

Chapter 1641: Untitled

The driver suddenly climbed behind the wheel.

Bright red blood spurted out instantly. Uncle Chu, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, couldn't avoid being sprayed with blood.

His eyes turned cold and he reached out to press Ji Fengmian's head as he got into the car.

A bullet pierced through the window and brushed past Ji Fengmian's hair before hitting the window on the other side.

In the nick of time.

If Uncle Chu hesitated, Ji Fengmian might have died on the spot!

On the main road, there were drivers who got out of their cars to investigate the road ahead. All of them witnessed this fatal scene.

It was rare for someone to kill someone with a Q in the country, let alone in broad daylight. It was really bold and daring.

The situation went out of control. Everyone on the streets ran around with their hands on their heads.

The chaotic scene forced the gunshots to stop.

Uncle Chu was certain that there must have been a sniper hiding in the distance.

This was because this was the main road. Not far ahead was the viaduct, and there were cars everywhere. Moreover, there was a traffic jam now. If there was a sniper in the car, it would have to be the car closest to them.

However, based on the direction of the bullet, it was easy to determine that it came from the left.

The windows of the car on the left were always closed. Judging from the penetrative power of the bullet, it was impossible for it to be caused by a close-range shot.

This was a deliberate murder, and the target of the murder was obviously them.

Uncle Chu didn't let go of Ji Fengmian. Instead, he maintained his posture and looked at Ji Fengmian.

"Miss, are you alright?"

Ji Fengmian's face turned cold. "I'm fine."

Uncle Chu nodded and fumbled for his phone.

"I'll call someone immediately."

The driver, who had been killed by the Q, collapsed due to the weightlessness.

Her head had been penetrated by the bullet, and warm, bright red blood was still flowing out of the bullet hole. The flesh around it was hideous.

Ji Fengmian suddenly closed his eyes, his eyelashes fluttering.

She was fine just now, but she lost her life without any warning.

No matter how strong her mental fortitude was, she couldn't accept the fact that a living being had died in front of her.

She could strategize in the business world, but she had never dabbled in human lives.

"Miss, calm down and protect yourself."

Ji Fengmian closed his eyes tightly and said, "Uncle Chu, someone wants to kill me."

Uncle Chu's face turned colder.

"Miss, you're thinking too much."

Ji Fengmian shook his head. "The power failure in a first-tier city on a working day caused the road control system to be disrupted. We're trapped here... This was all arranged by them."

Actually, how could Uncle Chu not have guessed this?

However, he couldn't spout nonsense without evidence.

After all, his Missy was from the royal family. There were too many things involved.

In fact, he could even guess who wanted her life.

"With the power outage in the city, the entire city is almost paralyzed, including the surveillance system. They can do whatever they want without any concealment. I can't think of another person who can do this..."

This thought wasn't something that could be easily achieved.

There were not many people who had the money and connections to cut off the power in the city.

The Bo Consortium was being pressured by the Ming Corporation and had no time to care about her. The other companies had nothing to do with her.

Speaking of which, there was probably only one person in the world who wanted her dead the most.

Uncle Chu's face was ugly and he was furious!

"How greedy is this woman?!"

Ji Fengmian sneered and mocked himself.

"I'm afraid I'll never be able to obtain true love and friendship in my life! The love and friends I fancy are the most fatal calamity in my life!"

Uncle Chu looked at Ji Fengmian with heartache and comforted him, "Miss, don't think too much. They might just be passersby in life! There's no need to waste your feelings on these people!"

Ji Fengmian smiled faintly, his mockery undiminished.

Lovers, friends...

The two most important existences in others' lives had ruined more than half of hers.

A passerby in his life?

Wasn't it too perfunctory to say that the two people who had taken half of her life were just passersby?

Uncle Chu knew that Ji Fengmian had his own considerations and it was useless to say anything more. Hence, he pursed his lips and stopped harping on this topic.

The gunshots outside the window had stopped. Uncle Chu looked up tentatively, but there was no reaction for a few seconds.

In broad daylight, Q Kill was so obvious that everyone had their attention on him. Now that the road was in a mess, he must be a smart person. He should be thinking of a way to escape.

After all, first-tier cities wouldn't allow power outages for too long.

In fact, the time they took was only a few minutes before the call.

Now that the situation was chaotic, the success rate of long-range sniping was almost zero.

At this moment, Uncle Chu had already finished his call. After confirming that the sniper had given up on attacking, he dared Ji Fengmian to straighten his body.

Yuan Sichun, who had been hiding in the car and observing the situation from afar, noticed that the sniper had given up on shooting. Her face twisted.

She pressed the communicator in her ear tightly, trembling with anger.

"Why did you stop? She's sitting up! Hurry up and hit her! What are you waiting for?!"

"There's no success rate for vision interference. If we don't leave now, we'll be discovered. We can only cancel this plan!"

"What do you mean cancel?!" Yuan Sichun's voice sounded sharp and crazy. "If we stop now, we'll alert the enemy. It won't be as easy to attack again in the future! Do you know that?!"

The sniper had no intention of listening to her. "No matter what you say, I can't carry out my plan today! If you want to do it, do it yourself!"

Yuan Sichun trembled in anger. "Useless!"

The other party cut off the communication with her.

Yuan Sichun was so angry that she pulled the communicator off her ear and threw it aside.

"Useless coward!"

She gritted her teeth and cursed. She sat alone in the passenger seat for a long time until her breathing gradually calmed down. Then, she stared at the car not far away with a vicious glint in her eyes.

"Ji Fengmian must die in a few days!"

Her words seemed to be squeezed out from the gaps of her teeth. Every word seemed to bite Ji Fengmian to death, filled with hatred.

Ji Fengmian was the person Shen Fanxing cared about the most. If she died, Shen Fanxing's expression would be extremely interesting

Chapter 1642: Untitled

Everyone in the car felt that Yuan Sichun had gone crazy.

They had been desperadoes for so many years, but they had never become lunatics like her.

Looking at her crazy expression, the man sitting in the driver's seat suddenly regretted taking her money and working for her.

He wasn't afraid of death, but he couldn't send himself to death so easily. He had so many people under him. He couldn't send them to their deaths so easily.

She was a complete lunatic.

After her anger subsided, an even more sinister smile appeared on her face.

"There's no point in letting her die immediately..."

She smiled darkly and turned to look at the traffic ahead.

"After the call and the traffic is cleared, bring that woman over!"

Ji Fengmian had always felt that Ye Jingyun wanted her dead. It would be best if she died on the spot. To her, there was nothing to worry about anymore!

Unexpectedly, someone had thought of using her to provoke Shen Fanxing.

She didn't expect someone to be so bold as to destroy the car door in such a place. Instead of taking her life, he took her away forcefully!

"Behave yourself, or I'll make his head explode!"

The man's face was ferocious as he pressed his forehead against Uncle Chu's and threatened Ji Fengmian.

Ji Fengmian's expression was calm and expressionless.

"Even if I dare to move now, I can't be faster than your gun. Is this your first time operating or are you not familiar with the business? Are you threatening me with such words?"

The gangster's face turned red from Ji Fengmian's words and he pressed the gun harder on her head.

"If you say another word, I'll beat you to death."

Ji Fengmian sneered. "Isn't my life in your hands at all times? If you can report to your boss or employer, go ahead."

The kidnapper was embarrassed by Ji Fengmian's words again.

He naturally couldn't do anything!

Boss had received money from his employer, who had asked him to bring this woman back.

She didn't say that she wanted him to kill her now.

If he really wanted to kill her, he wouldn't have gone through so much trouble.

This woman must have noticed it long ago.

There was no threat to being seen through. To a person who wanted to threaten others, it was really embarrassing.

"Cut the crap! Even if I don't want your life for the time being, it doesn't mean that I can't take his life! If you know what's good for you, follow me obediently!"

Ji Fengmian glanced at Uncle Chu and pursed his lips.

"If I don't cooperate, you won't take me away? Why waste your breath?!"

When the criminal heard this, he said sarcastically,

"At least you're sensible!"

"Missy, no!"

Uncle Chu understood what Ji Fengmian meant and wanted to stop him.

In the end, the criminal seemed to have been angered. He raised his hand and fired a shot at Uncle Chu's leg.

Uncle Chu's left thigh was hit and he staggered, kneeling on the ground with one leg.

The sound of a gunshot caused everyone to panic and scream subconsciously.

At this moment, someone started shouting,

"There's a call! Call the police and leave!"

When the criminal heard the voice, his expression changed. He knew that Ji Fengmian's leg wasn't good, so he carried her and quickly returned to the car before the traffic started.

The moment she saw Yuan Sichun, Ji Fengmian frowned.

Yuan Sichun met Ji Fengmian's gaze and smiled happily.

"Hello, Auntie Ji!"

Ji Fengmian narrowed his eyes as something flashed across his mind. A cold glint flashed across his eyes.

"Stupid and reckless thing."

Yuan Sichun's face darkened and she smiled again.

“Aunt Ji, you’re the one who doesn’t know whether you’re dead or alive. Tell me, if the two of you die at the hands of a stupid person like me, what would you be? More stupid than stupid?!”

Ji Fengmian sneered. “You’re crazy to do such a stupid thing! Do you think Fanxing can’t guess your trick?”

I think you’re used to being a young lady who doesn’t know anything about the world. You think that everything will go according to your plan! Fanxing, you’re not that stupid!”

When Yuan Sichun heard Ji Fengmian comparing her to Shen Fanxing and belittling her, she lost control of her emotions and her face contorted.

“Since your Fanxing is so good, I must let the two of you meet before you die! Don’t you think so?”

Ji Fengmian sneered. “I told you, she’s not you. She’s not that stupid!”

Yuan Sichun pursed her lips tightly.

She stopped talking as the car in front of her began to move slowly.

She glanced at the man in the driver’s seat. The man immediately started the car and started to overtake the cars in front of him!

Uncle Chu’s leg was injured and he could only watch as the car carrying Ji Fengmian left.

With much difficulty, he stood up and grabbed his phone to call Shen Fanxing.

Shen Fanxing’s car was stuck in traffic due to the sudden blackout. She stopped at the intersection for a long time, curious about why there was a sudden blackout. However, she didn’t think too much about it.

Not long after the electricity came back and the traffic was smooth, she received a call from Uncle Chu.

“Uncle Chu, what’s wrong?”

“Little Miss...”

Uncle Chu’s voice was filled with anxiety, but after calling Shen Fanxing, he remained silent.

“What’s wrong, Uncle Chu?”

Uncle Chu paused and said, “Nothing, I’m just calling to ask if you’re home.”

Shen Fanxing frowned and said, “We’ve only been apart for 15 minutes. Grand View Manor is in the suburbs. There’s no reason for us to arrive so quickly. If we continue, you should have reached home before me. You should know this, right?”

Uncle Chu paused for a while, his breathing unstable due to the injury on his leg.

“... I know, but... there was a traffic jam on the way. I wanted to know if you guys had arrived early?”

Shen Fanxing wasn’t suspicious of Uncle Chu’s reason.

“I’ve been stuck in a traffic jam just now. It’s probably caused by the power failure in the city.”

“Oh, I see. Alright, I got it. Remember to call me when you get home.”

“... I understand. Be careful on your way.”

After hanging up, Shen Fanxing looked at Uncle Chu’s call history and frowned in confusion.

“What’s wrong? Why are you frowning after answering a call?”

Seeing her strange expression, Lou Ruoyi couldn’t help but ask.

Shen Fanxing kept her phone and shook her head gently.

“...Nothing. I feel that Uncle Chu’s call is very strange.”

“How is it strange?”

Shen Fanxing pondered for a while before shaking her head.

“Maybe I’m thinking too much.”

The blackout in the city today and what happened on the road had undoubtedly become news that the media had to report.

Chapter 1643: Untitled

Within a few minutes, the news online became the hottest topic.

Shen Fanxing had been chatting with Lou Ruoyi along the way. She didn’t expect her to pay attention to the news online.

She didn’t expect that not long after the opening ceremony ended, she would become trending again.

On the way, they bumped into a traffic light. Beside them was a small-scale mother and child shop.

Lou Ruoyi was overjoyed because she was about to have two grandchildren.

Every minute and every second, her two little cuties were in her heart.

When she saw the store, she couldn’t help but pull Shen Fanxing out of the car excitedly.

Shen Fanxing had no choice but to follow.

However, when she arrived at the mother-and-child shop, all she saw was powder of various colors.

Pink, blue, green, pink...

All of them were clean and tidy.

There were all kinds of things.

Seeing this, Shen Fanxing was filled with anticipation.

She placed her hand on her stomach. Thinking of her and Bo Jinchuan’s child, she started to look forward to it.

If she was like him, was the baby really beautiful?

She had missed out on Bo Jinchuan's childhood. Could she indirectly see the baby's childhood?

She must be adorable.

She had seen photos of him as a child.

Lou Ruoyi stood at the end of the shelf. Through the gap between them, she saw Shen Fanxing's actions and expression. The smile on her face was full of relief.

She was all too familiar with that expression.

Wasn't that her younger self?

After knowing that she was pregnant and that she was pregnant with the man she loved the most, how could the fantasy and anticipation not be the current Shen Fanxing?

From this, it could be seen that this woman had no ulterior motives towards Jinchuan.

She loved Jinchuan.

Just like how she loved Bo Sichen back then.

She hoped that Jinchuan would never hurt her.

That shouldn't be the case. The two of them were so close now and Jinchuan doted on Fanxing so much. Why would he do something to hurt her?

Raising an eyebrow, she threw these heavy thoughts to the back of her mind and happily picked up a set of family attire.

The entire set was for a family of four. It was specially designed for the twins' family. Moreover, it was a thoughtful design for twins.

Lou Ruoyi looked at the clothes on the rack and the smile on her face widened.

"Good, it's so cute. I want this blue one! And this white one, the pink one is so cute, and the green one... I want all of them!"

When Shen Fanxing heard Lou Ruoyi, she couldn't help but put down the milk powder she was studying and walked to her side.

When she saw that Lou Ruoyi was already carrying a huge bag, she opened her mouth in surprise.

"... You... We don't need that much?"

As she spoke, she glanced at the pink family outfit in Lou Ruoyi's arms. She didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"... No, Mom, Ah Chuan definitely won't wear it. There's also purple and blue..."

Lou Ruoyi hugged the clothes in her arms even tighter!

"I don't care! I bought it anyway. He has to wear it no matter what!"

Seeing Lou Ruoyi's expression, Shen Fanxing pursed her lips worriedly.

“...Don’t worry, I’m here! Besides, don’t look at that brat too seriously. He might even be looking forward to wearing these with you!”

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow and a smile appeared in her eyes. She shook her head subconsciously, revealing her disbelief.

Lou Ruoyi pouted and said, “Forget it if you don’t believe me! Anyway, be prepared to spit out your rice!”

Shen Fanxing smiled faintly and didn’t take it seriously.

In short, she felt that she didn’t even need to prepare for this.

Bo Jinchuan would definitely not look forward to wearing these clothes like she said...

Lou Ruoyi didn’t insist on competing with Shen Fanxing. She turned around and said to the salesperson, “Bring me a shopping cart.”

The salesperson immediately smiled and nodded. “Please wait a moment.”

Lou Ruoyi nodded and handed the items to the salesperson. She turned around and ran to the container beside her. She saw the old-fashioned tiger shoes again.

“Oh my, why are all her things so cute?”

As she spoke, she kept the two pairs of shoes.

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

After that, Lou Ruoyi saw another pram and almost jumped up in excitement.

She pointed at the pram and shouted happily at Shen Fanxing,

“Fanxing, Fanxing! Look at this. If we push this out, won’t it be super cool?!”

Shen Fanxing glanced at the pram. It was different from the usual pram. The two seats were specially designed for the twins.

Shen Fanxing couldn’t help but sigh.

He was indeed a master of his trade.

She even saw the triplets’ pram.

Fortunately, these designers knew the limits of humans. She had yet to see quadruplets or even more designs from this store.

But now, a twin pram was enough to make Lou Ruoyi ecstatic.

There was no doubt that Lou Ruoyi had bought it.

There were even some babies’ toys.

Cradle, small pillow, small bedding, toys placed beside the pillow, and toys hanging above her head were all my best. They were all taken in pairs.

If not for the fact that there were products of different ages in the store, Lou Ruoyi would have emptied the store.

Her presence attracted the attention of many customers in the shop. A few sales assistants followed behind her cautiously, afraid that she would suddenly regret and return all the items.

“Okay, that’s enough. Mom, that’s enough. If we go down, there won’t be enough space in our car?”

Seeing that Lou Ruoyi had no intention of stopping, Shen Fanxing pulled her towards the cashier.

Being pulled by Shen Fanxing, Lou Ruoyi didn’t give up. She grabbed two music cards and shook them before letting go. She followed Shen Fanxing to the cashier.

When it was time to settle the bill, Lou Ruoyi pushed Shen Fanxing again.

“Get out of the way. I bought these for my grandchildren. Don’t deprive me of my rights, or I’ll fight you. Do you hear me?”

Shen Fanxing didn’t insist. She didn’t lack money and neither did Lou Ruoyi.

Moreover, Lou Ruoyi was right. She had bought it for her grandson. She had no right to interfere!

She was too pretentious.

More importantly, she was insensible.

This was not a matter of money.

When the salesperson looked up and saw Shen Fanxing at a close distance, she was stunned.

Chapter 1644: I Want to Sleep With Her

When the salesperson looked up and saw Shen Fanxing at a close distance, she was stunned.

Shen Fanxing was a sharp person.

From the start, the salesperson beside her and the customers who kept a distance from her looked at her strangely.

She thought that it was because of her recent incidents.

However, when she saw the cashier’s expression up close, she was certain that everyone was looking at her not just because of her popularity.

Instead, it was because someone might have pushed her into the limelight again.

But she didn’t know why!

Moreover, she shouldn’t have offended anyone recently. She didn’t have any plans to complete.

Everything had just come to an end and there wasn’t a period of peace. The frequency of things happening shouldn’t be that high.

Faced with the cashier's startled expression, Shen Fanxing frowned and asked,

"Do you have any questions?"

The cashier immediately came back to her senses and shook her head in a panic. "No... it's just... congratulations... twins..."

Shen Fanxing looked at the pile of items in front of her and pursed her lips.

Lou Ruoyi laughed happily.

"We're preparing in advance! We're buying double copies of everything for a good omen. I hope we can really have twins in the future!"

The cashier nodded awkwardly.

"I see... I hope your wishes come true!"

"Hahaha, I'll definitely do it... I'll definitely succeed! My son has good stamina!"

"..."

"..."

"..."

The surroundings fell silent for a while, and a low chuckle could be heard.

Shen Fanxing had never embarrassed herself in front of so many people before. Her ears turned red and she covered her forehead with one hand, wanting to find a hole to hide in.

The cashier couldn't help but laugh dryly.

Her gaze lingered on Shen Fanxing's face. When Shen Fanxing met her gaze, she hurriedly avoided it.

There were obvious wrinkles on Shen Fanxing's forehead.

As she had bought too many things, Shen Fanxing helped to carry some.

Along the way, Ruoyi grabbed Shen Fanxing and held onto some small items as she chatted happily.

Shen Fanxing's attention was attracted by these items.

After all, these were her children. The things in front of her had the best fantasies and expectations for them.

On the way home, Lou Ruoyi arranged for a room to be vacated before she brought Shen Fanxing to decorate the nursery.

Shen Fanxing enjoyed it too.

She was completely immersed in the room and all the little things.

"Take your time to decorate. I'll get someone to buy me some other things."

Lou Ruoyi suddenly stood up and said, "I'll contact the designer. Since we're going to design a nursery, the crib must be the best!"

Without waiting for Shen Fanxing's response, she stormed out of the room.

Not long after Lou Ruoyi left the room, the faint smile on her face disappeared and she looked serious.

She went downstairs and Auntie Zhang greeted her worriedly.

"Madam..."

"What's wrong?" Lou Ruoyi asked solemnly.

"The blackout in the city seemed to have been caused by someone." Aunt Zhang couldn't bear it.

"So?"

Auntie Zhang's expression wasn't good. "The power failure caused a road accident. During the traffic jam, the old master of the Chu family was shot and Madam Ji was forcefully taken away!"

Hearing this, Lou Ruoyi's eyebrows twitched.

"What... what did you say?... Who was taken away?"

Auntie Zhang couldn't bear it and said, "It's Young Madam's mother. Her car was blocked on the way home and she was attacked by bandits. The old master of the Chu family was severely injured by a gunshot. She was taken away by the bandits on the spot and her whereabouts are unknown... This news is all over the news..."

Lou Ruoyi pressed her throbbing temples and looked up at the stairs. She gripped the handrail tightly and her body felt weak.

"Damn it... Who is so daring to touch the Bo family's in-laws?"

Auntie Zhang shook her head. "I don't know! The media reported that the relevant departments have no records of the identity of the criminal... I don't know anything else..."

Lou Ruoyi walked to the living room and switched on the television. It was indeed about the kidnapping!

Ji Fengmian's head was held by a young man with a gun. He was brought to a black SUV and forcefully pushed into the car.

The car stayed on the spot for a few minutes before driving away several times.

Although it was taken with her phone, she could still see these things clearly.

Lou Ruoyi placed her hand by her mouth and bit her finger hard. Her brows were tightly furrowed and her face was dark.

"Cut off the network in the manor first. Don't let Young Madam know about this! She's pregnant now, so you have to take care of her emotions. Don't let her worry about the child..."

Auntie Zhang nodded. "Don't worry, Madam. I know. I'll arrange it immediately."

Lou Ruoyi nodded and walked to the phone to call Bo Sichen.

“Hubby...”

Her voice was filled with seriousness and seriousness. There was no trace of the happiness and heartlessness she usually had when facing Bo Sichen.

“I’ve seen the news. Jinchuan knows about this too. Get him to investigate.”

After years of interaction, even if Lou Ruoyi didn’t say anything, Bo Sichen could guess what she wanted to say from her tone.

His words made Lou Ruoyi’s eyes turn red.

“Hubby, I just persuaded my in-laws to move to Grand View Manor to play with me and take care of Fanxing... It wasn’t easy for me to get her stomach... I still want to be good sisters with her and sleep with her. I also want to chat with her and play with my two precious grandchildren... I’ve thought of so many fun things. Nothing must happen to her...”

Bo Sichen didn’t speak for more than ten seconds.

They slept together, chatted together, and played with their grandchildren...

Shouldn’t all these be with her?

Also, what did he mean by “playing with two precious grandsons”?

Was her precious grandson for fun?

Why was he more and more worried about his two future grandchildren?

If he didn’t know that this wasn’t the time to be calculative, he would have rushed to the manor to bring this worrisome woman to his side.

Why did her heart change so quickly not long after she was released?

“Also, the most important thing is Fanxing. She’s pregnant now. If she finds out that something has happened to her mother and is anxious... will there be an accident? Boohoo... Hubby, I’m afraid! Nothing can happen to our in-laws. She has just returned. If she... Fanxing is so pitiful...”

Chapter 1645: Untitled

“Also, the most important thing is Fanxing. She’s pregnant now. If she finds out that something has happened to her mother and is anxious... will there be an accident? Boohoo... Hubby, I’m afraid! Nothing can happen to our in-laws. She has just returned. If she... Fanxing is so pitiful...”

The moment Lou Ruoyi met Bo Sichen, her true colors were revealed. She was weak, helpless, and pitiful. In front of Bo Sichen, she had no motivation at all!

All these years, she had gotten used to relying on Bo Sichen. The moment she met him, she was like a “little piece of trash” who didn’t know what to do.

Bo Sichen’s weakness was Lou Ruoyi’s weakness!

Hearing her aggrieved look, he couldn't take it anymore!

"Don't worry, since the other party didn't do anything to her directly but chose to take her away, it means that she will be fine for a while! The other party might use her to achieve certain goals..."

"Wuwuwu..." Lou Ruoyi cried even harder. Her voice wasn't loud, but the sound coming from between her fingers sounded especially sad!

"Now that you've said that, I feel even worse... It hasn't been long since her in-law came back. Besides, with her unlovable personality, how could there be anyone close to her? In the end, it's only Fanxing..."

Are you saying that the other party wants to threaten Fanxing? Who killed her..."

Lou Ruoyi cried softly as she gritted her teeth.

Bo Sichen was silent for a moment. "Don't worry, Jinchuan will handle this..."

"But water from afar can't save fire! That brat is unemployed now and he doesn't want to be his gigolo! Why is he running overseas every day?"

What's the use of having him? He used to think about work every day. The only thing he did was to find a daughter-in-law for me!

Now that my wife is pregnant, where... did he go?!

The more Lou Ruoyi spoke, the angrier she became. In the end, she couldn't help but lose her temper!

Aunt Zhang shook her head and waved at Lou Ruoyi anxiously!

He was hinting that she was speaking too loudly!

Lou Ruoyi glanced at her and immediately realized her mistake. She hurriedly covered her mouth!

"... I don't care. Anyway, don't let me see that brat again. Otherwise, I'll teach him a lesson!"

"Okay, whatever you want."

Bo Sichen allowed her to do whatever she wanted, as though his son was born for Lou Ruoyi to play with!

She had had enough fun. She could do whatever she wanted.

It was all up to her.

Lou Ruoyi sobbed. "He's still your son. Why don't you feel sorry for him? Do you not love them?"

Bo Sichen was silent for a few seconds. "...Yes."

If Bo Jinchuan or Bo Jinghang were to hear this, they would definitely have goosebumps.

They had never heard their biological father mention the word "love" to them!

Moreover, this sentence sounded mushy to most people.

Not to mention two tall and well-built men who were equally sullen.

Don't get goosebumps. The image his father had maintained in their hearts for decades would probably plummet.

On the other hand, Lou Ruoyi did not feel anything different. When she heard Bo Sichen say that he loved his two sons, she was naturally very happy.

"Then why didn't you stop me from hitting them..."

Bo Sichen fell silent for a few seconds.

"... I love you more."

An unconcealable smile finally appeared on Lou Ruoyi's aggrieved face.

"...Alright, I'll teach that rascal Bo Jinchuan a lesson..."

Bo Sichen sounded slightly relieved. "As long as you're happy."

"Yes!"

Lou Ruoyi hummed heavily. Not long after, her expression changed and she said,

"This is not the time to talk about this. You... you only know how to coax me! My in-law is still in danger. It's not the time to talk about love with you!"

Aunt Zhang was at a loss.

Yes, now was not the time for romance!

Moreover, they had been married for so many years. Her two sons had already married. Why were they still dating?

Bo Sichen pursed his lips. "...You can only be anxious about this matter. It's useless. I've just said that the in-laws are fine now..."

Lou Ruoyi pouted and said, "Anyway, I'm very sad now. I'm not talking to you anymore. I'm going to accompany Fanxing! I don't want anything to happen to my two precious grandchildren!"

Bo Sichen's tone was a little stiff and cold. "...You mean that I'm not as important as your two grandsons now?"

"Of course, isn't that obvious?" Lou Ruoyi said matter-of-factly without any hesitation.

When Bo Sichen heard this, although he knew that he shouldn't be calculative about this matter, he couldn't control his temper.

This woman was really up to no good.

"Lou Ruoyi..."

"Why? I'm not telling you the truth. I've been with you for decades and there's no novelty anymore! How long have I been with Fanxing? I can't even see my two precious grandchildren now! Don't worry, I still love you. Muacks! I'm hanging up. I want to see Fanxing!"

To be honest, the kiss didn't make Bo Sichen feel better. Just as he was about to say something, Lou Ruoyi hung up the phone without giving him a chance to speak.

“...”

Auntie Zhang heaved a sigh of relief. Madam had really given her a heart attack!

How dare she say such things to Mr. Bo?

When Master was young, he was cold and stern. He had a bad temper and was difficult to get along with. She had been in the Bo family for decades and knew this very well.

Moreover, Madam knew Master's temper back then. Now...

She still remembered that she had accidentally seen the cover of a young servant's phone a few days ago. There was a sentence written on it: “Women deserve to be doted on. The more you dote on them, the more balls you have.”

Back then, she shook her head. Her words were right, but it made the woman seem too straightforward and unrestrained. Moreover, it was a little unrealistic.

Seeing Madam like this today, she really began to agree with this sentence.

Indeed, women who were used to being pampered were bold.

Lou Ruoyi hung up and sighed, her face full of worry.

...

Under Auntie Zhang's notice, the entire villa was cut off from the internet. She wanted to hide it from Shen Fanxing for the time being.

...

Lou Ruoyi went upstairs to her room. Shen Fanxing was still in the house, fiddling with the baby carriage.

When she saw Lou Ruoyi, she smiled at her.

Chapter 1646: Untitled

When she saw Lou Ruoyi, she smiled at her.

“How's the search for the designer?”

Lou Ruoyi studied her carefully for a few seconds, but she couldn't detect anything unusual from her smiling face.

“I've dragged this matter to your father. He knows a lot and he must have found the best one.”

Shen Fanxing nodded her head.

His expression remained calm.

Lou Ruoyi stared at her carefully for a while. After confirming that she did not seem to know about the news, she relaxed slightly.

Walking to her side, she pretended not to know anything and fiddled with the pram with her.

“Don’t worry, my grandson will definitely be the happiest in the world! From the moment he was born! No, it should be from now on!”

After her bold words, Shen Fanxing smiled faintly.

“Yes, they’re very lucky to have such a good grandmother like you!”

Lou Ruoyi smiled and said, “I’m the lucky one! The only thing that Bo Jinchuan has done to make me happy is to pursue you as my wife. More importantly, he has the ability to make you pregnant. Haha...”

Shen Fanxing smiled and lowered her head to continue fiddling with the pram.

Lou Ruoyi smiled shyly and the two of them packed the pram. Shen Fanxing brought a few toys and placed them in front of the pram.

Although the room had not been specially designed as a nursery, there was already a strong aura.

This was the babies’ room.

They would grow day by day in this room.

Shen Fanxing smiled faintly, her eyes full of yearning and anticipation.

Lou Ruoyi understood how a mother felt.

Especially giving birth to a new life for the man she loved.

Moreover, it was the fruit that belonged to her and him alone. It was the only proof of their closest relationship.

A mother’s feelings were not only about loving her child, but also her feelings for her husband.

Lou Ruoyi pursed her lips and looked at Shen Fanxing’s elegant face. She had mixed feelings.

She really prayed that nothing would happen to her in-law.

She didn’t want anyone or anything to ruin any smile on this child’s face.

“Go and rest for a while. I’ll get the chef to cook something for you! I’ll leave the chicken soup for you this morning... Forget it... You shouldn’t eat it. I’ll get the chef to stew it for you again!”

This time, Shen Fanxing didn’t react strangely when she heard about food.

Instead, she smiled faintly and nodded.

“Yes, thank you, Mom.”

Lou Ruoyi smiled and instructed again, “Go and rest.” Then, she left the room.

Closing the door, Shen Fanxing scanned the room before her gaze landed on the sets of parent-child outfits.

She reached out and opened them one by one. The sizes of the two sets of clothes were specially designed for babies who were one month old.

Shen Fanxing's smile widened and her face was filled with love and affection.

She placed the dress on the pram. Beside it was a dress of the same color as Bo Jinchuan's.

After staring at the set of clothes for a long time, the smile on her face gradually faded.

She reached out to cover her abdomen as her smile faded...

When Lou Ruoyi came up to call Shen Fanxing to eat, she found her in the bedroom.

She was sleeping peacefully when Lou Ruoyi woke her up.

Looking at Shen Fanxing, Lou Ruoyi felt slightly comforted.

Sleeping well was one of the characteristics of a pregnant woman.

Yes, a pregnant woman should act like one.

She didn't want to do or think about anything. She wanted to be the happiest mother-to-be in the world.

The more she looked at Shen Fanxing, the more Lou Ruoyi liked her.

He looked smart and capable, refreshing and simple, wise and intelligent, and was in a daze...

None of these felt out of place on Shen Fanxing.

She was pleasing to the eye.

Sitting by the bed, Lou Ruoyi smoothed her slightly messy hair.

She felt that she was really lucky in this life.

She had two outstanding sons with the man she truly loved. Now, she had two intelligent and docile daughters-in-law. She had encountered all the good things in the world.

"Go wash up and eat."

Shen Fanxing nodded and got out of bed.

She didn't look into Lou Ruoyi's eyes.

Because the emotions revealed by those eyes would make her... unable to control her emotions.

Since she had gotten too much, she wanted more.

People just couldn't stop being greedy.

After giving her instructions, Lou Ruoyi left the room.

Shen Fanxing came out of the washroom and tidied her clothes before heading downstairs calmly.

All the servants in the manor greeted Shen Fanxing as usual as they busied themselves with their work.

However, it was obvious that she was stiff and unnatural.

They didn't dare to look at Shen Fanxing. Even if they did, they would look away instantly.

Afraid that Shen Fanxing would catch her and ask her something, she accidentally let it slip.

Given Shen Fanxing's sensitivity, it was impossible for her not to notice.

However, she walked towards the dining room as usual.

At this moment, there was nothing unusual.

Outside the manor, Yu Song rushed over with a team of cars and arranged the people in the cars around the manor as quickly as possible.

The atmosphere in the manor was completely different. Everyone could feel it.

However, she had to hide it from everyone, so she naturally felt guilty. She didn't realize that there were any flaws in her words and actions. Seeing how nonchalant Shen Fanxing was, she subconsciously felt that she had hidden it well.

But in reality...

Shen Fanxing had eaten a lot in the afternoon, but not much.

Lou Ruoyi was relieved to see that she could still eat.

To Lou Ruoyi, being able to eat and drink was the best state of mind.

After dinner, Lou Ruoyi brought Shen Fanxing for a walk in the manor. The two of them chatted and laughed naturally.

However, after all the usual arrangements were completed, the rest of the time was Shen Fanxing's.

Lou Ruoyi had thought too simply.

He turned off the internet in the manor, but his phone still had a signal.

Without wifi, she still had a mobile network.

Back at the shopping mall, she had already sensed that something was amiss. It was impossible for her not to pay attention to the news online.

How could such a thing be hidden?

Chapter 1647: Gray Zone

He couldn't hide it.

If she wanted to know, nothing could be hidden from her.

Moreover, the target was too big.

There was no longer any news online.

It was obvious that someone had secretly suppressed the news.

However, she had already seen the news when Lou Ruoyi went downstairs to make a call.

Her mother was taken away openly in the city. In the afternoon, there was a blackout in the city. Now, there was a clear reason.

The other party's motive was obviously to let her know.

After being in the business world for so long, it was mostly fair competition. The strong would win. It was a social relationship where the strong preyed on the weak. She admitted that she didn't have any enemies in the business world.

If there was, it would be a competition between companies.

She couldn't think of anyone else who wanted to use her mother to seduce her.

There was no need to investigate who had done this.

Instead, he wanted to confirm if she was the culprit.

Qi Mohan was definitely good at this.

Sure enough, when Shen Fanxing sent him a message to confirm, Qi Mohan quickly gave her an affirmative answer.

"Leave this matter to me. If you appear, won't you fall into the other party's trap? Don't worry, your mother is fine. I won't let that woman off!"

Qi Mohan simply sent a voice message. His tone sounded stiff and forceful.

Shen Fanxing didn't reply.

All afternoon, from the news report until now, her phone had been silent without a single message or call.

Bo Jinchuan, Xu Qingzhi, Bo Jinghang, Sang Yu, and even the employees...

She didn't blame them for being heartless.

Because she knew that all of them wanted to hide it from her.

As for the reason why the company's employees and even the others were so united, she wondered who had specially given them a warning.

Bo Jinchuan, Xu Qingzhi, Bo Jinhang, Sang Yu...

All of them had made the same decision knowing that she was pregnant.

They were all the people closest to her. She understood them the most.

Her hand gently caressed her stomach, but her fingertips were trembling unconsciously.

'Yes.'

She couldn't... be sad and anxious...

Everyone hoped that she would be fine.

She couldn't disappoint all of them, nor could she let anything happen to her.

She had to protect her and Ah Chuan's baby.

Seeing Qi Mohan's message, Shen Fanxing replied to him.

"I don't want to see her again."

After a long while, Qi Mohan replied.

"I know. Even if you don't tell me, I don't want her to have the chance to annoy you again."

Shen Fanxing placed her phone aside.

Glancing at the time, she entered the bathroom calmly.

News of Ji Fengmian being taken away had been blocked.

On the other hand, the news of Lou Ruoyi and Shen Fanxing shopping crazily in the mother and baby shop had long occupied the headlines.

Although Lou Ruoyi said that she was just preparing for the future, it couldn't stop everyone from gossiping.

#Shen Fanxing is suspected to be pregnant #

#Shen Fanxing is now pregnant with twins

#Shen Fanxing Pregnant Before Marriage#

The netizens had guessed that Shen Fanxing was pregnant.

Now, she had everything she could think of.

When Yuan Sichun saw the trending topic, she gripped her phone so tightly that her white joints could be seen.

At this moment, they were still at the border of Ping Cheng City and the intersection with C Nation.

It was a gray area.

Saboteurs, rioters, gunpowder, Q Branch...

In a chaotic place, there was everything.

In fact, this place that should have been barren due to the unrest was prosperous on the surface.

There was no lack of gold and silver here, but most of them were the products of the rioters' crimes.

Although money was good, in this place, it was better to have quality than quantity.

There were important weapons here, and gold and silver might not be able to buy the weapons they needed the most.

They wanted to go out and exchange for it, but Ping Cheng was on their left. The ZF wouldn't allow them to cross the border easily!

On the right was C Nation. The managers of C Nation would not allow them to violate their territory.

In the middle, the leaders of their region would not let them leave either. The countries on both sides could not offend them at will, or the consequences would be disastrous.

Regardless of whether it was the C Nation or Ping Cheng City's confidential departments, they were most afraid of the gathering place of rioters. However, there was nothing they could do. The guards at the border were also especially vigilant.

However, they were glad that the leader of this dark area had saved them a lot of trouble.

Without his permission, no one was allowed to step into the other borders. Those who disobeyed—kill!

Yes!

The reason why Yuan Sichun brought Lou Ruoyi here was because in this place that was filled with thugs and rioters, it was not illegal to kill someone.

Hence, even if she killed Ji Fengmian here, the law couldn't trap her.

More importantly, she wanted to make Shen Fanxing anxious. It would be best if she didn't eat or sleep well. More importantly, she wanted her to rush here.

Then, she could kill the mother and daughter without any pressure.

She wanted the person she hated the most to disappear from this world.

The expression on her face gradually turned crazy. She loosened her grip on the phone and turned to look at Ji Fengmian, who was sitting quietly with a calm and cold expression.

Yuan Sichun hated this expression and attitude.

It was almost the same as Shen Fanxing.

It was as if nothing in this world would affect them.

Anger raged and burned her crazy heart.

They had already changed to an off-road vehicle without a license plate. On the bumpy road, the car shook violently.

After looking at Ji Fengmian for a long time, Yuan Sichun suddenly sneered.

"Your precious daughter is pregnant?"

When Ji Fengmian heard this, there was no change in his expression.

“Do you have to find a reason for yourself to kill someone? If you want to kill her, kill her. If you want to lure her here, lure her here. After all, she wants our lives. What has her pregnancy got to do with you?”

With a sinister smile on her face, Yuan Sichun said, “I naturally don’t need any reason. I just feel that if she’s really pregnant, I’ll be happier if I can kill those two b*stards together.”

As she spoke, her gaze was fixed on Ji Fengmian’s face.

After Ji Fengmian heard this, his eyes shifted to her face.

Yuan Sichun smiled, thinking that she would be angry.

“Are you angry? I think if Shen Fanxing really appears, I’ll let you watch as the child leaves her body. What kind of expression will the two of you have?”

Chapter 1648: Leader

“Are you angry? I think if Shen Fanxing really appears, I’ll let you watch as the child leaves her body. What kind of expression will the two of you have?”

However, Ji Fengmian only looked at her coldly and sneered.

Yuan Sichun frowned again at her indifferent attitude.

“The two of you are really good at pretending to be calm.”

Ji Fengmian continued to look at her calmly.

“I just don’t want to argue with a lunatic.”

Her lips curled up slightly and there was a faint smile in her eyes. She looked pitiful.

“It’s natural to live happily. If you think her pregnancy will make you happier, you can think so.”

The smile on Yuan Sichun’s face faded.

Her searching gaze landed on Ji Fengmian’s face. She couldn’t tell if Shen Fanxing was pregnant or not.

If she was pregnant, no one would be so calm when they heard these words.

Could it be that the guesses of those people on the news were all fake?

However, there was no smoke without fire.

If there wasn’t an omen, why would the two of them suddenly think of going to the mother and baby shop?

And she only bought things for the twins.

His motive was too clear.

But how could she not let Ji Fengmian know that Shen Fanxing was pregnant?

If she had just discovered it, that was impossible.

They had accompanied Ji Fengmian for rehabilitation the entire time. On the way home, they were only in the car. How could they suddenly confirm that they were pregnant?

She couldn't figure it out.

She thought that she could get an answer from Ji Fengmian, but his existence only made her more confused.

Her hateful gaze lingered on Ji Fengmian for a long time before she pursed her lips and snorted coldly.

"You're right. She'll die anyway. Once your precious daughter appears, I'll naturally have a way to know if she's pregnant or not!"

Ji Fengmian closed his eyes and didn't respond.

"After passing the underground passage, we'll reach our destination. There's a checkpoint ahead. Remember not to speak nonsense."

It was also Yuan Sichun's first time coming to such a place. She had long known that this place was chaotic and had a bad temper. If she was not careful, she might be killed by them.

She was naturally nervous, but since the people in the car could choose this place without batting an eyelid and could easily pass this round, it proved that they were capable.

A nod indicated that she knew.

Ji Fengmian opened his eyes slowly and looked ahead.

In the darkness, they saw red and blue lights flashing non-stop in front of them. They could vaguely see figures carrying Q Branch pacing back and forth to investigate the situation. Clearly, that was the checkpoint they were talking about.

Hold Q?

'Murder?'

Without thinking, Ji Fengmian could guess what was ahead.

After living in Ping Cheng City for so many years, she knew what the border was like.

She wasn't surprised to be here.

The person Ye Jingyun had found was naturally not bad!

Moreover, with her current status in Country Y, finding some outlaws wouldn't affect her at all.

Every leader had their own dark methods.

It was not surprising for someone as ambitious as her to befriend such a person.

About ten minutes later, everyone got out of the car for inspection.

Ji Fengmian was rudely placed on the wheelchair by the bandits. He used his Q to support his head as he went through the checkpoint.

When the inspector saw Ji Fengmian, he only gave him a casual glance before beckoning for them to pass the checkpoint and agree to enter their territory.

Ji Fengmian was still expressionless, but Yuan Sichun's body was tense and her breathing was labored.

When they entered the territory, she was still surprised.

Ji Fengmian had a Q pressed against his head, but he could still pass the level openly. It made her break out in cold sweat.

However, she quickly accepted this reality.

As soon as she stepped into the country, she heard a few gunshots and watched as a middle-aged man was shot dead on the streets.

The uniformed personnel went forward to reprimand them before watching as the thugs dragged the dead middle-aged man away.

This was the dark area.

Human lives seemed to be cheap.

"Everyone knows that this is a place where many people do things. As long as someone dares to pass this checkpoint, they will dare to let them in. After all, it's easy to enter but difficult to leave! If one doesn't have absolute connections and courage, no one will think of coming here. Because no matter who you are, as long as you're not the leader of this place, you can die here at any time!"

The bandit instructed his men to push Ji Fengmian forward as he explained to Yuan Sichun. His expression and tone were serious.

Through the darkness of the night, Yuan Sichun even saw smoke rising from a house not far away. From the dilapidated scene, it was obvious that this place had been bombed not long ago.

On both sides of the street, there were all kinds of people standing, sitting, squatting, and staring at her.

Someone even raised her hand and waved it at her. There was a sharp pain on her chin. She looked down and saw a gold necklace at her feet.

The words "money transaction" made her instantly distance herself from the necklace. The voices of the others sounded.

Yuan Sichun used to live in the upper-class society. She had never seen such a group of hooligans.

But now was not the time for her to throw a tantrum.

After catching up to the leader of the bandits, she asked with lingering fear,

"... I think the people here are... unruly and won't submit to others easily... Why would they acknowledge that leader?"

The bandit leader laughed and looked at Yuan Sichun as though she was a fool.

“Of course it’s because he has the most needed weapon here! The people here are no different from dead people without weapons.”

Yuan Sichun frowned. “Hasn’t anyone thought of getting weapons from other channels? Why do you have to...”

“Other channels? It’s said that he monopolized the supply of weapons from the countries in the center of the world. Most of the weapons came from him, but the other channels still have to return to him. In the end, he even offended him. What’s his motive?”

Yuan Sichun frowned even more.

“From what I know, the private business of the Bo family in HK is not small...”

“We have to have a chance to contact the Bo family and successfully negotiate! Since this person has already been recognized as the leader, there must be a reason! Either this person is bold and decisive, or the price he offered is the most satisfactory to the people here, or they have other private deals...”

Chapter 1649: High-sounding

“We have to have a chance to contact the Bo family and successfully negotiate! Since this person has already been recognized as the leader, there must be a reason! Either this person is bold and decisive, or the price he offered is the most satisfactory to the people here, or they have other private deals...”

The bandit leader paused and felt that he had said too much to a woman. His voice turned cold.

“This is not something you should be concerned about! It’s fine as long as you achieve your goal! Why do you know so much?!”

Yuan Sichun paused and frowned, as if she was thinking of something.

“Isn’t it convenient for you to enter and leave this place? Why didn’t you think of monopolizing this place? Isn’t it convenient for you to bring the news out and find a suitable weapon dealer?”

“Who are you looking for? This place has already been dominated by the leader. If you find another firearms dealer and he finds out, will you be able to withstand the pressure? Moreover, can he allow other weapons to enter? How can a person and a weapon be the same?”

“Alright, alright. I’m bored of talking to a woman like you! Anyway, the method won’t work. This place has been controlled by that person for nearly ten years. If there was any other way out, would I have to wait for you to say it now?”

Yuan Sichun pursed her lips, looking a little embarrassed.

At this moment, someone threw something at her again. It hit her face, scaring her. She no longer cared about the pain and quickly followed the criminal.

Although Ji Fengmian was in a passive position now, he was being pressed against the wall.

However, his expression was so calm that it was as though he did not realize what kind of situation he was in.

As she listened to the bandit's words, she seemed to be deep in thought.

The leader here controlled the weapons here, and even the firearms of the entire world.

There were countless extraordinary people in the world, but those who had this ability...

When she was with Chu Boyang, she had heard him discussing important matters with a few ministers. She had also heard about the procurement of weapons and equipment.

She only heard a few names of firearms merchants.

These were all confidential matters. The firearms dealer's name only sounded like a code name. As for who the real mastermind was, only the top leaders of the country had seen him.

Everyone knew that the Bo family had been established in HK for a hundred years. It was obvious what support they had.

However, because the target was too obvious, the higher-ups could not sit back and do nothing. They had already implemented a regulatory mechanism.

The gray area here was the biggest headache for the higher-ups. Even if the Bo family had the intention, they wouldn't extend their hands here easily.

However, the true strength of the Bo family was unfathomable.

Back then, Bo Jinchuan was able to barge into Chu Boyang's presidential palace. If there wasn't anything supporting him, he wouldn't have done such a thing.

Moreover, he and Chu Boyang were obviously familiar with each other.

She vaguely believed that the leader of this area was Bo Jinchuan.

He must have used some method to avoid being monitored by the higher-ups.

However, Bo Jinchuan had long been stripped of his management rights. He could have anything he wanted.

If it was him, this place would have more or less sensed something and caused chaos. There would definitely be a mix of good and bad people here.

However, there was nothing.

Judging from the bandit's tone, he was keeping a respectful distance from this leader.

But she didn't know the true face of this leader.

His identity was unknown.

Ji Fengmian's eyes darkened and his lips twitched.

If it was as she had expected...

Ha.

Ji Fengmian was silent all the way, but his heart was racing. He had sorted out some things as logically as possible.

All that was left was to use his life to prove his guess.

However, Yuan Sichun spoke faster than her brain. Not long after, she suddenly asked,

“Do you know who the leader is? Have you seen him in person?”

The criminal frowned and said coldly, “I don’t know. There are more than 100,000 people here, but not many have seen her true face. Why are you asking so much?”

Yuan Sichun shook her head and said, “Nothing.”

Ji Fengmian sneered silently.

He didn’t have much ability, but he wanted to do something extraordinary.

He had overestimated himself.

In the end, Ji Fengmian was locked up.

In an abandoned steel factory in the outermost area.

There was metal everywhere that had been soaked by the rain and had changed color after years of exposure to the wind and sun.

It was especially suitable for kidnapping.

How vulgar.

Ji Fengmian smiled. She was the only one who cared about the environment where she was kidnapped.

After settling Ji Fengmian down, Yuan Sichun placed the bread and water on her knees before she left.

Then, she sneered and said, “Don’t starve to death! Don’t worry, even if I die, I’ll definitely let you suffer until your precious daughter comes. I’m still very kind. I heard that the two of you rarely get together. When the time comes, I’ll let the two of you die together. I’ll do a good deed and accumulate merit for myself, right?”

Ji Fengmian raised an eyebrow and smiled as he picked up the bread on his knees. He tore open the packaging bit by bit and took a bite.

“Thank you.”

Yuan Sichun’s eyes turned cold.

She was disgusted by the fact that she was as calm and composed as Shen Fanxing.

“I thought you would put on a tough show with me and would rather die than eat what I gave you. I didn’t expect you to be so afraid of death.”

Her voice was filled with sarcasm as she tried her best to humiliate Ji Fengmian.

Ji Fengmian took another bite of the bread. "I'm not going to fight and protect the country. It's not an honorable thing to do! What's there to be ashamed of? Everyone is afraid of death, especially when it's worthless."

Yuan Sichun sneered and said, "I don't think anyone can compare to the two of you. You can still say that you're afraid of death. It sounds like you have the reason."

Ji Fengmian placed the half-eaten bread on his knees and picked up the bottle. As he unscrewed the cap, he looked at Yuan Sichun and said with a faint smile,

"Do you want to hear my insincere words?"

Yuan Sichun raised an eyebrow and gestured for her to continue.

The smile on Ji Fengmian's face became more obvious as he took a sip of water unhurriedly.

"Because as long as I'm alive, I'll have the chance to see what happens to you. For example... how did you die?"

As long as she had a chance to survive, she would never let this haunting woman live in this world again.

She wanted Fanxing's life and even the two children.

She had long touched her sore spot.

It was just not the time yet.

Chapter 1650: Actually, I Know

Her words made Yuan Sichun's face darken.

She glared at Ji Fengmian with a faint smile. The muscles on her calm face twitched non-stop.

Ji Fengmian had already picked up the bread and started eating elegantly.

Yuan Sichun's hands moved. For a moment, she really wanted to hit the bread and water in Ji Fengmian's hands to the ground.

But she endured it.

His heavy breathing made a sound.

"It seems like you don't know where you are and what kind of situation you're in! Aren't you afraid that you're still dreaming? Do you want to see how I die?!"

Yuan Sichun's anger was on the verge of erupting. Her breathing was heavy and her words were sharp and crazy.

"I'm afraid you won't be able to see the scene you want to see for the rest of your life. Believe me, the last thing you will see before you die is how your daughter died in front of you!"

Ji Fengmian smiled faintly. "Miss Yuan, you should know very well that ever since you took me away from Ping Cheng, your fate has been sealed. Regardless of whether we're dead or not, you won't have an easy time."

“You’ve done something irreparable.”

Ji Fengmian’s last sentence was said extremely slowly. His smile was calm and every word was clear.

The expression on Yuan Sichun’s face changed and her twitching made her look crazy.

“You’re saying that Bo Jinchuan will kill me because of Shen Fanxing and you? Ha... He can indeed do it, but where is this place? It’s a dark area without any legal jurisdiction. Do you think he, who has nothing now, can enter this place?”

He can’t find me! So what if he finds out in the future? He still can’t do anything to me!

He could cripple me for that b*tch Shen Fanxing in the past, but he couldn’t kill me! Because the outside world is different from here.

Besides... even if he had the guts to kill me, he wouldn’t have the chance. Even if you and Shen Fanxing died, the princess of Country Y would still be Princess Ava. With her protection, who would dare to do anything to me?

Oh right, don’t you know that Princess Ava has helped me a lot to get you here?

I hope I’m not the only one who will die. Look, the existence of you and your daughter is really an eyesore. You’ve blocked the way of too many people and snatched something that doesn’t belong to you. You have to be content and not want everything.

If your life doesn’t belong to you, don’t even think about fighting for it. Otherwise, you will only attract more misfortune, understand?”

Ji Fengmian remained expressionless.

He ate her bread calmly, drank her water and filled her stomach.

Yuan Sichun looked at her coldly. A few seconds later, she said coldly,

“Aren’t you surprised to know that Princess Ava wants to harm you?”

“She has harmed me more than once. What’s there to be surprised about?”

Ji Fengmian patted the crumbs on his lap and said indifferently.

“You guessed that it was her intention this time?”

“Otherwise, how can you contact a desperado in such a place?”

So she had already guessed it.

Yuan Sichun suddenly felt that she had spoken nonsense again.

She hated her for being as intelligent as Shen Fanxing!

They could think of everything in advance.

What an eyesore!

“Alright, stop talking nonsense with her! You’ve already captured her, yet you’re still angry at her. Is there a hole in your brain?”

The leader urged her to leave impatiently. His words were so straightforward that he didn’t give her any face.

Yuan Sichun’s expression changed. She looked at Ji Fengmian and snorted coldly.

“Go ahead and show off your wisdom and intelligence. No matter what, you’re still in my hands now. Eat well and wait for your daughter to come and pick you up!”

Ji Fengmian smiled faintly.

Yuan Sichun glared at her coldly and left with a livid face.

When Ji Fengmian saw that the old but sturdy steel door was closed, the smile on his face faded slightly. He picked up the water bottle and took another sip.

Yuan Sichun, who had just left Ji Fengmian, sat at the dining table. Her expression turned ferocious uncontrollably.

“Both mother and daughter are detestable b*tches!”

Seeing her like this, the leader smiled sarcastically.

He picked up a roasted chicken leg for her. “Eat first.”

She glanced at the huge greasy drumstick in front of her and frowned. Disgust flashed across her eyes.

“The news online has been suppressed. Someone is deliberately hiding the fact that Ji Fengmian has taken her away from Shen Fanxing! Damn it, why is everyone biased towards that b*tch!”

“That’s easy. Just send a photo to Miss Shen later. If it doesn’t work, let’s do it openly.”

When Yuan Sichun heard that, although she knew that there were many things to take note of, she still smiled.

“You’re right.”

“Let’s eat. It’s been a long day.”

“Yeah.”

“Sir, we just received news that Madam Ji has entered the country.”

When Bo Jinchuan, who was on the plane, heard this, his dark eyes narrowed and his voice turned cold.

“Who did it?”

“A few desperadoes with a woman. It’s confirmed that she’s the eldest daughter of the Yuan family, Yuan Sichun.”

There was a long silence in the lounge.

A cold and strong sense of oppression intensified in the lounge.

The few people in the lounge broke out in cold sweat.

She lowered her head and remained silent.

Just as everyone was feeling breathless, Bo Jinchuan's cold voice sounded.

"Go straight to the border. Contact the person in charge there and tell him that I want to hire someone."

"Yes!"

Someone accepted the order and left impatiently.

The few of them looked at each other and hesitated.

Bo Jinchuan raised his head slowly and his cold and emotionless gaze landed on the few people in front of him. Their bodies stiffened and someone said,

"Master, there's something else. Boss Yu said... that Madam has contacted Mr. Qi to search for Mother. Mr. Qi... is rushing over with his men."

She finally said this with trepidation.

As soon as she finished speaking, the few of them felt like they had fallen into an icehouse.

Compared to the good news just now, she really didn't know how to bring it up.

Master had withdrawn the news with the intention of hiding it from Madam. However, Madam had long known about it and even contacted other men privately.

This...
