

Chapter 168

Alyssa smiled.

She ate a lot every day.

But she just didn't gain weight. She couldn't be blamed for that.

However, it made her happier to know that Leon cared for her.

She was about to thank Leon for being so nice to her when suddenly she saw a man in the distance looking at them.

The man, upon seeing her, immediately stepped into the car, looking panicked.

Alyssa clearly sensed that he came for them.

Leon hugged Alyssa and clearly felt her body stiffen for a moment.

"What's wrong?" Leon looked at Alyssa, "Are you uncomfortable?"

Alyssa came up to Leon's ear and whispered, "Are you being followed?"

Leon hesitated for a moment. But soon, Leon whispered in her ear, "Don't look over there. Let's go back first. I have something to tell you."

Alyssa nodded. It seemed that Leon knew.

A few minutes later.

Leon and Alyssa sat in the study.

"Someone has indeed been following me lately." Leon told the truth, "Someone has been following me since about the time the company finished adjusting."

"The Coles?"

"At first, I thought so, but the number of people following me has increased over the past few days. I asked my bodyguards to check them, but they couldn't find anything. If it was someone sent by the Coles to follow me, I should be able to find out soon. So, the people who followed me were not sent by the Coles."

He originally didn't want to tell Alyssa about this, because he was worried that Alyssa would be worried because of this. But he didn't expect Alyssa to find out about it first.

Since she had found out, there was no need for him to keep it to himself. He should tell Alyssa the real situation so that she could take precautions in time.

Alyssa thought for a moment, "Normally speaking, it is impossible. In A City, the Hunters' forces are everywhere. They have to be strong enough to do something to the Hunters. Not only did they follow you, but they also managed to keep you from finding out any information about them, so you can see that their identity is mysterious."

Leon nodded. He agreed with Alyssa's analysis, which was also his biggest worry.

None of his people had been able to find out anything about them. They were indeed very mysterious.

Looking at Leon's frown, Alyssa smiled instead, "It's okay. No matter who they are, they wouldn't dare to do anything to you. This is A City after all. Don't worry ..."

Leon had never been afraid of anything. However, he was curious about what Alyssa said, "How do you know they won't do anything to me?"

"Because I'm with you! No matter what, I will protect you."

Alyssa said very seriously. Looking at Alyssa's serious eyes, Leon couldn't help but smile. How could he need a woman to protect him! However, Alyssa's words still made him feel very warm. He moved closer to kiss her, "I should protect you. I will protect you and the child."

Hearing Leon's words, Alyssa nodded and smiled at Leon, "How about we take the initiative and find out those people who are following you?"

"Hmm?" Leon smiled. Looking at Alyssa's grin, he felt that she should have come up with something. He said softly, "Tell me your plan."

Alyssa smiled and came up to Leon's ear, whispering, "We can lure them to an isolated place. We'll know the truth when we catch one of their people. However, by then, we might alert them. The situation may become complicated."

"I thought about the way you said before. I originally thought that if they didn't have any malicious intent in following me, I wouldn't care. However, since they have been discovered by you, they are really too cocky. We can catch them."

"So you have thought of this solution long ago. But why didn't you give it a try? If you had done so long ago, you might have caught them long ago."

Leon confessed, "I do have a solution, but I also have concerns. First, the company's situation was unstable before. I want to stabilize the company before dealing with other matters. Second, that man seems to have seen you discover him. Since he has found out, why don't we just take the initiative and catch them."

"So that's how it is. Then did I just do something wrong? I'm sorry. It's all my fault."

Alyssa felt that she had done wrong. Just now, it would have been better if she pretended not to notice that man.

But now it was too late to regret it. She looked at Leon apologetically, feeling that she had caused him trouble.

Leon didn't say anything but kept looking into her eyes.

He wanted to kiss her again!

Looking at him staring at her with a grim face, Alyssa thought she had done something wrong and lowered her head in aggravation.

"What's wrong?" Looking at her aggrieved look, Leon pulled her into his arms, "This matter has nothing to do with you. It's been three months since New Year's Eve. They have been following me, and I have been pretending that I didn't find them. They are not stupid. Sooner or later they will know that I have found them. It's normal, so you don't have to worry."

Alyssa relaxed a little, "You have a point. However, I still stepped in."

"You don't have to blame yourself. I can take your advice and try to lure them out. However, it's dangerous for you to get involved in this matter."

Their long stalking made Leon realize one thing.

They didn't follow him with the intention of hurting him. Otherwise, they wouldn't have followed him for so long. They must have other reasons.

These days, being followed by them all the time, he also felt a bit annoyed. He also wanted to get rid of them as soon as possible.

At this moment, Leon suddenly felt Alyssa hugging him tighter.

"Honey, I will support you in whatever you want to do. Can I come with you?"

Alyssa wanted to go with Leon.

Hearing Alyssa's voice, Leon softened his attitude, "Alyssa, I just made it very clear to you. You can't be involved. You wait for me at home and I'll take care of this."

"No, I'm going to stay with you. No matter where you go, I'm going to be with you."

She had lived again just to be with Leon. No matter what, the result had to be her and Leon together.

Leon persuaded Alyssa to stay out of it. However, he had no choice but to agree with her.

"So when are you going to catch them?" Alyssa looked at Leon, wanting to be on the same page with him at all times.

Seeing how anxious Alyssa was, Leon said, "Don't worry. After I arrange some things, we will catch them. Since I promised you, I will definitely take you with me."

Leon was the kind of guy who would do what he had promised.

Alyssa hesitated for a moment and nodded.

She did have some concern that Leon just fooled her and didn't really want to take her with him.

Alyssa rested for two days.

Her condition had improved a lot.

That morning, she sent Leon to work and went to school.

She had missed two days of classes. Moreover, the lessons on these two days were not her specialty. Naturally, she had to ask Ella to borrow her notes.

Ella's notes were the most comprehensive. Alyssa started reading the key points as soon as she got them.

Watching Alyssa seriously read the notes, Ella said, "You were sick for two days, are you better now? Don't worry. You'll know these as soon as you read them. You've just recovered, so you must take care of yourself."

"I've been fine for a long time. But Leon wouldn't let me go out and forced me to take time off. I'm so bored staying at home." Alyssa nodded seriously. Then she thought for a moment and said, "Ella, I have to go out later. I won't go to the library."

"You're going out again?"

"Yes." Alyssa saw Ella's reluctance and smiled, "You miss me? I've taken on a new job recently. Because of my illness, I had to put down the work at hand. So now I have to go take care of my work. Otherwise, your cousin will definitely not leave me alone!"

"I do miss you. I haven't seen you lately. So many of my classmates are not at school anymore. They're all busy with their own things. There are fewer and fewer people in the class."

Ella sighed.

It was almost graduation. Everyone was working hard for their respective futures.

Alyssa understood Ella's meaning. Looking at Ella's unhappy expression, she smiled and said, "We will grow up. After growing up, we naturally have to work harder for the future we want, and so do you. It's the fate for us to meet, so you don't have to care about the separation. Besides, we all have the same major. In the future, we will also engage in the same field. The teacher also said it last time, didn't he? We have to help each other when we enter society in the future. Don't think about things so badly."

Hearing Alyssa's words, Ella really wasn't as depressed as before.

She looked at Alyssa and smiled, "You have a point. Anyway, true friendship will not be diluted by the passage of time."

"Good for you to know."

Alyssa patted Ella's shoulder.

Ella had always been more sentimental than her.

She had been like that as a child. When the chick she raised died, she would be sad for a long time.

Not to mention the separation now.

In their last life, they had fallen out because of Ryan. At that time, she must have been very sad.

When she thought about it, Alyssa felt sorry for Ella.

Luckily, God gave her the opportunity to make amends.

She turned her head to look at Ella, "Ella, we are still good friends for life. No matter what happens, you're always my best friend. So, don't worry and don't be sad. You'll always have me by your side, okay?"

Ella smiled at those words, "I know."

Alyssa nodded and smiled at Ella.

Ten minutes later.

Alyssa met Javon from Javon Drink.

Javon was very warm to see Alyssa. He hurriedly greeted Alyssa and sat her down, bringing her tea.

"Mr. Reed, you don't have to be so polite. I have understood the situation of your company. I've brought all the information you submitted earlier and the information I added later. Please take a look at them now. Then let's talk about the rest."

Alyssa put the materials in front of Javon.

Javon glanced at them but did not turn them over.

Alyssa smiled at Javon's attitude, "Mr. Reed, don't you even want to read about your company's situation?"
