

Chapter 1605

Such a young girl even dared to talk back to her. She must be seeking death!

Jewel shook her head with a determined expression. "Don't you dare hurt Sister Debra so long I'm here!"

Jewel then glared at Megan. "You evil woman who had done so many bad things to Darryl. You framed him by saying he killed Mount Hua Sect Master. A vicious woman like you should die..."

Slap!

Megan quickly walked over and slapped Jewel brutally on the face before she could finish.

"B*tch. How dare you talk to me like that! You have no manners!" Megan coldly said. She felt that a slap was not enough to relieve her anger, so she slapped Jewel a couple more times with one harder than the next!

Slap! Slap! Slap!

The crisp slapping sounds kept ringing!

How could the extremely weak Jewel take it? At that moment, there was blood coming out of her mouth and her legs felt like jelly. However, she kept yelling, "Evil woman! You should die! You should die..."

It was one matter of not saving them, but Megan still wanted to bully Debra. There was no one more vicious than Megan.

Megan was even more furious upon hearing those words and grabbed Jewel's hair before slapping her even more violently.

"Jewel..."

"Megan, you're hitting a young girl. Are you even human?"

"Come at me if you dare..."

Dax, Chester, Debra, and the others were extremely shocked and furious upon seeing this scene as they yelled at Megan.

Especially Dax, he was so furious that he was about to explode with his extremely reddened eyes.

Jewel was such a good and adorable girl, yet she was being beaten by Megan. It was infuriating.

"Hehe..."

Megan sneered upon hearing their yells, "You asked me not to hit her? I especially want to hit her. Not only do I want to hit her, but I also want to kill this rude girl as well."

Megan then engaged her internal energy and was about to violently hit Jewel squarely in her heart!

Dax, Debra, and the others were instantly worried as their expressions changed to the extent their hearts were about to pop out.

‘Master Darryl... We’ll see each other in the next life.’

Jewel’s tears could not stop falling upon seeing Megan’s attack approaching her as she closed her eyes in despair.

Although Jewel was also a cultivator, she was not Megan’s match. 1

“Master Castello. No!”

A figure swiftly approached right at this moment with a stern expression.

It was Sect Master Endless!

Megan furrowed her brows and forcefully retracted her attack!

“Woo!”

Sect Master Endless took a deep breath before putting his hands together and slowly said, “Amitabha, Master Castello. We’re all connected since all of us are from the same mainland. Let’s not fight each other in such crucial moments. We should more so not hurt or kill the innocent...”

Master Endless found it inappropriate to interfere with Megan's grudge against Darryl at first. However, he could no longer take it upon seeing Megan bullying a young girl.

Master Leonard then persuaded her, "Yes, she's just a young girl. Why should you be bothered with her? Let's quickly go before the Royal Army arrives."

In truth, Master Leonard wanted to persuade Megan to rescue the Carter family and Elysium Gate altogether. However, he completely put the idea aside upon seeing the current situation.

"Consider yourself lucky today."

Megan slapped Jewel once more. "I'll let you go on behalf of Wudang and Shaolin. I'll make you suffer the next time you're in my hands. B*tch, consider yourself lucky that I only slapped you this time."

Chapter 1606

In truth, Megan was preparing to kill Jewel!

However, both Shaolin and Wudang were famous sects with high status in the World Universe's world of cultivators. Megan had to give them the face and obey them if they stepped out to persuade Megan against attacking Jewel.

Jewel's face was red and swollen. However, her eyes were still full of defiance.

"Megan, wait and see!" Dax glared at Megan at that moment. "I'll settle this with you once I get out of this alive!"

At the same time, Chester's eyes were reddened too as he glared at Megan.

He could never forget how tragically his wife died in her hands.

In addition to the way Megan wanted to kill Jewel moments ago, such a woman would only bring troubles for the world of cultivators!

"Woo!"

Megan smiled condescendingly upon feeling the anger of Dax and the others. "It's undetermined who will be a trouble for who in the future."

Megan then waved her hands at her surrounding Emei disciples. "Quick, let's leave with the sect masters."

She had been in the prison for a long time and others would easily start suspecting her if she were to continue staying there.

After all, this was the Royal City Prison where their security could not be so lax all the time.

"Yes, Master." Dozens of Emei disciples responded before leading the way and guarding those sect masters out of prison.

Megan slowly followed suit.

Megan turned around and smiled ambiguously at Dax and the others in the prison once the last person was brought out and coldly said, "Dax and Chester, the world of cultivators in the World Universe will be firmly in my hand by then even if you could escape out alive. At that time, I won't be afraid at all even if you three brothers joined forces."

Megan then smiled seductively before turning around and left.

'What?'

'World Universe's world of cultivators will be in her hands?'

Dax and Chester's expressions instantly darkened. Could she have something planned out to speak so surely?

Damn it!

Chester was always stable and farsighted. He immediately thought of something and anxiously said, "Megan must be faking the entire rescue operation! She must have thought of some vicious ways to deal with Master Leonard and the others."

Chester was so anxious and sweated profusely when he said that.

He was too careless. Megan had previously murdered the Mount Hua Sect Master. How could she be so kind-hearted to come to save Wudang and Shaolin?

Chester rushed to the bars with that thought in mind and yelled outward, "Master Leonard! Sect Master Endless! Megan has treacherous intentions, so all of you have to be careful..."

However, only the night breeze replied to him as Shaolin, Wudang, and the other sects were already taken far away by Megan.

"Master Wilson is right, Megan is too malicious..."

"Yes, such a vicious woman. How kind-hearted could she be?"

“We’re done for, we’re clearly done for...”

Dax, Susan, Debra, and the others all came to their senses at that moment. They were extremely saddened and anxious.

Meanwhile, Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects successfully escaped the Royal City under the Emei disciples’ protection.

Such was because Megan had planned this with Ambrose of course who gave the command to relax the city gate security. Otherwise, they could not have successfully brought so many sects away just solely depending on the Emei Sect’s powers.

This was the New World Royal City after all.

It was unfortunate that Master Leonard, Sect Master Endless, and the other sect masters did not notice all these as their only concern at that moment was to leave the place as fast as possible. It had not occurred to them the reason their escape was so smooth.

Chapter 1607

They finally reached the woods a few kilometers outside of the Royal City.

All of them stopped to rest.

“Everyone!”

Megan smiled at that moment and slowly said, “The previous intense battle with the New World Royals has left you with depleted internal energy. I’m afraid the Royal Army and Incandescent Sect will catch up with us soon if all of you continue in this manner.”

Megan then took out a jade flask before she smiled and said, “I coincidentally have some elixir here that could help you regain your internal energy. Everyone, quickly have some, so as we could deal with the unexpected easier once your internal energy has fully recovered.”

Megan then passed the flask to one of the disciples beside her and instructed the disciple to pass it on to Master Leonard and the rest.

Megan’s face was smiling at that moment, yet her eyes showed hints of maliciousness.

Wow!

The cultivators of Wudang and Shaolin were extremely excited and delighted at that instance.

Master Leonard, Sect Master Endless, and the other sect masters stood up and expressed their gratitude.

“Thank you, Master Castello.”

“How thoughtful of you, Master Castello.”

“Yes, you must’ve spent a lot on the elixirs.”

The praises which kept coming only made Megan smile even wider and waved her hand in dismissal. “We’re all connected since we’re from the same mainland. You all don’t have to be so polite.”

The elixir had been passed to the unsuspecting Master Leonard and the others at that moment as all of them consumed the elixir.

Megan’s lips curled into a smile upon seeing this scene as she had succeeded halfway so long they consumed the elixir.

Woola!

They sat on the floor with their legs crossed and started to recuperate their internal energy after they consumed the elixir.

However, Sect Master Endless suddenly frowned hard after a few seconds and shuddered...

Something was not right...

Sect Master Endless’s face turned pale at that moment and started to wonder about the strange situation. The speed at which he regained his internal energy should have increased after consuming the elixir. However, not only did his energy field did not react at that moment, but he also felt as though his internal energy had been locked up and unable to be engaged at all.

Not only that, he felt immensely weak—as though his energy field was being suppressed!

This was a sign of being poisoned!

Sect Master Endless stood up with that thought in mind. However, his legs were sore and felt like jelly—unable to exert any strength.

'Haha! The elixir is working!'

Megan was extremely delighted upon seeing this scene before she smiled and looked at Sect Master Endless. "Sect Master Endless, what's wrong?"

Her tone sounded concerned, yet mixed with maliciousness in it.

"Master Castello, I-I..." Sect Master Endless opened his mouth and tried to say a few words but was cut off by Megan.

Megan smiled and said, "Master, are you feeling extremely sore and weak? As though there's an invisible force suppressing your energy field and you can't engage any internal energy?"

Swoosh!

The expression of Sect Master Endless darkened upon hearing that and suspiciously looked at her. “Master Castello—there’s something in the elixir that you gave us, right?”

Master Leonard and the other looked at Megan in fear and anger upon hearing that before reprimanding.

“Master Castello, what do you mean by this?”

“How could you be so vicious despite being such a gorgeous woman? How could you poison us?”

Chapter 1608

“Megan, what is it that you want? We did not have any feud with you. Why did you poison us?”

Master Leonard wanted to rush over while reprimanding but only took two steps before his expression changed. He could feel that he could not use his internal energy at all and felt his entire body sore and weak at the same time!

At that very moment, the others started to tremble with changed expressions!

The powerful cultivators of each sect slumped onto the ground before they could finish talking—barely able to move.

Megan then said to Sect Master Endless upon seeing this scene, “Master Endless, you are right. What I gave you isn’t the elixir to regain your internal energy, but poison! I’m sure you did not expect this, right?”

‘What? It’s really poisonous!’

Sect Master Endless was afraid and angry at the same time. All these sects had no feud with Megan, why did she do that?

He sweated profusely. What poison did Megan give them? Such an impressive poison that he did not even notice it!

Megan smiled even wider at that moment as she maliciously looked at Sect Master Endless, "Master, don't bother trying to guess. What I gave you is the Dark Day Pill. This poison smells good but is extremely poisonous."

'Dark Day Pill?'

Sect Master Endless, Master Leonard, and the others were confused upon hearing that.

What sort of poison was that? Why had they not heard about it before?

Megan smiled but said nothing upon seeing their reactions.

The Dark Day Pill was indeed a poison stated in the Immortal Pure Scripture which Megan was practicing. The Yellow Turban Rebellion leader, Zhang Jue invented this pill to control his enemies a thousand years ago.

The Yellow Turban Rebellion was wiped out later on and Zhang Jue had gone missing, so this poison ceased to exist in the world of cultivators.

The Dark Day Pill saw daylight once again When Megan started practicing and cultivating the Immortal Pure Scripture.

At that moment, Megan looked pleased with them and said, "Master Endless and Master Leonard. The effects of the Dark Day Pill are almost similar to the Heaven Cult Elixir from the Grandmaster Heaven Cult, but its effect is 10 times worse."

Megan's eyes then fell on Sect Master Endless. "In addition, the special feature of the poison is it reacts faster toward stronger poisoned people. Sect Master Endless is the first to react—no wonder you're Shaolin's First Divine Monk."

Sect Master Endless had been practicing the Body Transformation Scripture cultivation method which was not too impressive at the beginning but would get stronger the more you cultivate it. At that moment, Sect Master Endless had grown to be extremely strong!

The other sects were anxious as well at that moment.

'Megan said the Dark Day Pill was ten times worse than the Heaven Cult Elixir?'

Their expressions changed upon hearing that and could not help but secretly gasp!

Although the Grandmaster Heaven Cult no longer exists, everyone was familiar with the Heaven Cult Elixir. The Cult Master of the Grandmaster Heaven Cult previously used the Heaven Cult Elixir to control his people. It had been said that those who consumed the Heaven Cult Elixir would have their bodies rot to death if they did not consume the antidote within a year. It would be a tragic death.

If the Dark Day Pill was 10 times worse than the Heaven Cult Elixir, would it not be even more tragic when the poison acts?

“Master Castello...” Sect Master Endless was the first to come to his senses. He first chanted a Buddhist verse before looking at Megan and slowly said, “Why are you doing this? We have no grudge with you.”

Swoosh!

Chapter 1609

Master Leonard and the others glared fiercely and furiously at Megan at the same time.

Megan was really too sinister. How dare she take advantage of them and poison the major sects. Was she not afraid of becoming the World Universe's public enemy?

Megan smiled and looked at them before slowly saying, "My fellow sect masters, don't panic. I don't plan to kill you.

"My conditions are simple. All of you will recognize me as the Alliance Master from today onwards and shall not defy any of my commands. I'll immediately help you lessen the effect of the poison as long as you agree. You should know that the poison has penetrated the meridians all over your body once you've consumed the Dark Day Pill. In the entire Nine Mainland, there is no one else who has the antidote other than me."

Megan's eyes swept across them as she said that.

Megan's final purpose of saving the sects was indeed to become the World Universe Alliance Master. It would have been very hard to capture Shaolin, Wudang, and the other sects together at once with just Emei Sect's powers.

However, Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects were locked up by the New World Royals because they tried to rescue Darryl's friends and family this time.

It was a rare opportunity.

Wow!

All of the sect masters suddenly erupted into an uproar upon hearing her words.

"You want to be the Alliance Master?"

"Although you are the Emei Sect Master, you're still young and inexperienced. What makes you think you could be the Alliance Master?"

"Yes. In addition, you are using such dirty tricks. You think all of us will be afraid of death?"

Their accusations toward Megan kept going.

Megan smiled and scanned the surroundings upon hearing that. "Let's not talk about whether I have the abilities or not first. All of your lives are currently in my hands."

Megan then slowly walked to Sect Master Endless. "Sect Master Endless, Shaolin is respected by all in the World Universe. Why don't you be the first to speak?"

The other sects would be less of a worry so long Shaolin bowed to her.

“Amitabha!” Sect Master Endless’s face was full of helplessness as he looked at Megan and deeply said, “Master Castello—Shaolin and Emei have always been connected. I witnessed when you first joined the Emei with great character, yet now you’ve gone evil. Such a pity...”

Sect Master Endless then sighed and continued, “Master Castello, listen to me. There’s still time to repent.”

Megan frowned and coldly said, “Stop with the nagging. Are you or are you not going to recognize me as the Alliance Master?”

Sect Master Endless shook his head. “Master Castello. Although you’re talented, it’s less than sufficient to be the Alliance Master...”

“Oh.” Megan attacked swiftly upon hearing his words and jabbed Sect Master Endless’s acupoints.

Sect Master Endless was already extremely weakened after consuming the Dark Day Pill, yet Megan jabbed at the painful points.

Gasp!

Sect Master Endless’s face turned immensely pale under immense pain and was sweating profusely! He started trembling violently and kept on gasping.

Sect Master Endless felt like being bitten by thousands of ants at once at that moment. An excruciating pain that one would never know without personally going through it.

Megan's lips curled before smiling seductively and charmingly, while the surrounding crowd was shuddering in fear.

This very pretty woman was so vile.

"Master Leonard."

Megan's eyes fell on Master Leonard at that moment. "Sect Master Endless is an old man who doesn't understand his current situation. I'm certain you're better, right? I'll save you from the pains of the flesh as long as you kneel and call me Alliance Master."

Chapter 1610

Master Leonard fearlessly sneered, "Hehe... Megan, you underestimated Wudang. Wudang won't be the sect it currently is if I were to recognize you as the Alliance Master today."

"Great! Great!" Megan nodded furiously. "Such integrity!"

Megan then attacked once more and jabbed at Master Leonard's painful acupoints.

Master Leonard instantly wailed loudly before falling to the floor and rolling about.

It was without a doubt that the Dark Day Pill was a vicious poison. Other than having their internal energy suppressed to the extent of not having any strength once a cultivator consumed it, their pain sensitivity had also been increased tremendously. In other words, the pains they felt would be much more intense than usual.

Even powerful cultivators like Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard would not be able to take it under these circumstances!

Gasp!

The other cultivators turned pale upon witnessing this scene and shuddered in fear from the bottom of their hearts!

“What about all of you?” Megan scanned the surroundings at that moment with her icy-cold voice. “Those who follow me will live while those who don’t will die. I want all of you to properly think about this.”

The Mountain Peak Sect Master was the first to walk out and knelt in front of Megan before loudly saying, “All hail the Alliance Master!”

It was not a joke. Megan’s tactics were too vicious. Even Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard could not even endure it. How could the others?

It was wise to follow the current trends as they said. They had no choice but to submit to Megan based on the situation right before their eyes.

“All hail the Alliance Master!”

The surrounding people instantly knelt as well.

The situation before their eyes was clear. The results would be death if they did not submit to Megan.

They were not fools. No one wanted to die.

Megan curled her lips into a smile upon seeing this scene.

Her hard work had paid off.

Megan looked at Sect Master Endless and Master

Leonard with that thought in mind. "So? Master Endless and Master Leonard, have you given more thoughts about it?"

"Woo!" Sect Master Endless took a deep breath while sweating profusely. He stuttered while feeling immensely weak, "S-since...Master Castello has been elected by everyone, I have no opinion about it..."

His pained expression contained hints of helplessness as he said that.

The situation in front of him was clear with all of the sects supporting Megan. Shaolin would be the odd one out if they continued with their usual ways. His life was still in Megan's hands after all.

Master Leonard beside him did not say anything, but his expression was indifferent and acquiescent.

"Woo!"

Megan let out a sigh and was immensely delighted. She smiled and looked at Sect Master Endless. "Won't it be great if you behaved like this earlier? You won't have to suffer in the first place."

Megan then slowly walked over and undo Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard's painful acupoints.

The pain slowly subdued as the two of them suddenly looked immensely relieved.

Silence!

It was utter silence! Other than the surrounding night breeze from the woods, it was total silence as everyone looked at Megan.

This woman was terrifying! She looked gentle and charming externally, yet she was vicious!

“Everyone!”

Megan scanned the surroundings right at this moment and smiled. “I won’t say no to being the Alliance Master since I have everybody’s love. Everyone, rest for a while. I’ll need you to do something for me once we return to the World Universe.”

“Please tell us, Alliance Master!” The surrounding cultivators instantly responded in unison in a respectful tone.

“I want all of you to destroy everything that has to do with Darryl once we head back without leaving a single one behind,” said Megan coldly. Although she was smiling, her eyes were filled with maliciousness.

The Elysium Gate had been punishing evil and upheld the good all these years. They have managed to conquer a lot of evil forces in the world of cultivators with most of these evil forces having turned a new leaf to do good instead and joined the Elysium Gate though some did not.
