

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 1500 – 1509

Chapter 1500

He just got out of the car and walked inside.

A small figure leaned at the door, looked at him unhappy, and blocked his way with words.

“Daddy, you really are a complete follower. There are obviously meetings, but if you don’t have a good meeting, you have to follow.”

The speaker is Levi.

Although he has grown taller, the little guy is tall and thin, but compared with Ye Moshen, he is still too short and too short. Levi is not convinced at this point. He must eat more, exercise more, and wait for growth. When you are old, you must stay high and stay a head deep.

Hearing, Walter’s lips were coldly curled, and he walked up to the little guy, stretched out his hand and slapped his head.

Levi was not convinced, struggling to get out of the control of his big hands, but how could a child’s strength be more powerful than an adult?

Therefore, Levi can only be suppressed by Walter Shen.

Seeing him struggling under his palm but still being unable to escape, Ye Moshen couldn’t help but feel amused, and laughed at him: “I can’t even break my palm, dare to speak to your daddy like this?”

Ahhh!

Levi stared at Ye Moshen angrily, and suddenly shouted: "Mummy, look at me, Daddy is bullying me."

Hearing him calling Mommy, Ye Moshen closed his hands faster than lightning, and the person quickly recovered his original appearance, as if the man who suppressed his son was not him at all.

While Levi turned around and ran away while Walter Shen let go.

Walter Shen decided to take a look, where there was Stella's shadow, and the little guy in front of him had already slipped away.

Oh, it's terribly cunning.

Is this his Ye Moshen's son? Except for that face, nothing else resembled him at all. He was so scheming at a young age and wanted to steal women from him.

It seems that he has to consider choosing a future marriage partner for Levi, so that he can focus on his own woman, and don't always steal women from him.

After seeing Ye Moshen's appearance, Jessica immediately thought fortunately. Fortunately, her mother reminded her that otherwise the lunch for lunch might really be insufficient.

But she was still quite surprised. Didn't Stella say that he was going to have a meeting, but in the end he ran over, and she was really sticking to her as expected.

"I saw this group of people like gods staying in my home, and I also married Victor Han, and gave birth to twins."

Everything is so good that it doesn't look real.

Because she never thought that she would stay with this group of people or even become family members.

After Levi came in, he sat tightly next to Stella, holding her arm, and said something sadly, and Walter came over behind him with a deep face, before Levi could finish his words. , Picked up his collar, and put it next to him.

Then, Ye Moshen occupied the place where Levi was sitting.

Seeing this scene, Jessica couldn't laugh or cry.

“I even wondered, when his two sons grow up, will Victor Han be like Ye Moshen? But think about it, Victor Han's temperament is relatively introverted. Although the old man has changed a lot after the two people are together, the nature of the person generally does not change.”

Even if there is a change, it will not be too outrageous.

So Victor Han shouldn't be like this.

After Levi was carried, he was so angry that he put his hands around him, and he was so depressed that he didn't want to talk. He had to find a way to come back at night.

And Stella seems to have been too lazy to care about the war between the father and son. After all, in such a long period of time, it is normal for Ye Moshen and Levi to compete for strength. So Ye Moshen's move just now is just one thing. Vice I didn't see the expression, I don't know anything.

Anyway, Stella knew that Levi would definitely come back soon afterwards, and then the two father and son continued to calculate back and forth like this.

It's not a good thing to be too smart.

Stella silently hugged the small bean sprouts in her arms, and suddenly felt that her silly daughter was also quite cute.

When Victor Han came back from get off work, he saw a crowd of people sitting at home, lively, with his own wife and children, his own sister, and brother-in-law and children all together.

“Brother, I'm back.”

“Uncle.” Levi and Xiao Dou Sprout shouted.

The coldness in Victor Han's eyes was replaced by softness, and he nodded, then he met Victor Han's eyes.

Men are not as greasy as women, talking and laughing, and the two have a cold temperament. If it is an ordinary person, Ye Moshen would really not want to take care of it, but he is helplessly his wife's brother. , It was his brother-in-law, so the two nodded in greeting.

Victor Han took off his coat, washed his hands and sat down beside Jessica.

“Where's mom?”

Didn't see Janis's figure, so Victor Han felt a little strange. When calling before, he seemed to hear Janis's voice on the phone.

Jessica thought of getting up to serve him the meal, but Victor Han directly took the hungry bowl from her, and went to serve it by himself. After he came back, Jessica explained: “Just now I called the store and said something was happening in the store. It needed to be dealt with. Mom was worried, so she didn't stay for lunch. Just now, she also sent me a message saying that we will have lunch in the store today.”

“Yeah.” Victor Han nodded, and then looked at Stella who was sitting across from him. He found that her complexion was flushed and she was obviously well raised, and she was more satisfied with Ye Moshen.

“It seems that my brother-in-law treats my sister well and looks okay.”

Hearing, Walter’s eyebrows and eyes were deeply bent, and he directly stretched out his hand to embrace Stella in his arms, and leaned to her ears and said: “Have you heard my wife? Your brother said that I raised you well. “

Stella didn’t expect that she would take him over in front of everyone. Although everyone knew that each other’s relationship was good, they couldn’t be so direct. It was embarrassing.

Thinking of this, Stella stretched out her hand to push him, and whispered: “Don’t be like this, outside.”

Walter Shen leaned over and kissed her directly on the cheek, “Okay, I’ll go home that night and hug.”

Hearing, Stella’s mouth couldn’t help but twitch, can’t this person be more reserved?

However, Victor Han did not feel embarrassed, but looked at Walter Shen rather pleasing to the eye.

His brother-in-law really needs to have such a temperament, not afraid of the eyes of others, if he is afraid of everything, he must take care of it, then the one who is wronged must be his sister.

This is good for him.

After lunch, Stella wanted to amuse the twins for a while, but Ye Moshen took away directly, and then Levi was left behind.

On the way back, Walter looked at Stella with a serious expression.

“Do you think our son has grown up?”

“Huh? I have grown a lot taller this year.”

“We can arrange a wedding for him.”

Stella: “???”

Chapter 1501

“What are you talking about?” Stella thought he had misheard, how old is Levi, and he was about to arrange a marriage? Does he still want to have a blind date?

Stella thought he was joking, but Ye Moshen seemed to be thinking about something, and then he seriously said: “I saw the daughter of the Tang Group a few days ago. She looks very cute and matches Levi. “

“What?”

Walter gave a deep cough. In fact, he was a little guilty. He did not pay attention to what the parents looked like. He just heard that the Tang Group has a daughter who is one or two years younger than Levi, so he remembered this. .

As for how he looks, it doesn't matter at all. What's important is to arrange the marriage of Levi so that he will not pester his mother all day long.

“I find a time to have a talk with his father, and then let the two children meet.”

Stella: “?”

From just now to now, she has not been clear about what is going on in front of her, because she has not reacted to it and wants to ask clearly.

But Ye Moshen has been constantly arranging things to develop, and when he heard that he wanted to arrange for her son and girl to meet, Stella finally couldn't help it.

“How big is Levi? What did you just say? Are you sure you are serious?”

Ye Moshen held her hand and stared at her with dark eyes.

“Yes, Levi is not young anymore. The child should be picked up from an early age, and if the conditions are good, he will be trained together, and he will get married directly after graduation.”

Stella pursed her red lips. She felt that Ye Moshen's thoughts were not invisible, so she asked, “Is it because of me that you want to find someone for him?”

“So what?”

Unexpectedly, Ye Moshen admitted frankly, “He is robbing you with me every day. You are my woman, so I have to find one for him and let him find his own woman.”

Stella's lips twitched: “He is your son.”

“So what?” Walter sneered, “Even my son can't steal my woman.”

Stella was speechless and choked, because this jealousy is really amazing.

“Walter Shen, I know you love to be jealous, but you have to be jealous. Levi is still young. It is too ridiculous to find someone for him at this time. No parents have done this.”

“Why not? In ancient times, weren’t everyone just the matchmaker’s words? Some even made the marriage contract before they were born, and we just introduced him instead of letting him marry, let him get along first, childhood sweethearts, Maybe it will be in the future.”

It makes sense, Stella couldn’t refute it.

“I don’t think it will work. It’s not like this when I say it.”

“Then just introduce them to know, be good playmates, don’t talk about the object.”

Because he was denied by Stella, Ye Moshen immediately changed another set of rhetoric. Stella glanced at Ye Moshen, his eyes were obsessed, and it seemed that he wouldn’t give up until Huanghe.

As a playmate, it seems to be more acceptable than a blind date?

“When he was in school, didn’t he also sit at the same table with girls and classmates? He knew multiple girls, what’s wrong? Don’t you want Levi to choose more?”

As a mother, Stella had never thought about this problem. It was not that she didn’t want to, but she hadn’t thought about it. Because it was at least ten years away from thinking about it, Stella never thought about it. .

Now that Ye Moshen asked so suddenly, she really didn’t know what to do.

Probably seeing her entanglement, Ye Moshen squeezed her hand and clasped her fingers tightly. His voice was slow and deep, with a little guiding smell.

“I am also his father. Although I am jealous, I will not harm him. I just give him more space for his own activities. Besides, he is pestering you all day, so relying on you like this is not good. You have to give me your time every day. , And you have to give it to Levi beans and small bean sprouts, so you are very tired. If he can not pester you, you can spend more time with the small bean sprouts in the future, eh?”

Stella was really moved by what he said.

Levi is indeed very sticky to her, but she feels nothing, even she also thinks that Levi should communicate with others and make more friends.

“Levi can have more friends, and the small bean sprouts are still small. It takes more thought and time to teach well. Wouldn't it kill two birds with one stone?”

Ye Moshen spoke seriously, as if he was really a particularly great and selfless father. When he talked to Stella, he completely hid his selfishness.

He thought Stella didn't know.

Finally, Stella looked up at him, gritted her teeth and said, “It's not for you to say so nicely. It's the first time I have seen your son's jealousy like this.”

But his proposal is good, get to know more people.

So in the end Stella agreed even though she disliked Ye Moshen's thoughts.

Seeing her promised, Ye Moshen was ecstatic in her heart, but she didn't show it at all on her face.

“When I returned in the afternoon, the meeting was not made up, and I went directly to the Tang Group to find someone.”

In the evening, he brought a little girl back.

Stella looked at it, almost startled.

Because the little girl that Ye Moshen led back, although she was a little girl, was actually a little chubby, round cheeks, round eyes, chubby body, and round little hands and legs.

It’s just a small ball.

Stella was a little bit dumbfounded, “Are you sure that Levi is really yours?”

It’s not that she discriminates against fat people, but this little girl is really round and round. She feels that Ye Moshen is a father, and her words in the morning are completely different from the feeling when we meet at night.

This is the so-called sense of drop.

Ye Moshen didn’t expect the other party’s daughter to actually...

He stretched out his hand to cover his lips and coughed, biting his scalp and said: “Anyway, just make more friends. If Levi dared to engage in sexism, I would kill this kid.”

When he was waiting for Levi to return home at night, he was puzzled when he saw a little fat man on his dining table.

Stella waved to him when she saw him coming back.

“Levi, are you back?”

Levi walked over with a puzzled look: “Mummy, who is she?”

Xiao Pangdun was sitting at the table at his house, struggling to eat. She was eating deliciously, almost full of fragrant mouth. Levi glanced at what she was eating, which was actually a bowl of peanut dumplings.

He usually doesn't take a bite of this thing because it is too sweet and greasy.

But this little fat dun actually eats deliciously, one bite at a time, and he swallows quickly.

After eating a bowl, one more bowl.

This appetite is really amazing.

“This is the youngest daughter of the boss of the Tang Group. Her name is Pamela Tang. Come get to know her.”

Pamella Tang?

Levi wrote down the name silently, and it really didn't make a mistake.

Chapter 1502

Pamella Tang is like his name.

The eyes are round and the body is round.

Anyway, it's round everywhere, and the name is really appropriate.

“Pamella.” Stella took a tissue and wiped the corners of her mouth for Pamela Tang who was eating Fen, and then gently lowered her voice, “Come and meet my little brother, okay?”

“Okay.” Pamella Tang opened her mouth, her voice is particularly cute and cute, soft and waxy, just like hers.

The aunt in front of her had eaten a lot of delicious food for her, so Pamella Tang liked her very much and listened to her.

“This is Auntie’s son, called Levi.”

Hearing, Levi frowned in dissatisfaction: “Mommy, that’s my nickname, why should I tell her my nickname?”

“You are all kids, what happened to your nickname?”

“Brother, what’s your name?” Unexpectedly, Pamella Tang asked for the name of Levi.

Millet’s lips curled up with pride: “Listen well, my name is four characters, Justin Yuchi.”

Pamella Tang didn’t seem to recognize these four people, but she seriously watched Levi’s mouth and started syllables. She squatted, but she seriously called Levi’s name.

Because of these words, Levi felt that Pamella Tang in front of her became cute, and it was probably because he was older than her, so Levi walked over and touched her head.

“It’s a good scream. If you shout again, brother will give you chocolate.”

Brother Scream has chocolate to eat. Pamella Tang likes the person who gives her food the most. From birth to now, he only bends for one thing, and that is to eat.

“Brother!” Pamella Tang stretched out her small fleshy hand and grabbed the corner of Levi’s clothes. “Brother, brother, thank you, brother.”

She has always been stingy with people who give her food, so these few brothers shouted as if she didn’t want money. Levi was rarely called to herself by the corner of her clothes so softly.

Before the birth of his sister, Xiao Dou Sprout, he had actually imagined many times, but Xiao Dou Sprout has never called his brother a few times until now. Although Levi teaches her every day, Xiao Dou Sprout always shouts Baba every time, so angry. No way.

He even felt that if this little bean sprout was on the same front with his daddy, he would always call Baba when he taught her to call his brother.

So Pamella Tang’s elder brothers really shouted into Levi’s heart.

Stella, who was next to him, could clearly see it too, and said softly to Levi, “Mommy still has to look after Xiaodou Sprout, can you help Mommy look at her first?”

Levi nodded obediently, “Good mom.”

After Stella left, Pamella Tang looked at Levi with her round eyes. After waiting for a while, seeing Levi still did not move, she poked her fingertips nervously.

Waiting for a while, Pamella Tang finally couldn’t help but raised her head and looked at Levi with eyesight.

But she always reminded Levi, brother, what about the chocolate you promised me? Because her mother told her that she shouldn’t ask for things from others, or they would dislike her very much, and it would be very rude.

If that person is willing to give it, even if she doesn't need to speak, the other person is willing.

So although Pamela Tang likes to eat, she also has principles.

Levi found that her greedy eyes were almost overflowing, but he never asked her, "I don't have chocolate with me now, but I can take you out to buy it. Do you dare to go out with me???"

Eh?

Pamella Tang rolled her eyes, then nodded hurriedly: "Brother, Pamela is willing!"

"Then you follow me."

So Pamela Tang stepped on her calf and got off the chair, and walked behind Levi. Compared with her small round legs, Levi's legs appear to be taller and longer, so he walked longer. In fact, it is a normal step, but Pamela Tang's one step is equivalent to a normal person's half step, so Pamela Tang can only trot to keep up with the steps of Levi.

At first, it could be maintained. After walking for a while, Pamela Tang was panting with exhaustion. She looked at the tall and thin little brother in front of her, her cheeks were red, but she did not dare to ask.

At this time, Levi seemed to have noticed something wrong, and stopped to take a look at Pamela Tang.

Pamella Tang was struggling to jogging, but when Levi stopped suddenly, she almost couldn't stop the car. It was because Levi reached out to help her and she stabilized.

Noting that she was breathing very fast, Levi realized that he was walking too fast just now, so he slowed down, and then inadvertently glanced at Pamela Tang's short legs.

Sure enough, it was still the same as her name, round short legs.

But Pamela Tang belongs to that kind. Although the whole body is fleshy, but the small face is still red and shiny, and the round eyes are especially aura. The little mouth is pink, and the whole is a fleshy little cute .

Levi couldn't help it, and squeezed her cheek.

"Brother?" Pamela Tang tilted her head suspiciously in the face of his behavior.

Seeing this scene, Levi couldn't hold back his hand and pinched her cheek again.

It feels really good, it's fleshy, it's really nice to pinch.

Just in the face of the little girl's eyes, Levi stretched his hand back, and said: "It's nothing, are you tired from running? Then go slowly."

Although Pamela Tang was young, she knew that he was surrendering her. When she walked slowly before, Mommy would bend and hug her.

But the little brother is different, he is not his own mummy, but he is willing to stop and wait for her, that is a very considerate person.

So Pamela Tang said very sweetly: "Brother, thank you."

Levi continued to lead her forward, then went to find the driver to drive, and took her to a large shopping mall closest to Haijiang Villa.

The driver was worried about the two children and said, “Little master, I will go in with you.”

Who knows that Levi shook his head, “No need for uncle, I can go in with her, and we will be out in a while.”

Levi is clever and smart. From his appearance, nothing will happen, so the driver agreed.

After that, Levi took Pamela Tang to the mall to buy chocolates.

Originally intended to buy chocolates, but in the process of buying chocolates, Pamela Tang stared at the marshmallows on the shelf, and started to be unable to walk again.

Until Levi found out that she hadn't followed, he turned around and saw her staring at the marshmallow.

Then Pamela Tang was staring at the marshmallows by Levi, her cheeks flushed, and her eyes dropped shyly.

Levi walked in front of her, reached out to take the marshmallows on the shelf, and asked her: “How much?”

Chapter 1503

“Huh?” Pamela Tang thought she had heard it wrong, so why would he ask how much she wanted?

“Does brother want to buy it for me?”

“Don't?”

“But...” Pamella Tang bit her finger tangledly, and said pitifully, “My brother only agreed to buy me chocolate. I like marshmallows, but I also like chocolate.”

Most importantly, she didn’t know which one to choose.

If you buy marshmallows, your brother probably won’t buy her chocolates.

Levi could see through her tangled look. The little girl thought about writing everything in her eyes. He took a few packs of marshmallows and put them in the tweet, “Then buy chocolate marshmallows together, and...”

He pulled Pamella Tang’s hand down and taught her, “Don’t bite your fingers, it’s unhygienic.”

“Wow.” Pamella Tang immediately retracted her hands nervously and stood upright, looking good and cute: “Brother, I was wrong, not next time.”

Because Levi bought her marshmallows and chocolates for her again, the little girl looked at him, she almost regarded him as a god.

Levi, with a small fat man who was a lot shorter than her, suddenly proposed: “Are you going to play games?”

Pamella Tang immediately showed a curious and interested appearance, and the corners of Levi’s lips couldn’t help but raised: “Brother will take you to play.”

Pamella Tang was very moved. Why is this elder brother so good? He bought marshmallows and chocolates for her, and also took her to play games.

As soon as the little girl was moved, she reached out and hugged Levi’s arm, and she was very dependent on him.

“Thank you brother.”

Pamella Tang’s voice was soft and waxy.

After that, Levi took her to play for a long time. The driver waited outside for a long time and did not wait for the two to come out. Some anxiously wondered if something happened. When he was about to go inside to find someone, Stella called over.

“Young grandma, yes, the young master is outside here, he said he wants to buy chocolate. Well, I entered the mall, but it hasn’t been out for a long time.”

Originally, Stella wanted to get the two together. Who knew that the two of them had disappeared when they turned their heads, but after asking, she realized that Levi had ran out with Pamella Tang.

She was a little anxious at the moment. Usually, she just went out by herself. How could she also abduct other girls, so she immediately called the driver.

When the driver said that Levi had taken people to the mall, she was still a little anxious: “The mall is crowded and messy. Although Levi is smart, she is two children after all, plus Pamella...”

If something happens to her short legs, how can she run?

So Stella was still very worried, and the driver also heard the anxiety in her tone, so he said: “Don’t worry, young lady, young master is so clever, there will be nothing wrong, I will go into the mall now and look for them. “

“Ok.”

After hanging up the phone, the driver was about to find someone inside.

After walking a few steps, he stopped again, because the driver saw that the Levi had come out, but this time the two did not come out together.

Pamella Tang fell asleep without knowing why, she lay on the back of Levi, her little meaty hands hugged Levi's neck, lying on his back and fell asleep extremely sweetly.

Although he was carrying a small chubby pier on his back, the little boy had a steady pace without any sway.

The driver hurried forward, trying to say something, but Levi made a silent gesture to him, so the driver closed his mouth and opened the door for him.

After setting up the sleeping Pamella Tang, the car drove to Haijiang Villa.

At night, the president of the Tang Group brought his wife to pick up Pamella Tang. When the couple came in, they were a little nervous and didn't know where to put their hands and feet.

Although their Tang family is a group and they are particularly profitable, they are still not enough compared to big companies like Ye's.

At first, the couple heard that Ye Moshen came to Pamella Tang and said that they were going to get a thread for the two children. They were shocked. Mr. Tang's wife even thought it was a conspiracy.

But after learning about Ye Moshen's character, the couple was relieved.

It's just that Pamella Tang hasn't returned home for a long time this evening, so the couple called, and then came to pick them up in person.

As soon as they entered this Haijiang Villa, the couple could only sigh that poverty can really limit people's imagination. After all, in places close to the sea like Haijiang Villa, only Ye's can do it in this city.

Before, the Tang couple had never thought that one day they would be able to get along with Ye's. They just wanted a little business relationship. So when Ye Moshen went to see him today, he was so excited.

"This big family is different." President Tang took his wife and said in a low voice.

"Yeah, this decoration and these displays are all very valuable. Will Pamela offend others? If we offend them, then..." At this point, Mr. Tang's wife was a little frightened. of.

"No, no."

President Tang waved his hand: "We Pamela is also a snack food. We love to eat a little bit, usually very polite, you taught her very well."

That said, Mr. Tang's wife was relieved now.

After that, the couple went in to pick Pamela Tang and Stella greeted her in person. She was dressed casually, wearing only a soft knitted suit at home. She was light gray and white, and her waist-length hair was half-rolled, which was very gentle.

With just a glance, Mr. Tang's wife couldn't move her eyes away. She didn't expect Mr. Walter's wife to be so pretty.

Seeing her staring at her all the time, Stella stroked her face strangely, "Sorry, I was in a hurry when I came out just now, is there something on my face?"

Hearing, Mr. Tang's wife then reacted and waved her hand quickly: "No, no, Mrs. Ye is so beautiful, I was distracted for a while."

Stella didn't expect that she was distracted because of this. She hadn't been praised for a while, so when she heard someone praise her at this moment, she was in a good mood, and her lips curled up happily.

"Ms. Tang is too polite, you are also very beautiful."

Compared with Stella's generous and generous, Mr. Tang's wife always seemed restrained, probably because it was Yejia.

"How can it? I can't compare with Madam Ye, Pamela is causing you trouble today, right? This kid is a bit greedy."

Having said that, Mr. Tang's wife smiled embarrassedly again.

At this time, a soft voice suddenly came over.

"Daddy, Mommy."

Pamella Tang rubbed her sleepy eyes, and walked over her short round legs.

As soon as she saw her eyes and movements, Madam Tang immediately knew that Pamela Tang was asleep at someone's house, and she became even more embarrassed, "Pamella, how can you kid sleep in someone's house?"

Chapter 1504

"It's okay. The child is heartless and sleeps when he is sleepy."

Pamella Tang was such a lovely girl, which reminded Stella of how little bean sprouts would grow up in the future. She couldn't bear to let Madam Tang blame her, so she said something.

Levi came along behind Pamela Tang.

When Mr. Tang and Mrs. Tang saw Levi, their expressions were shocked. In fact, it is understandable that two people like Ye Moshen and Stella have good genes to give birth to beautiful children.

But this millet bean was actually carved out of the same mold as his father, too similar.

So before she knew it, Mrs. Tang stared at Levi for a long time, until Pamela Tang pulled her sleeve, she recovered.

“Mrs. Ye looks so much like a nightclub. It’s so good-looking. He’s tall and thin. Unlike ours, who is round and chubby, he can’t give up.”

“It’s okay.” Stella said with a chuckle: “Children’s greedy mouths are normal at all. When girls grow up, they will know that they can’t touch more when they love beauty.”

“Makes sense.”

“Well, we have disturbed others for a long time today, so we have to go back. Mrs. Ye, thank you very much today. Pamela really troubled you. It’s too late today. Let’s take her home first. “

Stella blinked and chuckled, “Actually, it’s okay. Children’s can’t cause any trouble. Besides, she plays very well with my Levi. If she wants to stay, I can also prepare a new room for her. .”

What? The Tang couple was shocked and thought they had auditory hallucinations, because they didn’t expect Stella to be so kind and to prepare rooms for their daughters. Generally, families like this shouldn’t look down on them like this?

How could...

“No need, it’s too embarrassing to live, Pamela, thank auntie and brother quickly.”

Pamella Tang said to Stella and Levi very politely: “Thank you beautiful auntie, thank you brother.”

With such a sweet mouth, Stella thought she was really pleasing.

“its okay, come to play often after that.”

The two parties were polite, and then Pamela Tang led the Tang couple away.

After getting in the car, Pamela Tang lay on her mother’s lap and told about the experience of the day. The Tang couple listened to her saying that the aunt asked her to eat glutinous rice balls, and Levi took her to buy chocolate and marshmallows. She went to play a game, and fell asleep later when Levi Beidou came out carrying her.

Both the couple were shocked.

“Husband, haven’t you heard that Mr. Walter of the Ye Family Group is not easy to get along with? Everyone is afraid of him. How is this different from the rumors?”

“Hurt, Mr. Walter is Mr. Walter. Didn’t Mr. Walter miss you today? Who is he? His wife must be beautiful and generous, and that child’s education is really good.”

“Is this true today? Why do I always feel a little mysterious?”

“Don’t say you think it’s illusory. When I went to see me tonight, I didn’t think it was real.”

“Our family Pamella, are you lucky? But when you look at this girl, you only know how to eat. After eating so much, what should you do when you grow up?”

“Children, eat as you go. If you can’t get married when you grow up, we will raise her for the rest of our lives.”

The couple is just such a daughter, and they really spoil her.

On the other side, after Stella and others left, they asked Levi.

“How about it, are you satisfied with the playmate your dad found for you?”

Hearing, Levi was taken aback for a moment, “Daddy found it?”

“Yes, he heard that the Tang Group has a very cute daughter, so he wanted to introduce you to him. Seeing that you are very happy with her today?”

In fact, Stella mainly sees that Levi likes Pamella Tang, so she ust wants to talk about this situation. The two father and son always work in opposite directions, hoping to ease the relationship between the two.

But she didn’t expect that after she finished talking, Levi’s face turned black immediately.

Noting that his expression was wrong, Stella stopped and walked to Levi and rubbed his head: “You and your daddy don’t always fight against each other, he really thinks about you.”

Levi pursed his lips displeased, and then said, “Mommy, is Daddy more important than Levi?”

Hearing, Stella was stunned for a moment, and didn't think about how to explain this issue to Levi.

Levi slapped her hand, then turned and left.

Stella wanted to chase, but did not catch up. It was at this time that Stella discovered that her child had really grown up.

The current Levi is tall and long, and he walks fast. It is estimated that in a few years, he will grow as tall as his father.

He inherited Ye Moshen's gene, so Stella's height was not comparable to him.

Thinking of his anger just now, Stella sighed helplessly. It seems that she has to find a chance to chat with Levi tonight.

Before going to bed, Levi was sitting in front of the window sill, looking at the scenery outside the window, but thinking about the daytime affairs in his heart.

He really liked Pamella Tang, after all, such a cute little fat man would be happy to see it, but he actually found it. What does daddy mean? Think he is too clingy to Mommy?

And Mommy actually agreed and said Daddy's good things in front of him.

Does Mummy think he is too clingy now? She thinks he is too annoying, but in the past, when the mother and son depended on each other, Mummy was not like this at all.

Knocking——

“Levi, are you asleep?”

It was Mommy’s voice, and Levi paused, without speaking.

“Mommy has something to talk to you, can you come in?”

Stella stood outside the door and asked softly, she didn’t push the door open before she got the answer from Levi.

Levi never responded, so she stood there quietly and waited.

She don’t know how long it took before she heard a muffled voice.

“Come in.”

Stella curled her lips, opened the door and walked in.

“You haven’t slept yet?” Stella gently closed the door. She had already taken a shower and changed her pajamas. After going in, she sat on the bed, and then waved to Levi, “Come on.”

Levi sat by the window sill, saw her move, and asked displeasely: “What are you doing?”

“Come on, Mommy hasn’t talked to you for a long time. Let’s chat with Mommy today, okay?”

Although Levi felt awkward, seeing Stella’s soft tone coaxing him, he quickly surrendered, and finally grind, walked to the bedside, but couldn’t get up.

Stella took his hand and pulled him over.

Levi sat awkwardly beside him.

“Mummy wants to say sorry for today’s matter.”

Hearing, Levi raised his head quickly. Mommy actually came to apologize?

Chapter 1505

“Sorry, we used to live together with mother and son, so you have always been more dependent on Mommy than on Daddy. Today, Mommy promises that it won’t happen again in the future. Whatever you need to do in the future, It has something to do with Levi. Mommy and Daddy must seek your opinion first, okay?”

Levi didn’t expect Stella to tell him this. In fact, he was awkward, not really angry, just a little bit of vinegar.

After all, he has been with Mommy since he was a child, and later he took away Mommy completely after Daddy came. There was not much time for him. Now he still needs someone to divide his time.

Just give him one kind of Levi, and Daddy wants to drive him away from Mommy.

But at this time, Stella actually spoke for his daddy’s big villain!

So the vinegar jar of Levi was overturned at once.

Seeing that he was silent, Stella took him into his arms.

“Did you not like to sleep with your mother’s legs the most? Tonight, Mommy asked you to sleep with your legs, telling you a story, watching you sleep, OK?”

When Levi was two or three years old, he really liked to sleep on Stella's legs, and sometimes sleep on her stomach, but now he has grown up, his legs are taller, and he has gained a lot of weight. When sleeping on Stella's legs again, Stella's legs would soon become sore, followed by numbness.

Thinking of this, Levi shook his head: "No need for Mommy."

"What's the matter? Are you thinking about Mommy, are you afraid that Mommy's legs will be numb?" Stella squeezed his nose lightly, "You are so young, so you really treat yourself as an adult?"

"Mommy, I am heavier now than before."

Stella helpless: "How much can it weigh? No matter how heavy it is, it's a child. Mommy can bear it. Lie down."

So in the end, Levi was still lying on Stella's lap. Stella stroked his head and the room calmed down. The mother and the son were getting along quietly, and time seemed to become better all at once. .

"Mommy, you are looking for me tonight, isn't it the only thing to say?"

Not knowing how long it took, Levi suddenly asked.

Hearing that, Stella was taken aback, and then sighed deeply. She knew her son was smart, but she didn't expect that he was even so sensitive.

"Well, Mommy does have something to tell you about the things you told Mommy tonight."

The light in Levi's eyes dimmed, and then I heard Stella say, "Although these words are a bit cruel to you now, Mommy thinks you have your own ideas, so even if you say something nice, your heart It will also be uncomfortable.

Instead of doing this, Mommy might as well teach you seriously, what do you think?”

“Mommy just talk if you want.”

Levi turned over and turned his back to Stella, “Anyway, Levi can’t have any objections.”

This kid...

Looking at such millet beans, Stella always has the feeling that she is an old mother and her son has grown up.

She reached out and touched the back of his head, “You turn around and listen to Mommy.”

Levi did not turn around, her voice was still muffled.

Looking at his appearance, it is estimated that he will not turn around. Stella didn’t force him to do anything, so she had to sort it out and then tell him.

“As for the question you asked this afternoon, do you think Daddy is more important than you.”

Hearing this, the muscles of Levi’s whole body were obviously tense, looking forward to the answer but afraid of hearing the answer he didn’t want to hear.

However, Stella spoke very fast, and she didn’t give him extra time to react at all.

“Mummy can tell you exactly now, yes.”

Hearing this, the light in Levi's eyes disappeared completely, and he was silent.

"Mommy knows you are unhappy, but there are some truths Mommy still has to tell you clearly. Why is your daddy more important than you? That's because he's going to live with Mommy for a lifetime. In the next ten years, twenty Years, 30 years, even 50 or 60 years, until we are old until we die, we will all live together. And you..."

Speaking of this, Levi suddenly rolled over her lap and sat up, and explained anxiously: "Mommy, as long as Mommy is willing, Levi can always be with Mommy."

"What silly thing to say?" Stella held Levi's cheek and stared at him seriously: "You are still young now, but when you grow up, you will talk to Daddy and Mommy. The same, meet someone you like, then marry her, have children, then you have to start a new family by yourself, so you say, is Daddy important or you important?"

Hearing this, Levi seemed to understand something, but still a little depressed.

Because he is still young, he didn't think about what he would do in the future. He just wanted to stay with Mommy forever, but what about when he grows up?

"But for Daddy and Mommy, you and the bean sprouts are the most important thing, because you are both born to Mommy, can you understand?"

Levi did not answer, but the awkwardness on his face had obviously disappeared a lot, and it could be seen that Stella's words had already made him clear.

"Mommy knows you are always smart, so I am willing to tell you this."

Levi suddenly reached out his hand and hugged Stella tightly, closed his eyes, his voice dull: “No matter what, I will always put Mommy first.”

“Oh?” Stella asked him amusedly: “Is it more important than your wife in the future?”

Stella really wanted to see how Levi was slapped in the face in the future. I don't know how long it will be like this. It's probably a decade or so? After he finds someone he likes, if her parents show disagreement, will he still put her first?

No matter which one, Stella actually didn't mind, because she knew that she would not interfere too much with the child's feelings. She only needed to guide the child to have the correct three views so that he could grow up healthily.

As for his adulthood, he can do anything as long as he doesn't violate morals.

The road is always taken by people.

In the end, Levi called Stella back to his room, on the grounds that he could sleep on his own when he grew up, and would never sleep on Mommy's legs anymore.

Stella was afraid that he was still angry, so she was reluctant to leave at first.

Until Levi called her Mommy seriously, and said in a serious manner: “What Mommy said to me at night, Levi listened to it. Levi felt that Mommy was right. Daddy is the one who will accompany you for a lifetime. People, so Daddy is more important than Levi, but Levi and Xiaodou sprouts are also very important in the hearts of Daddy and Mommy. Levi understands.”

Suddenly, Stella felt that Levi had grown up a lot.

Chapter 1506

When she talked to Levi, she said it very righteously.

But when he went back, Stella regretted it again, wondering if she herself said too much. No matter how sensible Levi was, he would still be a kid.

So after returning home, Stella was very worried, very worried that Levi would think too much.

The more she thought about it, the messier her head became. Ye Moshen took a bath, lay down on her side, took it up from her back, and buried it in her neck.

“Why don’t you sleep?”

His voice was low, and all the heat he exhaled while speaking fell on Stella’s neck, warm and itchy, and his hands were irregular when speaking, so he lifted her clothes.

As a result, he was pushed away by Stella before he moved a few times.

“No mood, don’t touch it.”

Ye Moshen, who was pushed away, was a little dazed. He wanted to wrap it up again, but he obviously felt that Stella was not emotional, so he quickly turned off his fire and lay on her side in a regular manner without messing up. Asked her nervously.

“What happened?”

Stella heard his voice and turned to look at him.

Seeing his face, Stella burst into flames inexplicably, and tantrums him and asked, "Levi, is this your son?"

Hearing, Walter was taken aback for a moment, then nodded, "Of course."

"Then why do you always fight against him? He is a kid, and he has followed me since he was a child. Before, when our mother and son were dependent on each other, you didn't know where it was. Now that you show up, you want to occupy me. What does he think?"

Ye Moshen didn't expect that she would lose her temper because of this. She didn't expect good words for a while, so she could only look at her quietly.

"Just one sentence, can I smooth everything out if I am your woman?"

"What's the matter?" Ye Moshen didn't dare to respond to her question, and could only ask her.

"You still have the face to ask?" Stella thought about the appearance of Levi before, and also felt wronged for her. She was so cruel at the time to say this to a child.

Although those words are realistic, they are cruel to a child.

She really regrets it now, she is really not a good mom.

"The love you gave to Levi was originally small. When he was young, you didn't participate at all. Then you showed up. Not only did you fail to give him his father's love, but you also wanted to take away the maternal love around him."

Ye Moshen had never considered this issue before, and now he was mentioned by Stella, and he remembered it. This is indeed the case. He had missed too many years in the time between the mother and son, and many things had not been experienced together, but facing his own son, he temporarily forgot what to make up for.

“We are going to live together for the rest of our lives, but what about Levi? He has lost his father’s love for so many years before, will you let him lose even his mother’s love in the future? Don’t do this to him, is it good? Although this is a reality but he is still a child, so let’s protect him until he reaches adulthood, okay? There are also small bean sprouts. When they reach adulthood, they don’t care about anything.”

At the end, Stella even had tears in her eyes. Ye Moshen felt distressed as soon as she saw it, and took her into her arms.

“Well, I’ll listen to you. I will do what you say. I will give you all my time in the future.”

After discussing this, the couple will be mainly two children in the future. After all, they are responsible for giving birth to them.

The child has no choice, and the parents give birth as soon as they want, so when they are born, they have to do their best to be parents.

Ye Moshen also thought about it, just have the millet beans and small bean sprouts, and no longer have a third child in the future. The couple raised these two children until they reached adulthood, and then they didn’t care about it anymore.

When the time comes, he will only rely on his wife every day to see who dares to control him.

So the next day, after Stella got up, she was going to call Levi, but she opened the door and found that Levi was no longer in the house. Later, what the servant said was that Levi had already left for school very early.

So early? Stella glanced at the time, which was an hour earlier than usual when she went to school.

Could it be that the words she said last night made Levi feel uncomfortable?

Thinking of this, Stella turned around anxiously to look at Walter Shen.

Ye Moshen knew what was thinking in his heart, pursed his thin lips, and then said: "I'll take care of it, don't worry."

"Then you take care of it, don't be aggressive with Levi."

"Rest assured."

After Ye Moshen went out, although Stella was still worried, she still couldn't keep up. The little bean sprouts were still sleeping, so she could only go back to the room and guard the little bean sprouts.

On the other hand, Levi went to school early.

Stella thought he was angry, but he didn't. Levi just thought that what Mommy said last night really made sense.

Mommy and Daddy are the ones who will live a lifetime, and their little bean sprouts are important to them, but the first one is definitely between them.

He had been arguing with Daddy for Mommy's favor before, it was really unnecessary, and because of what happened last night, he was also greatly inspired.

His previous ideas have always been wrong, why should he compete with Daddy for Mommy's favor?

He is obviously the child of Daddy and Mommy. He can be loved by two people. It's just that he thought wrong before and thought that Daddy would snatch Mommy from him. But now that he figured it out, Levi feels that he is In the future, you can enjoy the favor of two people.

Why not do it?

And getting up early today is what he deliberately.

Mommy will definitely be worried about what happened last night, but the bean sprouts have to sleep to a certain point every day. Daddy must be reluctant to let Mommy go out so early, so it's only Daddy who comes to him. To himself.

The one who came to see his daddy today is definitely different from yesterday's daddy.

So he can act hard today.

Thinking of this, Levi's heart is full of joy.

Daddy must have never thought that he will fall into his own hands one day, right?

Before Walter Shen came, Levi was already thinking about how to toss Walter Shen.

He didn't enter the school, but squatted by the gate of the school, looking at it with a small notebook, his head down, actually counting the time.

He didn't squat long, calculated the time and squatted down three minutes earlier.

Sure enough, three minutes later, there was a pair of leather shoes in front of me.

It really came.

There was a sly in Levi's eyes, but he did not look up.

Until the man's voice came from overhead.

"Get up so early and don't go to school, why are you squatting here?"

Levi slowly raised his head. The emotions on that small face were no longer there today. Instead, it was a pitiful child belonging to a child.

With just a glance, Ye Moshen looked tight.

Although he had quarreled with him before, they were all blood relatives after all. Now that he is like this, Ye Moshen feels uncomfortable.

Chapter 1507

No matter how smart he is, he is just a child.

Moreover, it is normal for a child who had previously lost his father's love to be hostile to himself.

Thinking of this, the expression on Walter's deep face softened a bit, and said to him: "Get up."

Levi squatted and didn't move, Walter sighed deeply and squatted down in front of him, "Come on, Daddy hug you."

This sentence is very soft, and it has also entered the heart of Levi.

In fact, he just wanted to toss Ye Moshen and make him feel sorry for himself, but he didn't expect him to say this to himself.

So all of a sudden, Levi could not bear it, and his nose was sore.

My nose is sour, and Levi is a little annoyed. How could I just do this because of his daddy? He is a man, how embarrassing he is to cry?

Thinking of this, Levi immediately dropped his head again.

However, Ye Moshen had already seen him just now.

Ye Moshen didn't expect that he would cry because of a word, as if he was being held tightly by a big hand.

He stretched out his hand, pinched Levi's small arm, and lifted him up.

Although Levi has grown tall, so high that Stella can't hold him now, but for Ye Moshen, it is still very easy to hold him.

So when Levi was picked up by Walter Shen in his arms, Levi immediately changed his face.

"Smelly daddy, bastard daddy, let me go quickly, Levi doesn't want you to hold me, let me down!"

This is the gate of the school, where people come and go, what should I do if Daddy is holding him like this and someone sees him?

Levi doesn't want to be a child in the classmate's impression that he still needs to hold him.

So he kept struggling, but Walter Shen's strength was too great, and he struggled so hard Walter Shen simply slapped his ass.

"What's the noise? I'm your old man, what happened to me being hugged by your old man?"

Levi was slapped by him, and immediately stopped struggling, his body was in a stiff posture, but his face quickly turned red.

"Lost, shame!"

"Shame? What's the shame?" Ye Moshen said indifferently: "How old are you? You are so tall. If you are hugged by your old man, you will be ashamed?"

Although Levi didn't struggle anymore, his face kept flushing.

Seeing him puffed up, Walter pressed his thin lips deeply, sighed and then put him down, squatting down in front of him, "Then let's talk like this, okay?"

Levi still doesn't speak.

"The previous thing was that Daddy was wrong. Daddy didn't participate in your and your mommy's past, but he still forcibly robbed your mommy. It's also Daddy's wrong. Daddy now knows it's wrong. Can you forgive Daddy? "

When saying these things, Ye Moshen originally thought that he would be very difficult, and even thought that he would be unable to speak.

But when he saw Levi's red eyes, he realized that he was a father.

Millet beans and small bean sprouts are both his and Stella's treasures, and they are gifts from God.

“You, Little Bean Sprout, and your mommy are all Daddy’s most important treasures. No matter what happens, Daddy will definitely value you. I also discussed with your mom last night. From now on you and Little Bean Sprout Lord, wait for you to reach adulthood.”

Levi blinked, “Really? Daddy won’t stop me from approaching Mommy anymore?”

“Hmm.” Walter reluctantly replied: “No, you are still young. If you want to stick to her, stick to her. Of course, you can stick to Daddy, and you can go to the company with Daddy every day.”

“Really?” Levi blinked and asked with a simple face: “Then Daddy can arrange a position for me in the company?”

Hearing, Ye Moshen’s expression changed slightly.

“Position? What can you do when you are so young?”

Ye Moshen did not agree to his request: “Besides, you still have to study and don’t have time to go to the company.”

“Asshole daddy, so what you said just now is to lie to the children. I don’t want to stick to you, and I will stick to mommy again. Just let Levi fend for himself.”

In fact, he knew that the child in front of him was full of scheming, but Ye Moshen looked at him at this time still very soft-hearted, and could only coax him: “Okay, okay, I will give you a job, but you can’t mess around.”

“Daddy is really stingy. If it’s my grandfather, there is nothing wrong with giving me the entire company.”

“No one of your grandfather needs him to support, and your daddy wants to make money to give you mommy, and you and little bean sprouts, can it be the same?”

“Humph.”

Later, the father and son negotiated. Ye Moshen gave him a position in the company, but only the name, no real power, and every month to give Levi pocket money, and finally negotiated.

Since then, Levi has not seen Pamella Tang for a week after being connected. Although he thinks that little girl is cute, he is unwilling to come, and he has no intention to find someone specially.

Until a week later, Madam Tang couldn't bear her daughter's request, and she came to the door cheeky, saying that after Pamella Tang went back that day, she had been arguing about coming to see her brother to play, arguing every day.

After Stella listened, she couldn't laugh or cry.

“Mrs. Tang, let Pamella Tang come over and play in the future. You can bring her over when you have time. It's okay. It's boring for me to carry small bean sprouts at home all day.”

She actually wants to work. Little Bean Sprout is one year old now, she doesn't need to stare at all times like she did when she was a child, and Little Bean Sprout has always been too well-behaved.

“When I go to bed, I go to bed obediently, and when I wake up, I just lie there and play with my fingers and look at the ceiling. Except that she urinates or pulls, she cries when she feels uncomfortable, and then Stella changed her into clean and refreshing diapers, and she was calm again.”

In short, according to Stella's statement, although people are only so small, they still love cleanliness, which is good.

But Ye Moshen didn't want her to go to the company. He wanted her to be a full-time wife at home.

But Stella, a full-time wife, didn't need to do anything at all. There were too many servants in Haijiang Villa. They cleaned the house spotlessly every day, and when the meal was ordered, all the meals were prepared, and there was nothing to do.

So she was very boring sometimes, if Pamella Tang could come together, it would be more lively.

And Mrs. Tang is very embarrassed. After all, the two families are too far apart. She is always afraid that she often brings her daughter to the door, which will give people the illusion of climbing the dragon and the phoenix.

"I'm really embarrassed, Madam Ye, if Pamella comes too many times, it will definitely bother you a lot. I also brought my children here, so..."

Stella thought thoroughly, even if Mrs. Tang didn't say it, she understood what Mrs. Tang was thinking, so she smiled faintly: "Actually, you don't have to worry. Our Yejia doesn't have that kind of concept. The children are also very simple, just simple I like millet beans."

Chapter 1508

How could Mrs. Tang still not understand what Stella said?

She breathed a sigh of relief and was a little embarrassed at the same time: "I'm really sorry, I didn't mean to say these things, but this is always the case in this circle. Our Tang Group knows that it is not comparable to the Ye Group. With this mindset, Mrs. Ye must never mind."

“Why?” Stella took Pamela Tang’s hand and pulled her into her arms to encircle her, “Madam Tang, please relax. I also like the child Pamela very much, so I won’t have other ideas, Pamela, don’t you think?”

Pamela Tang stretched out her fleshy little hands to embrace Stella, and whispered: “When will brother come?”

“Huh? Only after playing with my brother for a day, he is the only one in my eyes? Why, aunty is not good to you?”

Stella teased her, Pamela Tang looked at her innocently with a pair of water eyes, and said seriously: “Auntie is very good to Pamela, and she will cook Pamela for glutinous rice balls.”

“Then why do you only look for your little brother and not your aunt?”

Pamela Tang stared at her round eyes. She couldn’t answer for a moment. Her eyes were a little red in anxiousness. Stella originally wanted to make her amused, but unexpectedly annoyed her, so she quickly explained, “Okay. Now, Auntie just made a joke with Pamela. Don’t be nervous, Pamela, don’t you want to look for your elder brother, don’t you? Your elder brother has gone to school, so you play with your younger sister with your auntie first, and wait for your elder brother to come back. “

Pamela Tang looked at her mom, then swallowed her tears back, and nodded: “Okay, thank you Aunt Stella.”

After speaking, she stood on tiptoe and proactively kissed Stella’s cheek.

“This child will cry easily when nervous. For example, when you asked her just now, she couldn’t think of a good answer for a while, so she wanted to cry.”

After chatting for a few words, Mrs. Tang left, leaving Pamela Tang. Pamela Tang often played with Xiaodou Sprout while waiting for Levi to go home from school.

When Little Bean Sprout woke up, she stood there staring at Little Bean Sprout, and Little Bean Sprout stared at her, the two looked at each other, quietly.

After a while, Pamela Tang asked, "Aunt Stella, what's the name of this younger sister?"

"She, her name is Ye Yaya."

Ye Ya Ya?

Pamella Tang smiled at the small bean sprouts. When she smiled, there were two deep pear vortices on his cheeks, while waving her hands: "Hello, sister Ya Ya, I am Pamela, Pamela Tang."

Ye Yaya lay there with her small face staring at Pamela Tang innocently. She didn't know when she was young, that Pamela Tang's name will be entangled with her brother in the future, and she will have a deep connection with herself.

When it was time to go home, Levi had not yet returned, and Pamela Tang waited a little anxiously, and Stella could only comfort her.

"Wait a little longer, my brother will be back soon. I will wait for him to come back later. Auntie must ask him where he went all day, and he came back so late."

Hearing, Pamela Tang was startled and immediately spoke for Levi.

“Auntie, don’t scold your brother. Brother may be busy with things. Pamela will be fine after waiting a while.”

Fearing that she would be injuring Levi, Pamela Tang adjusted her emotions immediately. She sat there chubby, looking cute and loving.

When Levi came back, it was almost dark. He was going to say hello to Mommy, and then went back to the house to rest. He didn’t even want to eat dinner.

As a result, he saw a small fat dun at the door, sitting on a chair with a small heart-shaped pillow, leaning against the door and tilting his head to sleep, his mouth slightly opened when he fell asleep.

Levi observed it and found that Xiao Pangdun actually breathed through his mouth.

This little girl, shouldn’t people breathe through their noses when they sleep? She actually used her mouth? This way for a long time, it will cause the upper lip to shorten, the lip muscles to relax and other facial tissue injuries.

“I haven’t seen her for so many days. Levi thought she would not come, but I didn’t expect to see her again today.”

He walked to Xiao Pangdun, stretched out his hand and waved in front of her, she was asleep very soundly, and didn’t notice it at all.

Levi didn’t want to disturb her, but if she fell asleep with her neck crooked, she would definitely feel uncomfortable when she woke up, so in the end Levi woke her up.

Pamella Tang dreamed that she was eating chocolate in her sleep. It tasted sweet and slightly bitter, but after the bitterness, her mouth became sweet again. The chocolate was bought by her brother, so she recently ate marshmallows. , But not willing to eat chocolate.

So she wants to eat in her dreams.

After being awakened by Levi, Pamela Tang opened her eyes and saw Levi's face, and subconsciously said, "Brother, the chocolate is delicious."

Hearing, Levi was taken aback, and it took a long time to react.

Could it be possible that this little girl came to him and wanted him to take her to buy chocolates?

After speaking, Pamela Tang closed her eyes again.

"Pamella, don't sleep Pamella." Levi patted her on the cheek, waking her up, and said: "You can't sleep here. If you want to sleep, go inside to sleep, and you can't breathe with your mouth in the future. , Or it will become ugly in the future."

When she said these words, Levi pulled Pamela Tang up, and after Pamela got up, she followed him inwardly, and said as she walked: "Brother, are you back? Pamela has been waiting for you for a long time."

Wait? He came here so early to wait?

Levi turned to look at her, "Have you been waiting for a long time?"

Pamella Tang rubbed her eyes that she couldn't open, "It didn't take long, brother, is it fun for you to go to school? By the way, brother just said, what's the problem with Pamela when she sleeps?"

Levi squatted down in front of her and looked at her helplessly and repeated it again.

“Let you not open your mouth to breathe when you sleep. We breathe through our nose.”

Hearing, Pamela Tang tilted her head and said a little grievance: “But Pamela likes to breathe with his mouth.”

“It’s not good to breathe with your mouth, so try not to open your mouth when you sleep in the future. You won’t be accustomed to it at first, but after slowly correcting it, it will become your habit.”

Pamela Tang’s mom would teach her the same way, but she felt comfortable breathing with her mouth open. She was used to it, and it was really difficult to change it for a while.

At this time, Levi suddenly said, “Does Pamela want to be ugly when she grows up?”

Hearing, Pamela Tang shook her head in a panic: “No.”

“That’s not right. After breathing with your mouth for a long time, it won’t be as beautiful as before.”

“Ah, Pamela will definitely correct it from now on. Don’t dislike Pamela’s ugliness. Pamela wants to play with her brother.”

“It’s not too bad, but you have to get rid of all bad habits.”

“Well, Pamela will do it.”

“What do you want to eat today?”

Hey, can you eat it? Pamela Tang didn't actually come to eat, she just thought that her brother was kind to her, so she wanted to come and have fun with her.

Chapter 1509

So she pursed her lips and did not speak.

“What happened?”

Seeing that she hadn't spoken for a long time, Levi thought she was unhappy, so he asked her: “Did my brother just talk about you, so I was unhappy?”

“Nothing.” Pamela Tang shook her head like a rattle, poked her fingers together, and whispered quietly; “Actually, I came to see my brother today, not to eat.”

Hearing this, Levi understood her meaning.

“I know, it's my brother who wants to buy you something to eat, but you don't want to eat something by yourself. Is this all right?”

Pamella Tang still likes food, she is a little drooling now, she raised her head, her cheeks flushed: “Then I want to eat ice cream today?”

“Of course can.”

“Thank you brother.”

After that, Levi took Pamela Tang to eat ice cream, and Madam Tang came to pick Pamela Tang home in the evening.

The next day Pamela Tang clamored over again. In the following days, Pamela Tang could be said to be the half daughter of the Han family. She arrived every day and became very familiar with the Han family.

Even Walter Shen liked this child.

Of course, the reason she likes it is that she always pesters Levi, so Levi has to greet her and save him a lot of trouble.

Although the couple had negotiated last time, Mo Shen was still worried that Stella would think more about it without spending the night, so he found a free time to prove his innocence with Stella.

“Although I found the people at the beginning, but the two of them got along well in the back, but I didn’t do it anymore.”

Stella knew what he meant, “I didn’t say there was a problem, why are you rushing to prove your innocence?”

“I’m afraid I won’t prove it, you will be angry then.”

Thinking of Stella’s angry look that night, Ye Moshen was really terrified. The two had gone through too many ordeals before, and it is not easy to have such an anniversary.

He hoped that the husband and wife would never quarrel in this life.

Even if there is, he will give in for this and always let her win.

“I won’t be really angry anymore. Even if I get angry sometimes, it is only temporary. Levi looks good now. I asked him that day. He said that Xiaopangdun is very cute and would take care of her like a younger sister. “

Since Jessica gave birth to a child, Victor Han's company ran back and forth at home and lacked sleep all day long. Although Jessica felt sorry for him, Victor Han still didn't know how to feel sorry for her, and finally tired him.

At the meeting today, his face was very bad, Su Jiu saw that his face was not good, so she took the initiative to ask.

"Mr. Victor, your face is not good, do you want to abort the meeting and I will help you to rest?"

Victor Han shook his head slightly, "No need."

Others also noticed that Victor Han's face was not good, and they were all concerned about greetings.

"Mr. Victor, is there really no need to suspend the meeting? The meeting can be held at any time, because the health matters."

"Yes, Mr. Victor, your complexion looks bad, or go to the hospital first, and leave it to us here. When the result comes out, we will report to Mr. Victor."

Everyone looked at Victor Han anxiously, Victor Han coughed slightly and put his hands in front of his mouth.

"It's okay, let's continue the meeting."

Seeing everyone still staring at him, Victor Han had no choice but to say: "I know my own body, continue."

After the meeting, Victor Han returned to the office, closed his eyes on the sofa and took a break.

After resting for about an hour or so, he got up and resumed work.

After working for a while, he felt that there was a double image in front of him. Victor Han realized the seriousness of the matter and felt that he had to leave work early and go to the hospital today.

Otherwise, he can't do anything when this goes on.

If you can't do it, let Jessica worry about him.

Thinking of this, Victor Han began to pack things, and Su Jiu couldn't help coming in to remind him midway. "Mr. Victor, how do you feel? Don't you really need to take a break?"

"Well, I got off work early today. I'll talk about something tomorrow."

Su Jiu was worried, and heard him say that she would leave work early, and she was relieved. She was still going to call Jessica. After all, if she couldn't say anything, maybe Jessica would be able to say something when she came.

It's not necessary now.

"Mr. Victor, I suggest you better go to the hospital."

"Ok."

"How about I drive you?"

"This contract is not handled properly, you go to deal with it, I will pay attention to it myself."

"Okay, then." Su Jiu had no choice but to accept the contract from Victor Han and repeatedly urged: "Then Han always must pay attention to safety. If you feel uncomfortable, call and stop driving."

“Thank you.”

After Victor Han left, Su Jiu also went to deal with the contract.

At this moment, Jessica came to the supermarket.

The two children in the family are brought by Janis, so she took the opportunity to go out to the supermarket to buy some children’s items, diapers, milk powder, baby bottles and so on.

She was picking up things next to the shelf. The sugar cans stacked up not far in the front were suddenly knocked over by a cart. When they fell, they crackled and made a loud noise, which made Jessica a big shock.

Jessica was so frightened that her heart thumped, and even her eyelids moved frantically, she subconsciously reached out and touched her eyelids.

Immediately afterwards, the heart beat violently.

What’s going on here? Why is she so scared now?

Jessica took a deep breath, then raised her head and took down the things she had fancy on the shelf and put them on the shopping cart, but her heart throbbed.

The pain was so painful that she couldn’t hold back for a while, so she squatted down.

Suddenly, Jessica thought of Victor Han, and her heart suddenly fluttered.

At the same time, when the phone rang at this time, Jessica’s heart was so painful that it took a long time to find her sanity. When she took out her phone and saw that the name on the screen was Victor Han, the fear in her heart not only did not disappear, but instead became rich. a bit.

She answered the phone, but a strange female voice came from the other end of the phone.

“Hello, are you the wife of the owner of this phone number?”

An unknown premonition rose in Jessica’s heart, and it took a long time to find her voice.

“Yes, I am, are you?”

“Your husband’s car hit the guardrail and fainted. He was taken away by the doctor just now, and then the phone was dropped on the ground. I picked it up and called you.”

Hit the guardrail?

Jessica’s face instantly lost blood, “I’m sorry, what you just said...is it true?”

“This lady, I didn’t joking with you. Your husband’s car is still parked here.”

“Which hospital?”

Jessica’s tone rose sharply, frightening the other party. After suppressing her panic, she said again: “I’m sorry, my emotions are a little out of control, may I ask which hospital he was sent to?”

“Looking at the sign, it should be the nearest one, at the intersection of the East Campus.”

“Thank you, I know, I will rush over immediately.”

After receiving the phone, Jessica hurriedly ran out, only to bump into someone.
