

Chapter 1531 Foolish and Lowly

Luo Changchun continuously released an infinite quantity of “Star Stream” in the sky, making it difficult for Yang Chen to maneuver.

Yang Chen was constantly being bombarded by them along with Luo Chenxiang’s black ink and sound waves, leaving him no time to command the Chaos Cauldron.

This time, Yang Chen’s Ruo Water shield could not withstand the Golden Crow True Fire’s bombardment, as it appeared to be weakened by the continuous attacks.

The surging waves of True Yuan kept emitting shockwaves from Yang Chen. They vibrated outwards, lighting up the sky in an odd way as if countless deadly fireworks were set off.

The cultivators of the Luo clan from afar watched this scene excitedly but were also somewhat impressed by Yang Chen because he could hold his ground under such an attack, not to mention he had a woman in his arms.

Luo Xiaoxiao, on the other hand, was holding onto the corner of her clothes tightly. Her eyes were glistening with tears as her heartfelt squeamish. Yet, there was nothing she could do.

Why am I reacting this way? He hurt me several times and nearly killed me before. I don’t get it. The more he hurt me, the stronger our bond became.

Yang Chen noticed that his True Yuan was becoming more messed up and that his meridians were beginning to inflate. This was because the other party’s cultivation level was not significantly higher than his own. In reality, they piled up to a nearly insurmountable obstacle. This put him under a lot of stress.

If it were not for his inhumane physique, he would have died.

This was not good news for Yang Chen. Even though he was fighting them with Ruo Water and blue fire, and even utilizing the Chaos Cauldron occasionally to disrupt them, it was all for naught.

If this went on, he might make a mistake and lose because his True Yuan failed to replenish in time or ran out of energy.

Regardless of the things racing through his mind, what bothered him the most was the fact that the four middle-stage Ruo Water elders had yet to make a move.

Even without Xiao Zhiqing, he might not be able to resist a besiege carried out by those seven people.

What should I do!?

All of a sudden, Yang Chen realized he was very close to death.

Meanwhile, far to the southwest of the Luo clan fortress, Ning Zhengfeng stood in a black forest more than a hundred miles away.

With an unfathomable expression on his face, he remained still in the wet, black land, quietly waiting for something.

Behind him, four middle-aged cultivators, dressed in traditional clothes and of profound cultivation, sat in silence at four points.

They were two men and two women.

Other than them, a dozen other Ming Water cultivators were stationed around, each wearing a nervous expression.

At that moment, an ordinary-looking Kui Water cultivator quietly descended from the air came before Ning Zhengfeng, and knelt on one knee.

This individual was one of the spies planted in the Luo clan by the Ning clan. With thousands of members in the Luo clan and cultivators having a great level of autonomy and independence to roam about, spies installed by the Xiao and Ning clan were unavoidable. In reality, this was true for all clans.

“Why are you so late? What is the situation? What just happened?” Ning Zhengfeng asked unhappily.

The spy replied, “Forgive me, sir. It’s really because the situation was too shocking. Luo Qianqiu had just successfully advanced into the Nine Heavens Thunder Tribulation!” The spy’s voice was trembling as his heart still palpitated from the lingering fear.

As soon as these words were spoken, the Ning clan cultivators behind them all revealed shocked expressions.

The two men and two women had their brows knitted as well.

Ning Zhengfeng’s face was unreadable before he finally sighed quietly. “How’s Yang Chen?”

“It doesn’t look too good. He shouldn’t be able to last long. Six Great Grand Elders of the Luo clan came at once. There seems to be Luo Chenxiang, the expert who became famous centuries ago, and Luo Changchun, the former patriarch. The other elders are also experts who have been famous for over a hundred years. Yang Chen can barely handle Luo Qianqiu, much less seven people. Although he is doing his best, it is probably a matter of time before he is killed or captured.”

The corners of Ning Zhengfeng’s mouth twitched, and he gritted his teeth. In the end, he waved his hand and said, “Got it. Go back to the Luo clan and don’t get caught.”

“Yes!”

The spy immediately leaped into the air and left.

“Elders, my apologies. It seems that I’ve made you all come here for nothing,” Ning Zhengfeng apologized.

One of the female elders said, “It wasn’t a waste of time to come here. Since we learn that Luo Qianqiu can advance into another realm, it means that we still have a chance. Note that in the future, the Luo clan’s strength will rise to another level, so you should keep an eye on them, Zhengfeng.”

“Not bad,” one of the male elders drawled. “We know that you’re more focused on the mortal world, but as the patriarch, cultivation is also extremely important. Learn from Ruo Zhu. We think that the girl will be our greatest hope among the younger generations to counter Luo Qianqiu.”

Ning Zhengfeng’s cheeks trembled a few times, and he forced a smile. “Thank you for your teachings. I dare not forget!”

The four elders said nothing more, for they knew they could save Yang Chen if it was just the six Great Grand Elders. However, with Luo Qianqiu, who had stepped into the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning Tribulation, there was a great chance that Yang Chen would die.

Thus, without waiting for Ning Zhengfeng to speak, they had flown away and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Ning Zhengfeng’s face instantly turned gloomy. Then, he threw out a platinum-colored True Yuan, shattering a dozen heavenly trees in succession and shaking the forest.

“Sir, are we... giving up?” A Ming Water cultivator came up and asked reluctantly.

Ning Zhengfeng said in a deep voice, “We’ll only be sending ourselves to our death if we don’t give up. Why should we risk it to get a favor from Yang Chen? Go back!”

Having said that, Ning Zhengfeng took the lead and flew away.

The group of Ning clan cultivators had expected a big fight, and for this reason, even four of the Great Grand Elders were summoned back. To their dismay, they gained nothing, so they went back with their heads hung.

Unbeknownst to Yang Chen, he had the chance to flee as the Ning clan was planning to help him out of his predicament in exchange for a favor.

Unfortunately, Luo Qianqiu’s ascension disrupted their plan utterly.

Well, it was not as if Yang Chen intended to rely on anyone’s help. He had expended all his efforts to save Xiao Zhiqing and thus was mentally prepared for such a situation.

At the thought of dying here with her, he refused to resign to his fate.

My child and women are still waiting for me at home. I can’t be killed by these shameless old folks!

Despite his reluctance, he was losing the energy to gather Heaven and Earth Energy each time.

Yang Chen could hear his breathing and heartbeat and felt that Xiao Zhiqing had become weaker and weaker from being attacked by the sound waves several times.

The Chaos Cauldron went from attacking to guarding his side. Using Chaos Energy, he formed a barrier to strengthen his defense.

No matter how strong the Chaos Cauldron was, it was not a good enough plan. Sooner or later, the barrier would be breached.

The golden crows, the magnificent Star Stream, and the long ink dragons that kept twirling made it impossible for Yang Chen to even see what was going on outside.

Just then, a familiar voice suddenly sounded in his mind!

“Heh.” The voice laughed satirically as if he was reading a joke.

Yang Chen was stunned. His divine sense tensed for a moment. Deep in his mind, he uttered in shock, “Chaos!?”

A shadow, identical to Yang Chen, formed in Yang Chen’s consciousness. With a teasing expression, it said, “Long time no see, little fellow.”

“How... How are you...” Yang Chen expressed his shock while subconsciously defending against the attacks from outside.

“How am I still here, and how am I still able to communicate with you?” Chaos scowled. “Do you think you can subdue me by devouring one Buddha’s Heart Relic, you dumb and despicable human? You’re hallucinating! I’m an immortal Great Ancient Divine Beast who was born since Hongmeng’s inception. The possessor of that relic was a minor Buddhist monk from the Great Ancient era. I could easily consume hundreds or thousands of him in a single meal! Do you want to conquer me with that shattered relic? Get up!”

Chaos’s tone was full of contempt.

Yang Chen suddenly realized what was going on and exclaimed, “You... You did it on purpose!?”

“Haha! It’s not too late for you to catch on.” Chaos grinned. “If I didn’t pretend to be suppressed by you, I couldn’t have continued to eat cultivators to recover my strength since you wouldn’t use your actual cultivation.”

Chapter 1532

Being Wrapped Around Its Little Fingers

Yang Chen was embarrassed by his own stupidity, not only did he get tricked by Luo Qianqiu but also the Chaos!

Chaos, on the other hand, was a demonic beast that had survived for hundreds of thousands or millions of years. Although it spent the majority of its life hibernating under the seal, its intelligence was far superior to that of any regular human being. So that wasn’t all that bad after all.

When Chaos came at this precise time, Yang Chen realized things were about to get tough.

“Then, why did you come out now?” Yang Chen asked.

Chaos responded arrogantly, “Do you think you can still handle all of this if I don’t come out now? If you have the Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning cultivation, you may have greatly boosted the strength of Chaos Cauldron and all of these assaults would have been destroyed or absorbed. However, your cultivation is insufficient, which is why you can’t absorb large-scale attacks with the cauldron. You will not be able to survive if you continue in this manner.”

“I don’t think it’s the Chaos Cauldron that can’t absorb, it’s just you doing it on purpose. You didn’t seem to mind absorbing the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning just now, did you? All of this must be a part of your plan.” Yang Chen wasn’t going to be tricked.

Chaos was not bothered by his words. “You don’t have to be angry, it’s pointless. You’re just a small little doll in my eyes. I wouldn’t have bothered with you if it wasn’t for your excellent physique that suited me. Yes, if I come out myself, don’t talk about Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning; not even the Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning can frighten me! I can eat them all. But why should I help you if I don’t get anything in return? I’ve taken good care of you by enabling you to survive until now.”

“You aren’t helping me. You’re just planning the future for yourself.” Yang Chen said.

The Chaos laughed loudly, “So what?! Every time I devour a cultivator or absorb heavenly lightning strikes, and True Yuans, I share partial spiritual energy with you, allowing you to increase your cultivation and strengthen your body. Even though I did all these to prepare your body for my use in the future, you can’t deny that I still helped you.”

Madness surged through Yang Chen’s body. He felt as if he was just a pet being fed by the Chaos just because it wanted his body in the future.

The feeling of being wrapped around its little fingers drove Yang Chen crazy!

However, Chaos was not bothered by any of it. Instead, it laughed. “My advice is you better not get mad now. If you’re smart enough, you should know that you’re no match for these cultivators! If you wish for your woman to leave this place safely, I can consider lending you a helping hand...”

Yang Chen was dumbfounded. Looking at Xiao Zhiqing whose face and lips turned pale, his heart ached. He swallowed without saying a word.

“Hubby, how are you... cough cough...” Xiao Zhiqing asked when she saw Yang Chen looking at her. Yet, she coughed more mouthfuls of blood, indicating that she was injured on the inside.

The conversation between Yang Chen and Chaos was undetectable by anyone in the surroundings.

At that very moment, Yang Chen felt severe pain in his heart as if it was tearing apart.

Yeap, if I try to withstand all these stubbornly, my woman will die here. Even if she doesn’t die, she will suffer greater torture... Also, there is no way these people will let go of my women at home...and my child...

The Chaos seemed to see through Yang Chen’s thoughts and said more enticingly. “Consider the people you want to protect... and consider their efforts on your behalf... Do you want to see their lives dictated by others? If you let me use your body, I pledge with an ancient beast’s oath that I’ll repay the favour by protecting all those women and your family members. I’m not going to let anyone provoke them. I’ll eat anyone who dares to hurt them... Also, these folks here, I’ll slaughter them all for you, leaving no trace of their bones behind. What are your thoughts?”

Yang Chen dared not believe its words. If it knows how to keep its promise, it won’t be called a demonic beast.

The Chaos was not in a hurry for the answer too as it smiled quietly, waiting for Yang Chen’s decision.

Although it could collide with Yang Chen's divine sense by force, it might cause reluctance from Yang Chen. It would not benefit as its beast's soul might be damaged or even self-exploded.

Yang Chen was struggling to decide in such a short time...

On the outside, Luo Qianqiu, Luo Chenxiang, and Luo Changchun were impatient as Yang Chen was not defeated even if they attacked him for so long.

"Hmph, this Chaos Cauldron surely is an ancient artifact beyond everything else. Can't believe it could hold this long." Luo Chenxiang said with frustration.

"I think he is already at his limits and has no way to escape. How about all seven of us attack at once?" Luo Changchun suggested.

After confirming Yang Chen had no place to escape, the other four Great Grand Elders gathered and released a strong True Yuan of middle Ruo Water Stage.

Luo Qianqiu had no opinions on that, just that it was pitiful for not getting the techniques to master the art before Yang Chen's death. However, thinking that maybe Yang Chen's family members knew something about it, he went along with the suggestion.

Suddenly, Yang Chen was shocked when he sensed there were four more True Yuan outside preparing to attack him.

Do these old folks really want to kill me that badly?!

Yang Chen's head was so painful that it was going to explode. His old illness was about to erupt as a bloody red color flashed in his eyes.

I have no choice but to bet on it!

Yang Chen lowered his head and mumbled to Xiao Zhiqing. "Qing'er, I can only bet with the Chaos. I'm sorry..."

Xiao Zhiqing was lost when she first heard his words. Yet, when the Chaos Cauldron's aura got stronger, she realized something!

"Hubby...you decided..." Xiao Zhiqing dared not finish her sentence as tears filled her eyes. Knowing Yang Chen had made that decision, a sense of guilt surged through her body.

Yang Chen was no longer able to hear what Xiao Zhiqing said as his consciousness started to fade off. It was getting dizzy, and dizzy until he let go of control.

The Chaos was glad. During that time, the spiritual energy absorbed had recovered some of its powers.

Even though it was nowhere near its prime period, the time now was different from the past. Those ancient folks who could kill and seal it were no longer alive.

In this world, it had plenty of time to strengthen itself and regain its prime again. Taking over Yang Chen's body was just the first step.

On the outside, each of the four Great Grand Elders had amassed a colourful attack. All of these guys were professionals who had mastered the Luotian Sutra. The strikes, filled with a large number of True Yuan and focused at Yang Chen, were like nuclear bombs about to be detonated.

“Bring him down with one blast!” Luo Chang Chun shouted.

At the very next second, all seven of them gave it their all. The power of True Yuan was like a tsunami, splashing towards Yang Chen.

“Boom!”

The blinding light was so bright that the remainder of the Luo family’s cultivators instantly backed away, unable to look at it directly.

The aftershock of the combined attacks from the seven experts was as if cracking the world apart. A mere Tribulation Passing Stage cultivator could have been shocked to death.

It was on par with the Tai Ching Heavenly Lightning powers.

In addition that Yang Chen was already at his limits, this attack was a death sentence in their minds.

When the light faded, they noticed Yang Chen and Xiao Zhiqing were nowhere to be found.

Meanwhile, the Chaos Cauldron was spiraling in the air slowly. The power of Chaos showed signs of fading too...

Luo Changchun replied. “It should have ended long ago. He was just resisting.”

The cultivators of the Luo family were cheering for the victory and were so energetic after seeing such great attacks.

However, Luo Qianqiu frowned. His pupils contracted and looked up at an instance!

“How is it possible?!”

His shock prompted the other Great Grand Elders to look up too!

Everyone gasped at the very next second!

There was a shadow standing far above them, a few hundred meters from the Chaos Cauldron.

A chilly breeze flew by. “Yang Chen” was carrying Xiao Zhiqing with one hand while caressing his chin with the other.

His eyes were painted red, and he exhibited no traces of humanity. He appeared to be surrounded by a mist, emitting an ancient eery aura.

“Impossible...How did he escape?! We didn’t even realize how he dodge it?!” Luo Chenxiang was dumbfounded.

In the sky, “Yang Chen” looked down at the seven people who were completely startled with an evil smirk. He licked his lips, showing off his greediness...

Chapter 1533 Sky Full of Flames

The creepy smile on “Yang Chen”'s face sent chills down their spines. It was as if numerous bloody eyes were staring at them!

“His cultivation...is not right...” Luo Qianqiu affirmed as he was the first to sense the difference.

Luo Changchun and the rest seemed worried.

Even though they could not predict how great his cultivation was, his True Yuan's oppression at this moment was totally a different level to before!

“Hoo...”

The Chaos did not bother how the seven of them looked at it, instead, it heaved an enjoying rumble. It took a deep breath.

“Delicious...the taste of breathing...”

Luo Chenxiang wore a solemn expression. “Hmph, he's making fun of us!” Don't be duped! He most likely employed some quick tactics to activate his talent. At this level, no one could randomly enhance their cultivation.”

“That's right! Don't let him run away!” Luo Changchun nodded. He drew a few runes on his palm and pushed it to the sky above. A gold light shined. “Star Stream – Sky Breaking!”

In an instance, there was a huge cloud of spiritual energy gathered above the Chaos. With the triggering of True Yuan, it expanded and formed a long gigantic energy pillar!

“Boom!”

The terrifying pillar fell from the sky, bombarding every part of its surrounding!

The True Yuan radiating from the explosion was so great that it was as if the entire space was about to be destroyed!

However, the Chaos did not even lay a glance at it, allowing the energy to strike on it...

What the seven of them saw in the very next second shocked them!

All the explosive energy turned into a small stream of spiritual energy and was absorbed upon coming in contact with the surroundings of the Chaos!

In a blink of an eye, the tremendous attack disappeared into nothingness as if none of it had ever happened!

Of course, to the Chaos, these types of attacks were too ordinary to it. They were all none other than little snacks in its perspective.

Approximately four hundred thousand years ago, the ancient cultivators possessed the Yu Qing Heavenly Lightning cultivation. The arts and methods they performed were the epitome of ground-breaking. Despite this, it took tens of thousands of cultivators to bring the Chaos down.

If it was not that Yang Chen's body was not on par with its actual body and it had not recovered a hundredth of its power during its prime, it could just crush these people like ants.

After controlling Yang Chen's body, Chaos transferred out the spiritual energy stored in the Chaos Cauldron. That was the reason why Yang Chen's cultivation had reached the true powers of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning cultivation.

Yang Chen could barely complete half of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning cultivation before absorbing multiple Purple Blue Heavenly Lightning, three strikes of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning, and countless experts and pills. It was because Chaos only shared a portion of his spiritual force with him.

Since Chaos had taken over Yang Chen's body, there was no reason for it to hide anymore. It took it all out as they belonged to it anyways.

The Chaos had always wanted a body to cultivate instead of being fed in the Chaos Cauldron where it was sealed.

At this very moment, "Yang Chen" had reached the complete stage of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning in terms of True Yuan cultivation and understanding. In addition with the Chaos's devouring attributes and the power of Chaos, these seven people were no longer a threat to him.

Despite having the highest cultivation in the area, Luo Qianqiu was only in the mid-stage of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning in terms of True Yuan cultivation. His comprehension was significantly inferior to that of "Yang Chen", let alone the other six cultivators.

"Is that all? Can you guys...give me something more exciting?" The Chaos smirked at them.

As it spoke, it threw Xiao Zhiqing and the Chaos Cauldron to a side, protecting the woman with it.

Xiao Zhiqing knew the man in front of her eyes was not the man she knew. She was frustrated and worried but did not dare to make a sound at the same time.

Luo Qianqiu then thought of something and shouted. "You aren't Yang Chen! You're the demonic beast – the Chaos?!"

"What?" The others blurted in shock.

The Chaos laughed loudly. "It doesn't matter who I am. What is important is which of you will be my appetizer..."

"How dare you! Still trying to act cool when you're about to die! Ink Dragon Art – The Dragon's Rage!"

Luo Chenxiang was not afraid of her adversaries since she was the type of person she was. A splotch of black ink swirled in front of her, releasing a massive, fearsome dragon. The dragon's size increased tenfold in the flash of an eye, racing at the Chaos with its razor-sharp jaws!

The Chaos did not dodge but went head-on with the dragon!

Before even touching the Chaos, the black ink was turned into numerous streams of spiritual energy, absorbed by it. The attack may sound great but it did not harm at all!

“Grandma, be careful!”

Luo Qianqiu shouted but it was too late!

The Chaos was already dashing at her. Luo Chenxiang did not expect it would come after her directly but all she could do was to go head-on with her Ghost Cry Sword!

“Cling, cling, cling!”

Chaos’ power surged in an instant. The dark grey energy shattered the blade, transforming it into metallic spiritual energy that could be absorbed.

An ordinary top-grade weapon was just trash in the eyes of Chaos.

“No...Ahh!!”

Luo Chenxiang’s scream filled the night sky as she was captured by Chaos. Its hand slammed at her head!

Ripped

The old lady’s head was torn off by the Chaos. Even her skull and bones were crushed!

Stream of blood shot out from the lady’s neck like a fountain!

The Chaos was smiling crazily. Just when everyone was shocked by what happened, it bit her neck and started its long-awaited feast!

Crunch Crunch Crunch

The sound of flesh being eaten terrified Luo Qianqiu and the rest, including Xiao Zhiqing!

“Ah!” Xiao Zhiqing covered her eyes as she was too frightened to watch.

The other cultivators of the Luo family from afar were dumbfounded, either their legs went soft or their faces turned pale. They did not understand how the table was turned in just a second!

The Great Grand Elder who reached the peak of the Ruo Water Stage was killed instantly by “Yang Chen” and got eaten?!

Chaos looked up after a few nibbles. Its entire face was covered in blood and flesh, as if it had just emerged from a pool of blood. Even though there was blood all over its body, it smiled enthusiastically.

“The taste that I’ve always dreamt of...the fresh flesh of a human cultivator...it has been a while since I last tasted it...Gosh...”

If anyone who heard that sentence, saw the scene and still did not believe what Luo Qianqiu said earlier, the person was probably crazy!

The Chaos?! This Yang Chen’s body was possessed by the Chaos?!

A moment ago, they were suppressing Yang Chen but now their attacks were like eggs hitting a rock. They finally understood the reason why.

“Run! Quickly run! In different directions!”

Luo Qianqiu formed a great True Yuan orb while shouting the order to all members of the Luo family!

There was no way they could win! Staying here with a beast being able to skill Luo Chenxiang in an instant and crushing a top-grade weapon like it was nothing would only mean death!

Luo Qianqiu ran towards the south-west almost at the same time giving out the orders!

It was not some random place. That was where the Ning family was located. He knew it was useless to run anywhere as attracting the Chaos to a place where greater experts were at was the only chance to prevent it from hurting the other cultivators.

Yet, Luo Changchun and the other five reacted slightly slower despite knowing they must run away.

The Chaos was pissed. These ants dare to run away?! Running away makes no difference! As he had already possessed Yang Chen’s body, it was a matter of time for it to devour them all!

However, running in different directions made it difficult for Chaos to capture them all at once. It could only choose the nearest direction and chase after the Great Grand Elder with the Ruo Water mid Stage!

“Ahh! Don’t eat me!!”

When he saw the Chaos charging at him, he yelled out, unconcerned about his image. He was resistant for a few hundred years of cultivation of his to be eaten away so quickly!

Despite this, the Chaos was much faster than the older. The elder’s arms that tried to resist were swiftly crushed by Chaos’ might. With its grasp, it crushed his neck and absorbed all of his cultivation!

Chapter 1534

Sudden Rise of Divine Sense

As the cultivators of the Luo family had already run in different directions, the Chaos did not bother to chase each of them down.

It had been paying attention to everything Yang Chen had gone through while hiding in Yang Chen prior. It was aware of the whereabouts of many cultivators, such as the Xiao family, the Ning family, and the Hongmeng in the center. It intended to visit those locations one by one because there was no reason to just pursue the Luo family.

Since Chaos was a demonic beast that would never die or diminish, its wisdom grew with time. Yet, it did not make it any human. Its flaw was unable to control its greediness.

Chaos would always want to eat all humans, no matter what the scenario was. That was what distinguished a beast from a regular person, and it was also the reason why ancient cultivators would risk their lives to steal it away.

They knew that the elimination of mankind would happen if Chaos was not sealed away. Chaos was born to devour and absorb all living beings. That was its destiny rather than its choice.

However, it was unable to be killed or else, it would have died long ago.

“Hmm...they are surely good at running.” The Chaos mumbled while it was enjoying the aftertaste of the last flesh. It then laid its eyes on Xiao Zhiqing. Swiftly, it stood in front of her.

Seeing the Chaos staring at her, Xiao Zhiqing shivered. “What...what did you do to my husband...”

“Having the courage to speak right into my eyes. You are surely brave enough, little girl.” The Chaos smirked. “Your man is no longer here. From today onwards, the body belongs to me.”

“You liar! My husband will not lose to you!” Xiao Zhiqing screamed with tears, carrying that little glimpse of hope inside her.

“Hahahahaha, I don’t have time to waste on bullshit with you. Yang Chen had the audacity to ask me to defend his women. I agreed at first, but I’ve since altered my opinion. To restore my powers, I’m busy devouring cultivators. I don’t have time for you disgusting humans.”

The Chaos was filled with the need for vengeance. “How can Yang Chen not respect me while I was weak. You’re his lady. I can eat you first, then proceed to the island to eat the others. That will put an end to my hatred! But now I wish I could see Yang Chen’s lady begging me for mercy. I’ll spare your life if you can make me happy.”

Xiao Zhiqing jolted but she smiled coldly. “Looks like you’re just a pitiful little bug. Kill me as you wish! Do you think I would beg you for mercy? Even a weak woman like me is going to look down on you!”

Frowned, the Chaos smirked once again. “Alright! Since you don’t know your place, I’ll rip your body apart and eat you up! I wonder how Yang Chen would feel if he knew he ate his own woman!”

Upon finishing its sentence, Chaos aimed for Xiao Zhiqing’s chest, wanting to grab her heart out!

Yet, before its arm could reach out, the Chaos had a shock!

“How...how is it possible...you...damn it...no!”

Chaos’ face began to crumble, and its body began to convulse. The bleeding red color in the eyes was like flashing lighting at the same time. The demonic aura was also unstable...

Xiao Zhiqing who was closing her eyes and preparing for her death noticed something was off. Seeing what was happening caused her mixed feelings. She was worried but also filled with hope!

At that moment, there was a strong mental force breaking Chaos’ oppression in Yang Chen’s sea of divine sense. It was struggling to break free!

“You bastard! I knew you won’t keep your promise. Protecting my women?! Don’t treat me like a three-year-old kid!”

Yang Chen’s roar came from the deep side of the divine sense. There was a strong spiritual mental power overpowering the Chaos’ divine sense!

In an instance, the long-lost divine sense of Yang Chen appeared once again, on par with the Chaos'.

In the sea of divine sense, there were two Yang Chen!

Staring the vengeful spiritual energy radiating from Yang Chen, the Chaos thought of something!

"That's the mental powers of that divinity?!"

The Chaos finally recognized it. That was the divinity inherited from Hades!

However, for some reason, the power radiating from the divinity was way greater than before!

Yang Chen smiled as his eyes filled with battle spirit!

"How are you feeling right now?" You'd never guess I had something up my sleeve. Even though you have regained part of your powers, the Chaos Cauldron has locked your actual essence. That's why you can only use my body. Your inner soul, if I'm not mistaken, isn't powerful enough to swallow me. Otherwise, you would have done so instead of enticing me with a slew of gimmicks and compelling me to hand over power."

Chaos was frustrated after being exposed by Yang Chen.

Indeed, the seal from the ancient cultivators was very strong. Its true soul was locked in the Chaos Cauldron. Without completely recovering its powers, there was no way it could escape from the restrictions of Chaos Cauldron.

Due to the effects of the cauldron, it was also difficult for it to fully recover as it could not run away. It could only attach to Yang Chen's body.

If its true soul was strong enough, it would have devoured Yang Chen straight away. There was no need for it to tempt and persuade Yang Chen multiple times and be disrespected.

Chaos seized the opportunity this time because, first and foremost, it believed its abilities had recovered sufficiently to repress Yang Chen's true soul. In terms of eating his soul, maybe in the future.

Second, the Chaos reasoned that no matter how powerful Yang Chen's actual soul was, as long as it surrendered now, there would be no chance of resistance, until the Chaos itself surrendered control. It was the same assumption that it had previously been unable to take over Yang Chen's body owing to his unwillingness.

Never had he thought Yang Chen's mental powers would rise in a sudden!

The mental power and divine sense might sound different but they were the same thing. Both were part of the true soul!

In terms of divine sense, there were eight parts: eyes, ears, nose, tongue, body, consciousness, manas, and ālaya-vijñāna.

ālaya-vijñāna was known as the seed of thoughts in Buddhism, the source of happiness, anger, sorrow, and enjoyment.

As for the mental power, it was a power released by the consciousness in a human's mind.

The human's consciousness was mysterious while the gods used the mysterious 'divinity' to turn consciousness into strong mental powers. They could release and hide it anytime anywhere. It was similar to the concept of unlocking the restrictions.

The mental power that represented consciousness was the most important part of a strong divine sense. The divine sense was a form of true soul.

At present, Yang Chen's mental powers were released from the divinity, along with Hades' vengeful aura. This surely had increased the Chaos' pressure!

"How is it possible...how did your mental powers grow so strong?!" The Chaos was struggling as it realized its divine sense was being suppressed!

Yang Chen's excitement grew as he approached. "You may only speculate and witness my behavior, but you will never grasp my inner thoughts. Long before the Heart of Gaia began to heal, the divinity's mental power had expanded enormously. The gods' mental abilities were also growing. You wouldn't know, though, because I don't apply the Law of Space. You have no idea how different my divinity was from before! My real soul will be instantly strengthened as long as I unleash the mental powers from the deity, even if my cultivation remains unchanged! Do you honestly believe that my divine sense is on par with or even weaker than yours? If that's the case, you're entirely wrong! I've long surpassed you and there's no way you could catch up!"

Yang Chen's words crushed Chaos' ego. No matter how hard it struggled, it was to no avail!

The growing mental powers from the divinity helped Yang Chen's true soul in overcoming the Chaos' and completely suppressed it!

"No...I will never lose to you...This is unfair! Argh..."

It was useless for Chaos to even try since it was not aware of it in the first place. The Heart of Gaia had supplied a great number of mental powers to the gods. Its divine sense was no longer on par with Yang Chen's at present.

Yang Chen muttered arrogantly as he saw the Chaos weakening. "I've told you that you're nothing more than a pet. How dare you play mind tricks with your owner?! I have complete authority over you now that you have revealed all of the cultivations you hid previously. I'll arrive at Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning and be unstoppable. Chaos, if you don't want to descend into the infinite deep abyss, I suggest you be my faithful lapdog!"

"Filthy humans...No!!!"

The Chaos' scream faded away and in the end, disappeared in Yang Chen's sea of divine sense...

Chapter 1535

The Reunion on the Island

Once Yang Chen had control over his body, he kicked Chaos out of the sea of divine senses. The malicious aura had also faded away.

The bloody red eyes had returned to normal, sharp as usual. Apart from the trails of blood and flesh on his face and body, he looked nothing abnormal.

Since he had reached the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning Full Cycle, Yang Chen was overflowing with confidence, greater than before.

As Yang Chen hugged Xiao Zhiqing, the Chaos Cauldron shrank in size and returned to his body.

After what had happened, even if it wanted to, the Chaos Beast would have a difficult time turning the tables. With Yang Chen's actual soul being so powerful, the Chaos Beast will be unable to preserve the portion of spiritual energy that it consumes in the future. Yang Chen would have spotted it right away.

Hence, only on the occasion where Yang Chen suffered severe damage to his true soul or he died, Chaos could take over control. Or else, it would forever be Yang Chen's servant.

With the complete oppression of Chaos and full control of the power of Chaos, his powers had surpassed any ordinary cultivators of Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning Full Cycle.

Heaving a sigh of relief, Yang Chen looked at Xiao Zhiqing who stared at him with tearing eyes. She was glad.

He smiled and tapped his woman's nose. "Dumb Qing'er, why are you crying? I'm all good here, ain't I?"

"Hubby...I thought you're already..." Xiao Zhiqing was terrified by recalling the incident moments ago.

"As I said, I want to 'bet' it. Did you expect I would lose? You don't believe in me?" Yang Chen shook his head with a sigh.

Xiao Zhiqing pouted. "How do I know what you meant back then...You didn't tell me either..."

"Lil'dumbdumb, if I were to tell you, do you think the Chaos would be tricked?" Yang Chen rolled his eyes.

Xiao Zhiqing blurted out a laugh. "The Chaos Beast is screwed this time around. Hubby, you're so cheeky."

"I don't have any other options. All these old people are cunning. I must have something under my sleeve. Despite this, Luo Qianqiu and Luo Hang escaped. Oh, no. Fortunately, I'm currently on the Tai Ching Heavenly Lightning Full Cycle. I can kill them all whenever I choose to!" Yang Chen was still enraged by the Luo family's father and son.

Excitement instantly filled Xiao Zhiqing's eyes as she asked. "Then are you going to advance to Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning? With the aid of Chaos Cauldron, it shouldn't be a problem for you to pass the tribulation. Besides, your physique was stronger than ordinary."

Yang Chen was helpless. "My cultivation and wisdom are sufficient, but I require the proper timing for this round of affliction passing. An opportunity for me to gain a better comprehension of heavenly law. It's the same reason Luo Qianqiu had to wait eight years to pass through the tribulation. I can't do it now. It'll happen sooner or later."

Xiao Zhiqing nodded. Perhaps happiness had gotten the better of her, she wrapped her arms around Yang Chen's neck and kissed him twice.

Yang Chen quickly pushed her away from a little. "Hey, don't kiss me yet! That damned Chaos just ate an old lady. Her flesh and blood are still on my face."

"I don't care. I've tasted so much poison, there's no way I'm afraid of this bit of flesh." Xiao Zhiqing pouted.

Yang Chen caressed her head with an idiotic smile. "I've finally gotten you out, baby Qing'er." Relieved that we weren't hurt and that we received bigger rewards. I'll take you back to the Mediterranean Sea right now. When I'm through, I'll go back to the illusionary dimension and kill them all!"

Xiao Zhiqing nodded in full excitement as meeting Su Xin had always been something she desired.

Without any delay, Yang Chen grabbed her and fled towards the southwest. It was where Luo Qianqiu ran to but chasing after him was not Yang Chen's intention. He just wished to return to the mediterranean sea as soon as possible.

Along the journey, Yang Chen recalled something and asked Xiao Zhiqing out of curiosity. Since Su Xin was her nanny, she must have fed her breast milk. Yet, Su Xin did not have any children and so it was impossible to do so.

With a laugh, Xiao Zhiqing explained that she addressed Su Xin as her nanny because she was the one who brought her up. All this while, she had been drinking milk powder since the mundane world and the illusionary dimension were interlinked.

Hearing that, Yang Chen felt sorry for Su Xin. With the incident of Xiao Qiufeng raping her, she suffered more than one could imagine. Yang Chen had no idea how to inform Xiao Zhiqing about this. Hence, he decided not to mention it since it was a nightmare for Su Xin too.

Even though Yang Chen headed in the same direction where Luo Qianqiu did, they did not encounter each other as the landscape of illusionary dimension was too great.

Without encountering any cultivators, they got out of the Illusion Realm.

After traveling half of the globe, they arrived at the time just before the sunset. Not to mention, the sea breeze welcomed them too.

Yang Chen's divine sense was strong enough to pinpoint Su Xin's location with just a glance at the area. Coincidentally, Su Xin was hanging around together with Wang Ma and the other ladies outside of a wooden house.

Before they arrived, Yang Chen had already cleaned both of their clothes and bathed so that they would not frighten anyone. With that, they headed there straight away.

It was the wooden house that Ron spent his retirement at. Under the roof, there sat Wang Ma, Su Xin, Tang Wan, Mo Qiani, and Liu Mingyu around the table.

Meanwhile, Lin Ruoxi in a white blouse was playing with a chubby little girl at the beautiful swing covered with flowers and vines.

Although Lanlan could tear the metallic swing apart, she was still a child who loved having fun at the swing.

When Yang Chen landed in the sky with Xiao Zhiqing, everyone turned around in shock. Yet, excitement and gratefulness instantly filled them as they saw Xiao Zhiqing.

“Hubby! Qing’er?!” Mo Qianni shouted.

“Omg, what a surprise! Can’t you guys notify us before coming back?” Tang Wan was joking around.

Lanlan who was not far away hopped down and ran towards her father at lightning speed. Lin Ruoxi who was fallen behind, smiled faintly while shaking her head. has screwed

Lin Ruoxi seemed calm as she was not surprised by Yang Chen and Xiao Zhiqing’s sudden arrival.

Wang Ma burst into tears at the sight of them. After confirming that she was not dreaming, she rushed towards Xiao Zhiqing and hugged her.

“My daughter! Oh, man...Qing’re, you surely made me worried...” Wang Ma checked Xiao Zhiqing’s face and body to ensure she was fine.

Xiao Zhiqing hugged back tightly with her mother as tears rolled down her cheek. As she looked up, she saw Su Xin tearing up with her hands covering her mouth. She whispered. “Nanny.”

That whisper prompted Su Xin to rush over for the hug.

The scene of the three women hugging and crying together moved Yang Chen. It was, however, uncomfortable for a man like him to join them. As a result, he casually hugged his daughter, who was approaching him and smiled at Lin Ruoxi and the others.

“So, what do you guys think? Is your husband efficient in saving people?” Yang Chen smirked.

For the first time, the ladies did not roll their eyes at him, instead, they asked him what had they been through in the Illusion Realm.

“Woah, don’t worry. I’ll story y’all later. Anyway, where is that old folk, Ron? Ron! Ron!”

With a glance, Yang Chen noticed Ron was in the forest behind the wooden house. He shouted out loud. “Ron, you little old freak, better come back now!”

The ex-president of Mafia Alliance, Ron was gardening on his precious flowers in the forest. After hearing Yang Chen’s shout, he jolted and instantly ran back.

“You have returned, Your Majesty Pluto.” Ron gave a kind smile. He was dressed in a rough farmer’s uniform, wore a straw hat, and held a little shovel. He inquired without delay. “Do you have any orders?”

“Hey, old folk, this set of clothes suits you a lot...Hehe, I want to celebrate the reunion of my Qin’er, Wang Ma, and Sun Xin. Get me some good wines from my cellar.” Yang Chen ordered.

“Yeah, I don’t even know what’s left there. Just bring a few others will do.” Yang Chen waved his hand.

Ron nodded and walked towards the wine cellar with a smile.

Lin Ruoxi stared at Yang Chen and grumbled. "Mr. Ron is the world's top architect as well as a revered elder." How can you treat him as if he were a servant? That's far too rude. Don't you know Lanlan is watching your actions over there?"

"Oh wifey, that's where you're wrong. If I were to be polite with these fellas, they would think that I want to kill them. Only if I treat them impolitely, they would consider me as their kind." Yang Chen laughed as he pinched Lanlan's chubby cheek. It felt relaxing after returning home.

Chapter 1536

Surprise From The Ladies

Xiao Zhiqing, Wang Ma, and Su Xin finally calmed their tears down and gathered around the table.

Wang Ma and Su Xin wanted to express their gratitude to Yang Chen but Yang Chen stopped them as he felt it was too cringy.

Yang Chen sat down with Lanlan in his embrace and asked. "Why is it only a few of you? Where's Rose, Yan'er, Zhenxiu, and the rest?"

"The sisters went to an area further away from the island to practice cultivation as it would cause quite a disruption when they battle. It's more convenient to do it at a place with no one. They don't have to worry about injuring innocent people too." Liu Mingyu replied.

Yang Chen was shocked. "Yan'er and Zhenxiu went too? Their cultivation..."

"They succeed," Tang Wan rejoiced. "Yanyan broke through not long after you left. She is now at the beginning of the Soul Forming Stage. I'm not sure what's wrong with her. She was worried when she realised An Xin had broken through at random. Then it was discovered that she had also broken through herself. It was outstanding for lil'sis Zhenxiu. She appears to be gifted. She broke through immediately after Yanyan. She, too, is in the same stage as Yanyan."

Speechless, Yang Chen did not expect things like that would have happened. Not sure what Cai Yan and Zhenxiu realized of a sudden but it's good news.

Zhenxiu's breakthrough caught Yang Chen off guard. This little girl gets from normal cultivation to the Soul Forming Stage in such a short time!

Even though they had Yang Chen's great amount of pills as supplements to reach the end of the Xiantian Stage, being able to obtain the understanding and realization was something else.

Yet, there was no absolute in cultivating. Zhenxiu had been through more than any one of her age. All the dangerous experiences in the past must have given her a unique realization and understanding of the world.

Up to date, among his ladies, only Lin Ruoxi, Tang Wan, Mo Qianni, Liu Mingyu, and Li Jingjing who were in Beijing did not break through to the Soul Forming Stage. Xiao Zhiqing was excluded as she could not cultivate in the first place.

“Seeing them breaking through, aren’t the few of you anxious?” Yang Chen joked.

Liu Mingyu laughed. “We’re talking about it earlier, wondering if it was because of the age gap. Those of younger age seem to have an advantage in breaking through.”

Yang Chen smiled as he looked at Lin Ruoxi. “Honey, don’t you feel anything wrong with Mingyu’s words? I think you’re the same age as Yanyan right?”

On the other side, Lin Ruoxi elegantly took up a cup of black tea and took a sip. “I’m not in a rush.”

Her casual reply made Yang Chen speechless. Yet, he smiled it through without saying anything.

“By the way,” Mo Qianni said. “Honey, when Yanyan comes back, you can have a look at what she cultivated. It’s a mysterious thing though.”

Yang Chen raised his eyebrow. “Why are you being so mysterious.”

While they were having a great conversation, Ron had already taken a few bottles of Margarita red wine from the cellar. These brews from 1982 were nearly priceless in the market. An ordinary one would be at least twenty thousand RMB, not to mention those of precious collections.

However, Yang Chen’s subordinates across the world always sent him good stuff throughout the year. Hence, he never lacked good wines.

After opening a few bottles of wine, Ron was ordered to stay for a few glasses and have conversations since it was a good day for Yang Chen. He was waiting for Rose and the rest to come back too.

The unique and beautiful packet of the red wine caught Fatty’s attention and she begged Lin Ruoxi for a sip. However, she instantly spits it out after one taste, saying that the red wine was no match for milk and juices.

In the meantime, Yang Chen was explaining what they had been through in the Illusion Realm. Xiao Zhiqing cooperated by not going through those terrifying incidents which would worry Wang Ma and Su Xin. The couple holds strong chemistry.

Knowing that Yang Chen had reached the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning Full Cycle and was inevitable in the Illusion Realm, the ladies were surprised and happy.

On the other hand, Yang Chen knew he was nowhere near-inevitable with his current powers.

I’m no match for the First. But my cultivation was not high enough back then. It’s hard to tell what stage he is at.

Ron did not understand a single thing they talked about. He, with a blushed nose due to the alcohol, spoke when Yang Chen was almost done with the conversation with the ladies. “Your Majesty Pluto, since you’re back, I’ve something to report.”

“Oh? What’s the matter?”

“It’s Princess Jane. She planned to turn her residence on this island into a laboratory. She had already shipped the lab apparatus, materials, and documents needed from London. The estimated time of arrival is this evening.” Ron said.

Yang Chen, who nodded, was unsurprised. "That's her turf, so leave her be. It saves her time from having to return and forth for experiments. She is an insane researcher. She'll most likely perish if she doesn't get access to a laboratory."

This piece of land was a present gifted by Catherine after succeeding the throne as the queen. Hence, there was a place arranged for her and her daughter to stay. It was relatively large too.

In the past, Jane rarely visited this island. However, the joy of staying with the sisters prompted her to move her lab to the island as well. After all, it would be easier for her to fly over once she had her cultivation.

An hour later, a few elegant shadows flew from the sky in the south. Rose and the ladies had returned to the island.

Catching sight of Yang Chen and Xiao Zhiqing excited them. Another round of laughter and explanation was expected.

Yang Chen saw Rose, Cai Ning, and An Xin were nearing the end of the Soul Forming Stage when they arrived. An Xin's cultivation improved much faster than he expected, making her stronger than Rose and Cai Ning. He received the impression that the ladies had experienced significant alterations. He had a peculiar feeling as he remembered the pair of green eyes.

Meanwhile, Cai Yan and Zhenxiu were at the beginning of the Soul Forming Stage. But Yang Chen believed that with his pills acting as supplements, they could reach the end of that cultivation stage in no time.

"Dear, guess what I've achieved!" Not waiting for Yang Chen to ask, Cai Yan's showing off personality prompted her to ask. A great smile was written on her face.

Yang Chen shrugged his shoulders. "How can I guess it when you make it so mysterious?"

Cai Yan smiled and started swirling her True Yuan. Woosh A cloud of white flame appeared on her palm!

Yang Chen was shocked as he had no idea of such a flame. He questioned. "Is this...a mystic flame?!"

"Oh, hubby, you know about it?" Cai Yan then pointed at Su Xin. "Aunt Su Xin told me that this might be the Heart Flame among the mystic flames."

Heart Flame?

Yang Chen looked at Su Xin and she quickly explained.

The Heart Flame was indeed a kind of mystic flame. It was born from the heart as it usually appeared on cultivators with short tempers. Yet, because of their personalities, it was difficult for them to sit down and cultivate which resulted in such a flame rarely appearing.

Besides, being short temper was not enough to achieve such a flame. One must have an icy heart which means except for throwing tantrums, one must possess the last ounce of calm to control his or her temper.

Cai Yan, by chance, fulfilled both of these prerequisites. She wasn't fully gentle because she used to be the wife of a chief officer. She mistakenly possessed the Heart Flame after studying Yang Chen's skills.

However, Heart Flame was deemed to be a mystic flame obtained through one's understanding. There were no secrets or techniques on how it could be achieved. How to attack with such flames depends on the cultivator's way. That was its downside but it also meant that it had great possibilities.

Yang Chen asked Cai Yan to attack him with the Heart Flame. He then realized that this flame did not actually burn anything but only disrupt one's mind, causing the victim to be manic.

It might be thought of as a distracting mystic flame. In truth, Yang Chen's cultivation was far superior to hers, therefore it had little effect. However, if cultivators of the same stage as Cai Yan were touched by this flame just once, it was enough to upset their brains. As a result, the flame was still irritating.

As for Zhenxiu, she did not achieve anything special as she merely advanced from Xiantian Stage to Soul Forming Stage. It was normal to everyone but the girl seemed to be unsatisfied as she pouted.

Cai Yan and Jane, who were both in the Soul Forming Stage, each had a specialty. The former was the mystic flame, while the latter was a realm skill. Rose and Cai Ning, too, have their own special abilities. Simply changing ordinary True Qi to True Yuan was insufficient to make Zhenxiu happy.

Seeing the girl acting like a child, Yang Chen smiled as he took out a pair of twin blades from his space ring. He gave it to Zhenxiu.

"Here you go, little girl. These are for you. Mid-top grade blades. I find them suit you a lot so don't be sad anymore." Yang Chen cheered her up.

All ladies, not only Zhenxiu, opened their eyes so big as if they were about to drop off upon seeing the weapons.

The length of these two blades was less than one foot. The one with a thicker hilt and gold patterns was crafted with the word "Manju", while the other was relatively light. It was covered with purple patterns of a blooming flower and named 'Shage'.

Chapter 1537

Manjushage

The pair of twin blades were glittering and mesmerizing.

"Manjushage? This is one of the best mid-top grade weapons, well-known across the Illusion Realm! Hubby, did you get it from the elders of the Luo family?" Xiao Zhiqing recognized the weapons instantly.

Yang Chen shook his head, unable to recall such trivial matters. "Previously, I murdered a large number of members of the Xiao and Luo families. I did obtain some weapons from them, but they are not worth the attention. Only this set of blades struck me as lovely and perfectly suited to Zhenxiu. So I decided to give her a present. Why? Is it that well-known?"

"Yeah, dual blades are rare, and the Manjushage is the rarest of all. The Manju can thicken spiritual energy to create a type of resistance that can be employed for both offense and defense. Meanwhile, the Shage has the ability to greatly lessen spiritual energy resistance and improve one's speed in an instant. It is preferable to catch your opponent off guard. If these blades are used correctly, they provide a powerful twin-blade combination. The opponent would struggle to adjust to the change of fighting style. However, because these are close-ranged weapons, if your techniques aren't up to par, you'll endanger yourself." Xiao Zhiqing elaborated.

Before Yang Chen could say a word, Zhenxiu had already snatched the blades from his hands, hugging them with a blushed lovely face.

"I don't care. Brother Yang said it was for me, so it's mine. I'll practice properly. I promise I will not use it if I can't master it." Zhenxiu answered swiftly.

This pair of blades are undeniably gorgeous, as if they were a work of art created by a god. Calling them weapons for killing would have tainted the honor conferred upon them. Its beauty made the other females envious.

"Hubby, how can you be so biased by only giving Zhenxiu a present." An Xin was the first one who was not satisfied as she hugged Yang Chen's arm and flirted with him.

Zhenxiu immediately gave her a ghost face. "Sister An Xin surely isn't shy at all. Still able to flirt at this age."

"You...you little girl!" An Xin blushed and leaped over to tickle Zhenxiu.

Seeing the two ladies getting in a mess, Yang Chen quickly dumped a bunch of weapons from his space ring. All of them were laid on the grass for them to choose from.

"Stop arguing. I still have a bunch over here. Everyone gets one alright, don't panic!"

Staring at a variety of weapons (approximately twenty to thirty) glowing and radiating a strong cloud of spiritual energy, everyone was dumbfounded.

Yang Chen took Xiao Qiufeng's middle-grade Wooden Spirit Sword and handed it to An Xin. "Here you go. Because your True Yuan is ascribed to wood, Baby An Xin, this Wood Spirit Sword has the potential to greatly improve your battle power. It also doesn't look bad. You are more than welcome to have it."

Xiao Zhiqing shouted. "OMG! Isn't this...Xiao Qiufeng's weapon?!"

Yang Chen smirked. "Qing'er, that fake brother of yours got killed by me. It is okay for An Xin to have this weapon, right?"

Xiao Zhiqing shook her head. "Of course! I was just shocked for a second."

In fact, she was more than happy. Those people would only want her to suffer so she did not care who their weapons belonged to.

Even though An Xin received the Wood Spirit Sword, a sense of dissatisfaction still lingered around her as the appearance of her weapon was nowhere on par with Manjushage.

Yet, Yang Chen could not satisfy everyone as there was only one pair of twin blades.

Although Yang Chen asked the ladies to pick any weapons they like, they did not do so, instead, they waited for Yang Chen to assign them.

It was simply because having Yang Chen giving them something served a special meaning. Also, they believed in Yang Chen's decision as it was choosing weapons, not toys.

In the end, Rose had gotten the Sanhua blade, Cai Ning had the Thunder Whip and the Blood Dragon's Golden Dagger was given to Cai Yan. Even though the other ladies were still unable to use weapons, Yang Chen gave them at least one or two weapons as a gesture.

Everyone was given one defensive weapon except Lin Ruoxi as she had the Feng Xiang Bangle on hand.

Up to the present, Yang Chen, even with such a high cultivation level, could not determine the grade of the Feng Xiang Bangle. It seemed that the grade was linked with the wearer's cultivation. Perhaps Lin Ruoxi's cultivation was unable to demonstrate the true power of the bangle.

As for the low-grade weapons, they were useless, especially to Yang Chen who reached a high cultivation level.

Yang Chen randomly picked a beautiful low-grade flying sword for Lanlan as a toy, or else the Fatty would be pouting all day long.

Besides, the ladies who had not had a space ring were given one. Although the storage of each ring was different, it was enough for them to keep the things they wanted. The ladies were more attracted to the ring itself rather than its usage of it.

It was already evening when the present distribution session almost ended. At the same time, there was a unique True Yuan appearing in the northwest direction. It was Jane.

Since they had nothing else to do, Yang Chen and the ladies came to the beach for a walk. Just then, they caught sight of a gigantic British Royal Family cargo ship slowly mooring to the jetty. The Welch royal family flag on the ship was swaying to the wind.

Under the command of an officer, a group of royal soldiers were unloading many large boxes off the cargo ship. They were all placed onto trucks and transported to Jane's desired location for her laboratory.

In the meantime, a helicopter descended slowly at the far end and a few figures walked down from it.

She was in a white-collar button-up fitted nicely, rolled-up sleeves and pants with patterns on both sides. That amber hair of hers seemed messy as being blown by the sea breeze. Elegance and royalty were emitting within her.

Jane walked towards them with a smile as two ladies followed tightly behind her. One was a rich lady and the other was a timid white girl.

The beautiful yet mature lady who looked like Jane was Queen Catherine. She was hot and sexy in that navy blue sleeveless blouse that seemed to be supporting her pair of mountains on her chest.

"Oh my, Lil' Jane, walk slower. Wait for mama!"

Catherine was shouting from afar but Jane acted as if she heard nothing and made way to the group of people.

Lin Ruoxi and the rest greeted Jane and Yang Chen hugged her naturally.

Jane smiled helplessly. “She knew it when I was moving things out and insisted on coming over together, saying that she was afraid I might stay on the island forever and abandon her.”

Yang Chen nodded. If it was Catherine, she was likely to make such a decision.

Just then, Catherine jogged to Yang Chen, full of excitement. Not hiding any of her excitement, she opened her white arms and hugged Yang Chen tightly.

“Oh, my dear Yang Chen, it has been a while. Don’t you ever miss me? Muuuuacks”

Catherine gave Yang Chen a hard kiss on the cheek, leaving an obvious mark.

For that one second, Yang Chen sensed a chill running down his spine and turned around with an awkward smile. Obviously, the ladies were all staring at him with a creepy look.

Yang Chen was terrified. Although the embraces and kisses were a kind of etiquette and he and Catherine were only friends, it was apparent that they had had a sexual relationship.

Jane was considered his woman at present, so did that mean Yang Chen nailed both mother and daughter?!

“Hello, your majesty Pluto!”

A nervous yet young voice came from the side. It was the white girl who had never spoken previously.

Yang Chen was so occupied a moment ago and had no time to greet her. He recalled something and smiled. “You must be Grace, the student Jane accepted.”

Little Grace’s eyes shined and her face turned as red as a tomato, nodding heavily. “Yes! Your Majesty Pluto still remembers me!”

“Of course, you saved my lady. I’ll forever remember you.” Yang Chen reached out to caress Grace’s head as this girl looked like a little sister to him.

Grace blushed. “It was my teacher who saved Lady Xiao, I...actually didn’t do much...”

The ladies were confused about what they were talking about and hence, Jane explained the incident where she saved Xiao Zhiqing back in London. Only then, Xiao Zhiqing recalled and expressed her gratitude to Grace.

“Why did you bring her over?” Yang Chen asked Jane. This Grace seems to have known some of my backgrounds.

“As my apprentice, I discovered that she is a quick learner. Most importantly, she has a positive outlook and a kind heart. Furthermore, she appears to be gifted in professional studies. I suppose her talent was simply buried because she had not previously received a proper and good education. I’ve already begun teaching her to be my first assistant in order for her to inherit some of my abilities. So I need to make her aware of the location where she needs to look over the trials and study.”

Grace lowered her head with a blushed face as she was happy to receive compliments from her teacher.

Chapter 1538

The Queen's Invitation

With a smile, Yang Chen knocked Jane's forehead lightly. Yang Chen and Catherine were the only ones who dared to do such actions to Princess Jane, a figure respected by all nation's leaders.

"Are you even old enough to want an heir of your skills? Act up all you want in front of your student but not in front of me. Alright, let the soldiers carry those cargos and we head back for dinner. Oh yeah, do join us, Grace." Yang Chen invited her.

Jane smiled awkwardly at Grace, pretending as if nothing had ever happened as she felt embarrassed in front of her student.

They then headed back to Yang Chen's castle. The air was once again filled with chatter and laughter during dinner.

Yang Chen asked Jane if she wanted some weapons but she rejected him immediately. The reason being was those weapons were too weak and she felt that she did not need any weapons for her realm skill.

Meanwhile, Catherine grabbed this opportunity to trick some low-grade pills to sustain her beauty from Yang Chen. Yang Chen even gave her a list of techniques that could help her in preserving health and beauty. As for whether she could master it, that was not something Yang Chen bothered.

To Yang Chen, he was not in the opinion that everyone he knew must share the same hundred or thousand years of lifespan as he did. It was too torturing. He must learn to part ways with some of them throughout his life.

Luckily, as his cultivation and understanding grew, Yang Chen was able to grasp the meaning of life.

The ladies were having a good time while enjoying the western cuisine prepared by the chefs. On the other hand, Yang Lanlan was sitting in her special child seat. That piece of steak she dropped accidentally was the eighth piece...

"Hubby, how long do you plan to stay here? I heard from Qing'er that you planned to return to the Illusion Realm to kill the Luo family members?" Cai Yan asked with excitement written all over her face.

While slicing the sirloin on his plate, Yang Chen smiled. "Yanyan, I know what you're thinking but I must tell you this. Even though you possessed the Heart Flame, your cultivation is too low. Luo Qianqiu that bastard could kill thousands of people like you with just one Golden Crow. So, don't you ever think of me bringing you there."

"Come on, you will be there, ain't it. Can't you protect us?" Cai Yan begged with her puppy eyes. To her, it was torturing to only cultivate but not be able to participate in a real battle. Besides, she, a person filled with a sense of justice, was pissed when she knew how those bastards treated Xiao Zhiqing.

"That's enough, Yanyan. Having us tagging along with hubby will only increase his burden. He may be inevitable in the Illusion Realm alone. But with us, he would have weaknesses." Cai Ning advised her sister.

Cai Yan pouted and rolled her eyes against her sister. "Sis, you talk as if you don't wish to go. I'm really curious how the Illusion Realm looks like."

"Nothing special. The Illusion Realm was just huge pieces of forest and snowy mountains and a bunch of weird houses." Yang Chen laughed.

Rose then asked. "So, when are you going back there hubby?" With your current strength, killing the father and son of the Luo family should be easy right?"

Yang Chen pondered as he set down the cutlery. He replied gently, with a casual smile. "I'm going to put it on hold after considerable thought. That's because I'm certain I'll be able to kill them. There's no point in rushing. I can easily pass the Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning tribulation now that I've gained complete mastery of the Chaos Cauldron. What I really need to do now is master the Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning. If I could master it before returning to the Illusion Realm, Luo Qianqiu would have no chance. I currently have some comprehension of it. I should be able to break through when the perfect time comes. Although, in my heart, I wish they'd just come to me so I wouldn't have to waste my time looking for them one by one. But, before that, I'd like to spend more time with you and see my child grow day by day. That's the life I've wanted, even though killing others is also for the sake of a better life. I couldn't possibly forget the genuine intention, can I?"

The atmosphere went silent as the ladies looked at Yang Chen with gratefulness.

"It's so not you saying such cringy words formally."

Suddenly, Lin Ruoxi who was beside Yang Chen glanced at him from the corner of her eyes as she spoke.

Yang Chen laughed out loud. "A married man always turns mature quickly. We've been married for almost three years, it's all because of your coaching, my lady boss."

"Stop kissing my butt..." Lin Ruoxi pushed Yang Chen's head away.

Yang Chen pouted. "Besides, at Hanzhong City, there was still no news from Hannya who disguised as Meng Yue. I'm waiting for the hidden force behind the Meng family to make a move. That's something I have to settle too. Also, I wish to wait for all your cultivation to grow before dealing with those fellas. Only then, even if I pass away, I'll rest assured."

"You're talking as if you're so amazing. We may not be able to battle beside you, but if something bad occurs to you, we shall perish as well. So, to begin with, you're never alone." In a serious tone, Mo Qianni said.

Her words spurred a wave of resonance among the ladies. From the moment they decided to be with Yang Chen, they had prepared for the worst.

The mood was strained, and Catherine couldn't bear it. As a result, the Queen set down her spoon and made a recommendation. "I say...since Yang Chen has returned and everyone is here, staying on the island may be too monotonous. What about going to London to see a football game? It's all on me."

"Football match?" Jane frowned. "Mom, why football all of a sudden? And since when do any of us watch football?"

“That’s not what I meant,” Catherine explained. “Lil’Jane, all you know is research and experiments, you don’t care about what’s happening around you. On the 8th of May, the final of the UEFA Champions League is going to be held at Wembley Stadium in London.”

“So? How is that related to us?”

“Of course! This time, they invited Miss Hui Lin to the opening ceremony as a special guest. She would sing the theme tune. Do you know that being able to appear live on the UEFA Champions League finals and sing a solo is something that those superstars have always wanted? This has never happened before. She is China’s superstar!” Catherine’s pupils dilated.

Everyone then realized the fact.

Lin Ruoxi frowned and was unhappy. “Damn that Hui Lin didn’t even tell me about it. What a great milestone for her. Also, the United Kingdom is not far away either.”

“Chairman of a multinational company group, do you think you have the time to bother about a small entertainment company under your group? I bet Hui Lin is so busy preparing for it that she did not have the time to inform you yet.” Yang Chen mocked her.

Because of Catherine’s suggestion, everyone felt that they should fly over to watch the match, even if they were there just to support Hui Lin.

In addition, the ladies wished to breathe some fresh air as staying on the island to cultivate is not something interesting.

Since Yang Chen had returned, the ladies were less worried and could spend some time shopping around the malls in various countries.

At the same time. Illusion Realm. Ning family.

In the clan’s meeting room, Ning Zhengfeng did not look good as he was listening to the report from the spy with his back facing Ning Zhenggang, Ning Zhengchun, and the rest.

“Alright, stand down.” Moments later, Ning Zhengfeng waved his hand.

The spy fled out of the meeting room instantly.

As he turned around, Ning Zhengfeng sighed and stared at his brothers and the elders. With a bitter smile, he explained. “That Yang Chen, surely is lucky. He survived...”

“What’s scarier is that, if what the spy stated is true, even Luo Qianqiu and Luo Changchun, as well as those elders with Ruo Water Stages of mid or above, were entirely overthrown. They all dispersed in an attempt to flee. That could only indicate one of two things. Yang Chen’s might may be greater than the Tai Qing Heavenly Lightning...” Ning Zhengfeng’s expression was solemn.

“God damn it...How did that bastard reach such high cultivation? He wasn’t that creepy when we first saw him. Shang Qing Heavenly Lightning? You must be kidding me! There was only a handful of those two hundred thousand years ago! Is it possible for one to reach there at present?!" Ning Zhengchun grumbled.

"Being able to possess a legendary item such as the Chaos Cauldron means that Yang Chen is no ordinary man. My lord, even if our Ning family could not befriend him, we must not be enemies. Or else, I'm afraid even if the Great Grand Elders of our family come together, we might not withstand his anger." An elder with greyish white hair suggested.

After a thought, Ning Zhengfeng squinted at Ning Zhengchung. "Old Forth, go and tell Ning Guangyao to contact her daughter. Through him, I wish to...meet Yang Chen privately."

"What?! Big brother...that's too dangerous! That man is a killing demon!" Words blurted out of Ning Zhengchun's mouth.

"Nothing ventured, nothing gained..."

Chapter 1539 Five Four Three Two One

Two days later. At the Forgotten Realm.

The Britain navy team left the island after Jane's laboratory was set up under an efficient workforce.

Yang Chen was enjoying his life for the past two days. Day or night, he would have fun with his ladies whenever he had the chance.

No matter on the hidden white beach, behind the reefs, in the jungle, the lady's room, or even on the yacht...

The trails of them having intercourse were everywhere to be seen. Yang Chen's incredible stamina during the continuous fun was once again shown.

He was never an innocent man at all. He couldn't resist being surrounded by various sexy and beautiful ladies.

Furthermore, every one of the ladies wanted to become pregnant, so they never said no to Yang Chen's desires until they were fatigued or someone else was in the vicinity. They just came to a halt at those moments.

Yet, if that someone was a relatively close sister, she would be asked to join in together. Yang Chen was on cloud nine as he was able to have ladies in both of his arms. It was so enjoyable that one would lose track of reality. Luckily, Yang Chen was still clear of what he was doing and what he had to do.

Yang Chen, on the other hand, did not have a good time with Zhenxiu and Jane. It's not that he didn't want it; it's just that he felt strange around Zhenxiu. As for Jane... She had no free time because she was too busy in her lab conducting tests and research. She was working nonstop with her little aide, Grace, on everything from setting up the laboratory to building various pieces of equipment.

Yang Chen drank with old pals who had come to visit him on the island on the third night. When he returned to the castle's master bedroom, he noticed Lin Ruoxi reading some documents sent over by Zhao Hongyan near the table.

She was dressed in a half-transparent white lace sleeping blouse, her back to the door. Looking at her from head to toe, it was easy to notice her slim delicate calves, smooth thighs, skinny waist, and those two massive mountains...

Yang Chen swallowed as he walked up to her. Hugging her from the back, his hands casually moved to Lin Ruoxi's mountains...

Lin Ruoxi swept her hair and glanced at him. "Go sleep in someone else's room tonight. Lanlan wants to sleep with me."

"Aww, come on honey. Lanlan can come whenever she wants. It's not like I'm going to do anything naughty to you. Isn't it good that the three of us sleep together?" Yang Chen smiled as he gently squeezed the two red beans of hers.

Lin Ruoxi moaned gently with a blushed face. Yet, swiftly, she pushed his hands away. "Enough, I have a serious matter to discuss with you."

Yang Chen was taken aback and questioned, a bitter smirk on his face. "A serious matter? Is it true that my mother called you again? Sigh Did she say something mean to you again? Don't worry about her; there's always a squabble between the mother-in-law and the wife. It's natural for her to be upset now that we've relocated overseas. I'll bring Lanlan to see her tomorrow to calm her down."

"It isn't about mom..." A sense of reluctance and mixed feelings could be seen from her eyes. Biting her cherry lips, she sighed. "It's Premier Ning."

The smiling and joking expression on Yang Chen's face was instantly replaced by a serious one.

"What's with him? What did he say to you this time?"

Seeing that expression from Yang Chen, she knew the man had gotten serious and had no intention to joke around.

"He wanted me to tell you that the patriarch of the Ning family...wishes to meet you privately. Wonder if...if you could meet him for my sake. You choose the time and venue." Lin Ruoxi mumbled.

Yang Chen was surprised. The patriarch of the Ning family? Then, it should be Ning Zhengfeng.

He kept silent for a moment before answering. "Ruoxi, you said...for your sake. Did that come from your own will or...he forced you to say that?"

Lin Ruoxi looked up at him and asked. "Does...that make any difference?"

"Of course it does," Yang Chen took a deep breath. "If it was from your intention, I'll go meet him because I'll never reject my wife's request. But, if it was Ning Guangyao trying to take advantage of our relationship to make me meet someone I don't wish to meet, then...I'll not go. I don't wish to waste my time meeting someone who will never be my friend. It's either not having any relation or killing him sooner or later, with those kinds of people."

Lin Ruoxi stared at her man while holding her breath. Moments later, she smiled as if a burden was lifted off her shoulders. "Then, don't meet him. I'll reply to him. Don't bother about my sake."

Yang Chen did not smile but he mumbled instead. "Must you keep in touch with him...Can you just...not have any dealings with him again?"

"For now...it should be fine I guess..." Lin Ruoxi replied. "I won't do anything stupid. I can make judgments."

"That man, Ning Guanyao, is too terrible. If any parents could truly abandon their child, he would be the only one." An urge of hatred ran through Yang Chen as he recalled the ending of Luo Cuishan and Ning Guodong. "I'm just afraid he will harm you sooner or later."

Lin Ruoxi lowered her head without saying a word.

However, Yang Chen knew that his advice would be useless and that he could only give his all in protecting his lady.

Because of the disturbance of such a matter, he was not in the mood to flirt with Lin Ruoxi anymore. He then left after caressing his daughter's head when she hopped into the room in polka dot pajamas.

Standing on the cliff outside of the castle, Yang Chen was looking into the night sky. He wondered what was the Ning family scheming. Just then, from the corner of his eyes, he spotted a light shining.

It was from Jane's newly set-up laboratory. Despite being late in the night, Jane did not return to her room for a rest but was still doing research.

He suddenly recalled that he had some questions for the genius lady and so he flew to the lab. Upon noticing there was no one on the first floor, he climbed up the stairs.

There were a total of seven floors in the laboratory because Jane's research covered a wide range of fields. The number of weird and rare equipment was so great that the other scientists might not even know how to operate them.

Yet, those were all Jane's treasures. The ladies of her age would have preferred branded bags and jewelry but the love of this princess was different.

Before reaching the top floor, Yang Che could hear Jane and Grace shouting...

"...Teacher, the accelerator has reached the critical point of the force field..."

"What's the conversion efficiency?"

"99.998% and above!"

"Coordinates checked. Start the countdown..."

"Yes! 5, 4, 3, 2, 1!"

Yang Chen who reached the top floor was curious about what they were doing. Why are they counting down? Are they trying to launch a rocket?

He almost fell off to the ground after seeing what they were doing from the exit of the stairs.

In the middle of the lab, there was fine white cylinder equipment, facing the starry sky.

A light beam at the size of a palm was shot out from the cylinder equipment. It pierced through the clouds and went straight into the sky.

Yang Chen was shocked at the sight of it. Even though he had no idea what it was, it seemed that...it accumulated a strong and scary power!

As the light beam faded, the brightness of the lab returned to normal.

Only then, did he notice Jane and Grace were wearing goggles throughout the process and they were operating them at both sides of the stage.

“Teacher! According to the data, there are only 0.1 attometers off from the accuracy of the shot! It has reached your requirements!” Grace hopped excitedly.

Jane, who was in a white lab coat, took off her goggles and the hairband that was tying her ponytail. With a satisfactory smile, she looked at Yang Chen who was waiting at the stairs. “Little Grace, you’ve done a good job today. You can head back for a rest. I’ll clean up the remaining stuff.”

Grace had also noticed Yang Chen who appeared out of nowhere. With a blushed face, she hopped down the stairs after greeting Jane and Yang Chen goodbye.

“Grace was mainly interested in medicine at first, but I realized her natural talent as a scientist.” Jane removed her rubber gloves and approached Yang Chen. “Honey, showing up at my lab at such an inconvenient hour isn’t you.”

Yang Chen tickled his cheek with an awkward smile. “Let’s not talk about that first. What’s this thing? It seems powerful.”

Jane smiled excitedly as she caressed the cylinder object carefully. “This is something I worked on for almost a year. I named it ‘The Cumberbatch Particle Lightbeam Cannon’. What do you think about it? Doesn’t it look cute?”

Chapter 1540

A Wonderful Explanation of Theories

“Cu-cute?”

After confirming what he heard, Yang Chen nodded with an awkward smile. “Yeap, it’s round to the edge. Quite good looking.”

Upon receiving compliments from Yang Chen, Jane’s eyes glowed with sparks and began to introduce the background of this cannon, including its design concept, the physics, mechanics, and mathematics theories...

Yang Chen was shocked by the overwhelming information. Knowing Jane was not going to stop, he quickly interrupted her with a question. "About that...Jane, how about you just tell me what it is for? A weapon to kill people?"

"Killing people?"

Jane burst into laughter at an instant. "This actually can be used to kill people but I designed it to block the meteors and asteroids for the spaceships in the future!"

"Come again?"

Yang Chen's jaw dropped in bewilderment. Why is it related to spaceships out of the blue?

Jane explained patiently. "What my friend Hawking stated is correct. There are far too many planets in the universe. From a statistical standpoint, the likelihood of another living species other than humans existing in our cosmos is incalculable. Even if no aliens have been discovered, their existence is almost certain. So, if the aliens find us before we do, it means that we humans, who can't even land on Mars, are vulnerable to them. As a scientist, if one could contribute anything to the living species on Earth, the most important goal would be to travel into space and preserve a human successor. It has been proven that humans will enter a galactic period in which we will be able to travel around the cosmos rather than simply on Earth. As a result, we may encounter asteroids, meteor showers, and other potentially hazardous scenarios. We could use it to erase the massive impediments when the time came. Also, humans cannot go into space with a large amount of equipment. As a result, I wanted to create a weapon that is built on the foundation of particle light beams. It's similar to the weaponry in sci-fi movies, only I came up with the genuine thing. Of course, this is simply a test. If we were to use it on a spaceship, we would need to develop a larger particle accelerator and additional technology that is appropriate for the situation. To summarize, it is not difficult to create another weapon using this prototype. What I need to figure out now is how to convert the energy activator into solar energy or any other form of renewable energy in the cosmos. But that's not a big concern to me because I'm convinced I'll be able to pay it in a few years."

After listening to Jane's explanation, Yang Chen swallowed as he laid his eyes on the weird equipment. This thing...can destroy an asteroid? Does that mean, if its powers increase, it can easily destroy a city with just one shot?

He scratched his forehead and exclaimed. "Luckily your man is me, or else the world would be in deep trouble if someone steals it away."

Jane grinned as she put her arms around Yang Chen's neck. "Don't be concerned, honey. I'm aware of the limitations. Every deadly item I created has a set of safety protocols. No one could activate them without my decryption. Forcing them to activate would only result in self-destruction. Even if my study data is stolen, it is useless. No one in this world can decode my encryption... To be honest, I haven't been able to locate someone capable of competing with me in certain disciplines since Yan Buwen died. "I kind of miss that odor."

"Don't ever miss him. The only man who should appear in your mind is me."

Yang Chen sat on an empty table and held Jane to sit on his lap, one hand hugging her skinny waist while the other was caressing the smooth white legs underneath the lab coat.

“Lil’ Janejane, I’ve something I’ve always wanted to ask you.” Yang Chen whispered closely at Jane’s ears.

Her face blushed instantly as she roughly knew what was going to happen. Although she was mentally prepared and that she was the one who wanted it in the past, when it happened, she was still nervous.

“Uhh...ask...ask away...”

Yang Chen then recalled the scene when he first met Athena. “Previously in Korea, when I met that lady, Athena, she said...I don’t understand the theory of space. She also said that in space, there exists no ‘force’. I’ve always not understood what she meant. Since you’re the expert in physics and astronomy, can you explain it to me?”

Jane’s blue eyes were glittering as if two precious sapphires were attracting much attention.

“Well...actually, it’s very simple to understand. Just that you didn’t try to understand it...”

Biting her lips, Jane smirked as she grabbed one of Yang Chen’s hands and placed it on her breast...

Yang Chen could feel the mountain’s flexibility and wonderfulness as he covered it. She inherited all of Catherine’s good genes because she was Catherine’s daughter. She was still a virgin, but her mountains were magnificent.

“Help me unbutton, would ya.” Jane blinked.

Yang Chen swallowed as he did not know what the woman was up to. Swiftly, he unbuttoned them.

A pair of huge mountains bounced out, getting free from the cage. Breathing the fresh air, the two cherries seemed delicious.

Seeing her man staring at her gigantic pairs, Jane grabbed his index finger happily.

“Honey, now, imagine one of my breasts as a space and the nipple is a planet, let it be the Earth or the sun. So, if the mass of the planet increases...”

As she explained, Jane slowly pressed Yang Chen’s fingers on the red cherry, forming a gentle sag...

“Then, the space will form into this shape. It’s equivalent to that within this sag, every matter will be controlled...unless, there’s another planet with a greater mass appearing, forming a larger sag and absorbing these planets into another circle...”

Yang Chen was paying full attention and was also attracted by Jane’s creative way of teaching. Didn’t know scientific theories can be this interesting...

At the same time, Jane could feel her man’s spear was sticking out long ago as if it was about to pierce through her pants. Her breathing fastened.

“In other words...in space, there exists no force because the presence of mass will alter the shape of the space which eventually produces the ‘force’ we are talking about. But of course, this is just the most surfaced knowledge I shared...”

Suddenly, Yang Chen grabbed the back of her head and kissed her on the lips crazily.

The desperate kissing slowly got Jane laying on the white table. Yang Chen's hands were squeezing the lady's pair of mountains...

"Enough...I have understood now...If I continue listening to you...I would go crazy for holding back so long..."

Yang Chen greedily kissed the woman's cheek, neck, and all the way down. He was enjoying every part of it as Jane's body scent was different from the rest. It had a faint scent of disinfectants due to her long working hours with medical equipment and other biological matters.

Even though it was weird, Yang Chen enjoyed it a lot.

Similarly, Jane was cooperating enjoyably. When she tried to take off her lab coat, she was stopped by Yang Chen.

"Don't take that off. You can take off the inner one but keep the lab coat on. I like how you look in uniforms..." Yang Chen smirked.

Jane was stunned for a second and rolled her eyes against him. Yet, she accepted the man's weird kink.

The woman was completely naked except for the lab coat as she crawled on the table. The bouncy butt was sticking out and she looked at Yang Chen with puppy eyes. Yang Chen's heart was about to melt.

What came after that was predictable. Jane's unique physique would not allow her to feel any pain. When the man's massive stick entered, all she felt was the urge of being filled.

Yang Chen then bent down to hug her up. Feeling his stick being wrapped tightly, he asked with a smirk. "Is it comfortable enough?"

Jane smiled shyly. "Honey, yesterday, mommy told me that your thing is very big and you like to play from behind. I believe it now but you can't come in from behind alright? It will be painful..."
