

Chapter 1591: Level Up

“It should not be that fast.” Jiang Yao trusted Mr. Liang’s ability. Mr. Liang had secretly transferred Ah Da to the Jindo City prison before she reminded him of that. When Mr. Liang took the two men, he also took their cell phones. He probably wanted to stabilize Master Zhu and Master Sen in YN. If he could buy some time, he would certainly do that.

After chatting with Big Ke for a while, Jiang Yao looked at the time and saw that it had been half an hour since she was there. So she went home. When she went out empty-handed, and when she was back, she had something in her hand. When Mrs. Lu saw it, she thought she had gone to the small pharmacy in town to get some medicine. Mrs. Lu did not ask Jiang Yao why she had that. She just told Jiang Yao that she was going out to buy vegetables. She carried a basket and left the house happily with Mr. Lu.

When Jiang Yao returned to her room, she went straight into the medical system to make medicine for Old Madam Liang. While Jiang Yao was busy in the laboratory, the System Admin helped her out. After Jiang Yao was done with her work, the System Admin looked at Jiang Yao excitedly and said, “Master, you look much better than when you came in last time!”

Jiang Yao did not know whether to laugh or cry. “You would recover too if you drink nutritious broth every two to three days. Why don’t we have anything to help me recover faster?”

“If there really is such a thing in the world, then why do we need doctors? The System Admin’s expression revealed a hint of disdain. It was as if he was displeased that Jiang Yao would say such nonsense.

When he met Jiang Yao’s gaze, the System Admin quickly bared his teeth and smiled. He started talking about another topic.

“Master, do you feel a change in your ability?”

The System Admin’s tone suddenly became a little excited. “Your favorability has been increasing non-stop recently; the medical system has also automatically upgraded. Your eyesight and hearing abilities have doubled. Now, you can also check out the higher-level library and try to perform higher-level surgeries.”

“Higher-level surgeries?”

Jiang Yao’s interest was immediately piqued. She immediately tried to open the library, and sure enough, she saw that the library had opened a new level.

That new level was filled with more files. The contents of the files were all about the theories and methods of successful treatment of complicated diseases that were difficult to treat. Jiang Yao was amazed by what she saw.

“So it’s not unreasonable for people in your galaxy to live long lives.” Jiang Yao knew that if a person’s finger was broken, surgery could fix that in a short period. If the surgery was successful enough, it might not affect their daily activities.

However, before she saw that file, she did not dare imagine cell activation and regeneration technology. There was a case on file. The case mentioned a person who got into a car accident when he was young, and his leg was broken. That person had frozen his broken leg and stored it in a tube. After a few years, the technology matured, and that person had successfully used the technology to fix his leg. After the reattachment surgery, his leg was no different from an ordinary person's. He could run, jump, and even become a professional athlete. It was even more surprising than the artificial leg that Jiang Yao had seen in the medical system.

At that stage, no one would even think of such a thing...

Chapter 1592: Four Kilometers

After Jiang Yao came out of the medical system, her first thought was that she would never use cell activation and regeneration technology unless they were absolutely necessary.

She had only used the neurotoxin once, and it had attracted a group of enemies. If she used that technology, would the whole world stare at her?

A person with a broken leg would not die. If it were not someone close to her or someone she trusted, she would definitely not use that technology.

She wanted to use the medical system to save more people, but she also wanted to protect herself.

However, the System Admin also told her a piece of good news. Her vision and hearing abilities had doubled. Previously, she could only see and hear people and voices within a two-kilometer radius. At that moment, she could see and hear people and voices within a four-kilometer radius.

That made Jiang Yao a little excited. If she had had that ability when she was searching the mountains back then, she would have been able to find the person she was looking for in half the time.

Jiang Yao could not wait to go to the balcony and test her ability. Her field of vision instantly expanded by two times. As long as she wanted to, she could hear whatever those people were whispering about. There were no secrets within four kilometers of Jiang Yao.

She saw Mr. Lu carrying a basket and following Mrs. Lu in the market. Mrs. Lu was trying hard to bargain with the vegetable farmers. She could hear people at the market entrance saying that Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu were so close that it was enviable. She was already so old, but she still needed his company when she went out to buy vegetables.

She also saw her Second Uncle Lu driving into the area that she could see. She saw the relaxed and happy expression on the man's face. She could also see a plastic box in the trunk of his car. The plastic box had the logo of air transport on it. She could even see a huge Australian lobster in the box.

It was a good feeling to be able to see through everything. It was as if that world had no secrets for her. It was as if she controlled that world. It gave her a strong sense of security.

Second Uncle Lu arrived earlier than Mr. and Mrs. Lu. When he entered the door, he carried the plastic box with a happy expression.

“Jiang Yao, quickly put this in your refrigerator. There is a lobster about the same size as last time.” Second Uncle Lu dragged his thin coat when he entered the door. “My friend is a good person. He was not angry when I said that I couldn’t cooperate with him for the time being. He even gave me those two lobsters. He said he would treat that matter as if he were a good friend of mine. Initially, I was too embarrassed to accept these two lobsters, but he insisted on giving them to me. He said that if I did not accept them, he would not be willing to befriend me.”

“It seems like that person has good taste and cherishes you as a friend.” Jiang Yao knocked on the box. “There are two lobsters inside?”

Jiang Yao only saw one when she looked at it just now.

“There’s only one left. I asked my driver to take the other one home. He has been driving for me for many years. He is honest, dutiful, and hard-working. He doesn’t have many tricks up his sleeve. I quite like him. Anyway, we have only a few people here. We’ve tried it once already anyway, so I gave him the smaller one.”

Second Uncle Lu rolled up his sleeves as he spoke. “I’ve learned from the chef from last time. I’ll cook for you guys at noon today! I heard that you have a guest today... What a coincidence! Let’s give the guest a nice dish at noon!”

Chapter 1593: The Qian Family

Second, Uncle Lu’s culinary skills were not considered good, but he was so excited about cooking that Jiang Yao did not discourage him.

Second Uncle Lu was a younger brother. Before he got married, he had followed his older brother around. Of course, he said that he would take care of his older brother.

He got married, but his wife had passed away very early. However, the two families were close, so Second Uncle Lu would bring Xiaoxiao to eat with his brother and sister-in-law.

Later, Second Uncle Lu went into business and did not even have time to eat, let alone cook. Therefore, Jiang Yao felt that Second Uncle Lu’s cooking skills were still a little unnerving. She hoped that he had learned enough to give her a surprise.

It was too early to boil the lobster, which would emphasize its fresh and tender taste. So, Second Uncle Lu did not start cooking the lobster right away. Instead, he prepared the side dishes first.

Jiang Yao watched for a while in the kitchen, and when she heard her phone ring in the living room, she ran out to pick it up. It was Liang Yueze.

In less than half an hour, Liang Yueze had interrogated the person behind the medication change.

“The servant admitted that she took money from Qian Zhibin to change the drug.” Liang Yueze felt that Qian Zhibin was too brave to do that in the Liang family. “The fake medicine was filled with powdered sugar mixed with coloring. When the servant got it, she was worried that Qian Zhibin would make her kill people, so before changing the medicine, she fed a few capsules to three stray cats. When she saw that the stray cats were fine, she was relieved and changed the medicine.”

Others might think that although the servant was greedy, she was not stupid enough to kill people.

However, Jiang Yao did not think so.

That servant had changed the medicine used to treat Madam Liang's high blood pressure. Old Madam Liang had not taken other medicine and ingested powdered sugar without her knowledge. Older people should eat less sugar as sugar was high in calories. That was something that Old Madam Liang should not have eaten.

That was probably why Old Madam Liang suddenly had high blood pressure and was sent to the hospital.

Fortunately, they managed to catch it in time before she had a major attack. It would eventually become a slow murder case if they had not discovered it in time.

"What is the reason for Qian Zhibin's doing that?" Jiang Yao knew of Qian Zhibin. She had never seen Qian Zhibin in person, but he often appeared on the radio and newspapers in Jindo City. There was only one person with power in Jindo City. Previously, she had read about him in the newspapers. Qian Zhibin was also the descendant of a soldier.

Qian Zhibin was about the same age as Mr. Liang. His authority was higher than Liang Yueze's eldest brother, Liang Yuekai, but he did not belong to the same unit as Liang Yuekai. He also did not have any conflict with the Liang family. For so many years, the Qian and Liang families had always been at peace.

"It's because of Old General Qian." Liang Yueze found out about that.

"Some time ago, Old General Qian was sick and hospitalized. That incident had a significant impact on the radio and newspapers. Our families are not close, but my grandfather did go to the hospital to visit him. He did not pay too much attention to Old General Qian's illness, so we don't know why he was hospitalized.

The radio and newspapers did not mention it, but I know now. Old General Qian was hospitalized due to his high blood pressure. Perhaps Qian Zhibin had caused that..."

Chapter 1594: It's Him

"Is he sick? Why didn't he just ask you where it was prescribed if he wanted medicine? Why did he go through so much trouble to change the medicine?" Jiang Yao could not figure that out.

"Do you still remember what happened in Yuan City?" Liang Yueze asked when he heard Jiang Yao's calm tone.

"Yuan City? The Chai family?" Jiang Yao was stunned for a second before she reacted. "Are they related to the Qian family? Madam Chai couldn't have had an illegitimate child with Qian Zhibin, right?"

Liang Yueze gave Jiang Yao a clear answer. "It's him. He must have known about the conflict between you and the Chai family in Yuan City, so he must have known that you are the Divine Doctor's student. He must have also found out that you were the one who prescribed Grandma's medicine. He probably thought that you wouldn't give that medicine to him after what happened in Yuan City."

Jiang Yao wanted to curse, but she forced herself to endure it in the end.

“Did Qian Zhibin hide the Chai family’s matter from his family and only admit his father to the hospital because of his high blood pressure? He is really a dutiful son. His heart ached for his father’s high blood pressure, so he wanted the medicine that I made for Grandma Liang. A selfish person indeed! Qian Zhibin only cares about his own father; he does not care about other people’s mothers.”

He even wanted to steal medicine from the Liang family.

Jiang Yao’s mind suddenly had a flash of inspiration, and she shook her head violently.

She said, “That’s not right! Xingzhi didn’t tell me that the Qian family was behind the Chai family, but he did tell me that Madam Chai was killed in prison by her lover. Xingzhi said that the man behind Chai was extremely selfish and ruthless. How could such a man take the risk of offending the Liang family just because of his father?”

That did not make sense. Lu Xingzhi had said that the man behind Chief Chai was so ruthless that he could even kill his own son.

“If Qian Zhibin dares to offend your family, he wouldn’t have let Yuan City fall into Xingzhi’s hands without doing anything back then. He still had some misgivings about you guys. He wouldn’t have taken that risk if he didn’t have enough benefits to drive him. Because he definitely knew that if the Liang family found out that he ordered the servant to change the medicine, the Liang family wouldn’t let him off. So, there must be a lot of benefits for him to take that risk. It is not because of filial piety.” Jiang Yao was sure about that.

“Most of the power and connections in the Qian family are still in Old General Qian’s hands. As long as he is still alive, he will have one more day of power and connections. Maybe Qian Zhibin is afraid that Old General Qian will get sick at this time.” Liang Yueze could only guess.

Jiang Yao shook her head and said, “It’s still wrong. We need to continue investigating the matter. Don’t act rashly. For the time being, pretend that you don’t know about the change in medicine. Don’t let others see any clues. You also need to hide the fact that Grandma Liang is with me now. “

After hanging up the call, the first thing that came to Jiang Yao’s mind was Du Chen.

Du Chen had his own sources of information, so it might be helpful to ask him to investigate Qian Zhibin.

Jiang Yao took out her phone and gave Du Chen a call.

Du Chen’s warm voice almost blew Jiang Yao away. He might have sounded friendly, but he was just faking it...

Chapter 1595: That Makes Sense

“Director Jiang, I’m amazed to get your call.” Du Chen sounded shocked.

“I’ve been busy lately, so I’m surprised that I’m calling you too,” Jiang Yao said mockingly.

Then, she said, "I don't have much time, and things are a little urgent. So, I won't talk nonsense with you. I'll get straight to the point."

"Sure, there's no need for us to pretend. I also like to be direct," Du Chen replied.

"Help me investigate Qian Zhibin. I want to know what he's been doing recently and who he's been in contact with," Jiang Yao said.

"What a coincidence."

Du Chen smiled lightly. "I can give you an answer to that question right away. Recently, Qian Zhibin has been in secret contact with a research institute in M Country. Qian Zhibin sent a drug to that research institute and asked the research institute to help break down the components. He has also recently been in contact with several pharmaceutical companies in the country. It seems like he is trying to buy one of the companies. As far as I know, he should be collaborating with the research institute to develop a drug and then preparing to borrow a shell company in the country to buy that company to produce that drug for the market."

After Du Chen said that, he sighed. "No one can escape death. Hospitals have always been a very profitable industry. Similarly, pharmaceutical companies have always been a thriving industry. Qian Zhibin probably took a fancy to that industry to make money."

Jiang Yao suddenly became enlightened and said, "That makes sense. I understand now. Thank you. And by the way, I'm in my hometown. You can come to the county town to find me whenever you want to heal your leg. I'll perform the surgery on you whenever you arrive."

Jiang Yao had promised to perform the surgery on Du Chen, but she had been so delayed by all kinds of things that she had not fulfilled her promise. Instead, Du Chen helped her time and time again.

"Okay." Du Chen agreed without any hesitation.

Jiang Yao put her phone on the rattan chair by her side and leaned on the marble railing of the balcony, thinking about something.

Qian Zhibin did not change the medicine for his father but for producing the medicine. Jiang Yao felt that it made sense. That was more similar to his characteristics.

That medicine was a miracle drug for patients with high blood pressure. If Qian Zhibin and the research institute collaborated to break down the ingredients and make it themselves, then mass-market it, Jiang Yao could not even imagine how much profit it would bring.

Therefore, only money was enough reason for Qian Zhibin to take the risk of stealing the drug.

However, the research institute had not been successful, so Qian Zhibin had to ask the servant to change the drug many times.

Jiang Yao smiled. It would be a miracle if the research institute in M Country could develop the drug that she prepared from the system space.

Qian Zhibin wanted to make a lot of money with the drug. What would happen to Qian Zhibin if Changkang Pharma announced that they had developed the drug and put it into production for sale?

He would probably be so angry that his nose would go crooked.

He must have paid a lot of money to cooperate with the research institute to develop that medicine. She was still looking forward to seeing him fail miserably.

However, Qian Zhibin's incident had also alarmed Jiang Yao. It made her understand that many people had begun to pay attention to her existence as the Divine Doctor's student. More people had also started to pay attention to the Divine Doctor's movements...

Chapter 1596: Feeling Sorry For The Kitchen Knife

A neurotoxin had attracted some negative attention from YN.

A drug to treat high blood pressure had also attracted Qian Zhibin, a ruthless person.

Her life in her hometown was not peaceful at all.

When she lived a somewhat isolated life in Shu City, many people had moved so close to her, and when she did not know, they had their eyes on her.

Jiang Yao leaned on the marble table and looked up at the sky with a sense of relief. Did those who wanted to scheme against her think that she was so weak that others could control her easily?

One wanted to snatch her things openly, and the other tried to steal her things.

Those people were jokers.

Jiang Yao went downstairs when she heard Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu returning home after buying some vegetables. The two of them purchased so many that the refrigerator was full.

When Jiang Yao walked in with her slippers clacking, second uncle Lu happened to take out the box of lobsters from the refrigerator to make room for other dishes.

Jiang Yao was bored, so when she noticed Second Uncle Lu opened the box, she went over to take a look. There were a lot of broken ice cubes in the box. Even after such a long time, the lobster was still well preserved at a cool temperature.

Jiang Yao had just eaten lobster the previous day, so she had lost most of her interest in it. When Second Uncle Lu started to handle the lobster, she watched from the side as if she was watching a show. Seeing Second Uncle Lu chopping with the kitchen knife in a disorderly manner, it was a little hard for her to hold back her laughter.

"I feel sorry for our kitchen knife." Mr. Lu shook his head. "I also feel sorry for the chopping board."

"Why don't you feel sorry for me?" Second, Uncle Lu wiped the sweat off his forehead. "The chef could cut it very easily. Why is it so difficult for me?"

Jiang Yao and Mrs. Lu looked at each other. They smiled bitterly and left the kitchen.

For the whole morning, Jiang Yao did not have time to talk to Mrs. Lu. Since she had time, Jiang Yao asked, "Mom, are your knees better this morning? It will rain in a few days. I'll help you do some acupuncture at night. You can soak your feet again. It should feel much better in a few days."

"Actually, last night—" Mrs. Lu's words were interrupted when the phone in Second Uncle Lu's jacket rang. Mrs. Lu listened to the clanging sounds in the kitchen, then walked over to the kitchen and shouted, "Haixing, your phone is ringing."

"Can you get that? The phone is in my coat pocket. Answer it and see who is calling me. Don't they know that I'm resting today?" Second Uncle Lu complained. He was venting his anger for not cooking the lobster perfectly on the person who was calling him.

Mrs. Lu smiled. She went back to the sofa and picked Second Uncle Lu's phone. As Jiang Yao was sitting next to Mrs. Lu, she could see the change in Mrs. Lu's expression even if she did not listen carefully to what the person on the phone was saying.

After Mrs. Lu listened for about a minute, she ran back to the kitchen and said, "Stop! The call is from your driver. He sold the lobster you gave him to a relative who owns a restaurant. That relative prepared the lobster 20 minutes ago and brought it to the guests. Ten minutes ago, all the guests were sent to the hospital. Their lips were blue, and they were foaming at the mouth. Police officers have locked down the restaurant. They have also taken the leftover food, including the lobster, for testing..."

Chapter 1597: Keep It As Evidence

Second Uncle Lu was so frightened that he hurriedly threw a small piece of lobster in his hand. He shouted, "What? Is the lobster poisonous? We just ate it yesterday, and it was still fine. Is it because of its gender? Maybe the male is poisonous, and the female is not poisonous?"

Jiang Yao was also startled. She quickly walked toward the kitchen and said, "The lobster is not poisonous. Furthermore, didn't the guests at that table eat something else too? Perhaps they got food poisoning from something else. Since the police have already taken the food to be tested, they should have the results very soon."

Jiang Yao took the phone from Mrs. Lu and spoke to Second Uncle Lu's driver in a steady voice, "Contact the police. Once the test result is out, immediately inform us. We don't need to go to the hospital for the time being. You don't have to be nervous. Perhaps those guests ate something else and got food poisoning."

The driver sighed in relief when he heard that. "I think so too. Yesterday, Boss ate such a big lobster, and he was fine. The owner of the restaurant probably wanted to shirk responsibility. As soon as something happened, he insisted that I was the one who sold him the lobster. He said that his restaurant had never encountered such a thing in so many years. Today, I sold him the lobster, and something happened, so he said that the lobster was poisonous."

"Don't pay attention to him until the results are out. If the police come looking for you, you can say whatever you want. Remember, you don't have to panic. First of all, that lobster was given to you by your boss. Second of all, that lobster was given to him by another person. Even if there is something wrong with the lobster, it is not your fault. If the police ask you something, but you hide the information, then they will only suspect you even more. We are not guilty. We just need to know what to say."

After hearing Jiang Yao's words, the driver regained his composure. "I understand. But just in case, let's ask Boss not to eat the lobster first. We'll talk about it after the results are out. It's better to be safe than sorry."

There was no need for the driver to tell Jiang Yao that. After hanging up the phone, Jiang Yao saw Second Uncle Lu was already washing his hands and preparing to throw the lobster away. She quickly stopped him.

"Second Uncle, don't throw it. If that lobster is poisonous, you have to keep it as evidence. Wouldn't it be wasteful to throw it away if it's not poisonous? Let me take a look." Jiang Yao walked toward him.

Moe followed Jiang Yao into the kitchen and jumped onto the cooking table. Jiang Yao used the wooden chopsticks to open the lobster's pincers to take a look. Moe took a sniff at the lobster's belly.

Before Jiang Yao noticed anything, Moe suddenly stepped back and pulled Jiang Yao's finger to point at the place where he had sniffed. "There seems to be a smell that doesn't belong to the lobster. The scent isn't strong, and I can't even smell it if I'm not so close. The lobster's smell almost covers it."

Jiang Yao frowned and tapped the chopsticks on the pincers. She called out to Second Uncle Lu and Mr. Lu and said, "Dad, Second Uncle, don't you think this looks like a needle mark?"

Then, Jiang Yao took a shell from the side and searched through it. Sure enough, she found two tiny needle holes in it.

"What do you mean?"

Mrs. Lu walked in quickly. "Someone is trying to harm your uncle?"

"There might really be something wrong with the lobster. Those needle marks shouldn't appear on the lobster's shell." Jiang Yao took Moe off the cooking table and said, "It's a pity that I don't have any equipment on hand right now. Otherwise, I could dissect it and see what's wrong with the lobster.."

Chapter 1598: Call The Police

Jiang Yao looked at Second Uncle Lu and said, "Second Uncle, do you still remember what I said just now? I said the lobster is not poisonous. If someone eats that lobster and becomes poisoned, then it means that the lobster has become poisonous. There is only one reason why a non-poisonous food would suddenly become poisonous, and that is because someone has injected poison into it. The needle hole found on the lobster's body is where they injected the poison."

"That lobster was given to you by the person you wanted to work with. Did he do it?" Mr. Lu was so scared that he quickly pulled Jiang Yao aside. "Keep a distance from that thing. We still don't know what's going on."

Jiang Yao said, "Dad, there's no need for guesses. It has to be him. Australia's air transport requires border inspection. Lobster with needle marks on its body won't be able to make it across the border and into Second Uncle's friend's hands. So if there's a problem with the lobster, then his friend must be involved!"

“Then what should we do now?” Second Uncle Lu was also panicking. Even though he had been traveling among businessmen for many years and had earned everything he had, he had never felt as terrible as he did that day.

“If he really wanted to harm me, then I must have been really blind. I thought he was a good person and that he was sincere in being my friend.” Second Uncle Lu could not help but feel a chill down his spine when he thought of the people who were ready to take his life behind his back while calling him brother.

Second Uncle Lu had wanted to ask his eldest brother and sister-in-law for their opinion. That was the first time he had encountered such a thing. However, Mr. and Mrs. Lu were even more flustered; the two of them did not know what to do at that moment.

Jiang Yao said, “Call the police. Second Uncle, you should call the police and say that you suspected someone wanted to poison you. After you received the driver’s call, you looked carefully at the lobster and found something similar to a needle hole on the lobster shell.”

Second Uncle Lu was dumbfounded. “What? Didn’t someone eat and then be sent to the hospital for emergency treatment? It’s a matter of life and death. If I call the police, won’t they arrest me?”

Second Uncle Lu thought that he had to run.

“The lobster was given to you by someone else, and you gave it to your driver. It had nothing to do with you. Furthermore, if you took the initiative to call the police, you would become a victim. The police had to handle your case and investigate the case. Whether those two matters were investigated separately or together, the one who had to run is not you but the person who gave you the lobster.”

Jiang Yao handed the phone to Second Uncle Lu and said, “This kind of thing should be done sooner rather than later, lest that person gets wind of it and runs away first. Second Uncle, you should immediately call the police and inform them of the identity and address of the person who gave you the lobster. Let the police arrest that person first. As for the rest of the matter, we will eventually find something as long as we catch the person and investigate it slowly.”

“Yaoyao’s words make sense. We are also victims, so calling the police is the correct thing.” Mr. Lu snapped back to his senses and nodded in agreement with Jiang Yao’s words. “Yaoyao’s analysis is correct. Listen to Yaoyao. Call the police.”

“Second Uncle, call the police. The incident happened in our county. Didn’t you say that the person who gave you the lobster was a foreign businessman? He can’t get away. Your network is incomparable in this city and county. You can’t admit defeat in your own territory..” Jiang Yao smiled and said, “There is nothing to worry about when we’re in our own territory.”

Chapter 1599: Don’t Know His Intentions

Second Uncle Lu suddenly came to a realization and laughed embarrassedly, “Yes, I was scared silly. This is our own place. Why should I be scared? If I want to be scared, I’ll be the one who hurts others!”

Second Uncle Lu was shocked by the incident and did not react for a moment. After Jiang Yao reminded him, he felt that his idea of running away was too ridiculous.

Who in the city had better connections than him?

Second Uncle Lu chose to call the police in a special way. He did not call the police station but the police chief to tell him about his side of the story.

As long as people had enough money, sometimes they could still get the corresponding special treatment.

A police car came to the Lu family shortly after Second Uncle Lu called the police. A county police squad leader emerged from the vehicle. The squad leader brought people to take the lobster on the Lu family's kitchen counter as evidence.

"Fortunately, you haven't eaten yet." After the squad leader entered the house, he chatted with Second Uncle Lu before he told him about the situation at the hospital. "Before I came here, I was at the hospital. I heard from the doctors that, for the time being, we still can't find out what kind of poison the person was suffering from. They can only treat him with ordinary medicine for food poisoning first. The hospital has already contacted the hospitals and experts in the province. They want the provinces' hospitals to send experts to assist them or transfer those patients to the provincial hospital."

"How many people were poisoned?" Jiang Yao asked.

"A table of 12 guests was sent to the hospital. Those who ate more were still in surgery. Those who ate less were in better condition. Then again, some ate a little but did not have much reaction. The other team has already gone to the city to look for that person. Once they find him, they will bring him back to the county bureau to be investigated."

Then, the squad leader took statements from the Lu family. He told Second Uncle Lu that he would inform him as soon as the results came out and then leave with his men.

As a result, the Lu family elders were not in the mood to eat. When they remembered that they had guests at home, Mrs. Lu had no choice but to cook. At least she could prepare some lunch to entertain the guests at home.

After Second Uncle Lu saw the squad leader off, he called the police chief and talked for a long time before sitting back on the sofa. After thinking for a while, Second Uncle Lu asked again, "Is it possible that the person who sent my friend the Australian lobster wanted to harm him? That person did not know that he would give me the lobster; he thought that my friend would eat it."

Then Second Uncle Lu kept quiet when he saw Mr. Lu's gaze. "Forget it. I'm the one who doesn't know how to judge a person well. I don't understand this nonsense! He's just a poisonous scorpion! But I just can't figure out what's in it for him to poison me to death."

Mr. Lu said, "Maybe he hates you for snatching the land that he wanted, so he pretended to befriend you to look for an opportunity to harm you. We don't know his intention. Who knows what was in his mind?"

Jiang Yao sat on the sofa without making a sound. Those who did not know would have thought she was sitting there with her eyes closed to rest. However, Moe was lying by her feet, and he knew that Jiang Yao had entered the medical system.

Jiang Yao scanned the lobster and went to the system lab. She took advantage of the opportunity and went to the laboratory to perform a dissection.

The equipment in the lab was more advanced than any other place outside. Therefore, Jiang Yao only busied herself for a few minutes before she got the results...

Chapter 1600: He Didn't Run Away

The lobster was injected with a plant toxin. The toxin was extracted from a type of flower called poppy. Those flowers were commonly seen in the border area between Province Yun and YN. It was also possible to see farmers planting them in large areas in small countries like MD Country. However, it was prohibited to plant poppies privately in the country. Even if pharmacists wanted to grow it for medical purposes, they had to apply and go through strict checks and approvals.

The flower was poisonous in all its beads. Its roots, stems, and seeds were highly poisonous. However, more traders extracted the poppy's poison for profit rather than medical purposes.

In particular, the poppies in MD Country were used by many farmers and traders as a tool to make money. They used the poppies to process and produce poison. That poison did not kill people immediately, but it could make people addicted to them. Then, it would gradually take away people's health and lives in the long years of addiction.

In addition to the poppies, two other poisons were found in lobsters. One came from the more common jimsonweed, and another came from an animal.

Those three poisons were injected into lobsters. Usually, people would only cook lobsters for three to five minutes before eating them. Some people even liked the half-cooked lobster meat. The high temperature was not enough to make the toxins lose their effect.

Jiang Yao wondered how many people who ate those lobsters and were sent to the hospital had a chance of survival.

More importantly, the medical standards of the county hospital were limited. Those doctors only thought it was food poisoning. They might not be able to find the source of the poison in a short time. If they could not find the source, they could not prescribe the right medicine.

Jiang Yao came out of the medical system and looked at Second Uncle Lu, who was on the phone with someone. She only heard Second Uncle Lu speak excitedly.

Jiang Yao did not eavesdrop. Instead, she waited for his call to finish before she asked, "What's the situation?"

"My—" Second Uncle Lu almost said his friend again, but he changed his words when he was about to say it. "Pan Peng, that son of a b*tch, has been caught. The city police assisted the county police in arresting him. When the police arrived at his house, he did not even resist. He asked the police if I had died from the poison. Then the police arrested him and are now on the way back to our county police station."

“By the looks of it, he was waiting at home for you to be poisoned to death, right? How much does he hate you?” Mr. Lu was also furious. “How can there be such a vicious person in this world? He wants to kill people at any time. Is he still human?”

“The police said he did not run away? He did not resist? When he saw the police, he asked if you were poisoned to death?” Jiang Yao was also speechless. “How much does he want you to die? He even risked his own life. Second Uncle, you didn’t steal his wife, did you?”

People said that men would only hate those who stole their wife or killed their child.

Second Uncle Lu did not kill anyone, so he could only have provoked the other man to hate him so much because he had stolen his wife.

“Steal what? Am I that kind of person?” Second Uncle Lu spat. “I don’t plan to find a stepmother for Xiaoxiao. Why would I provoke a woman? I’m a gentleman. I’m afraid that if I accidentally get involved with a woman that I can’t get rid of, they’ll be Xiaoxiao’s stepmother. Then, they might bully my daughter.”

Jiang Yao was only joking; she felt like it was all nonsense. Second Uncle Lu was not that kind of person...