

Chapter 161: The Consequences of Backlash

Jin Yazhen's face was deathly pale as she stepped back unconsciously.

However, someone who was behind her shoved her forward.

Brother Liang grabbed her, showing a brilliant smile, but his eyes were full of malice.

"Baby, what's the matter? You got out of my bed just yesterday, so why don't you recognize me?"

"You... You..."

Jin Yazhen's heart beat wildly, unable to say anything.

All eyes fell on her, cutting her flesh like a knife.

"It's okay. It doesn't matter if you don't remember. I will remind you."

Brother Liang raised the corners of his mouth as he tapped on the phone.

Then, an ambiguous voice rang out.

“Brother Liang... Ahh... More...”

As soon as they heard the voice, everyone’s expressions changed.

Whoa, this was so salacious!

Jin Yazhen’s pupils shrank suddenly and her face lost all color.

How come- How could he record those things?!

All the surrounding people wanted to cover their ears. They looked at the two of them with disgust, especially Jin Yazhen. Everyone felt as if they were seeing trash.

It was disgusting to hook up with a man that old at her young age, and doing those things? It was gross!

The dean’s face was even more ugly, and he couldn’t wait to face off with Jin Yazhen.

It was confirmed once again that this girl was a piece of work.

That incident where she slandered Xia Xibei had only just recently passed, and now this... She was polluting their clean and pure campus!

Unforgivable!

“Baby, you are so hot in bed, but you act like you don’t know me when we’re out of bed. Then you hook up with this kid. Is that really appropriate?”

Only Brother Liang was calm at the scene.

He came over here hoping to make things miserable for Jin Yazhen.

When it came to these sex scandals, girls were the biggest victims.

Especially since Jin Yazhen was still a high school student. Once things came out, it would be a devastating blow. When she was two-timing and cuckolding him, she should have thought of being exposed one day!

How dare she play him after taking his money? Did she think he was a schmuck?

He had nothing to worry about, as he didn’t even have a wife.

The incident’s biggest influence on him was his bruised male pride.

A big man like him was actually a cuckold... How embarrassing?!

“How is this kid better than me? Can he satisfy you more?” Brother Liang asked, pointing to Yang Xuan. “I gave you so much money, and you turn around and spend that money on him? You are really something else!”

“Brother Liang!” Jin Yazhen was about to kneel down. She wanted to beg him not to say anything else, but she was mute.

The expressions of the people around them became even more repulsed. They all wished to stay away from Jin Yazhen.

“Kid, you’re pretty good!” Brother Liang smiled at Yang Xuan. “You spend my money and you use my woman; you’re really a young hero!”

The corners of many people’s mouths twitched. It was too ironic to use this title here!

“He is much better than you think!” a gloating voice called out from behind. “He was two-timing many people; he is much stronger than you!”

Everyone turned their heads and looked. The person talking was a chubby girl.

People were startled. Wasn’t she Song Jiaren?

They had heard that Yang Xuan had been pursuing her before.

Now it sounded as if there was a lot of backstory.

So... Yang Xuan was no saint either.

“Shut up!”

Seeing that the incident was about to get worse, the dean angrily interrupted, hoping to stop things from escalating. “We’ll go back to the office and take care of things!”

Chapter 162: All Expelled

After the dean took the three of them away, the crowd was in uproar.

“My god! What an eye-opener! I thought these types of things only happened on TV!”

“This girl... Didn’t she only just apologize last week? Why do these things keep happening?”

“She doesn’t look very poor! Why is she selling herself?”

“You’re thinking too much into it. Neither of her parents has a formal job and their income is very low. I was wondering why she ate and dressed better than us. I just thought she was being helped by Yang Xuan. Who knew there was more to it?!”

“It’s scary!”

Some people were also interested in Yang Xuan’s affairs. They looked at Song Jiaren’s expression, made sure she would not be angry, then went towards her.

“You mean Yang Xuan? He did want to chase me before, but when I found out that he was two-timing me, I beat him up. Then I had nothing to do with him.” Song Jiaren sneered, “I didn’t expect that he would cuckold others, though. He really is a creep! Nothing is too low for him to do!”

“That’s right! This kind of person is too disgusting! He and Jin Yazhen are indeed a perfect pair; they are both so shameless!”

Listening to everyone’s condemnation of the two, Song Jiaren’s smile became brighter.

She was still trying to teach them a lesson that they would never forget. Unexpectedly, Brother Liang did it first, so they got off easy!

Song Jiaren was very curious, wondering how the school would deal with them?

She heard the details the next day.

Jin Yazhen was the most affected by this incident.

After doing this kind of thing, if she stayed in school, it would affect other students.

After the previous incident, and more drama now, who knew what would happen in a few days?

Therefore, the principal and the dean made up their minds. They had Jin Yazhen's parents come, told them what happened, and made her drop out.

When Jin Yazhen's parents learned that their daughter had done such a shameless thing, they were furious, starting to fight in the office.

Had it not been due to help from the teachers, Jin Yazhen might have been killed on the spot.

As for Yang Xuan, he argued that when he was with Jin Yazhen, he didn't know that she was with other people, so he was also a victim.

However, they were dating, which the school did not allow, and it also caused all these consequences, so the school gave him a major warning.

As for Brother Liang, what he did was not serious. He just gave Yang Xuan a few punches, none of which were very severe. After the police were called, he was seriously lectured and made to pay Yang Xuan a few hundred yuan in medical expenses. They also forbade him from coming to the school again.

Brother Liang was not very satisfied with this resolution.

It was good that Jin Yazhen was expelled, but why was Yang Xuan still at school?

Therefore, he quickly came up with proof that Yang Xuan had two-timed several people.

No one knew how Brother Liang got the evidence, but it was solid.

What Yang Xuan had committed was too much. He was a disaster!

After the school leaders discussed everything, they decided to expel Yang Xuan too.

Brother Liang was happy about this outcome.

He wouldn't rest until these two b*tches were expelled.

Of course, even after they were expelled, it would still not be over!

He had made his plans.

Even if Yang Xuan and Jin Yazhen were to transfer to other schools, he would make sure they couldn't stay there either!

Chapter 163: Two People's End

Song Jiaren also heard that Yang Xuan's parents had almost spilled blood in the office yesterday.

In their view, the money Yang Xuan had borrowed from Xia Xibei before was all spent on Jin Yazhen.

This time, it was once again because of Jin Yazhen that Yang Xuan was implicated. It was so serious that he was about to be expelled, so they were livid.

If the school had not prepared and didn't have a few security guards around, there might have been a death at the scene!

Although Jin Yazhen was rescued, Yang Xuan's parents vowed to be enemies with her forever!

They didn't dare to do anything to Brother Liang, even if he was the one who exposed everything.

But the instigator of this incident was Jin Yazhen, and she was responsible for all of it!

Brother Liang's social status was much higher than theirs and he had more money, so they couldn't do anything to him.

Therefore, they vented all their anger out on Jin Yazhen.

Jin Yazhen's parents also hated their embarrassing daughter, almost not coming forward to save her.

The school leaders were very annoyed with this farce, as it took a lot of effort to send them away.

After that, Song Jiaren heard that Yang Xuan's parents came back to help him with the school transfer.

As for Jin Yazhen, her parents just had her drop out.

The Jin family hadn't wanted Jin Yazhen to go to school anyway. She had to fight for the opportunity to do so.

But this time, things got too out of hand and the situation was far too embarrassing. It was absolutely impossible for the Jin family to let her stay at school.

It took a long time before anyone knew that Jin Yazhen, who had dropped out of school, had run away from home. No one knew where she went.

By then, people had forgotten about her.

Yang Xuan's situation wasn't good either.

Brother Liang couldn't find Jin Yazhen, so he vented all of his anger out on Yang Xuan.

Even though Yang Xuan transferred to another school, within a week, that school would learn about his past history in cheating.

Due to this, Yang Xuan was miserable, and very few people dared to become friends with him.

When it was time for the college entrance examinations, people heard that he couldn't get into even the worst college.

Of course, this happened much later on.

After confirming that Jin Yazhen and Yang Xuan had dropped out of school, Song Jiaren was extremely happy. Even the air in the school seemed much fresher.

As for the "initiator" of all these things, she was very calm. After all, torturing these creeps was only a matter of leisure. Her focus was still on her own development.

On Tuesday afternoon, Xia Xibei received a call from Pan Yan, who sounded a little excited on the phone.

"That Cute Pet Goddess online is you, right?"

“Cute Pet Goddess?” Xia Xibei was confused. What was this?

It sounded... Awkward.

“Isn’t there a video on the Internet? There is a cat and a dog in it. They all listen to you, so everyone’s calling you the Cute Pet Goddess.”

This explanation made Xia Xibei’s mouth twitch.

The title was really simple and crude.

“If you’re talking about that video, yes, it’s me.”

“I knew it was you!” Pan Yan exclaimed. “Your video went viral!”

“Viral?!”

This comment by Pan Yan was different from anything said by Song Jiaren, no matter how similar. It held more weight.

Pan Yan was an experienced agent, with a different sensitivity to the entertainment industry.

Moreover, he looked for her because of this video.

He was aware that, if managed properly, Xia Xibei could become famous from this!

So, he had called her.

“Can you meet me in the afternoon, after class?” Pan Yan asked. “Let’s talk.”

Chapter 164: An Agent’s Instinct

After class in the afternoon, Xia Xibei arrived on time at a coffee shop outside of school.

Pan Yan was a little excited when Xia Xibei appeared.

He had been thinking of her for the last few days.

She had such potential. If he didn’t act first and she was snatched up by someone else instead, it would be such a pity!

However, senior management at the company was very firm. If there was no parent signature, he couldn't sign a contract with her.

This really frustrated Pan Yan.

The company had never been so resolute before, so why was it so inflexible this time?

But no matter what, he wanted to sign Xia Xibei on!

Then, he just happened to see a video of Xia Xibei online.

When he clicked on it, he was impressed!

Nowadays, many stars appeared on-camera with their pets, as silly and adorable pets were great at attracting fans. A pet-owner who loved animals would be really popular with fans!

Xia Xibei's affinity for animals would make her really likable!

The cat and dog were so cute and also listened to her, making for a really harmonious scene!

So, he went to Xia Xibei once again.

“Before we start, I want to confirm something.”

“What is it?”

“The video... It wasn’t edited, right?”

“No,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “I don’t know who made the video, but it hasn’t been edited at all.”

This made Pan Yan even more confident. “Can you tell me how you make them listen to you?”

“They like me,” Xia Xibei answered without blushing. “They can feel my energy, so they like me.”

“Will other animals act like this too?”

“Yes,” Xia Xibei nodded.

After clarifying these things, Pan Yan fixed his bow tie, coughed lightly, and said seriously, “I am here to ask you to reconsider joining our company.”

“I did consider it before,” Xia Xibei replied. Shrugging, she continued, “But my parents won’t sign.”

Pan Yan said, “As long as you have the intention, I can help you apply. Special cases have special considerations!”

“Why do you take me so seriously?” Xia Xibei was curious. “I don’t have any special skills, right?”

Pan Yan shook his head, “You really underestimate yourself.”

“I believe in my judgment. You will definitely succeed!”

“You don’t really know any of my strengths, yet you believe in me just based on my looks?” Xia Xibei became even more curious.

She had not shown any strength in front of him yet, had she?

When it came to looks, there were a lot of beautiful men and women in the entertainment industry. Even if she was beautiful, she was not irreplaceable.

“I trust my instincts! You are different from other girls I’ve seen,” Pan Yan explained, choosing his words carefully. “The first time I saw you, I thought you were special! Your charisma is different from other girls of the same age.”

These words sounded like he was professing his love to her, but they were only Pan Yan’s heartfelt thoughts.

Xia Xibei’s expression changed slightly. She didn’t think Pan Yan could feel this way.

She stared at him for a while, finally confirming that what he said was true.

It seemed that he truly deserved to be so successful in his previous life.

Such an astute agent could discover the strengths and weaknesses of artists, find suitable jobs for them, and achieve good results.

“All right. As long as you can convince the company, I promise to join your company.”

Seeing Xia Xibei’s acquiesce, Pan Yan immediately became excited.

“OK! I will make them say yes!”

Chapter 165: Refused Again

Pan Yan returned to the company and told his manager what they had discussed.

“We can create a character along the lines of the Cute Pet Goddess, and then we can...”

Pan Yan spoke a little excitedly about the arrangements, as if he had already seen future developments occur.

However, his manager was not as happy as he was.

“This is indeed a new route which no one has done before, but... Can you guarantee it will work?”

“Of course!” Pan Yan nodded. “As long as...”

As he talked, someone knocked on the door.

“Little Pan, you’re here too?”

Bai Meixue opened the door to come in, and when she saw Pan Yan, her eyes flashed, revealing a gentle smile.

“Sister Xue.” Pan Yan immediately stood up straight. “I came to Mr. Li to talk about something.”

“Oh yeah? What is it? Can I listen in?”

When she said it like this, how could Pan Yan say no? She was an important figure in the company.

“Of course, you can listen in.” Pan Yan twitched the corner of his mouth. “I was just talking about Xia Xibei.”

“Xia Xibei?” Bai Meixue raised her brows. “The girl from last time?”

“Yes”

“What’s wrong? Didn’t you say that she can’t sign a contract?” Bai Meixue walked over. “Has she changed her mind?”

“No.”

He wanted to say something else but was interrupted.

“If not, what else do you want to say?” Bai Meixue’s face was a little stern. “If we can’t sign a contract, we can’t do anything. You know that the company has regulations.”

“I know that.” Pan Yan was anxious. “However, Xia Xibei has a certain degree of online popularity now! As long as we seize the opportunity...”

“Online popularity?” Bai Meixue smiled. “You mean that cat and dog video?”

“You’ve seen it?”

“Of course I have seen it.” Bai Meixue’s smile remained fixed. “If that’s what you are talking about, there is no need.”

“1...”

“Let me guess, are you going to follow the path of the Cute Pet Goddess mentioned online?”

“Yes!” Pan Yan was somewhat surprised. He didn’t think Bai Meixue had thought of his idea.

But this was normal. After all, she had been in this circle for so long, she was an experienced elder.

“But it won’t work,” Bai Meixue shook her head with a serious expression. “This is just a coincidence. If you really did this and the character didn’t work, can you imagine the consequences?”

“It won’t stop working!” Pan Yan was upset. “She has promised me that she has a strong affinity for animals!”

“Oh, Little Pan,” Bai Meixue smiled. “You are still too young.”

She shook her head and laughed.

“Of course she promised you, but can you be sure of her guarantee? I think her video this time must be self-directed and acted. Otherwise, how could there be such a coincidence? You have been in this circle for a long time now, don’t you understand this?”

The manager next to them also nodded, "Yes, I agree with Meixue."

Pan Yan wanted to say something but was interrupted by the manager raising his hand. "You don't need to say anything else. Even if it was possible, she still can't sign a contract now. Whatever you say is pointless."

"But..."

"Alright," Bai Meixue said with a frown. "Little Pan, our company has so many trainees now, you should really pay attention to them. Don't think about random, meaningless things."

"I..."

Pan Yan's mood suddenly changed from sunny to stormy. He didn't understand why they were resisting Xia Xibei's entry so much.

"Ok. You can leave now. We have things to discuss."

The manager shook his hand. Pan Yan had no choice but to leave.

Chapter 166: An Odd Man

Xia Xibei was standing outside the entrance of the elementary school when she received a call from Pan Yan.

“Sorry...” Pan Yan sounded frustrated, “I thought they would agree...”

Xia Xibei was not really surprised by this result.

After all, with Bai Meixue around, things wouldn't work out so easily.

“It's okay, don't worry about it. I'm not in a hurry anyway.”

Pan Yan felt even more ashamed.

He had thought that as long as Xia Xibei agreed, he could persuade the company to say yes.

But who would have thought that while Xia Xibei would agree, the company would not say yes?!

Xia Xibei could understand his disappointment, and after a few more words of comfort, she hung up the phone.

She smiled while looking at the school entrance, which wasn't too far away.

Xia Shahai and Liu Lixin's twins studied at this school.

Since they had dared to find someone to hurt her, they must be psychologically prepared to handle anything.

Of course, she didn't intend to risk her own future to make trouble. However, if she didn't scare them a little bit, how could she be worthy of their intentions?

So, she asked for leave and waited at the entrance for the two children to appear.

The weather has started to get hot by then. Although Xia Xibei was not afraid of the heat or the sun, there was no need to abuse herself.

She found some shade while waiting for the school dismissal.

After a few minutes, she noticed a man waiting under the shade of a tree nearby.

The man was not tall; he was actually shorter than her. He had messy eyebrows, triangular eyes, a bulbous nose, and dark under-eye circles, which made him look a bit perverted.

His clothing was a bit messy, and on such a hot day, he was still wearing an ill-fitting coat. There was also a smell coming from his body, as if he hadn't taken a shower for several days.

Xia Xibei was not too far away from him, and she couldn't help covering her nose.

The man stared straight at the school entrance with a strange expression on his face.

Xia Xibei glanced at him subtly, her gaze suddenly stopping at his waist, at which point her expression changed slightly.

At this time, the school door opened, and many students swarmed out.

Some parents stepped forward and picked up their children. Other children lived closer and chose to go home by themselves.

The man's eyes suddenly lit up at seeing a few children walking over to his side.

With a weird smile on his face, he walked quickly towards those children.

As he walked over, he reached into his coat.

The children were busy playing and joking with each other as they walked, not noticing the man approaching at all.

Xia Xibei's heart jumped. She didn't care to find the twins at the moment, quickly following the man instead.

The man's footsteps were getting faster and faster, the distance between him and the children getting shorter by the second.

The next moment, he pulled his hand out of his coat.

A knife was in his hand!

The knife glinted in the sun. The smile on the corner of the man's mouth became even more hideous than before.

"Die!" he roared, rushing in front of the children. He waved his hand, the knife making a dazzling arc in the air.

The children finally saw the scene clearly. They were so scared that their minds went blank, unable to move.

Others saw this scene too. They suddenly screamed. "Argh!"

However, they were too far away to catch up to the man.

His smile became even more hideous as his knife was about to fall on a certain child.

The very next moment, however, he felt a heavy blow on his back, as if he had been hit by a boulder. He fell forward, his hands and feet waving uncontrollably.

“Argh!”

Chapter 167: The Scum of the News

The nearby parents and passers-by watched the man rushing toward the children with a knife, all of them extremely frightened.

Seeing that the knife was about to fall on the children, some people couldn't help but close their eyes; they couldn't bear to look at the scene.

But in the next instant, they saw a girl appear behind the man. She used her left foot to jump up from the ground, giving the man a solid kick.

The man screamed and fell forward, his face planting on the ground.

Then, the girl rushed toward him and stepped on his wrist.

The man yelped in pain. His hands couldn't help but loosen their grip, dropping the knife.

The girl kicked the knife away.

The man was struggling to get up from the ground, but the girl kicked his back once again, stopping him from moving.

Other people finally reacted, rushing up to them immediately.

“Let me go!” the man bellowed, trying to get up, but he was restrained by those around him.

The children finally came to their senses and began to cry.

Other passers-by also rushed over; they hugged the children and prevented them from seeing these things.

After pulling the man up, someone couldn't help but punch him.

When one person did it, others soon followed.

“D*mn! What scum! He wanted to hurt kids!”

“If it wasn't for this girl just now...”

Thinking of the tragedy that could have occurred, everyone couldn't help but shudder.

They were used to seeing the killing of students on the news from time to time, but no one expected it to happen right in front of them!

If it hadn't been for this girl, who reacted quickly and had great strength, these children would have been hurt.

Thinking of this, everyone couldn't help but feel lucky.

Although the children were not their own, if there were more scumbags like him out there, the lives of all children would be in danger.

As they thought this, everyone wanted to smash this man into pieces, and started hitting him even harder!

This kind of scum, that only dared to hurt children, did not deserve to live!

They saw clearly that he was not going for a certain child; all of these children were his targets! He wanted to indiscriminately take revenge against society!

When a child got hurt, the family would be in terrible pain!

Everyone started hitting the man even more vigorously.

When the police arrived, the man was already quite weak, with bruises present and his face swollen.

“What happened here?”

The police were also startled.

When the police asked questions, everyone explained the situation clearly.

“It’s all thanks to this girl, otherwise...”

A parent who owned a shop nearby ran over and hugged her child, tears streaming down her face.

If it were not for this girl, her child might not be alive right now.

“Thank you! Thank you!”

The parent took Xia Xibei’s hand and thanked her repeatedly.

Xia Xibei could only smile and accept everyone’s gratitude.

“This girl is that powerful?!”

The police were also stunned after hearing all the details.

This girl was fierce!

Although this man was not tall, he was very strong.

And Xia Xibei had knocked him down with one kick... Incredible!

“I have a video!”

Someone took out their phone and played the video excitedly.

The earlier part was not recorded. It started from when everyone realized that the man wanted to hurt people.

Although it was shot from a distance away, the event was clearly shown.

Seeing Xia Xibei leap forward and kick the man to the ground, the police were also shocked.

“This girl knows martial arts! So fierce!”

Everyone marveled at Xia Xibei’s power, hating the man even more.

Scum like him deserved the death penalty!

Chapter 168: I Want to Call the Cops

The cop was wearing a look of disgust as he looked at the man, bruises all over his face and head hung low. Scumbags like this should be exterminated!

Xia Xibei had to make a trip to the police station to make a verbal report.

Several passers-by also offered to testify for her.

Xia Xibei cast a glance at the gates of the school, her eyes seeming rather crestfallen.

“What’s wrong? Is there anything else?” someone asked, expressing their concern for her.

“My brother and sister study here... I actually came to see them, but it looks like they have already left. Never mind, forget it.”

The forced smile on her face made people's hearts ache for her.

Someone couldn't help but ask, "Aren't your brother and sister living with you?"

"They are the children that my father has with his current wife. We don't live together," Xia Xibei explained with a pained smile.

"Do you live with your mother then?"

"No," she shook her head, "I live alone."

The people all came to a sudden realization... So that was how the story went.

Apparently, her parents had divorced and formed new families on their own, leaving her as the pitiful little thing that no one wanted. Now she even had to resort to seeing her brother and sister in such a furtive manner.

This was just too pathetic!

Having sensed their sympathy towards her, Xia Xibei pursed her lips and headed over to the police station.

With the help of these passers-by, the video in her phone, and the nearby surveillance cameras, along with this man's confession, the matter was quickly sorted out.

This man was a jobless vagrant. Having failed to find a job, he chose to take his revenge on society, influenced by his anger and resentment.

He dared not assault adults, so he went for innocent children instead.

He just hadn't expected Xia Xibei to show up out of nowhere.

"Thank you for your help! I'm extremely thankful for all that you've done!"

Even the chief of the station came out and shook Xia Xibei's hand in gratitude.

If not for her, the matter would have become much more troublesome.

"You're welcome. Who wouldn't offer help if they were capable of it? They are like younger brothers and sisters to me," Xia Xibei said with a rather sheepish smile.

"I still have to thank you no matter what!"

The other parents came forward to thank her as well. After all, she was the one who had just saved their children's lives!

“Don’t mention it, I just happened to come across...”

Xia Xibei responded to their gratitude hectically, even blushing.

As they looked at her flustered response and recalled what she had just done, the people nearby couldn’t help but sigh sentimentally. Youngsters as righteous and kind-hearted as this one were rare these days, especially for an underage little girl like her!

While everyone was busy thanking her, a couple dashed inside anxiously, bypassing the crowd and making their way to the front.

“Police, I want to file a report!”

They seemed utterly agitated and nerve racked.

“What’s the matter?”

“Someone threatened to harm our children!” the woman exclaimed. She seemed unsettled, her face looking horridly pale.

“Harm your children?” The cop at the reception was rather surprised. “Do you know who it was?”

“We do,” the woman nodded and pointed at her husband. “It was the daughter he had with his ex-wife.”

“A girl?” The cop was startled for a second. “Do you have any proof?”

“Yes, yes!” The woman rummaged through her bag and immediately pulled out a handful of white envelopes. “This is the blackmail she sent us! She claimed that she wants to kill our children!”

The woman was on the brink of tears.

“Who’s the girl? Do you have a photo of her?”

“Yes, yes, yes!” The woman nodded right away and unlocked her phone screen. “We thought she was just kidding, but she actually went to the kids’ school today!”

As he looked at the pretty girl on the screen, the cop became stunned.

Wasn’t that... The little heroine who had just saved the children?!

Chapter 169: She Wants to Harm Our Children

“What’s the name of the person you’re talking about?” The cop inquired with some hesitation.

Perhaps it was just her lookalike!

“Her name is Xia Xibei!” Liu Lixin blurted out right away, a fiery ball of rage having ignited within her.

She wondered what in the world was wrong with those people. Not only was Xia Xibei unscathed, they had even gotten themselves into the police station!

Luckily, they did not give her away.

However, it turned out that Xia Xibei had found out about it!

For the past couple of days, Liu Lixin and Xia Shahui had received several threatening letters. These letters contained photos of their two children with hateful words written below them.

“You won’t leave me in peace, so I’m gonna ruin your peace too.”

“I will drag them to Hell with me!”

The horrific words were written in a very neat handwriting.

Liu Lixin exploded right away when she received those letters.

How dare that little bitch play them like this?! Did she really think they would be afraid of her?! A little wimpy kid like her was actually trying to meddle with them?

Although Xia Shahaï had said that Xia Xibei's true personality was very tough and uncompromising, it sounded like utter nonsense to Liu Lixin, who had never gotten to truly know Xia Xibei.

Xia Shahaï must have said that in an attempt to shut her up, after having transferred the house under Xia Xibei's name!

She wondered what kind of tricks that little bitch had used to turn Xia Shahaï into such a coward.

Nonetheless, she remained undaunted!

She did not believe that Xia Xibei actually had the guts to go all out against them!

However, that opinion of hers was quickly debunked.

The letters continued to arrive, all of them accompanied by photos of the two children. Some of the photos even showed them studying at school.

Xia Xibei was really serious about it!

What truly scared the wits out of them, however, was the assault.

Whenever Liu Lixin went to fetch the children, she would usually park her car nearby for their convenience.

However, the kids rushed over in a panic just now, saying that a bad guy was slashing people with a knife!

Liu Lixin almost died of fright!

Seeing the havoc that was raging ahead, she tugged at someone in a hurry, asking them what was really going on.

The person said that a guy had attempted to hurt the children, but someone had stopped him before anything truly tragic could occur.

However, due to the distance, the only things they could ascertain were that the main leads of the incident were a man and a woman. They weren't sure which figure was the bad one and which was the good.

Liu Lixin's face paled after hearing the explanation.

Shortly after, she received a picture. It turned out that Xia Xibei was in the picture, and the background was one that she was very familiar with—the vicinity of the school where her two children studied!

It really was Xia Xibei! She really wanted to harm her children!

At that point, Liu Lixin dared not take the matter lightly anymore. She called Xia Shahai right away and had him rush over, after which they came to file the report together.

Unexpectedly, the cop in front of them had a queer look on his face after listening to her allegation.

“You said the person’s name is Xia Xibei?”

“Yes! It’s her!” Liu Lixin was extremely agitated by now. “She’s trying to harm my children! You must catch her and lock her up!”

She was overwhelmed with fear.

If not for the person who had stopped the assault, her two children could have been harmed!

Who would have expected an ordinary little girl to commit such a malicious act?

“Xia Xibei!” The cop shouted out in the distance.

Liu Lixin and Xia Shahai turned around in bewilderment, finally seeing the girl who was surrounded by the crowd.

“Xia Xibei?!”

The two of them drew in a sharp breath.

Liu Lixin felt glad right away. She was caught already? Good!

Xia Xibei walked up to them, asking “You’re looking for me?”

When she saw the husband-wife pair, her eyes shone, then she became a little flustered.

“Father! Aunt... Auntie, hello.”

Chapter 170: Not a Family

Xia Shai scowled. Why was Xia Xibei so well-behaved?

Before he could speak a single word, Liu Lixin exploded beside him.

“You freaking bitch! How dare you lay hands on my children?! I’m gonna make you pay for it!”

Even though she loved money, she cared for her children even more.

If anything untoward happened to them, she would never let Xia Xibei get away with it!

If others hadn't been stopping her, she would have dashed forward and scratched Xia Xibei's face by now.

Xia Xibei couldn't help but take a few steps back in the face of her fury. Frightened, she asked, "What... What do you mean? When did I lay- Lay hands on your children?"

"Don't play the fool with me!" Liu Lixin growled in rage, "Didn't you send us the threatening letters? If you dare harm them, I'll kill you!"

Xia Xibei shrank a little and panicked terribly.

"Auntie, what are you talking about? I don't get it..."

"You don't get it?" Liu Lixin's rage was boiling over by now. "Didn't you try to harm them today? I'm telling you, don't even think about it!"

"Huh? What? Harm them?" Xia Xibei looked baffled. "I... I just wanted to visit them..."

"Screw that!" Liu Lixin let loose her torrent of abuse. "If you dare go near them again, I will end you!"

One was a fierce, unruly woman, while the other was a weak, delicate little girl. The people were rooting for Xia Xibei for sure.

“Shut up!”

Seeing that Liu Lixin was going overboard, the cop at the side finally bellowed out, “This is a police station! How dare you behave like this!”

Having been shouted at like that, Liu Lixin finally recovered her senses from the intense rage.

She knew that she had lost control of herself. However, as a parent, who could guarantee that they wouldn't get mad when faced with such incidents?

“Talk it out if there's an issue! This is not a place for you to make a scene!”

Only then did Liu Lixin realize that things weren't quite right.

She had thought that Xia Xibei had been arrested, but that didn't seem to be the case...

“Make yourself clear now! What is really going on here?” The cop at the side had a deep frown on his forehead, staring at Liu Lixin with a rather hostile expression on his face.

While Xia Xibei was having her statement recorded earlier, everyone had learnt that her parents were divorced and that she was living alone.

She had come to visit her brother and sister, who were students at the elementary school, and had happened to run into the accident, so she offered her aid.

Moreover, having heard the way she addressed the couple just now, the hideous-looking middle-aged couple in front of them were obviously her father and her stepmother, weren't they?

As they were on bad terms, it was no wonder the woman had started her barrage right after they met.

"We're here to file a report! She sent us the threatening letters, wanting to harm our children!" Liu Lixin exclaimed as she pointed at Xia Xibei, seeming agitated. "You should arrest her now!"

"Auntie..." Xia Xibei looked aggrieved and hurt. "When did I ever send you any letters? Don't tell lies!"

"It was clearly you!"

Liu Lixin handed over the letters.

"Look, these were all sent by her!"

Everyone lowered their gazes to see, all of them rather stunned.

Those words were... Terrifying!

“But are you certain that these were written by her? What proof do you have?”

“Of course I have proof!”

Liu Lixin took out her phone. “Look at this! This is what she sent to threaten us! If she wasn’t planning on doing something, why would she come here for no reason? She was clearly trying to harm my children!”

Everyone’s lips twitched after seeing the picture.

Someone couldn’t help but speak up, “This isn’t a self-taken picture, though. It was taken by someone else! And this number doesn’t necessarily belong to her. Besides, she only came to visit her brother and sister. How is that illegal?”

“What brother and sister? They are not family!” Liu Lixin denied assertively.
