

Chapter 1681: Danger

Fanxing stared at him for a while before repeating calmly,

“Stop the car.”

The driver had no intention of stopping.

“This is the royal rule. Even if you stop the car, it won’t change anything. Please forgive me, Princess.”

Shen Fanxing narrowed her eyes and said, “Are you teaching me the rules? The royal family’s rules and my words have no effect on you?”

“Princess Fanxing, we have our own job requirements. If I don’t do a good job today, I might be reprimanded by the queen tomorrow. I’ve always thought that it’s an honor to serve the royal family. Losing this job will have serious consequences for me. Please understand.”

Shen Fanxing listened to the driver patiently and sneered.

“Do you think your current working attitude is qualified? Are you afraid that the Queen will reprimand you or is it someone else?”

The driver was silent for a few seconds. “... I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

Shen Fanxing placed her hand on her stomach and her face darkened.

“If anything happens to me or I deviate from my destination, believe me, you’ll suffer.”

The driver nodded. “Don’t worry, Princess. The royal car has a GPS system. I will definitely send you safely to the Duke of Burgundy’s residence.”

Shen Fanxing pressed her lips and stopped talking. She closed her eyes and leaned against the seat, her nerves on edge as she paid close attention to the driver’s actions.

The car drove steadily for more than ten minutes without any abnormalities.

Shen Fanxing relaxed a little as her phone rang.

She took it out to see a message from Bo Jinchuan.

Seeing the message, she heaved a sigh of relief and replied to Bo Jinchuan.

In less than a minute, the car suddenly accelerated. Moreover, it was no longer driving in a straight line. The steering wheel seemed to be shaking left and right, and the car started to shake violently.

Shen Fanxing grabbed the armrest and her face darkened.

“What’s going on?!”

The driver said hurriedly,

“I’m sorry, because this is the suburbs. Occasionally, wild animals cross the road. It was just an emergency.”

Even though he said that, the car didn’t slow down at all.

Shen Fanxing couldn't sit properly and the scenery in front of her shook violently. She felt dizzy and couldn't focus.

She knew that there was something wrong with this driver and that he was related to Ye Jingyun. However, her blatant behavior made her furious.

"Drive slower!" she shouted in a low voice. She was intimidating, but her words were trembling from the bumpy ride.

The driver continued driving in a winding and bumpy manner. There was a mountain road outside and an endless sea below the cliff.

If anything happened to the steering wheel, she had no hope of survival.

"But Princess... there seems to be someone chasing after us. Our royal car is too big a target. I'm worried that those people will be a threat to you. We'd better speed up and reach the Duke of Burgundy's residence as soon as possible."

"Princess, please bear with it for now."

Infuriated, Shen Fanxing gripped the armrest tightly and placed her hand on her abdomen, trying her best to convince herself to calm down.

Taking a deep breath, she controlled her emotions and said in a low voice,

"My husband's car is behind me. It won't pose any threat to me. Stop the car!"

Shen Fanxing shouted the last two words in a threatening manner.

The driver's heart trembled and he tightened his grip on the steering wheel. However, the speed of the car increased instead of decreasing.

Shen Fanxing leaned back and took a deep breath.

The hand on her abdomen clenched into a fist.

"What did Ye Jingyun promise you?! She set me up so blatantly... I asked you to stop the car, do you hear me?!"

The driver couldn't even be bothered to think of an excuse. "Someone is chasing after us. Princess, please bear with it!"

As he spoke, he floored the accelerator.

The car sped off.

Shen Fanxing, who had just straightened her back, leaned against the chair again.

Her chest felt nauseous from the impact.

Despite her repeated attempts to persuade the driver, he didn't stop the car. Shen Fanxing knew that it was useless to say anything more. Gritting her teeth, she suddenly stood up and grabbed the driver's seat. Her other hand gripped the driver's shoulder tightly.

“Get out of my way!”

The driver was shocked by Shen Fanxing’s actions. The car swayed and the wheels brushed against the cliff for a few seconds.

He was shocked and turned the steering wheel back. The car turned around and almost hit the mountain wall on the other side.

“Princess, please let go! This is really dangerous!”

“Stop the car if it’s dangerous!”

“...” The driver didn’t say anything and the car didn’t slow down.

Yu Song, who had been following behind, trembled in fear when he saw the car in front.

She gripped the steering wheel tightly and tried her best to chase after the car in front of her.

Seeing that the car had no intention of stopping, he knew that something was amiss.

Thinking of the foundation that Princess Ava had built over the years, she understood.

However, the mountain path was winding and rugged. On one side was a high cliff. Although it was seawater below, the chances of survival were slim if one fell.

Moreover, Madam was pregnant.

“Give me the car!”

Bo Jinchuan’s cold voice sounded from behind.

When Yu Song heard that, he hurriedly slowed the car down.

“You don’t have to stop.”

Yu Song paused and looked at the road that was dozens of meters away. He hesitated and said, “Master...”

Changing cars at such a high speed in such a short period of time was too dangerous. If anything happened, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Give it to me!”

Bo Jinchuan’s deep voice sounded again. Yu Song’s heart skipped a beat and he stood up without hesitation.

During this period, Bo Jinchuan got up from the backseat and strode to the front. In the next second, the steering wheel in Yu Song’s hand was in his.

There was a sharp turn ahead. Seeing that the car was about to rush down the cliff, Yu Song’s face tensed. In an instant, his body turned cold.

The thought of witnessing death flashed across his mind.

However, at this moment, the car suddenly shook. Accompanied by the sharp and ear-piercing sound of brakes, the huge friction between the front of the car and the ground caused the car to swerve. The back of the car was thrown back, and the car slid horizontally for a distance. During the process, the entire car spun on the road. The front of the car faced forward, and it suddenly accelerated. It didn't stop at all.

When Yu Song felt his back pressed against the back of the chair, he knew that this time... he wouldn't have to die.

Chapter 1682: If...

When Yu Song felt his back pressed against the back of the chair, he knew that this time... he wouldn't have to die.

She subconsciously turned to look at Master, who was already sitting steadily in the driver's seat. Her expression did not change, but her eyes were dark.

This expression gave him the same feeling as when he was on the brink of death.

She retracted her gaze silently. To be able to see Master's driving skills in her lifetime, she could die without regrets.

Shen Fanxing, who was in front, wanted to take control of the car. Her voice was strong and cold.

"Stop the car or give me the steering wheel!"

The driver's face was filled with nervousness and fear, but he still gripped the steering wheel tightly.

"How can I let the princess drive personally? If the queen finds out, I'll be severely punished."

Even he might not believe such an excuse.

It was simply full of loopholes.

She claimed that she was afraid of being punished by the queen, but in reality, she was placed on the edge of danger, hovering between life and death, trembling with fear.

He was worried about her driving but not about her safety.

What kind of logic was that?

However, one thing was certain. He kept calling her princess, but he had never taken her seriously.

Perhaps in his eyes, Ava was the only princess in Country Y. Her two daughters were the queen's most beloved princesses. And this so-called princess who had suddenly appeared was a wild girl who wanted to cling to the throne. Otherwise, he wouldn't have used the "royal rules" to suppress her from the beginning.

"I'm warning you, I'm the Queen's real granddaughter, and Ye Jingyun and Bei Lei and Bei Xi are just Grandma's adopted daughters! If you really listen to her orders and Grandma hears about this... Ye Jingyun will lose everything, and your long and narrow life will only be more miserable than theirs! You can't even figure out the pros and cons, right?"

“...” The driver looked hesitant. No one knew what he was thinking, but his eyes were filled with conflict.

“That’s against the rules...”

Shen Fanxing looked at his expression through the rearview mirror and continued,

“Even if I’m a princess, I’m related to the Queen of Country Y by blood! I’m no less important to her than Ava. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have allowed you to harm me at such a time!”

Anyone can understand the pros and cons of this. You’d better think carefully! Don’t mention the rules to me. I’m the princess of Country Y. Wherever I go, there will be rules! If you still insist on following me... you better not let me live this time. Otherwise...”

The driver’s expression was unreadable, and the hesitation on his face deepened.

However, he was only distracted for a moment before he failed to brake and turn the steering wheel. He was shocked and was about to turn the steering wheel when something pressed against his back.

He glanced at the rearview mirror and realized that the car behind him had already caught up.

The car drove straight and made a sharp turn. At this moment, the car behind them had found the empty spot. It pressed the front of the car against their car and forced it to the inside of the road.

Shen Fanxing instantly understood that Bo Jinchuan had caught up to them and saved them from the crisis.

Just as she heaved a sigh of relief, she turned around and saw that the two rear wheels of Bo Jinchuan’s car were suspended on the edge of the cliff. The blood drained from her face and she looked terrifyingly pale.

However, Bo Jinchuan had already stepped on the brakes at the critical moment. Shen Fanxing only saw the back wheel floating in the air for a moment.

After that, she saw the car flying past the cliff and landing safely in the middle of the road.

The driver had already stepped on the brakes and Bo Jinchuan’s car swerved to face them.

Everything had happened too quickly.

The entire process only lasted for an instant. It was a close call.

Shen Fanxing sat back in her seat in a daze. She had yet to let go of the driver’s seat. Her slender fingers were pale and her fingers were almost stuck in the seat.

Before the blood had returned to her face, she was in a daze.

Just as the car in front stopped, the door of the driver’s seat opened abruptly. Bo Jinchuan was dressed in a black suit. He was neat and tidy, as though he had just left the hotel. It was as though he was not the one who had just experienced a life and death battle.

He wasn’t in a sorry state, and he looked noble and respectful. However, at this moment, there was a strong hostility that was rarely seen. In the dark night, he was like a supreme ghost stepping on bones as he gradually approached. His powerful aura almost froze people on the spot, and they didn't dare to move at all. They could only stay on the spot and let him take their lives.

Shen Fanxing's gaze followed her, but there was no emotion in her eyes.

The car door opened and an overwhelming aura enveloped her, but she still didn't react.

Bo Jinchuan carried her out of the car. Sensing her current state, he planted a kiss on her forehead. His face was tense but his tone was gentle.

"I'm fine now."

Shen Fanxing raised her head and stared at him. Her mind was filled with the scene she had just witnessed.

Bo Jinchuan placed her on the hood of the car. There was no warmth from the engine.

"Fanxing, it's alright now."

Shen Fanxing's eyes flickered.

Bo Jinchuan pressed his forehead against hers and wrapped his arms around her, kissing her lips.

The familiar touch, warmth and his scent were even clearer. Shen Fanxing's eyes finally flickered and she exhaled sharply.

Bo Jinchuan let go of her and she placed her hand on the car hood. She clutched her chest and panted heavily.

She was really scared out of her wits just now.

Bo Jinchuan pulled her into his embrace and kissed her hair.

"I'm fine, I'm fine..."

There was a loud smack.

Bo Jinchuan's voice trailed off. Yu Song, who had just gotten off the bus, froze in shock. It was his turn to suffocate.

Bo Jinchuan paused and stared at Shen Fanxing for a few seconds before hugging her.

"I'm fine..."

Shen Fanxing pushed him away and glared at Bo Jinchuan.

Her eyes were completely red.

Tears rolled down her cheeks.

"Do you know how dangerous you were just now... I don't want you to save me... If you... if... I don't want you to save me..."

Shen Fanxing was incoherent, but Yu Song heaved a sigh of relief.

It seemed like she was really frightened when she looked up.

In fact, he had also been scared half to death.

Her legs were still weak.

Master was really willing to sacrifice his life for Madam.

Not many of Shen Fanxing's sentences were complete. She didn't even dare to say 'what if'.

But everyone understood.

Even though she didn't say anything at first, Bo Jinchuan understood.

After being slapped, he pulled her into his embrace to comfort her.

Chapter 1683: What Are You Laughing At?

Even though she didn't say anything at first, Bo Jinchuan understood.

After being slapped, he pulled her into his embrace to comfort her.

"I'm fine..."

Images kept flooding into Shen Fanxing's mind.

Her face did not warm up and she trembled uncontrollably.

The things in her mind made her shudder occasionally.

She hurriedly grabbed Bo Jinchuan's shirt.

She buried her face in his chest.

Bo Jinchuan's face was extremely cold, but he hugged her tightly and rubbed her shoulders, trying his best to comfort her.

"It's alright, Fanxing. I'm fine now..."

Shen Fanxing opened her eyes and remained silent in his embrace for a while. Then, she raised her head slowly and placed her hand on Bo Jinchuan's handsome face.

Her hands were cold and her palms were covered in cold sweat.

Her fingers that were still trembling slowly caressed the face under her palm. Her eyes, which were filled with fear, trembled slightly. Perhaps it was because of the warmth under her palm, or perhaps it was because of the real touch, her expression gradually recovered and her eyes regained clarity.

However, the tears on her face flowed even harder.

She felt wronged and afraid.

Her fingers caressed the spot where he had been hit, and her heart ached with guilt.

"Don't do this... Please don't do this..."

Her voice choked and her tears flowed even harder.

“My heart is really about to die...”

She told him how she felt at that moment. She was really scared to death back then.

“If there’s really something, how should I explain it to my parents? They will hate me for the rest of their lives... They will hate me for letting their beloved son...”

Pausing again, she shook her head and continued,

“No... I can’t... I can’t imagine what would happen to you... I can’t imagine what I would do without you in this world. Bo Jinchuan, how could you...”

Shen Fanxing’s heart ached so much that she felt suffocated.

In the past, he had doted on her enough, but she had never experienced any heart-wrenching pain.

No matter how sad she was, she wouldn’t be like this.

Other than regret and a short period of loneliness, Su Heng had betrayed her.

Compared to now and the moment just now, everything was insignificant.

Bo Jinchuan held her hand and kissed it.

A low and hoarse voice sounded above her head.

“Me too... Do you want me to watch you get into trouble in front of me?”

She didn’t want to.

Because she knew he couldn’t.

That way, he would feel guilt, pain, and self-doubt. In fact... she would become a knot in his heart that he would never be able to get over.

At this moment, she finally understood that neither of them would lead a good life without the other.

The numbing description of life and death made her completely accept it.

She looked at Bo Jinchuan quietly and gradually calmed down.

“I’m fine... as long as I’m fine...”

She was the one who had fallen into a vicious cycle.

There was no point in pursuing the matter.

She slowly lowered her hand and buried her face in his arms.

“It’s good that you’re fine...”

Bo Jinchuan comforted her as he gazed at the mist rising in the dark. His eyes were cold.

“Come out!”

Yu Song's voice suddenly sounded. The driver who had been hiding in the car was pulled out by Yu Song and thrown to the ground.

"What... are you doing? I'm the royal family's chauffeur. You can't touch me..."

"A driver of the royal family trying to murder the princess of the royal family. Are you tired of living?"

Yu Song was enraged by the driver's stupidity.

What kind of people were Master and Madam? After experiencing so much, wouldn't it be too unfair if they were both ruined by a nobody?

The driver's face was filled with fear and his lips trembled as he denied everything.

"Why would I harm the princess? There's no grudge between us. Why would I do such a reckless thing? You guys were the ones who chased after us just now. I thought someone wanted to harm the princess... That's why I was in a hurry to leave with the princess!"

Moreover, the princess insisted on snatching the steering wheel under such circumstances, which almost caused a disaster...

"Bullshit!"

Yu Song cursed angrily and kicked the driver's waist.

The driver cried out in pain and clutched his waist as he spun around in pain.

Shen Fanxing looked up from Bo Jinchuan's embrace, the tears in her eyes gone.

"Princess, I really didn't want to harm you. Even if I had a hundred guts, I wouldn't have done such a thing..."

Shen Fanxing watched coldly as he gave an unconvincing excuse as though everyone was a fool.

"That depends on who gave her the courage and how much it's worth."

The driver's expression changed drastically. "No, Princess, you've really misunderstood me..."

Shen Fanxing narrowed her eyes at her. Just as she was about to say something, two beams of light shot towards her.

She narrowed her eyes and looked up. Two headlights were driving straight towards her. The car was not slow and finally stopped behind the royal car she was in.

Then, the car door opened and two familiar figures alighted.

The two slender figures slowly walked through the light and approached.

"Did something happen?"

Bailey's figure appeared almost at the same time as her voice. When she saw the driver who had been thrown to the ground, her eyebrows moved imperceptibly.

"What's wrong? What's wrong? Is it..."

Bei Xi ran to the front. When she saw the situation, her cheerful voice paused and her face darkened.

Perhaps she felt that her expression revealed too much, she continued,

“Did something happen?”

None of them spoke.

At this moment, Bei Lei took two more steps forward. Her gaze shifted from the driver to Bo Jinchuan’s back and landed on Shen Fanxing.

With a noble and elegant aura, Shen Fanxing said gently,

“Sister Fanxing, are you alright? What’s wrong?”

Bei Xi also went up to join in the fun. “That’s right. Aren’t you going to attend Miss Fina’s birthday party? Why are you stopping here? Are you enjoying the scenery?”

Bei Xi’s words didn’t elicit any reaction from Shen Fanxing and the rest. Instead, it made Bei Lei frown unhappily.

Shen Fanxing stared at Bailey for a long time before she smiled.

The laughter displeased Bei Xi.

“What are you laughing at?!”

Shen Fanxing pushed Bo Jinchuan away slowly and he carried her out of the car.

Their intimacy made Bei Lei and Bei Xi grit their teeth uncontrollably.

Chapter 1684: Untitled

It wasn’t until Shen Fanxing’s legs had adapted that Bo Jinchuan let go of her.

Looking down at the creases on his shirt, Bo Jinchuan pursed his lips.

If she had not gripped her clothes tightly the moment the two women appeared, he would have considered throwing them and the driver off the cliff.

Shen Fanxing walked slowly towards Bailey. She was wearing a warm down jacket and she felt warm just by looking at her.

However, as she inched closer to them, they couldn’t help but feel nervous.

“What are you doing?!” Bei Xi leaned towards Bei Lei.

Shen Fanxing stood a few steps away from them and gave them a faint smile.

However, the coldness in her eyes could not be concealed.

“Why are you here?”

Shen Fanxing asked sarcastically as her gaze swept across the two of them again.

“Of course...”

Before Bei Xi could finish speaking, Bei Lei suddenly grabbed her wrist.

She pulled hard and staggered.

“It’s nothing. Bei Xi has a bad temper and Mother has a headache. I brought her out to relax.”

Shen Fanxing sneered and nodded lightly.

“Is that so?”

She glanced at Bailey and hugged her down jacket even tighter.

“The two of you are in such a good mood to relax in the wilderness.”

Bei Xi couldn’t understand what Shen Fanxing was trying to say. “Why? You can’t. It’s none of your business where we go to relax.”

“In that case, why are you asking me what happened?”

Bailey choked. “You... really don’t know what’s good for you.”

Shen Fanxing took a deep breath and her face relaxed.

“But all these years, you’ve always been under Grandma’s care. I should thank you for this. I don’t have the right to ask where you went for a walk. I’m just curious. The two of you went to such a place at night to relax, and you’re wearing... such thin clothes. I’m reminding you to stay warm.”

When Bei Lei and Bei Xi heard this, they paused and their expressions turned ugly and awkward.

The two of them reached out to hug themselves, their eyes flickering.

Yu Song swept his gaze across the two of them and snorted.

“You... you dare to laugh at us?!” Bei Xi exploded again.

Yu Song said calmly,

“You’re thinking too much. I just feel that the two princesses are really beautiful tonight.”

Bailey bit her lip, her face tense.

The two of them were dressed in high-end and luxurious fashion gowns. Their makeup was exquisite and their hair was specially styled. Their jewelry was also chosen after much selection.

Under the headlights of a few cars, the jewelry shone brightly, comparable to the stars that rose above.

It was opulent and luxurious.

It was already winter and they were in the suburbs. Moreover, it was near the sea. No one would wear such a thin and high-end gown to relax.

Even in a car, no one would dress like this.

Unless they were prepared. She didn't believe in the excuse of relaxing. As for their motive...

She laughed sarcastically in her heart.

Even if she didn't die in the end, she would definitely be injured. At the very least, she would be in a sorry state.

If she appeared at the grand duke's banquet in a disheveled state, people would definitely sneer coldly.

This concerned the reputation of the royal family.

They had come dressed like this because they were certain that she had been injured or even lost her life.

Replacing her was their real goal tonight.

To relax...

Ha.

"We don't feel cold. Mind your own business."

A guilty conscience.

There was something fishy going on. Even Bei Xi could tell what Shen Fanxing meant.

Shen Fanxing smiled and said calmly,

"That's true. In that case, I won't disturb you. It's getting late and I have to rush to Miss Burgundy's birthday party. Goodbye."

The expressions of Bei Lei and Bei Xi changed again.

His expression was indescribably ugly.

When they saw the two cars parked in front of them, they thought that something had happened to Shen Fanxing.

In a moment of excitement, the two of them got out of the car without thinking. They didn't even notice the cold air that blew at them.

When she saw Shen Fanxing standing there unscathed, she was disappointed and indignant.

Now that Shen Fanxing had said that, they realized that their outfit was too eye-catching.

Now that Shen Fanxing had seen through her, Bei Lei felt embarrassed.

Shen Fanxing said calmly, and the smile on her face was full of sarcasm.

Shen Fanxing stared coldly at the ground without saying a word. She didn't even look at Bailey.

She turned to look at Yu Song and said calmly,

"Capture this driver first. After I'm done attending Miss Bogenti's birthday party, I'll bring him to talk to Grandma about him."

The driver finally reacted and looked in the direction of Bei Lei and Bei Xi.

The message for help was especially obvious.

Bailey clenched her fists and hesitated for a while before saying to Shen Fanxing,

“Fanxing, the chauffeur is the royal family’s personal chauffeur after all. He’s still wearing our royal family’s uniform. Other than our royal family, no one has the right to punish him.”

“If he did something wrong or his skills aren’t good enough, we can retrain him or terminate our employment relationship with him.”

“Moreover, it’s just a chauffeur. There’s really no need to alarm Grandma and let her suffer unnecessary anger.”

“How about this? If you trust me, leave him to me. I’ll help you ask him. If the situation is really serious...”

“Sorry.” Shen Fanxing raised her hand to stop her. “I don’t believe you.”

Bailey didn’t know what to say.

The thing that Bei Xi had seen the most since she was young was that Bei Lei was surrounded by many people who praised her and made her into a high and mighty princess. All she heard were praises and accords with her.

Unlike today, she was rendered speechless by Shen Fanxing’s words.

These words were really harsh!

Even without looking at Bailey’s face, Bei Xi could guess how ugly her expression was.

Ever since Bailey appeared, the driver gradually calmed down.

Because he knew that Bailey would do her best to save him.

Although Shen Fanxing was a real princess, the two princesses had always been doted on by the queen.

Even if Shen Fanxing didn’t want to give face to the monk, she had to give face to Princess Bailey.

Unexpectedly, she had no intention of giving him any face!

Chapter 1685: I Don’t Want Your Feelings, I Want My Feelings

Shen Fanxing’s straightforwardness rendered Bailey speechless. The chauffeur looked at her in fear, his eyes pleading for help.

Seeing that Shen Fanxing was about to leave, Bei Lei hurried forward and said,

“But there’s no need to report this to Grandma! Do you know how busy Grandma is every day? Don’t you think it’s too much for her to handle such a small matter personally?”

Shen Fanxing stopped in her tracks.

Seeing this, Bailey heaved a sigh of relief. "You haven't accompanied her for so many years. Now that you're back, you're already causing so much trouble for her? Fanxing, don't be too selfish. No one will suspect that Grandma cares about you, but you can't expect Grandma to uphold justice for you just because you've suffered a little. Can't you understand her no matter what?"

Shen Fanxing turned around slowly and looked at her calmly.

"You're saying that everything that happened today is a small matter? If such a life and death matter is a small matter, then what is a big matter in your eyes?"

"What happened today was purely a misunderstanding. The driver was thinking about your safety. Besides, he can't risk his life, right? Besides, you're fine now. There's nothing wrong. Why do you have to cause trouble for Grandma and make her worry?"

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow and muttered, "It's a misunderstanding..."

Her lips curled into a cold smile. "As the victim, I didn't think that it was a misunderstanding. You didn't witness the entire process, but you said that it was a misunderstanding? It sounds like you know more about what happened than me."

Bailey's relaxed expression instantly tensed up.

"I... just don't think the driver would do such a stupid thing..."

Miss Shen smiled and placed her hands in the pockets of her down jacket. She stared at her and smiled lightly.

"You think this matter is useless. I don't want you to think so, but I do! I think someone is deliberately targeting me, so I know what to do. Therefore, you can only listen to me when it comes to the outcome. Understand?"

"Pfft... Cough..."

Yu Song took two seconds before he understood what Shen Fanxing meant. He couldn't help but reveal his emotions.

Uh...

Great!

This was very ladylike!

It was comparable to Master sometimes.

Bailey didn't know what to say.

This woman was simply a piece of dead steel, invulnerable.

Her way of doing things was annoying.

Being silenced by her again, the anger in Bailey's heart grew.

She had a feeling that the longer she spent time with this woman, the angrier she would be.

Bei Xi stared at Shen Fanxing in disbelief for a long time.

Did this woman have to be so annoying?

“You... you...”

The atmosphere was awkward. Bailey didn't speak, obviously overwhelmed by Shen Fanxing's aura and words.

Bei Xi was indignant, but he pointed at Shen Fanxing, not knowing what to say.

Shen. Topic Terminator. Stars.

Yu Song found it ridiculous. It was rare to see Madam looking so serious and cute. He turned to look at his master and his expression didn't look too good.

The smile on her face disappeared silently.

There was no point in staying any longer. Shen Fanxing gave Bei Lei and Bei Xi a faint smile before walking towards Bo Jinchuan.

The driver was really afraid now. Seeing that the matter was settled, if the matter really reached the Queen, he would lose his job completely.

Moreover, it was very likely that she would be blacklisted by Country Y in the future.

Even survival was a problem.

“Princess Bailey, you have to help me... I...”

Bailey gritted her teeth and looked down at him coldly, her eyes full of warning.

“Why are you in such a hurry? If you didn't do anything wrong, what can the Queen do? Are you doubting the Queen's judgment?”

The driver paused and felt that he had exposed too much. He pursed his lips and lowered his head.

Yu Song lifted him up and stuffed him into the so-called private car.

“Master, I'll bring this person back first.”

He informed Bo Jinchuan, who nodded in agreement before opening the door.

The driver was roughly tied up by his seatbelt. He closed the door and started the car.

Although the royal car was high-end, it couldn't fly.

The driver looked like he had nothing to live for. He had long forgotten about the rules of the royal family.

After turning the car around, she glanced at Bei Lei and Bei Xi's car. A hint of sarcasm appeared on her face.

How unappealing.

Bo Jinchuan led Shen Fanxing into the car and drove towards the Grand Duke's residence.

Only Bailey and Bei Xi were left on the road.

There was nothing but the sound of the waves.

A gust of cold wind blew and Bei Xi shivered. She hugged her arms and rubbed them hard.

"Belle, what should we do now?"

Bailey's expression was cold as she clenched her fists tightly.

Bei Xiliang's lips turned pale. He stomped his feet and said in a trembling voice,

"It's so cold. Let's get in the car."

Bailey didn't say anything, but she turned around and walked towards the car.

Bei Xi hurriedly hugged her body and followed.

There was a warm air conditioner in the car. Bei Xi sighed and said, "It's really cold outside."

Bailey's lips had long turned pale from the cold, and her entire body was trembling.

After a long while, she said slowly,

"Drive."

The driver paused. "Where... to?"

Bailey was inexplicably angered by the driver's words. "You... cough cough..."

Just as she opened her mouth, her throat felt itchy and she couldn't help but cough violently.

Bei Xi pursed her lips and was about to mock her for being delicate when she sneezed a few times in the next second.

The driver silently raised the temperature of the air conditioner. When he met Bailey's gaze, he understood what she meant. He started the car and continued driving.

Bailey didn't say anything else.

Bei Xi said, "Shen Fanxing is fine now. Will Grandma be unhappy if we go?"

Bailey said coldly,

"She represents the royal family. I'm only representing myself. I'm just celebrating my friend's birthday. What can she say?"

Bei Xi's eyes lit up.

"That's right, that's right. In terms of relationship, we've known Fina since we were young. It's natural for us to celebrate her birthday. Bailey, you're the smartest. I didn't even think of this."

Bailey smirked and said, "Shen Fanxing is a formidable woman. If you don't use your brain, you won't even know how you died."

Chapter 1686: Be Careful

Bei Xi pursed her lips, unwilling to admit that she wasn't smart.

"But that b*tch just now was really infuriating. From the looks of it, something must have happened, but from the looks of it, she doesn't seem to feel anything! What's with that driver of hers? With this kind of road, she can be scared half to death if she has the slightest bit of courage, but she's... so bold."

When Bailey heard this, her expressionless face finally frowned.

It was true that this b*tch was impenetrable.

From the driver's expression just now, it was obvious that something had happened. Moreover, the accident should not be a small one. Shen Fanxing had said that it was a matter of life and death, but her expression and attitude did not seem like someone who had experienced a life and death situation.

She didn't know if it was because her mental fortitude was too good or if she was pretending.

If she was really pretending, then this woman was too secretive.

"Drive faster." Her eyes darkened as she instructed the driver to speed up.

Puzzled, Bei Xi asked, "What if we catch up to them? We might be angered to death by Shen Fanxing again. I don't want to see her again. She's too annoying."

Bailey shook her head. "No, not only do we have to catch up to her, we have to surpass her."

Bei Xi frowned, not knowing what Bailey was thinking.

Bo Jinchuan drove slowly.

Shen Fanxing leaned against the passenger seat. At first, she thought that he was giving her time to calm down and adjust her emotions.

But after a few minutes, he had no intention of speeding up.

She took a deep breath and turned to look at Bo Jinchuan.

"I have nothing to do now. You can speed up a little."

Bo Jinchuan frowned and made a few turns before stopping by the roadside.

"What's wrong?"

Bo Jinchuan got out of the car and took out a beautifully wrapped black and gold box. He placed the box in Shen Fanxing's arms.

"Carry me."

Shen Fanxing raised the box to take a look. Under the poor lighting in the car, she could only see that the box was beautiful. There was a hole about two centimeters in diameter on both sides.

It was so dark that she couldn't see what was inside.

She looked at Bo Jinchuan in confusion and asked, "What is this?"

"A gift."

Shen Fanxing was even more confused. "Why did you suddenly think of giving me a gift?"

Bo Jinchuan turned to look at her before speaking again.

"You're thinking too much."

"Huh?"

"It's not for you."

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

She was about to open the box when she paused, looking slightly displeased.

"If it's not for me, who are you giving it to?"

"Miss Fina's."

The moment she finished speaking, Shen Fanxing stuffed the gift box into Bo Jinchuan's arms.

"Why did you want me to carry the gift you gave her?"

Bo Jinchuan looked down at the box in his arms, his expression unnatural.

Shen Fanxing was furious. What happened just now was too thrilling. If she didn't do something, the two of them wouldn't be able to escape from their emotions.

Instead of that, it was better to use other things to let bygones be bygones.

Actually, it was Fina's birthday today. It wasn't too much for Bo Jinchuan to give her a gift.

However, there was a reason why she took the initiative to prepare a gift. The combination of the two made Shen Fanxing unable to remain indifferent.

Bo Jinchuan picked up the box and was about to pass it to her when a light flashed outside.

Not long after, a car stopped beside theirs.

She pressed the horn.

Shen Fanxing paused and Bo Jinchuan didn't move. She pressed the button and the window rolled down.

The window of the other party's backseat was rolled down, revealing Bailey's face. Her expression was full of concern.

“What’s wrong? Do you need help?”

Shen Fanxing looked at them and raised an eyebrow.

She didn’t answer Bailey. Instead, her gaze landed on Bo Jinchuan.

Bo Jinchuan pressed the button silently and the car window rolled up again.

She didn’t receive any response. In fact, her cold attitude made her expression change.

This was no different from inviting humiliation.

Over the past few days, her high and mighty dignity as a princess had been suppressed and humiliated time and time again. Her patience had run out.

She rolled up the window and instructed the chauffeur to drive. That way, she would be ahead of Shen Fanxing.

After watching their car drive away, Shen Fanxing said to Bo Jinchuan,

“You knew that they would continue to follow us?”

Bo Jinchuan glanced at her and asked, “Don’t you know?”

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and asked, “Then why did you deliberately slow down the car and even stop here to wait for them to beat us?”

Bo Jinchuan placed the gift box back into Shen Fanxing’s arms.

“Remember to give this to Miss Fina personally.”

Shen Fanxing frowned and asked, “Didn’t you want to give it to me?”

Bo Jinchuan said, “I’m only giving you a gift. This is for you.”

These words made Shen Fanxing feel comfortable, but he had prepared it himself.

“Grandma has already prepared a gift for her. You can give her one each.”

“Don’t give me that gift.”

Shen Fanxing frowned and asked, “Why?”

“Because the other party doesn’t lack anything, and she doesn’t care. Moreover, no one wants to receive the same gift on their birthday.”

“Exactly the same?”

Bo Jinchuan glanced at her calmly and didn’t say anything. However, Shen Fanxing’s gaze landed on the front of the car and realization dawned on her.

“You mean...”

Bo Jinchuan smiled. His wife was too smart and cute.

After starting the car again, Shen Fanxing's expression changed.

She had guessed that Bailey wouldn't give up on the banquet held by the Grand Duke of Burgundy's family so easily, but she didn't expect that not only did they have such thoughts, but they also knew about the gift she was preparing to give.

That's right. The gift was prepared by Grandma. It symbolized that the royal family had prepared something worthy.

However, other than being luxurious and noble, there was nothing special about it.

It was a set of scarlet jewelry made by the royal jewelry designer. It was exquisite and even young girls would find it suitable to wear.

Bo Jinchuan said that Miss Fina didn't lack anything.

There were more than twenty birthdays, and they were held by the honorable Duke of Burgundy. Indeed, there were only a few gifts received every year.

Shen Fanxing shook the gift box in confusion.

"Then what exactly is this?"

Bo Jinchuan pressed his lips and said, "You... be careful."

Chapter 1687: Vanity

Bo Jinchuan pressed his lips and said, "You... be careful."

The more Shen Fanxing saw how careful he was, the more she felt that something was amiss.

Lowering his head to open the gift box, Bo Jinchuan had already started the car.

Ten minutes later, the car stopped outside a luxurious European-style building.

The reason why it was called a building was because it made the villa seem stingy. Even though it was a castle, it was not as spectacular as Bi Huihong.

If she had to say it, the word manor might be more suitable.

It was comparable to Bo Jinchuan's Grand View Manor in Ping Cheng City.

At this moment, there were many luxury cars parked outside the Burgundy manor.

The political officials of Country Y had always been particular about appearances and had never shied away from some bad practices.

There were men and women of all shapes and sizes. They were in pairs and looked luxurious.

Just from the occasional guests walking into the manor, Shen Fanxing could understand why Bailey was so persistent.

This was a banquet that would definitely satisfy their vanity.

No matter who the real protagonist of today's birthday party was, as long as they arrived, the ones who would attract the most attention would undoubtedly be the two princesses with the highest status in Country Y.

Furthermore, the people who surrounded and complimented them were important politicians and top businessmen in Country Y.

This was different from the usual respect she received.

Seeing this, Shen Fanxing smiled.

So he was someone who liked such things.

The birthday party of the Grand Duke of Burgundy's precious granddaughter occupied the headlines of every major newspaper in Country Y every year.

This became the most shocking event on this day every year.

Because even if the newspaper wouldn't give it, the Grand Duke of Burgundy would spend money to buy this front page.

He wanted the whole world to witness his precious granddaughter's birthday.

It was obvious how important this Miss Fina was to the Grand Duke of Burgundy.

Moreover, many people paid attention to this birthday party every year.

It had even become everyone's habit.

Over time, all the major news agencies took the initiative to fight for the latest and most comprehensive resources for this birthday banquet.

Therefore, it was not surprising that reporters from various magazines and flashes were gathered outside the door.

"I heard that Yulia's real granddaughter will be present tonight. This is the first time she's appearing as a princess of Country Y!"

"That person is also famous internationally. I saw her at this year's International Fragrance Competition. At that time... it was really exciting!"

"I'm looking forward to her appearance tonight!"

When the reporters mentioned Shen Fanxing, they couldn't help but gossip.

Occasionally, she would take photos of the guests walking towards her.

"I wonder how upset Princess Bailey is this time. All these years of treatment as the Eldest Princess has been snatched away by someone who appeared out of nowhere. She must be feeling terrible."

"What can we do? After all, he's the queen's biological grandson. He can't be compared to her."

"But Princess Bailey has a good reputation in Country Y. Compared to her sister, she's like an angel."

Everyone agreed and had nothing to say about Bailey's character.

Just as they mentioned it, the protagonist appeared in their vision.

"Coming."

The few of them perked up and aimed their cameras at the figure on the red carpet.

Bailey and Bei Xi appeared at the same time.

In order to attract everyone's attention and show their noble status, the two sisters had obviously put in a lot of effort in their dressing.

The royal designer's unique top-notch gown and dazzling jewelry, exquisite makeup and meticulously styled hair, a perfect smile on her face, and her raised chin revealed the nobility and pride of the royal family.

The rare commotion caused by the reporters attracted the attention of the other guests.

Seeing the two princesses appearing at the same time and stealing everyone's attention, their expressions changed.

She didn't have a good impression of these two ostentatious princesses.

Every time, they would steal the limelight. Which woman could really like them?

However, they were the noble princesses of Country Y. Even if they didn't like her, they still had to find an opportunity to flatter her.

If she could become friends with them, it would be very beneficial to her family and even her future.

The other reporters reacted and snapped photos of Bailey and Bei Xi.

They had undoubtedly received the most attention tonight.

The smile on Bailey's face was generous and gentle.

It was as if I had really reached the highest point. I was filled with kindness and love for all of you. I looked like I loved everyone.

After a series of shots, the reporters received satisfactory photos and asked doubtfully,

"Didn't you say that your granddaughter would be attending tonight? Why did you lose to the two of them?"

"Yes, that's what we heard. The invitation is for the biological granddaughter."

"That's right. Thinking about it, Queen Yulia has just found her granddaughter. There's no doubt that she will try her best to familiarize her with the royal family. It's only natural for her to come. Why are they here? I've never heard of Burgundy giving them an invitation."

"Sigh, she's the princess of the royal family after all. Who doesn't know that without an invitation, who would dare to stop them?"

“Yes... you’re right, but it’s a little...”

Everyone was discussing the appearance of the two sisters.

The low and noisy voices did not allow them to hear what was going on. Faced with so many cameras and everyone’s gazes on the two of them, they looked dignified and beautiful on the surface, but deep down, they were delighted.

Sitting in the car, Shen Fanxing couldn’t help but sneer when she saw the sisters’ heads and backs.

Was such a thing worth so much effort?

Bei Xi held Bailey’s arm, feeling happy and proud.

Compared to Bailey, her emotions were too obvious.

The two of them walked to the door. The two young men who had confirmed the invitation stopped them. After bowing respectfully, they smiled and said,

“Please show me the invitation.”

Seeing this, Shen Fanxing unbuckled her seatbelt.

Seeing this, Bo Jinchuan opened the car door and led her out.

Shen Fanxing carried the gift box that Bo Jinchuan had given her and stepped onto the red carpet.

As they were still outside, Shen Fanxing didn’t remove her down jacket. As it was tightly covered, the reporters didn’t recognize her.

However, no matter what, Bo Jinchuan’s face was still very ostentatious. It was only when the two of them walked past expressionlessly that the reporters reacted.

“Isn’t that lady... the real princess of the royal family?”

Chapter 1688: Different Treatment

“Isn’t that lady... the real princess of the royal family?”

Everyone snapped back to their senses and hurriedly turned around, only to see a couple walking slowly towards the door.

“Yeah, isn’t that man the CEO of that world-renowned corporation?”

“The Bo Consortium. He’s no longer the CEO, but the lady beside him must be the princess of the royal family.”

“Ah, what a pity. She’s dressed so conservatively that I didn’t recognize her!”

“It’s okay. There’s still time. There will be a chance to see her again. There will be plenty of opportunities to see her at the coronation on New Year’s Day.”

The two sisters who were stopped had ugly expressions.

Everyone turned to look at them. Without an invitation, it was equivalent to an uninvited visit. This was a joke.

Even Bailey felt awkward and angry at their ignorance. She frowned slightly.

Because she was usually hypocritical, her expression made people feel pressured.

After all, this was a banquet that attracted everyone's attention. If they offended the guests or caused any trouble, they would mess up Miss Fina's birthday banquet. No one would be spared.

There were plenty of people who were gloating and waiting to watch a good show.

Even Bei Xi could sense it, let alone Bei Lei.

"Are you blind? How dare you stop us?"

The two of them looked at each other awkwardly.

At this moment, a few beautifully dressed women came to them and said,

"Yes, you don't know what's good for you. The two of them are the most expensive princesses in Country Y. How dare you stop the royal princess from celebrating Miss Fina's birthday?"

"It's a great honor for anyone to have a royal princess to celebrate your young lady's birthday. I think Burgundy should think so too, right? If you dare to stop them, the Burgundy family will bear the consequences. Don't cause trouble for the Grand Duke."

"You're right!"

Someone took the opportunity to curry favor with the two princesses, causing them to look troubled.

"But... our Miss Fina said that she will only accept invitations for her birthday banquet..."

"Yes, this was specially ordered by Miss Fina!"

The two of them spoke frankly.

The people around them understood clearly.

Her words sounded like she was targeting the two princesses.

That was true. Every year, at Miss Fina's birthday party, the eldest princess, Bei Lei, would shine and steal the limelight. Occasionally, she would bring Princess Bei Xi along.

No one hoped that they would appear.

Although the appearance of the royal princess had brought light to the entire family, the Burgundy family did not lack their favor.

He was the Grand Duke who had assisted the Queen in managing the entire Country Y. Even the Queen had to give him some face. Why would he need the two princesses to support him?

As for the Grand Duke's favorite granddaughter, she had been noble and arrogant since she was young. There were times when she didn't want to bother with the two princesses.

However, Queen Yulia had always respected the Burgundy family. Even if they were unhappy, they could only endure it.

But they did not expect that Fina would be so blatantly guarded against them today.

She was a noble princess, yet she was deliberately stopped outside the door. How embarrassing was that?

Hearing someone bootlicking her, Bei Xi raised her chin arrogantly and snorted. She looked at the two of them arrogantly.

“Did you hear that? If you did, move away. Otherwise, can you afford the consequences?”

“Bei Xi.” Bei Lei grabbed Bei Xi and said sternly, “Don’t mess around!”

Bei Xi stomped her feet angrily. “How am I fooling around? They don’t know what’s good for them...”

Bailey pulled her behind her and said to the two of them,

“We’ve been friends with Miss Fina since she was young. I haven’t missed her birthday in the past years, and I don’t want to in the future... We’re just here to celebrate her birthday. We really don’t have an invitation, but... can you ask Duke Burgundy directly? If he doesn’t agree, we’ll put down the gift and leave. At the same time, we wish Fina a happy birthday.”

She stopped and smiled at the two people in front of her. Her words didn’t sound aggressive, but everyone could understand.

What did he mean by asking Grand Duke Burgundy directly? They wouldn’t force him if he didn’t agree to let them in?

He had directly reported the matter to the Grand Duke of Burgundy. How could he refuse when the royal princess had personally come to celebrate his granddaughter’s birthday?

However, this also meant that Bei Lei and Bei Xi had made up their minds to enter tonight.

The two of them hesitated for a moment before nodding. “Alright, we’ll call the Grand Duke now.”

Just as one of them picked up the phone, Bo Jinchuan and Shen Fanxing arrived.

Shen Fanxing handed the invitation to one of them.

“Sorry to trouble you.” Her gentle voice sounded. She was too low-profile with the down jacket wrapped around her, but someone still looked at her.

After all, it was a banquet. Everyone was beautiful and dressed extravagantly. Even if someone wore a jacket, it must be to ensure that they attracted enough attention.

But looking at the way she was dressed now, it was too seasonal.

If not for her, they wouldn’t have felt that they were living in winter.

Taking the invitation from Shen Fanxing, one of them became more humble after reading the contents.

“So it’s Her Highness. Please come in!”

'Princess?'

Everyone caught the main point. Everyone's gazes seemed to be focused on her.

The collar of the down jacket was higher and Shen Fanxing's chin was buried in it. Her eyes were the most noticeable.

Her starry eyes were calm as she leaned in the arms of the tall and strong man with a strong aura. She looked too cute and helpless. She was nothing like the rumored ruthless and ruthless demoness.

She looked too... harmless.

Instantly, everyone lowered their guard against Shen Fanxing and sighed at how easily they believed the rumors.

Even so, they didn't dare to approach her.

That was because the man beside her had a cold expression that made people shrink back.

Shen Fanxing nodded and was about to enter when her gaze met Bailey's. There was an inexplicable smile in her eyes.

At this moment, the other person who had called to consult the Grand Duke of Burgundy hung up and walked over to Bailey.

"The two princesses have waited for a long time. The Grand Duke has agreed to let you in."

The smile on Shen Fanxing's face widened.

Her smile almost made Bailey give her a tight slap!

Chapter 1689: Another Day Without a Title

Yet she couldn't.

They could only watch as Shen Fanxing entered before them.

"Did you see that? Queen Yulia's meaning is obvious enough. He's still her biological grandson."

"She's received respectfully with an invitation, and Princess Bailey has to seek the permission of the Grand Duke of Burgundy to enter. Even a fool can tell which one Queen Yulia likes. You should be more careful in the future and interact more with that real princess."

"But Bei Lei and Bei Xi have been by the queen's side since they were young. The queen can't completely neglect them because of the new princess. If that's the case, what kind of person is the queen? She's just letting the new princess adapt to the environment. What's there to compare?"

The few of them discussed softly, and Bei Lei and Bei Xi heard them. Their expressions turned even uglier.

"Princesses, please come in."

The waiter reminded her. At this moment, Bailey had already turned around with a faint smile and walked in.

The main residence of the Duke of Burgundy was still very large. If one wanted to reach the banquet hall from outside the door, there was a parallel transmission ladder in the middle. In addition, the guests who came to the banquet were all distinguished guests. Due to the high heels, everyone chose to take the transmission ladder.

When Bei Lei and Bei Xi caught up, Bo Jinchuan and Shen Fanxing had just stepped onto the teleportation stairs. Shen Fanxing carried the box in her arms and used the bright light to look at the round holes on both sides. However, she couldn't see what was inside.

Bo Jinchuan found her adorable and pointed at the box.

"There's another ring around this ring. Put it on the table and take it off."

Shen Fanxing blinked, feeling curious.

"What's inside? I don't even know what the gift is. What kind of gift is this?"

Bo Jinchuan pursed his lips and said, "Anyway, the protagonist will like it."

He had a bad feeling. If she knew what was in the box in advance?

He would probably have one more enemy.

Shen Fanxing couldn't open the box now, so she could only hug it.

As for what to give, he would know when Miss Fina opened the gift.

This gift was unprecedented.

In less than five seconds, two figures overtook them on their left.

Bei Lei was pulled by Bei Xi, looking completely passive.

Most people knew that Bei Xi had a strong personality and low EQ. Even if their actions were inappropriate, they didn't think much of it.

Bailey looked troubled and said apologetically to Shen Fanxing,

"Sorry."

Shen Fanxing smiled and said, "It's alright. You can leave if you have something urgent."

However, Bei Lei grabbed Bei Xi and stood in front of Shen Fanxing and Bo Jinchuan.

She turned around and spoke to Shen Fanxing and Bo Jinchuan with a smile.

"We're all here to celebrate Fina's birthday. What's so urgent? Bei Xi is too impatient."

Shen Fanxing smiled and didn't say anything.

Bailey felt a little awkward. Her gaze landed on the gift box in her arms and doubt flashed across her eyes.

"What's this? Fanxing, what are you planning to give Fina today?"

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow and gave her a faint smile.

“I’m not too familiar with Miss Fina, so I gave Grandma a gift...”

Bei Xi sneered. “Have you never given anyone a gift? It’s just a set...”

“Bei Xi!”

Bei Lei suddenly chided in a low voice. Her warning gaze made Bei Xi shut up instantly.

“Grandma must have prepared the best gift. You’d better be careful with your words now.”

Bei Xi pursed her lips and remained silent.

Berry smiled gently and apologetically. “I’m sorry, Fanxing. Oh right, since you’re not familiar with Fina, I’ll introduce her to you later. She has a bad temper and a fiery temper, so you have to be careful when you speak. I don’t know why she suddenly became unhappy. After all, today is her birthday...”

Shen Fanxing insisted, “No need, I can do it myself.”

The skin around Bei Lei’s eyes twitched visibly. In the end, she suppressed her emotions and forced an ugly smile. She looked up at Bo Jinchuan, who was beside Shen Fanxing.

She wanted to talk to him, but she was rendered speechless by his cold gaze.

The last few people went down the teleportation stairs and arrived at the banquet hall after a few steps.

The banquet hall of the Burgundian family was resplendent.

There were dozens of luxurious chandeliers hanging above the banquet hall. The decorations in the banquet hall were bright and dazzling, complementing the lights. It was luxurious and luxurious.

In the center of the banquet hall, there was a round platform surrounded by pink lace. It was covered in various rose petals. In the middle was a cake that was more than ten meters tall. The design was exquisite and looked especially beautiful under the light.

Everyone exclaimed at the exquisiteness of the cake. Shen Fanxing vaguely heard that this cake was made by a few high-end pastry chefs in a day. The fruits and chocolates on it were the best in the world. This cake was worth nearly a million yuan.

Shen Fanxing finally understood what the Burgundy family meant.

She had also seen what real luxury was like.

Compared to them, Bo Jinchuan was too low-profile.

If he really was like this...

Even the relationship between the two of them wouldn’t have developed to this stage.

Such luxury, she was really...

Yes.

Bei Lei and Bei Xi entered first and naturally received some attention. Shen Fanxing and Bo Jinchuan appeared after them. Because of Bo Jinchuan, some people's attention was diverted.

Someone had guessed that the woman beside him was the new princess of Country Y, the granddaughter of Queen Yulia.

At this moment, Shen Fanxing was taking off her coat in front of the waiter. Everyone was looking forward to her appearance as the noble princess of Country Y. When they saw her taking off her coat, everyone's expressions...

She was shocked and in disbelief.

This ordinary outfit... What was she thinking?

Compared to Princess Bailey's gown, her entire outfit was probably not as valuable as the gems on their gowns.

This was not how a royal princess should behave.

"Sigh, she came from the bottom after all. She can't be compared to the princess who grew up in the royal family."

Chapter 1690: Another Day Without a Title (2)

"Sigh, she came from the bottom after all. She can't be compared to the princess who grew up in the royal family."

"I always thought that she would surprise us tonight, but in the end, it's just this... princess of the royal family. Why did she appear in such an ordinary outfit?"

"Perhaps even she thinks that this is the limit."

"It feels a little embarrassing."

These words made Bei Lei and Bei Xi, who were the first to leave the banquet hall, look at each other with gloating expressions.

If he wanted to suppress their princess, he should see if he had the ability.

She had already seen the princess' gown, yet she could still wear such ordinary clothes to attend such a grand banquet.

How embarrassing.

They didn't do anything this time. It was all her fault.

With Shen Fanxing's comparison, the two sisters' smiles became even more confident and arrogant.

More and more people came to compliment her. When Shen Fanxing walked down with the box, the road ahead had already been surrounded.

This scene was inexplicably familiar.

Bailey was in a good mood and the smile on her face widened.

The two of them accepted the praises readily. It was just that Bailey was better at pretending than Bei Xi and knew how to be humble.

The two of them walked slowly towards the center of the banquet hall. At this moment, a figure standing on the stage had an extremely unhappy expression.

As the main character of the night, Fina's limelight and focus were once again stolen because of the appearance of Bailey.

Although she didn't care at first, their actions gradually made her feel disgusted.

No one had their limelight stolen on a day that belonged to them.

Moreover, she could tell that these two sisters came here every time to use her birthday to satisfy their vanity.

His behavior was really low.

She had told her grandfather about this before. Because of the new princess this year, she finally had a reason not to invite them.

But damn it, they actually had the cheek to come?

Since they were already here, they had to ask their grandfather if he wanted them to enter. With the title of princess hanging above their heads, even if they didn't give them face, the Burgundy family had to give Queen Yulia and the royal family face.

They were certain that they wouldn't be rejected, which was why they had done this.

How disgusting!

However, Bei Lei and Bei Xi had the same problem. Their vanity had already washed their minds.

They only thought about the glory and honor they enjoyed, but they didn't know how to consider the feelings of others.

Bailey and Bei Xi walked slowly to the center of the banquet hall. When they saw Fina standing on the stage, they smiled at her, automatically ignoring the expression on her face.

Bei Lei and Bei Xi walked up the steps in luxurious and beautiful dresses. The slim-fitting dresses accentuated their perfect figures.

They walked gracefully to Miss Fina's side. Bailey was the first to pass the gift box to her.

She smiled gently and said,

"Today's birthday girl, Miss Fina, happy birthday."

Finan glanced down at the gift box she had handed him and took it. Without looking at it, he planned to throw it into the corner where the gifts were piled.

Seeing this, Bailey quickly asked, "Fina, aren't you going to take a look?"

Finan frowned and glared at Berry.

Just as she was about to flare up, someone below the stage chimed in.

“That’s right, Miss Fina. We also want to know what gift our princess gave you this year.”

“The gifts given by the princess make us envious every year.”

“That’s right, Miss Fina. Open it and take a look. After all, this is a gift from the princess. Opening it is the way to respect them!”

A few of them agreed and the others followed suit.

Finan gritted his teeth in anger, but his mother, who had been by his side, shook her head at him, telling him not to be impulsive.

Everyone gathered around the stage and Shen Fanxing could finally see Miss Fina clearly.

With just a glance, she turned to look at the man standing beside her.

She finally understood what he meant by that.

She didn’t expect him to say that.

However, it was obvious that Bo Jinchuan wasn’t good at gossiping.

When he was with her, he found it difficult to even utter such a straightforward adjective. It was really difficult for him.

To put it bluntly, this Miss Fina was indeed... fair.

She was fair... and chubby. She was wearing a white princess dress and her fluffy hair was styled exquisitely. She wore a small diamond crown on her head and her hair hung on both sides, blocking part of her face, making her face look smaller.

However, she was still pampered by the Grand Duke of Burgundy. Her nobility and arrogance could be seen clearly.

She wasn’t easy to get along with.

Clearly, she didn’t care about the two princesses.

In fact, she had also heard that Fina had once hit Bei Xi because of something. In the end, the Grand Duke of Burgundy apologized to the Queen, and the Queen did not pursue the matter. Anyway, there was no conflict in the end.

Clearly, the queen would give the Grand Duke of Burgundy face.

It was obvious from the expression on Fina’s face that she was furious. Her eyes darted angrily between Bailey and Bei Xi, wishing she could glare at them a thousand times.

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow. With Miss Fina’s plump figure, she probably couldn’t bear to see anyone better than her.

In the past, she didn't know about Bailey, but this year, her gown was elegant and noble. Her figure was enchanting and graceful. Standing beside Miss Fina, even if someone didn't want to compare them, they would have a beautiful answer in their hearts.

Looking at her clothes, she really should thank Bo Jinchuan for his efforts.

Too many people were looking forward to Finan opening the gift from Belle, and Finan's mother had advised her not to cause trouble.

Although she was angry, she still opened the gift box.

"Wow, she's so beautiful!"

"That ruby is really dazzling! It's also very beautiful!"

"A complete set. I'm so envious. Its value is unimaginable."

Needless to say, the price was something ordinary people wouldn't dare to praise, let alone a gift from the royal family.

The smiles on Bailey and Bei Xi's faces deepened.

"Fina, do you like this birthday present?" Bei Xi asked smugly.

Bailey looked at her with a faint smile.

Finan snapped the box shut and placed it on the table beside him.
