

Chapter 1615 - 1616 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1615 Gritsberg Military Region Calls For Help

There are people all over Vietnam talking in confusion.

Almost all of the Vietnamese martial arts world was “screened” by this incident.

Some people shook their heads and sighed, others shouted angrily.

Some people are ashamed, and others just smile.

As the saying goes, life is all different, but that’s all.

However, in addition to the people who abused Mark, there were still people who explained it for him.

“Hey~” “Don’t say it so bad.”

“If you can dominate Noirfork Budao and sit on the position of Noirfork Zun, this Mr. Chu is definitely not a waiter.”

“He didn’t show up this time, maybe he was caught by something. The matter was delayed and I didn’t rush back in time.”

Someone secretly guessed.

However, when the person next to him heard it, he suddenly sneered.

“President Wang, I won’t argue with you either.”

“Mr. Chu, is it a hero or a bear. After ten days, we will naturally know.”

“Then Mochizuki Chuan let out all the words.”

“Make an appointment with him. On the bank of Dongchang Lake.”

“Within ten days, if he doesn’t come, this Mr. Chu’s woman will become the soul of his sword!” Hearing this, everyone around was silent for a while, and their minds were all shivering.

“This Mochizuki River is trying to force Mr. Noifork Chu on the road to the end!” Everyone sighed.

Martial arts meet in battle, not only the victory or defeat, but also life and death.

Mochizuki used the woman as a threat and forced Mr. Chu to fight!

Mochizuki River is the Japanese sword god, and even in the Japanese martial arts, it is not the strongest person who stands tall.

However, in Japan, the strength of Mochizuki River can also be ranked in the top five!

Back then, he was fighting the god of war on the top of the Yellow River.

Such strength is the top powerhouse on the Huaxia Grandmaster list, and it is not necessarily its opponent.

Therefore, in the eyes of everyone, after ten days, even if Mr. Chu appeared, he would not escape death!

However, if he does not come, he will be ruined if he loses his beloved wife, and he will be insulted as an incompetent coward throughout his life.

Want fame and fortune, or life?

This is a problem!

And when the sword god Mochizuki River made an appointment with Mark, when the entire Vietnamese martial arts world was constantly fermenting, the official Shaohong and Lu Tianhe of the Gritsberg Military Region drove to the top of Yanshan overnight.

There, a magnificent hall, like a wild beast located here, towering into the clouds!

Yes, this is the center of the Vietnamese martial arts, where the headquarters of the Martial God Temple is located.

Fang Shaohong and the two were full of anxiety, and after getting out of the car, they revealed their identities, and then hurried in.

In the hall, a majestic man sits in jeopardy.

Seeing this person, Fang Shaohong and Lu Tianhe saluted again and again: “Come here late at night to harass, and please forgive me, Senior King of Fighters!” “Excessive words, no need to say, let's get to the point. Why are you here at the Temple of Martial Arts? "The majestic man asked in a deep voice.

Chapter 1616 Contempt of the Martial God Temple

Lu Tianhe nodded, and said directly: "Senior King of Fighters, it is about the Japanese sword god, Mochizuki River."

"Thirty years ago, Mochizuki River came to my Vietnam to make trouble. Thanks to the efforts of Senior God of War, he repelled him."

"Now, this Mochizuki River thief is not dead, and it is coming back. The land of Noifork will be slaughtered by it."

"Nowadays, a woman is held hostage and forced to fight."

"My land of Vietnam, how can I allow the sword god to run rampant this day. "So, I implore the Wushen Temple to come forward and drive Mochizuki River out of Vietnam and calm Noifork's disaster."

Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong said respectfully to the man in front of them with pleading expressions on their faces.

Hearing what the two said, the man in front of him picked up the strong tea in front of him, took a sip, and then smiled: "I have heard about this."

"However, it is a normal martial arts dispute."

"Since they have already Prepare to use martial arts to settle grievances, then let them go."

"This kind of trivial matter, our Wushen Temple is inconvenient to intervene."

"And, you should know that the Wushen Temple represents a country."

"Once we intervene, that person The grievances can rise to the national level."

"When the time comes, it will not end well."

The man in front of him said slowly, but he did not intend to get involved in the matter.

After all, the significance of the existence of the Wushen Temple is mainly to stabilize the overall situation of the country and represent Vietnam's martial arts in foreign affairs.

Unless it is a large-scale unreasonable massacre, the Martial God Temple generally does not interfere.

After all, there are constant disputes in the martial arts world, and various battles are happening every day.

If the Wushen Temple manages everything, it can't manage it at all.

It's better to let it go, this will give birth to the strong.

"But the King of Fighters, this is related to a genius in Vietnam."

"If this engagement is not stopped, my Vietnam Martial Arts will most likely lose a future "God of War"!" Lu Tianhe anxiously persuaded.

The man chuckled slightly, and said with a bit of joking: "The genius in your mouth should be the so-called "Mr. Chu", right?" "I have seen his record, and the most commendable one is beheading. It's just the first apprentice of the Sword God Palace."

"If this can also hold up to be a genius junior, then I have seen too many."

"But in the end, how many of these people can be on the Huaxia Grandmaster list?"

"Most of them are, it's not like everyone else."

"As for Vietnam's second God of War? It's even more nonsense."

"If the "God of War" is so good, then Vietnam will not have only one Ye Qing in the century. God."

The man shook his head and said, and then waved his hand: "Okay, you can go back."

"An unknown offspring is just not worthy of the battle for him."

"But the King of Fighters, he might die. .."

Lu Tianhe may be eager for love and once again bitterly persuades each other.

When the King of Fighters heard this, his face suddenly sank, and his words immediately became more angry.

"Natural selection, survival of the fittest!" "The strong, he came out on flames and corpses."

"If you don't even understand this, what martial arts do you still learn?" "Big waves, if he is really a genius, It was just like the God of War, defeating Mochizuki River, and used this opportunity to prove himself. At that time, the Martial God Temple will naturally train him with all his strength."

“Otherwise, after all, he is just a husband. What qualifications do I have to wait to save him? “
