

The lights on the plane kept flickering like it was about to crash.

“Fan, are we going to die?” Ye Yu-Yan’s face was ghastly pale, and her eyes were filled with panic.

Even after being a soldier for years, it was the first time she was experiencing this.

They were over 10,000 meters in the air.

A grandmaster would have broken into smithereens falling from this altitude, let alone Ye Yu-Yan, who wasn't a grandmaster.

Ye Yu-Yan always thought that she would die in the battle and never dreamed that she would die in a plane crash.

Ye Yu-Yan instinctively grabbed Ye Fan by the arm in panic.

However, the young man remained calm while everyone else was in panic.

Even though the plane had started to nosedive and the wind was starting to enter the aircraft through cracks while people were crying and screaming, Ye Fan turned a deaf ear.

He kept looking outside the window at burning hot energy that felt as powerful as a volcano.

Chapter 1545 A Ray of Light

“Is this pure spirit energy? This pure energy is so strong. Who could it be?” Ye Fan frowned.

Despite the distance, Ye Fan could sense the shockingly intense energy.

Since Ye Fan could sense the energy from a kilometer away, it must be even more powerful at the heart of its source.

Also, Ye Fan was puzzled about why this energy felt inexplicably familiar.

But since this familiar feeling was very slight, Ye Fan thought he had been mistaken.

“Fan, run while you can. You are a supreme grandmaster, so you might survive the fall if you jump out the window. Don’t bother about us. Take my phone. The password is my birthday. All my savings are in there, so please give it to Dad...” The immense G-force was ripping through everyone as Ye Yu-Yan gritted her teeth and handed her phone to Ye Fan.

Things were hopeless for her, but Ye Fan might survive.

He was a supreme grandmaster, so he might be able to survive the crash.

Ye Fan finally gathered his thoughts when he heard Ye Yu-Yan’s choking voice.

Chapter 1545 A Ray of Light

He looked at Ye Yu-Yan as she cried and laughed gently. "Don't worry. No one will die with me around."

"Damn it! What kind of bullshit is that? Bro, we are on the brink of death here! This is hardly the time to speak boastfully!" scolded a man uncontrollably the moment Ye Fan finished his words.

It was already bad enough that his flight was going to crash, but he had to also put up with an idiot who kept spouting nonsense even when they were about to die.

This fellow was actually saying that he could save them?!

The plane was falling apart, and there was no saving them unless he was a superhero!

"Daddy, I'm scared, I want to go home..." A little girl wailed in the man's arms as he scolded Ye Fan. She kept screaming for her father to take her home.

The man's eyes turned red. He hugged his daughter wordlessly.

"Sorry, Bro. I was just too scared. I shouldn't have shouted at you. If you really know how we can get out of this in one piece, please do it. My daughter is still young. She is only five years old and still has a long life ahead of her. I really don't want her to die here. If you are really a superhero, transform yourself now..." The man was clearly desperate as he spoke.

People on the brink of death tended to lose their rationality and hope for a miracle to happen, regardless of how years of education had taught them that superheroes didn't exist.

Everyone needed to feel hope.

Everyone yearned to see a ray of light when things got hopeless.

Ye Fan smiled and said, "Okay!"

Ye Fan suddenly stood up.

He broke the window while Ye Yu-Yan and the father and daughter looked on in shock before he jumped out the window.

In that instant, Ye Fan transformed into a ray of light.

He stood in mid-air and held the plane up.

It didn't dawn on anyone that the lean young man could possess so much energy.

Before long, he managed to stop the plane from nose-diving.

The entire plane stabilized.

The intense air turbulence transformed into a gentle breeze as it swept into the cabin.

Everyone gradually calmed down.

“Is everything okay now?”

“Have we been saved?”

“So, we’re not going to die?”

A lot of people couldn’t wrap their minds around what just happened. They looked at each other and asked questions that no one knew the answers to.

Ye Yu-Yan and the father and daughter duo were dumbstruck.

They looked in the direction that Ye Fan had jumped and stared in a daze.

After a long time, the man said in shock, “Oh my god! Did he...did he really transform into a superhero?”

Five passenger aircrafts had been affected by the energy waves that fateful day in Jiangdong. Four aircrafts crashed with no survivors.

Only the plane that took off from Yanjing survived with all its passengers intact. Even though the plane was riddled with scars, it miraculously landed safely.

Chapter 1545 A Ray of Light

The news swept the aviation trade like a whirlwind.

The passengers were interviewed by reporters after the incident. "I don't know how it happened either, but it was a miracle. The plane was plunging but suddenly held steady..."

"I don't know either. The plane had lost control completely when a miraculous force held it up as though the gods were with us..." said the flight captain.

"I know what happened. A big brother became a ray of light and held the plane up."

A pretty little girl spoke in a child-like voice and left everyone laughing.

No one noticed when two silhouettes disappeared in the distance while the passengers reveled over their miraculous survival.

"Instructor Chu, aren't we going to Fenghai? Are we going in the right direction?" asked Ye Yu-Yan quizzically from behind.

Ye Fan looked solemn. "Let's go to Yunzhou.

I'm worried about Mu-Cheng and the others."

Ye Fan ran so quickly in the wilderness that the human eye could hardly catch up.

He could sense the true strength of the energy even more keenly after landing.

It was only early spring, but the temperature around them felt like summer, so that was how intense the heat from the energy was.

Ye Fan instantly realized how powerful the martial artist releasing this energy was.

"I hope he isn't out to get me." Ye Fan hurried to Yunzhou anxiously.

It was normal for Ye Fan to think this way since everyone knew that Jiangdong was Ye Fan's home.

Now that something had happened in Jiangdong, it was only natural for him to think that he was being targeted.

"Instructor Chu, you're moving too quickly. I can't keep up with you."

Ye Yu-Yan was almost in tears from running, but she simply couldn't catch up with Ye Fan.

"I'm heading over first. Gather the Green Dragon Force..."

Chapter 1546 Anomaly

HUUU!

The wind swept Ye Fan's words away.

The young man's lean silhouette quickly disappeared from Ye Yu-Yan's sight.

Ye Fan was anxious, and his eyes were filled with worry.

This anomaly was happening just when he was heading for Chu Sect. It raised many alarm bells in Ye Fan's head.

Was this a coincidence?

Was Tang Hao right? Had Chu Sect learnt of Ye Fan's plans and decided to take control of the situation by sending martial artists to get him?

Even though he had already put the Invoke the Celestial Sky Formation in place within Jiangdong, Ye Fan wasn't sure if it was enough to keep those people out.

Ye Fan hurried over to Yunzhou the moment he sensed how powerful the energy was.

By the time Ye Fan got to the villa, Qiu Mu-Cheng, Li Er and the others were already there.

"Ye Fan, you're back." The worry on Qiu Mu-Cheng's face disappeared as she ran over excitedly into his arms.

Chapter 1546 Anomaly

“Mu-Cheng, are you okay. Did anything strange happen in Yunzhou?”

Ye Fan was relieved to see that everything at the villa was normal.

Qiu Mu-Cheng nodded before she asked quizzically. “Nothing happened. A bright light suddenly came from the west side this morning and felt like an explosion, and then a scorching wave swept over. The temperature in Yunzhou became as hot as summer overnight. Master Er was worried that something might happen, so he told me not to go to work today and stay home. Do you know what happened?”

Ye Fan shook her head. “I just got back, so I don’t know what happened either.”

Ye Fan looked at Li Er. “Have you investigated this?”

Li Er nodded. “I sent someone to check. The anomaly seemed to have come from Jingzhou, but the army has sealed the place, so our men couldn’t get in.”

“From Jingzhou?” Ye Fan was startled.

Ye Fan’s mother was in Jingzhou.

“Ye Fan, don’t worry. I called Mum, and she said things are okay in Jingzhou. She just got a slight scare.” Qiu Mu-Cheng comforted Ye Fan when she noticed how worried he was.

Chapter 1546 Anomaly

“That’s good.” Ye Fan nodded. However, he decided to go to Jingzhou personally.

Ye Fan was the King of Jiangdong, so it was only right that he investigate this matter.

Moreover, Ye Fan had a feeling that it had something to do with martial artists.

Ye Fan couldn’t stop worrying if he didn’t figure out what happened.

“Mr Chu, I will get the car ready.” Li Er hurried over to bring the car over when Ye Fan said he wanted to investigate this personally.

Qiu Mu-Cheng was a little worried, so she wanted to go with Ye Fan, but he stopped her.

“Mu-Cheng, stay put here. Don’t worry. Li Er and I are just checking this out, so nothing will happen. Remember to stay at the villa until I come back.” Ye Fan got onto the car and headed to Jingzhou with Li Er after telling Qiu Mu-Cheng to stay safe.

Although Ye Fan was able to fly, he didn’t do it unless it was an emergency and chose to use normal modes of transport.

He was worried it would draw unnecessary attention, and he also wanted to save his strength.

“Mr Chu, what do you think happened? Why would it be so hot when it is only March? This power must be incredibly strong if it can affect the weather so much.” Li Er sensed the temperature go up as they approached Jingzhou.

Li Er and Ye Fan could only rely on the car air conditioning to stay cool.

Ye Fan nodded. “We will know when we get there.”

The car suddenly slowed down as they spoke.

Li Er and Ye Fan realized that cars had pulled up on both sides of the car, and only the center lane was accessible.

Li Er wanted to drive right through, but a few traffic police dressed in uniform surprisingly walked over and stopped them.

“Traffic control has been set up ahead, and outsiders aren’t permitted to enter,” said a lean man in uniform sternly.

Li Er frowned. “Traffic control? When can we enter?”

"I'm not sure. Maybe a couple of days or..."

A plump policeman suddenly interrupted impatiently. "Liang, stop wasting time with them. No one is allowed to enter. If you want to wait, then pull up by the roadside and get out of the way now! You can't bear the consequences for holding us up," said the plump policeman as he wiped the sweat off his brow.

"Did you just tell us to get out of the way?" Li Er paused before he sneered, "You are the first person in Jiangdong who dares to take that tone with me. I suggest you get out of the way if you don't want to get into trouble. Or else, none of you can take it if you piss Mr Chu off." Li Er was clearly angry now.

Ye Fan sat in the car the entire time and rested his eyes as though this had nothing to do with him.

"My, my! How dare you speak so arrogantly! You make it sound as though you are some big shot of the city like our Master Zhang!" The plump traffic police sneered, "Get lost now! Go somewhere else to throw your weight around. Don't cause trouble here!"

"Master Zhang, you say?" muttered Li Er in the car before taking his phone and making a call.

Before long, the call got through.

Chapter 1546 Anomaly

The bright voice of an old man came from the phone. "Hoho, Master Er? This is rare! I didn't expect your call. What can I do for you?"

Li Er was second to Ye Fan in power in Jiangdong, so Master Zhang had to be polite to him too.

Li Er wasted no time and said, "Zhang Cheng-Hu, can you come over? My car has been stopped in Yinan and they're not letting me through. Take care of it."

"Is that so? Why would that happen out of the blue? Who would dare to stop your car? Wait, are you trying to head for Jingzhou?" Zhang Cheng-Hu spoke quizzically over the phone.

"That's right," said Li Er.

"Master Er, there's nothing I can do about it. Something's happened in Jingzhou, and even the army has sent men there. Since these are unusual times, it's normal for traffic to be controlled. There is nothing I can do, even if I wanted to help. This was done by the government and the army. I am just a nobody, so there's no way I can stop them," said Zhang Cheng-Hu apologetically.

Li Er looked even angrier. "It seems I'm not important enough for you to help. Let me tell you. Mr Chu is in my car now, so do what you have to."

What?

“M-Mr Chu is in your car too?” Zhang Cheng-Hu’s face instantly blanched when he heard his name, and he nearly dropped his phone.

Reputation was everything!

Did Li Er have a strong reputation?

He certainly had a strong reputation.

In terms of power, Li Er was highly respected by all the powers of Jiangdong.

However, Li Er certainly couldn’t compare to Mr Chu.

After all, Mr Chu’s reputation was paved in slaughter and blood.

Ye Fan was like a god in Jiangdong, so all the rich and powerful of Jiangdong quaked in fear when they heard his name.

“Master Er, don’t scare me like this. Is Mr Chu really in Yinan? H-hello? Say something will you, Master Er?” Zhang Cheng-Hu was so startled that his voice trembled and he almost cried.

Li Er ignored him and hung up the phone.

“Are you trying to call for help? Why don’t you just get out of the way? Don’t make us use force.” The plump policeman laughed coldly and spoke threateningly after he saw Li Er put down the phone.

From the get-go, the traffic police didn’t like Ye Fan and Li Er.

These people were throwing their weight around just because they could afford a luxury car and money.

The policeman hated cocky rich men the most. Worse still, he was pretending to call Master Zhang.

Zhang Cheng-Hu was such a busy man. How could he have the time to entertain random people?

Li Er and Ye Fan turned a deaf ear to the traffic police’s warning and sat in the car as though they were waiting for something to happen.

“Do you want to do it the hard way? Liang, follow me. Drag them out of the car and confiscate their car. Damn it! You think I can't do anything about you?" The plump policeman shouted impatiently to his colleague as he walked over and wanted to open the car door.

But the moment they touched the car, there was an unexpected loud blast. The two of them were badly hurt as they were thrown into the air and tumbled several times on the road before they finally stopped.

"You bastard! How dare you hit us?" The plump policeman had a hand on his back and got up to shout at Li Er.

"Fine. Just you wait! Just you wait, you two!"

After the plump policeman scolded Li Er and Ye Fan, he turned to say to Liang, "Liang, call for reinforcements now. Tell them someone is making trouble for us, and we need backup!"

Liang got up from the ground and radioed for help.

The commotion caught the attention of the passersby waiting by the roadside, so a lot of people gathered to look.

The passersby kept trying to get them to leave when they saw that the traffic police were calling for reinforcements.

“Bro, that’s quite enough, you’d better run now.”

“Don’t try to fight the cops.”

“It’s not like you can do anything about them.”

Ye Fan continued to sit in the car and rested his eyes without saying a word.

Li Er said cockily, “Run? No one in Jiangdong has the right to make us go anywhere.”

Everyone looked shocked when they heard what Li Er said.

They all wondered if this old man was crazy. He was just an ordinary citizen. Was he going to pit himself against the government?

“Fine.”

“You are the boss.”

“Whatever.”

“As you wish.”

No one could be bothered with the incident now.

They had tried to convince Ye Fan and Li Er to run, but they insisted on staying and acting tough.

Chapter 1547 Help

Since Ye Fan and Li Er didn't appreciate their suggestions, they decided to just watch.

Before long, the sound of a police siren could be heard as a few government vehicles drove over.

"Haha! Our backup is here! Let's see what else you can pull now that they are here." The plump policeman was delighted to see that his colleagues were here, and he hurriedly went over to welcome them.

However, the moment the government vehicles came closer, the traffic policemen realized that something didn't seem quite right.

"Bro, something's wrong. This looks like a car from the mayor's office." Liang quickly noticed something was amiss.

The plump man was instantly stunned when he noticed that one of the license plates was 'JIANG Q00001'.

"Liang...it seems...it seems the mayor is here. That's how important this mission is to them! Let's go! The time has come for us to make it big."

After a brief moment of shock, the plump man became delighted and felt he was finally going to get promoted.

They ran over enthusiastically as they spoke.

Before long, an old Audi A6 pulled up by the roadside, and two middle-aged men stepped out.

“Damn it!”

“Isn’t that Master Zhang?”

“The man next to him looks awfully familiar.”

“Oh yes, I remember now. He’s the new city mayor.”

“Oh my god!”

“What happened?”

“Is someone in trouble?”

The moment the crowd saw the two men, everyone was stunned.

They stared in shock as they exclaimed uncontrollably.

After all, one of them was the most powerful man in the corporate circles and commanded a lot of respect. The other was the city mayor, one who lorded it over the entire city.

Both of them were the most powerful men in the city, so everyone was naturally surprised that they would suddenly both show up here.

“Master Zhang, Mayor Lin, I wasn’t expecting you. It’s just a minor altercation, so we can take care of it,” said the plump policeman ingratiatingly as he bowed.

Zhang Cheng-Hu and the man dressed in a suit didn’t respond to that. They glanced around before they asked, “Did you stop a vehicle with a Yunzhou license plate from passing through?”

“Yes, Mayor Lin. We were about to report this to you. These two men broke the law. They beat us up because they wanted to go past the roadblock. It’s all under control now. I just called for reinforcements. The moment you give the order, I will arrest them!” reported the plump policeman ingratiatingly.

“Arrest who?!”

Zhang Cheng-Hu almost pissed in his pants as he shouted and kicked the plump policeman to the ground.

“You blind dingbat! Are you trying to get us in trouble?”

After kicking the policeman aside, Zhang Cheng-Hu and the mayor immediately ran over to the car.

“Master Er, my apologies for coming late.”

The first person Zhang Cheng-Hu saw was Li Er sitting in the driver’s seat.

The moment Zhang Cheng-Hu saw Li Er sitting in the driver’s seat, it dawned on him that Li Er wasn’t lying on the phone.

After all, who else in Jiangdong was capable of getting Li Er to play chauffeur?

“At least you had the brains to turn up. Mr Chu is sitting in the back. If you have anything to explain, then say it to him,” said Li Er coldly.

Zhang Cheng-Hu’s face turned a little pale before he looked towards the backseat.

Since the car window was closed, Zhang Cheng-Hu was unable to see Ye Fan’s face. All he could see was a blurry silhouette.

However, Zhang Cheng-Hu could sense Ye Fan’s powerful aura even through the car window.

“Mr Chu, my apologies. Sorry about the little inconvenience you’ve suffered under my watch,” apologized Zhang Cheng-Hu very humbly.

After all, Ye Fan was King of Jiangdong, so Zhang Cheng-Hu was a nobody to him.

Chapter 1547 Help

The middle-aged man dressed in a suit seemed rather calm and said courteously, "I am Lin Nan-Hai, mayor of Yinan. I heard you were in town, so I came over to say hello. I have made arrangements for dinner at Fenghuang Hotel. Could you spare some time and allow me the chance to play host?"

Lin Nan-Hai smiled as he invited Ye Fan to dinner.

Ye Fan sat in the car with his eyes closed without opening the car window.

Liang and the plump policeman almost pissed in their pants. Their legs went soft, and they almost slumped to the ground.

The two most powerful men of the city had come personally to greet the man in the car, but he ignored them and didn't even wind down the car window.

Heavens!

Which big shot had they just offended?!
