

Chapter 1641: What About Master Jiu

“No, Mom, I’m starting to hate him. I don’t want him; I’ll be fine.” Even though it was her wedding, she could not help but cry in her mother’s arms.

It was best never to have anything to do with him again.

She would be like his blessing—give birth to a child and be happy forever.

She would definitely do as he wished, just as he thought.

Xiao Ya called Luo Ruoran several times, but no one answered. Then, she called Liang Yueze again, but the two of them seemed to have agreed not to answer her calls. In the end, Xiao Ya sent a text message to Jiang Yao to complain about them.

After reading the text message, Jiang Yao put her phone back in her pocket. Her focus was on the radio.

The news broadcast was about Pan Peng’s sentence. The matter had slowly come to an end with the unexpected death of the Divine Doctor and the arrival of experts from Jindo Hospital.

Jiang Yao did not pay attention to the situation of the remaining patients in the hospital. She only heard that the experts were not doing too well after they took over the cases. Two of them were transferred to Jindo Hospital, while the rest were left at the county hospital. Some also went to the province’s hospital.

That day, at the hospital entrance, one man and one woman incited the family members of the victims. They were Pan Peng’s fake assistant and secretary. Second Uncle Lu recognized them, so they were arrested by the police that day. At that time, the two were also among the people sentenced in court.

The outcome of Pan Peng’s case was, without a doubt, the death penalty. As the other two people were accomplices, that incident caused the victims to suffer heavy casualties. The two people even incited the emotions of the victims’ family members. Therefore, one was sentenced to 15 years while the other was sentenced to 12 years.

Such an outcome was a heavy sentence. Jiang Yao, who had no way of knowing how many victims’ families were involved, was also not interested to know that.

Jiang Yao was interested in another international broadcast, which reported the news from YN. There had been frequent mining accidents in YN in the past few days. For some unknown reason, several mines had exploded.

Jiang Yao listened intently as the host read the addresses of the mines. She was relieved to hear that the affected mines did not include hers. However, if such a big thing had happened to her mines, Ruan Yongjun and Carl would have told her already.

Plus, Jiang Yao had nothing to do with it. She just listened to the broadcast to pass the time.

Meanwhile, the atmosphere in YN and Zhu Jiu’s villa was so oppressive that one could say it was terrifying.

As long as one had some connections, they would know that the mines that exploded one after another in YN those past few days had belonged to the Zhu family!

The Zhu family's mines in YN had not avoided the explosions.

"What about Master Jiu? It's obvious that it was not an accident. Someone must have caused this. Why would our mines be the only ones to explode? The first day was ours, and the second day was ours again. Now, our mines have all exploded."

"Are you done? Are you done?" When Master Zhu kicked the person who was asking him what to do next, he said, "How could I not know that? You asked me what to do? I fed all of you. Now you're asking me what to do."

When the first mine exploded, Master Zhu did not believe someone had caused it.

However, another one of their mines had exploded before they could find out the cause of the first explosion...

Chapter 1642: Something Big Had Happened

If he could not even tell that it was intentionally caused, then Zhu Jiu would not have been assigned by the family head to manage the mine in YN.

Zhu Jiu had a headache. So many days had passed, but the Zhu family members could not find any clues. They had no idea who had done that.

However, it seemed that the mess was not over yet. The Zhu family's men guarding the mine ran in panic. Before they could see anyone, they heard them shouting that something terrible had happened.

"Master Jiu, something terrible has happened! Master Jiu, something big has happened! The army has completely sealed our mine! "

The people outside ran in panic. The moment they entered, they did not even have time to catch their breath before they hurriedly spoke, "Master Jiu, all of our mines have been sealed by the military. The military said that our safety measures are not in place, and they want to inspect our mines. They also said that the police received a report saying that many people were buried in the explosion. The police asked the military to save them. The military and the police took our ores too. They also said that those rocks buried those people. They must find the victims!"

"Bullsh*t!"

Zhu Jiu roared, "Besides our own miners, why would there be any other people? There were so many explosions, but not a single person was buried in it."

"Master Jiu, the military and the police are taking this opportunity to rob us of our ores! What should we do if they take away our ores by truckloads? That's a lot of money!"

"What should we do? What should we do? All of you are only asking me what to do." Zhu Jiu raised his hand and slapped them. "Why should I feed you guys?"

The Zhu family was already in a terrible state after the mines exploded. When the mines were sealed, the military and the police said they would dig into the mountain to save the victims, but it was clear that they were there to rob them!

The Zhu family had a status in YN, but no matter how powerful their grandfather was, he could not be stronger than the military!

Zhu Jiu scolded his subordinates and angrily called his father in Ping City.

A few days ago, Zhu Jiu was afraid that the Zhu family would hold him accountable, so he covered the explosion at the mine and did not plan to report it to the family head. Many people in the Zhu family were keeping an eye on the YN mines. If he made a slight mistake, his position would be stolen, even if his father was the head of the family.

However, in just a few days.

The Zhu family thought that Zhu Jiu would not be able to keep his position.

The Zhu family head received a call from Zhu Jiu. He learned that the YN mines were sealed, and there was a risk that it would fall into the hands of the military. The Zhu family head's hand holding the phone was instantly drained of all strength.

The Zhu family was no longer as prosperous as they were a hundred years ago. Even though the Zhu family's inheritance was huge, the most profitable mines had always been the YN mines. It was the Zhu family's jewelry business.

The Zhu family's mines in YN were a massive support for the Zhu family's jewelry business. It was because of those mines that the Zhu family was able to expand their jewelry business over the past few hundred years. After several generations of management, the Zhu family's jewelry company was prosperous and famous.

If the mines were sealed, it would be equivalent to cutting off the Zhu family's resources. The loss of the mines would directly affect the Zhu family's jewelry company...

Chapter 1643: He Still Has The Cheek To Come Here?

The jewelry company was the face of all the Zhu family's companies. It was their brand.

"Take a trip to Master Sen's residence with a gift. Master Sen must be able to find information that we can't." The Zhu family head thought for a long time and asked Zhu Jiu to go to Master Sen for help.

"Master Sen has been in a bad mood recently."

Zhu Jiu thought of Master Sen's expression when he met him on the street a few days ago. Zhu Jiu was not very willing to go to Master Sen. He said, "Father, you should know about the news in the country, right?" That woman was snatched from Master Sen's hands. Because he had lost that woman, Master Sen had been gloomy these few days. He has been hiding that woman, and his political enemies have also recently used that matter to attack him, accusing him of harboring evil intentions and wanting to stir up a dispute between the two countries to destroy the relationship between the two."

“If I tell you to go, then go! When you see Master Sen, as long as his conditions are not too harsh, you will agree to them. Even if Master Sen wants half of the Zhu family’s mines, you will agree to that!” The Zhu family head’s voice was gloomy. “If we can’t get Master Sen to help us, I’m afraid the Zhu family will be finished!”

After saying that, the Zhu family head hung up the phone and sat there as if paralyzed.

The Zhu family had always been well-received by the YN’s military and police. Nothing like that had ever happened before.

He had wanted to cooperate with Master Sen. Not only would he be able to make more money with the neurotoxin, but he could also tie the Zhu family and Master Sen through that cooperation. He had even tried to find a way for Zhu Qianlan to give birth to a son with Master Sen to cement the relationship between the two firmly.

Master Sen was a wealthy and ambitious man.

That was also why the Zhu family head insisted on cooperating with Master Sen.

Master Sen had also secretly sent people to the county to look for Jiang Yao. The Zhu family head knew about it, but he did not expose it. As long as Master Sen got what he wanted, the Zhu family could sit and wait for profits.

The result, however, surprised the Zhu family’s head.

The Divine Doctor was dead, and the people that Master Sen had left in the county were all evacuated overnight.

Ever since the night that Master Sen’s men evacuated, the Zhu family head’s heart has been hanging in the air. That day, it finally confirmed all of his worries.

The background behind that female student was probably more powerful than he had expected.

Zhu Jiu hung up the phone, and he was silent for a long time.

Those who managed the mines were not useless people. Zhu Jiu could hear other meanings from the words. He knew that the Zhu family might be finished with just one sentence from the family head.

The ones who were going to be destroyed should not be the Zhu family from Ping City but the Zhu family from YN. If that continued, the Zhu family would abandon Zhu Jiu next!

Zhu Jiu took the most valuable things that he had. One of them was an extremely high-quality jade ornament. The original stone of that ornament was from the mine, and then he designed and made it himself. His love for that ornament was so great that he did not even want to give it to the Zhu family head as a birthday present.

However, he had to give it to someone else.

In a manor that was much bigger than the Zhu family villa, Master Sen was even angrier than Zhu Jiu.

When he heard the servant say that Zhu Jiu was there for a visit, Master Sen said, “He still has the cheek to see me? No! Tell him to get lost! “

When the servant was about to leave, Master Sen quickly changed his mind and sneered. "Bring him in..."

Chapter 1644: Anti-drug Convention

Master Sen was in his mansion's magnificent living room when Zhu Jiu arrived. A black-and-white document was on the table next to him. Zhu Jiu cast an unintentional glance at the paper. It was written in the YN language. He took a quick peek at it but did not dare to examine it closely.

"I reasoned that you should be really busy right now, Master Zhu. I did not think you would have time to come to my house." Zhu Jiu walked in, but Master Sen had no intention of allowing him to sit. He just sat there drinking tea. He also had no intention of allowing the servants to make more tea.

"I can't forget about you, Master Sen, no matter how busy I am." Zhu Jiu's heart skipped a beat. When he noticed Master Sen's change in attitude toward him, he had a bad feeling that Master Sen would vent his rage on him.

However, he was already there. He could not go back in time and change his mind.

Zhu Jiu could only fake a smile and act unconcerned. "I have something excellent here that I want to give to Master Sen." He tried to keep his smile. "It is a handcrafted ornament that I made myself. Master Sen's jade research is on par with mine. Why don't you take it and experiment with it?"

It was definitely an ornament that he had carefully hidden at home, but the Zhu family had little alternative but to take it out humbly.

He placed the ornament on the table and noticed that Master Sen did not reject him, so he sighed. "Master Sen must have known about my current difficulties." In terms of ability, I am not even half as good as you, Master Sen, so I wish to thicken my skin and seek your assistance. If you can help me reclaim the Zhu family's mines, we will give you half of them as a thank-you present."

Zhu Jiu would not have offered half of the mines as a thank-you present if Master Sen had not invited him in. He would have offered some ores instead.

Zhu Jiu, who had not even had a cup of tea, was aware of that. He would not be able to acquire anything from Master Sen until he paid a significant gift.

"Oh." Master Sen responded to Zhu Jiu's words. He upped his tone as if he was interested, but his demeanor remained the same. He was obviously merely pretending to be interested.

"Master Zhu, you have a problem, and I have a problem as well. Weren't you curious about the contents of the document? I know you like reading the YN language. You can read it leisurely if you take it. Tell me how to solve my problem," Master Sen stated as he shoved the document in front of Zhu Jiu.

Men would always be inquisitive.

That was due to their curiosity when they could not see something.

Zhu Jiu broke out in a cold sweat when Master Sen shoved the document in front of him. He guessed that the information on the paper was not good for Master Sen.

Zhu Jiu genuinely had no issue understanding the YN language. After all, he had spent the entire year interacting with YN people, so he only read the YN language a little slower than his own language.

Throughout the document, there were numerous clauses written thickly. The more he read, the more terrified Zhu Jiu was.

“Does that represent the two countries’ anti-drug treaty?” Zhu Jiu gasped. “YN is signing an anti-drug treaty with our country?”

Zhu Jiu was not in the mood to question Master Sen about how he obtained such a sensitive document as the anti-drug convention, which had yet to be signed. The different terms astounded him.

The government’s determination to combat narcotics at the time far exceeded Zhu’s expectations...

Chapter 1645: What Does It Say?

Even though YN had traditionally been rich in poppy flowers, and the local government supported the various anti-drug conventions in their anti-drug efforts, many farmers in YN rely on growing poppy flowers to feed their families. YN’s anti-drug initiatives had always been inadequate.

However, at the time, it was explicitly stated in the convention that the YN government would regulate all farmers and would no longer allow them to grow poppy flowers privately.

However, most of Master Sen’s supply had come from local farmers in recent years. Zhu Jiu knew Master Sen was planning to start his own firm. Over the years, a significant number of Master Sen’s farmers had come to an agreement—one would be responsible for planting, and the other would be responsible for purchasing as much as they could.

That treaty would deprive Master Sen of his money. One could even argue that the treaty was intended to deal with Master Sen.

“Do you recall how you and that idiotic woman, Zhu Qianlan, informed me about Jiang Yao back then, Master Zhu?” Master Sen asked sinisterly.

Yes, how could he have forgotten?

Zhu Jiu recalled Zhu Qianlan telling him that Jiang Yao was just a regular female medical university student. She had simply relied on marrying a reasonably capable military husband!

However, when the Zhu family investigated Jiang Yao and Jiang Yao’s spouse, they were cautioned by Jindo City residents who had heard the news. The locals had urged the Zhu family not to have any ill will toward Jiang Yao.

The Zhu family had already realized that Jiang Yao was not the simple-minded small-town girl she looked to be at the time.

Everyone in the Zhu family knew at the time that a small-town couple had compelled the Zhu family to disown Zhu Qianlan.

The neurotoxin, on the other hand, was too appealing. Master Sen desired it, and the Zhu family wanted it as well!

Despite multiple attempts and inquiries, the Zhu family chose to take that enormous risk. At the time, the Zhu family believed that as long as they received the neurotoxic, it did not matter if the entire Zhu family left the country. As long as they were closely tied to Master Sen, no one in YN could equal Master Sen, who commanded a vast army.

As a result, the Zhu family told Master Sen that Jiang Yao was only a college student the Divine Doctor had approved, and Jiang Yao's husband was only an ordinary soldier. Both the husband and woman were from an unknown city.

On the other hand, Zhu Jiu was skeptical that Master Sen had not dispatched more investigators. He probably believed their words because they could not find anything else.

"I am a little intrigued. Do you believe the Divine Doctor is no longer alive?" Unwillingly, Zhu Jiu inquired.

"What difference does it make if I believe it? What does it matter if I do not believe it?" Master Sen could not have anyone in the small town, so all he could do was wait.

If the Divine Doctor were not dead, he would show up sooner or later.

At the time, it would be best for him to avoid the subject for as long as possible.

"Do you know who Master Cheng is in your country?" Master Sen placed the teacup he held for a long time on the table. When his fingertips brushed against the solid wood tea table, he softly pressed the table's button, generating a dull banging sound.

That sound felt a little harsh and menacing.

"Although the Cheng family has been silent for the past ten to twenty years, a lean camel is bigger than a horse, as the phrase goes in your nation. Didn't your ancestors claim to be a hundred-year-old noble family on par with the Chengs? Then how come you are unaware that Jiang Yao is Master Cheng's daughter?"

After that, Master Sen abruptly raised his hand and banged it hard on the table as if the force was ready to break it...

Chapter 1646: Gone Too Far

"I received a report from Master Cheng's people. If I keep someone around to observe the Cheng family's young miss, I will not be able to get anything from MD Country! Even MD Country's Boss Li has to respect Master Cheng. Master Cheng's daughter has grown up to be a regular girl in a little town?"

“Is there any need for you to stay in this world if the Zhu family is so useless? The powerful prey on the helpless. A useless family like yours should have been wiped out long ago. Why should I put in so much effort to help a bunch of idiots?”

Even though Master Sen had suffered numerous setbacks, he could easily secure the Zhu family’s mines if he so desired.

However, why would he do such a thing?

He did not give a d*mn about a few mines!

Why did the Zhu family think it was worth it for him to assist them?

“That is not right! Master Cheng has only two sons! His eldest son is already in his twenties. Master Cheng’s second son is always by his side. He is only five years old. We had no idea Master Cheng had a daughter! Master Cheng’s firstborn son was born to his ex-wife, and his second son was born to the current Madam Cheng,” Zhu Jiu stated emphatically. “Master Cheng had been in prison before marrying the current Madam Cheng. He can’t possibly have a daughter as old as Jiang Yao!”

“Madam Cheng must have given birth to Master Cheng’s child.” Master Sen clicked his tongue and muttered, “You didn’t even realize he has a grown-up daughter. Where did you obtain the confidence to work with me?”

Master Sen would not have dispatched men to observe Jiang Yao and arranged for Pan Peng to appear if he had known Jiang Yao was Master Cheng’s daughter.

Master Sen reasoned that Master Cheng must have loved his daughter, and that was why he shielded her flawlessly. No one knew about her ties with the Cheng family, but Master Cheng was able to rally members from YN to her side.

“We are still unable to determine the true cause of Zhu Qianlan’s death. You mentioned the woman. Why don’t you believe Master Cheng’s men murdered Zhu Qianlan? Why would Master Cheng allow such a person to exist in the world if she intended to murder his daughter?”

Zhu Jiu’s face became pallid. Master Cheng’s men most likely caused the explosion in the mines. He did not forget that Master Cheng and the military were also involved in the Zhu family’s mine accident.

When Master Cheng’s men intervened, the military must have exploited the situation.

“Take your things and go. I loathed fools.” Master Sen issued the directive without mercy. He pushed the ornament with his palm as he looked at it. Then, he hurled Zhu Jiu’s priceless adornment on the ground.

The item shattered into pieces as it plummeted to the ground with a thud.

When Master Sen saw Zhu Jiu suppressing his rage, he laughed mockingly and left.

Zhu Jiu put up with the humiliation and gathered the fragments on the ground. Then he carried them out of Master Sen’s house.

“Master Sen, you have gone too far! If you do not wish to assist us, then so be it. You didn’t have to break that!”

Zhu Jiu’s subordinates were likewise enraged. Even a bystander felt his heart cry as he witnessed such excellent jewelry break into pieces, let alone Master Jiu.

The value of the fractured ornament would be substantially lowered, not to mention that there were relatively few decoration pieces of such high quality and size. Master Sen did not want it, and he even broke it on purpose. Master Jiu’s dignity broke as the ornament shattered...

Chapter 1647: Sell All Of It

“If it were me, I would also be ashamed.” Master Jiu gritted his teeth and looked backward. Even though he understood, he was the one who was humiliated. He could say that he did not care, and he could say that he understood, but he would never forget it! He would never forget Master Sen’s mockery and contempt toward him when he left!

“Go back and sell all the valuables in the villa! All our cars and houses, as well as our properties in YN, can be sold privately. Sell them all in cash and convert them into gold bars. Remember, you must keep those things hidden from the family head in Ping City. Don’t let anyone know. When we sell them, we’ll have enough money in our hands when we leave YN.”

Zhu Jiu’s subordinate’s eyes were filled with shock. “Master Jiu, you mean you want to leave?” Master Jiu’s subordinate did not expect Master Sen’s inaction would cause Master Jiu to abandon YN and take away all the valuable assets.

“Then what about the young masters and ladies in Ping City?”

“They are the old man’s grandchildren and great-grandchildren. If he is willing to part with them, he can just get rid of them. The children and grandchildren will make their way. I can’t even protect myself anymore, so why should I care so much?”

As he spoke, Zhu Jiu got into the car and stuck his face close to the driver’s as he asked him to drive away.

In the car, Zhu Jiu’s subordinate thought for a long time and asked, “Master Jiu, since we have been forced to this point, why don’t we go all out and get the doctor’s student when we return to the country?”

Zhu Jiu sneered, “What’s the use of taking her? Do you think Jiang Yao would know about the neurotoxin? At such a young age? Do you think the Divine Doctor thought so highly of her? Did you not hear Master Sen say that Jiang Yao is Master Cheng’s daughter? Do you want Master Cheng to come after us?”

After Zhu Jiu found out that Jiang Yao was Master Cheng’s daughter, he was confident that the Divine Doctor did not value her as a student. Although she was a student, she was most likely her assistant. If he had such a powerful toxin in his hands, he would definitely not let anyone obtain the method to make the virus if he were the Divine Doctor.

“Madam Cheng was unconscious for a long time. I don’t need to tell you how much Master Cheng must have loved her. If the Divine Doctor really valued Jiang Yao, why didn’t she help Madam Cheng? Why would Master Cheng let go of that opportunity?”

Zhu Jiu said, “Jiang Yao is now protected by Master Cheng’s men. Can our men still capture her? Even if they can take her away from Master Cheng, what will happen after that? If the Divine Doctor is dead, does Jiang Yao have the neurotoxin in her hands? Why would we capture Jiang Yao? To make Master Cheng chase after us and kill us?”

It turned out that Zhu Jiu’s plan to sell all the valuable things in YN for cash and gold was indeed correct. When Zhu Jiu left Master Sen’s place and returned to the Zhu family’s villa, he saw a group of soldiers in their family villa.

“What’s going on?” Zhu Jiu’s temples were throbbing. As he looked at the people with guns, he knew that they were not friendly.

“Master Jiu, the military said they want to ask the Zhu family for compensation for the environmental damages. They said that the big explosion in the mines caused serious damage to the local environment. They also need us to pay a sum of money for the military and police to assist in the rescue. After all, they have limited us to hand it in within three days... Otherwise—”

Chapter 1648: General Min Pang

The housekeeper wiped his sweat with his hand. “Otherwise, they will make Master Zhu go to the International Court of Justice.”

Zhu Jiu stood there, unable to give any reaction to those soldiers.

It was right for him to prepare to escape, but it was a pity that it was too late.

Those people did not give him any time to prepare, nor would they provide the Zhu family a chance to catch their breath.

The soldiers left after passing on the message. That was YN’s territory, and they were not afraid of what Zhu Jiu would do. They knew what valuable things the Zhu family had there.

Killing them was nothing more than that.

In another small town in that city, there was a table and a tea set on the table in Carl’s home. The evening breeze gently blew the aroma of the tea in the teacup.

“It seems that General Min Pang likes this tea very much. When our boss is free, we’ll get him to bring you some tea leaves. I heard from our boss that tea leaves are abundant in the south of his country, and the taste is different in every place.” Ruan Yongjun had seen Lu Xingzhi brew tea before. Therefore, when he brewed tea for Min Pang, he was imitating Lu Xingzhi’s movements.

Even though he could not fully imitate Lu Xingzhi, he was much better than Carl.

“I like the cultures in their country. Their history is long, so I can afford to savor it in detail.” Min Pang was not stingy with his praise. Then, he made a considerable comment. “Your tea-making skills are not good. You wasted that pot of good tea for nothing. I am very curious about your boss now. I wonder when I will be able to meet him.”

“Our boss has not been well recently and is recuperating. If there is a chance in the future, our boss will definitely come to visit you in person.” Ruan Yongjun would not reveal Lu Xingzhi. “They are in the military. Unless there’s a special situation, they will not be able to leave the country.”

However, it was different if it were Jiang Yao. Although she was a military wife, she did not have as many restrictions as Lu Xingzhi. Furthermore, Jiang Yao was Carl and Ruan Yongjun’s boss. The two mines belonged to Jiang Yao.

It was unknown if Min Pang was trying to probe for anything or if he was interested in Ruan Yongjun’s boss. When he heard Ruan Yongjun mention that his boss was not feeling well and was recuperating, he took the opportunity to offer to greet the other party over the phone.

Ruan Yongjun and Carl were caught off guard by Min Pang’s request. They had not told Jiang Yao about what had happened to them recently. Previously, Young Master Lu had told them that if things really got to that point, they did not need to report them to Jiang Yao so that she would not worry about it.

However, General Min Pang had offered to make a phone call, and Ruan Yongjun could not find any reason to refuse him.

After thinking about it, Ruan Yongjun felt that even if he had not informed Jiang Yao in advance, there should not be any problems with Jiang Yao’s reaction.

So, Ruan Yongjun gave Jiang Yao a call in front of Min Pang. After Jiang Yao picked up the call, he quickly said, “Director Jiang, Carl and I have arranged for people to blow up the Zhu family’s mines. After that, General Min Pang will help us seal their mines. With General Min Pang’s help, Zhu Jiu will probably have to worry about the compensation for environmental damage and the funds for the military and police to assist in the rescue. General Min Pang knows you haven’t been well recently, so he wants to talk to you personally. General Min Pang is concerned about your condition...”

Chapter 1649: Only 20 Years Old

Ruan Yongjun spoke very quickly, so there was only minimal delay. It sounded like he was explaining to his boss how much General Min Pang cared about her health and how he had helped them.

Therefore, when General Min Pang took the phone from Ruan Yongjun, he had an obvious smile on his face.

On the other hand, Jiang Yao’s heart was in a mess when she heard what Ruan Yongjun had said.

When she heard Ruan Yongjun’s words, her first reaction was to—

What? Carl and Ruan Yongjun had bombed the Zhu family’s mines?

What? Why were the Zhu family’s mines sealed?

What? The Zhu family also had to pay a huge amount of environmental damage compensation and assistance funds?

What earth-shattering things had Ruan Yongjun done in the past few days?

However, after the shock, Jiang Yao quickly calmed down when she heard the voice of a man in his thirties speaking to her.

Her palms were a little sweaty. She was afraid that she would be exposed when she spoke to General Min Pang. After all, she did not know much about what had happened at YN.

“General Min Pang, thank you for your help. If I didn’t feel unwell, I would have gone to YN to thank you.” Jiang Yao picked the most infallible words to exchange pleasantries with the man.

On the other hand, when General Min Pang heard the crisp voice of a young woman from the phone, he was stunned.

He held the phone in one hand and waved at Ruan Yongjun with the other. “Your boss is a woman?”

“Yes.”

Ruan Yongjun nodded with a face full of annoyance. “Look at me. I seem to have forgotten to introduce my boss to you. Yes, our boss is a woman. “

“She sounds very young.”

General Min Pang raised three fingers and asked, “Has she reached this age?”

Carl shook his head and walked forward to press down on General Min Pang’s middle finger. He looked at it and then stood back where he was.

“Twenty-something? Twenty-eight or twenty-nine?” General Min Pang stared at his two fingers.

“Twenty.”

Ruan Yongjun pouted. “She’s 20 years old.”

General Min Pang’s sitting posture changed. He cast a questioning glance at Carl and Ruan Yongjun. After more than ten seconds, he slowly put the phone back to his ear. He asked, “Ruan Yongjun said that you are only 20 years old, Director Jiang.”

If the other party were not General Min Pang and were someone Jiang Yao was slightly familiar with, she would definitely retort back at him. Was he surprised about that?

No one said that Jiang was not 20 years old, right?

No one in YN said that the owner of the two mines was only 20 years old.

However, Jiang Yao was much more relaxed because General Min Pang had repeatedly confirmed her age. She thought that he was an interesting man.

They were soldiers. Even though they had not seen anyone before, one might have heard of the other or heard of their voice. General Min Pang gave Jiang Yao a much better impression than Master Sen.

Perhaps it was because Master Sen wanted to hurt her and General Min Pang was the person Lu Xingzhi had chosen to cooperate with.

General Min Pang thought that Carl and Ruan Yongjun's boss was probably a young man around his age. He thought that the things that person sent were very compatible with his personality, which meant that he was good at observing and analyzing people. That made General Min Pang want to interact with that smart person more...

Chapter 1650: You Guys Blew It Up

However, because the other party was a young girl, General Min Pang's original intention of chatting a little longer was dispelled. After all, they were not familiar with each other. It would be rude of him to talk about something he should not have done.

Even though he was not a person who followed etiquette, he disdained to bully a 20-year-old young woman.

Therefore, when General Min Pang said he wanted to know how Jiang Yao was doing, that phone call turned into a concern for Jiang Yao's health. Then, he hung up.

When she heard the beeping sound from the phone, if it were not because Carl and Ruan Yongjun were still with General Min Pang, she wanted to call Ruan Yongjun immediately to ask him what was going on in YN.

There was a limit to the international broadcast content in their country. The news only mentioned the explosions at YN mines, but they did not say why.

Jiang Yao guessed that Carl and Ruan Yongjun might still need to entertain General Min Pang, so she did not wait for them. After dinner, she helped Mrs. Lu with acupuncture and then soaked her feet like she did a few days ago.

After almost ten days, Mrs. Lu's rheumatism did not feel as bad, even on a rainy day. After curing her rheumatism, Mrs. Lu felt much more relaxed, and she could not help but sigh. "I can't even stand the pain in my legs. How did Xiao Nian's father get through the pain all over his body like this? Being in their line of work is really hard and tiring. Speaking of which, it's no different than Lu Xingzhi's work."

"Mom, don't worry too much. Master Cheng is always in HL. The climate there is very warm. It doesn't drizzle in the spring season like it does here. It's not as difficult for him to stay in HL as you think." Jiang Yao did not mind it.

However, the mention of Lu Xingzhi made her even more worried. "Xingzhi has been in the army for so many years, and he has a lot of injuries. A veteran in our town joined the military for more than ten years before returning. He was in the same situation as Mr. Cheng. When it rains, he has to rely on painkillers. I'm afraid that Xingzhi will grow old and become like that old soldier."

Jiang Yao shook her head and said, "That won't happen. Mom, Xingzhi still has me, his wife, who is a doctor. He can't hide any injuries from me. If he is injured, I will do my best to heal his body."

Jiang Yao thought that if her husband had to endure so much hardship, even when he was old, then would she not be the Divine Doctor for nothing?

Jiang Yao waited for Ruan Yongjun's call until almost nine o'clock in the evening. By then, Ruan Yongjun had sent General Min Pang out of that small town.

Ruan Yongjun waited for General Min Pang to leave before returning Jiang Yao's call.

"You said that you were the ones who blew up the Zhu family's mine, and General Min Pang helped seal the mines. Ruan Yongjun, you're so amazing." Jiang Yao praised Ruan Yongjun. However, there was no sarcasm in her words. Jiang Yao felt that what Ruan Yongjun did was so powerful that it was beyond her imagination.

"Director Jiang, if Carl and I could make a fortune a few years ago, would we still need to run errands for the people in the small town? Young Master Lu arranged all those things. However, he said not to tell you that if you didn't ask about it. Young Master Lu didn't want you to worry about those things. He said that you need to recuperate..."
