

Chapter 1561: Which Should I Wear?

Lu Xingzhi finally saw how clingy Jiang Yao was that night. The two of them chatted for a while, and when he saw the time, he urged Jiang Yao to shower and rest early. Those on recovery should go to bed early and wake up early.

Jiang Yao was reluctant to go. She whined until it was almost 10:30 before she said, with a smile, "I'll go take a shower and turn on the speakerphone! I can chat with you while taking a shower! "

She did not give Lu Xingzhi any time to say no at all. Then, she turned on the speaker on her phone and walked into the bathroom with a smile. First, she went to wash the bathtub, then she filled it with water, and finally, she picked up her phone and went back to her room to open the wardrobe to get her pajamas.

"Take your shower, then call me after you're done. We'll chat until 12, and then you'll rest." Lu Xingzhi pinched his brows, and his voice became much lower.

"No! The speaker on my phone doesn't affect our conversation when I'm taking a bath! If you hang up on me, I will not answer your calls for a year." Jiang Yao even used threats. When Lu Xingzhi did not say anything else, she continued to look at the pajamas in the closet while muttering, "Which one should I wear?"

Jiang Yao had a lot of clothes in her closet. She had so many pajamas they could fill a drawer. Lu Xingzhi only had a few sets of clothes.

However, she did not buy most of them; Mrs. Lu and Lu Xingzhi had bought them.

"Lu Xingzhi, I think you're a little perverted." Jiang Yao opened a rarely opened cabinet and took out a set of pink and white pajamas. "Why are all the clothes you bought for me pink? This set of pajamas is even better. There's even a hat with a pair of rabbit ears on it!"

Before Jiang Yao got married, she knew that Lu Xingzhi had bought many things for her. However, she was not interested in looking through them. After they got married, she did not look through the wardrobe seriously. She knew that the two drawers at the bottom contained the clothes that Lu Xingzhi had bought for her. Therefore, she did not open them.

After her rebirth, she forgot about it. She had only opened the top drawer on a whim. There were simple pajamas in the drawer, and they were brand new.

"I thought it suited you at that time." Lu Xingzhi was a little embarrassed after hearing Jiang Yao's explanation. At that time, he was about to get married. He was hot-headed too. Every day, he had to go out to the county city to buy things for the wedding. As long as he saw clothes and items that he thought Jiang Yao would like, he would buy them. After a while, he had purchased a lot of things.

That habit continued until almost half a year into the marriage. Jiang Yao's attitude toward him was so cold that he changed that habit.

He had bought too many things and piled them up, but it did not seem like she could wear or use them. So, he changed his habits.

However, that habit reappeared not long after their summer vacation the previous year.

Lu Xingzhi was too happy when he saw Jiang Yao wearing the clothes he had prepared for her when she joined the army.

“Was I that childish back then?” Jiang Yao asked with her lips pursed. On the phone, Lu Xingzhi smiled but did not say anything, so she took out the pink and white checkered set in her hand and said, “Then I’ll wear the bunny ears set tonight! Ah, what a pity! You can’t see it.”

Of course, Lu Xingzhi could hear Jiang Yao’s wicked and hypocritical words. He could guess that she must have been smiling wickedly when she spoke as if she had succeeded in the little prank...

Chapter 1562: How Clever

“There’s a paper bag in the innermost drawer that you should be familiar with. There’s a set of pajamas that I bought for you. You can try it after you shower. I think it’ll be more suitable for you than the set with the rabbit ears.”

Lu Xingzhi gave Jiang Yao a suggestion in a somber tone.

Jiang Yao nodded in confusion. “A paper bag that I’m familiar with?”

She held her phone in one hand and pulled a drawer with the other. Then, she reached into the drawer and found a paper bag. However, the paper bag was stuck. When she used her strength, she tore the paper bag. The thing in the paper bag flew out.

Jiang Yao was stunned for a few seconds when she saw the dark purple dress on her knee. Then, she quickly realized what kind of dress it was. Her face turned red.

Jiang Yao gritted her teeth. “When did you buy it? Why didn’t I know you bought it?”

Lu Xingzhi told her honestly, “I bought it at the mall. I hid it when I sent you back to your hometown that day. It’s the same brand as the one I bought at the airport last time. The material should be of high quality. Do you like it?”

Jiang Yao could not say that she liked it; she remembered how he had tortured her all night when she was in that black outfit!

She rolled the thing on her knees and stuffed them back into the innermost drawer. Then, she spoke fiercely into her phone. “I don’t like it at all. It’s so ugly! There’s something wrong with your aesthetic judgment!”

Then, she took out the pajamas and went to the bathroom.

The bathtub was already full. Jiang Yao put her phone on the shelf beside her and then dripped a few drops of essential oil into the bathtub. Her bright eyes flashed, and she spoke to Lu Xingzhi on the phone, “Do you want to know what I’m doing now?”

“I can hear it.”

She opened the essential oil bottle, so she should have been dripping the oil into the bathtub. Then, he warned her. "Don't soak in it for too long."

Jiang Yao curled her lips. It did not seem interesting to play games with such a perceptive person.

She put the bottle back in its original position as she heard a crisp sound beside her ear. The essential oil bottle swayed, and she barely stood back to her original position.

Her fingertips caressed the clothes on her body, and she suddenly covered her lips to suppress a smile. After a few seconds, she changed to an even more delicate voice and asked, "Do you know what I'm doing now?"

"Taking off your clothes," Lu Xingzhi blurted out. He had not heard anything, but he had deduced it according to her habits. If she wanted to take a bath, she would definitely take off her clothes and enter the bathtub after putting the essential oils into the water.

"How clever," Jiang Yao said. Then, she took the phone back into her palm, turned off the speaker, and spoke in an extremely cutesy voice. "I'm currently unbuttoning my shirt. I'm down to my third button. And, I'm done with my shirt. Now, should I take off my pants first or take off my underwear first?"

Before Lu Xingzhi could answer, Jiang Yao suddenly exclaimed in surprise. "I think my breasts have gotten bigger after being home for a few days! They feel so perky! They've really gotten bigger, and I can't hold them with one hand."

The person on the phone subconsciously lowered his head, looked at his palm, followed her words, and made a grasping gesture. He thought about how big she meant if he could not hold them with one hand.

His mind started to go completely out of control.

In an instant, some images appeared in his head...

Chapter 1563: Don't Hang Up

Her soft breasts were fair and tender, as alluring as a peach.

Lu Xingzhi looked at his palm helplessly. He reacted to that.

Just an imagination was enough to give him a reaction.

However, the woman on the phone did not seem to know that she had ignited his excitement. She was still talking non-stop.

"I'd better take off my pants first." Jiang Yao pretended to think hard before coming to a decision. "Why don't I take off my underwear first? It'll be cold if I don't wear anything."

At the thought of his wife's naked upper body, a specific part of him felt his blood swell.

"Jiang Yao." Lu Xingzhi's voice was unbelievably hoarse. "You're doing this on purpose."

"Yay!" Jiang Yao laughed. "No, I was just talking to you to relieve my boredom."

Then, Jiang Yao could not hold it in anymore and laughed aloud into the phone. “Lu Xingzhi, don’t tell me your body is reacting to my words!”

“What do you think?” Lu Xingzhi threw her a question in return.

“Your voice doesn’t sound right. You must be reacting to this! Why are your thoughts so dirty? You think about these things all day long. I didn’t expect you to be like that, Lu Xingzhi!” Jiang Yao suppressed her voice and scolded him. “Your mind is full of unhealthy thoughts.”

Lu Xingzhi sneered. “Go take a shower. I’ll hang up.”

Jiang Yao quickly shouted, “Don’t hang up! Don’t hang up! Don’t Hang Up! If you dare to hang up, I’ll be angry with you!”

“Are you done?” Lu Xingzhi’s temples were about to start throbbing.

“I’m not done yet.” Jiang Yao smiled, and then she quickly took off her clothes. Lu Xingzhi’s hearing was good, and his ability to analyze things was also excellent. She did not even need to speak for him to know that she was taking off her clothes.

After more than ten seconds, Jiang Yao entered the bathtub and said, “It’s still so comfortable to take a bath. It’s a pity that I didn’t pay attention to the water in the bathtub when I was on the phone with you just now. The water is overflowing now.”

Jiang Yao was holding her phone comfortably, but the person on the other side of the line did not feel the same.

He was silent for a few seconds, but Jiang Yao could hear Lu Xingzhi’s gradually heavier breathing.

After a long while, she heard Lu Xingzhi gnashing his teeth and calling her name.

“Jiang Yao.”

“Huh?” Jiang Yao replied confidently and then patted the water surface on purpose.

“You’ll cry when you break me eventually!”

Those words came out in short gasps, and Jiang Yao burst into laughter.

She had never teased Lu Xingzhi like that. Even though she could not see him, Jiang Yao felt delighted when she heard his unsatisfied tone and how he could not do anything about it.

That night, he teased her about her wishful thinking.

It was never too late for a woman to take revenge!

Jiang Yao thought that Lu Xingzhi would hang up the phone in a huff, but he did not. She could hear the sound of him walking in his slippers on the phone, and it sounded a little hurried.

After a while, the sound of running water could be heard from the phone. Jiang Yao thought that she might have caused him to take a cold shower.

However, Jiang Yao was still too naive.

Not long after that, she could hear his breathing. Jiang Yao was not unfamiliar with that kind of breathing...

Chapter 1564: You're Not Angry, Right?

"Lu Xingzhi, what are you doing?" Jiang Yao asked.

He did not answer her immediately. His panting continued for a few more seconds before he said something. "What do you think?"

The rhetorical question, accompanied by his breath and sexy voice, made Jiang Yao blush.

Even though she did flirt with him on purpose, she did not expect to hear what he was doing on the phone.

Jiang Yao trudged back into the water. After thinking for a few seconds, she was ready to hang up the phone.

Unexpectedly, Lu Xingzhi spoke again, and he wanted her to speak.

"Keep talking. I want to hear your voice."

Jiang Yao almost dropped her phone into the water. "I'm hanging up!" She hurriedly said into the phone, then immediately hung up and threw the phone back onto the shelf.

She kept fanning her ears with her hands, and she felt that the bathroom had become very hot.

After Jiang Yao finished bathing and putting on her clothes, she lay on the bed, but she did not dare phone Lu Xingzhi again. She was afraid that she would hear things she did not want to hear.

She must have brought that upon herself, right?

She wanted to flirt with Lu Xingzhi for revenge because he had teased her the other night. He even teased her so wickedly that day too.

Why was that guy so flirtatious?

Jiang Yao held her phone and rolled around on the bed. She thought that she should go to bed without waiting for him!

However, she could not bear to put her phone on the bedside table. If she fell asleep, she might not be able to call him the next morning. She might only be able to call him in another six months.

What an inconvenience!

Jiang Yao pulled her hair. Why was that man so annoying?

Would he still call her? Why did he not call her back after such a long time?

Had he not recovered yet?

Or was he being petty and angry?

After thinking about it, Jiang Yao felt that Lu Xingzhi would not be angry about that. So that meant he had not recovered yet.

The possibility of the second option was very high. After all, that guy was terrifyingly energetic when he was torturing her.

Jiang Yao finally received a call from Lu Xingzhi while indulging in all sorts of wild thoughts. The moment her phone rang, she almost subconsciously pressed the answer button. It was clear how anxious she was waiting for the call.

“You...” Jiang Yao did not know what to say when she picked up the call. She stammered and asked such a useless question. “Are you done showering?”

“I’ll teach you a lesson when I get back.” Lu Xingzhi was still gnashing his teeth. He told her not to hang up, but she hung up quickly!

When he wanted to hear her voice, she had remained quiet.

However, Jiang Yao was his only cure.

“You’re not angry, right?” Jiang Yao smiled. “Well, you’ll be gone for half a year, so you’ll forget about it.”

She was sure about it.

‘Why don’t you give it a try in half a year?’ Lu Xingzhi thought to himself. He would not forget it, even in ten years, let alone half a year!

If she had the guts to flirt with him, she must be mentally prepared to bear the consequences.

Whether he flirted back or not, that was something she often did during those few days.

“It’s past eleven. Go and rest!” Lu Xingzhi looked at the alarm clock on the bedside table and urged Jiang Yao to sleep. He took the alarm clock and played with it. It was something that Jiang Yao had bought when she went to Jin City. He did not need it, but she had insisted on it.

It was a cartoon clock, so it looked a little comical. However, it was adorable, just like her...

Chapter 1565: I’m In Pain

Lu Xingzhi pinched the cartoon character’s ears with his fingertips, and the image of Jiang Yao wearing the rabbit-eared pajamas he bought appeared in his mind. He could not help but smile. His wife still had a childlike mind. That was why she could see the two rabbit-eared pajamas among so many sets of pajamas.

It was a pity that he could not see how she was dressed at the moment. He guessed that she must look very adorable.

“Let’s talk for a while.” Jiang Yao hid under the blanket with her phone. “Do you need to get up early tomorrow morning? Have you packed everything?”

“Yes.” Lu Xingzhi put the alarm clock back. “We’ll leave at seven o’clock sharp tomorrow morning, so it’s not that early.”

Jiang Yao laughed when she heard that and said, “Then let’s chat for a while more.”

Even though Lu Xingzhi was not the kind of person who would take the initiative to converse, Jiang Yao was a chatterbox. She did not have to worry about having nothing to talk about. Jiang Yao did not need Lu Xingzhi to give her much of a response either; all he needed to do was answer her with an affirmative response or a grunt to prove that he was listening attentively. Time would go by quickly if they did that.

It was as if an hour had passed in the blink of an eye after she had just finished talking to Lu Xingzhi. The man urged her to go to bed at around midnight.

Even if he was not a doctor, Lu Xingzhi knew that staying up late was bad for one’s health.

Helpless, Jiang Yao could only reluctantly hang up the phone and bury herself in the quilt. She felt lonely.

A text message from Lu Xingzhi arrived a short time later.

[Be good, be obedient, and rest early.]

It was like coaxing a child, but it made Jiang Yao happy to see it.

She quickly replied to Lu Xingzhi and lay down on the bed, feeling much more satisfied. However, when she closed her eyes, she suddenly opened them again and remembered that she had yet to have a clear conversation with Lu Xingzhi about Ye Xueli. For some reason, Lu Xingzhi had already given up on that topic.

That guy was like a fox. He could always bring her attention to the direction he was thinking of.

It was midnight. Everyone in the small town was used to sleeping early and waking up early. The thick curtains in the room were drawn, and not a trace of moonlight could penetrate the room. No one could see the slumbering face in the room. Jiang Yao was indulging in her sleep.

Suddenly, there was a light knock on the door. Jiang Yao was startled. She turned on the bedside lamp and got out of the bed to open the door. She did not expect a black shadow would fall at her feet, frightening her.

When she saw the person lying at her feet, Jiang Yao’s anger instantly rose. “Cheng Jinnian, you’re hiding at my door at night to scare—”

Before she could say anything else, Jiang Yao realized that something was wrong with Cheng Jinnian. The little boy was curled at her feet and was trembling. His face was unbelievably pale.

“What’s wrong with you?” Jiang Yao looked flustered and hurriedly crouched to pick up the boy and put him on her bed. It was a little cold at night. The ground was even colder.

Cheng Jinnian lay on the soft bed before reluctantly raising his head to look at Jiang Yao. His eyes were full of tears. “Sister, my stomach hurts. It hurts so much... Is it going to explode? Am I going to die from the pain?”

Chapter 1566: What Is A Little Bit?

Only then did Jiang Yao notice that Cheng Jinnian's hands were pressing on his stomach. Jiang Yao held his left hand in her palm and touched it. His palm was full of cold sweat. Upon closer inspection, even his face was covered in sweat.

"Stomach pain? Where exactly does it hurt? Here?" Jiang Yao's palm pressed on Cheng Jinnian's stomach confidently.

"It hurts! It hurts here too. It's cramping. I want to throw up." Cheng Jinnian's small hand held onto Jiang Yao's palm. "Sister, am I going to die from the pain?"

Seeing Cheng Jinnian's frightened and uncomfortable look, Jiang Yao's heart could not bear it. No matter how bad a five-year-old child had behaved, he was still a child.

Jiang Yao had the medical system scan the boy. The final result was consistent with her judgment—acute gastroenteritis.

Jiang Yao was very helpless and asked, "Did you eat something when you went out this afternoon?"

"I just ate a little," Cheng Jinnian replied in a low voice, his small hand holding up a small, short index finger.

She had been shocked when the boy held a pistol in his hand. However, his childish action proved that the five-year-old was still a child.

"What is a little bit?" Jiang Yao asked.

"The stinky tofu and hot and sour soup at the end of the alley, and two skewers of ice-sugared haws." Cheng Jinnian kept his mouth shut after speaking and only pouted to show how uncomfortable he was. Suddenly, as Jiang Yao pulled her hand back and left his side, Cheng Jinnian immediately said, "Sister! I also ate two ice creams, one orange, and one chocolate. I also ate a fried dough stick and a piece of fried dough cake! That's it. That's all. Sister, don't be angry. Don't go. I'm scared."

Jiang Yao almost fell to the ground. She turned her head and glared at Cheng Jinnian. "Are you a hungry ghost? Can you really eat so much in one afternoon? Didn't the people following you control you?"

"He can't control me." Cheng Jinnian pursed his lips. "Sister, I know I'm in the wrong. I won't do it again in the future. Don't be angry."

Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows. It was true. How could a subordinate control the Cheng family's young master? That person was probably only responsible for protecting Cheng Jinnian.

For the past two days, after Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu went to work, Jiang Yao read in the bedroom. She knew that someone must have followed Cheng Jinnian, so she did not care when Cheng Jinnian went out. However, she did not expect that little devil to spend the whole afternoon eating.

"How can you eat so much here when you've eaten so much outside? No wonder your stomach is protesting!" Jiang Yao walked back and pressed Cheng Jinnian's stomach. "Did you eat like that yesterday? Let's see if you dare to do that again in the future!"

Cheng Jinnian slowly raised his hand and pinched the corner of Jiang Yao's shirt. Under Jiang Yao's gaze, he nodded lightly and said, "The food outside was delicious. Auntie Lu's food was also delicious. Then, I accidentally overate. Sister, I won't dare to do it again in the future."

When Cheng Jinnian's admitted his mistake, Jiang Yao could not even get angry with him. Jiang Yao knew how uncomfortable acute gastroenteritis was. An adult could not bear it, let alone a child. Therefore, she did not teach Cheng Jinnian a lesson. Instead, she turned around and prepared to help Cheng Jinnian relieve the pain in his body...

Chapter 1567: I Don't Want It

However, when she got up and took two steps forward, she realized that Cheng Jinnian was still holding on to her clothes tightly. He was in so much pain, but he gritted his teeth stubbornly and held on to the corner of her clothes, refusing to let go.

"Let go." Jiang Yao frowned.

Cheng Jinnian shook her head. "Sister, I do know my mistake now. Don't go, okay? I'll be scared if you leave."

"Be good. Be obedient and let go. I need to go get the needles and medicine." Jiang Yao's tone softened when she saw the pitiful look in Cheng Jinnian's eyes.

Well, Lu Xingzhi was right. No one could withstand her pitiful look, and Cheng Jinnian had the same one.

Cheng Jinnian only let go when he heard that Jiang Yao would not leave him alone. However, his eyes followed Jiang Yao as she walked to a cabinet to get something. Then, she took out a medical box and walked back to him.

There were silver needles in Jiang Yao's medical box, but there was no medicine to treat acute gastroenteritis. Fortunately, the medicine in the box was from the medical system. She was prepared for simple illnesses.

"If you can't hold it in anymore, let me know. I'll get a bucket for you," Jiang Yao said to Cheng Jinnian as she prepared the silver needles for disinfection. "You have to tell me where else you feel uncomfortable."

Cheng Jinnian curled up and nodded without saying anything. Jiang Yao could see that he was holding it in, so she did not expose him.

After a few acupuncture needles, Cheng Jinnian looked much better. Even though it still hurt, at least it did not hurt as much as before.

When Jiang Yao used the needles on him, his eyelashes fluttered with tears. He kept looking at Jiang Yao's face and not at Jiang Yao's hands.

It was a trusting action. He trusted that she would not harm him, so he did not notice where she put the needles on his body. He only observed her face. He was checking to see if she was angry or impatient.

Cheng Jinnian secretly heaved a sigh of relief after confirming that she only looked serious and treated him as her patient.

'That's great. My sister isn't angry.'

"Does it still hurt?"

After the last injection, Jiang Yao looked up at Cheng Jinnian.

The little boy on the bed shook his head.

"Tell me the truth," Jiang Yao said to him.

Then, he hummed twice in a soft voice, "Just a little bit."

Jiang Yao grunted and turned to get some medicine for Cheng Jinnian. The boy did not move and followed her lead. When he saw a syringe, he quickly asked, "Sister, are you giving me an injection? In my arm or my butt?"

"Your butt," Jiang Yao answered without looking at him.

"No! I don't want it!" Cheng Jinnian's little face immediately turned red. "My brother said that a man can't show his butt to a woman so casually! Inject my arm! I'll give you my arm!"

Jiang Yao was almost choked to death by her own saliva. "Didn't Cheng Jinyan tell you that a doctor is different?"

"No!" Cheng Jinnian answered quickly. His hands were about to cover his butt, but Jiang Yao threw him a fierce look before she put her hands back on the bed stiffly...

Chapter 1568: Remembering You

"The needle is still in your body. Don't move. If the whole needle is stuck, you'll cry if I can't take it out!" Jiang Yao threatened the little boy. Then, she noticed Cheng Jinnian's blushing face. She was happy to see that.

Was the Little Devil so shy?

Jiang Yao found Cheng Jinnian very interesting.

"Sister, you can hit my arm..." Cheng Jinnian hesitated for a few seconds before he said, "Please don't hit my butt."

"I'll do an infusion then." When Jiang Yao saw how unhappy Cheng Jinnian was, she changed the method.

If the patient were a normal child, Jiang Yao would still give him an injection. However, even though Cheng Jinnian was five years old, he could think independently and had a strong sense of self-awareness. Cheng Jinnian did not want her to do that, and if she still insisted on doing that, Cheng Jinnian would probably rather be in pain than have her give him an injection.

“Okay.” The five-year-old boy secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Jiang Yao looked at the time and removed the silver needles from Cheng Jinnian’s body. She gave him an infusion. There was an anti-inflammatory, soothing, and calming formula in the medicine for some reason. So, after a while, Cheng Jinnian began to relax and feel a little sleepy. However, he had to fight against his physiological reaction. His eyelids continued to fight, and he stared at Jiang Yao with widened eyes.

“If you’re sleepy, then go to sleep. It’ll be fine once you wake up. From now on, you’re not allowed to eat too much. The food in town isn’t very clean. It’s okay to eat some occasionally, but you can’t eat it often, and you can’t eat so many things at once.” When Jiang Yao raised her hand to wipe the sweat off Cheng Jinnian’s forehead, her voice unconsciously became softer. “Go to sleep.”

Cheng Jinnian nodded and slowly closed his eyes. However, a few seconds later, he suddenly opened his eyes and called out to Jiang Yao. “Sister, do you know what my name means?”

“Are you here to show off your intelligence again?” Jiang Yao smiled. “It means a remembrance.”

“Sister, you remember it?” Cheng Jinnian’s small eyes flashed with surprise as he asked again, “Then, sister, do you know who gave me my name?”

Without waiting for Jiang Yao to answer, Cheng Jinnian answered his own question. “It’s Mom! Mom named me! She said that my name is Xiao Nian. She told me that I have a brother, and I also have an older sister. My name is Xiao Nian. She said she hopes that I will remember my older sister, whom I have never met before. Otherwise, when she dies of old age, no one in that world will remember my older sister, who has only been in the world for a few days.”

Jiang Yao’s heart shook violently.

“Sister, it means that Mom hopes that I will remember you. Sister, I’m sorry. I should have recognized you when I saw you, but I didn’t. I even bullied you! Sister, I’m sorry. Mom loves you very much. I came here to look for you, but Mom didn’t know about this. Father and I hid it from Mom and Brother. Mom didn’t want me to disturb you, but I miss you, Sister. I want us to be together as a family.”

The sick boy was no longer as aggressive as when he was feeling well. He lay there and looked at her quietly, speaking from the bottom of his heart in a childish voice.

Before she could answer, Cheng Jinnian could not hold back his sleepiness under the effects of the drugs. However, before he closed his eyes again, he said softly, “Thank you, Sister...”

Chapter 1569: Collapsing Defense Line

He fell asleep in just a few seconds after speaking. Soon, it was as if he had been hypnotized. It was obvious how sleepy he was.

“Remembrance”

“It means that my mother wants me to remember you.”

“She told me that I had a brother and also a sister. My name is Xiao Nian. She hopes that I will remember my sister, whom I have never met. Otherwise, one day, when she is old and dies, no one in that world would remember my sister, who had only been in the world for a few days.”

It turned out that there was someone in the world that cared for her for so long and so much.

That person cared so much that she was afraid that if she died, no one in that world would remember her. So she carved it in the name of her other child.

That person incorporated a mother’s love for her child into a child’s name.

After knowing Cheng Jinnian for so long, Jiang Yao had never thought that Cheng Jinnian’s name represented his mother’s concern for another person.

His mother probably thought that whenever Cheng Jinnian introduced his name to others like that, he would think of his sister, whom he had never met.

After she passed away, there would still be someone in the world who would take her place and miss the child who had caused her so much pain.

Jiang Yao sat on the edge of the bed and looked at the child sleeping peacefully. Her heart felt a little sour, and her eyes watered.

That was the first time she looked at Cheng Jinnian at such a close distance, and it was also the first time she looked at Cheng Jinnian in such detail. She looked at her younger brother, who shared the same blood as her. They looked so much alike.

She had never felt any kinship with the Lin family. Even though she had met them so many times, she had never felt anything for them. There was only strangeness and lunacy.

When she found out about her background and saw Madam Cheng and Cheng Jinnian again, she felt something different.

She felt something deep in their heart, so she tried to suppress it. She tried to control her emotions so that they would not break through the defense line and destroy her.

However, that seemed to have failed.

At that moment, it seemed like the defense line in her heart had collapsed.

Cheng Jinnian’s trust in her was beyond her expectations.

The first person he thought of was not Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu, who had been protecting him for the past few days, nor his subordinates, but her, who had always spoken coldly to him.

He must have seen her as more than some average person.

He was a little devil who could threaten people with a gun, but she could not hate him.

At about two o’clock in the morning, Cheng Jinnian’s medication was done. After Jiang Yao packed up her things, she raised her hand to touch Cheng Jinnian’s forehead. Some children with poor body resistance were prone to fever, but fortunately, Cheng Jinnian was not one of them.

She rubbed her eyes, which were so sleepy that they could almost not stay open. Then, she went to Cheng Jinnian's room and left the boy in hers.

The next morning, Jiang Yao was woken up by the ringtone on her cell phone. She touched the bedside table and pressed the answer button. Since she slept late the previous night and it was still very early, Jiang Yao was still in an adorable state. One could tell that she was still sleeping when she opened her mouth...

Chapter 1570: Pick Up Xiao Nian

Cheng Jinyan, on the other end of the line, raised his eyebrows. He had called his younger brother, Cheng Jinnian. He probed the female voice on Cheng Jinnian's phone and asked, "Are you Jiang Yao?"

"I'm whoever you called."

Jiang Yao did not even open her eyes as she huffed angrily. "You called me at 5:00 a.m. and asked if I was Jiang Yao. Cheng Jinyan, are you looking for a beating?"

Even if she was half asleep, she could still tell that the voice on the phone was Cheng Jinyan's.

Cheng Jinyan laughed. "Yes, you may continue to sleep." Then he hung up the phone.

Jiang Yao was so angry that she could not even be bothered to call him back to scold him. She threw the phone back, turned around, and continued to sleep.

Cheng Jinyan, who was in the airport, smiled brightly. A half-asleep Jiang Yao had answered his younger brother's phone. Did that mean the two people spent time together the previous night?

Had the two siblings' relationship improved?

The previous night, Jiang Yao asked him to bring Cheng Jinnian home as soon as possible. He did not expect the two siblings to have reconciled in the morning.

Lu Xingzhi might kill Cheng Jinnian if he knew that the boy had spent the night sleeping beside Jiang Yao.

After a while, Jiang Yao woke up naturally. When she opened her eyes, the sun was already shining into the room. It was already ten o'clock when she saw the sun.

"Sister, you're awake?"

Sensing movement on the bed, Cheng Jinnian immediately ran to the head of the bed. His dark eyes met Jiang Yao's eyes as he put his hands on the bed.

"Why are you in my room so early in the morning?"

After Jiang Yao asked that, she realized that she was in Cheng Jinnian's room. She left Cheng Jinnian in her room the previous night.

Since Cheng Jinnian blinked his eyes and did not expose her sleepiness, Jiang Yao asked again, "Is your stomach feeling better? Is it still uncomfortable? "

“It’s not uncomfortable anymore! Auntie Lu cooked porridge for me this morning.” Cheng Jinnian shook his head. “Sister, your medical skills are great!”

Jiang Yao grunted and got off the bed. She put on her slippers and left the room. It was Saturday, so Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu were at home. Jiang Yao rubbed her eyes and went back to her room. Mrs. Lu, who was downstairs, heard the noise and looked up. She did not notice anything else, but she did see the two drooping rabbit ears on Jiang Yao’s pajamas. Mrs. Lu burst out laughing.

“Yaoyao, are you wearing the new pajamas?” Mrs. Lu asked from downstairs.

Jiang Yao stopped and turned around to smile at Mrs. Lu. She subconsciously raised her hand to touch the two rabbit ears on her head and said, “Xingzhi bought them. They’re so childish. Men’s taste is so primitive!”

Then, Jiang Yao went back to her room eagerly. After washing up, she quickly changed out of her pajamas, put on comfortable clothes, and went downstairs. When she stood in the living room, Jiang Yao suddenly realized something was wrong!

She thought that the person sitting on the sofa with his legs crossed and reading the newspaper upstairs was Mr. Lu, so she did not say anything about it. When she came down, she realized that it was not Mr. Lu.

When she got closer and saw the person clearly, Jiang Yao was speechless. “Cheng Jinyan, why are you at my house? Don’t tell me you’re here for a meal? “

“How can you talk like that?”

Mrs. Lu patted Jiang Yao’s head. “He’s here to pick up Cheng Jinnian.”

Jiang Yao was skeptical about it... “Seriously? Mom, did he bring his suitcase when he came?”
