

Chapter 1631: Young Master Lu's Arrangement

"Rather than saying that Young Master Lu wants to capture that big boss, it would be better to say that Young Master Lu is worried that the big boss will have the ability to find your former military spy and you. If anything happens to you during Young Master Lu's closed-door training, Carl and I will have to pay for it with our lives."

"He—"

Lu Xingzhi did not tell her a single word about the arrangements he had made in private. He was probably afraid that she would become even more fearful if she knew too much.

Ruan Yongjun inquired, "We have a lot more people in YN. Do you still need people here? If you do, I'll arrange for some people to come here."

Jiang Yao shook her head. "Not for the time being. Will Master Sen find out that you killed Zhu Qianlan?"

"No. If Master Sen investigated this, he would probably only learn things about his own woman. Zhu Qianlan has offended many people, so Master Sen will take care of that. By the way, there's one more thing I want to talk to you about." Ruan Yongjun's face turned serious. "Master Sen will arrange for someone to take the female boss away tonight and send her to the border between the two countries. You need to inform the military in advance and have them meet you at the border. When they arrive, they need to pick her up quickly. If they delay too long, Master Sen's people might catch up with them."

Jiang Yao was stunned. The big boss that Ruan Yongjun talked about was Ah Da's sister, the group's mastermind. When she heard Ruan Yongjun say that he would snatch the person from Master Sen's hands with Carl, Jiang Yao was dumbfounded.

"Master Sen is a general from YN, and he has a heavy army. Are you going to snatch him by force?" Jiang Yao was dumbfounded. "Wouldn't that expose all of you? If you were to face Master Sen head-on, your lives would be in danger. "

"No."

Ruan Yongjun smiled excitedly as if it was a hot-blooded game. "Young Master Lu arranged that himself. No matter how powerful Master Sen is in YN, he is not the commander of YN. He also has opponents. There is a young general who also has a lot of soldiers. He has relied on his military achievements to stay in his current position. That young general likes your country's ink and calligraphy. Young Master Lu arranged for someone to send him two calligraphy paintings as gifts. We will fight tonight with that general's men. We will also fight in the name of that general. It's just that we will blend in with his men."

Ruan Yongjun laughed. Jiang Yao could inexplicably feel that he was looking forward to that night's plan and was full of confidence.

"Director Jiang, you can rest assured about Young Master Lu's arrangements. I've retired for many years, and tonight's plan has made me incredibly excited. Director Jiang, you don't have to worry that the young general will use us against you."

Ruan Yongjun waved his hand and said, "Master Sen wanted to keep that boss because of her connections. There are still many people who haven't been caught. They are alert and have strong ties. Master Sen wants to use those people to expand the drug business into your country. The profits of that business are beyond our imagination. It has even more terrifying profits than the mining business. It's not even enough to describe how much money they'd make every day..."

Chapter 1632: Unifying The World

"More importantly, Master Sen wants to make money so that he has enough money to buy more advanced military equipment and expand his private army. Once Master Sen succeeds, he might even be able to change YN's commander, and as for his opponent, he fears Master Sen's strength."

Jiang Yao immediately understood that Lu Xingzhi was taking advantage of the situation in YN and using Master Sen's opponent to deal with Master Sen.

"Master Sen wants to weaponize the neurotoxin in your hands. Master Sen is a warmonger. Once his private army has expanded to his satisfaction, he will have enough arms and the neurotoxin in his hands. The first thing he will do is become YN's new leader and launch an invasion war against some small border countries. Perhaps his first targets will not be your country, but DM Country and LW Country. But your country is definitely one of his targets."

Jiang Yao was stunned for a few seconds before she quickly calmed down.

Master Sen's ambition must not have succeeded. She had never heard of any coup in YN. She had also never heard MD Country being invaded, which meant that Master Sen failed in her previous life.

"You just said that Master Sen wanted to expand his drug business, so I can understand if he wants MD and LW. Those two places have the best poppy seeds. There is no other place in the world that is more suitable for the growth and reproduction of poppies, including YN."

"Master Sen can't be thinking of unifying the whole world, right?"

Big Ke suddenly interjected and laughed out loud. "I don't dare say this about other small countries, but with our country, we can kill small countries like yours by taking turns fighting."

Ruan Yongjun glanced at Big Ke and did not respond. Obviously, he was dissatisfied that Big Ke so belittled his country, but the two countries' economies were very different. If they really took action, YN would have no chance of winning, so he had nothing to say. If that was the case, why did Master Sen want to find the neurotoxin and use biological weapons to solve the problem of the disparity in strength?

"Director Jiang, are you sure you don't need additional manpower here?"

Ruan Yongjun continued to say, "If you don't need it, then I'll return to YN in the afternoon. If you need it, I'll stay here and wait for Carl to send people here."

Jiang Yao shook her head. Since everyone who paid attention to the Divine Doctor knew that he was dead, Master Sen would send people to keep an eye on her. However, they would only watch her from a distance. If he confirmed that she was of no use to him, Master Sen would probably immediately withdraw all the remaining people.

Therefore, if there were too many people around Jiang Yao, it would arouse Master Sen's suspicion instead. There was no need for that.

It was rare for Ruan Yongjun to be there. Jiang Yao could have brought Ruan Yongjun around the county town, but she knew she should go out as little as possible.

Jiang Yao was afraid that Mrs. Lu would be worried if she went out for too long. After she spoke to Ruan Yongjun, she called Mr. Liang and told him what Ruan Yongjun had said. She also sent Mr. Liang the contact information for Carl, and then Mr. Liang went to contact Carl. Since Jiang Yao did not have anything else to do, she left the courtyard. She even took a detour to the alley to buy snacks before returning to the Lu family.

As soon as Jiang Yao entered the house, Cheng Jinnian, who had been sitting there watching TV, quickly stood up. His gaze landed firmly on Jiang Yao's hand... He sniffed and exclaimed, "Stinky tofu!"

Chapter 1633: Your Brother Has Run Away

Perhaps Cheng Jinnian was deeply affected by his illness the last time, or maybe Jiang Yao had reprimanded him when he was sick, so he just stood up and watched. He did not have any intention of walking over to Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao placed the things before him and said, "Eat less and don't drink iced soda. You can eat the candied haws tomorrow. I'll put them in the fridge for you."

Jiang Yao did not look at Cheng Jinnian's bright eyes. She went to the kitchen and then went upstairs to her room.

Cheng Jinnian waited for Jiang Yao to walk up the stairs before replying with a smile. "I know, Big Sister! Thank you, Big Sister!"

The smell of stinky tofu was really strong. Cheng Jinyan looked at Cheng Jinnian as if he was holding a treasure, and his eyebrows almost furrowed into a line.

Cheng Jinnian noticed Cheng Jinyan's expression and quickly took a few steps backward. Cheng Jinyan definitely knew how much of a neat freak his younger brother was.

"Daddy, look at the stinky tofu that Big Sister bought for me!" Cheng Jinnian looked like he was showing off a treasure. Then, he turned around and asked, "Who wants to eat with me?"

"Me!" Xiao Ya was the only one who answered. Then, she happily walked to Cheng Jinnian's side. Cheng Jinnian stood while she crouched. She took the toothpick that Cheng Jinnian passed to her and devoured it. Then, she said, "It tastes good. It tasted like the authentic stinky tofu from the old street in Jindo City."

Xiao Ya was a food enthusiast, and for Cheng Jinnian, who also loved to eat, it was a kind of joy to have a meal together that most people could not tolerate.

Therefore, Cheng Jinnian gave Xiao Ya a few smiles, showing his devil-like expression.

One adult and one child, one was squatting, and the other was standing. The two ate happily and even talked about the delicacies at home and abroad. The two were very excited.

On the other hand, Cheng Jinyan was probably irritated by the smell that stimulated his nasal membranes to the point that he could not bear it anymore. He furrowed his eyebrows, held his breath, and walked out of the house.

“Xiao Nian, your brother has run out.”

After Cheng Jinyan left, Xiao Ya withdrew her gaze from Cheng Jinyan and lowered her head to whisper to Cheng Jinnian. She looked at Cheng Jinnian’s mouth full of food. It was fascinating to see him chew with his cheeks puffing up and down. Xiao Ya reached out and poked Cheng Jinnian’s cheeks.

Cheng Jinnian, who was eating, had the best temper. He rolled his eyes at Xiao Ya and swatted her hand away. “Ignore him. That’s why my brother couldn’t find a wife.”

Xiao Ya’s face twitched slightly. She knew what the Cheng family did. Before she saw the Cheng family, she always felt that people like the Cheng family should be big and burly. Some had five-clawed dragon or tiger tattoos on their arms. Some wore a thick gold necklace around their neck. Some with more taste would wear gold and jade. Then, some would wear a gold bracelet or a gold watch on their wrist. Unless one of their ten fingers were broken, otherwise, they would wear a shiny gold ring too.

That was Xiao Ya’s impression of a gangster. However, after seeing the Cheng family at the Lu family’s house, Xiao Ya felt like she might have watched too many movies in the past, which was why she had that impression.

At first glance, Cheng Jinyan looked like a gentleman from abroad. Every look, every action, and even the smile on his face seemed to be calculated. Although the smile was a little fake, he gave people the impression that he was a gentle and good man...

Chapter 1634: All Or Nothing

Therefore, after seeing the Cheng family, Xiao Ya felt that gangsters were not all fierce-looking.

A bowl of stinky tofu laid the foundation for Xiao Ya and Cheng Jinnian’s friendship. Jiang Yao only took a lunch break, and Cheng Jinnian, who had been ignoring Xiao Ya, was inseparable from Xiao Ya.

Since she had to give Master Cheng acupuncture, Jiang Yao worked a little hard that night. It was almost 11 o’clock when she returned to her room to rest.

The Cheng family stayed at Second Uncle Lu’s house. The young Cheng Jinnian could not take it anymore after Jiang Yao left. He went to his room to rest while his brother went to Master Cheng’s room.

In the room, Master Cheng stood in front of the window in his nightgown, talking on the phone with his wife. Since he had just taken a medicinal bath, his body had a strong smell of Chinese medicine. He stood by the window, and the wind brought the scent on his body to Cheng Jinyan’s nose.

Cheng Jinyan stood at the door for a few seconds. When he saw his father was on the phone with his mother, he left. Master Cheng heard the sound and turned to look at the door. He only saw Cheng Jinyan's figure, but he did not say anything to stop him.

As a father, he had missed Cheng Jinyan's growing years. Cheng Jinyan respected him, but he was not as close to his eldest son as he was to his youngest son.

Cheng Jinyan was closer to his stepmother, Xie Qiuran, who had taken care of him.

"Don't worry. Jiang Yao's relatives are good people. They are open-minded and reasonable, and they are really good to Jiang Yao." Master Cheng knew what his wife wanted to know, so he told her. "I spent some time with her husband's parents today, and they're not fussy. Jiang Yao is a blessed child. Her parents treat her as their own child, and her in-laws love her and are very tolerant of her. I will bring you here when you are better."

Xie Qiuran, no, Cheng Xinyou, was on the other end of the line. After hearing what Master Cheng said, she smiled softly to herself. All the news she had heard was not as reassuring as the answer that her husband had given her after he personally went to take a look.

Master Cheng said he would bring her to Jiang Yao's home when she was better. Although Cheng Xinyou thought about it and was tempted, she knew that she could not cross that line before Jiang Yao took the initiative to invite her.

Therefore, Cheng Xinyou only smiled at Master Cheng's last words and did not say anything.

So Master Cheng also knew Cheng Xinyou's worries, so he changed the topic and brought up the Lin family's matter.

"I went to the Lin family. Initially, I was worried that the Lin family would disturb Jiang Yao, but Jiang Yao's husband had already scared the two of them. Jiang Yao has two bodyguards by her side, and those two are also on the lookout for any Lin family members. As soon as Old Madam Lin arrives, she will be dragged out of town. No matter what, she will be removed."

Similarly, since Master Cheng saw Old Madam Lin, he also saw Cheng Xinyou's ex-husband. As Cheng Xinyou's husband, Master Cheng, objectively evaluated the former Cheng Xinyou, saying, "You must be blind to have fallen in love with that man. If you had met me earlier, you wouldn't have had the pain of those years."

That old man was jealous. Cheng Xinyou let out a long sigh. "If I had met you then, I think I would have avoided you. When I saw you in prison, I was desperate. If I were not with you, I would be Xie Qiuxiang forever. You were my last hope..."

Chapter 1635: Send A Message To Master Sen

Master Cheng clicked his tongue and did not say anything else because he knew Cheng Xinyou was telling the truth.

Initially, when the two of them first got together, it was not because of any feelings but because they needed to use each other.

He had to spend a long time in prison. Even though prison life could not torture him, it made his time exceedingly dull.

Cheng Xinyou was a southern girl. Burly female prisoners were common in prison, so Cheng Xinyou's arrival had become everyone's sole focus. She was a hot-blooded object for those men. Even Master Cheng paid attention to Cheng Xinyou.

The first encounter between the two was when Cheng Xinyou deliberately approached him. At that time, Master Cheng fancied Cheng Xinyou's face and body. Cheng Xinyou's existence was a kind of entertainment in his boring prison life.

For Cheng Xinyou, Master Cheng was nothing more than a crutch for her in a place where only the strong would survive. She gave her body and received Master Cheng's protection. At that time, all she wanted was to survive. She never thought that Master Cheng would arrange for her to leave a prison sentence that was supposed to last her entire youth.

She never thought that when she gave her body away, she would inadvertently give her heart too. She never thought that she would eventually marry him and become his wife; she would become a woman that he doted upon.

Master Cheng and his wife talked over the phone for more than half an hour. When he heard the nurse who took care of his wife urge her to take a nap, he hung up and went to Cheng Jinyan's room.

"You were looking for me just now?" Cheng Jinyan's door was not closed, so Master Cheng stood at the door.

Cheng Jinyan nodded. "We've found out the identities of those people in town who are observing Little Sister."

Cheng Jinyan called Jiang Yao by her name when he was with her. However, he would refer to her as his little sister when he was with family.

"There are many soldiers, the Zhu family of Ping City, YN's Zhu Jiu's men, YN's Master Sen, and the Qian family of Jindo City." Cheng Jinyan sneered. "There are quite a lot of people. The soldiers are probably Lu Xingzhi's men because Little Sister's family members have that group of people around them. The Zhu family of Ping City has never been close to Little Sister. Those people are wandering outside the county town to ask for information. The Qian family only arrived today. They should be here to find out the truth about the Divine Doctor's plane crash."

As for Master Sen's man, Cheng Jinyan did not need to say anything to know why he was there.

"Send a message to Master Sen, tell him to withdraw his men within a day. If we find his men again, the Cheng family will wipe out half an acre of his f*cking land, and he won't even be able to get a single item of the goods he ordered."

"Then I'll go and meet Uncle Li first. Master Sen has bought his goods from Uncle Li in recent years." Cheng Jinyan was not surprised that Master Cheng would go to such lengths for Jiang Yao.

"Alright." Master Cheng shook his head and said, "It's better if I call him myself. He still doesn't know our connection. I should tell him such an important thing personally."

Cheng Jinyan curled the corners of his lips into a smile. He nodded and asked again, "Is Mom doing well at home alone? It should be her lunch break right now, right? "

"She sounds pretty good." Then, he turned around and left. When he left, he was in a good mood. He put his hands in the pockets of his robe and walked briskly...

Chapter 1636: Only A Strong Country

Cheng Jinyan did not even need to ask how his father had felt after soaking in the medicinal bath. He looked much more relaxed. Otherwise, he would not look that good in that day's wet and humid weather.

Jiang Yao did not know what Cheng Jinyan had done, and she did not know much about the Cheng family's abilities. However, when she woke up the following day, she received a text message informing her that Master Sen's men had left the county the previous night.

When Jiang Yao heard that news, she guessed that Master Sen must have believed the Divine Doctor's death and confirmed that she was of no use to him before withdrawing his men, so she felt much more relaxed.

Even though those people would not appear again, she could not act so carefree when so many other people were observing her. It would be annoying to know exactly how many people were keeping an eye on her in a four-kilometer radius.

The Lu family's breakfast table had many people early in the morning. The Lu family's lifestyle was simple. If it were not for people coming to pay their New Year's greetings, there would rarely be such a lively time throughout the year.

Mr. Lu was used to listening to the radio during breakfast; the radio was on in the dining room. Jiang Yao picked up her chopsticks. Just as she sat down, she heard the radio announcer report that the biggest boss behind the most prominent human trafficking group in the country had been arrested at three o'clock in the morning.

"That's great! Our soldiers are so powerful!" After Mr. Lu heard it, he was so happy that he slapped the table. "When I listened to the broadcast, I thought that the biggest boss would just slip away. They only caught a few low-level soldiers, and that would be the end of it. I did not expect the country not to disappoint the commoners!"

"It's good that we caught him. Even if we executed him a hundred times, it would be useless. Many people's children are still missing." Mrs. Lu was also extremely excited.

The common people could not decide who the new leader would be, nor could they decide on national affairs. However, each one of them was concerned about the country's big and small matters and the people's livelihood.

A while ago, the news that the country had severely punished human traffickers attracted the attention of the ordinary people in the country. While everyone was happy that their country had done something, they were also regretful that the biggest boss of that gang had run away.

“Only when the country and the army is strong will the common people have a stable life.” Mr. Lu was so excited that he did not even eat breakfast. He turned around and said to Mrs. Lu, “Do you believe it? In another 10 to 20 years, our country will be able to compare with other first-world countries. In the past, our country was backward, but now our country is becoming more and more powerful. We are in a good era!”

Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu started talking about their parents’ hard lives. They talked about the hardships of their youth.

Jiang Yao laughed discreetly. It seemed that people of her parents’ generation always liked to think hard, and even her parents were no exception.

If Mr. Lu and Mrs. Lu knew that the big boss’ capture was due to Lu Xingzhi’s effort, they would be so proud of him.

After hearing the news, Jiang Yao believed that Mr. Lu’s reaction was not just his own. Mr. Lu represented those who paid attention to the country’s big and small matters...

Chapter 1637: Get Her Back

Her husband had given their fellow countrymen an unwavering faith in the country. He had given the people a lot of trust in the country and the military’s capabilities.

He was a man who made her proud, a man who made her proud, and a man who made her family proud.

Jiang Yao’s heart felt soft. Even if no one knew that he was the one who did that, it was enough for her to know.

‘Lu Xingzhi, Lu Xingzhi.’

She repeated his name in her heart over and over again, engraving it in her heart.

At that moment, Jiang Yao really missed Lu Xingzhi. She really wanted to see him, give him a hug and a kiss, tell him how proud she was of him, and tell him just how much she missed him.

Everywhere she went, she heard people talking about the broadcast they had heard in the morning. Even though not every family had a radio or television, the news had spread verbally.

Master Cheng and Cheng Jinyan stayed in town for eight days. After that, Master Cheng took the medicine that Jiang Yao had prepared for him and left with his sons. Even though he had a daughter in that town that he was quite fond of, he was even fonder of his wife.

Old Madam Liang and Xiao Ya stayed two days longer than Master Cheng. When Mr. Liang finished his business there and returned to Jindo City, he picked up Old Madam Liang and Xiao Ya along the way.

Once the guests left, the Lu family, which had been bustling for a long time, suddenly became deserted. Sometimes, even Mrs. Lu would complain that he was a little unaccustomed to it.

Just as Mrs. Lu and Mr. Lu were still getting used to the quiet, Jiang Yao received a call from Xiao Ya, saying that Liang Yueze had gone to attend Luo Ruoran's wedding.

"Are you sure he went?"

Jiang Yao was surprised and happy. "He told you that he was going to attend Sister Ruoran's wedding?"

"Of course not. We didn't get an invitation to her wedding. We were only informed that she would get married again." Xiao Ya sounded regretful. "Didn't Second Brother Liang tell us that he would attend Sister Ruoran's wedding? Isn't Sister Ruoran getting married today? Second Brother Liang must have made an excuse to go to Sister Ruoran's city yesterday. He must have gone to see Sister Ruoran. Don't you think that adults are very strange? Can they wish for the exes to be happy without any conflict?"

"Wish?"

Jiang Yao's heart skipped a beat when she heard those words, "Big Brother may have gone to the city where Sister Ruoran lives, but we're not sure if he will go to Sister Ruoran. Even if he sees her, he can't wish for her happiness, right? I don't know about other things, but if he is still in love with her, would he still wish her that?"

Xiao Ya was young and had never dated anyone. She had never liked anyone, so she really could not understand what that would feel like.

"I think Second Brother Liang still likes Sister Ruoran. Maybe he will get her back? After all, Second Brother Liang's temper doesn't seem like someone who wouldn't do something like that." Xiao Ya guessed that there might be a possibility that Ruoran would be happy in the future. "I hope Second Brother Liang can get Sister Ruoran back. We don't even know anything about the man that Sister Ruoran is marrying. Why would he suddenly appear and snatch Sister Ruoran away from us? If Sister Ruoran isn't around, I'll be bored in Jindo City..."

Chapter 1638: Got Even More Confused

Luo Ruoran and Xiao Ya had grown up together. Xiao Ya was younger than Luo Ruoran, so one could say she followed Luo Ruoran around when she was growing up. Xiao Ya had lost a sister when Luo Ruoran left the country. Luo Ruoran was going to marry a man that she did not know, so Xiao Ya thought that he had snatched Luo Ruoran away.

Xiao Ya was a little uncertain, so she asked again, "Jiang Yao, do you feel the same way? Second Brother Liang should be returning with Sister Ruoran, right? On Thursday, Chen Xuyao said that Lu Xingzhi was the most similar to Second Brother Liang. What do you think Lu Xingzhi would do if he met you in such a situation? I'm just making an analogy. I don't have the intention of jinxing your relationship."

"Me and Xingzhi?"

Jiang Yao laughed when she thought of Lu Xingzhi's overbearing personality that no one else could match. "From the day I married him, he said that we would never get a divorce. I had just married him, and my personality was multifaceted, but he held on to me tightly."

That assumption was entirely inappropriate for her and Lu Xingzhi.

“Well, if you have to make a hypothesis based on Lu Xingzhi’s personality, there are only two possibilities. If he knew that I would get married again, he would tie me to his side. That is based on the fact that he still has feelings for me. What Lu Xingzhi likes, what he wants, it’s not up to anyone else. Another possibility is that the news of me remarrying or not would not cause him to be the slightest bit emotional. That is based on the fact that he no longer has any feelings for me.”

Lu Xingzhi’s personality was a little extreme. He was either extremely cold or highly stingy toward people who were no longer in his heart.

“The more I listen, the more confused I get.”

Xiao Ya pouted. “Adults are really complicated. Love comes, and love goes. That’s why I won’t be like that in the future.”

“Do you have any shame? You keep calling us adults. Xiao Ya, you’re already in high school!” Jiang Yao laughed so hard that she was about to burst. “You won’t be like that in the future? You won’t date anyone in the future? You’ll never fall in love? You won’t get married? “

“I’m going to!”

Xiao Ya raised her voice a few degrees higher. “Of course, I’m going to get married! I still have children. I like cute children! When I’m old enough, my parents will arrange a partner for me. They have good tastes, and they’re my parents. They’ll definitely find me a partner that’s worthy of me. Once I have a partner, all that’s left is to get married.”

“Don’t be so careless with your words. You make it sound like you don’t have any expectations for your future marriage partner,” Jiang Yao said.

When Jiang Yao was in high school, she was the same as Xiao Ya. Even though many of her classmates had started to flirt with each other, they would have some admirers even if they did not experience puppy love.

At that time, Jiang Yao was a hothead who was even more brainless than Xiao Ya.

At least Xiao Ya had thought about letting her parents look for her marriage partner. However, she had never thought about that.

In the end, a wily fox like Lu Xingzhi had snatched that innocent girl. She was the first one to get married among her high school classmates.

Jiang Yao thought that maybe Xiao Ya would meet the same person who would want to take her home...

Chapter 1639: Yueze Is Here

“As long as you’re good-looking, what other conditions do you need?” Xiao Ya’s tone was full of confusion as she asked. Seeing that Jiang Yao only laughed at her and did not answer, Xiao Ya snorted again. “I’m not going to talk to you anymore. I know that you must be laughing at me for being childish! I’m going to call Sister Ruoran. I have to congratulate her!”

Then, Xiao Ya hung up the phone amidst Jiang Yao's undisguised laughter. Jiang Yao's laughter grew louder as she held the phone.

Some people were born to enjoy a better life than most people. They would not encounter any huge obstacles growing up; their life was what one would call smooth sailing.

But so what?

An obstacle would still appear one day.

Some people would let one know what it feels like to have one's heart ripped out of their chest.

They would understand that a smooth-sailing life would not last.

In Liang Yueze's life, that person was probably Luo Ruoran.

Only Luo Ruoran could make him endure pain.

Liang Yueze sat beside the flower bed. On the other side of the six-meter-wide road was the lawn where the hotel held the wedding ceremony for the couple. It was still cold in Jindo City in that season, but it was already as warm as spring there.

The six-meter distance was not considered narrow, but he could easily hear the laughter from the wedding across the road. He could also see her in a pure white wedding dress, holding the arm of a man in a black suit.

Liang Yueze was certain that Luo Ruoran was going to get married to another man he had never seen before.

When they divorced, he was sure that Luo Ruoran would probably remarry soon. However, at that time, he thought that she would marry Gu Haoyu.

So, Liang Yueze wanted to ask her what she meant by marrying a man she had only known for a few months.

However, as he listened to the waves of laughter coming from the other side, Liang Yueze suddenly felt that that question did not seem to have any meaning.

If he had known that she would fall in love with another man in just a few months, if he had known that she would leave him and marry a man that he had never seen before, perhaps he would have.

Liang Yueze stood up from the flower bed, patted the dust off his exquisite suit, and smoothed out the wrinkles on it. Then, he walked toward the bustling crowd.

The wedding was not grand. The people attending the wedding were mainly from the Luo family's company. At that wedding venue, besides the groom, there were not many tall and handsome young men like Liang Yueze. Therefore, when he appeared, he immediately attracted the attention of many people.

The first person to notice Liang Yueze was Mrs. Luo. When Liang Yueze walked toward the bride and groom, Mrs. Luo was shocked.

“Ruoran, Yueze is here.”

Mrs. Luo reminded Luo Ruoran, who was holding the groom’s arm and teasing her assistant.

Luo Ruoran did not hear clearly who Mrs. Luo said was there. She turned around and looked behind her. There was even a bright smile on her face. The sun shone on her face and her smile.

Her smile was even brighter than the sun.

That was the first time Liang Yueze saw Luo Ruoran smiling without a care in the world. She seemed to be very happy.

Of course, that smile remained for one second before she saw him...

Chapter 1640: May You Have A Baby Soon

“You—” Luo Ruoran’s pupils contracted slightly. “Why are you here?”

“I just happened to be here on a business trip and also stayed in that hotel. I knew that you were getting married, so I came here.” Liang Yueze curled the corners of his lips mockingly, and the tip of his tongue pressed against his upper jaw as he said something that was meant to be hurtful to someone.

“Conveniently came over to congratulate you. I wish you eternal happiness.”

Luo Ruoran thought that it was fortunate that her makeup artist had given her enough blush today. Otherwise, she was not sure if she would be able to maintain her appearance after hearing those words.

She tried her best to maintain the smile on her face. She also believed that with a smile and the makeup on her face, she would definitely look gorgeous at that moment.

She tried her best to find her voice. In a trance, she heard herself answer him. “Thank you.”

“And...” perhaps it was because her thanks went straight into his heart like a knife. Liang Yueze moved his gaze away from her face and finally said, “May you have a baby soon.”

“With your blessing, when my child is born, if you are free, I will invite you to the banquet.”

Luo Ruoran’s smile did not change at all. Her face was like a mask; there was only one expression.

Then, Liang Yueze took out the gift that he had already prepared. He handed her a thick red envelope and said, “It’s a small gift.”

“Sure, since you have already prepared it for me, I will definitely accept it.”

Luo Ruoran had always known that he was very generous, but sometimes she hated his generosity. The red envelope seemed to contain a ton of things. “When you get married, I’ll definitely give you a bigger and heavier one.”

“Okay.”

He responded very casually. The dizzy light shone on the familiar face in front of him. At that moment, he suddenly felt a strange feeling.

“I still have something to do, so I’ll leave first.”

Liang Yueze did not know if Luo Ruoran would ask him to stay and attend her wedding, but he could not stay. He could not watch her being hugged and kissed by another man. He could not continue watching her smile at another man.

“Then I won’t keep you.”

She seemed regretful at that moment, then she stood there and watched him leave.

Liang Yueze put his empty hands into his trouser pockets. He said he would leave, but he still stood there and watched for a few more seconds. Then, he turned around and nodded at the two elders. He greeted them before his gaze fell on her again.

Luo Ruoran saw his lips open—he said one sentence, and then he left.

His words were very light, so light that only she and he could hear them.

So light that perhaps she did not even hear it clearly. Otherwise, why would he say such words?

She heard him say, “Luo Ruoran, don’t come back to our country.”

He said, “Luo Ruoran, if you leave, don’t come back.”

Luo Ruoran thought that that was probably what he had always wanted. After the wrong intersection, they were separated. They would be in their own cities from then onward, and they would be safe. They would not disturb each other.

They did not even need to see each other anymore.

However, why did he ask her to make space for him?

Why did he always ask her to give way?

She gave an inch, and he wanted a mile.

“Of course.”

Mrs. Luo looked at Luo Ruoran, whose eyes were already teary. She hugged her daughter and said, “If you don’t want to do this, you don’t have to get married today. If you want, we can make him marry you again...”