

Chapter 1521: Clever Moe

Lu Weihua was still embroiled in a bigamy lawsuit. The moment he saw the police, he felt a pain in his head. Before the police car approached, he turned around and ran away, leaving his elderly parents behind. He had no intention of waiting for the police at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Lu were taken away in the police car. They were there to look for their eldest grandson. It was apparent that they were there to cause trouble. Everyone knew what happened to their grandson—they had not wanted the child. The police followed the standard procedures and sent the child to an orphanage in Jin City.

Lu Xingzhi waited for the police car to take those people away. Then, he looked in the direction where Lu Weihua had left. No one knew what he was thinking. Then, he walked into the house.

As soon as he entered the building, Lu Xingzhi heard his mother scolding the Lu family for getting what they deserved. The heavens did not allow them to have a grandson.

On the other hand, Jiang Yao was very calm. She sat there and ate some fruits. When she saw him, she even winked at him playfully, giving him a look that both understood.

Lu Weihua would always get a daughter even if he married more women.

Jiang Yao did not know whether it was karma, but her medicine did its job. Lu Weihua had not cherished his son, so he could forget about having another one in the future.

Even if he impregnated more women, they would only give birth to more daughters for him.

After grumbling, Mrs. Lu went into the kitchen to clean up the vegetables she had just bought. Seeing that Moe had followed her into the kitchen, Mrs. Lu greeted him happily. "I'll make you braised fish for lunch!"

Moe, who did not like fish, shook his head and lightly jumped into Mrs. Lu's basket to rummage through it. Then, he used his soft claws to poke at the duck leg. Then, he raised his head to look at Mrs. Lu and meowed.

Mrs. Lu was surprised. "You don't like braised fish? You want to eat that duck leg? That won't do. That's Yaoyao's. She needs to eat more."

Moe scratched its head and took the second-best option to poke at the duck wings. Mrs. Lu was so shocked. She did not expect Jiang Yao's pet to be so smart that it could communicate like that.

Moe waited for Mrs. Lu's reply; he thought he could not have the wings either. He knew that Jiang Yao liked to eat the wings, so he turned around unhappily and showed his rear-end to express his displeasure to Mrs. Lu.

Mrs. Lu immediately burst into laughter. She raised her hand and patted Moe on the head. "When I'm done stewing the duck, I'll go to the market and buy you duck legs. I'll cook them separately for you!"

When Moe heard that, he quickly turned around. His tail swayed happily. Even though he knew that Mrs. Lu could not understand his words, he still called out to her excitedly.

Mrs. Lu understood Moe's mood and said, "What a clever Moe!"

It was a peaceful morning. Mrs. Lu was busy in the kitchen. Moe curled up in the corner of the stove to accompany Mrs. Lu. His tail swayed occasionally. He narrowed his eyes lazily and basked in the sunlight that came in through the window.

Jiang Yao was even lazier than Moe in Lu Xingzhi's arms in the living room. The television showed the news channel and replayed the evening news that had already been broadcasted the previous night. Its volume was low, but Lu Xingzhi was watching it seriously. When he felt the person in his arms move, he subconsciously tightened his arms to prevent her from falling out.

When he lowered his head and saw that she had changed to a more comfortable position to lean against him, she looked just like a lazy Moe. His brows relaxed, and a smile seeped into his eyes. The pet's owner was the same as her pet...

Chapter 1522: Have You Had Enough Of Touching?

Her phone on the coffee table rang. When she heard the notification sound, it sounded like a new text message had come in. Jiang Yao glanced at the coffee table, then raised her head to look at Lu Xingzhi. She stretched out her long fingers and pointed at the phone on the coffee table.

"You're so lazy."

Lu Xingzhi could not help but laugh. He hugged her tightly with one hand and reached out with the other hand to help her take the phone from the coffee table and pass it to her.

Jiang Yao smiled as she took the phone. She raised her head and kissed the corner of his lips. "I'll reward you." Then, she lowered her head and opened the new text message on her phone.

The text message was from Wen Xuehui. She wanted to know if Jiang Yao had returned home. She also asked about her relationship with that boy who looked so much like her. She said that the whole school had gone crazy. Everyone said that that boy was Jiang Yao's son.

Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows. She held her phone in both hands and typed on the keyboard. She explained to Wen Xuehui that she had nothing to do with Cheng Jinnian. She did not care whether Wen Xuehui believed her or not. In any case, she felt that it did not matter.

There were three people and a cat in the house. They were either lazy or busy, but the atmosphere in the home was extremely peaceful. At that time, the sunlight shone on every side of the house. It was a bright and magnificent house, and it was refreshing to look at it.

Suddenly, the doorbell rang. Lu Xingzhi frowned. Second Uncle Lu would not be there at that time, and Lu Yuqing was still in Nanjiang City, so who would be there at that time?

“Go open the door!” Jiang Yao pushed Lu Xingzhi’s leg, then pulled away from his arms. She held the phone in one hand, her gaze fell on the screen, and the other hand touched her back. She was about to take a pillow and put it on her back.

However, her attention was on the phone, so her hand was groping around her back. It was not until she heard someone beside her ask her in a low voice, “Have you had enough of touching?”

Then, Jiang Yao pulled her attention back from the phone. She felt the touch of the palm that was holding the pillow. A few seconds later, she slowly turned her head and looked behind her. Her gaze fell on the thing she touched.

“You still don’t want to let go?”

Lu Xingzhi’s eyes were burning. That time, his voice was terrifyingly low.

Jiang Yao quickly retracted her hand as if she had been electrocuted. She looked at the bulge with a dumbfounded expression. Then, she looked up at Lu Xingzhi. “I didn’t do it on purpose.”

“You’ll ruin me one of these days. Let’s see what you’ll do in the future!” Lu Xingzhi lifted his hand and pressed down heavily on Jiang Yao’s head as if he was venting his anger. Then, he said, “Go and open the door. I’ll go upstairs and take a rest. “

Without waiting for Jiang Yao to reply, he quickly went upstairs. Jiang Yao finally realized what had happened. Then, she slowly went to open the door.

When she opened the door, Jiang Yao’s good mood immediately vanished.

Second Aunt Li and Li Qing had arrived. Another woman who looked older than Second Aunt Li was also with them.

“Why did you open the door so slowly? Who does things like that?” Second Aunt Li had been waiting impatiently. When she saw that Jiang Yao had come out to open the door, her tone turned horrible. She even complained a little.

Jiang Yao grunted and walked back inside. Then, she called out to Mrs. Lu, who was in the kitchen.

“Mom, Second Aunt, and some other people are here again.”

Mrs. Lu, who was in the kitchen, immediately became impatient when she heard that. Jiang Yao’s use of the word again was absolutely correct... Why was she there again? Was she there to annoy them again?

Chapter 1523: Why Are You Here?

Mrs. Lu took her time putting the things in the kitchen into the pot and putting them on the stove. Then, she washed her hands and left the kitchen. Moe followed Mrs. Lu and jumped off the stove, following her out of the kitchen with graceful steps.

After Mrs. Lu came out, Jiang Yao went straight upstairs. Mrs. Li looked at her and felt that Jiang Yao did not know how to treat guests. “How can the young people hide in their rooms when older guests are here?”

“She hasn’t been feeling well recently. The doctor told her to stay in bed and rest more, so she wouldn’t be tired.” Then, Mrs. Lu looked at the woman behind Mrs. Li and asked, “So, why are you here today? If you’re here to talk about work and matchmaking, then I’m sorry, I can’t help with that.”

Mrs. Lu did want good things for her niece.

However, she knew her family well. Even if she did that favor for them, she would not get any thanks for that. If things did not turn out well, they would blame her for that too. They would think she had done that on purpose.

Other older adults might like to be matchmakers. When they saw a suitable young man or woman, they would always ask a few questions and help introduce them to other people. However, Mrs. Lu was different. She had never been a matchmaker before.

Second Aunt Li smiled. “I’m not here about a man or a job. My family has good jobs, and most of them are married. My granddaughter and grandson are still young.”

“Then why are you here?” Mrs. Lu blurted out.

“I’m here to borrow your sewing machine. The children at home are very naughty. We have to make new sheets at home, and we have to make some clothes for the children. But the sewing machine is broken, so I want to borrow yours,” Second Aunt Li.

“Auntie, I also want to borrow your bicycle. My father uses my bicycle, and I have to go to work so far away from home, so it’s inconvenient without a bicycle. Don’t you still have an unused bicycle? Since no one is using it, it’s a waste to leave it here. Can you lend it to me?” Li Qing quickly followed up after her mother spoke.

“I don’t sew; why would I have a sewing machine? Your uncle and I need our bikes. How can we get a new one?” Mrs. Lu replied with a fake smile.

“But Auntie, you do have one. Didn’t Jiang Yao bring a sewing machine and a bicycle when she married into the family? She doesn’t use them anyway. Is it the storage room?” Li Qing pointed to a room in the courtyard. “It’s a waste to leave it there. It’s better to lend it to us to make the best use of it!”

“That’s your cousin-in-law. You shouldn’t refer to her by her full name.” Mrs. Lu glared at Li Qing. “How old are you? Where are your manners?”

They said that her daughter-in-law had no manners, but they never looked at themselves.

“Also, those were Jiang Yao’s dowry, so they’re hers. They’re not mine. Even if I wanted to use it, I would need to ask for her permission. How can I just lend them to you?”

Mrs. Lu could not be bothered to deal with those three. She was still busy in the kitchen. “I’m busy with cooking. If you want to sit, then feel free to do so. Please go home when you’re done. I don’t have time to entertain you today...”

Chapter 1524: Get Out Of Here

Then, Mrs. Lu was about to return to the kitchen. Second Aunt Li quickly pulled her back and looked at Mrs. Lu as if she was looking at a fool. "Sister-in-law, are you stupid? Jiang Yao is already married into the Lu family. How can the dowry not belong to the Lu family? You are her mother-in-law. If you ask for it, how dare she not give it to you?"

"The Lu family does not have the habit of stealing the dowry of their daughter-in-law. Those things belong to her. Even if we are a family, there are lines we do not cross. Even though I am her mother-in-law, I am a reasonable person!" Mrs. Lu shook off Second Aunt Li's arm. Even if she lent her sister-in-law those things, that woman would never return those items to her.

She had suffered through the same thing when she was younger. Whenever her sisters-in-law borrowed her things, they never returned the item.

Eventually, Mrs. Lu figured it out. So she never wanted to lend anything to them again.

She had learned from her mistakes. She would not even lend them a jar of salt, let alone Jiang Yao's dowry.

"Call for Jiang Yao then. We'll ask her about it." Second Aunt Li was confident that Jiang Yao would not refuse an older person. It was an excellent way to control a young man and his new wife.

"She's resting upstairs. Don't disturb her." Mrs. Lu would not do that. She turned around and went into the kitchen.

Second Aunt Li looked at Mrs. Lu, who had entered the kitchen, resentfully. Then she looked at the other older woman. "What should we do?"

Li Qing did not care whether Jiang Yao was resting or not. She shouted, "Sister-in-law! Sister-in-law! My mother and aunt are looking for you. Come down quickly!"

Jiang Yao had heard everything that happened downstairs. Those women were shameless! They thought they could do anything there.

Jiang Yao opened the door and walked out, but she did not go downstairs. She just stood on the second floor and asked lazily, "What's the matter?"

Li Qing quickly said, "Auntie wants to borrow your sewing machine, and my mom wants to borrow your bicycle."

Jiang Yao stood on the second floor and smiled. Under the expectant and determined gazes of the three people below, she said, "No." Then, under the astonished expressions of the three people, she slowly walked back to her room. She slammed the door shut.

Even Mrs. Lu could not be bothered with people, so there was no need for her to bother with them.

When Jiang Yao returned to her room, Lu Xingzhi just happened to walk out of the bathroom. His entire body was dripping wet. He was only wearing a towel, drying his hair with another towel in one hand. He asked, "Who's that?"

"First Aunt, Second Aunt, and Li Qing." Jiang Yao shrugged her shoulders. "They took a fancy to my sewing machine and bicycle and said that they wanted to borrow them from me, but I refused."

Just as Jiang Yao finished her words, the door to the room suddenly opened. The next second, Li Qing appeared at the door and growled, "Jiang Yao, why are you like that? Will you die if we borrow something that you don't use? You're so stingy."

Li Qing stopped before she could say anything because she saw the cold look in her cousin's eyes. It was as if she could be strangled to death.

"Get out!" Lu Xingzhi did not hide his anger. Following his words, the table lamp on the bedside flew toward the door. Li Qing, who was dumbfounded, could not dodge it in time. The lamp hit her shoulder and, and she screamed in fear. After the table lamp hit her, it exploded at her feet. The people downstairs were so shocked that they hurriedly ran upstairs.

Lu Xingzhi walked forward and slammed the door shut. He locked the door and went to the bathroom to put on his clothes...

Chapter 1525: Within Reason

Jiang Yao could feel Lu Xingzhi's anger at the moment he threw the lamp. It was very overwhelming.

She was also shocked. It was rare for Lu Xingzhi to be so furious.

At the same time, she was also angry at Li Qing's uncultured behavior. How could she open her cousin's room without knocking and shouting at his wife?

Li Qing's cries and Second Aunt Li's curses could be heard outside the door. The First Aunt Li enjoyed the show as she added fuel to the fire and criticized Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao's behavior.

Jiang Yao did not know if Lu Xingzhi could hear her in the bathroom. Anyway, she could hear it clearly from inside the room. Jiang Yao wanted to ask Li Qing why she would cry.

Lu Xingzhi had to get dressed hurriedly, so his body was still wet. However, after he came out of the bathroom, he threw the dry towel on the chair and walked toward Jiang Yao. He pulled Jiang Yao to the edge of the bed and sat her down. Then, he walked out and stood at the door. He did not allow anyone to go into the room.

When Second Aunt Li saw Lu Xingzhi, she put her hands on her hips and scolded him. "How can you do that to your cousin? You even threw a lamp at her. What if she gets disfigured? What if it hits her head, and she gets dumb?"

"I wanted to throw it at her head," Lu Xingzhi snorted. "Why would she need it? We need it to think, but it seems like her head is full of sh*t!"

Second Aunt Li did not expect Lu Xingzhi to scold her so bluntly. He was the one who had done something wrong, so she was a little stunned.

Li Qing cried even louder when she heard that. Second Aunt Li only snapped back to her senses when she heard her daughter cry.

“What do you mean? Do you still think you are reasonable after hitting someone? You still want to scold someone? Lu Xingzhi, where are your manners? Didn’t your mother teach you?” Second Aunt Li was furious. If she were not afraid of Lu Xingzhi’s unusual personality, she would have pounced on him and hit him back.

“If you can’t control your daughter, you have no right to criticize other people’s upbringing. At least my mother didn’t teach me to treat other people’s homes as my own. I don’t open doors and scold whoever I want in other people’s homes.” After Lu Xingzhi finished speaking, he looked at Li Qing. His gaze was as sharp as a blade, piercing straight into Li Qing’s eyes. “Didn’t you understand me when I told you to get lost? I mean, get out of my home. I can throw you out if you don’t want to do it. Don’t blame me for being impolite when I do so.”

Li Qing was still a young girl, after all. After hearing Lu Xingzhi’s threats, she stared blankly at him. When she met his eyes, she felt a chill.

A few seconds later, Li Qing sobbed again. “Do you think I want to come here?” Then, she turned around and ran downstairs, crying as she ran out of the Lu family’s home.

“How can you treat your relatives like that?”

Mrs. Li was so angry that she stomped her feet. “How can you talk to your family like that? How can you chase away guests like that? “

“Well, now you’ve seen it all.”

Lu Xingzhi put his hands in his pockets and raised his head to gesture toward the stairs, indicating that the two older women should leave...

Chapter 1526: Is That What You Want?

The two Mrs. Li were elders in the family, so how could they leave just like that?

They did not manage to borrow anything, so why did they have to leave in anger for nothing? If they did not vent their anger, they would not be able to bear it!

“Sister-in-law, Sister-in-law!” Second Aunt Li stood on the second floor and called out to the kitchen downstairs. Mrs. Lu did not answer, so she changed her tactic. “Li Guizhi! Li Guizhi! Come here and see what your son has done. Is this how you treat family?”

Mrs. Lu pretended not to hear her while she was in the kitchen,

Jiang Yao could even hear Mrs. Lu grumbling to herself as she sat there, asking why the two of them had not left yet. She wanted to go out to buy chicken.

Mrs. Lu believed that Lu Xingzhi could resolve the conflict upstairs, so when she first heard the noise, she walked out of the kitchen to take a look. At first, she was worried that her child would be at a disadvantage, so she had a worried expression on her face. Later, when she saw what had happened to Li Qing, she quietly returned to the kitchen and pretended not to know.

“Don’t use your status as an elderly person to pressure me. You are not qualified.” Lu Xingzhi spoke very bluntly and did not leave any room for negotiation. “When our family was having a hard time, I didn’t see you running here to say that you’re family. Now, you are willing to change your tune?”

Lu Xingzhi’s words choked the two Mrs. Li. They could not come up with a reply. They had long regretted it. If they had known that the Lu family would become rich, they would not have cut ties with their sister-in-law. If they had known that the Lu family would have such good standing, why would they have bought bicycles in the first place?

Lu Xingzhi could even buy them a car if he wished, let alone a bicycle.

However, it was too late for regrets. Lu Xingzhi’s family had gotten quite wealthy, so they could not cut ties with them then.

Then, Lu Xingzhi raised his hand and pointed at the door. “That is the Lu family, not the Li family. You don’t have the right to speak loudly here. Speak politely. You are our guests. To put it bluntly, you are unwelcome guests. Are you here to keep the peace or to do something else? I think you know better, so don’t come here for no reason in the future.”

Lu Xingzhi was the son of the Lu family. He had the right to say such things on behalf of his family.

He maintained a neutral stance with those people because of his mother. They were not sincere, so there was no reason for him to treat them differently.

Even Mrs. Lu had the same thoughts. Therefore, Mrs. Lu would not stand up for her sisters-in-law.

Lu Xingzhi did not dislike his relatives. He did not mind that they were poor; he did not like their greed.

“Is that what you want, Lu Xingzhi?” Second Aunt Li was also furious. “Are you going to sever your relationship with the Li family? Fine, I want to see how your family will come and beg us when your sister gets married!”

Second Aunt Li would not have said that if she was not sure that Lu Yuqing would remarry after her divorce. It did not matter if it was a first or second marriage; she would need her uncle’s help in the wedding...

Chapter 1527: The Illegitimate Child Has Arrived

Lu Xingzhi smiled and said, “There’s no need. When my sister gets married, I can escort her as I am her younger brother.” Was it needed to give her a happy marriage?

Was that not the point of her getting married to her husband?

“You can be tough now. I’ll wait for that day!” Second Aunt Li did not take Lu Xingzhi’s words seriously. All daughters were escorted by their uncles when they got married. Otherwise, the others would laugh at their family.

Second Aunt Li looked forward to the day when Lu Yuqing got married. The Lu family would have to beg them then. They would not ask for a sewing machine then; they would be asking for a car. Otherwise, her husband would not escort Lu Yuqing on her wedding day.

Second Aunt Li walked down the stairs with heavy and arrogant steps. First Aunt Li snorted at Lu Xingzhi and followed her downstairs.

The two of them were only two steps away from each other. When they reached the door and were about to leave, they saw a large suitcase appear at the door, and a little boy stood behind it.

The little boy wore a pair of black leather shoes, a black suit, a white shirt, and a black top hat. He had a pair of black sunglasses on too. At first glance, he looked like an aristocrat from a foreign movie.

When the little boy saw them, he unhurriedly took off his top hat. Then, he took off the sunglasses and hung them in the pocket of his suit jacket. Then, he raised his head and looked at the two women at the door.

The two Mrs. Li had yet to recover from the little boy's aura of nobility when they were struck speechless by the little boy's appearance.

After a long while, Second Aunt Li snapped back to her senses and pushed her sister-in-law beside her. She asked, "Who is this? Why does he look so much like Xingzhi's wife? Is he an illegitimate child?"

"He must be!" First Aunt Li nodded. "Didn't someone say that Xingzhi's wife has a lover? This boy must be their son!"

First Aunt Li muttered to herself that the child looked extremely rich. Why would Jiang Yao hook up Lu Xingzhi if she was already with someone richer than the Lu family? Furthermore, she had given birth to a son. She should live a wealthier life with them.

Second Aunt Li was enraged, so she addressed Mrs. Lu directly. "Your daughter-in-law's illegitimate son has arrived!"

When Mrs. Lu heard that, she thought she had heard wrong. She looked at Moe suspiciously. Then, she put down the dishes in her hands and ran out of the kitchen without even washing her hands.

Jiang Yao recognized the little devil at the door at a glance. She was so angry that she gritted her teeth. "He's haunting me!"

"Aren't you going down to take a look?" Lu Xingzhi turned to look at Jiang Yao. He pulled her up. "Go downstairs and see what he's doing."

Jiang Yao pouted and tidied her clothes before following Lu Xingzhi downstairs...

Chapter 1528: Eldest Grandson

Downstairs, Mrs. Lu walked out of the kitchen. She stood in the living room and looked at the door. In a second, she was speechless; it was as if she had been struck by lightning.

“Look at that! Jiang Yao has an illegitimate child!” Second Aunt Li laughed disdainfully. “What did I tell you? She is a restless woman. Wasn’t I right about that? What’s so good about that girl from the countryside? Lu Xingzhi should have married one of my nieces. If he did that, you might even be a grandmother now. Are you going to let that child address you as Grandmother?”

Mrs. Lu did not seem to listen to Second Aunt Li’s words at all. When she saw the little boy, who looked exactly like Jiang Yao, at the door, Mrs. Lu’s first thought was not that he was Jiang Yao’s illegitimate child. Instead, she wondered if her son had something that caused Jiang Yao to have a child out of wedlock?

Did he have to marry her because of that?

Was that cute boy her biological grandson?

Mrs. Lu was a little nervous. She hoped that he was her grandson but also that he was not.

If he were, she would be delighted to have a grandson. He looked fair, clean, and adorable. However, if he were her grandson, she might have to hang her son and teach him a good lesson.

“Child, what’s your name?”

Mrs. Lu crouched to maintain eye level with the child. Her voice was so gentle that it was almost honey-like. She wanted to reach out to touch the child’s face, but she saw the vegetable leaves in her hand when she reached out. She quickly withdrew her hand.

Well, she could not touch her eldest grandson’s face with such dirty hands. It would not be good.

The boy rolled his eyes. After sizing up the three people in front of her, Cheng Jinnian’s gaze fell on Mrs. Lu. That person looked a little like a certain man, whom he did not like very much.

“Hello, Auntie. My name is Cheng Jinnian.” The child placed his hand in front of his chest as a form of greeting. Then he explained the meaning of his name so that the adults would know it.

“Oh... Cheng Jinnian.”

Mrs. Lu looked disappointed. His surname was Cheng, not Lu. How could such a cute child not be from the Lu family?

Then, Mrs. Lu put on a smile again because of Cheng Jinnian’s gentlemanly greeting. “You’re so smart. That’s a very good name.”

Cheng Jinnian used idioms to explain the meaning of each word in his name. One could see that the child was very cultured. He looked to be only around five years old. Mrs. Lu was a teacher, so she liked him very much.

“Thank you for your praise, Auntie.” Cheng Jinnian smiled a little bashfully.

Mrs. Li looked at how her sister-in-law and the little boy got along so well. She felt that her sister-in-law must be mad... How could she speak so kindly to her daughter-in-law’s illegitimate child? “How can you praise your daughter-in-law’s illegitimate child as smart? Has Jiang Yao bewitched you?”

Chapter 1529: I’m Looking For Her

“What’s your relationship with Jiang Yao?” Second Aunt Li interrupted the conversation between Mrs. Lu and Cheng Jinnian and asked in an unfriendly tone as if she was questioning her.

Cheng Jinnian raised his head and looked at the woman beside him. Then, he said, very seriously, “I don’t like the way you talk to me. You’re very rude. I refuse to talk to an uncultured person!”

The small boy had known that the woman crouching in front of him did not like the two women beside him. Besides, who did they think he was? He was the Cheng family’s young master. How could they be rude to him?

He was stingy and would only show minimal kindness toward an unimportant person, just like how he treated Jiang Yao back then.

Second Aunt Li was so angry that her mouth was crooked. “You little brat! How can you talk to an adult?” The boy had called her uncultured. She was so angry that she wanted to hit him.

However, her hand froze when she met his gaze. She felt a chill down her spine.

The child’s gaze was filled with anger, just like when Lu Xingzhi was furious. Second Aunt Li knew that she might lose her hand if she hit him.

Jiang Yao stood at the back and watched without a hint of worry. She did not doubt that if Second Aunt Li dared to hit Cheng Jinnian, the boy might take out a customized pistol from his pocket and shoot her in the next second.

Seeing that Second Aunt Li was about to make a move, Mrs. Lu quickly pulled the child behind her and said, “Second Sister-in-law, that is the Lu family. We don’t need you to teach our guests any lesson.”

Second Aunt Li withdrew her hand embarrassedly. Of course, she would not say that she was afraid of a child. She hurriedly ran away as the child stared at her. She was so scared that she did not dare say anything more.

First Aunt Li was baffled. She wondered if Second Aunt Li was stupid. She knew that the Lu family was in a good mood, but she was still willing to leave.

Mrs. Lu did not even have the intention of seeing her sister-in-law off. She turned her head and continued to ask Cheng Jinnian gently. “Cheng Jinnian, can you tell me who you are looking for?”

Cheng Jinnian nodded. His gaze swept past Mrs. Lu’s gentle face, then fell on the couple who had been watching the show a few steps away. Finally, his gaze fell on Jiang Yao.

He pointed at Jiang Yao with his tiny hand and said, “I’m looking for her!”

Then, before anyone could react, he sprinted toward Jiang Yao with his arms wide open while shouting excitedly, “Sister!”

Jiang Yao quickly moved behind Lu Xingzhi to avoid Cheng Jinnian’s embrace. Raising her eyebrows, she asked, “Why aren’t you calling me Mother anymore?”

Cheng Jinnian did not expect to be able to hug Jiang Yao anyway, so he did not feel embarrassed at all as he withdrew his hand. He tip-toed and said coquettishly in his baby voice. "Sister, I'm sorry. I was joking with you yesterday. Please don't be angry with me, okay?"

The other people at the door were stunned when they heard how the little boy addressed Jiang Yao. They did not remember the Jiang family had such a young child...

Chapter 1530: You Are Not Welcome

Mrs. Lu realized that the boy must be Jiang Yao's younger brother. They must have shared the same biological mother.

Jiang Yao had been certain that the woman who had tried to acknowledge her was an imposter. That meant she must have already known who her biological mother was.

Mrs. Lu looked at First Auntie Li, who was still standing there. "There are guests at my house, so I can't entertain you for now. Take care, Sister-in-law."

Then, Mrs. Lu walked into the house. First, she went back to the kitchen to wash her hands, and then she prepared a plate of fruits.

"Xiao Nian, come sit here with me and eat some fruit." Mrs. Lu liked Cheng Jinnian, not to mention that the child had a face that was as likable as Jiang Yao's. She appreciated his quick wit.

Cheng Jinnian noticed that Jiang Yao was ignoring him and heard Mrs. Lu calling him, so he was prepared to take a roundabout approach. He walked toward Mrs. Lu and sat down beside her. He took the fruit that Mrs. Lu passed to him with both hands and thanked her. He ate it in small bites. Then, he narrowed his eyes and smiled at Mrs. Lu. "May I stay at your house? I want to spend some time with my sister."

"No!"

Jiang Yao spoke before Mrs. Lu could answer him. "You're not welcome here. Go back quickly!"

Cheng Jinnian's small face wrinkled like an old man. He looked at Mrs. Lu pitifully. "Auntie, may I stay? May I stay? Auntie, don't worry. I'm very obedient. I'll wash my clothes, brush my teeth, and bathe myself. I'm very obedient. I won't disturb you or make any noise. If there's no room, I can sleep on the sofa!"

Mrs. Lu knew that Jiang Yao did not welcome the little boy. She thought for a moment and then looked at Lu Xingzhi. Seeing that her son did not oppose the idea, she nodded and said, "Stay. We have room!"

"She is lying to you." Jiang Yao stomped her feet and walked forward. "Do you think we believe that a person like you can wash clothes?"

"It's okay. I can wash his clothes." Mrs. Lu waved her hand. "That is nothing."

"I object!" Jiang Yao looked at Lu Xingzhi. "Tell me you agree with me."

Lu Xingzhi smiled lightly. "I'll listen to my wife."

Mrs. Lu cursed in her heart. How could she have given birth to that little fox? If he really objected, how could he not say anything else?

Mrs. Lu stood up. "Objection denied. I'm an elder, so I have the final say! Xiao Nian, I will take your luggage to your room."

Lu Xingzhi noticed that the luggage was not light, so he took it before Mrs. Lu did. "Let me do it."

He carried Cheng Jinnian's luggage, which was taller than Cheng Jinnian, upstairs with ease.

The Cheng family was different from the Lu family. Madam Cheng's love for Jiang Yao came from her heart. That was why Master Cheng was also protective of Jiang Yao. Cheng Jinyan's character was not bad either. Lu Xingzhi would not object to Jiang Yao's relationship with the Cheng family.

Therefore, he did not object to Cheng Jinnian's attempt to get close to Jiang Yao. He would never object to more people loving and caring for Jiang Yao.

It was not necessarily bad for her to have more love and care from her blood relatives.

Jiang Yao snorted. "Don't bother me!" Then, she followed Lu Xingzhi upstairs...
