

Chapter 1461: The Opposite

“Jiang Yao, although it’s common for Lu Xingzhi to not rest for a few days when he’s on a mission, it’s different this time. He might look like he’s fine, but I’m afraid that he’ll exhaust himself.” Zhou Weiqi scratched his head; he did not know what else to say.

After all, his third brother could not fall asleep, so Jiang Yao would be more concerned than he was.

Physical illnesses could be cured, but it would be harder if mental issues were involved.

Jiang Yao was a doctor. She could cure physical illness, but she could not cure mental illnesses.

Just like Chu Sheng, although she was not physically ill, she could not speak for some psychological reasons. She was helpless.

She hoped that Lu Xingzhi’s issue was not that serious. Otherwise, he would have to rely on sleeping pills to fall asleep.

Every drug contained a bit of poison. Too many, and it would be damaging to the body, even if it was something that she concocted from the medical system.

At the bureau, Ah Da’s interrogation did not progress until eleven o’clock at night.

Ah Da, who had no food, drink, or sleep, had confessed on the third day. If Ah Da had not confessed on his own, perhaps the people there would have to spend a lot of manpower and energy to get him to do that. Perhaps even more people would have to be sacrificed. No one knew that a woman was controlling everything from behind the scene.

“Take him back and make sure to guard him well! If there is another incident like the one with Ah Zhu—”

Lu Xingzhi stayed in the interrogation room alone for a long time to look through Ah Da’s statement. He carefully searched through the statement to find what was helpful and what information was still suspicious and needed to be investigated.

“That is Ah Da’s identity. Go and investigate Ah Da’s family first.” He gave Ah Da’s identity card, name, and hometown information to the police officer guarding the door. “The sooner, the better.”

The police officer received the items and left in a hurry. He happened to brush past Liang Yueze, who came after hearing the news. Liang Yueze called for someone before he walked into the interrogation room.

“Any progress?” Liang Yueze stood beside Lu Xingzhi and looked at his expression. The man had stayed in the interrogation room for an entire day. He even ate there.

At first, he thought he would need more time to make Ah Da talk. He did not expect to receive the information so quickly.

One could imagine what Lu Xingzhi had done in the interrogation room that day to dismantle Ah Da's resolve.

"These are Ah Da's confessions. Take a look." Lu Xingzhi gave the report to Liang Yueze, then sat back on the chair and rubbed his temples.

Liang Yueze realized that he had a headache, but he did not say anything. He lowered his eyes and focused on the papers in his hand. He quickly glanced over it. "The boss is a woman? Yanzi? A woman in her thirties?"

Liang Yueze saw Ah Dan's description of the boss again. He frowned. "In her thirties, thin and tall, 1.65 meters tall, and has long hair. It's almost contrary to what Brother Jing said!"

Chapter 1462: It's Obvious

"Do you think Brother Jing lied, or Ah Da did?" Lu Xingzhi looked at Liang Yueze.

Liang Yueze smiled. "It's obvious. Do you really need to guess?"

"It seems like Ah Da really does think highly of his boss!" Lu Xingzhi sneered. "He might have already confessed, but he still thought of a way to protect his boss. He's half alive now. Let's go and see Brother Jing again."

Lu Xingzhi took the papers in Liang Yueze's hands and left the interrogation room first. Then, he led Liang Yueze to where Brother Jing was imprisoned.

A few days ago, Brother Jing was still dressed luxuriously. Once he took off those clothes, he squatted in the corner of the shabby detention room, no different from a beggar on the side of the road.

Lu Xingzhi glanced at Brother Jing, then raised his hand and knocked on the iron window. He called Brother Jing to the door and asked, "Have you seen a tall, thin woman in her thirties, about 1.6 meters tall, with long hair? Her name is Yan Zi."

At that point, there was no need for Brother Jing to hide anything else anymore. Therefore, when he heard Lu Xingzhi's question, he began to think carefully.

About a minute later, Brother Jing said, "I don't know her name, but she seems to be very similar to the woman who's always with the boss. She's in her thirties and has big breasts, but she looks tall and thin. I've seen her with the boss before. She should be the boss' woman. She helped the boss send us a message a few times, but I don't know her name. But she has been with the boss for many years."

After Brother Jing finished speaking, he looked at the officer at the door and wondered what he was thinking. He quickly asked, "I have cooperated with you. Will the court still sentence me to death?"

"That depends on how many useful clues you can provide us in the next few days."

Lu Xingzhi turned around and left. He despised Brother Jing more than Ah Zhu.

Brother Jing was afraid of death. With what he had done, he should have been prepared to risk his life.

“Gu Changshu?”

When Lu Xingzhi was about to leave, he saw Ding Xiaomei carrying a child. When she saw him, she subconsciously called out to him. Only then did she realize that she must have called out the wrong person. She smiled embarrassedly. She said, “Sir!”

Ding Xiaomei was there to see Brother Ding. She knew that the man was not seriously injured, as they had transferred him from the hospital to the detention center.

“You’re here to see Brother Ding?”

Lu Xingzhi’s attitude toward Ding Xiaomei was not bad because he admired a woman like her. Very few people could truly be as kind and righteous as Ding Xiaomei.

When Ding Xiaomei first went to Brother Ding, she secretly gave him a few account books stolen from Brother Ding’s study. After Brother Ding was arrested, Ding Xiaomei helped to persuade him to cooperate with the interrogation.

“Yes, I’m here to let this child see his grandfather. He doesn’t know that he has a grandson.” Ding Xiaomei patted the child’s head, her face full of motherly love. “I’m preparing to go back to my hometown tomorrow and pick up my family. No matter how many mistakes he made in the past, it’s all over now. I should let the family see him. It’s a pity that my brother’s whereabouts are still unknown. Otherwise, my family would finally be reunited.”

Lu Xingzhi nodded, then turned to make way for Ding Xiaomei.

Ding Xiaomei walked a few steps forward before she turned around and asked, “Sir, can I see the doctor? I want the child to thank her personally.”

Chapter 1463: Starting To Complain

“We’ll talk about it in the future. Right now, she doesn’t have time to spare.” Lu Xingzhi helped Jiang Yao reject her. Jiang Yao needed to recuperate. Furthermore, Jiang Yao did not help Ding Xiaomei just for the woman to thank her.

Ding Xiaomei understood the meaning of the man’s rejection. She felt a little regretful, but she did not think too much about it. After saying goodbye, she carried her child and followed the police officer into the room.

After leaving the detention center, Lu Xingzhi and Liang Yueze went straight to the office. Lu Xingzhi poured two glasses of water, handed one to Liang Yueze, and drank the other one himself.

Liang Yueze said, “It seems that Ah Da wants his boss’s woman to take the blame. He’s pretty smart.”

Without a doubt, Lu Xingzhi and Liang Yueze had chosen to believe in Brother Jing instead of Ah Da.

Lu Xingzhi had a lot of doubts when he heard Ah Da say that the boss was in his thirties. However, Ah Da's identity must be real. After all, Ah Da was a smart man; he knew that a lie needed to be part of a truth to cover it up.

"Why are you still here at this time of night?" Lu Xingzhi saw Liang Yueze drink a cup of water before he dragged a chair to sit down, so he looked at Liang Yueze in confusion. "Why do you have so much free time? Have you shut down your company?"

Liang Yueze could not be bothered with Lu Xingzhi. He lowered his head and drank his water. Then, he took a cigarette and was ready to smoke it. He asked, "Do you want one?"

"No."

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. "I'm going back to the hospital in a while. I will smell like cigarettes. She doesn't like it."

"Only Jiang Yao can control you like this."

Liang Yueze knocked on the table with the cigarette case. He seemed to have thought of something. Then, he put the cigarette case back into his pocket.

"Why don't you smoke? Sister-in-law has divorced you, and no one cares about you," Lu Xingzhi asked.

Liang Yueze's eyelids twitched. That guy was in a bad mood, so he started to complain.

Did he provoke him? So much that he would stab his brother in the heart like that?

The two of them sat in the office to kill time. Lu Xingzhi was in a bad mood, and Liang Yueze did not provoke him anymore.

Even though it was already very late, the police station was still brightly lit. In the past few days, most of the people in the station had been working overtime, and some have even worked all through the night.

"Sergeant Lu! Sergeant Lu! We've found Ah Da's information!"

When the clock struck 12, the police officers rushed into the room. "This is Ah Da's information. It matches the photo on his ID card. It's him! And that's information about Ah Da's family. His parents died in an accident in the early years. He still has some relatives in his old home. The news came from the local police station, where Ah Da is registered. He also has a sister who is a few years older than him. After his parents passed away, his sister took him to the city to earn a living. He hasn't returned to his old home for decades."

"Is his sister still alive?"

Lu Xingzhi took the information and quickly flipped through it.

"There's no information on that, so she should still be alive. His sister was married, and not long after that, she ran away with Ah Da from her husband's house. After that, the two siblings never returned to their hometown."

As the police officer spoke, he clicked on a photo of Ah Da's sister. "The people in the town say that Ah Da's sister is the eldest daughter. She has always been strong and wild like a boy. She had short hair, and people who didn't know would think they were two brothers. When she was 15 or 16 years old, she even pretended to be a boy and went to the construction site to earn money. Look at the photo on her ID card... Her hair is so short that she really looks like a man."

Chapter 1464: Why Not?

According to the information on the ID card, Ah Da's sister was already 20 years old when she applied for that ID card. However, if one did not look at the gender column, she looked like a man.

Ah Da and his sister's information was incomplete. After all, the two siblings had not returned to their hometown for decades. The data collected was all about when the two siblings were still young.

"Are the two siblings close?" Liang Yueze asked.

"Quite. People say that they are close. Ah Da's mother is a disabled person bought by their father. Ah Da's sister is much older than Ah Da. They say that Ah Da's sister cares for Ah Da like a mother. Their family is poor, but no one dares to bully Ah Da because he has a particularly fierce sister. Who dares to bully their family? Ah Da's sister can hit people with a brick and beat them until their heads bleed. Their family is poor and can't afford to pay, so they can't do anything about their family."

"Alright, leave the information here."

Lu Xingzhi nodded and let the police officers continue with their work. Then, he flipped through Ah Da's family information.

Liang Yueze saw that Lu Xingzhi was reading seriously, but he did not say anything. Then, he asked, "What do you think? Based on that information, Ah Da's sister is right, Ah Da is very good. Ah Da has such a tough boss. Is it possible that he has a relationship with Ah Da's sister? Perhaps he's his brother-in-law?"

"If Xiao Ya's husband is rich and can help you with your business, but he has been keeping another woman for many years, will you still protect him if something happens?" Liang Yueze gave Lu Xingzhi an analogy.

Even though that analogy was not very pleasant, it made Liang Yueze snap back to his senses.

If Xiao Ya's future husband dared to find another woman, let alone keep her, even Liang Yueze would make the other party lose everything he had.

Xiao Ya was Liang Yueze's only cousin. They were close; he treated her like his biological sister.

Lu Xingzhi looked at Liang Yueze and asked, "Why don't you assume that Ah Da's sister is his boss? Why is it that every time Brother Jing sees the boss, the place is dimly lit? Why can't Brother Jing see the boss' face clearly? Perhaps they don't want him to know more about the boss?"

"Ah Da's mother was a disabled person sold to Ah Da's father. The two siblings' family was exposed to human trafficking since they were young. Ah Da's sister behaved like a man from a young age. She has shown her violent side since then. After so many years, it's not strange for her to establish such a big gang."

Lu Xingzhi tapped on the papers on the table with his fingertip as he spoke, and it landed on the paragraph where Ah Da's sister had beaten someone with a brick when they were young.

"Ah Da isn't tall. Ah Da's sister shouldn't be that tall either. Brother Jing said that the boss isn't a tall man either; he's short and chubby. That would explain why Ah Da desperately wants to protect his boss."

"What about the woman? Brother Jing said that there is such a person. She is the woman who has followed his boss for many years," Liang Yueze said. "

Chapter 1465: Not Surprised

"Yan Zi is the boss' woman. Who says that the boss can't be a woman? When did you become so ignorant?" Lu Xingzhi chuckled. Even though homosexuality was rare, it did not mean it did not exist.

That man had started to criticize him again. Liang Yueze curled the corners of his lips and chuckled.

That was not only rare; it was also shocking.

"The information about Ah Da's sister showed that her personality was like a man, so it shouldn't be surprising."

Lu Xingzhi's mood was much better. There was a flash of a smile in his eyes, but the words that came out of his mouth were not pleasant. "It seems that your divorce has had a great impact on your IQ!"

After saying that, Lu Xingzhi took the documents and left. It seemed like he was preparing to return to the detention center to test his idea.

It was not that Liang Yueze was ignorant, but Lu Xingzhi was a soldier and had carried out countless missions. He had seen all kinds of strange people and things in the places he had been to. Therefore, it was easier for him to connect the dots than Liang Yueze.

Half an hour later, Lu Xingzhi reached the detention center alone. His mood was much better. Obviously, he was satisfied with the information he had gotten in the past half hour.

"Where is Ah Da's sister now? She is the boss behind that group!" Lu Xingzhi threw the information about Ah Da's sister to the police officers, then headed upstairs, ready to report to Chief Liang.

It was a significant discovery, so the police officers, who had been in a depressed mood for a long time, suddenly became excited. Everyone was full of energy.

After Lu Xingzhi finished his report, he went downstairs. He went back to his office to get his car keys and was ready to go back to the hospital. When he saw Liang Yueze, he said, "Aren't you going back to the hotel?"

"Are you going back to the hospital now?" Liang Yueze asked.

"Yes, I haven't seen her for a whole day." Lu Xingzhi did not hide his concern and longing for Jiang Yao at all.

Liang Yueze shot a cold glance at Lu Xingzhi before he walked around him and left.

It took a lot of time for Lu Xingzhi to get from the station to the hospital. By the time he reached Jiang Yao's ward, it was almost two o'clock.

Jiang Yao woke up the moment Lu Xingzhi entered the room. She had been waiting for him the whole night.

"Did I wake you up?" Lu Xingzhi's voice was soft, but there was a sound when he opened the door. He noticed Jiang Yao standing up and staring at him when he walked in. He thought that he had woken her up.

"No."

Jiang Yao shook her head and then gestured to Lu Xingzhi to sit.

"Wait a minute, I'm going to take a shower first. I smell bad." Lu Xingzhi closed the door and walked over. He lowered his head and pecked her lips lightly. His heart softened when he saw her act coquettishly. It seemed that she really missed him.

After taking a shower, the first thing Lu Xingzhi did when he lay beside Jiang Yao was to hug her in his arms. Then, he shared the good news with Jiang Yao.

"We've found the boss' identity. Yes, it's Ah Da's biological sister."

"So it's his biological sister. No wonder Ah Da is so protective of that boss' identity." Jiang Yao was shocked at first, then came to a realization. No wonder Ah Da had refused to tell them anything.

Chapter 1466: Don't Try To Be Brave

Ah Da was lying, but Lu Xingzhi did not tell Jiang Yao. He did not think it was necessary to tell her about Ah Da's sister. He did not want to corrupt her ears.

Jiang Yao asked, "Then the work after that should be easier, right? Will you be able to report to the new unit soon?"

"More or less."

They probably would not include him in the operation to capture Ah Da's sister.

"That's great!" Jiang Yao happily pressed her face against the side of Lu Xingzhi's face and rubbed against him, like a kitten trying to please its owner. "After I'm discharged from the hospital, I can go to your new unit to take a look. I can go to our new home to take a look!"

"Okay."

Lu Xingzhi nodded. "Most of the things you like in our previous home have been sent over. There will be people helping to clean up in the next few days. When you're discharged from the hospital, you should be able to move in."

Lu Xingzhi could feel that Jiang Yao's happiness came from the bottom of her heart. She was really looking forward to their new home.

"It's very late. Close your eyes and sleep." Lu Xingzhi raised his hand to cover her eyes. "If I come back late in the future, don't wait for me. You have to rest more."

Since he did not wake her up, it meant she had waited for him.

"What about you? Are you staying awake for another night?" Jiang Yao pushed his palm away from her eyes.

"You know about that?"

"If I don't know that, are you going to keep it from me?"

Jiang Yao snorted twice to show her dissatisfaction, but seeing that Lu Xingzhi was not in a good state of mind, she did not argue with him. Instead, she asked tentatively, "Do you want me to sing you a lullaby to get you to sleep?"

Lu Xingzhi's eyelids twitched, and he burst out laughing. "Stop trying to be brave."

'Don't try to be brave, don't force yourself.'

Jiang Yao was so angry that she kicked him in the calf. That guy disliked her singing and thought she was trying to be brave by singing!

"It's not that bad, okay? If you dislike it, you can sing to your child next time!" Jiang Yao bared her teeth and felt indignant.

"It's not that I don't like it. I'm just afraid that you'll make me more energetic." Jiang Yao was rarely angry. Lu Xingzhi found it interesting, so he teased her a little.

No one was perfect. His wife also had things she could not do well, such as singing.

"Then what should I do?"

Jiang Yao was really worried. "Why don't I tell you a story? Or read to you?"

Jiang Yao took two books from under her pillow. "Choose one. Which one do you want to listen to?"

The two books were foreign classics. Zhou Weiqi was afraid that she would be bored, so he bought her books from a bookstore.

Even though Jiang Yao had read them all, she still read them to pass the time.

Lu Xingzhi realized that Jiang Yao was serious, so he chose one.

"Then I'll start reading. Close your eyes." Jiang Yao stuffed the other book under the bed and hugged it. She lowered her head and kissed Lu Xingzhi's left eyelid gently.

Just as she was about to open the book and stand up to read it to him, she saw him reach out and touch his right eyelid. He said leisurely, "Wife, you can't favor one over the other."

"Childish!"

Jiang Yao scolded him with a smile, but she still kissed his right eyelid as he wished. Then, she opened the book and read it to Lu Xingzhi.

There were not many ups and downs in the plot of a famous foreign book; it was like a documentary... Although Jiang Yao had never studied broadcasting, she was a doctor, and she knew what kind of tone and voice could make people relax.

Chapter 1467: Good Morning

Even though her singing was not pleasant, her voice was excellent. It was a graceful and gentle tone. When she was reading, there was a special note in her voice.

She held the book with both hands. Lu Xingzhi's hand was on her waist. After a while, that hand moved. He took one of her hands holding the book and put it under the quilt. The hand that he was holding was placed on his heart.

The palm of that hand could feel his strong heartbeat and the hot temperature of his palm.

The man looked like he was covered in ice but had a ball of fire burning in his heart.

The ward was very quiet, and only her gentle voice was in his ear.

Her soft hand was in his palm and pressed against his heart. He liked to feel the temperature of her palm and even liked her to let him hold her hand obediently.

Even after so many things, she still trusted him and saw him as someone she could rely on.

He closed his eyes. Perhaps it was because her voice was beside him, so his mind was no longer filled with images that hindered his sleep. Instead, it was filled with the picture of the two of them meeting for the first time.

She had two braids and was skipping around the campus. She looked in his direction with a smile on her face. He knew that she did not see him, and he also knew that she was not smiling at him. However, at that moment, her smile still entered his heart and was greedily locked in his memory.

The first time she hugged him and said that she missed him, her face was pale, and her watery eyes expressed the feelings that she had endured for him.

The first time he had her, she bit her lips, and her face was full of tears. Then, she shyly and clumsily pandered to him. Then, she whimpered under his body and begged for mercy. She had scratched his back and kicked him to stop.

It turned out that from the first time he saw her, every scene after that was carefully kept by his subconscious mind.

Sleepiness attacked him without warning, and he was not prepared to resist.

She read for about 40 minutes before she felt Lu Xingzhi's breathing gradually calm.

He finally fell asleep.

She let out an almost inaudible sigh, and the worries that had been hanging in her heart for the whole day had also disappeared.

Zhou Weiqi was right. She was his drug.

However, it was not quite right.

She was not only his drug but also his heart.

“Good night.”

She put down the book in her hand very gently and put her face on his arm. She lay beside him and looked at his sleeping face after a tiring day.

The two of them were awakened by the chirping sparrows outside their window early the following day. It was like an invisible tacit understanding. The two of them opened their sleepy eyes at the same time. The first thing they saw was each other’s barely awake faces.

Jiang Yao’s eyes were full of smiles. “Good morning!”

The response was a passionate kiss. It was a kiss filled with surprise and excitement.

It was an exceptionally lingering kiss until Zhou Weiqi was forced to stop in his tracks when he arrived with breakfast. Zhou Weiqi stood at the door, dumbfounded. Jiang Yao’s face was as red as a ripe apple as she pushed Lu Xingzhi away.

“It’s so early in the morning, and I’m afraid of needles.” Zhou Weiqi walked in with small flowers and carefully observed Lu Xingzhi’s expression.

Liang Yueze had told him that Lu Xingzhi had not been in a good mood those days when he went out.

He liked to vent his emotions on others, so he spoke very carefully.

Chapter 1468: My Life

So, Zhou Weiqi, ‘If I disturb Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao, will he kill me later?’

So he shifted his steps to observe Lu Xingzhi’s expression. He would immediately run away if he felt something was wrong. Nothing was more important than his life.

People who were usually reticent about words could also see red when they argued with others. It was terrifying!

“Get out.” Lu Xingzhi lifted the blanket and got off the bed. He took the box in Zhou Weiqi’s hand and was ready to kick him out.

“Hey, can’t you appreciate my effort? Beware of karma!” Zhou Weiqi held the door tightly and refused to leave. “If you do this, I won’t send you lunch at noon!”

“I’ll go to the police station at noon. I don’t need you to send anything.” Lu Xingzhi was only joking, of course. When it was about time, he let go and helped Jiang Yao wash up and prepare breakfast.

The couple brushed their teeth. Zhou Weiqi stood at the bathroom door and watched them. “You look better today. Did you sleep last night?”

“Yes,” Lu Xingzhi answered him. Then, he bent down and spat out the mouthwash, and washed his face. He took another water basin and wrung a towel for Jiang Yao, who was slowly brushing her teeth.

“Every time I see you taking care of Jiang Yao, I feel like you are taking care of your daughter.” Zhou Weiqi touched the tip of his nose. “If it were possible, can you brush her teeth too?”

After saying that, Zhou Weiqi let out a gasp of surprise. Suddenly, he slapped them hard. “So you guys kissed before you even brushed your teeth when you woke up just now? Doesn’t it stink? Doesn’t it stink after sleeping for a whole night? ”

Jiang Yao spat a mouthful of water onto the mirror. She turned her head and glared at Zhou Weiqi. “Can you not say such things when I’m brushing my teeth? You’ll make me swallow my mouthwash if you do that!”

However, Lu Xingzhi was not affected by Zhou Weiqi’s question at all. He reached out and twisted Jiang Yao’s face to his side. Then, he covered Jiang Yao’s face with a warm towel and wiped her face, and said, “A lonely person like him who has never held another woman’s hand will never understand.”

“Who said I never held a woman’s hand?” Zhou Weiqi glared at him. “I did that once!”

“A lonely person like him, who has only held hands once and never kissed before, wouldn’t understand.” Lu Xingzhi calmly changed his words.

Zhou Weiqi was speechless. He turned around and left the bathroom door. ‘They haven’t brushed their teeth after sleeping all night; they must have bad breath! In the future, when I get married, I won’t kiss my wife before brushing my teeth!

Jiang Yao subconsciously held her breath when the towel covered her face. After Lu Xingzhi was done, Jiang Yao gasped for breath and stuck out her tongue at Lu Xingzhi. “Do you want to kiss me again? I brushed my teeth, and my breath smelled like lemons!”

He smiled softly as he washed her towel and hung it up properly. Then, he bent down and held her waist with both hands before lowering his head to kiss her. It was a gentle and gentle kiss, unlike the forceful kiss on the bed just now. He used so much strength that it was as if he wanted to eat her up.

“You’re my life,” he let go of her and whispered in her ear.

Jiang Yao’s face burned. She had never heard Lu Xingzhi say such explicit sweet words. She touched her cheek in embarrassment. After a while, she reached out and poked his arm. Then, she pointed at his head and chuckled. “Comb your hair.”

Chapter 1469: Caring For A Daughter

A soft and delicate sentence made Lu Xingzhi’s heart soften a little.

“I’ll sit outside and comb your hair for you.”

Lu Xingzhi had a smile in his eyes. Then, he helped her out of the bathroom. It was not until he held Jiang Yao's hand, brought her back to the bed, and let her sit on the edge of the bed that he turned around and took the comb.

The amber-colored comb was held between his fingers. It was too small for his hands, but he did not care about that.

Zhou Weiqi prepared breakfast for them at the small table. When he turned around and saw Lu Xingzhi combing Jiang Yao's hair, he was stunned, as if he had been struck by lightning.

He saw Jiang Yao's head leaning against Lu Xingzhi's body and yawning lazily. Lu Xingzhi supported her head with one hand and held the comb with the other as if he was considering where to start.

Zhou Weiqi turned around and muttered, "You really are taking care of your daughter." Then, he secretly glanced at them again. Needless to say, he felt a little jealous.

Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao got along as naturally as an old married couple. When Jiang Yao acted coquettishly, it made people unable to resist her.

Zhou Weiqi secretly thought that even if he had to take care of his wife as if he were taking care of his daughter, he would be very happy. He was jealous that Lu Xingzhi already had a wife. When could he be like him? He could only hold Zhan Qiuhe's discreetly.

When he thought of Zhan Qiuhe's soft hands, Zhou Weiqi scratched his head. He wanted to fly back to Jindo City immediately.

Then, Zhou Weiqi automatically moved a few steps away. He imagined how he doted on Zhan Qiuhe and helped her comb her hair and wash her face. He felt very happy just thinking about that.

Jiang Yao's hair was very soft but very thick. However, she had lost a lot of weight because the food in Shu City was not to her liking. Therefore, her hair was a little drier than during the New Year. She had not combed her hair for a whole day. It was a little difficult to comb the ends of her hair, but Lu Xingzhi did not show any impatience. He did it very carefully.

He used very little strength, but he was still worried that it would hurt Jiang Yao's scalp. After a while, he would ask her if she was in pain. Only when she shook her head did he dare to use more strength.

There were very few things in that world that could hurt Lu Xingzhi. Tying her hair was one of the rarer ones.

Therefore, he only combed Jiang Yao's hair and tied her hair into a ponytail. However, he realized that it was loose, so he gave the hair tie to Jiang Yao and let her do it herself. When Jiang Yao took the hair tie and tied it in two or three loops. He remembered the process, so he thought he would try it again the next day.

"Are you still going to the station today?"

Jiang Yao sat on the edge of the bed and dangled her legs as she watched Lu Xingzhi and Zhou Weiqi fill her breakfast plate. She had had first-class treatment while she was in the hospital.

“I’ll accompany you for a while after breakfast. If there are no other issues, I’ll be back at noon.” Lu Xingzhi moved the small table in front of Jiang Yao and handed her the bowl and cutlery. “Zhou Weiqi cooked porridge this morning. It smells good and there are two side dishes that you will like.”

“Jiang Yao, I treated you well, right?” Zhou Weiqi winked at Jiang Yao. Lu Xingzhi said, “During your time in Shu City, the food did not suit your appetite, so you’ve lost a lot of weight. I’ll try my best to fatten you up.”

“Thank you, Chef Zhou!”

Jiang Yao looked at the breakfast on the table and smiled... Even though she was constantly insulting Zhou Weiqi, she would never forget how he cared for her during those few days.

Chapter 1470: Escaped

Zhou Weiqi did not leave immediately, knowing that Lu Xingzhi was going to the police station after dinner. Instead, he stayed in the ward to accompany Jiang Yao.

Many people in the police station worked through the night. When Lu Xingzhi walked into the office, the smell of coffee assailed his nostrils. There was a cup of coffee on everyone’s table.

“Sergeant Lu, you’re here?” The person sitting closest to the door was the first to notice Lu Xingzhi. It was very strange. Lu Xingzhi was clearly from the army to assist in the work and was not their leader. However, when they saw Lu Xingzhi, they were even more nervous than when they saw their captain.

“Sergeant Lu, do you want coffee? We’ve been working all night, so everyone needs to be alert, right?”

“Please help yourself.” Lu Xingzhi was not stupid enough to think that those people would know that he would be there that morning, so naturally, they would not have his share of coffee. They just wanted to make sure that he had one. They were so nervous that they did not know where to put their hands and feet. That was why they did not have anything to say.

After exchanging some pleasantries, Lu Xingzhi walked into the office and went to look for Captain Hao.

Captain Hao was on the phone with someone when Lu Xingzhi walked in. He raised his eyes and looked in the direction of the door. Then, he pointed at the chair opposite him and gestured for Lu Xingzhi to sit down.

After waiting for a few minutes, Captain Hao hung up the phone. He yawned and asked, “How’s the situation at the hospital? It’s been so many days, and we don’t have time to go to the hospital to visit them.”

“Where’s your wife? When can she be discharged?”

“I don’t know yet.” Lu Xingzhi did not want to talk to Captain Hao about that, so he did not have much patience and asked what he wanted to know directly. “How much did you find out about Ah Da’s sister?”

It had been one night. If they were fast enough, they should have found out everything.

“Nothing good, but it’s within our expectations.” Captain Hao handed a piece of paper to Lu Xingzhi and said, “The exit record shows that she left the country two days ago and entered YN. Now, we are seeking help from YN to help us capture her. However, YN’s attitude is a bit perfunctory and ambiguous. They haven’t given us an accurate answer yet.”

Ah Da had already been captured for so many days. Naturally, the boss had been prepared to escape. It would be difficult to catch her when she was out of the country.

“Even though the big boss has yet to be caught and she escaped, that gang has been successfully destroyed. You can’t guess how many victims we have rescued so far, right? More than 500 people have been successfully rescued in just a few days. Other than the women and children who had been sold to the countryside, there were also young girls who had been forced to work in various sex trades. In total, we saved more than 500 people. However, we have a problem. Among the 500 people, there were more than 100 young children. Some of those children had been rescued from the human traffickers, some were sold, and some had been abducted and sold at a very young age. They had been away from home for many years. However, because of their young age, they could not remember their family members, so they had a problem with placement.”

There were more than 100 children—it was a huge pressure for the orphanage.
