

Chapter 1631 - 1632 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1631 is going to change?

Under the Tianhe, between the wind and snow.

Qin Fei jumped down from the top of the corridor and walked on the water.

The lake under my feet dang even ripples.

The splashes brought up are like broken fireworks, bursting into all directions.

Seeing the scene before me, everyone present trembled.

In the eyebrows, only the burly figure of Qin Fei was left, like a swimming dragon going out to sea, sprinting towards the place where Wangyue River was standing.

Behind him, the white mark stretched out almost stretched for 100 meters.

What is even more surprising is that within a few inches of Qin Fei, the wind and snow did not enter.

“This this...”

“Walking on the water?”

“Isn't it wet?”

“The wind and snow won't invade?”

“Isn't this a dragon living here?”

“At that moment, everyone was stunned. Leonard Chu trembled and lost his voice. Didn't expect that there are such strange people in the world? He Yurou was also shocked, and the beautiful eyes were full of unknown colors. Even Ericson and Lei San After seeing Qin Fei's power, all of these leaders, who have seen countless big scenes, stunned a prefecture-level city, their eyes widened and their pupils wrinkled. Because, at the foot of Mount Tai, Mr. Chu became famous. The battle. At that time, Mark definitely did not have such power. Especially the ability to walk on the water and not invade the wind and snow, it was simply shocking. Like a dragon, like a dragon! “Good~” “Good!

“With such a mighty power, my Noirfork disaster will surely be solved.”

“Like a long drought and rain, Ericson and the others, who had no hope at all, were undoubtedly overjoyed after seeing Qin Fei’s shocking good fortune. There are even more powerful and powerful people around, comparing Qin Fei with Mark. The prestige of the gentleman is far beyond that of the child surnamed Chu!

“I think, after this battle, we will respect Mr. Qin.

“A person who is greedy for life and fear of death, and is indifferent and unrighteous, really does not deserve to be the respect of Noirfork.

“Among the Noirfork crowd, a bald-headed man said loudly. Many people around also agreed. Today’s catastrophe was caused by Mark, but he could not avoid it, and was afraid of it. Before, it was because of Ye. Everyone hides their dissatisfaction and resentment towards Mark in their hearts and dare not express their prestige. But now that the new king has appeared and Mark is about to go away, everyone naturally has no worries and expressed their respect for Qin Fei. Lord. “Haha~” “This matter, after Qin Fei’s victorious return, it will not be too late.

“However, I, Wang Jiexi, will be here first, for my nephew, thank you for your kindness!”

Wang Jiexi smiled happily. He had anticipated the scene before him. Since ancient times, those who have won the hearts of the people have won the world. Now Mark is unjust, and naturally has lost the hearts of the people. It is logical that the Noirfork people support the new master. However, , The people around shouted for joy, Chen Ao and the three of them never made a statement.

They did not say support or opposition.

Just expressionless, watching the battle ahead.

However, the three of them undoubtedly have the same worry in their hearts.

“If it is Mr. Chu never showing up.”

“Then Noirfork, after today’s battle is over, I am afraid that the sky will really change!” Ericson and others thought solemnly.

However, just as the crowd was clamoring, an angry rebuke suddenly came from the crowd.

“Huh, a group of ungrateful bastards who are ignorant and ungrateful!” “It’s because of you, who call themselves high class people.”

“But they don’t even have the least gratitude.”

“Mr. Chu’s wife is still here, just say it. Such a rebellious rebellion?” “Have you forgotten that who saved you from the Taishan Martial Arts Association? Who was it that kept Noifork?” “If it weren’t for Mr. Chu, how many of the people you were there would be alive? stand right here?”

Chapter 1632

Susie didn’t know where the courage came from, he was a descendant of a second-rate family, and at this moment, she violently scolded the big bosses of the cities in front of her.

However, she is really angry!

She didn’t listen the most. Others said bad things about Mr. Chu, and couldn’t tolerate these people. Such a corrupting of Mr. Chu’s conduct, and what made Su Qian unbearable was that these people were planning to abolish Mark and adopt a new master.

This act of crossing the river and demolishing the bridge made Susie extremely disdainful and angry.

Even Susie is like that, let alone Helen Qiu on the side.

She never thought that the people who had bowed their heads in front of Mark were so disrespectful to Mark now?

“I’m going, where is this stinky girl?” “Dare to yell at us?” “I tell you, you don’t have to press Mrs. Chu’s name to press us.”

“If we respect Mr. Chu, she It is the Empress Noifork.”

“But if we don’t recognize Mr. Chu, is she a fart?!” Facing Susie’s reprimand, someone smiled disdainfully.

In the words, there was no respect for Helen Qiu.

“you...

You are too much!

Wow~ Suddenly, there was a sound of water everywhere. At the time of the noise here, on Dongchang Lake, Qin Fei had undoubtedly arrived in front of the sword god Mochizuki River. The lake under his feet was vast, and the Yellow River in the distance was surging. This Dongchang Lake was originally the Yellow River water. It is formed by infiltration and is adjacent to the Yellow River. If you listen carefully, you can naturally hear the sound of the Yellow River running eastward. At this time, Qin Fei's eyebrows are proud, and his fists gather. The whole person, like a strong bow, is gradually Pull away. "Mochizuki River, although you are the Japanese sword god.

"But you, after all, are already dying!"

"How much power can you have now?"

"Thirty years ago, you lost the power of King He Quan!"

"Thirty years later, can you still be defeated?"

With a sneer, Qin Fei's fisting force suddenly exploded. Muscles moved, muscles and bones violent., A sturdy body, as thick as a mountain. Huh~ With a sound of explosion, Qin Fei punched wildly. , It suddenly smashed out. The surging power is like a tiger. "He Wangquan?"

"Mochizuki River looked at it, but shook his head and smiled contemptuously, "No wonder you are so confident.

It turns out that this is what you rely on.

"But, stupid Huaxia people, do you really think that the defeat of this sword god back then was He Wangquan?"

With a sneer, Mochizuki River finally moved. The lake under my feet began to rush, and the squally wind behind him screamed. The next moment, Mochizuki River stepped on the water. The powerful body is just like a big Peng spreading its wings and a dragon in the sky. With a startled kick, just if Tianhe falls, it falls straight down for nine days, and suddenly kicks towards Qin Fei! "This...this is..."

"One of the top secret techniques of the Japanese Sword God Palace, Treading the Sky?"

"At the moment when the Mochizuki River violent, there were martial arts people on the shore of Dongchang Lake, and they lost their voices. Just like this, under the eyes of everyone, they hit and kicked and collided. Bang~ The cold wind is like a knife, and the ice and snow are like a sword. Beneath the boundless world, on the top of the vast Pinghu Lake, there was a deep roar, which quietly exploded. At that moment, everyone held their breath and looked far away.
