

Chapter 1601: Intention

“It’s useless to think about that now. After we send him back to the county, we can ask him in person. Otherwise, we can wait for the police to interrogate him, and we can wait for the results.” Mr. Lu heaved a sigh of relief and said, “It’s fine as long as that person confessed. If he confessed, then there wouldn’t be much for you to worry about. “

Mr. Lu was worried that the person would say that he did not know anything, and then he would have to spend a great deal of effort to investigate that matter and drag out all the people who had contact with the lobsters and interrogate them one by one. There was no need to make people nervous, and there was no need to accuse others in this manner falsely.

“It’s rare to see people commit a crime and then wait at home for the police to arrest them. It’s even rarer to see people confess without the police beating them up.” Mrs. Lu felt that Second Uncle Lu’s fake friend was puzzling.

Perhaps he was afraid that he would be angry when he went to the county town, so Second Uncle Lu did not leave the Lu family home. Instead, he chose to wait at home for the news.

Old Madam Liang and Xiao Ya slept until eleven o’clock before they woke up and went downstairs. Xiao Ya supported old Madam Liang as she sniffed in the direction of the kitchen and sighed at the delicious fragrance.

Mrs. Lu, who had been in a bad mood because of the lobster incident, was much better after Second Uncle Lu was not implicated in the matter. Therefore, when she was cooking in the kitchen, she was happy. When she saw Xiao Ya, Mrs. Lu smiled and said, “Try the food later and see if you like it. If there’s anything that doesn’t suit your appetite, you must tell me.”

Xiao Ya nodded with a grin. “It will definitely suit my appetite if it smells good. I’m just afraid that I’ll finish your rice, Auntie. If the dishes are delicious, I will just eat an extra serving of rice. Furthermore, I can really eat!”

“Mom, Xiao Ya is lying.” Jiang Yao smiled. “I heard from Zhou Weiqi that you once ate five bowls of rice when you went to his place for a meal. You ate all of his portions by yourself.”

“He was so stingy! He refused to treat me to a meal after that.” Xiao Ya curled her lips and said, “I’m still growing up, and it’s so hard for me to study. Naturally, I have to eat more. If he can’t even give me more rice, won’t I be overwhelmed by my studies?”

The six of them sat at the dining table and ate happily. Xiao Ya was a talkative person, and her personality was very similar to Xiao Xiao’s. She was great at making the elderly happy. Second Uncle Lu saw Xiao Ya as if she was his own daughter. If Xiao Ya and Xiaoxiao were together, there would definitely be endless things to talk about.

“I met Sister Xiaoxiao on the way to Jindo City once. She was with Jiang Yao’s second brother. Sister Xiaoxiao scolded Jiang Lei for following her. Jiang Lei said that she was overbearing and wouldn’t let him walk on the same road as she was on. Listening to the two of them arguing made me nearly laugh to my death!”

If she had not bumped into Lu Xiaoxiao and Jiang Lei, Xiao Ya would not know that there were adults in the world who could quarrel to such a childish extent.

The two of them argued on the street until Lu Xiaoxiao said she wanted to complain to her sister-in-law. Jiang Lei said he wanted to complain to Second Uncle Lu, and then the two of them glared at each other until they almost started fighting on the street.

While everyone was listening to Xiao Ya talking about Lu Xiaoxiao and Jiang Lei, Second Uncle Lu's phone rang. It was the police station, so he picked up the phone while listening to Xiao Ya's words.

"Director Lu, Pan Peng admitted that he injected poison into the lobster in an attempt to poison you to death. According to Pan Peng, the gardener who did that resented you for stealing the land that he took a fancy to in the city. Then, he changed his mind at the last minute and refused to cooperate with him, causing him to lose a lot of money. He said that he had investigated the Lu family and felt that there was no capable person in your family other than you, so he was prepared to poison you to death and then snatch the land from your hands..."

Chapter 1602: That Doesn't Sound Right

After Second uncle Lu heard that, he started cursing on the phone. It was obvious that he was furious with Pan Peng.

Jiang Yao said, "Since Pan Peng has investigated Second Uncle, he should know that Second Uncle has a daughter and an elder brother and sister-in-law. Even if his ability is limited and he can't investigate his influence in the army, if something happens to Second Uncle, then everything belongs to Xiaoxiao. That Pan Peng won't be able to get that piece of land."

"Maybe he thinks that Xiaoxiao is easy to bully?"

Second Uncle Lu did not think that it was a strange situation.

"He sent two lobsters this time. Maybe he knows that your second uncle and I have a good relationship. When your second uncle has something good, he will think of his brother, so he sent two of them to poison us to death. If that's the case, we'll be dead, and Xiaoxiao will be the only one left. He can compel her easily then." Mrs. Lu was so angry that her teeth were chattering.

"There's also Xingzhi and Sister. Perhaps he couldn't investigate anything about Xingzhi's ability as a soldier. But what about Sister? With her and Xingzhi around, did he think he could bully Xiaoxiao? If we were to die, would he remain unscathed? Could he still escape responsibility after we ate the lobsters he sent and died from the poison?"

Jiang Yao continued to say, "In the afternoon, I'll go to the county town to meet Pan Peng. There's a big problem with that person."

Old Madam Liang asked a few more questions before she figured out what she had missed out on while she was sleeping. She was shocked to hear about it.

Old Madam Liang nodded and said, "I think Yaoyao is right. There is a big problem with that person. If he were so ruthless and wanted to poison your family, he wouldn't have done it without making any preparations for his own exoneration. He could even get a scapegoat, but he did not resist at all and allowed himself to be captured."

That was the most illogical point.

"Second Uncle, after dinner, I'll accompany you to the county town." Jiang Yao thought about it and said, "I'll bring someone with me. He's Xingzhi's friend, and he's in town now."

Jiang Yao planned to use that opportunity to arrange for that person to stay by Second Uncle Lu's side to protect him.

Old Madam Liang guessed who Jiang Yao was referring to, so she nodded in agreement. "Soldiers have good analytical skills, especially those who are good at scouting."

Jiang Yao smiled at Old Madam Liang before lowering her head to take out her phone to send a message to Wang Dan, asking the man to arrange for a man to meet them at the Lu family's home entrance.

Lunch did not last long. Jiang Yao was worried about Second Uncle Lu, so she did not have much time to enjoy the meal.

Jiang Yao waited for the man that Wang Dan had arranged to arrive before she left with Second Uncle Lu. Jiang Yao sat in the passenger seat as Second Uncle Lu drove. He kept looking at the man in the back seat with curiosity.

"Are you going to be my assistant? Aren't you overqualified?" Uncle Lu was thinking about Lu Xingzhi's comrade, and he was too embarrassed to order him around.

The young soldier in the backseat smiled at Uncle Lu. "Protecting you doesn't make me feel like I'm overqualified..."

Chapter 1603: You Sent People To Investigate Me?

"But I don't understand why you have to send such a person to protect me," Second Uncle Lu asked Jiang Yao, puzzled.

Jiang Yao smiled and did not explain. She did not plan to tell her family about being targeted by YN so that they would not worry about her.

The town was quite a distance from their home. Second Uncle Lu drove steadily and did not hurry.

Moe was playing a game on Jiang Yao's phone in her pocket. When he was about to pass the level, he was interrupted by an incoming call. He was so angry that he almost swallowed Jiang Yao's phone.

When Jiang Yao heard the ringtone, she smiled and took the phone from Moe's hand. It was Cheng Jinyan, so she picked it up.

Cheng Jinyan went straight to the point. "My father knows about your family matters. Pan Peng's current identity is fake. His name is Pan Peng, but he's not a businessman. The things he told the police were all fake. He's a robber who just got out of prison a few years ago. A huge sum of money suddenly appeared in his bank account about half a month ago. Through the layers of investigation on that money, we finally found one of Master Sen's subordinates."

Cheng Jinyan sounded worried. "Jiang Yao, this might have happened because of you."

"You sent people to investigate me?" Jiang Yao's voice was slightly cold.

Cheng Jinyan quickly explained, "Father left some men to protect you. Because of your mother, your father treated you as part of our family. You don't have to be too angry. Father only told them to pay attention to your concerns and did not allow them to approach you. He was afraid that if no one were there, we would not be able to help you in time if something happened. Father also told me to tell you not to worry too much about Master Sen. He has no reason to bully a member of the Cheng family like that."

Without giving Jiang Yao a chance to say anything else, Cheng Jinyan hung up the phone. However, Jiang Yao's frown deepened because of that phone call.

Master Cheng left someone to protect her? When did that happen?

However, since Big Ke and Ah Lu did not notice it, it should be the same as Cheng Jinyan said. Master Cheng's people did not get close to her, so Big Ke and Ah Lu did not notice it.

Of course, the real reason Jiang Yao frowned was the news Cheng Jinyan had given her.

It was Master Sen again.

Jiang Yao could not understand why Master Sen and Master Zhu arranged for people to monitor her. Why would they attack Second Uncle Lu again?

What was the reason he attacked Second Uncle Lu?

Did he want to poison Uncle Lu or everyone else?

Did Master Sen want to poison the people around her so that she would have no one to rely on?

Master Sen would not be so ignorant and stupid.

What if he poisoned her to death? He would not be able to get the neurotoxin if that happened.

Since she had learned Pan Peng's identity from Cheng Jinnian, Jiang Yao did not want to go to the county town anymore.

She had wanted to go to the county town because she felt that there was something wrong with Pan Peng. She had a vague feeling that he was coming for her, so she prepared to meet that person to test him out.

The things that had happened in the past few days after she returned home made Jiang Yao feel a little astonished.

She had planned to recuperate at home, so she did not expect things to come one after another.

She pondered the situation—it was better to face it sooner than later.

Second Uncle Lu parked his car at the police station entrance and walked in with Jiang Yao and his newly appointed assistant. Once the three of them arrived at the squad leader's room, he brought them to the detention room where they held Pan Peng...

Chapter 1604: Looking For Her

In fact, even without Cheng Jinyan's call, Jiang Yao would have confirmed her suspicions when she saw Pan Peng in the detention room.

She had arrived at the detention room with a few people, but Pan Peng's gaze fell on her through the railing. There was clearly some information in that gaze.

"You're too evil! It's normal for businessmen to compete with each other. If everyone in the world was like you, everyone would be poisoned to death. Wouldn't the world be in chaos?" Second Uncle Lu cursed when he saw him. "Just pray that the people in the hospital are fine, or else you'll get the death sentence."

"If I were afraid of death, I wouldn't do such a thing." Pan Peng could still smile with a relaxed face. Then, he said, "Whether the people in the hospital die or not has nothing to do with me."

"We can't find out what kind of poison he injected into the lobster. The hospital hasn't come up with the test results yet. The fastest is 24 hours, but the patients in the hospital can't wait." The squad leader had a headache.

"It's such a pity. I had wanted to poison you and your elder brother and sister-in-law, and I didn't expect others to suffer for you instead." Pan Peng proudly crossed his legs and curled his lips into a smile. Those who did not know the situation would think he was in a cafe instead of the detention room.

"You want to save those innocent people? Then ask her." Pan Peng pointed his finger at Jiang Yao and said, "She is the Divine Doctor's student. Her teacher can save those that she can't. With so many lives at stake, it should be worth the Divine Doctor's time, right?"

"What Divine Doctor?" Second Uncle Lu and the policeman were dumbfounded.

"It doesn't matter if you don't understand. As long as she understands, it's all good." Pan Peng changed his hand gesture and came to Jiang Yao through the iron railing. "Think about the people in the hospital room. They say that doctors are benevolent. Do you want to call your teacher and ask her to come here to save those people?"

“Miss Jiang, is it true that your teacher can save those victims?” The police officer was a little excited when he heard that someone could save them.

“Her teacher is the Divine Doctor. The Divine Doctor can definitely save them.” Pan Peng confidently answered the police officer’s question on behalf of Jiang Yao. “That poison is not simple.”

It was indeed not a simple poison. Other than the poppy, the other two toxins could also cause massive damage to one’s body.

The medical technology and detection techniques at that point were outdated. It would take a lot of time to detect the poison contained in the lobster. It would be too late to treat the patient when the poison was detected. Even if the toxins did not kill the patient, they would still kill the patient’s healthy body. It would have a terrible after-effect on the patient.

Jiang Yao already knew the composition of the toxins, but she did not know if she could tell them.

Everyone knew that she had returned home to recuperate and was not in any condition to do any experiment. Furthermore, the lobsters had been taken away, and she did not have any samples. If she told them, would those people believe her? What would they think of her if they believed her?

Therefore, at that moment, Jiang Yao also knew Pan Peng’s purpose.

His purpose was to poison the people closest to her in the Lu family, including Jiang Yao. If the hospital were helpless, her teacher would definitely rush back to save her. As long as her teacher hurried back to save her, Master Sen would use that opportunity to investigate the mysterious Divine Doctor’s identity...

Chapter 1605: One Has Dead

When Jiang Yao did not say anything, Pan Peng sat with his legs crossed and laughed evilly. “What? You don’t think it’s worth it to invite your teacher to save a few strangers? That’s right, the Divine Doctor. He’s an extraordinary person. People of high status will be able to get his service. Why would the Divine Doctor, who doesn’t value lives as much as commoners, care about them? It’s just a few rotten lives. What does it have to do with the Divine Doctor whether those people are dead or alive?”

“Are you done? How can a person like you, who poisoned people, have the right to talk about others?” Second Uncle Lu was livid. He did not expect him to be so blind that he would think that the evil people wanted to be friends with him.

Second Uncle Lu felt that he had lived in vain for so many years. He could not even judge a person clearly, which was why he had brought Jiang Yao so much trouble.

He did not know who the Divine Doctor was, but he heard from Pan Peng that the Divine Doctor was a very impressive person, but Jiang Yao was only her student, not her daughter. How could such an impressive person not have any background?

Second Uncle Lu also understood that Jiang Yao’s silence meant that the matter had put her in a difficult position.

The squad leader looked at Jiang Yao. He wanted to say something, but he hesitated. He wanted to persuade Jiang Yao, but at that moment, a person ran into the room in a panic. His voice was full of nervousness as he said, "Captain, news came from the hospital. An elderly patient had died due to ineffective resuscitation. That case has been upgraded to homicide. "

"What about the rest of the people?" the squad leader asked.

"The rest are still being resuscitated. The hospital said some of them had already fallen into a coma. The doctors are not sure how long they can keep the patients in that condition. In short, the hospital has no other choice at the moment. The doctors are having an emergency meeting with Jindo City's hospital specialists. There are also other specialists on the way to the hospital. Some people who had mild symptoms before have started to foam at the mouth and become unconscious with convulsions."

The squad leader turned to look at Jiang Yao and asked, "Miss Jiang, you realize that the situation is urgent now? Can you contact your teacher and ask her to give some useful advice about this case? If possible, can you invite her here?"

The squad leader's eyes were filled with anger. He turned around and glared at the person watching the scene like a bystander. He asked angrily, "What did you put in the lobster?"

"You can put the gun to my head. I still don't know the answer. I really don't know." Pan Peng was not lying about that; he did not buy the thing. He did not ask many questions when he got it, even if he was paid to do something. When he accepted the job, he did not think about surviving. Therefore, no matter how hard they tried to interrogate him, it was useless.

He would not reveal any useful information at all!

The squad leader suppressed his rage and changed the subject. "As long as the number of deaths does not increase, you still have a chance," he said.

Pan Peng did not even raise his eyebrows. He was not moved at all.

Jiang Yao stood there and felt a wave of anger in her heart. Master Sen forced the Divine Doctor to appear, and Pan Peng did not need anyone to plead for him...

Chapter 1606: Explanation

Pan Peng's lung cancer was terminal. Even with medical science, no medicine could cure it. Anyway, when a person was about to die, he did not care whether he died of illness or a death sentence. Master Sen must have given him enough money and promised to protect his family.

"Captain, if you want to save someone, it's useless to talk to me. Didn't I tell you that you can look at the girl next to you if you want to save someone?" After Pan Peng said that, he immediately lay down on the small bed and left his back to the person outside the railing.

When the captain looked at her again, Jiang Yao said, "My teacher is abroad. Usually, she's either in the operating theater or in the laboratory. Most of the time, she's not free. Even if she is free, it will take a long time for her to return to our country when she's abroad."

Jiang Yao thought for a moment and said, "Why don't I go to the hospital to check on the patient's condition and then call my teacher to ask her about it. I'll see what my teacher says. If she has a way to guide me, it might save me more time."

Pan Peng's snickering came from inside the cell. "Some young ladies are really boastful. They've only studied with the Divine Doctor for a short time, and they already think they have half the Divine Doctor's skills? Letting a young girl who's still wet behind the ears handle matters that are of vital importance?"

Second Uncle Lu felt that Pan Peng's words were a little too harsh, but it made a little sense. Jiang Yao was still young, and she had only been in class for half a year. He was afraid that when Jiang Yao went to the hospital, she would be torn apart by the patients' family members.

"Go and try." The squad leader looked at Pan Peng. He could also see Pan Peng's intention with his many years of experience handling cases. His words were meant to agitate Jiang Yao, wanting her to find her teacher.

He did not think Pan Peng's motive was revenge. The squad leader felt that Pan Peng wanted to find the so-called Divine Doctor.

No matter how he thought about it, it was wrong for Pan Peng to put his own life at risk to find a person. Therefore, there was only one possibility—someone behind Pan Peng had instructed him to do so. The person looking for the Divine Doctor must be Pan Peng's boss. Therefore, Pan Peng might not have known about the poison in the lobster.

The squad leader took Jiang Yao, the two men, and a few police officers to the hospital in two cars. He did not expect that the hospital would be crowded with so many people in such a short amount of time, all of whom were the victims' family members. A few reporters from the city's newspapers were there to interview the victims' families.

The family members of the victim who died looked like they wanted to set up a memorial at the hospital's main entrance.

Someone with sharp eyes saw the police car parked a few meters away from the hospital's entrance and suddenly shouted, "The police are here! Let's find the police and demand an explanation!"

Moe was frightened when he saw those aggressive people. He jumped onto Jiang Yao's shoulder and said, "You should go somewhere else. Look at the people outside."

"We're not done with the police and the Lu family! Director Lu's driver sent the lobsters to the restaurant. This is related to the Lu family!" Someone among the family members suddenly shouted, "No one from the Lu family has shown up until now. That group of people in uniform must be protecting the Lu family!"

"I heard from the doctors that our family members can't be saved unless the Divine Doctor comes. The Divine Doctor is Director Lu's niece-in-law's teacher. Director Lu harmed our family members... We must get them to call the Divine Doctor to save our family members!"

Chapter 1607: Disappear From The World

As soon as the two of them finished speaking, the family members at the hospital entrance immediately broke into a commotion. Some asked who the Divine Doctor was, some asked about the relationship between that matter and the Lu family, and some even asked about Director Lu's niece.

Second Uncle Lu said, "I've seen the man and woman who spoke with Pan Peng before. Those two are Pan Peng's assistant and secretary. Pan Peng has been targeting Yaoyao from the start!"

The squad leader spoke to the police officer in the car behind him through the walkie-talkie. He asked them to get out of the vehicle to hold back the people surrounding them. Then, he quickly drove the car out of the hospital and back to the police station.

After the car stopped at the police station, the squad leader did not rush to let Jiang Yao get out of the vehicle. Instead, he turned around and spoke to Jiang Yao, sitting in the back seat. "Pan Peng is here for your teacher. He's already prepared for that. He's locked up in the police station, and some people are stirring up trouble in the hospital. This is not the time for you to appear."

Then, the squad leader thought for a moment before speaking to Jiang Yao. "Keep your phone on and keep in touch with me. I'll change into a set of plain clothes and go to the hospital later. I'll get the doctor to contact you and inform you about the patient's condition. After that, you can contact your teacher and ask if she has any ideas. I still have to investigate Pan Peng and bring those two people back for interrogation."

"Okay, thank you for your trouble, Captain." Second Uncle Lu agreed on behalf of Jiang Yao. As long as Jiang Yao did not rush out at that time to face the victims' families, it would be fine. Nothing was more important than Jiang Yao's safety.

"That is my job." The squad leader shook his head. "I've been working in this county for so long, but I've never encountered such a difficult case. Now, I really feel a little eager to give it a try."

Jiang Yao smiled at the squad leader from the back seat and got out of the car with Second Uncle Lu. Then, they got back in their vehicle and returned to town.

The three of them had just returned to the Lu family when Mr. and Mrs. Lu, along with Old Madam Liang and the others, surrounded them worriedly and asked about the situation at the county. After listening to Second Uncle Lu, the wrinkles on Old Madam Liang's face deepened.

"Do you want to call your Uncle Liang and ask him to help you?" Old Madam Liang asked.

"Not yet."

Old Madam Liang saw that Jiang Yao seemed to have an idea, so she did not ask any more questions.

On the other hand, Second Uncle Lu sat at the side and sighed. "It's all my fault. I caused such trouble for Yaoyao for nothing."

"That has nothing to do with you, Second Uncle. They are gunning for my teacher. Since they couldn't find my teacher, they gunned for me instead. Those people wanted to set a trap for us. Second Uncle, it's useless no matter how careful you are." On the way back, Jiang Yao had thought things through. Her mood became much lighter.

Lu Xingzhi was right. Before she could protect herself, she had to hide well. It was best to conserve energy and avoid problems temporarily.

Jiang Yao thought that Master Sen and Master Zhu were there for the Divine Doctor. Were they trying to force the Divine Doctor out and capture her?

What if she made the Divine Doctor disappear from the world?

Would that work?

Chapter 1608: It's Okay

Even with Jiang Yao's reassurance, Second Uncle Lu still felt that he had let Jiang Yao down. "Those who can eat lobsters are all people with money and connections. That is just the beginning. The real trouble hasn't materialized yet. The real problem will only come after those people have used their connections."

Second, Uncle Lu shook his head and stood up. "I have to go and settle those matters first. Yaoyao, stay at home for the next few days. If there's any news, I'll call you."

"Sorry to trouble you, Second Uncle." Jiang Yao stood up and personally sent Second Uncle Lu off. After he drove off with his new assistant, Jiang Yao stood in the courtyard for a while. Then, she took out her phone and called Liang Yueze.

After a long while, Liang Yueze picked up. There were other sounds on the phone. It sounded like a meeting.

"You are in a meeting? Why don't I call you later?" Jiang Yao asked.

Liang Yueze said, "It's okay. It's not an important meeting."

Jiang Yao only spoke after Liang Yueze said that. "I need help finding someone to write a eulogy. The content is about the Divine Doctor's accidental death. Her only student expressed her condolences and reluctance to accept her death. As soon as possible, please. That eulogy will be published in the Jindo City Morning Post. Maybe tomorrow, or the morning after tomorrow. It will also be published in all the medical magazines in Jindo City as soon as possible. It will be posted nationwide. As long as it is a medical magazine, it will be published there."

Liang Yueze swept his gaze across the people in the meeting room and listened to Jiang Yao's somewhat unbelievable words on the phone. He left those people behind and returned to his office. Only then did he ask, in puzzlement, "Why are you making this arrangement?"

Liang Yueze knew that the Divine Doctor was Jiang Yao. In other words, Jiang Yao was making that arrangement to help the Divine Doctor disappear from the world.

“Someone is targeting the Divine Doctor, trying to set a trap for the people around me to lure the Divine Doctor out. They are watching us day and night. It’s better to make them despair. I already know about Qian Zhibin.” Liang Yueze thought that Jiang Yao sounded strange.

In Liang Yueze’s opinion, Jiang Yao had been plagued with all kinds of troubles. If there were another person like Jiang Yao, would they be able to maintain a smile on their face, just like Jiang Yao?

“Qian Zhibin asked your servant to change the medicine because he wanted to crack the prescription I made. He found a foreign research institute to cooperate with him and secretly planned to buy a pharmaceutical company. After cracking the prescription, he will put the medicine on the market.” That was the information given by Du Chen. Jiang Yao guessed that Du Chen must have been paying attention to the Qian family for some reason, so he could give her the answer as soon as she asked him.

Liang Yueze asked, “How are you going to arrange for the Divine Doctor’s accidental death? Do you need me to do it?”

“Yes, I’ll leave it up to you then.” Jiang Yao quickly followed up, so fast that she was obviously waiting for Liang Yueze’s words.

Liang Yueze also guessed that Jiang Yao was probably waiting for his offer, so he smiled faintly. He thought, ‘Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi are becoming alike in some aspects.’

Jiang Yao and Liang Yueze had spent more than 20 minutes on the details of arranging the Divine Doctor’s death. Master Sen and Master Zhu were looking for the Divine Doctor, so the accident must be arranged flawlessly. She could not let Master Sen and Master Zhu find any flaws, or her identity would be in trouble...

Chapter 1609: Is There Such Thing?

Jiang Yao had just hung up with Liang Yueze when she received a call from the doctor at the hospital. The director even used honorifics with Jiang Yao when he knew that she was the Divine Doctor’s student.

“The patients’ conditions are getting worse. One of them was sent to the resuscitation room just now, but we were helpless then too. We could only help the patient for as long as we could. If the patient is in pain, our doctors are having a hard time too.” After the director complained for a while, he told Jiang Yao the patients’ general symptoms.

Jiang Yao listened very carefully. She could roughly guess the symptoms that the director had mentioned.

The ones who did not have severe symptoms mainly were the young adults. Only the young patients and the older patients reacted remarkably quickly because those people’s immune system was relatively low.

Those who had convulsed and foamed at the mouth must have been affected by the poppy flower. They might have taken a large amount of the poison, and one of them was fatal. It was quite terrifying, indeed.

Jiang Yao really wanted to tell them everything she knew, but she had to be cautious.

“You’ve tried to treat them as food poisoning cases, but that didn’t seem to work. Don’t you think their symptoms were like overdosing on the poppy flower? I’m guessing that the lobster might have been laced with some poppy flowers. The jimsonweed has similar symptoms to the poppy flower. It might even be a mixture of toxins. We’ve heard how criminals seem to favor these two toxins. Some other commonly used ones include animal venom, like spider venom. Maybe you can treat it like that.”

The director was confused. “Is there such a thing?”

“Yes.”

Jiang Yao’s tone was very confident. “There are even some underground research institutes abroad that are researching all kinds of toxins.”

The director said, “Okay, I will immediately report your suggestion to the specialists. I also hope that you can help contact your teacher. It would be best if she could come. I know that your teacher must be very busy, but this is a matter of life and death. So I hope that you can convey our plea to your teacher.”

“I’ve already called my teacher. My teacher said she would book a flight back to China as soon as possible,” Jiang Yao said.

“That’s great!” the director said.

Jiang Yao could hear his excited pounding on the table over the phone. The two of them did not exchange pleasantries. After all, the director was in a hurry to report the matter to the doctors.

After hanging up the phone, Jiang Yao walked back to the house with light steps. She had already said what she needed to say. The director would tell the provincial doctor that she had already contacted the Divine Doctor. The news that the Divine Doctor had already prepared to purchase a plane ticket should reach Master Sen and Master Zhu in YN soon.

Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu felt strange when they saw the joy on Jiang Yao’s face.

Chapter 1610: The Two Reporters

“Then you should quickly go upstairs and rest. You must be so tired this morning because of all the messy things. You’re not even sitting properly. If it were any other time, you would have already woken up from your afternoon nap.” Mrs. Lu was heartbroken. She walked over and patted the back of Jiang Yao’s hand as she led her upstairs.

Jiang Yao returned to her room and took a shower. She had been busy the whole day. Then, she lay back on her soft bed; she felt refreshed.

Spring in the south was a rainy season. The sky, which did not see much of the sun in the morning, had started to drizzle.

In the small town in the south, the rainy air would have a unique smell. The fragrance of the soil and grass mixed was delightful.

Jiang Yao lay down and ate the medicine she had prepared for herself in the medical system. After that, she lay back on her bed and closed her eyes. Then, she spread her attention and checked for any suspicious people within a four-kilometer radius of the Lu family's home.

Jiang Yao was a little puzzled about Pan Peng. Master Zhu and Master Sen had already arranged for two people to monitor her. Why would they put Pan Peng there?

It seemed that Pan Peng did not know about the existence of the other two people, and the other two people did not know about Pan Peng either. Pan Peng's people were not even in the small town.

If Pan Peng was meant to trap her, why did the two people spy on her and go to the Lu family to rummage through her things? It seemed unnecessary.

If Pan Peng was meant to lure the Divine Doctor out, Master Sen and Master Zhu should be able to find the method to make the neurotoxin from the Divine Doctor if they captured him.

There must be a reason for the contradiction since there was a contradiction in the matter.

However, Jiang Yao did not want to know. As long as everyone knew that the Divine Doctor was dead, they would have nothing. She would be at ease in the future.

If anyone asked her about the neurotoxin, she would say that it was given to her by the teacher. She only knew how to use it; she did not know how to make it. After all, she was only a student who had been in university for more than half a year. It was very believable, was it not?

As for the Divine Doctor's identity, she only needed to say that she did not know her teacher's name. If anyone wanted to know, they could go and check it out for themselves.

Capable people always had a big temper and a strange personality. It was normal for them not to tell others their names. Furthermore, she had previously announced that she did not know her teacher's identity or name.

Master Sen and Master Zhu should have found out about that matter. Otherwise, they would not have set up a trap to force the Divine Doctor to show herself. Instead of capturing her and forcing her to ask about the Divine Doctor's identity, they would sneak into the Divine Doctor's life and take her away.

Jiang Yao saw two people on an obscure path. She had also seen the same two people at the hospital entrance. The squad leader said that they were reporters from a newspaper in the city.

Ah Lu put a caterpillar onto their clothes, scaring the two people so much that they cried aloud.

Yes, those two reporters were two young girls.

Jiang Yao burst into laughter. When it came to dealing with people, Big Ke and Ah Lu did not differentiate between men and women.

"What are the two of you doing here? Don't think that we don't know that you're a reporter!" Ah Lu shook the cloth bag in his hand. "If you don't tell us, I'll put some more insects on you!"
