

Chapter 1436 News of Ye Fan's Family

No one knew how angry Ye Fan was.

He had told Li Er to stay in Yunzhou and help Qiu Mu-Cheng and take care of his family.

And now, Li Er was saying that he didn't even know what became of them at all.

In other words, he didn't know who had abducted Qiu Mu-Cheng.

Ye Fan was naturally furious.

“To think I trusted you to take care of my home, but you were incapable of even protecting them. Mu-Cheng and Mum have disappeared for half a year, but you haven't found them yet. Are you still fit to be a leader of Jiangdong?” Ye Fan sounded angry and anxious as he spoke to Li Er.

Li Er didn't dare to rebuke Ye Fan.

He simply knelt as he trembled and didn't dare to speak for a long time.

“Li Er, you were right. You genuinely deserve a thousand deaths! You, Lei San, and Wang Jie-Xi all deserve to die. You are leaders of Jiangdong but were incapable of even taking care of my family. You didn't have a clue of their whereabouts after half a year even, so all of you should die!" His cold angry voice rang.

Ye Fan's eyes became bloodshot in his rage, and it felt as though his heart was bleeding.

To begin with, Ye Fan had just lost the two people he was closest with.

No one was capable of staying calm after losing their closest kin.

Just as Ye Fan was about to punish Li Er, a car suddenly pulled up outside the estate.

A woman quickly walked over as she spotted the lean young man.

"Ye Fan, is it really you? Are you still alive?" She covered her mouth in disbelief as she shouted.

The young woman was so startled when she saw Ye Fan's face that her face trembled, perhaps out of shock or joy.

"Who are you?"

The woman's sudden appearance drew everyone's attention.

Even though Ye Fan was furious with Li Er, he turned to look at the woman.

The young woman was around Qiu Mu-Cheng's age. She had a slender build with a buxom chest and was dressed in a red vest.

Her black leather pants brought out her sexy figure flawlessly.

Ye Fan frowned when he saw the woman and found her familiar.

"Ye Fan, don't you remember me? I'm Lu Yan-Xi, Lu Tian-He's daughter. We went to the Amazon rainforest together. Have you forgotten me?"

Lu Yan-Xi was somewhat disappointed.

The young man whom she admired, who had left such a huge impression on her, had surprisingly forgotten her.

"Oh, it's you. Are you looking for me?"

Ye Fan seemed to have some impression of her.

Even though they barely knew each other, Ye Fan was curious what Lu Yan-Xi was doing here.

Was she looking for Li Er?

Or was she here for Ye Fan?

“Ye Fan, I came to look for you. My father and Miss Qiu sent me to Yunzhou to look for you. Everyone thinks you are dead, but not Miss Qiu. She firmly believes you are still alive, so she insisted on coming back to wait for you at Mount Yunding Villa. My father had concerns over her safety, so he sent me on her behalf. She told me to bring you to her if you ever came back alive. Initially, I didn't bear much hope. I didn't think you would really end up coming back alive,” Lu Yan-Xi seemed excited and spoke to Ye Fan happily in surprise.

All this time, she had been waiting near Mount Yunding Villa.

Half an hour ago, she could sense someone entering the villa, but Ye Fan was gone by the time she went over.

Lu Yan-Xi was able to hear Ye Fan when he shouted earlier.

Since she found his voice familiar, she ventured towards its source out of curiosity.

She was surprisingly spot-on.

The voice came from none other than Ye Fan.

The young man who had left the entire world in shock at the rainforest had returned home alive.

Lu Yan-Xi could almost see the commotion it would cause when the martial arts circle heard about Ye Fan's return.

However, Ye Fan was unconcerned with what the martial arts circle felt about his return.

Instead, he was only concerned about Qiu Mu-Cheng and his mother's whereabouts.

Ye Fan appeared before Lu Yan-Xi with a swish.

“Does this mean you know where Mu-Cheng and Mum are? How are they? Are they okay? Did anything happen to them?" he asked Lu Yan-Xi worriedly.

"Uh huh. They are fine. They are in Jiangdong's military camp and under the protection of the troops. You can find out more when you see them. Let me take you there now," said Lu Yan-Xi.

"Great!" Ye Fan was overjoyed when he heard that his mother and Qiu Mu-Cheng were fine. He swiftly felt relieved.

He didn't want to waste a moment and left with Lu Yan-Xi immediately to hurry to the Jiangdong's armed forces.

The commotion in Li Er's estate reverted to peace after Ye Fan left.

The anxiety in Li Er's heart finally eased up.

He slumped onto the ground and gasped deeply in relief.

Even though he had only spoken to Ye Fan for a few minutes, it felt like forever to him.

He had almost died, and the fear still lingered in the air.

“Master Er, are you okay?”

Jin Bao and Yin Bao ran over to comfort him.

Li Er said nothing for a long time before he finally sighed, “Don't worry. It is not my time to go yet. Mr Chu has certainly gotten even scarier.”

Li Er couldn't help feeling scared as he recalled the events that had transpired.

If Lu Yan-Xi didn't turn up in time, Li Er felt he might not have escaped unscathed.

Li Er felt that serving an emperor was akin to serving a ferocious beast that might devour you without reason or cause.

“Master Er, Mr Chu is already gone, so you can go have some rest and calm your nerves,” said Jin Bao.

“Calm my nerves, my foot! Prepare the car. I am going to the military camp to await my punishment. You had best pray that I will be able to come back alive.”

Li Er had made the mistake of losing Mr Chu's wife and mother.

Fortunately, Qiu Mu-Cheng and his mother were fine. If some mishap befell them, Li Er was certain that the entire Li clan would have to pay in blood.

"No way. I can't take the fall alone, I have to drag Lei San and Wang Jie-Xi into this too. Call them this instant and tell them Mr Chu is back. Get them to hurry over to await Mr Chu's punishment. They can forget about living if they turn up late."

Li Er certainly treated his close friends well and shared everything with them.

If Lei San and Wang Jie-Xi caught wind of this, they might end up crying, but it certainly wouldn't be tears of joy.

"How did Mr Chu realize I was home? Didn't I instruct you to tell my guests that I'm overseas seeking treatment?"

A thought suddenly crossed Li Er's mind, so he looked at Jin Bao.

Jiangdong had fallen into bad times, so problems kept befalling people linked to Ye Fan.

After Qiu Mu-Cheng and Ye Xi-Mei went missing, Li Er was so terrified that he hid in the bunker. He pretended he was ill, refused to step out of the door, and gathered over a hundred guards in his home out of fear something might befall him.

Jin Bao's eyes slightly twitched as he explained sadly, "Master Er, I told him that, but you know how he is. How could he have fallen for our ruse?"

"Enough. Prepare the car."

Li Er couldn't be bothered to find out precisely what happened at this stage.

Li Er wanted to pretend he was dreadfully sick and abroad seeking treatment in the hope of reducing his punishment.

Now his plans had been thwarted and they only served to make Ye Fan even angrier with him.

Li Er got onto the car worriedly.

He wanted to meet up with Lei San and Wang Jie-Xi before heading to the Jiangdong military camp to apologize to Ye Fan.

-----

By the time Ye Fan made it to the Jiangdong military camp, it was daybreak.

Most of the people were still in bed and enjoying their last moments of rest.

However, a new training day had already started on the military grounds.

Their resounding shouts startled the birds in the trees and made them fly.

The tightly shut military base doors suddenly opened.

An off-road vehicle with a military license plate drove into the district.

“We’ve got a visitor?”

“Is he here to visit someone?”

Chapter 1437 The Man Was Back

Many people in the barracks turned to look curiously.

A lean young man got off the car and quickly came into sight.

“Hmm? Why does this man seem familiar? Wait, isn’t he the general of the Green Dragon Force?” said someone in surprise from the crowd when he saw the young man’s silhouette.

“The Green Dragon Force? Are you talking about the special forces who came in champion for the National Special Troops Contest last year? Aren’t they based in Yanjing?” said someone in surprise.

“You only joined recently, so you don’t know about a lot of things. The Green Dragon Force was initially under our jurisdiction. However, some things happened, so General Green Dragon ended up going independent. He won the contest and single-handedly defeated all the other four military instructors, so General Green Dragon bested all the other military districts in China!” said a veteran soldier who had witnessed the incident firsthand in admiration.

Chapter 1437 The Man Was Back

“Wow! Is he that powerful? Doesn’t it mean General Green Dragon is like a god of war to the army?”

The other new recruits were even more surprised.

Even though they weren’t around to see it with their own eyes, they found it soul-stirring when they heard what the veteran said.

“That goes without saying! You have no idea how powerful General Green Dragon was. He was the downfall of the previous commander, Wu Yang. In the end, Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng were promoted to commander and deputy commander respectively. All these appointments happened solely because of General Green Dragon. With a word, he stripped the commander of his rank. With a word, he can make nobodies commanders.”

Everyone felt amazed by the legend of this General Green Dragon.

He was probably the first career soldier protecting the country who held sway over the commander's appointment.

“Enough. Keep training. Since General Green Dragon is like a god, he has probably flown to Yanjing or Zhonghai and doesn’t care about coming to Jiangdong anymore. The man probably only resembles him a little,” the platoon leader shook his head as he spoke. He didn’t feel that this commonly dressed traveler would be Ye Fan.

Just as they were about to turn and leave, two men suddenly came running out from the base.

“Good morning, Commander Lu!”

“Good morning, Deputy Commander Wang!”

All the troops stood on both sides at attention and quickly greeted them.

It was none other than Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng walking over.

After Wu Yang left, Yanjing wanted to help improve relations with Ye Fan, so they deliberately promoted his friends.

Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng ignored their salute and kept looking at the young man.

“General Chu, is it...is it really you?”

Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng were overjoyed and shocked to see Ye Fan.

They clearly didn't think to see Ye Fan alive in their lives.

Ye Fan nodded.

Before Ye Fan said a word, Lu Tian-He suddenly shouted solemnly, “Attention! Men, pay your respects to Green Dragon General! Welcome home, Green Dragon General!”

His reverent voice echoed through the air.

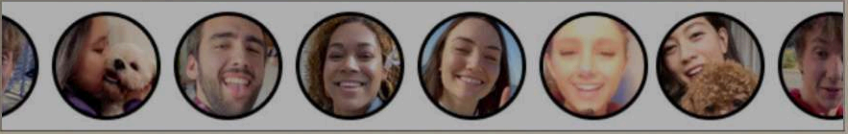

Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng clicked their heels and saluted Ye Fan with the greatest military honor.

The troops behind them opened their eyes wide in shock as they gasped.

“Is...Is...”

“Is he really General Green Dragon?”

After a brief shock, all the troops stood at attention and turned to salute Ye Fan along with Lu Tian-He.

“Welcome home, Green Dragon General!”

“Welcome home, Green Dragon General!”

Reverent voices soared into the air and converged before sweeping through the atmosphere.

Chapter 1438 A Reunion

The name 'General Green Dragon' became a military legend in China after the battle in Jiangbei, and he was particularly well-known in the Jiangdong army.

After all, the Green Dragon Force and General Green Dragon rose to power in these very lands.

The Jiangdong army had witnessed Ye Fan and the Green Dragon Force rise from nowhere and triumph all other troops in China.

Hence, it was right to say that Jiangdong army was Ye Fan and the Green Dragon Force's home.

In an instant, more and more people came running over.

All of them saluted the young man with the greatest respect when they saw him.

However, Ye Fan was in no mood to enjoy this moment of glory.

All he wanted was to see his mother and wife as soon as possible.

Chapter 1438 A Reunion

“Instructor Chu, calm down. I have already sent word to Miss Qiu. She ought to be here soon.”

Wang Dong-Sheng seemed to read Ye Fan’s mind as he smiled and comforted Ye Fan.

“Instructor Chu, don’t stand around outside. Please come in for some tea,” invited Wang Dong-Sheng.

“I’ll pass. I’ll wait right here for her.”

Ye Fan waved his hand and turned down Wang Dong-Sheng’s offer.

Before long, a car came driving over and pulled up next to them.

A slender leg in high boots reached out from the car when the car door opened before a stunning face appeared in front of Ye Fan after not seeing it all year.

She was dressed in a white down jacket that was so bright that it resembled wintertime snow.

She paired it with gray slim-fit jeans.

Chapter 1438 A Reunion

A pink knitted cap adorned her head with her hair scattered under the cap.

Despite the simple dressing, she was a stunning sight to behold in the wilderness in the Jiangdong army.

She had striking features and the perfect figure.

Her lips were pink while her eyes were dark.

It felt as though god had blessed her with all things beautiful.

Many people were awestruck the moment they caught sight of her.

It seemed as though she was more beautiful than anything on earth.

She was like the air that they breathed.

Everyone was mesmerized by her beauty.

However, the young woman only had eyes for the young man despite the attention she garnered.

The instant she laid eyes on him, she went into a daze.

She froze the moment she saw him.

She shook so hard that even her breathing trembled.

Qiu Mu-Cheng had always felt that she was a strong and independent woman and was able to withstand all storms from the outside world.

However, the moment she saw the man she loved and wanted to spend her life with, all her strength instantly shattered.

Her beautiful eyes instantly turned red.

Tears trickled down her face uncontrollably.

She was finally incapable of restraining herself. After she got off the car, she ran towards the young man uninhibitedly.

Like the waves returning into the ocean.

She ran into his arms and embraced him hard as she buried her face into his arms.

long to come back? You creep! I hate you..." bawled Qiu Mu-Cheng.

She looked like a little girl complaining to her father after she had been bullied by others.

She cried in Ye Fan's arms as she hammered Ye Fan on his chest gently.

Even her crying face was so mesmerizing.

"Mu-Cheng, I'm sorry for making you worry for so long."

Everything about her felt familiar to him down to her hair and scent and even her clothing.

Ye Fan had bought her the pink cap on their first wedding anniversary.

Ye Fan recalled the flak he received from his in-laws for half a year for giving her such a cheap present, and he didn't remember Qiu Mu-Cheng ever wearing it.

He assumed Qiu Mu-Cheng didn't like it and tossed it out.

He didn't expect her to still have it.

Also, they had bought this down jacket together.

Everything about Qiu Mu-Cheng felt familiar. Everything was a reminder of the life they shared.

What was family?

Did they have to be related by blood?

Did they have to share the same surname?

Ye Fan felt neither of these defined what family was.

Family members were people who made him feel warm inside when he saw them.

They were the people whom he would give everything for.

Only true kin would think about him when he was out at war and cry when they reunited after not seeing each other for a long time.

These people were the family whom Ye Fan swore to protect with his life.

Despite the cold wind, it felt warm and moving to see their love for each other.

“Sigh, youngsters these days.”

Lu Tian-He and Wang Dong-Sheng laughed and felt happy for Ye Fan and Qiu Mu-Cheng.

The rest of the troops smiled with envy in their hearts that Ye Fan had such a beautiful and loving wife.

Lu Yan-Xi couldn't help feeling upset when she witnessed the scene.

Was it disappointment or envy?

Lu Yan-Xi didn't know either.

She simply knew there was no hope between her and the man who made her heart throb in her youth.

After Qiu Mu-Cheng cried for a long time, Ye Fan wiped the tears from Qiu Mu-Cheng's eyes as he smiled and consoled her, “There there. Stop crying. There are so many people watching you. You are ugly enough as it is, so you would become even uglier if you cried.”

Ye Fan's words made everyone burst out laughing.

Qiu Mu-Cheng instantly blushed crimson. She pinched Ye Fan before she escaped his arms in embarrassment.

"Come on. Let's go see Mum. She's going to give it to you for being so unfilial," sneered Qiu Mu-Cheng with her eyes red and swollen as she led Ye Fan to Ye Xi-Mei.

The driver brought them deep into the army camp and halted in front of the military hospital.

"Hmm? Why are we at the hospital? Is Mum sick?" asked Ye Fan worriedly.

Qiu Mu-Cheng replied softly, "Go in first. We can talk later."

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

Qiu Mu-Cheng quickly led Ye Fan to the hospital ward for senior officials.

Inside the ward, the nurses were changing the IV drip for a patient while the woman lay in bed resting.

It was none other than Ye Fan's mother, Ye Xi-Mei.

Ye Xi-Mei seemed to have gotten a lot older than when he last saw her. There were a lot more wrinkles by the corners of her eyes now.

The moment she saw her son, she got off the bed excitedly.

"Madam Ye, you aren't well enough to move yet." Two nurses were startled and swiftly ran over to stop Ye Xi-Mei from getting off the bed.

Ye Fan instantly frowned. He walked over to the bed as he asked worriedly, "Mum, what happened? Why are you unable to even stand? Also, why do you look so pale? What on earth happened to you?"

Ye Fan was beside himself with anxiety.

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

He recalled his mother was fine before he left.

Also, she was only in her forties and wasn't that old.

Why would his mother become so weak within a year and end up incapable of getting off the bed?

Ye Xi-Mei leaned against the headboard and shook her head as she smiled and calmed Ye Fan, "Fan, I'm fine. It's not as serious as the nurse says. I'll be fine after some bed rest. Why were you uncontactable for such a long time? Mu-Cheng and I were worried sick. Fortunately, you came back in one piece. Otherwise, what would become of us?"

Ye Xi-Mei grabbed Ye Fan's hand as she smiled in joy.

She was genuinely happy from the bottom of her heart.

Ye Fan meant everything to Ye Xi-Mei.

Now that her son was back safely, all the pain she suffered was worth it.

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

Nothing could make her happier than to see her son return safely.

Although Ye Fan nodded when he heard what Ye Xi-Mei said, a wave of anger rose in his heart.

Even though his mother made it sound like nothing, Ye Fan could sense his mother hiding something from him.

“No, Mum. You have to tell me what happened. Why would you get so badly injured out of the blue? If nothing happened, you wouldn't have to leave Yunzhou and the company behind to go into hiding here. Something must have happened. Mu-Cheng, tell me what happened,” said Ye Fan deeply with a look of anxiety and anger.

“Ye Fan, I...” Qiu Mu-Cheng clearly had reservations and didn't even dare to look at Ye Fan's eyes as she lowered her head and spoke hesitantly.

Before Ye Fan managed to go on asking, Ye Xi-Mei interrupted, “Enough. Stop asking. I was in a traffic accident. This has nothing to do with Mu-Cheng or anyone else, so stop asking her.”

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

Ye Xi-Mei seemed somewhat angry as she told Ye Fan these words sternly.

“A traffic accident? Was it really an accident? Are you hiding something else from me?”

Ye Fan frowned somewhat suspiciously.

“I am your mother, and she is your wife. Why would we lie to you? Stop being so suspicious. From now on, just stop doing all this nonsense. You should focus on your family and business and start thinking about having a child. If you have a good and harmonious life, then I can stop worrying and sit back to enjoy life. Do you hear me? From now on, your family is the top priority. Neither Mu-Cheng, Jiangdong, or myself can take it if you go missing again. Can you just lead a calm and peaceful life from now on? I don't need you to bring glory to the family. I just want you to lead an ordinary life, just like your name.”

Ye Xi-Mei had wanted to say this for years.

Ye Xi-Mei had already said this to Ye Fan when he came home to Yeyang for the Lunar New Year.

However, Ye Fan refused to do as she said.

After all these crises they suffered, Ye Xi-Mei said the same thing to Ye Fan.

This time, there was no room for negotiation, and it sounded like an order.

“Mum, I...”

Ye Fan wanted to retort, but Qiu Mu-Cheng pulled him back the moment he opened his mouth.

Qiu Mu-Cheng looked at him, shook her head, and gestured for Ye Fan not to argue with his mother.

Ye Fan had no choice but to accede to his mother's request for now.

“Mum, don't worry. It won't ever happen again. I will give Mu-Cheng a stable and happy life.”

Ye Xi-Mei finally smiled.

“That's my boy. Fan, I would never do you harm. When I was young, I was proud, just like you, and wanted to carve a career with your father. After experiencing such a tough life, I finally realized that I lost everything despite my passion and dreams. Life is like water, so it's best for you to lead a long and uneventful life like a simple stream," said Ye Xi-Mei thoughtfully as she shared her life experience with Ye Fan.

As his mother, she didn't want her child to make the same mistakes that she did.

Even though everything looked beautiful and stirring on the outside, no one knew what risky business it was to get involved in the martial arts circle.

Perhaps Ye Xi-Mei spoke too much, so she suddenly started coughing violently.

Ye Fan quickly went over and patted his mother's back as he said with remorse and concern, "Yes, Mum. I know what you mean. Don't talk anymore, you need to rest since you are still recuperating."

Ye Fan and Qiu Mu-Cheng stayed by Ye Xi-Mei's side for a long time.

After Ye Xi-Mei went to bed, Ye Fan made an excuse and left.

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

“Ye Fan, where are you going?” Qiu Mu-Cheng went chasing after him.

“Nowhere in particular. I’m just going out to settle some business. Stay here and look after Mum. Call me if you need me,” said Ye Fan before he turned to leave the hospital ward.

30 minutes later.

Ye Fan stood coldly with his hands behind him in a room a kilometer away from the hospital.

Lei San, Li Er, and Wang Jie-Xi were kneeling before him with their faces looking pale and worried.

After Li Er met up with Lei San and Wang Jie-Xi, they traveled all night to Jiangdong’s military camp to apologize to Ye Fan.

Although nothing had happened to Qiu Mu-Cheng and his mother, the three men were still accountable for losing touch with them for so long.

Chapter 1439 Ye Xi-Mei's Advice

“I’m glad you realize your errors. But now is not the time to punish you. Tell me what happened in Jiangdong while I was away for half a year. Why did Mu-Cheng hide in the army without contacting anyone? Was my mother’s traffic incident a genuine accident? Where is the Green Dragon Force now?”

Ye Fan questioned them sternly.

His angry voice kept reverberating through the atmosphere.

Li Er and the others were so terrified that they didn't dare to say a word.

They looked at each other before they replied with sad looks on their faces.

"Mr Chu, why don't you ask your mother about it? We don't know what happened either," said Li Er in panic.

"Bullshit! Do you really not know what's going on? Or are you unwilling to tell me?" Ye Fan instantly yelled and sent raging wind sweeping throughout the room.

The teacups on the coffee table all shattered from the impact of Ye Fan's energies.

Li Er, Lei San, and Wang Jie-Xi trembled and became even paler.

All of them lowered their heads and didn't dare to answer after a long time.

"Hurry up and spit it out right now!"

Ye Fan's angry voice sounded so threatening that it made Li Er and the others feel terrified.

"Mr Chu, it's not that we don't want to tell you, but your mother told us not to let you know."

Li Er finally told Ye Fan the reason they couldn't tell him about what happened.

However, Ye Fan finally received confirmation for his suspicions.

"My mother told you to keep it from me? As I expected, there is more to this story. Don't worry, just tell me what happened. Tell me what happened in Jiangdong while I was away," said Ye Fan coldly with a solemn look in his eyes.

"But..."

Li Er and the others continued to feel worried and were hesitant to speak.

From the looks of it, they didn't want Ye Fan to learn the truth either.

After all, the culprit came from a powerful family.

The moment Ye Fan opposed them, they felt that even if Ye Fan had the last laugh, it would be a near win and Jiangdong would have to suffer the consequences of the feud.

In that case, they would rather Ye Fan drop the matter.

Now that Ye Fan was back, those people probably wouldn't dare to act recklessly.

It would be best for Jiangdong if they stayed out of each other's noses.

However, Ye Fan didn't feel the same way about this.

Ye Fan was always a firm believer in giving his enemies a taste of their medicine.

Moreover, these people actually had the guts to hurt his family members, so they had undoubtedly crossed Ye Fan's boundaries.

No matter who it was, Ye Fan was not about to let him off easy.

He had to find the culprit and make him pay the price.

“I will ask you one more time. Who was behind my mother's traffic accident? Where is the Green Dragon Force? What happened in Jiangdong while I was away? Are you going to tell me or not?”

Ye Fan's voice sounded freezing cold.

He sounded like an angry beast that was on the verge of blowing up.

Li Er and the others instantly panicked.

They had a feeling that Ye Fan would spill their blood if they didn't tell him the truth.

However, Li Er and the others continued to hold their tongues hesitantly.

“It seems your priorities are elsewhere, and you no longer do as I say. In that case, what use do I have for you lot?”

His threatening voice surged in all directions chillingly.

In an instant, Ye Fan raised his hand angrily.

“Stop!”

Just as Ye Fan’s hand was about to land, a deep shout quietly came through the door.

Qiu Mu-Cheng pushed Ye Xi-Mei into the room on a wheelchair.

“Mum, what are you doing here? The doctor said you needed a lot of rest.” Ye Fan’s menacing air instantly dissipated the moment he saw his mother.

“You unfilial son! Do you still see me as your mother? Kneel this instant!”

Ye Xi-Mei lost all her genial air.

Her striking face was filled with an imposing aura and fury that was out of her nature.

“Mum...”

Ye Fan wanted to speak.

“Kneel this instant,” shouted Ye Xi-Mei once again. She even angrily slapped Ye Fan as she spoke.

Ye Fan had no choice but to do as his mother said.

“I just knew you wouldn't give up and was merely patronizing me. You are the death of me. After everything I said, you didn't hear a word of it. You even forced Li Er and the others to tell you about what happened. What right do you have to scold them? Do you know how much they helped us while you were away all year? They are Jiangdong's heroes and the Ye family's benefactors. How could you shout at them?”

“Mum, I recognize their loyalty and what they did for me and will repay them for it, but I really want to know the truth. I just want to know what happened. Who tried to touch Jiangdong and who dared to actually harm my family? Who tried to hit me when I was down by attacking my kin? Mum, please tell me what happened...” said Ye Fan anxiously.

“Be quiet! I told you to let bygones be bygones and have a good life from now on,” said Ye Xi-Mei sternly.

After Ye Xi-Mei spoke harshly, her tone changed, and she said imploringly to Ye Fan, “Fan, please stop asking and let it go. I'm getting too old to lose my son again. I just want us to be safe and happy, okay? I beg you.”

Ye Xi-Mei’s eyes turned red as she spoke.

She even wanted to stand up from the wheelchair to kneel and beg Ye Fan.

All parents worried about their children.

Ye Fan was everything to Ye Xi-Mei.

She would rather suffer injustice than ever see her son in danger again.

“Mum, what’s the point of doing this?” sighed Ye Fan as he quickly ran over to stop his mother.

Ye Fan finally caved in after his mother implored him repeatedly.

“Forget it. Mum, I will do as you say and stop investigating the matter,” said Ye Fan deeply.

Ye Xi-Mei was instantly relieved to hear this.

However, things didn’t always go the way one hoped they would.

Chapter 1440 The Green Dragon Force Has Waited Too Long

After Ye Fan agreed to let it go, the room door opened.

Several people hurried over swiftly.

“Instructor Chu, is it really you? You’re finally back!!”

“We have been waiting for you a long time!”

They were none other than the members of the Green Dragon Force, whom he established back in the day.

Everyone cried when they saw Ye Fan.

It felt as though they were soldiers guarding the frontier whose general finally arrived.

Chapter 1441 Fury in His Heart

Li Zi-Yang and the others instantly knelt to Ye Fan when they saw him.

Perhaps out of indignation or joy, they couldn't help crying.

Ye Yu-Yan kept choking as she sobbed.

Ye Fan quickly frowned when he saw them.

The moment Ye Fan saw Gao Da-Zhuang using a walking stick and the bandages on Tai Shan's hands, Ye Fan felt annoyed.

"Da-Zhuang, what happened to your leg? Tai Shan, are your hands hurt too? The two of you look rather pale too."

Ye Fan stepped forward and pulled Li Zi-Yang over to examine him carefully.

He went on to check Ye Yu-Yan, Tai Shan, Gao Da-Zhuang, and Ma Ming-Bo as well.

All five of them had suffered severe internal injuries with no exception.

Tai Shan suffered the worst injuries of the lot.

Chapter 1441 Fury in His Heart

His injuries were so severe that even his core was damaged.

He had suffered ghastly internal injuries.

If he let his condition drag out a few days, it might cost him his life.

“Tell me how you got hurt! Who did this to you? Who tried to attack my team?”

A deep emotionless voice echoed in the room quietly.

Anyone who knew Ye Fan better would have realized how absolutely furious Ye Fan was by now.

His face was expressionless as he stood like a hefty rock and felt terrifyingly cold.

“Instructor Chu, it was the Lv family. It was that damned Lv Hua and his family from Jiangbei...” Li Zi-Yang clenched his fists tightly as he roared deeply with fury and hatred in his voice.

Before Li Zi-Yang finished his sentence, Ye Xi-Mei hurriedly interrupted him.

“Stop it! You are not to speak of it again. Anyone who brings it up has to leave this instant!” said Ye Xi-Mei sternly.

However, Ye Fan ignored his mother’s demands.

Ye Fan stood where he was without any expression as he looked at the Green Dragon Force with a profound cold look. His lips parted as his voice rang quietly. “Tell me.”

“Fan, what are you up to? Have you forgotten what you just promised me?” said Ye Xi-Mei so angrily that she trembled.

“Go on.” Ye Fan turned a deaf ear as his cold voice echoed once more.

“Don’t you dare breathe a word,” shouted Ye Xi-Mei furiously.

“Tell me,” continued Ye Fan.

HUUU!

The moment Ye Fan finished his sentence, a raging wind instantly swept in the room.

Ye Fan’s energies made the windows open.

Chapter 1441 Fury in His Heart

Ye Yu-Yan finally walked over and broke her silence.

Ye Yu-Yan looked at Ye Xi-Mei with a burning look in her eyes. "Aunt Xi-Mei, I know you don't want us to tell Fan because you are worried for him. Since we are members of the Green Dragon Force, we have to follow his orders and tell him about it. Moreover, the Lv family had really gone too far. They shouldn't have touched Fan's family. Even if you don't tell him about it, the Green Dragon Force won't take it lying down. I believe that General Green Dragon won't either!"

"Yu-Yan, you..." retorted Ye Xi-Mei after Ye Yu-Yan spoke resoundingly.

Ye Xi-Mei's face instantly turned pale.

She knew that they could no longer keep the matter under wraps.

Sure enough, all the Green Dragon Force members came clean with Ye Fan about what happened despite his mother's objections.

They told Ye Fan about War God Castle sending representatives to express their condolences to Ye Fan's widow. They also told him about how Lv Hua lusted after Qiu Mu-Cheng and ended up wanting to have Qiu Mu-Cheng for himself in a bid to take control of Ye Fan's estate.

Fortunately, the God of War turned up in the nick of time and saved Qiu Mu-Cheng and the others, while sending Lv Hua to the martial arts court for judgment.

Everyone felt they had averted the crisis, and it was all over.

However, Qiu Mu-Cheng and the others realized it was just wishful thinking on their part.

After Lv Hua was sent to the martial arts court, his clan pulled on every connection they had and finally got the King of Fighters, Mo Gu-Cheng, to help.

Also, plenty of people in War God Castle already hated Ye Fan to begin with, and God of War was the only one who admired his talent.

And perhaps Heavenly Grandmaster as well.

Chapter 1441 Fury in His Heart

But Tang Hao lived in seclusion and did nothing other than cultivating his martial arts and playing with his hammer.

He didn't get involved with the martial arts circle. And even if he did, he probably wouldn't have done much for a dead man.

Tang Hao and Ye Fan only met once and weren't even friends, so it was pure admiration only.

After Ye Fan died, there was no reason for Tang Hao to care about him.

From this perspective, the only martial arts leader Ye Fan was close to was the God of War.

Since the God of War was a powerful man, Lv Hua was a nobody to him.

The God of War didn't bother keeping an eye on Lv Hua's sentence. He merely told the martial arts court to punish Lv Hua severely.

Hence, it was easy for the Lv family to save Lv Hua with the King of Fighters' help.

In the end, martial arts court only sentenced

Lv Hua to cane himself 30 times.

Lv Hua ended up being the only person to leave the martial arts court alive all these years.

However, the Lv family didn't learn from their lesson and ended up even more fearless.

"Half a year ago, Lv Hua started to pull all kinds of moves on Mufan Group and Jiangdong. Lv Hua naturally didn't dare to act as brazenly as before. Even though his ruses he eased up, such moves were sometimes more unbearable than death. During that time, Mufan Group's upper management mysteriously fell from buildings or died of accidents. One after another, businesses or forces who worked with Mufan Group ran into trouble. Lv Hua did all this to force Mu-Cheng to hand over control of Mufan Group."

"Since Mufan Group was your life's work, Mu-Cheng refused to hand it over. In order to save your kin before Lv clan used their influence in the martial arts circles, I immediately brought Aunt Xi-Mei from Fenghai to Yunzhou. We stood guard day and night and even asked Commander Lu to

Chapter 1442 Wipe Out the Lv Family

“But Lv Hua didn’t stop there. Instead, he committed even more heinous acts. He attacked us both mentally and physically using the most underhanded and disgusting ploys. He was absolutely unscrupulous and wanted to finish us off on all fronts. It was hard for us to uncover all his ruses, and Aunt Xi-Mei and Mu-Cheng finally ended up in a traffic accident shortly after they left the villa. If Aunt Xi-Mei didn’t protect Mu-Cheng, both of them would have ended up hospitalized. Despite her efforts, there is still a wound on Mu-Cheng’s forehead that might leave a scar forever.”

Even though it was already over, Ye Yu-Yan couldn’t help trembling in fury with her eyes red as she recounted the incident.

She couldn’t imagine how someone could be so unscrupulous.

He would even harm someone’s family to get what he wanted.

He didn’t have the guts to do it when Ye Fan was alive, but he wreaked havoc after his death.

Ye Fan turned to take off Qiu Mu-Cheng’s cap as Ye Yu-Yan spoke.

Sure enough, there was a jarring scar on Qiu Mu-Cheng's forehead that was several centimeters long.

Ye Fan couldn't imagine the pain Qiu Mu-Cheng had to suffer.

Her face must have gotten covered with blood in the process.

Ye Fan clenched his fists tightly as he looked at the scar on her forehead.

He finally realized why Qiu Mu-Cheng wore a cap today even though she was not in the habit of wearing one.

She was wearing it to cover the scar.

He reached his hand out and touched the ghastly scar sadly.

No one knew of the fury burning in his heart at this moment.

"Go on."

After a brief silence, Ye Fan turned to look at

Ye Yu-Yan coldly once more.

Ye Yu-Yan nodded and continued, "I realized that Yunzhou was no longer safe, so I told Zi-Yang and Ming-Bo to send Mu-Cheng and Aunt Xi-Mei to the Jiangdong barracks. Also, we cleaned up their tracks and cut off all communication. After all, we were keenly aware of how powerful these martial artists are. If the Lv family found out where they were, even the entire army would be incapable of keeping them safe."

Ye Yu-Yan was speaking the truth.

A powerful martial artist was capable of picking off a single target from countless people.

Now everything was starting to make sense.

It was little wonder that Qiu Mu-Cheng and Ye Xi-Mei had been completely unreachable.

It also made sense that even Li Er and the others weren't able to find out where they went at all.

After all, they were trying to go into hiding. Fewer people with knowledge of their whereabouts meant a lower risk.

“That very night, we decided to attack Lv Hua because we couldn't take it lying down and wanted to seek revenge for Mu-Cheng and the others. Before we left Yunzhou, we were ambushed by their martial artists nearby and suffered a terrible defeat. Da-Zhuang broke his leg and almost maimed it. Two of Tai Shan's fingers were cut off and it's impossible for him to recover. If Commander Lu hadn't turned up in time, we probably wouldn't have the chance to see you today,” Ye Yu-Yan spoke sadly.

Her voice was filled with anger, indignation, worry, and joy.

They were still rather young after all. After crossing someone as powerful as the Lv family at such a tender age, it was natural for them to feel stressed.

The chair behind Ye Fan became crushed to smithereens with a loud crack.

Ye Fan was absolutely furious when he learned of what happened.

“Lv Hua is asking to get killed!”

Ye Fan thought either Brahma or some Japanese supreme grandmaster might have been behind it.

He never dreamed that the man terrorizing Jiangdong and hurting his family was not even a grandmaster.

Ye Fan naturally remembered Lv Hua's name.

He had pretended to be Lv Hua when he killed people while he was in the Amazon rainforest.

Back in the day, Ye Fan didn't even bother to look at Lv Hua.

Since Lv Hua was a mere ant, Lv Hua didn't deserve his attention.

It never dawned on Ye Fan that this insignificant man would end up causing so much trouble in Jiangdong and hurting his family.

Fury boiled in his heart.

Ye Fan seemed so murderous that they could almost sense it physically.

He clenched his fists so tightly that his joints popped.

“Go rest,” said Ye Fan calmly as he looked at the members of the Green Dragon Force.

He put the cap back on Qiu Mu-Cheng’s head to cover this scar on her forehead.

“Mu-Cheng, take care of Mum.”

The moment he finished his sentence, Ye Fan turned to leave through the door.

“Fan, stop right there! Where are you going?” shouted Ye Xi-Mei anxiously.

Qiu Mu-Cheng pulled Ye Fan and shook her head at him profusely.

Ye Fan stood with his back facing them as his emotionless voice rang. “I am going to wipe out Lv clan.”

Despite the few words he said, they felt as heavy as a mountain.

Li Er and the others almost collapsed when they heard what he said.

Ye Fan's words sounded shocking to them.

They were so startled that they stared with their eyes wide open.

"Stop it! I just knew that you would react this way if you found out what happened. You want to wipe out the Lv family? That's easier said than done. Do you know how powerful they are? Do you know how many martial artists they have? Do you know whose backing they have? You know nothing about them, yet you talk about killing them."

"You always talk about killing people and treat life as though it were nothing. Have you ever considered your family? You have just come back to us, but you are leaving after barely spending half a day with us. If you fail to return, what is going to happen to Mu-Cheng and Jiangdong? Come back this instant! I forbid you to go!" said Ye Xi-Mei angrily.

Lu Tian-He and the others heard the commotion and came in time to hear Ye Fan wanting to wipe out the Lv family.

"Yes, she's right, Ye Fan. You know nothing about the Lv family. Since you have just returned, you shouldn't act recklessly." Lu Tian-He anxiously convinced him otherwise.

"Ye Fan, the Lv family is no ordinary clan. They are one of the best martial arts families in Jiangbei. Old Master Lv is also a grandmaster. Their family is well-connected and popular in the martial arts circle. In northern China, War God Castle calls the shots. However, the martial artists in the south treat the family as their leader."

“Even though he can’t outdo your skills, he is more well-connected than you. His grandson managed to leave martial arts court alive, so someone important from War God Castle must have helped him. If you touch an elite family like them, you are bound to attract trouble. Even if you could wipe them out, do you think War God Castle would let you off? Do you think the Chinese martial arts circles would take it lying down? You are bound to end up getting devoured by public wrath. Even if War God Castle isn’t keen on punishing you, they will be forced to do it!”

Since Lu Tian-He had one foot in the martial arts circle and had a lot of experience, he knew the Chinese martial arts circle better than Ye Fan did.

Ye Xi-Mei was adamant about not letting Ye Fan know the truth or seek revenge because Lu Tian-He had told her how powerful the family was.

A family with a grandmaster in its ranks was considered elite in the country.

Ye Fan was a supreme grandmaster and a pillar of the nation, so in terms of fighting solo, he might have nothing to fear of Lv

Song-Liang.

But what about the Lv family's connections?

"Since Lv Hua was able to leave martial arts court in one piece, this means their family probably has connections with the highest martial arts authorities in China. Also, I understand that Lv Song-Liang has gained enlightenment and is trying to become a supreme grandmaster. The moment he succeeds, he will be ready to fight with years of cultivation behind him, so it's too early to tell who might end up winning. You are a new supreme grandmaster and inexperienced, so this is not the time to be reckless. Instead, you should plan with the big picture in mind," Lu Tian-He continued to persuade Ye Fan.

After all, he had known Ye Fan for a long time.

To a certain degree, Lu Tian-He had Ye Fan to thank for his position of Commander.

After all, if the country wanted to forge close ties with Ye Fan, they ought to promote Ye Fan's friends out of goodwill.

With Ye Fan around, he could establish himself firmly as commander of Jiangdong's army.

If Ye Fan fell, Lu Tian-He's superiors wouldn't care as much and would probably demote him before sending him away.

During the time everyone thought Ye Fan was dead, Lu Tian-He's superiors had suddenly turned up to check on him several times.

There were clearly a lot of folks in Yanjing who didn't like him and were finding excuses to remove him from the position.

For the sake of their friendship and his career, Lu Tian-He didn't want Ye Fan to kill the Lv family and put his life in danger.

This was life.

When he was a nobody, no one gave a damn about him.

The moment he was in a high position, he suddenly became burdened.

He suffered a lot of opposition for everything he wanted to do.

Also, too many people were counting on him.

Heavy is the head that wears the crown.

But would Ye Fan back off because of these concerns and suffer in silence?

Certainly not!

He wanted to lead an upright life.

He always knew who owed him and exacted swift revenge on them.

Regardless of Ye Fan's position, neither his heart nor his temperament changed, so Ye Fan turned a deaf ear to everyone's persuasion.

A cold, threatening aura radiated from his face.

"What's the point of saying all this? Lv Song-Liang is just a little grandmaster now. Even if he became supreme grandmaster, he is still nothing to me."

“What about War God Castle?” asked Lu Tian-He.

“Ye Fan, has it crossed your mind that they might get involved? What are you going to do when that happens?” Lu Tian-He’s eyes were filled with concern and anxiety. He was worried that Ye Fan would send himself to his death.

“War God Castle?” Ye Fan laughed.

He suppressed his fury as he laughed coldly.

“It would be great if they could keep their nose out. Even if they got involved, I would kill them as well. I will kill anyone who stands in my way. I have nothing to fear, even if they sent all six pillars of the nation! If it’s a fight they want, it’s a fight they get. With my prowess, who do I have to fear?”

BOOM!

Ye Fan’s words quietly exploded in the room like thunder.

Lu Tian-He and the others were stunned instantly.

Lu Tian-He was petrified when he heard that Ye Fan wanted to single-handedly fight the six pillars of China.

Heavens!

Ye Fan was simply too audacious to speak like this.

Those were the six pillars of the nation he was talking about.

If Ye Fan wanted to go against them, it was as good as pitting himself against the entire Chinese martial arts circle.

He wanted to single-handedly fight the entire Chinese martial arts circle?!

Heavens!

What was he trying to pull?

Wasn't it great to be alive?

Why did he have to knock on death's doors?

Lu Tian-He almost pissed his pants in shock. He was so terrified that his face looked contorted.

“Instructor Chu, don’t be rash. Calm down. You must calm down,” said Lu Tian-He while he was on the brink of tears.

The moment Ye Fan heard his words, the anger suppressed in his heart instantly exploded.

“Calm down?! When I was out serving the country, and my life was at stake, what were they doing? How did they repay me? They failed to protect my family and even shielded the culprits who harmed them. In the future, even if War God Castle doesn’t reach out to me, I will go to Mount Yan and question them about what they did!”

His resounding words sounded like gold falling on the ground.

Each and every word sounded so powerful that it left the wind raging in all directions.

The moment Ye Fan finished his sentence, he stopped lingering and left without looking back.

“Fan, come back,” said Ye Xi-Mei anxiously.

“General Chu, don’t be rash,” said Lu Tian-He anxiously.

However, Ye Fan was long gone when they left the room and attempted to stop him.

“Oh no. Now things are really going downhill. There’s bound to be major bloodshed in Jiangbei. There will probably be no peace in the Chinese martial arts circles,” Lu Tian-He shook his head as he sighed sadly inside the room.

Ye Xi-Mei was terribly worried, and her eyes were filled with concern.

In comparison, Qiu Mu-Cheng was particularly calm. She walked over and comforted Ye Xi-Mei, “Mum, forget it. Let’s go back. You ought to know that you can’t stop him. All these years, I have gotten used to this. He will never change once he has made up his mind. The only thing we can do is support him and wait for him to come back.”

Chapter 1444 Entering Jiangbei in the Snow

“She’s right. If we could stop him, he wouldn’t be the Mr Chu we know. He always knew those who owed him, exacted swift revenge on them, and followed his heart in all things. That’s what the King of Jiangdong, the General Green Dragon, the almighty Mr Chu, is like.”

Li Er, Lei San, and Wang Jie-Xi shook their heads as they laughed from behind.

In reality, Li Er already guessed it would end this way.

Neither Qiu Mu-Cheng nor Ye Xi-Mei would be capable of changing his mind.

After working for Ye Fan for so long, it was natural for Li Er to know this.

Ye Fan could probably let things slide if they hadn’t crossed his boundaries.

But the moment they did, nothing they said or did would be able to get them out of their impending downfall.

Anyone who tested Ye Fan’s patience was doomed to die!

Chapter 1444 Entering Jiangbei in the Snow

Lv Hua and the Lv clan had undoubtedly stroked Ye Fan the wrong way.

“How dare he try to harm Mr Chu’s kin? Lv Hua’s days are numbered. I just wonder how things will end up for Mr Chu.”

Li Er raised his head to look at the sky with worry in his profound eyes.

Just as Lu Tian-He mentioned, the Lv clan were no ordinary folks.

They had a long history and were well connected.

Sometimes, such families were like hornet’s nests.

The moment someone prodded them, they gathered their troops would fight back with lethal force.

No one knew of the storm that the young man had stirred for the Chinese martial arts circle.

HUUU!

The wind had suddenly started sweeping outside.

The fallen leaves instantly twirled in the air.

Before long, snow fell across the land.

It fell on the trees, in the rivers, and on them.

Qiu Mu-Cheng reached her hand out and watched as a snowflake melted in her hand.

Qiu Mu-Cheng raised her head to look up at the sky with her eyes half shut.

Her soft, gentle voice sounded like music to the ear.

-----

Jiangbei was located in the south, so the temperature had only started to drop slightly.

The people in the streets were still dressed in a single layer of autumn wear.

Every now and then, some lively young men would walk by dressed in short-sleeved T-shirts with a basketball.

Meanwhile, a black Land Rover was driving at top speed on the highway to Lin'an. The black car seemed like a swordsman's blade as it slashed into the distance at full speed.

Inside the car, lively music was playing.

The chauffeur swayed to the beat every now and then and was clearly in a good mood.

A young man was sitting in the back seat, resting his eyes.

They had already been driving all night.

They were traveling from Jiangdong to Jiangbei and had traversed thousands of kilometers.

"Young Master, at this speed, we will reach Lin'an in about two hours. See, I was right. If we drive like crazy, we will definitely reach before Old Master's banquet starts."

The chauffeur chuckled proudly like he was bragging about his driving skills.

"Uh huh. Just don't be late."

In comparison with the driver, the young man in the back seat was clearly not in a good mood.

He merely acknowledged the driver softly without even opening his eyes.

“Young Master, why are you so unhappy? Old Master told you to be more active during the banquet, so he clearly thinks highly of you. He probably wants to make you his successor. In other words, the entire Lv family will be yours one day. If it were me, I would laugh in my sleep even. But why haven't you smiled a single time?” The driver glanced at the young man sitting in silence through the rearview mirror as he asked quizzically.

The young man was none other than Lv Hua.

“How could I be happy? After all this time, I have yet to take over Jiangdong. Li Er, Wang Jie-Xi, and Lei San still refuse to answer me. Judging from their attitude, they will never work for us. Also, we failed to take out Qiu Mu-Cheng when we had the perfect opportunity. Those useless idiots! Now they have gone into hiding in the military camp and they have the protection of the army.

Since we have no ties with the army, things have gotten so much harder! How can I be in the mood to be happy when things aren't settled?"

Lv Hua couldn't help feeling annoyed thinking about Jiangdong.

Lv Hua initially thought Jiangdong would be divided without Ye Fan. He thought that he could easily carve up Mufan Group and absorb its power after pulling a simple ruse.

Lv Hua had underestimated the powers of Jiangdong and their loyalty and fear of Ye Fan.

He had told them repeatedly that Ye Fan was dead, but only a handful of people in Jiangdong believed him.

They refused to buy what he said unless they saw Ye Fan's corpse.

"Even War God Castle was incapable of getting their hands on his body, so what makes them think I'm capable of finding it? Even though all of them are big shots, they are more like cowards to me. Never mind. Since they refuse to submit to me, I will destroy them completely! Jiangdong belongs to me!”

Lv Hua clenched his fists tightly with a cold look in his eyes.

Initially, Lv Hua changed his mind about trying to take over Jiangdong when the God of War turned up at Mount Yunding Villa.

But after Lv Hua managed to escape martial arts court unscathed, he became even more daring.

Even the Lv clan went all out to help Lv Hua forcibly take over Ye Fan’s estate.

After all, the martial arts court’s sentence was a clear sign of War God Castle’s attitude.

War God Castle clearly didn’t care, wasn’t looking and didn’t want to be involved. They just closed both eyes on this matter.

In such circumstances, the Lv family would be fools if they did not snatch up Jiangdong.

Hence, Lv Hua was sent to Jiangdong shortly after his release to take over Jiangdong officially.

This time, Lv Hua didn't touch Mufan Group. Instead, he worked on all the other forces that supported Mufan Group. The moment Mufan Group lost all its friends, it would collapse even if he did nothing.

During this time, the powerful people in Ye Fan's pockets died mysterious deaths one after another.

Lv Hua thought they would finally submit to him after seeing their peers die, but it was just his wishful thinking.

The people of Jiangdong held Ye Fan in unimaginable reverence. Unless they saw his body with their own eyes, they didn't dare to betray him.

Chapter 1445 A Meeting of Old Friends

This didn't mean they were loyal to Ye Fan. Instead, they were simply afraid of him.

Ye Fan had already gone through situations that should have resulted in his death so many times.

During the last crisis in Jiangdong, two of Yanjing's elite families had taken over the city.

Almost all the powers in Jiangdong thought Ye Fan was dead.

The King of Jiangdong, Chen Ao, betrayed him, and Mufan Group changed ownership.

Ye Fan's family was even prepared to run.

Everyone thought Mr Chu's era was over.

Jiangdong was waiting to welcome new powers.

But look what happened in the end?

Ye Fan ended up returning triumphantly at the last moment.

He killed the sons hailing from the two

Chapter 1445 A Meeting of Old Friends

Yanjing elite families to make an example of them and make everyone bow to him.

Even Chen Ao, the longtime King of Jiangdong, and Ye Fan's right-hand man, was punished severely by Ye Fan.

He took away all that Chen Ao had worked all his life to accomplish and banished Chen Ao from Jiangdong forever.

Since they had witnessed first-hand what would become of them if they betrayed Ye Fan, the powers of Jiangdong refused to believe Lv Hua's one-sided story of Ye Fan's death and switch sides.

After Lv Hua's plans failed, he had no choice but to work on Ye Fan's closest kin.

He felt that if Qiu Mu-Cheng caved in or died, he could take over Mufan Group easily with no one at the helm.

Despite Lv Hua's calculated plans, he hadn't expected the army to get involved.

Since the army was controlled by the government, there was some degree of overlap with the martial arts circle.

Regardless of Lv Hua's audacity, he didn't dare to kill someone in a military camp.

He couldn't do it openly, so he had to deal with it secretly.

He had told his family to use their connections with the government to pressurize Lu Tian-He or isolate him.

Once someone else took over as Jiangdong's army commander, Qiu Mu-Cheng would lose her protection.

When the time came, he could do anything he liked with Ye Fan's widow!

"Young Master, don't worry. After the banquet is over, the Lv family's reputation will rise. All the powers of Yanjing will obediently bow to us, never mind one tiny Mufan Group," consoled the chauffeur when he noticed how unhappy Lv Hua was.

Lv Hua nodded. "That's true. After this celebration, our family's powers will not be limited to a small location. Instead, we will hold sway over the entire country as the top martial arts family in the martial arts circle. In time, I will have control over Qiu Mu-

Cheng just like how I can easily quash an ant.”

Lv Hua couldn't help smiling smugly as he thought about this.

HUUU!

The car wheels turned as the wind outside shattered.

Lv Hua sat in his posh car as he headed to Lin'an at top speed with the sun shining brightly outside.

Lv Hua was still clueless about Ye Fan's return.

Other than Ye Fan's close family and friends, the entire Chinese martial arts circle had no idea that the man who caused such a huge sensation half a year ago was back.

kingdom of Wuyue and later, part of the Song dynasty. It was renowned for its fine scenery and was known as heaven on earth. Countless tourists came to visit because of its fame.

A lot of lovers came to West Lake to take pictures.

It happened to be a public holiday, so the streets were more crowded than usual.

Tourists from all over the country could be seen on the streets of Lin'an.

"So this is the famous Lin'an! I'm finally here. I wanted to travel to Lin'an when I graduated, but many things cropped up, so I didn't manage to come. Now my wish has finally come true. Wen-Fei, it's all thanks to you that I got to come to Lin'an."

Bright laughter came from the street corner up ahead.

Four people happily bantered while they traveled together.

Two of them seemed like lovers and were wearing matching caps, jackets, and even identical phone cases.

The other two people in the group consisted of a charming young woman and a dashing man. They certainly made a picture-perfect couple.

Among the group, two of them knew Ye Fan.

One of them was none other than Ye Fan's old adversary, Chu Wen-Fei.

The other was He Yu-Rou, who had the chance to see Ye Fan once in Fenghai.

Strictly speaking, He Yu-Rou had merely caught a glimpse of Ye Fan at Dongchang Lake, but Ye Fan didn't know her at all.

"Oh yes, Wen-Fei. I forgot to ask, have you really broken up with Xiuxiu?"

The woman talking was Zhang Xin-Yu and was close friends with He Yu-Rou.

Chu Wen-Fei had managed to invite He Yu-Rou out on this trip purely thanks to Zhang Xin-Yu.

Otherwise, there was no way he could have convinced He Yu-Rou to visit Lin'an with him considering their ties.

The other young man was Zhang Xin-Yu's husband, Yang Zi-Jiang.

They were all university classmates, along with Chu Wen-Fei's ex-fiancée, Tian Xiu-Xiu.

Also, Yang Zi-Jiang was Chu Wen-Fei's roommate and they even shared a bunk bed, so they were exceptionally close.

After graduation, they didn't stay in touch as often as they liked.

Now they could take the opportunity to catch up.

Yang Zi-Jiang and Zhang Xin-Yu learned that Chu Wen-Fei had broken up with his ex-fiancée, so they asked out of concern.

Chu Wen-Fei's mood instantly sank. "We have nothing to do with each other. It's best for both of us since I realized she wasn't the one for me either. Never mind. It's all in the past, so let's stop talking about it. I came all the way to Lin'an for a new start, so I have let go of many things in my past." Chu Wen-

Fei shook his head as he smiled and spoke nonchalantly.

His voice sounded calm and relaxed.

In comparison to the past, Chu Wen-Fei had genuinely matured a lot.

People change after experiencing defeats.

Chu Wen-Fei was no exception after experiencing so many failed relationships in a row.

First, he dated Qiu Mu-Ying, then it was Tian Xiu-Xiu.

Strictly speaking, Chu Wen-Fei ended up breaking up with both of these women because of Ye Fan.

Back in the day when Ye Fan and Qiu Mu-Cheng resided at the Qiu residence, they were at odds with Chu Wen-Fei and Qiu Mu-Ying all the time.

Chapter 1446 He's Apparently Dead

Qiushui Logistics ended up going bankrupt, and the Qiu family went into decline, so Chu Wen-Fei's parents were against his relationship with Qiu Mu-Ying and wanted him to cut ties with her.

Chu Wen-Fei then met Tian Xiu-Xiu, and they eventually decided to get married.

But as fate would have it, their wedding date clashed with Ye Fan and Qiu Mu-Cheng's.

Also, he had stupidly insisted on taking Tian Xiu-Xiu to Ye Fan and Qiu Mu-Cheng's wedding location.

In the end, the joyous occasion ended in tragedy.

There was no way Chu Wen-Fei's wedding was unable to go on after such a fiasco.

Chu Wen-Fei and Tian Xiu-Xiu eventually broke up and stopped talking to each other.

Chu Wen-Fei was almost incapable of recovering from these repeated setbacks.

Those were the darkest days of his life.

Chapter 1446 He's Apparently Dead

As the saying went, phoenixes rose from ashes.

After a brief period of self-doubt, Chu Wen-Fei decided to leave Jiangdong.

Chu Wen-Fei finally realized that with Ye Fan around, he would never be safe.

That man was a nightmare to him. God must have sent Ye Fan to punish him.

A few days later, Chu Wen-Fei packed his bags and left Yunzhou without hesitation and threw his sad memories behind him.

He wanted to go far away from Ye Fan and make a new start.

After Chu Wen-Fei left Jiangdong, he quickly established himself in Lin'an.

In just a year, he became the deputy CEO of a local group.

Although Chu Wen-Fei's father helped to use his connections, it was still mostly thanks to his own abilities.

Since he had come from a rich family, he received the best education as a child.

Even though Chu Wen-Fei was often pretentious, he was still genuinely capable in certain aspects.

Chu Wen-Fei finally recovered his confidence now that his career was rising.

Also, his primal instincts started to awaken.

This time, he had his eyes on He Yu-Rou.

The young woman before him completely surpassed Tian Xiu-Xiu in the looks department and had an extraordinary family background.

When Chu Wen-Fei was in university, he used to fancy He Yu-Rou.

If he could manage to win He Yu-Rou's heart, it would help make up for his regret.

Chu Wen-Fei planned this trip in Lin'an precisely for that reason.

"Uh huh. Since all those things are in the past, why bring them up? Everyone has a past. In any case, men with experience are more charismatic. These days, women all like men with a story.”

Yang Zi-Jiang held Chu Wen-Fei by the shoulder as he laughed.

In a few words, he made Chu Wen-Fei's failed relationships sound like an edge.

Of course, Yang Zi-Jiang had mainly said it for He Yu-Rou to hear.

He naturally knew what his buddy was after.

His main job was to help matchmake Chu Wen-Fei and He Yu-Rou and make his buddy's dream come true.

“Let's go sightseeing. Wen-Fei, have you thought about where to take us? Since we had a hard time convincing Yu-Rou to come, you have to be extra attentive to her,” said Yang Zi-Jiang as he chuckled.

“That goes without saying,” replied Chu Wen-Fei. “Let's go. I'll take you to West Lake and see Leifeng Pagoda. I already bought the tickets a couple of days ago and have been waiting for you to come.”

Chu Wen-Fei led them to West Lake as they bantered.

Since he had left in Lin'an for over a year and was familiar with most of the tourist locations, it was only right that he played host.

Before long, Chu Wen-Fei led them up the tour boats and took a ride on West Lake to enjoy the scenery.

During this time, Chu Wen-Fei took the initiative and kept talking to He Yu-Rou. He would introduce the sights, recite some poetry about the West Lake or share a funny story.

Yang Zi-Jiang and Zhang Xin-Yu didn't get in their way and even deliberately went to the other end of the boat to give them more space.

He Yu-Rou suddenly asked Chu Wen-Fei, "Wen-Fei, I recall you know Mr Chu. Have you heard from him recently?"

"Mr Chu? Are you talking about Ye Fan?"

Chu Wen-Fei's heart skipped a beat.

He hated hearing this name.

He left Jiangdong to escape this man.

He didn't expect to hear Ye Fan's name in Lin'an.

"I'm no longer in contact with him, so I don't know how he's doing, but my dad told me he's dead," said Chu Wen-Fei coldly.

Although Chu Wen-Fei had decided to let go of the past, the moment he heard Ye Fan's name, he was incapable of staying calm.

After all, Ye Fan had hurt him too deeply.

How could Chu Wen-Fei let go of someone who had hurt him through and through so easily?

"Dead? Are you for real?" asked He Yu-Rou in surprise as she stood up as her face instantly paled.

"Do you know him?" Chu Wen-Fei was surprised by He Yu-Rou's reaction.

After asking her casually, he continued, "Dad only heard about it, so who knows whether it is true? But I'm guessing it's probably true. People like him who survive using brute strength lead dangerous lives. Regardless of the glory they might receive, their lives are constantly in a precarious position, so it's normal for them to suddenly die.”

The more Chu Wen-Fei spoke, the more worried He Yu-Rou looked and the colder she felt in her heart.

Just as He Yu-Rou was about to ask more, someone suddenly stopped their boat.

“The waters up ahead are closed to the public. Please leave.” A few employees steered a boat towards them and stopped them.

“What? Are they closed to the public? But why? Isn't West Lake public property? Why can't we go?”

Zhang Xin-Yu was instantly displeased.

Chu Wen-Fei frowned. When he saw a few boats up ahead enter the waters, he became even more displeased.

“If these waters are closed to the public, why

Chapter 1446 He's Apparently Dead

could they enter? My friend, do you think we are pushovers because we are young?" asked Chu Wen-Fei coldly.

"That's different. They have already applied for permission to enter and showed us the paperwork, but you clearly don't have a permit," explained an employee.

"I don't care. Since you've allowed them entry, then you have to let us through as well. Or else, I will lodge a complaint," threatened Zhang Xin-Yu sternly.

"Please go ahead. In any case, those were the orders I received," said an employee calmly.

“Forget it, Xin-Yu. Let’s not make things difficult for them. We don’t really have to go there since West Lake is huge and has great scenery in all directions.”

Since He Yu-Rou grew up in a family of politicians, she knew how hard it could be for low level employees.

These lower-level employees were always caught in between their duties and the public’s demands.

“Forget it? I won’t let them off for their lousy attitude. Don’t worry. I know someone, so once I make the call, they won’t stop us from entering,” said Chu Wen-Fei somewhat angrily as he stood up.

“That’s brilliant!”

Zhang Xin-Yu and Yang Zi-Jiang instantly cheered.

Chu Wen-Fei took his phone and made a call.

Since Chu Wen-Fei was in the real estate trade, he worked with the government all the time, so it was easy for him to pull some connections.

A few minutes later, Chu Wen-Fei hung up the phone disappointedly.

“Wen-Fei, how did it go?” asked Zhang Xin-Yu curiously.

Chu Wen-Fei shook his head. “It’s no use. Commissioner Wang said someone was holding a celebration here today, so big shots throughout the country will be here.”

“Really? It seems we really won’t be able to enter.” Zhang Xin-Yu shook her head disappointedly.

In the end, the four of them turned to leave.

However, Zhang Xin-Yu kept thinking about it on the way back.

“What kind of party do you think is happening here? They sealed off half the lake, and even a Commissioner doesn’t have the right to permit entry. Is it the G20 or something? Where leaders from all countries gather to discuss important matters?”

The more Zhang Xin-Yu went on, the more incredible she made it sound. He Yu-Rou and the others couldn't help laughing.

"Xin-Yu, there you go with your nonsense. If it were the G20, I think the entire lake and its vicinity would get cordoned off and not just the center of the lake," said He Yu-Rou as she laughed.

A lot of boats steered towards the sealed-off section of the lake as Chu Wen-Fei left.

"Yu-Rou, Wen-Fei, don't you think the people on the boat look strange? Why are most of them wearing long robes? If I didn't know better, I would have thought they were holding some martial arts conference, and all the heroes were gathering here today," said Zhang Xin-Yu as she laughed softly.

Chu Wen-Fei and the others also noticed that the guests were dressed unusually when Zhang Xin-Yu brought it up.

"No, now I really want to see what's going on." Zhang Xin-Yu couldn't suppress her curiosity.

She decided to steer the boat towards the venue.

“Hi, there! Excuse me!” shouted Zhang Xin-Yu from behind.

Before long, the people on a boat in front of them noticed their presence.

“Our boat is out of gas. Mind if we take your boat? We don’t mind paying,” shouted Zhang Xin-Yu as she waved her hand.

Chu Wen-Fei didn’t think Zhang Xin-Yu’s ploy would work. Before long, a boat stopped and put down a ladder to let them board.

“Wow. I can’t believe it worked.”

Chu Wen-Fei and the others were surprised.

Zhang Xin-Yu rubbed her nose smugly before getting onto the boat with them.

“You kids must have run here on your own against your master’s orders, right? These days, youngsters are so impatient. They come running whenever something exciting happens. If you spent your time practicing martial arts and succeed in the future, you wouldn’t need to come to places like this as a guest to congratulate someone else. Instead, you can be the star of the show just like Old Master Lv and sit back while everyone bows to you. Oh yes. I forgot to ask which sect you are from," a kind-looking old man smiled as he spoke to them.

However, Zhang Xin-Yu was at a loss about what he said.

What martial arts?

What sect?

Had they transmigrated to ancient times where there were swordsmen aplenty?

He Yu-Rou cleverly recalled a man's name while Zhang Xin-Yu and the others hesitated. She replied quickly, "We don't belong to a sect, but Mr Chu from Jiangdong gave us a few pointers before, so we are his disciples to a certain degree."

"Mr Chu from Jiangdong?" The man on the boat was stunned. One of them said in surprise, "Are you talking about Ye Fan?"

There were barely any famous people in Jiangdong's martial arts circles.

Ye Fan was the only one who was famous throughout China.

Hence, they naturally recalled Ye Fan when she mentioned Mr Chu from Jiangdong.

“I can’t believe you are his disciples. Your master was a real prodigy. Sadly, he died young. My deepest condolences.” Someone on the boat sadly sighed as he shook his head.

“Humph. What prodigy? He is just an arrogant kid who had a stroke of luck. I heard that he was cocky and disrespectful to even a pillar of the nation like the King of Fighters. How can the kid disrespect War God Castle? It's better for people like him to die. Otherwise, his pride will land us in trouble one day,” someone in the crowd spoke in contempt.

Ye Fan was a highly controversial character in the Chinese martial arts circle.

Everyone in the world was surprised by his talent but hated his arrogance.

To them, a younger one ought to behave like one.

Regardless of how powerful a youngster was, they ought to show respect to their elders.

He Yu-Rou looked even more disappointed when she heard that Ye Fan was dead.

Was that brilliant young man from Dongchang Lake really dead?

He Yu-Rou rarely paid any attention to a man. In her university days, a lot of the girls around her were fans of celebrities, but He Yu-Rou was disinterested in girly-looking men.

However, Ye Fan was an exception.

He Yu-Rou couldn't help admiring Ye Fan when he defeated martial artists from Japan at Dongchang Lake.

All year round, she had been quietly keeping tabs on any news of him in the hope that they would cross paths again.

She did not expect the next thing she heard about him to be about his death.

For that moment, He Yu-Rou felt indescribably sad.

“Yu-Rou, look at that! Look at how grand the setup is!”

Just as He Yu-Rou slumped into disappointment, Zhang Xin-Yu suddenly started shouting excitedly.

He Yu-Rou raised her head and saw a posh and exquisite open-air venue set up on the island.

There were flowers as far as the eye could see.

The fiery red carpet looked like flames covering the entire island.
