

Chapter 151: How are You So Free

As he looked at the nervous Tang Luo, Mo Bonan suppressed his displeasure. "Fine, let's go back first. It's late already."

Then he opened the car door.

With a cold stare pinned on him, Tang Luo shrank a little and got into the car meekly.

Before leaving, Tang Luo waved at the others.

"We'll go first then. Stay in touch."

"Sure."

They waved back at him, Asura barking and Honey meowing along.

"Let's go," Mo Bonan ordered, and the car set off right away.

As he stared at the vanishing car, Qiao Yanjue had a rather complicated look in his eyes.

He seemed to have gained some enlightenment from the incident.

Looking at Xia Xibei, who was still trying to hail a cab at the side, he felt a headache begin to form.

“Enough of that, I’ll send you back.”

“No need,” Xia Xibei shook her head, “I’ll get a cab soon.”

“So, you want them to keep you company while you wait for a cab?” Qiao Yanjue pointed at the other two people at the scene.

“Meow!”

“Whoof!”

Honey and Asura voiced their willingness right away. They sure would like to spend some more time with Xia Xibei!

“I think...” Ren Juncheng shrank a little, then spoke discreetly, “How about... Letting brother Qiao send you back?”

Yu Ziqi, on the other hand, was rather mindless.

“It’s fine, we could keep waiting—Ah! Why did you pinch me?!”

Ren Juncheng shot him an annoyed glare, then laughed dryly as he explained, “Haha... I just saw a mosquito, that’s all.”

“Mosquito? Where?!” Yu Ziqi lost his cool right away.

As she watched their behavior, Xia Xibei had no choice but to give in.

“Fine, I’ll go with him.”

“Well, get in the car.” Qiao Yanjue felt relieved, casting a look of satisfaction at Ren Juncheng.

“We’re leaving. You guys should head back.”

“Well then, let’s keep in touch.”

“Meow!”

“Whoof!”

After saying their farewells, the car set off.

In the car, Xia Xibei asked out of nowhere, "Have you been very free lately?"

Qiao Yanjue's face went a little stiff as he answered, "It's alright, I'm not really busy. I'm currently working on the early preparation."

Xia Xibei scowled, not satisfied with that response.

With Qiao Yanjue's status, how could he possibly have the time to wander everywhere?

"But that isn't the only thing you're occupied with, right?"

The Qiao family was huge and their business was massive! Even if he hadn't officially taken over the Qiao family, he shouldn't be so free either, should he?

Having noticed Xia Xibei's disdain, Qiao Yanjue felt rather helpless.

"What we're dealing with right now is the highlight of this year."

Sure enough, he had other dealings at hand, but he didn't have to tell Xia Xibei about them.

If he told her, she would chase him away, wouldn't she?

Xia Xibei scowled, wanting to say more, but stopped herself from doing so. After all, what she wanted to say wasn't appropriate at the moment.

Anyhow, Qiao Yanjue was a member of the Qiao family. It would be appalling for her to make self-righteous comments on the Qiaos' affairs.

Qiao Yanjue noticed that Xia Xibei had unspoken words on the tip of her tongue, so he asked, "What do you want to say?"

"Nothing," she shook her head. "I just feel that... You seem to be in quite a lot of danger."

They had only met a few times, but he had been assaulted twice.

It seemed that Qiao Yanjue had a lot of hurdles to overcome before he could take over the post.

Qiao Yanjue couldn't help but smile when he saw that she was concerned about him. "Rest assured, it won't happen again. You don't have to worry."

Xia Xibei sneered, "I'm not worried about you. Just make sure you don't get me into trouble."

Qiao Yanjue's smile froze on his face.

But she took the insult one step further.

“Oh, I almost forgot. Please don’t call me Beibei again. We’re not that close, okay?”

The air in Qiao Yanjue’s surroundings turned icy in just an instant.

Chapter 152: Speak Clearly

Xia Xibei didn’t care about Qiao Yanjue’s reaction.

To her, the involvement with Qiao Yanjue was just an accident. After the accident, there was no need for them to keep in contact.

The two of them weren’t from the same world.

Moreover, she would have to be hostile to some members of the Qiao family eventually, and if she was too close to Qiao Yanjue now, it’d be embarrassing later on.

“Actually, you don’t need to worry what happened before.” Xia Xibei’s attitude was very sincere.

“Although I helped you, you also paid me back accordingly. Therefore, we are even now.”

As she talked, Qiao Yanjue’s face became colder and colder.

But Xia Xibei was not frightened by his grim expression.

Today's Qiao Yanjue was still too tender, not nearly as brutal and cold as the Lord Jue he would be in a few years.

Plus, she had rescued him before and had some interaction with him, so he would definitely not harm her.

"I know you are a busy person, so you really don't need to spend your precious time on me."

"I didn't spend time on you," Qiao Yanjue said coolly.

"Oh, I'm sorry. It's just me then." Xia Xibei changed her tone, "No matter what, I don't want to waste your time. Don't worry, I'm already looking for a house. I will definitely not cause trouble for your work."

"Did you think I approached you for the house?" Qiao Yanjue laughed out of anger.

This was just too ridiculous!

"I didn't mean that!" Xia Xibei shook her head. "I just want to say that your work will definitely go smoothly. In which case, you will be very busy in the near future. So, why not take advantage of your free time at the moment and go out more?"

Qiao Yanjue's face was completely ashen.

He didn't understand why Xia Xibei was resisting so much.

He had a temper too, after being rejected over and over again.

"Fine. I understand," he said coldly. "I know what to do."

The words had been spoken. Xia Xibei stopped saying anything else. It was quiet the rest of the way.

Soon, the car arrived outside the old town.

"Thank you for taking me back," Xia Xibei got out of the car and gave a polite smile.

"Have a good rest."

Along the way, Qiao Yanjue had calmed down.

"Okay, you too."

After saying goodbye politely, Xia Xibei turned and walked inside.

The car stayed where it was.

After a while, Qiao Yanjue still hadn't given any instructions. The driver couldn't help but exchange a concerned look with the bodyguard, who was in the front passenger seat.

Although there was a partition and they don't know what had happened, given how these two people had said goodbye just now, it seemed a bit worrisome!

"Young master?"

"Let's go," Qiao Yanjue's calm voice resounded.

"Ok," the driver nodded, ready to start the car.

However, at the very next moment, Qiao Yanjue suddenly shouted out, "Stop!"

When the driver hurried to follow orders and immediately stepped on the brakes, they almost crashed forward.

Before the car had even fully stopped, Qiao Yanjue quickly rushed out of the car and ran in the direction where Xia Xibei had just left.

The driver and the bodyguard looked at each other and immediately followed.

Qiao Yanjue rushed forward quickly, soon hearing the sound of fighting coming from not far away.

That was Xia Xibei's voice!

His heart lurched immediately. He sped up once again.

After turning a corner, he finally saw the situation clearly.

A tall man was taking out a knife, about to stab Xia Xibei. His face changed suddenly, and he rushed over with the knife.

"Careful!"

Chapter 153: Robbery

While walking back, Xia Xibei could feel a few uncomfortable gazes on her.

Soon, several tall men jumped out.

"Hand over the money," the leader said with a devious grin.

At this time, it was getting late and there were no passersby.

Even if there were, they would not come forward to help if they saw something happening here.

Xia Xibei hadn't expected that there would be anyone stopping and robbing her here.

This was strange.

Although the security in this area was not the best, the atmosphere was still good because of all the longtime residents that lived here.

Although these things happened occasionally, Xia Xibei didn't expect them to happen to her.

"Bro, we waited so long for a sheep to come, we can't let her run away." the younger man beside the leader leered.

Under the dim light, these people looked particularly perverted.

Xia Xibei frowned, "Who told you to come?"

The group was obviously taken aback, snorting, "No one told us to come, but no one told you to go either!"

“What if I want to leave?” Xia Xibei stayed still.

“I think you should do what we say, otherwise, if your pretty face got hurt, it would be very bad! People here are going to become rich. Would you really miss the money?”

Xia Xibei understood that these people came here for compensation money.

“What if I didn’t give you the money?”

“Then you’re asking to be hurt! Go!”

As soon as the voice fell, they surrounded Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei smiled coldly. When they came over, she spun around and kicked one person.

They were all taken aback by her fighting effectiveness.

A young woman had this kind of power?

“Charge!”

They didn’t want to give up, thinking of the money to come.

However, even if they were all added together, they couldn't stop Xia Xibei's attack.

Soon, several people fell to the ground, screaming endlessly.

One man took out an intercom and shouted at the other side, "Boss, we need help!"

There were more of them?

Xia Xibei didn't leave, staying and waiting for more people to come.

She really wanted to know what these people came here for.

After a while, a few more men arrived. These men looked taller and tougher than those on the ground. Their eyes were hostile, and one could tell that they had experienced many things in life.

"Boss, there is a problem with this girl! Be careful!" Although these people didn't understand why Xia Xibei hadn't run, since she didn't go, they would make sure she didn't leave at all now!

The boss glared at his useless subordinates, then looked at Xia Xibei. He did not speak but rushed ahead.

After being in this world for so many years, they all knew that the villain died if he talked too much.

Moreover, who could guarantee that no one had called the police yet?

This girl must be dealt with before the police came, if they came at all.

Xia Xibei was also very surprised. They were much more effective than she had thought, and much better than the earlier ones too.

The newly arrived men were even more shocked.

A seemingly ordinary girl had this kind of skill?

One of the men drew a knife out of his arms and rushed towards Xia Xibei.

At this time, Xia Xibe was trapped by several people, unable to free her hands and feet.

Just as his knife was about to stab Xia Xibei, the man stopped halfway. His wrist hurt, the knife dropping to the ground.

“Qiao Yanjue!”

Looking at the blood stains on Qiao Yanjue’s hands, Xia Xibei gasped.

Chapter 154: Qiao Feels Wronged

Qiao Yanjue kicked the man away.

The man screamed when kicked in the stomach, then fainted after dropping to the ground.

Qiao Yanjue's bodyguard and driver also ran over, but before they could join the battle, Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei had already teamed up to handle these people.

"Watch them," Qiao Yanjue instructed in a cold voice. His eyes, trained on those people, held a lethal intent.

"Yes!"

Xia Xibei frowned and walked over. She took Qiao Yanjue's hand, and the first thing she asked was, "Why are you so weak?"

She didn't think much of those people just now. Even if there was a knife, it couldn't hurt her.

But who would have thought that Qiao Yanjue was so weak? Did that powerful and all-conquering Lord Jue even exist?

The expression on Qiao Yanjue's face suddenly froze.

He didn't expect Xia Xibei to despise him even after he was injured.

He suppressed the frustration in his heart, looking a little pitiful.

"I didn't think that much just now."

After talking, he kept silent and bit his lower lip slightly, seemingly aggrieved.

When he looked so gentle and wronged, Xia Xibei decided not to be as tough as before.

"I didn't need your help; I could take care of it myself!"

Xia Xibei took his hand for a closer look. There was a wound and a lot of blood coming from it, but it was just a surface injury.

Qiao Yanjue smiled when he heard Xia Xibei's tone softening.

But when she looked up, he instantly looked as wronged as before.

“It’s fine. I’ll go back and deal with it myself.” He pulled his hand back. “You get some rest.”

“Shut up,” Xia Xibei rolled her eyes at him. “Come with me.”

She started to leave and Qiao Yanjue hurried to keep up with her, walking briskly.

Watching this scene, the driver and the bodyguard next to him exchanged horrified looks. Was their young master possessed?!

However, they didn’t dare say anything. They could only go off to the side, while also punching the yelping men in order to shut them up.

Didn’t they see that their young master was doing important things?! So, they better shut up!

Soon, the two of them returned to Xia Xibei’s home.

“Sit.” Xia Xibei quickly took out her medical kit. “Give me your hand.”

Qiao Yanjue stretched out his hand, which was still oozing blood, docilely.

Xia Xibei’s movements were brisk. She stopped the bleeding, disinfected it, applied medicine, and wrapped it with gauze... It only took a few minutes.

After making a beautiful bow, Xia Xibei put away the medical kit.

“I didn’t expect this place to be so dangerous,” Qiao Yanjue commented, looking for something to say.

“This is the first time.” Xia Xibei put the things away. “It’s not as dangerous as your experiences.”

Qiao Yanjue almost suffocated. He had nothing to say.

When it came to the number of times he had encountered danger, he really had his fair share.

“Do you need help with this?”

This time, he didn’t dare make decisions for Xia Xibei.

He understood it now, and he would never lose sight of it anymore—this girl didn’t like being manhandled!

Although it was a bit awkward to pretend to be so soft, if he continued to treat her so hard... The result would be unthinkable.

“No, I’ll do it myself.” Xia Xibei walked to the door. “Okay, you should go.”

Qiao Yanjue was puzzled, but still followed her.

Soon, the two of them returned to their previous location.

Those people had not been taken away, nor were the police called.

Xia Xibei walked up to them and pulled out their boss. Without waiting for him to speak, she grabbed his arm and broke it fiercely at the joint.

“Argh!”

The man’s screams suddenly pierced the sky, awakening the surrounding birds and all the residents.

Chapter 155: Confess or Not

Xia Xibei’s expression stayed the same. She dislocated the man’s arm joints and asked softly, “Who told you to come?”

In the dim light, Xia Xibei looked calm, as if the current situation didn’t cause any emotional changes in her.

Both the driver and the bodyguard were startled, their expressions shocked.

This girl was so cruel! It was simply too cruel to dislocate someone's joints due to a disagreement!

And the most frightening thing? She still had a calm face, as if she had experienced such things thousands of times before.

Were girls all so scary now?

As they were thinking this, they all looked at Qiao Yanjue and applauded his courage.

Even though Qiao Yanjue was not an ordinary person either, who else could stand such a tough girl? Wouldn't he fear that his joints would be dislocated someday?

However, when they saw the light in Qiao Yanjue's eyes, the corners of their mouths twitched, and they stood to the side without speaking.

Xia Xibei didn't care what other people thought. She had her own way of dealing with this matter.

As for whether they were afraid of her? That was their business.

"Talk."

The man was sweating from the pain, his veins bulging, but he still gritted his teeth.

“No, no one sent me—ah!”

Before he could finish his words, Xia Xibei dislocated his other hand.

His two hands were now like soft noodles, drooping on either side of his body.

This scene made his subordinates' faces go pale.

“Go ahead. I'm not very patient.”

Xia Xibei curved the corner of her mouth, grabbed his arm, made a click, and put his hand back.

However, the man didn't feel happy at all. Instead, a chill climbed up from the bottom of his feet.

Didn't her easy and casual way just show her cruelty?

How many people had she done this to, for this to seem so effortless for her?!

“I...”

However, thinking of the money he could get, he gritted his teeth and held back. If he didn't talk, no one would know the truth here.

However, Xia Xibei had no time to waste with him.

“Argh!”

The eyes of everyone behind them burst out in fright, almost fainting.

Because Xia Xibei had dislocated the man's hand again!

After dislocation, she moved and put the hand back again.

The man's whole body was soaked in sweat, and he seemed to be hallucinating, a “kakaka” sound ringing in his ear.

“If we did this a few more times, you may get habitually dislocated in the future.”

Xia Xibei's voice resounded like the devil in his ears, chillingly indifferent.

“Okay, okay!”

The man was now scared. If he could last this torture by Xia Xibei, he would no longer be doing this work.

He had been in this industry for many years, so he has had some setbacks, but this was the first time he had met such a terrifying person!

And she was not old; she might not even be an adult yet!

Were all girls so terrifying these days?!

“You should have talked sooner.”

Xia Xibei smiled and reinstalled his joints, as if nothing had happened just now.

The driver and the bodyguard were creeped out.

It was already midnight and Xia Xibei’s actions reminded them of something that they couldn’t name.

“Talk. Who told you to rob me?”

“A woman sent us here!” The man was so scared that he didn’t dare hold anything back.

Soon, he confessed to everything.

After talking, the police arrived.

The men were happier at seeing the police than they would have been at seeing their families.

This girl was too scary!

Chapter 156: You'll be Famous

After learning the details from these people, Xia Xibei couldn't help but release a cold chuckle.

As expected, it was Xia Shahai and Liu Lixin who wanted to attack her.

It should be said that Liu Lixin was the one who instigated it.

Xia Shahai had seen Xia Xibei's true temperament, so he would never dare to do anything.

But Liu Lixin was different; she would not give up easily.

There were not many encounters between Xia Xibei and Liu Lixin, but that did not prevent her from understanding Liu Lixin.

Back then, Liu Lixin hooked up with Xia Shahui before his divorce and got pregnant.

A person who was fine with being a mistress had no sense of morality, and fewer boundaries than those of ordinary people.

Xia Xibei still remembered Liu Lixin's vicious and ugly expression from her previous life.

It was because of Liu Lixin's plotting that Xia Shahui had appeared after she became famous, blackmailing her for money.

Originally, Xia Xibei felt that since she had started a new life, they had also broken off their relationship. There was no need to continue their entanglement any further.

Unexpectedly, they were much greedier than she had thought.

Since they were not kind, she would not be righteous either.

She started thinking about the next steps she would take, and when she turned around, she met Qiao Yanjue's eyes.

“You’re still here?”

“I’m going now,” Qiao Yanjue said. “Be careful.”

“Don’t worry, they won’t dare to come here again,” Xia Xibei replied, her mouth curving upward.

She would not give them another chance to make trouble.

Qiao Yanjue’s eyes were deep. He nodded, “Then I’ll leave first.”

“Alright.”

Qiao Yanjue returned to the car. He looked at the gauze on his hand with cold eyes.

“Let’s go.”

When he returned to his home, the information related to Xia Xibei was already on his desk. As was the information about those people today.

After reading the two documents, Qiao Yanjue sneered.

Unexpectedly, Xia Shahui was the manager of a company that belonged to the Qiao family of companies.

Soon, Qiao Yanjue had made a decision.

Meanwhile, Xia Xibei was unaffected by these things, getting a good night's sleep.

As soon as she arrived at school the next day, Song Jiaren was waiting by the door.

Song Jiaren rushed over excitedly the moment she saw Xia Xibei.

“Beibei, you are famous!”

“What?” Xia Xibei was stunned.

Had the events from last night been exposed? They shouldn't have!

While she dislocated the man's arm several times, she didn't leave any traces of the action behind.

Besides, would they dare expose anything after doing what they did?

“You didn't go online?”

Song Jiaren immediately took out her phone and clicked on a certain video.

“See!”

Xia Xibei looked and couldn't help chuckling.

It was actually a video of Asura fighting with Honey!

The video was very noisy. In addition to the panicked calls of the two owners, there were the angry roars of a cat and dog.

But soon enough, someone ordered, “Stop fighting.”

When that clear and sweet female voice came, the cat and dog stopped instantly.

Then, the way they attempted to ingratiate themselves to Xia Xibei made the audience speechless.

“Look, there are so many people who reposted, liked, and commented! You'll be famous! Also, why does this cat look so familiar?”

Ever since she had learned that Xia Xibei wanted to be a star, Song Jiaren began to pay attention to these things.

She had never followed stars before, but because of Xia Xibei, she created an account to follow celebrity news, all in preparation for the future.

Seeing Song Jiaren's excitement, Xia Xibei couldn't help but laugh and shake her head.

"This is Honey, who we saw last time. The other one is Asura. I met their owners yesterday."

Chapter 157: Do Me a Favor

"Oh, too bad. Why didn't you bring me yesterday?!"

Seeing the two little animals' cute ways in the video and how they flattered Xia Xibei, Song Jiaren was very disappointed.

"I made an appointment with Tang Luo yesterday. I didn't expect something like this to happen."

"Tang Luo?" Song Jiaren was taken aback. "Your deskmate?"

"Yes."

Song Jiaren blinked at her. "You aren't...?"

“What are you talking about?” Xia Xibei patted her. “We were discussing a collaboration.”

“A collaboration?” Song Jiaren was surprised. “What do you want to collaborate on?”

“Something similar to the milk tea shop.”

For Xia Xibei, this was really similar to a milk tea shop.

“Oh,” Song Jiaren nodded to express her understanding. “By the way, my mom asked me to tell you that our store opens up next week!”

She became more and more excited as she talked about these things.

This was the first store they were opening together!

Thinking about the excitement that lay ahead in their future, she couldn't wait for the day to arrive.

“Ok. Got it,” Xia Xibei nodded.

When the preparation bell rang, the two of them went back to the classroom separately.

Back in the classroom, Tang Luo was already in his seat.

“Was everything okay last night?” Xia Xibei asked as she sat down.

“Last night?” Tang Luo was startled for a moment. He thought of something as his face turned pale, then red. He shook his head quickly, “Of course. I just rested for a bit after I got back.”

Seeing his strange reaction, Xia Xibei didn't say anything about that topic.

“Well, if you need help, remember to ask.”

Tang Luo smiled, “What could I need help with?”

“That depends.” Xia Xibei gave him a meaningful glance.

Tang Luo's expression changed slightly at the sight.

Before he could say anything, Xia Xibei turned around to take out her books.

“Ah, it's a new week!”

When the bell rang for the morning study period and after the teacher had arrived, Jin Yazhen ran in.

“Here!” she yelled, out of breath and a little pale.

Seeing her pitiful appearance, the teacher frowned but did not say anything. She simply nodded, “Go on in.”

After Jin Yazhen reached her seat, the sound of students reading started up once again.

With a lot of whispers now mixed in.

Jin Yazhen’s reputation in the class was ruined by now.

The things she did before had been exposed completely.

Everyone knew that someone their age was already so calculating!

Most of them were ordinary students, so they didn’t scheme so much. They were all about studying and playing.

The sudden appearance of such a scheming b*tch was really frightening, making them fear that she would hurt them too one day.

Xia Xibei had treated Jin Yazhen so well before, but then she treated Xia Xibei like this... It was frightening!

If you were to be friends with her, you too might be scammed one day!

Therefore, even if Jin Yazhen looked to be in bad shape, no one had any sympathy for her. Rather, they carefully avoided her.

Seeing how her deskmate avoided her in disgust, Jin Yazhen's face twisted into an ugly expression.

She bit her lip and looked at Xia Xibei with bitter eyes.

If it wasn't for Xia Xibei, she would not be in this situation!

She would take revenge!

She swore this to herself, but she didn't expect to meet Xia Xibei's cold eyes in the next second.

That scared her, causing her to quickly lower her head.

Xia Xibei suddenly smiled and leaned towards Tang Luo's ear.

"Do me a favor?" she asked.

“What is it?” Tang Luo looked up.

“Find someone for me and send something to them.”

Tang Luo looked at Xia Xibei closely, then nodded.

“Okay.”

Chapter 158: Whistleblowing

Realizing Jin Yazhen’s resentment towards her and thinking about what happened yesterday, Xia Xibei felt that she was still too kind.

Since the two sides were destined to be enemies, why should she be merciful? Wasn’t that just bringing trouble to herself?

Tang Luo took out a tablet and started clicking on it.

Soon, things that Xia Xibei couldn’t understand appeared on it.

Xia Xibei shrugged.

She didn't know much about electronic devices, at least not as much as Tang Luo. She knew how to use it in an ordinary way, but she'd let the professionals handle the more advanced matters.

Soon, Tang Luo found the account for the person Xia Xibei had mentioned. The account was not used frequently.

"Send these over."

Xia Xibei provided another account with lots of videos.

Tang Luo took a look and was stunned.

The protagonists were Jin Yazhen and Yang Xuan!

He couldn't help but look at Xia Xibei, puzzled.

"That person is Jin Yazhen's benefactor."

"Benefactor?" Tang Luo was shocked.

If everyone around them weren't reading, their movements would have attracted attention from the others.

Xia Xibei nodded, her expression remaining unremarkable.

"Jin Yazhen was not only with Yang Xuan."

Yang Xuan was proud of how he had two-timed people.

But he didn't know that Jin Yazhen was no decent person either.

Here, Jin Yazhen was together with Yang Xuan, enjoying young love, but on the other side, she had a middle-aged lover.

This man was almost 40 years old and could be mistaken as Jin Yazhen's father.

He had opened a not-so-small gold shop, and in the eyes of Jin Yazhen, he was considered a rich man.

Jin Yazhen's family was not financially comfortable, but she had been very vain since childhood.

One couldn't tell that her parents were part-time workers based on how well she dressed.

Otherwise, she wouldn't try her best to get more from other people after taking advantage of Xia Xibei.

This man could provide her with more material things.

Men of this age didn't usually go online so much, let alone pay attention to Jin Yazhen's online activities.

Moreover, very few friends knew about him and Jin Yazhen.

Because of this, Jin Yazhen boldly made some affectionate videos with Yang Xuan, and then posted them online.

However, if the man found her pedaling two boats, she would be finished for sure.

Xia Xibei hadn't thought of this before because she was not sure whether Jin Yazhen was already with that man at this time.

After seeing the silver chain on Jin Yazhen's neck just now, she had finally confirmed that they were together!

"It's done."

Tang Luo looked up and turned off the tablet.

“Thank you,” Xia Xibei smiled brightly, then turned to look at Jin Yazhen.

Tang Luo also looked over. He couldn't help but shake his head when confronted with Jin Yazhen's bitter expression.

This kind of person would only push all her own mistakes onto others, never taking a moment to self-reflect.

However, Tang Luo also got some inspiration from Xia Xibei's operation.

Jin Yazhen felt a little flustered seeing Xia Xibei and Tang Luo looking at her.

What did they want? What did they find out?

While she was thinking about this, her phone suddenly rang.

The ringtone was so loud, it disturbed those who were reading around them.

Everyone gave her disgusted looks.

With people showing contempt, she hung up in a panic, attempting to stop the ringing.

She could see the number clearly after everyone turned around.

Her face paled suddenly.

Chapter 159: You Guys Have True Love

After finally getting through class, Jin Yazhen rushed out immediately.

Xia Xibei's smile grew as she watched her flustered figure retreat.

"There's a good show coming up..."

Tang Luo glanced at her, shocked and confused.

How did she know these things?

Jin Yazhen rushed out of the classroom and found an empty place before calling back.

"Why did you hang up on me?" A rough male voice came out from the other end.

"It- It was the morning study period; I can't answer my phone!" Jin Yazhen explained quickly.

“You’re at school?”

“Of course! If I’m not at school, where else would I be?”

“Aren’t you supposed to be on the ferris wheel?”

With those words, Jin Yazhen’s face paled. “What- What did you say? What ferris wheel? Do you want to go to a ferris wheel?”

“Hah...”

The voice on the other end became somber and cold. “I think you had a pretty good time on the ferris wheel!”

“You... You’re talking nonsense!” Jin Yazhen’s face became even paler.

“I’m talking nonsense?! Shouldn’t you be in the pool now?! Oh no, you should be shopping! That doll is really cute, right?”

The man’s voice became cold and hard, the hostility present startling.

Jin Yazhen was cold all over, her hands and feet were numb, and her tongue felt bitter.

How... How did he know all these things?!

“That kid is really young and handsome! It seems like you guys are truly in love!” The voice on the other end was icy, cold enough to freeze Jin Yazhen.

“I... I...”

“It seems that I am giving you too much to make you fool me like this!”

Even Jin Yazhen’s teeth began to tremble at that point.

“Listen... Listen to me, I...”

“You don’t need to explain! I see everything!” the man snorted coldly. “It’s the first time I’ve ever been played like this! You really have some guts!”

“Brother Liang!” Jin Yazhen yelled. “I was wronged by others!”

She felt cold, not knowing how Brother Liang found these videos.

Was it Xia Xibei? But that was impossible!

Except for herself, no one knew that she was with Brother Liang, and Brother Liang was on the other side of the city.

In such a big city, who would know that someone had an unusual relationship with a high school girl?

In the eyes of outsiders, they had no interaction at all!

It was precisely due to the fact that there was no intersection between their circles of friends that Jin Yazhen was so unscrupulous.

But now... How did Brother Liang find out?!

"I wronged you?" Brother Liang sneered. "Did you think I was a schmuck? That's right! If you didn't think I was a schmuck, you wouldn't be cheating on me!"

"Brother Liang!" Jin Yazhen wailed. "That's all fake!"

"Fake?" Brother Liang laughed louder. "Don't worry, I will personally find the truth!"

What did he mean by personally finding the truth?!

Jin Yazhen gasped, wanting to say something, only to find that the call had ended.

She was finished!

Right away, there was an ominous premonition in her heart.

What did he want to do?!

Jin Yazhen was anxious. She didn't think much about the next class, let alone worry about hating Xia Xibei.

She wanted to ask for leave, but if she dared to do that, her parents would make her drop out of school!

Her heart was beating wildly, and her breathing was short, but she suffered through the afternoon.

The moment the bell rang after class, she felt as if she had heard the sound of heaven!

But soon, all those feelings of luck were ruined.

"Jin Yazhen! Some man is fighting with Yang Xuan!"

Man?!

Jin Yazhen's heart jumped, her face suddenly pale!

Chapter 160: She's My Lover

When Jin Yazhen arrived at the scene, she couldn't help but gasp.

The verbal quarrel stage had passed, and the fighting had officially started.

Brother Liang was pulling Yang Xuan into a violent beating!

"How dare you steal my woman! How dare you cuckold me! I'll beat you to death..."

His fist fell mercilessly onto Yang Xuan, who yelped again and again.

After a few punches, he was finally pulled away by others.

Even as he was pulled away, Brother Liang was still trying to kick Yang Xuan with his feet, yelling at him.

There were already many students around, all of whom were whispering curiously.

Someone recognized Yang Xuan. After all, the incident from before was only a few days ago.

They couldn't help being curious about what had happened to Yang Xuan. Why was he so full of drama?

A security guard pulled Brother Liang's arm back and prevented him from hitting Yang Xuan again.

"Who are you? How did you get in?!"

The dean, who had rushed over, was very angry. Where did this man come from?

When he saw Yang Xuan, he was even more upset.

It was him again?!

"I don't know..."

Yang Xuan also felt helpless. Just now, the man suddenly came to him and asked if he was with Jin Yazhen. How could he admit to such a thing?

However, even though he denied it, he could not escape the attack.

After being beaten up, he was about to cry.

“You don’t know?!”

Even though Brother Liang was restrained, his arrogance remained the same.

Yang Xuan was just an ordinary high school student. What was there to worry about?

“You stole my woman and cuckolded me, and you don’t even know?!”

“Sir, please watch what you say!” The dean was also angry. “He is just a student. What you just said is outrageous!”

How could a high school student have anything to do with these things?

This man was so old, he could have been a parent of the students here. The difference between their ages and social status was really big. How could they possibly have anything to do with each other?

“I’m outrageous?!” Brother Liang was even more annoyed. “I have evidence!”

“Evidence?” The dean frowned. “What evidence?”

“Let go of me first!” Brother Liang demanded the security guard who was pulling him from behind.
“Relax. I won’t hit him. I just want to show you the evidence!”

The dean looked at Brother Liang and finally nodded, “Let go of him first.”

The two security guards looked at each other and let go of their hands hesitantly, still ready to make a move at any time.

After being released, Brother Liang did not move on Yang Xuan, but took out his phone instead.

“This is my lover!”

He clicked on a photo and showed it to everyone.

A pretty young woman was leaning close to him, their faces touching. It was very sweet.

If he hadn’t said that she was his lover, it would be easy for others to think that she was his daughter. After all, their age difference was too great.

“This is...?”

The dean's brow jumped, feeling that the girl with the intricately-applied makeup looked familiar.

"She goes to school here!"

Brother Liang curled his mouth and looked around, then his eyes lit up. "Baby, come here!"

Jin Yazhen, who was hiding in the crowd, felt as if her heart had skipped a beat. Her face turned pale and she couldn't help but shrink back.

However, everyone's eyes focused on her, leaving her with nowhere to run.

The other students looked at her in shock. She was this old man's lover?!

What the- This was too shocking!

"You?!"

The dean finally recognized Jin Yazhen. She turned out to be the female student who stole things but blamed Xia Xibei!

How dare she do such a thing?!

