

Chapter 1671: Appointment Letter

The cases on both sides were combined for investigation. The police guessed that the reason no one dared to step forward and claim ownership of the house was that they were afraid of the investigation. Therefore, the house owner was probably the owner of a certain research institute. The owner would rather have fame than money at that critical juncture, so he gave up on the money.

Otherwise, he would lose his reputation if everyone in the country knew that he was a thief.

Changkang Pharma's lab had to bear the loss. The police had given them money from that house as compensation for their loss.

Jiang Yao's busy schedule did not end until the end of June. Other people had three days of final exams, but she had a whole month of final exams. She had lost a lot of weight because of that.

Every little weight that she had gained while staying at home was gone.

When Jiang Yao completed her final theory exam, Professor Ouyang waited outside the exam hall. Seeing her relaxed expression, Professor Ouyang also relaxed.

"Looking at your expression, I know you did well in the exams."

Professor Ouyang did not mention anything about tutoring Jiang Yao during the exams. On the one hand, he believed in the Divine Doctor's student, and on the other hand, he did not want to give Jiang Yao any pressure.

The first half of the exams were all practical exams. Professor Ouyang and all the invigilators had learned that Jiang Yao was a young woman with incomparably excellent knife skills and techniques.

Jiang Yao did not look awkward when she held the scalpel; there was no nervousness on her face. Her expression was strict and serious. She was like an old doctor who was proficient in all aspects of the operation.

She did not make any mistakes. Her results were so excellent that even the invigilators sighed about the Divine Doctor's student's exceptional skills.

Jiang Yao did not have any problems in the exams. As long as she did not fail the theory exam, she would graduate early.

"In that case, take this letter of appointment."

Professor Ouyang took a letter of appointment and handed it to Jiang Yao. "This is my assistant's letter of appointment. I'll give this to you. From today onward, you'll be my assistant. The school will send you an appointment letter when your results are out."

Jiang Yao hugged the red appointment letter and smiled like a flower. "Boss, I'll work hard with you from now on!"

"You may call me your teacher!" Professor Ouyang snorted. "Don't imitate your senior brothers and sisters. They were disrespectful to their teacher, so I abandoned them!"

Jiang Yao changed her words very quickly. She took the appointment letter and nodded. Then, she called out, "Teacher!" Then, she giggled, "I did not expect a teacher's assistant to have such a high-level appointment letter! It even has your private seal and the school's seal on it."

"Other teacher assistants definitely don't have it, but mine does." Professor Ouyang raised his eyebrows proudly and said, "There's one more thing. You have to prepare to leave for Luo City in a few days. As my assistant, I have a task that I need you to complete with my students at Province A's university."

Jiang Yao flipped through the appointment letter.. When she heard Professor Ouyang say that he had a mission for her, she asked, "What?" Then, as she touched the words on the appointment letter, she thought that she would be happy to send that appointment letter back to her family.

Chapter 1672: Unlikely

Professor Ouyang said, "An exercise will be held in the Luo City military base in ten days. They will need some doctors to support them. The chancellor of Province A's university discussed with the military, and they decided to send some of my students. However, your task is slightly different. Someone will brief you when you're there. Everything is confidential, so that's all I know. They won't need me for such a trivial exercise, but you will represent me. You will lead the group of students in the army base."

Jiang Yao exclaimed, "The army base? Sure!"

Professor Ouyang thought that Jiang Yao's reaction was too calm. "Aren't you going to ask if you can see your husband?"

Jiang Yao shook her head. "Unlikely. He's in closed-door training, so it's unlikely that he'll participate in that exercise. It must be another group in the base."

"No wonder you're not excited at all. I thought you'd be more excited after hearing this news."

Professor Ouyang suddenly realized that Jiang Yao had her reasons for being calm.

Professor Ouyang smiled embarrassedly. "Anyway, I don't know the team involved in the exercise; I have no way of knowing any military secrets. Your husband is a soldier, so you might be more familiar with what you need to pay attention to after entering the army base. Even though the students are older than you, you still have to act as my assistant and control them. Don't let them cause trouble in the army base or embarrass the university."

"Okay!"

Jiang Yao's attitude was serious. After all, that matter was very important.

"The exercise will take place on the 8th July, so you will need to be there on 5th July. When you arrive at the city, go see the chancellor. He will arrange a dorm for you. Someone from the army base will contact you after that." Professor Ouyang patted Jiang Yao's shoulder and said, "I still have some work to do here, so I probably won't be able to make it in time for the exercise. I'll leave that to you."

Professor Ouyang thought it would be difficult for Jiang Yao to begin her summer vacation with a mission.

Since the ladies in the dorm would not be able to gather together after their summer vacation, they were not in a hurry to get home. Instead, they stayed in the dorm for a longer period so that they could spend more time together. They went shopping together, had meals, climbed the mountain, and took many photos.

Finally, Li Yi, Lin Qiaoyu, and Chen Siyang left Nanjiang City and returned to their hometown on 3rd July.

Jiang Yao took some time to pay attention to the situation in YN. She also asked Manager Sun to investigate a few small pharmaceutical factories.

Meanwhile, in YN, Zhu Jiu had to fork out a huge amount of money to pay the environmental damage compensation and rescue funds. That was meant to bring him down. Therefore, Zhu Jiu took out a huge sum of money and almost sold off all the Zhu family's businesses except the mines.

Then, Zhu Jiu, who had prepared to pack up and leave, secretly transferred the remaining savings abroad. After that, he returned to the Zhu family in Ping City with nothing in his hands. People said that the entire Zhu family had attacked him when he was there.. Life was not easy for him, indeed.

Chapter 1673: I Won't Tell Him If You Won't

The Zhu family in YN had become part of history. General Min Pang had sold Zhu Jiu's villa that he had lived in for many years. The new owner had even changed its name.

Ruan Yongjun told Jiang Yao that General Min Pang had relied on Zhu Jiu's money to strengthen his own army—from a poor general, he quickly became wealthy. He had become a rich general who owned several mines.

When their family in YN fell, the Zhu family in Ping City had only little to their name. Their development had always been in YN. Ruan Yongjun said, "The Zhu family had lost everything. General Min Pang had taken over most of their stuff. When will Young Master Lu finish his training? Please tell him to send me some tea if he wants to reward me. General Min Pang almost finished my stash. I hid some in my room to keep them safe."

Jiang Yao immediately burst into laughter. "He will probably be done by the end of August or September. No need to wait for him. I'll send some to you tomorrow. Please tell me what kind of tea you like."

Ruan Yongjun thought about it for a moment and said, "Director Jiang, why don't you send me some of those you know. Maybe ten packs of some ordinary tea. I've heard about tea that people use to make their feet soft. Those should be pretty cheap, right? Perhaps ten packs of those?"

"You want to soak your feet?" Jiang Yao asked.

Ruan Yongjun said, "I'll put them in some beautiful and exquisite jars and display them in a more conspicuous place in my house. I won't mind it if General Min Pang asks for them. I suspect that his ancestors must have been bandits."

Jiang Yao laughed until her stomach hurt. "Ruan Yongjun, you dare to give him tea meant for soaking your feet? You are too bold!"

Ruan Yongjun snorted. "I won't tell him about it if you won't. He might not like the taste, but that's even better. He won't want more of my tea next time."

"Don't forget that our countries are currently establishing cooperative development on tea leaves. The Tea Chamber of Commerce has already been established. Do you think General Min Pang will not know about the tea that's meant for feet? Since he's a general, you should bear with it."

"I can't. The next time he comes here, I will request that he exchange my tea with a raw jade stone. Otherwise, I'll suffer a huge loss." Ruan Yongjun hung up the phone after that.

Jiang Yao was not worried that Ruan Yongjun would anger General Min Pang. Obviously, she could still hear the familiarity between Ruan Yongjun and General Min Pang from his tone.

Jiang Yao did another thing before she left for Province A. She told Manager Sun to inspect a few small pharmaceutical factories and then purchased one of them.

Changkang Group needed time to build their pharmaceutical factory. Jiang Yao wanted to buy it so that she could be responsible for the production line.

The pharmaceutical factory had not officially gone into production, but the anti-stress drug advertisements had spread to many cities.

Chapter 1674: The New Dormitory

All the major newspapers, magazines, and radio stations had printed the advertisements.

The most eye-catching part of the advertisement was the introduction of that anti-stress medicine. It also introduced the relationship between that anti-stress medicine and the Divine Doctor.

Jiang Yao had asked Lu Yuqing to point out that the Divine Doctor had developed the medicine a year before her death. She had also used the drug on her patients.

Compared to other anti-stress medicine, theirs did not have any side effects. It also did not cost much as it was meant to benefit the ordinary folks so that they could afford it. The Divine Doctor had wanted to help those suffering from high blood pressure.

As the Divine Doctor's only student, Jiang Yao had finished what the doctor had not done in time.

Once the advertisement was out, the Changkang Group used the Divine Doctor's reputation to spread the news throughout the country in just a few days. It had already attracted countless people's attention even before the medicine was officially produced.

After Jiang Yao had arranged the medicine production, she left everything to her staff. Then, she went to Province A. Lu Yuqing was busy promoting that medicine and had no time to criticize her for being lazy.

Finally, Jiang Yao went to Province A on 4th July with Moe, Ah Lu, and Big Ke.

The university knew that Jiang Yao would arrive that day, so they arranged for someone to pick her up. Ah Lu and Big Ke went off on their own after they got off the plane. Jiang Yao went to the dormitory with the person who picked her up.

Jiang Yao was there as Professor Ouyang's assistant. So, her dormitory was better than the average student's. It was a one-bedroom house. The house was not big, only about 40 to 50 square meters, but the kitchen, the bathroom, the balcony, everything that should be there was there.

Her house was part of the university's faculty dormitory, but it was a new building. Therefore, the layout was better than the old houses there.

"I didn't expect Assistant Jiang to be so young." The one who took Jiang Yao to the dormitory was a student of Professor Ouyang. He looked to be 25 years old. He was a student who wore glasses and looked gentle. When he spoke, his voice was also small and not loud.

Medical students were given preferential treatment at the university. That preferential treatment was even more apparent to the graduate students. Their dormitory was next to Jiang Yao's building, which was also a new building. However, the conditions were still not as good as Jiang Yao's. It was a room for two people.

The person who went to pick Jiang Yao up was a teacher from the university's administrative office. After he sent Jiang Yao downstairs, he asked the student to bring Jiang Yao to the dormitory. If she were not satisfied, she could look at other empty rooms.

"Thank you for the compliment."

Jiang Yao put her luggage on the ground. She did expect the student to comment on her age. Then, she turned around and asked, "What's your name? The other students are still in class, right?"

"My name is Wu Boyan. You can call me Xiao Wu." Even though Jiang Yao looked much younger than him, she was still a teacher's assistant. Therefore, Wu Boyan did not dare ask Jiang Yao to address him as a senior.

"The other students are in the dormitory.. We would like to treat you to dinner tonight so that we can get to know each other," Wu Boyan said.

Chapter 1675: One In The South, One In The North

He pointed to the side. "We all live in the next building next. If there's anything you need, you can tell us directly. Oh, right! Professor Ouyang said that if you are not satisfied with that room, you can look at other empty rooms."

"No need. This place is perfect. Help me thank the teacher in the office." Jiang Yao shook her head gently and smiled. "I'll treat all of you to dinner tonight. I don't know much about this university. You guys can choose a restaurant. Tell me directly when you've decided. I'll unpack my luggage first."

After a pause, Jiang Yao called Wu Boyan and said, "By the way, do you know how far our school is from the military base? How long does it usually take to drive? "

"The military base is in the northern suburbs, and our school is in the southern part of the city." Wu Boyan thought for a moment. "It takes at least 50 minutes to an hour to drive."

That was heart-wrenching.

That was Jiang Yao's first thought.

When she had been sitting in the car from the airport, she had a bad feeling when she saw the utterly unfamiliar road. It seemed like that was the case.

One was in the south, and one was in the north. It would take almost an hour to drive there. That made her heart bleed.

She thought she would be close to Lu Xingzhi. When the classes started, she could live in the army too. Then, she would drive herself to class every morning and drive home after class.

However, it was an hour away.

It would be okay in the summer, but it would be a bit difficult in the winter.

It meant that she had to leave home almost an hour earlier so that she would not be late. If she had morning classes at 8:30 am in the winter, she would have to leave the army base at 7:00 am, which meant she would have to get up at 6:00 am.

It was scary just thinking about it. She always had trouble getting up in the winter.

That was under the condition that Lu Xingzhi did not torture her at night.

If Lu Xingzhi's bestiality kicked in at night and tortured her for half the night, it would be impossible for her to get up the next day!

Wu Boyan left after seeing that Jiang Yao did not need his help. After all, Jiang Yao was a young woman. It was inconvenient for him to stay there when she was unpacking.

Jiang Yao treated the students to dinner. Wu Boyan had booked the restaurant. It was on the third floor of the university cafeteria. It was clean and tidy, and it was not expensive either.

Everyone had not met before, so they did not know Jiang Yao's financial capabilities. Naturally, they did not dare let Jiang Yao treat them to dinner.

Professor Ouyang and Jiang Yao only brought seven graduate students at that time. There were three men and four women. Other than Jiang Yao, the male-female ratio was exceptionally harmonious.

The university's Medical Department had just opened a new course. There were not many students in that course, and there were not many people willing to continue studying at that university after they finished their undergraduate studies.

Since not many people were willing to stay at the university after passing the postgraduate entrance exam, Province A's university opened a backdoor for several postgraduate students in the medical department that year.

Professor Ouyang of Nanjiang City Medical University was also invited to teach at Province A's university for some time. The news of him taking the first batch of postgraduate students in the medical department of that university was only confirmed very late. That made the students who passed the exam in other schools regret their decisions.. If they had known that Professor Ouyang would be the one to teach that batch of graduate students, they would have been willing to pay for the course.

Chapter 1676: Will He Despise Us?

“Miss Jiang, may I ask you a question?”

The one who spoke was Wang Meiyu. She was the oldest of all the graduate students and was almost 30 years old. Other than the fact that she had been working for more than a year, another reason was that she had repeated her studies in high school. She was also older than the average child when she first started studying.

However, at that time, especially in the first grade of primary school, it was normal for the children in a class to be several years apart in age. The poorer the countryside, the more significant the difference in ages of the students.

“Sure.” Jiang Yao nodded happily.

“What do you think of Professor Ouyang’s temper? Is he easy to get along with?” When Wang Meiyu asked, she carefully looked at Jiang Yao’s expression. She was a little worried that that question would make her unhappy.

However, Wang Meiyu probably asked a question that the other five people also wanted to know the answer to.

Jing Mengjie pulled Li Hong’s sleeve and winked at her. Then, the two of them looked at the three male students across from them. Then, the five of them asked, “We also want to know if Professor Ouyang’s temper is good. Some graduate students from other departments in our school have nasty tempers. If they do anything wrong, they will be scolded by their professors.”

“Furthermore, his status is higher than other lecturers in our school. Professor Ouyang used to lead doctoral students at Nanjiang Medical University. He used to be a doctorate professor. I did not expect him to come here to lead the graduate students.” After Liu Chao said that, he smiled with some excitement. “I feel like I’ve won the lottery. Back then, I couldn’t get into Nanjiang Medical University. I didn’t expect that when I got into graduate school, I would get such an awesome tutor.”

“But I heard that the more capable a person is, the weirder and more difficult they are to get along with. For example, the Divine Doctor, who passed away in an accident a while ago. I heard that her temper is peculiar and that even her students don’t know her name.” Zheng Shibin touched the back of his head in embarrassment and said, “I’m afraid that Professor Ouyang will despise us for being stupid.”

“That’s true.” When they heard Zheng Shibin’s words, the other five nodded in unison. “Previously, Professor Ouyang was leading a doctoral student, but now it’s suddenly changed to students like us. Will he look down on us for being stupid?”

“Professor Ouyang’s personality is quite impatient, but he is a very good person. It’s just that when doing the things he has instructed us to do, we must not drag our feet. Professor Ouyang likes diligent students.” Jiang Yao very accurately described other people’s evaluation of Professor Ouyang.

What about her personal opinion?

Well, she thought that he was a chatty old man.

The six people thought that Jiang Yao had not said anything useful. However, when they heard her saying that Professor Ouyang had an impatient personality, their hearts skipped a beat. They were most afraid of impatient teachers, but they did not expect Professor Ouyang to be one.

“By the way, Miss Jiang, how long have you been Professor Ouyang’s assistant? You look much younger than all of us. How did you become Professor Ouyang’s assistant?” Jing Mengjie suddenly asked Jiang Yao some personal questions.

However, before Jiang Yao could speak, someone had already answered for Jiang Yao.

“She relied on her strength to get my father to take her in as his assistant.”

Chapter 1677: You’re Everywhere

Jiang Yao heard the voice and quickly turned around to look behind her. The corner of her mouth twitched. “Why are you everywhere, Ouyang Chenrui?”

It was Professor Ouyang’s son, Ouyang Chenrui. He stood behind Jiang Yao and gently placed a hand on the back of Jiang Yao’s chair. “I called you, but you didn’t pick up. Then I asked around and found out that you were here, so I came to look for you.”

“Aren’t you supposed to be in Nanjiang City? Why are you here?” Jiang Yao took out her phone and glanced at it. There were some missed calls.

“I’m where you are.” Ouyang Chenrui replied with a smile. “I knew that you’d have arrived before my father, so I followed you from Nanjiang City.”

Jing Mengjie and Li Hong took a few more glances at Ouyang Chenrui when they saw him. Then, they asked tentatively, “You are our professor’s son?”

Ouyang Chenrui nodded. “Let me introduce myself. My name is Ouyang Chenrui. Your professor is my father. Miss Jiang and I are old friends. We have even gone through thick and thin together.”

“Are you pursuing Miss Jiang?” Wang Meiyu suddenly asked. It was really easy for people to imagine what Ouyang Chenrui said.

Jiang Yao glared at Ouyang Chenrui, and his original affirmative words turned into an ambiguous smile.

“Don’t think too much. He is just an acquaintance,” Jiang Yao explained.

However, the attention of the other six people at the table was on Ouyang Chenrui. No one seemed to be listening to her.

“Then are you also a medical student? Are you our senior?” Jing Mengjie immediately asked Liu Chao to move to the side and then invited Ouyang Chenrui to sit down and eat together.

Jiang Yao glanced at Jing Mengjie, but she did not show any other emotions on her face.

“I’m not your senior. I was not born to study medicine. I’m a businessman.” Ouyang Chenrui denied it under Jing Mengjie’s expectant gaze.

Ouyang Chenrui knew that Jiang Yao would not invite him to sit down, so when Jing Mengjie asked him to sit down, he did not decline.

Ouyang Chenrui was handsome and spoke politely, so he attracted the attention of those six people. Jiang Yao's ears suddenly became much quieter.

However, Jiang Yao was also happy that she could eat without having to deal with the others. Then, she looked at the people at her table and listened to them talking to Ouyang Chenrui. She thought that no one there seemed to know that she was the Divine Doctor's student.

They only inquired about Professor Ouyang but did not pay much attention to Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows. That was pretty good. She could save herself a lot of trouble if people did not know that she was the Divine Doctor's student.

As they surrounded Ouyang Chenrui so happily, she hoped that they would not have more questions for her.

Wu Boyan only realized after a few minutes that everyone had forgotten Jiang Yao. He looked at Jiang Yao's expression and did not see any anger or dissatisfaction. Then, he asked a typical question. "Miss Jiang, have you ever been to our city before? There are a few scenic spots in our city that are pretty famous.. If we have time in the next two days, we'll bring you there to have some fun."

Chapter 1678: So Fast

"Miss Jiang stayed in Luo City for a few days," Ouyang Chenrui answered on behalf of Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao frowned and glanced at Ouyang Chenrui. "I can speak. If others ask me questions, I don't need you to answer them for me, Mr. Ouyang!"

Jiang Yao glanced at Ouyang Chenrui, a little puzzled. He was a polite and gentle gentleman before. Why had his style changed during that period?

"Have you been here before, Miss Jiang? Is there any place that you want to go to? We can go together. To be honest, I have been in Luo City for several years, but I haven't been to many places." Wang Meiyu smiled. "I'm a bit stupid. When I have time, I usually want to spend it on memorizing more books."

"Liu Chao and Wu Boyan are locals. They have almost visited all the places in Luo City!" Li Hong smiled. "When I first came to Luo City, it was Liu Chao who took me around."

Other than Wang Meiyu, the other five were undergraduates from the same university. Therefore, they had known each other for many years.

Jiang Yao nodded and replied generously, "Sure." Just as she was about to ask if there was anything good to eat in Luo City, her phone rang.

The number was a string of numbers, but it was not in Jiang Yao's phone book. It showed that it was from Luo City.

After Jiang Yao picked up the call, the other party introduced himself and then told her why they called her. She waited for the other party to finish speaking before saying, "Okay, I understand. I'll bring them to the school gate at 10:30 am tomorrow and wait for your car."

While Jiang Yao was talking on the phone, everyone at the table quieted down. They were very courteous.

When Jiang Yao mentioned them, everyone knew that she must be talking about the six of them. So, after Jiang Yao hung up the phone, Li Hong asked, "Where are we going tomorrow morning?"

Jiang Yao replied, "To the army base. The school should have told you that we were going to participate in some kind of exercise. The army will send a car to pick us up tomorrow at 10:30 am. We will wait for the car at the school gate. So, everyone should go back early to pack their things. The exercise will start on the 8th. Before the exercise starts, we need to stay in the army base. We are not allowed to leave the base unless there are some special circumstances."

"So soon?" Jing Mengjie pouted. "The university is always like that. They give us jobs whenever we have nothing to do. It's a rare summer vacation, and in the end, we still have to go to the army base."

Li Hong said, "I heard that the soldiers in the army all look very fierce, and we have to stay in the army base for such a long time. Don't tell me it's like going to jail?"

"Who told you that the soldiers in the army all look fierce?" Jiang Yao was unhappy when she heard that. "Even though you are not soldiers or military doctors, I hope that I won't hear those extreme words from you again in the future."

Liu Chao nodded repeatedly and was the first to agree with Jiang Yao's words. "Soldiers only look fierce to criminals. We are not bad people. We are going to participate in their work."

Then, Liu Chao had another thought. He could not say anything too extreme in front of Miss Jiang in the future, or else Miss Jiang would be angry.

It was a little scary looking at Miss Jiang's angry face, who had spoken so gently and smiled like a little sister.

Li Hong pursed her lips and felt a little embarrassed..

Chapter 1679: A Problem With His Choices

Jiang Yao knew that her merciless rebuttal was close to a reprimand, and it had made Li Hong feel wronged or humiliated. Still, she had no intention of apologizing to the student.

If a person did not understand another industry or another person, why would they imagine it or maliciously slander it?

If they did not understand it, why did they not keep silent?

Was it challenging to be someone who did not speak nonsense if they did not praise or slander them?

“The notice came suddenly. Everyone has to go back and pack their luggage after this. We have to bring our best to the army base.” Jiang Yao was the first to stand up. Then, she went to pay the bill.

When she returned to her seat, everyone had already stood up and waited for her to go back together. After all, everyone’s dormitory was in the same place, so they had to go back together.

After leaving the cafeteria, Ouyang Chenrui still followed Jiang Yao. The other six people did not know if they had to speak to each other, so they all walked a few meters ahead of the two of them. It was as if they deliberately left Ouyang Chenrui alone with Jiang Yao.

Ouyang Chenrui said, “It seems like my father has a problem with his choice of students this time.”

Jiang Yao did not follow Ouyang Chenrui’s words. Professor Ouyang was free to choose his students. Furthermore, Professor Ouyang had been in Nanjiang City and had never seen those few people. Therefore, most of them were selected according to their results.

“Yeah, and I’ll be wherever you are.”

Ouyang Chenrui smiled. “It’s rare for me to meet someone that I like so much. If I don’t work hard, I can’t persuade myself to give up.”

“Sooner or later, you’ll be desperate. It’s better to give up early.” Jiang Yao chuckled. She did not think that the little time she spent with Ouyang Chenrui would make him fall in love with her to the extent that he could not extricate himself. At most, Ouyang Chenrui was like what he said. He could not change his mind, so he was bored to the point of pestering her.

Ouyang Chenrui stood beside her and chuckled. He did not say anything until they reached the fork in the road, at which point he left them alone.

Jiang Yao walked slowly. If she were not in a hurry, she would walk at such a speed. Previously, when Lu Xingzhi took her for a walk after their meal, he had laughed at her slow pace. If he did not hold her hand, he would walk two steps and then stop to wait for her. When they were side by side, they would walk together.

Therefore, when Jiang Yao and Ouyang Chenrui separated, the people in front of them were already gone.

When she packed her luggage at night, she thought about going to the army base to participate in the drill. Jiang Yao took out all the skirts in her suitcase. She only wanted to bring clothes that were comfortable to wear. She also brought a few coats and some sneakers.

After she packed her things, she gave Jing Mengjie and Wu Boyan a call. She told the two of them to inform the other students that the clothes they brought to the army base should include some comfortable wear.

Wu Boyan asked Jiang Yao a few more questions, but Jing Mengjie answered perfunctorily.

As usual, Moe followed Jiang Yao and casually hid in Jiang Yao’s pocket. As long as no one searched her body, no one would be able to find him.. However, Big Ke and Ah Lu could not follow Jiang Yao to the army base, so Jiang Yao asked Big Ke and Ah Lu to wait for her to get into the army car the next day.

Chapter 1680: Flamboyant

As she was initially a military wife, Jiang Yao was not affected by the fact that she had to go to the army base the next day. After washing up the following day, she dragged her suitcase downstairs and went to the school gate to wait for the others.

When she arrived at the school gate, she saw a military car there. The young soldier who was driving it waved at her when he saw the suitcase in her hand. "Hello. Are you one of the students going to the army base?"

"I am." Her smile became a little sweeter when she saw the young soldier wearing the green military uniform. In the end, it made the young soldier blush.

The young soldier turned around and scratched his head. After a long while, he said, "Then do you want to wait in the car first?"

"I will just put the suitcase in first." The military car that came to pick them up was the kind that could seat four people in the front, but there were two more rows of seats at the back. It was the usual army-issue vehicle.

When the soldier in the back seat heard that Jiang Yao wanted to put her luggage in, he jumped out of the car. He easily lifted Jiang Yao's luggage with one hand and placed it in the back. Then, he smiled at Jiang Yao. "Your luggage is so light. I thought girls would need a lot of things—perfume, makeup water, face cream, lipstick, and so on."

Jiang Yao teased the other party. "It looks like your partner is a beautiful girl who knows how to dress up."

"Yes, she is beautiful, just like you!" The soldier admitted it. Since Jiang Yao praised his partner, he felt that Jiang Yao was a nice person. After helping Jiang Yao carry her luggage, he did not rush back to the car. Instead, he stood there and chatted with Jiang Yao.

When the soldier saw that Jiang Yao was dressed casually, he smiled. Even though he did not say anything, there was a hint of admiration in his eyes.

Jiang Yao talked to the soldier for about five minutes before the remaining six students arrived.

The summer wind was already very warm at 10:30 in the morning. Jing Mengjie and Li Hong were the most eye-catching among the three men and three women. The two walked arm in arm beside Wu Boyan and Liu Chao, their skirts fluttering in the wind—one red and one yellow. They were very eye-catching. The high heels on their feet also made the two southern girls taller than usual.

When they got closer, Jiang Yao noticed that the two of them were still wearing makeup.

"Miss Jiang, you're so early." Liu Chao greeted Jiang Yao. "When we went downstairs to look for you, we found out that you had already come out."

Jiang Yao was a 20-year-old young woman. Her short hair was simply tied into a ponytail, and her petite-sized face was clean. There was no trace of makeup on her face. Instead, there was a little sweat from the sun. Her fair and slightly red skin also made her look perfect.

However, Jiang Yao's simplicity stunned Liu Chao for a moment. Then, he noticed that Jiang Yao's expression had darkened.

"Jing Mengjie, I called you last night to inform you to wear comfortable clothes and shoes. I also told you not to wear skirts." Jiang Yao frowned.

"I like to wear skirts, even in such hot weather. If I wear a skirt, I have to wear high heels to look good." Jing Mengjie pursed her lips. "We're going to the army base, not to war. Don't tell me there are rules about what we have to wear?"

Jiang Yao looked at Li Hong again and saw that she had the same expression as Jing Mengjie.
