phoneix. She's my granddaughter and the only true princess of the royal family of Country Y!"

The audience fell silent for a few seconds. Those who reacted quickly applauded slowly, instantly causing thunderous applause to sound in the banquet hall.

"Congratulations, Queen. You've finally found your real daughter and grandson."

"Congratulations, Queen. This is great news."

"Congratulations..."

Although everyone was puzzled, they should give their sincere blessings.

It was no longer a secret that Queen Yulia had lost her daughter. Perhaps in the eyes of others, it was just an accident, a tragedy, something to be pitied.

However, there was a huge difference between sympathy and empathy.

No one knew how Queen Yulia had survived all these years.

She looked like an ordinary person, but in the dead of the night, it was the most unbearable.

In their eyes, Queen Yulia had never been someone who didn't know her limits.

It was rare for them to do this. Actually, they understood.

So what if she was the queen? Was she made of steel?

Faced with everyone's blessings, Yuan Sichun's head seemed to explode as it buzzed.

"That's right, Fanxing. Her name is Fanxing. She's the biological grandson of my Queen Yulia and the only true princess of the royal family of Y Country."

It was as if there was a recorder in her body, repeating this sentence countless times, telling her one thing countless times in an attempt to make her accept this fact as soon as possible.

"No, how is that possible? How is that possible..."

She shook her head blankly, unable to accept this.

How could she be a princess?

Didn't she not come? Why did she suddenly appear there?

At this state banquet, she was clearly about to be completely under her feet. She wanted Brother Bo to regret and return to her to beg her.

She was the eldest daughter of the Yuan family. She was a hundred times better than Shen Fanxing...

“No! That’s not true! Shen Fanxing is a liar, she’s a liar!”

She couldn’t accept this at all. How could she accept it?

She had been looking forward to it for so long. All she wanted to do was to trample on Shen Fanxing. Why did things turn out like this?

She screamed uncontrollably, attracting the attention of everyone in the banquet hall.

Hearing this, Queen Yulia frowned and looked down. It was easy to see Yuan Sichun in the wheelchair.

Shen Fanxing frowned and looked over. Seeing how crazy she was, her lips curled into a smile.

Even though she found it unbelievable that she had suddenly become the princess of Country Y, she didn’t know how to face her.

However, after seeing Yuan Sichun like this, she suddenly felt that the identity of a princess was not bad.

Yuan Sichun’s eyes widened as she looked at Shen Fanxing’s smiling gaze. All the nerves in her mind seemed to have snapped.

Ignoring the heart-wrenching pain left behind by Bo Jinchuan’s punishment, she pointed at Shen Fanxing and screamed,

“All of you have been deceived by her! She’s a liar! She’s the eldest daughter of the Shen family in Ping Cheng City. Everyone in the Shen family has abandoned her and hates her. It’s obvious how bad her character is. How could she be related to the royal family of Country Y?”

“Sichun!” Yuan Zhengchong didn’t expect Yuan Sichun to suddenly become like this. He shouted with a cold face.

She had lost all her face!

Chapter 1438: Lunatic

Everyone’s gaze landed on Yuan Sichun.

“Who is it? Is he crazy?”

“You still treat her as a liar. Do you really think Queen Yulia is a fool? You’re making the truth public without confirming it? Is this person a lunatic and a fool?”

“I remember her. Is she the eldest daughter of the Yuan Corporation? Back then, she shamelessly clung onto the CEO of the Bo Consortium and did all sorts of shameless things. Wasn’t that injury caused by CEO Bo? She still has the cheek to attend the state banquet? I really don’t know how shameless she is!”

"I've heard about it too. Back then, she used her status as the eldest daughter of the Yuan family to bully others. Because she was from the Yuan family and Princess Ava was her aunt, she had a sense of superiority in front of Miss Shen. I didn't expect her to be the only princess in the royal family."

"This time, my sense of superiority is gone. I'm almost going crazy."

At this moment, Yuan Zhengchong wished he could find a hole to hide in. On this important occasion, celebrities from all over the world were gathered. Was she crazy? How could she make a fuss at such an occasion? How embarrassing!

"Sister Bailey, is she a liar? Auntie, quickly tell everyone that that woman is a huge liar!"

She suddenly looked at Bailey and Ava expectantly.

Ye Jingyun's pale face twitched violently. She wished she could strangle this damn fool to death!

She had never been so embarrassed in her life.

Seeing that Ye Jingyun was silent, Yuan Sichun continued, "Auntie, hurry up and tell me! Didn't you say that the queen's biological daughter is dead? How can a dead person give birth to a daughter? So there's no need to think. Shen Fanxing is a liar!"

Everyone looked in their direction with indescribable gazes. Ye Jingyun avoided their gazes in a panic, not daring to look at anyone.

There were many ladies from the business world present. Ye Jingyun had been in charge of the arrangements for the past few days and they were all dissatisfied with her arrogant attitude.

"That's strange. Since Queen Yulia has chosen to announce it in front of so many people, it must be confirmed. She's clearly fine. Why did she say that she's dead?"

"What's so strange about that? After all, she's the princess of a country. Now that the real princess is back, how can she be the princess? In order to protect her status, she has to think of ways to not let the real princess appear, right?"

"Now that you mention it, I suddenly feel a chill down my spine... Queen Yulia lost her daughter 36 years ago and brought her back two years later. At that time, she was only six or seven years old. Is she that vicious?"

"Oh my god, I'm scary..." Someone couldn't help but hug his arms and rub them hard.

"She started scheming when she was six or seven years old. Isn't she even more terrifying now..."

"Oh-my-god, how terrifying..."

Ye Jingyun's expression was indescribably ugly. Her mind was in a mess and she didn't know what to say.

The discussion in the banquet hall reached the stage. Queen Yulia's face was calm, as if she didn't feel or react to those words.

Shen Fanxing's gaze on Ye Jingyun turned colder.

If she could be so vicious at the age of six or seven, it was naturally impossible for her to be kind now.

When Queen Yulia mentioned the word 'bloodline', thinking about Ye Zhiqing, Yuan Sichun, and Bei Lei, how good could Ye Jingyun be?

"What nonsense are you spouting?!" Yuan Sichun's words finally made Ye Jingyun roar.

"Auntie, she's a liar, she's a liar! How can you watch as she acts so brazenly in front of you! You're the princess of the royal family, and Bei Lei and Sister Bei Xi are the granddaughter of the queen. Shen Fanxing is trying to snatch your position. Auntie, Sister Bei Lei, you won't allow such a thing to happen, right? Huh?!"

When Yuan Sichun reached the end of her sentence, she screamed. Her sharp screams filled the entire banquet hall.

"Lunatic, you're simply a lunatic!" Ye Jingyun pointed at Yuan Sichun angrily, her body trembling. "Get out, get out!"

"She's a liar! Why do you want me to leave?! That b*tch should be the one to leave! Why should it be me?! Are all of you blind? You actually believe that she's a princess? No, you're all fools. All of you have been deceived by her!"

Ye Jingyun was so angry that she almost fainted on the spot.

"You... you..."

"Tsk tsk, look at Princess Ava's niece, the eldest daughter of the Yuan family. This upbringing is really not up to standard."

"I wonder who will marry such a woman. What a disgrace."

"I heard that she's the future head of the Yuan family. Aiyo... won't the Yuan family be finished sooner or later?"

...

"Shut up! My Yuan family is fine. You're all fools. Don't you know you've been deceived?!"

Yuan Sichun must have gone crazy. She refused to believe that Shen Fanxing could suppress her.

All her expectations had turned to ashes. How could she accept this cruel reality?

"She's crazy! Someone, throw her out!" Ye Jingyun swore that she would strangle this damn fool to death!

A few people in uniforms ran up quickly. Yuan Muchun released his grip on Yuan Sichun's wheelchair and retreated silently.

She watched coldly as someone surrounded her and lifted the wheelchair.

"What are you doing?! Let go of me! How dare you! I'm Princess Ava's niece. How dare you treat me like this!"

Everyone watched as she was thrown out by the guards. The screams and her hideous face had broadened their horizons.

She had never seen such a shameless and shameless lunatic.

The banquet hall returned to silence. Ye Jingyun looked up nervously at Queen Youlea. "Mother..."

Queen Yulia glanced at her before retracting her gaze. She turned to Shen Fanxing with a smile and patted her hand gently.

"Don't be afraid."

Shen Fanxing smiled. She wouldn't take it to heart.

Seeing Shen Fanxing's calm expression, Queen Yulia couldn't hide the relief in her eyes. She turned to everyone and said,

"I've embarrassed myself in front of everyone. Apart from sharing the greatest joy of my life, I want to announce something."

Everyone fell silent and stared at Queen Yulia.

Even Shen Fanxing turned to look at Queen Yulia in confusion, not knowing what she was thinking.

Yulia took a deep breath before speaking slowly.

"My daughter's birthday happens to be on New Year's Day every year. I'm very happy. I still have a chance to celebrate my daughter's birthday in this lifetime! There are still more than two months before New Year's Day. This time, I want to celebrate her birthday properly.

Then, on her birthday, I want to hold a coronation ceremony for her beloved daughter and granddaughter! On January 1, I hope that my daughter and granddaughter will receive the attention and blessings of the entire world!"

Chapter 1439: Panic

As soon as Queen Yulia finished speaking, there was a moment of silence before thunderous applause.

Wave after wave of blessings sounded.

Ye Jingyun's body swayed and she almost fell to the ground.

"Be careful."

Yuan Zhengchong helped her up.

Ye Jingyun steadied herself, her face pale.

Bailey's expression wasn't any better. However, compared to Ye Jingyun's panic, she was more angry and indignant. The glass in her hand had been crushed subconsciously, and the bright red wine flowed from her hand to the hem of her gown. She didn't even notice.

The only true princess!

Then what was she?!

In order to be a good princess and be worthy of her, she had spent so much time and effort. In the end, the only princess had become someone else so easily?

She had tried her best to hint at a princess coronation, but she still had nothing.

Now, she wanted to hold a grand ceremony for this woman who had suddenly appeared?

After all these years, what was she? What was she?

The applause and blessings were simply a huge joke to her.

Everyone mocked her for being a complete joke all these years.

Ha.

The world-famous coronation of the princess...

Yuan Sichun, who had been thrown out of the banquet hall, heard the Queen's clear voice. The expression on her face was indescribable.

The coronation of a princess!

What right did Shen Fanxing have...

Why did he have to suppress her in the end?

Why didn't she die?!

"Liars, you're all a bunch of fools. You even fell for such a low-level trap. What bullsh*t princess? The princess is long dead. How can there be a real princess? What a bunch of fools..."

She spoke in Chinese and the guards didn't understand what she was saying. They only looked at her as if she was crazy.

When this news came out, all the reporters present actively recorded today's major event.

They believed that this matter was enough to cause an international sensation.

Shen Fanxing stared at Queen Yulia in disbelief. Her eyes widened for a few seconds before she said slowly,

"Why... did you suddenly..."

Queen Yulia patted the back of her hand gently. "Why would it be sudden? I owe you all this. Fanxing, don't worry. I will give you and your mother everything I have in my life."

Shen Fanxing shook her head, but Queen Yulia smiled at her and shook her head. "Just fulfill my wish."

She didn't speak again.

After the banquet ended, the reporters sent the shocking news back to the magazines and companies in the country. The editor-in-chief immediately arranged for someone to edit the news, hoping to send it out as soon as possible.

At 9:30 a.m. in Ping Cheng City.

The doors to the conference room opened and the directors and higher-ups of the Bo Consortium walked in.

Everyone was whispering to each other, sighing and shaking their heads.

“I really don’t know what this old man is up to all day. Why does he have to fight to the death with the Yuan Corporation?”

“Sigh, the CEO has an important collaboration now. If we negotiate, the Bo Consortium will surpass the Yuan Consortium!”

“Can the Yuan Corporation compare to our Bo Corporation now? Don’t you understand? What Old Master likes is that in the future, if the CEO can really be with the eldest daughter of the Yuan Corporation, he can easily take over the Yuan Corporation. Is there anything easier and cheaper than that?”

“That’s true. If we can get the Yuan Corporation, it’s indeed...”

“What a pity. So what if we get the Yuan Corporation? I’m afraid today’s situation is set in stone!”

The directors shook their heads and sighed again. They were rather regretful and helpless about the outcome that they already knew.

However, there were naturally people who acted according to the situation. Now that Bo Yuelin’s succession as the next chairman was almost certain, there were naturally a few directors who were biased towards him.

Compared to the distressed expressions of the previous directors, these people looked much more relaxed.

Actually, that included Bo Chengjiang, the third uncle of the Bo family.

Although he was unwilling to let his second brother become the chairman, he was more than happy to see Bo Jinchuan succeed.

At the very least, he bore a deep grudge against Bo Jinchuan for leaving his son in the lurch because of that woman.

Now that he had lost his position as CEO because of that woman, how could he not be happy?

Looking at the news released yesterday, the news of Shen Fanxing being recognized as a liar at Country Y’s banquet made him feel great.

“The heavens have mercy on reincarnation. It’s not that karma doesn’t exist, but the time hasn’t arrived...”

The moment he spoke, everyone’s gazes landed on him.

“CEO Bo, the CEO has been capable for so many years. Are you going to watch helplessly as the CEO loses power? Can’t you temporarily give the shares in your hands to the CEO and help him overcome this hurdle?”

Bo Chengjiang snorted as if he had heard a joke.

“My nephew is very capable. If he needed me, he would have come to me long ago. Why would I need you to worry?”

He was overjoyed that Bo Jinchuan had lost his power. Why should he help him?

At this moment, a few people stood up. Everyone looked over and Bo Yuelin walked into the meeting room with Old Master.

The meeting room was silent. Seeing the old master enter with an expressionless face, his lips were pursed tightly and his eyes were filled with dignity. He walked to the main seat and sat down. He looked around and snorted coldly.

Everyone pursed their lips, not daring to speak.

The meeting was about to start. Even the old chairman had arrived, but the CEO had yet to arrive. It was no wonder the old man’s face darkened.

“Let the meeting begin.”

The old man said without giving Bo Jinchuan any leeway.

“Old Master, the CEO hasn’t arrived...”

Bo Chengjiang threw the magazine on the table and said with a smile, “What’s the difference if he’s here or not? So what if he’s here? He’s just embarrassing himself. It’s good that he’s not here. He’s quite smart, so he naturally knows this better than anyone else...”

“Of course I have to hear the results myself. Otherwise, if word gets out, wouldn’t it seem like I’m too irresponsible? I have a reputation, so I naturally can’t ruin it now.”

Before Bo Chengjiang could finish speaking, Bo Jinchuan’s indifferent voice sounded.

Chapter 1440: Shut Up

Bo Chengjiang raised an eyebrow as Bo Jinchuan pushed Ji Fengmian in.

“Heh, you’ve always been arrogant and conceited. Why would you care about your reputation?”

After pushing Ji Fengmian to an empty seat, Bo Jinchuan bent down and sat on the other side of the conference table. He leaned back in his chair and said calmly,

“I used to be alone, but now... I have a wife. I still need to make her proud.”

“...”

“...”

“...”

Everyone facepalmed.

Yu Song stood at the side with his eyes closed, his lips twitching.

How reckless!

Did Master know why he was sitting here?

A large part of the reason was because of Madam!!!

Was Old Master's decision not firm enough? Did he have to add fuel to the fire?

Indeed, when Old Master Bo heard Bo Jinchuan's words, his face darkened.

She slammed the table and stared at him coldly.

"Bo Jinchuan, you can't live without a woman, right?"

Bo Jinchuan remained calm and said coldly, "If this woman's name is Shen Fanxing..."

Old Master Bo's chest heaved violently and his eyes turned terrifyingly red.

"Bo Jinchuan, are you really going to sacrifice everything you have for a woman? Don't you find this ridiculous?"

Bo Jinchuan smiled and didn't comment. He looked down at his watch and said calmly,

"It's time to start the meeting."

She acted as if she didn't care.

Old Master Bo looked at Bo Jinchuan in disappointment. "You're still unrepentant?"

"Grandpa," Bo Jinchuan suddenly said coldly, "There's no need to say anything else. Let's get straight to the point. Let's not waste time on this matter. The ownership of the company is in your hands. But before you announce your decision, let me make my stand clear—

If I don't have the right to succeed the chairman, I won't want the position of CEO... Although I've said this before, this time...

He raised his hand and Yu Song immediately handed him the two documents. Then, Bo Jinchuan slowly opened the documents and threw them on the table in front of everyone. "The resignation document is here. Once your decision is not mine, I will sign it on the spot and leave the Bo Consortium completely. I will not participate in any decisions made by the Bo Consortium. As for the shares in my hands..."

His slender fingers tapped on one of the documents and pushed it in front of Bo Jinhang. "I'll hand it over to Jinhang unconditionally."

"..."

"..."

"..."

The atmosphere in the conference room instantly tensed up. Everyone didn't even dare to breathe.

She signed the resignation letter on the spot...

The shares were all cleared.

She was afraid that she would really leave the Bo Consortium without any involvement.

This was really... amazing!

This sudden decision caught everyone off guard. They had thought that no matter what, Bo Jinchuan still had the company's shares. As long as he appeared, there would be a direction for everything. But now, he really wanted to retreat.

In the quiet conference room, Old Master's heavy breathing became clearer.

"Are you threatening me?!"

Bo Jinchuan pursed his lips and said, "If you think it's a threat, then yes."

The old man narrowed his eyes, unable to hide his anger.

After a long while, he sneered and said, "Do you think the Bo Consortium can't survive without you? You're so impulsive to anger me because of a woman. I think something will happen to the company if I leave it to you! Alright, you can leave the company if you want..."

"Old Master, please reconsider!"

Seeing that the old man was about to make a decision on impulse, a few shareholders immediately stopped him.

"The Bo Consortium has been developing optimistically under the leadership of the CEO. He is your biological grandson. You have to believe that he will manage the Bo Consortium better in the future!"

"That's right, Old Master. Besides, CEO Shen is a smart woman. For her to be able to manage Stars International to such an extent, it proves that she is capable and capable. With the two of them together, the Bo Consortium shouldn't have much of a problem..."

"Why must it be the eldest daughter of the Yuan family? Other than her family background, she's really not as capable as CEO Shen. Besides, CEO Shen's family background isn't that bad..."

"Chairman Wang, we're all sensible people. Don't be biased. CEO Shen's family background isn't bad, but compared to the Yuan Corporation, it's indeed far inferior. Moreover, the Yuan family has clearly expressed their attitude. As long as the CEO marries, the Yuan family will be a branch of the Bo family in the future. Why would they give up such a good thing without thinking? Isn't it a pity?"

"But the Yuan family lost a huge business deal. It's not as good as before. CEO Shen said..."

"It's true that it's not as good as before. CEO Shen has also said that she wants to use the Yuan family as her dowry. But don't forget that the Yuan family has a relationship with Princess Ava from Country Y. It's just that someone snatched her business. Do you think that Yuan Zhengchong is really going to Country Y to attend the state banquet?"

"That's right. All these years, Princess Ava has used her status to help the poor Ye family become one of the top tycoons in Country Y. Since Yuan Zhengchong has spoken, she can't reject him..."

"At the end of the day, our Bo Consortium has given up on the Yuan family and the royal family of Country Y!"

“...”

The meeting room fell silent again. The directors who sided with Bo Jinchuan were speechless.

When Bo Chengjiang saw this scene, he chuckled and pushed the magazines and newspapers in front of him to the middle.

“I don’t deny my nephew’s ability at work, but his taste in choosing women is really poor. Isn’t it just that his family background isn’t good? But he shouldn’t go so far as to cheat the Queen of Country Y, right? Now that the truth is out, how many people will laugh at him...”

Everyone fell silent again. They had seen the news. Shen Fanxing had been identified as a swindler at Country Y’s banquet. Now, the entire world probably knew about this news.

He wondered what she was thinking...

They shook their heads and sighed.

Ji Fengmian’s eyes narrowed and his lips curled.

She placed her hands on the armrests on both sides of the wheelchair and flicked her fingers in boredom.

At the mention of this news, Old Master Bo felt humiliated.

“Hmph, he’s simply helpless and stupid. How dare he lie to the royal family...”

“Shut up.” A cold and emotionless voice sounded. It was flat and emotionless.

Everyone held their breaths and turned their heads.

Bo Jinchuan placed a hand on the conference table. His face was terrifyingly cold. The voice just now had undoubtedly come from his mouth.
