

Chapter 1701: Never Learn

Shen Fanxing's words made the trio's expressions change.

Bei Xi couldn't help but grit her teeth and glare at her. "Damn it, isn't it all because of you?"

"Bei Xi!"

Ye Jingyun was angered by Bei Xi's personality.

This damn retard!

How much trouble had she caused so that she could grow some brains?

"Mom! It's her! She embarrassed me and Sister at Fina's birthday party last night!"

Bei Xi stomped her feet in anger.

Shen Fanxing looked exasperated.

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow and said, "From your tone, it seems like we haven't explained the misunderstanding last night."

She tightened her down jacket and looked in the direction of the door.

"My body isn't as resistant to the cold as yours. Since you haven't explained clearly, let's talk inside!"

With that, she walked into the house.

Ye Jingyun's expression changed and she hurried forward to grab Shen Fanxing's wrist.

"Fanxing, you've indeed misunderstood what happened yesterday. We're sisters after all. It's not good to blow this matter up. If your grandmother really asks later, I hope you..."

Shen Fanxing nodded without hesitation. "Don't worry."

These three simple words made Bailey, who had been silent, look up at her.

She frowned in confusion.

Shen Fanxing smiled innocently.

"I believe in Grandma's judgment. If she really asks, I will tell her the truth. So, you can rest assured. If you really suffer, I believe Grandma will give you justice."

Ye Jingyun's face was pale and she didn't know what to say.

Her meaning was obvious. Anyone with a brain could tell that she was lowering her head to Shen Fanxing.

Given Shen Fanxing's intelligence, it was impossible for her not to notice.

However, she obviously didn't want to give them face now.

But she couldn't say too much.

Some things could not be said too confidently.

Shen Fanxing took two steps back and flung her hand away. She glanced at them calmly.

Of course, she understood what Ye Jingyun meant!

How could he give in to her now?

Back then, their mother had expressed her stance to them. When had they given up?

A cold glint flashed across her eyes, causing Ye Jingyun to take two steps back in fear.

“Mom...”

Bailey walked up to her and reached out to stop her.

Ye Jingyun was so frightened by Shen Fanxing’s gaze that her body turned cold. When she looked at her again, it was as if everything she had seen was an illusion.

“Mom, what’s wrong?”

Bailey spoke again with a nasal voice. After taking another look, he realized that her face was a little red.

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow and her lips curled into a sarcastic smile. She walked into the conference room.

When she reached the door, someone had informed Queen Yulia.

When Shen Fanxing entered, Queen Yulia heaved a sigh of relief before a loving smile appeared on her face.

When she approached, he reached out and pulled her to his side.

“Is it cold outside?”

Shen Fanxing shook her head and replied, “No.”

She said softly, touched by Queen Yulia’s love.

This was because these things were extravagant to her in the past. They were her expectations and something she didn’t dare to touch.

“Were you alright last night?”

Just as Yulia asked this, Ye Jingyun stepped into the meeting room with Bei Lei and Bei Xi.

Upon hearing this, their expressions changed.

It just so happened that she had arrived at this time. She had been extremely unlucky recently.

Queen Yulia also noticed them and her expression darkened.

Shen Fanxing looked straight ahead.

“Last night... there was an accident.”

Hearing this, Bei Xi shuddered. Afraid that Shen Fanxing would say something, she hurried forward and shrieked,

“Stop complaining! You were the one who was unreasonable last night and embarrassed me and Bailey in front of so many people!”

Before Ye Jingyun could stop Bei Xi, Bei Xi ran to Queen Yulia and hugged her arm. She said aggrievedly,

“Grandma, it’s fine if we embarrass ourselves, but we’re the princesses of the royal family after all. We represent the royal family. Last night... you don’t even know what those people said about us...”

“We’re all sisters, but she doesn’t care about the reputation of the royal family at all. She’s selfish and even wants to complain first. You must believe her!”

Shen Fanxing didn’t react much to Bei Xi’s accusation.

Instead, he looked at her calmly and said coldly,

“I’m the guilty party? Princess Bei Xi, have I ever said a complete sentence?”

“I...” Bei Xi choked and her face turned red.

Queen Yulia’s face darkened even more.

She felt guilty and shrank her neck from the invisible aura emitted by Queen Yulia.

“No... no matter what, it was nothing more than that at the banquet yesterday. Aren’t you talking about that?!”

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and said, “Do I need to explain what happened at the banquet yesterday?”

Bailey almost gritted her teeth!

If she said that now, wouldn’t she be lying to them?

Damn you, bitch!

“It seems like nobles are forgetful. I clearly reminded you outside the door just now, but you still didn’t remember?”

The men paused.

Other than saying a few infuriating words outside, what else did she say?

“It seems like the two princesses have good physiques. You didn’t even freeze when you stood on the cliff road last night.”

Before Bailey could react, her nose itched and she sneezed uncontrollably.

Shen Fanxing sneered coldly.

Queen Yulia said angrily, “What happened?!”

Shen Fanxing paused and her eyes reddened.

“Yesterday... I almost fell into the sea with the royal chauffeur.”

“What?!” Queen Yulia immediately stood up from her chair.

Bei Xi was so frightened by her sudden reaction that she fell to the ground.

Queen Yulia stepped forward to hold Shen Fanxing’s wrist as she scanned her.

“Are you hurt?”

Her hand squeezed her arm all the way to her stomach.

Shen Fanxing shook her head and said, “Fortunately, Ah Chuan rushed over from behind and risked his life to save me. If not for him, I’m afraid I would have...”

Chapter 1702: Scheming Against You Step by Step

Shen Fanxing shook her head and said, “Fortunately, Ah Chuan rushed over from behind and risked his life to save me. If not for him, I’m afraid I would have...”

Queen Yulia’s fingers trembled and her face paled.

“Ah Chuan should have gotten into the car with me to attend Miss Fina’s birthday party, but the driver used the royal rules to allow me to get in alone.

On the way, I discussed with him, but he only used rules to stop me.

A proud man like Ah Chuan was rejected by him just like that. His face was thrown to the ground by the royal family.

If my status as a princess is to let him suffer such humiliation, I would rather not have the title of a princess.”

Shen Fanxing had been brooding over this ever since she got into the car last night.

She couldn’t tell Bo Jinchuan.

Before he met her, he was proud and noble. Wherever he went, he would be the center of attention. But when it came to her, he wasn’t even worthy of a car.

“That’s nonsense!”

Queen Yulia was furious.

“Since when did the royal family have such rules? Did he set them? Get him here!”

Even the attendant Leah was furious when she heard this, let alone Queen Yulia.

She quickly arranged for someone to look for the driver.

Shen Fanxing paused before continuing,

“I couldn’t refute his words and could only give up. However, on the way there, this royal chauffeur drove very fast. He braked hard and sped up. He even specially found a bumpy road and planned to bring me straight down the cliff...”

At this point, Shen Fanxing's face turned pale and her voice trembled.

She wasn't pretending. She was really afraid.

Actually, people wouldn't think too much when they were on the verge of death. What they were really afraid of was the lingering fear when Si Ming was mentioned.

Also, Bo Jinchuan had saved her car from the edge of the cliff.

All of them made her feel uneasy.

"Ridiculous! He's simply lawless! He actually wants to harm my royal princess! Find him! Find him!"

The three of them rarely saw Queen Yulia angry. However, recently, they had seen her almost every day.

They thought that every time was the limit, but every time, it far exceeded their imagination.

The three of them were extremely nervous, afraid that the driver would not be able to withstand the pressure and say something he shouldn't.

Bailey took two steps forward and said in a hoarse voice,

"Grandma, don't be angry. Since that driver is so lawless, we can just punish him! Why do you have to affect your mood when you see him again?"

Shen Fanxing's lips twitched as she glanced at the door.

Yu Song had already walked in with his men.

Seeing this, Bailey's face paled.

She looked at Ye Jingyun in a panic.

"He went overboard yesterday, so I couldn't take it anymore. I wanted to confirm with him and Grandma if the so-called royal rules include what he said yesterday, and there's no reason why we can't park halfway."

The driver had been locked up for the entire night and his energy was almost depleted.

She looked up at the queen and collapsed to the ground in fear.

"Tell me, who set the so-called royal rule that the car can only carry the princess?!"

The driver met Ye Jingyun's warning gaze and said with trembling lips,

"The mission I received back then was to pick up Princess Fanxing from the hotel. I didn't mention anyone else. I didn't dare to make a mistake, so I only picked up Princess Fanxing."

"Did she tell you that she was going to drive another person?"

The driver broke out in a cold sweat. "I... I did... but I still followed my original mission, Your Majesty..."

Queen Yulia's face was ashen.

“You’re really bold. Even now, you’re still glib-tongued in front of me. Since you’re the royal chauffeur, why did you almost bring her to the sea?!”

The driver trembled and hurriedly said,

“Back then, it was because I saw a car following us. I was nervous and accidentally...”

Shen Fanxing sneered, “Did I ever tell you that he’s my boyfriend?”

The driver explained, “Even if you say yes, I can’t risk your life...”

“Yes. So from the beginning to the end, you never took my words seriously. You didn’t listen to me when I asked you to stop the car. You didn’t listen when I asked you to slow down. You didn’t listen when I said that the car behind me wasn’t dangerous to me. You even wanted to bring me to the sea... Master, I’m new here and I have no grudges with you. Even a fool knows that you were deliberately targeting me back then...”

“Since Grandma said that the royal rules you mentioned last night are invalid, malfeasance is inevitable. You should have nothing to say about the royal family dismissing you, right?”

The driver said nothing.

Ye Jingyun hurriedly took two steps forward and stood in front of the driver. She smiled and said,

“Indeed. The royal family can’t keep such an irresponsible driver.”

Shen Fanxing nodded and said, “Yes, it’s good that you’ve clarified the matter. But I want to hear the driver’s opinion. Do you admit what I said just now?”

Ye Jingyun continued to smile.

“He has caused so much trouble. It’s only natural for him to be fired. What’s there to say?”

Shen Fanxing smiled at her and said, “Madam Ye, I just said that I want to hear it from the chauffeur.”

The smile on Ye Jingyun’s face froze and she retreated to the side. She lowered her head and glanced at the driver who was lying on the ground.

“There’s no room for mistakes in the royal family’s work. Since you’ve made a mistake, you should bear the consequences. It’s already a light punishment for you to be removed from your position. Now that Princess Fanxing wants you to say something, why are you still dawdling?!”

The driver pondered for a moment before nodding. “I know. Princess Fanxing, you’re right. I admit that I failed in my duty...”

Shen Fanxing smiled.

“Very good.”

The driver and mother heaved a sigh of relief.

Queen Yulia turned her head to look at her. She didn’t seem to believe that Fanxing planned to end this matter so simply.

As it turned out, Queen Yulia was right to question him.

Seeing that everyone had relaxed, the loneliness on Shen Fanxing's lips intensified.

"Since you've admitted it, I'll sue you for murder and attempted murder. I should give you a life sentence, right? I wonder if the crime of attempting to murder a royal princess is more serious..."

Upon hearing this, the three of them looked up at Shen Fanxing with indescribable embarrassment.

She realized that they had been tricked by Shen Fanxing again.

The driver was scared out of his wits!

She looked up at Shen Fanxing and said, "You... No, I've never thought of murdering you!"

Shen Fanxing retracted her gaze and looked at Queen Yulia.

"Grandma, you've been listening to this from the beginning to the end. I believe you're already clear about it. I don't know much about Country Y's laws. I hope you can give a reasonable and legal verdict."

...

Chapter 1703: Hot

"Grandma, you've been here from the beginning to the end. I don't know much about Country Y's laws. I hope you can give a reasonable and legal verdict."

Queen Yulia nodded and looked coldly at the driver.

"Since you've admitted it yourself, according to Country Y's law, you've attempted to kill someone and will be imprisoned for the rest of your life. You've attempted to murder the royal princess and look down on the country's prestige. Your crime has increased. Today, we'll announce the death penalty three days later!"

It was only then that Ye Jingyun and Bei Lei realized Shen Fanxing's motive.

When the driver heard Queen Yulia's decision, he was scared out of his wits!

"No... I didn't want to murder the princess. It was really an accident back then! I have no feud with Princess Fanxing. How could I harm her? Besides, I was in the car back then. If something happened to Princess Fanxing, I wouldn't be spared either. How could I risk my life?!"

The Queen shouted angrily, "How can your life be compared to the life of a princess of Country Y!"

"But I really don't intend to murder Princess Fanxing..."

Shen Fanxing said calmly, "You admitted it yourself just now. Did someone force you?"

Ye Jingyun's face was a little pale and her body was stiff. Her eyes were fixed on the ground and her chest was heaving rapidly. Her hands were clasped together and her palms were covered in cold sweat.

Shen Fanxing was forcing the driver to confess to the mastermind.

After Shen Fanxing's reminder, the chauffeur's gaze landed on Ye Jingyun.

“Princess Ava, please help me explain...”

Shen Fanxing raised an eyebrow sarcastically.

“Master, you’ve caused trouble yourself. What kind of logic is that? What does she have to do with you? Your actions can easily make people think that she instructed you to kill me...”

Ye Jingyun was so frightened that she almost suffocated!

She kicked the driver aside and took two steps back, glaring at him with a pale face.

“You’ve made such a huge mistake and now you want to escape the law through me. I’m the princess of Country Y’s royal family and the daughter-in-law of the royal family. How can I bend the law for your sake? How can I gain a foothold in the palace and Country Y?!”

The driver lost his rationality after being kicked by Ye Jingyun.

“Princess Ava, you’re such a hypocrite. If you didn’t order me to do this, how could I...”

“Shut your mouth!”

Ye Jingyun suddenly reprimanded sternly. Be it her face or her body, she was trembling nervously.

Bei Xi was already frozen in shock.

Bailey was also holding her breath nervously. Her chest felt extremely uncomfortable, but at this moment, she took a few steps forward and looked at the driver.

“All these years, my mother has always been well-known in Country Y for her tolerance and kindness. However, when it comes to the matters of the royal family, she has always been meticulous. It’s impossible for her to do anything that violates the law, let alone damage the reputation of the royal family. The mistake you made this time has already violated the law, and you even harmed the princess of the royal family. I will never tolerate such a thing. How can you still say something like asking me to intercede for you?!”

She didn’t speak up for you, but you threw the blame on her... Driver, you have a conscience and morals. Isn’t it too much for you to drag us down with you?”

This completely stopped the driver from accusing them.

Ava was magnanimous and charitable.

Ava felt that he was sensible and loyal to the royal family.

Ava was good at everything, but she didn’t seem to have a temper. She was angry and deliberately slandered her.

No matter what the driver said, it was useless.

“You... You’re the ones who can’t tolerate the new princess targeting her. You didn’t admit to it and even wanted me to be your scapegoat. What a vicious heart!”

The driver finally realized that he had been tricked by the mother-daughter trio.

“There’s a saying in China that women are the most vicious. I’ve witnessed it today! You won’t have a good ending!”

He pointed at Bei Lei and Ye Jingyun, completely falling out with them.

After saying that, he crawled towards the queen and shouted,

“Queen, I admit that I did it on purpose last night! But I have no grudges with Princess Fanxing at all. It’s all because I was ordered by Princess Ava! They want me to think of a way to kill Princess Fanxing halfway!”

“You’re simply shameless!”

Furious, Bei Lei said angrily to the driver, “When did we say that we wanted you to kill her? Grandma, don’t be affected by his words. Perhaps he has long held a grudge against us. Now that he’s putting on a show, he wants to destroy us completely!”

The driver shouted again, “Didn’t you ask me to kill her? I can’t let her attend the banquet of the Burgundy family tonight. At most, I’ll let her lie in bed for ten days to half a month. At worst, she’ll collapse on the bed for the rest of her life. It’s best to kill her. These are the exact words you sent to me. I have no feud with Princess Fanxing. Why should I target her?”

“Queen, Princess Fanxing, I’m telling the truth! Every injustice has its perpetrator and every debt has its debtor. They instructed me!”

Berry’s heart was pounding. “I think you’re really crazy! You’re slandering us. What evidence do you have to prove that we instigated you?”

The driver’s face stiffened. Of course, he had no evidence.

Back then, he was called out late at night. Ye Jingyun was sitting in the car while he stood outside the car.

There was no evidence at all...

Now that she thought about it, this mother and daughter were really thieves!

“My wife and children, you’re threatening me with their lives!”

Ye Jingyun heaved a sigh of relief when she caught the driver’s expression.

“You’ve said everything. I don’t even know what your wife and children look like. How can I threaten you with them? If you don’t believe me, you can confirm with them now and see if their lives have changed.”

Since she dared to say that, his wife and children must be fine.

“I don’t know what feud I have with you, but you used the life of another princess of the royal family to frame us and sow discord. You deserve to die! Where is he? Hurry up and drag him out and execute the queen’s decision.”

[Why is this!!! Hot!!! I’m really sweating profusely~~]

Chapter 1704: Unbearable

"I don't know what feud I have with you, but you used the life of another princess of the royal family to frame us and sow discord. You deserve to die! Where is he? Hurry up and drag him out and execute the queen's decision."

Ye Jingyun really didn't want this person to have the chance to speak to the Queen again. Otherwise, she and her daughter would die today.

"I captured her and brought her here. How I deal with her is naturally my business. I won't trouble you."

Yu Song's cold voice sounded behind her.

He had witnessed with his own eyes how the mother and daughter lied and denied everything. It had really refreshed his worldview.

She spoke so matter-of-factly. In order to protect herself, she had committed such a despicable act.

Such a person had enjoyed wealth and respect in the royal family for so many years. How disgusting.

Ye Jingyun opened her mouth but didn't say anything.

She had forgotten about this.

"This is a matter for the royal family. The criminal will naturally not be handed over to outsiders. Please understand."

Yu Song insisted coldly.

"I caught him."

Ye Jingyun gritted her teeth.

"You're so determined to kill him today. Have you forgotten that you spoke up for this driver last night? Your attitude changed so quickly."

Yu Song stared at Bei Lei's back, his calm voice full of sarcasm.

Bailey secretly clasped her hands.

"I don't know what happened yesterday. I just feel that it must be a misunderstanding because I've always believed that the royal chauffeur wouldn't harm the royal princess for no reason."

"Yes. I don't understand why she would frame our Madam for no reason. However, Princess Bailey is so noble. Back then, she opened her mouth for a mere chauffeur. I'm sure their relationship isn't shallow."

"From the looks of it today, their relationship is indeed not shallow. It's a pity that his status is not high enough. His words carry little weight, causing him to almost lose his life in vain."

Ye Jingyun had no idea what happened last night, but she could only bite the bullet and deny it.

"I've already said some things clearly. He's deliberately sowing discord between us sisters. We can't forgive him!"

Shen Fanxing said calmly,

“Miss Fina’s birthday party last night was really lively. I have to thank Bailey and Beixi for letting Miss Fina spend an unforgettable birthday.”

That was enough.

Queen Yulia looked at Bailey and Bexi coldly.

“Who asked you to go to Burgundy last night?”

Bailey and Becky looked a little flustered. “We... Every year, we’re the ones helping to celebrate Fina’s birthday. We’re on good terms, so we don’t want to miss her birthday.”

“Is that so?” Shen Fanxing said calmly, “Since the two of you decided to go together back then, why didn’t you inform me in advance? I’m new here. If we went together, perhaps the accident on the way wouldn’t have happened!”

Back then, it wasn’t easy for me to survive. Not long after, I saw the two of you rushing over in beautiful gowns. I once had a dark suspicion that the two of you felt that I might have died or been severely injured, so you specially rushed over to represent the royal family to attend Miss Fina’s birthday banquet. Is that so?”

The mother and daughters stood rooted to the ground, their scalps tingling.

It was fine if Shen Fanxing didn’t speak. Once she did, they wouldn’t dare to say anything.

“We... just want to celebrate Miss Fina’s birthday...” Bailey braced herself.

How strong.

“Am I wrong? But why is the birthday gift you prepared for Miss Fina the same as mine? Grandma chose the gift for me. Did you tell them what gift you prepared for me?”

Queen Yulia frowned. “No.”

With a few words, Fanxing gave her a reasonable explanation of what happened last night.

Everyone knew what happened at Miss Fina’s birthday party yesterday. It was obvious who was in the wrong.

“This is just a coincidence!” Bailey quickly explained, “This matter was explained very clearly last night. This is a coincidence!”

Shen Fanxing smiled and said, “Yes, whatever you say. I hope everyone will believe that you’re innocent, helpless and pitiful.”

Ye Jingyun and her daughter looked at Queen Yulia nervously, afraid that she would say something irreversible.

“Ava!”

Queen Yulia finally spoke, her gaze cold and dark.

“Mother!”

Ye Jingyun immediately knelt on the ground. "I didn't, Mother. Please believe me."

The Queen looked at her coldly. "Trust you? Do you take me for a fool?"

Ye Jingyun's face was pale.

"All these years, when have I ever treated you badly? You can't tolerate my daughter and my biological grandson. Are you unable to tolerate even me, the queen, before long?"

Her words were enough to prove the seriousness of the matter.

Bei Lei and Bei Xi hurriedly knelt on the ground.

"Grandma..."

"Don't call me Grandma." Queen Yulia closed her eyes.

"I've given you too many opportunities, but not only did you not cherish them, you've become worse. I know what you're worried about! You're afraid that my daughter and grandson will snatch away the status and rights you've enjoyed in the palace for years. But have you forgotten that everything you have now belongs to them?!"

"You've been with me for decades. So what if they come back? You're still princesses of the royal family. This hasn't changed much!"

Queen Yulia paused, took a deep breath and opened her eyes slowly.

"A man who is not content is like a snake trying to swallow an elephant. What do you really want?" The queen's eyes gradually narrowed, gradually condensing into a cold and sharp light.

"My abdication is imminent. Are you trying to usurp my throne again?"

Ye Jingyun froze and shook her head frantically. "No... No, Mother..."

"Otherwise, why can't you tolerate my biological daughter and grandson?! Other than the position of the throne, how did they threaten you?! Ava! Let me make myself clear today. Not to mention that you're already married, even if you're not, I won't pass the throne to either of you!"

Ye Jingyun bit her lips tightly.

"How capable do you think you are? How dare you covet the throne? I've given you a lifetime of wealth and you even want to harm my daughter and grandson. You're ungrateful and greedy. What right do you have to sit on the throne?"

"Mother has misunderstood..."

Queen Yulia reached out to stop Ye Jingyun's explanation and continued,

"Fanxing, I'm sorry that I can't ignore this matter. Since I know their intentions, there will be problems sooner or later if I keep them by my side. You have patience and confidence, but I don't have the guts. I don't want to see you and your mother hurt again."

She was speaking to Shen Fanxing, but Ye Jingyun and her daughter were shocked.

“Mother!”

“Grandma...”

The few pleas didn’t stop the queen.

His voice was decisive!

“It’s time for you to return the title of Princess of Country Y.”

Chapter 1705: Take Him Down

“Mother!”

“Grandma!”

“Grandma!”

The mother and daughters were terrified and flustered.

Shen Fanxing frowned slightly, feeling that it was a pity.

This was just the beginning. If they could receive retribution so easily, they would be letting their mother down.

But now, she had to know when to stop.

If she acted on her own will, it would be too easy to put Grandma in an embarrassing situation.

She was her grandmother and the king of Country Y. Everyone had been accommodating to her all her life.

It was already not easy for him to endure it for her.

Queen Yulia’s face was cold, but there was sadness and pity in her eyes.

After all these years of companionship, how could she not feel anything when she made this decision?

Shen Fanxing had known from the start.

But...

If Ye Jingyun and her daughter could behave themselves, she could tolerate them.

Unfortunately, she couldn’t forgive them for what they had done.

They wanted to kill her and her mother.

Their relationship was one of life and death.

It was too easy for them to remove their title as princesses.

Shen Fanxing clenched her fists tightly.

She wasn’t satisfied.

However, as the ruler of a country, there were too many things to consider...

“Mother, can you really bear to do this? This has nothing to do with us. Bailey and Bei Xi grew up in front of you. Everyone has seen how you are. This is too unfair to them. If you do this, the children will be sad. If you take back their title as princesses, how will they face outsiders?”

Ye Jingyun pleaded with tears in her eyes.

Grief gradually appeared on Queen Yulia’s face, and her grip on the chair trembled.

“What else do you know other than using them as an excuse?!”

Ye Jingyun was stunned. She didn’t expect that her words would be ineffective today.

But Bailey was indeed her trump card. At this point, she could only lie on the ground and cry bitterly.

“Can you bear it? Can you bear it?! They’re your daughters!”

Ye Jingyun seemed to be on the verge of despair. Grief and helplessness enveloped her.

Shen Fanxing stood silently at the side, watching everything coldly.

“Haven’t I given enough to you all all these years? Are you going to cling onto me forever after I adopted you back then?!”

This time, Ye Jingyun couldn’t even cry.

Once Queen Yulia had made up her mind, she rarely had the chance to change it.

Seeing that Ye Jingyun had stopped talking, Bei Lei was afraid that she would give up. She quickly said with a sorrowful expression,

“Grandma, we love you so much. How could we do something that would make you sad? This has nothing to do with us...”

“Even if it has nothing to do with you, you have no right to have the title of princess!”

Queen Yulia didn’t want to be entangled with them anymore. Her words blocked all their excuses.

Bailey stared at Queen Yulia in disbelief.

“Grandma...”

“Enough! Enough!”

Queen Yulia stood up, impatience and exhaustion evident on her aged face.

“Lia, pass on the message. Ava, the princess of Bei Lei and Bei Xi will no longer be a princess of the royal family. From now on, there will only be Ji Fengmian and Shen Fanxing!”

“Yes!”

Bei Xi widened her eyes in fear. “I don’t want to! I don’t want to be a princess! Grandma, you’re too biased. We’ve served you for so many years. Now that our grandson is back, you’re abandoning us immediately!”

Shen Fanxing narrowed her eyes and looked at Bei Xi.

After enjoying the respect of a princess for so many years, she would be laughed at if she didn't become a princess!

"If we didn't please you often, would you have survived until now?! You... you're simply ungrateful! You're not worthy of being a queen!"

"You..."

Yulia's heart skipped a beat. She pointed at Bei Xi and her body went limp as she collapsed onto the chair.

"My queen!"

"Grandma!"

"Bei Xi!"

Ye Jingyun roared angrily, nearly angered to death!

Queen Yulia leaned on the chair and took a deep breath. It happened so suddenly that the guards guarding the door reacted immediately and surrounded her with their spears.

A few black muzzles were aimed at Bei Xi, scaring her so much that she screamed and hugged her head!

"Scram! All of you, scram!"

Queen Yulia gasped and pointed at the audience.

Ye Jingyun couldn't care less. She hurriedly got up from the ground and wanted to pull Bei Xi away.

"Stop right there!"

Shen Fanxing shouted angrily. The three of them, who were supposed to leave, were pressed closer by the guards. The three of them hugged each other tightly.

Shen Fanxing walked down the stairs.

His cold face and the aura he exuded made one's heart turn cold.

"What are you doing?"

Ye Jingyun looked at her warily, but Shen Fanxing didn't even look at her. As they got closer, they could feel the murderous aura emanating from Shen Fanxing.

Bei Xi hid behind Ye Jingyun in fear, but Shen Fanxing suddenly grabbed her collar and pulled her out of Ye Jingyun's embrace.

"What are you doing... Ah!!"

Everything happened too quickly. Bei Xi had just opened her mouth when she was slapped hard.

His strength was astonishing.

She was thrown to the ground and even Ye Jingyun almost fell.

“You...”

“Bei Xi offended her superior and publicly cursed the Queen of Country Y. Her behavior is extremely evil. Lock her up where she should be locked up. Without permission, no one is allowed to visit her! How to deal with her and so on.”

Ye Jingyun glared at Shen Fanxing. “What right do you have...”

“Because I’m the princess here! Do you have a problem with that?”

“You...” Ye Jingyun gritted her teeth, her eyes filled with malice.

Shen Fanxing stared at her coldly, giving her enough time to speak.

Ye Jingyun didn’t say anything else.

She was afraid that Shen Fanxing would find something to use against her!

Not to mention Bei Xi, even she might fall into her hands today.

“Take him away.”

She looked at Ye Jingyun, but her words were obviously directed at the guards beside her. Her aura made the surrounding guards not hesitate at all. They instinctively followed her words and roughly lifted Bei Xi up from the ground.

“What are you doing? Let go of me. How dare you! I’m a princess, you...”

“Ha. Princess?”

Shen Fanxing’s sneer made Bei Xi swallow his words.

Princess...

The princess had just been dismissed...

Bei Xi was at a loss and looked at Ye Jingyun in tears.

“Mom! Save me, I don’t want to go to jail!”

Chapter 1706: Skinning

“Mom! Save me, I don’t want to go to jail!”

Ye Jingyun moved her lips and looked up at Queen Yulia.

“Mother...”

“Take her away!” interrupted Shen Fanxing coldly.

“You...”

“Besides, you’ll be sentenced to death,” said Shen Fanxing slowly, her words so slow that it made one gnash their teeth in hatred.

Ye Jingyun’s head buzzed as she glared at Shen Fanxing. Her voice was sharp as she said, “What right do you have!”

“What do you think?”

“My queen!!”

Leah suddenly screamed in pain. Shen Fanxing’s expression froze. She turned around and saw that Queen Yulia had fainted on the chair.

Her face darkened and she suddenly shifted her gaze to two of the guards. “Carry the Queen to her room. Go and get a doctor! The rest of you, bring Bei Xi away. Yu Song, help me call Tang Jian over!”

After calmly and methodically arranging everything, she turned around and followed the guard. She instructed him to carry Queen Yulia and walk towards the nearest lounge.

This sudden change made Ye Jingyun and Bei Lei’s faces turn ashen.

Queen Yulia had fainted. If this matter were to spread, it would shock the entire country.

More importantly, she had fainted from anger!

The Queen had managed Country Y for so many years and was loved by the people!

Now, she had fainted from anger because of Bei Xi...

The Queen was old and had been sitting in the position of the king for many years. She had been working hard all year round. Even though she often took care of her body, she had many problems.

Now that Bei Xi had made a few mistakes, all the energy she had been holding on to collapsed. She lay on the bed for nearly an hour and was still unconscious.

“She’s a ruthless person. She has accumulated so many problems over the years. It’s indeed beyond an ordinary person’s tolerance for an old woman like her. I wonder what made her survive until now.”

Shen Fanxing sat quietly by the bed and listened to Tang Jian. Her eyes trembled as she stared at Queen Yulia.

She pursed her lips and bit the soft flesh in her mouth tightly. She closed her eyes and took a deep breath.

Leah glanced at her and said softly,

“Princess, you don’t have to blame yourself. If the queen finds out, she will blame herself even more.”

Shen Fanxing glanced at her calmly.

Leah stood to one side, watching the sleeping face of Queen Yulia. She said calmly:

“Ever since you left last time, the queen has been blaming herself. If she had to blame someone, she feels that if she didn’t adopt Duke Ava... Miss, then you and your mother wouldn’t be in this situation now. She can’t forgive herself for doting on them all these years... When she knew that Princess Feng Mian had passed away, she really placed all her feelings on Miss Ava, so much so that her daughters, even those with foreign surnames, were given the title of princess...”

“If you blame yourself, she might... feel even more guilty towards you and your daughter, so don’t feel guilty. The more the Queen loves you, the deeper the struggle in her heart.”

Shen Fanxing’s pupils quivered and she felt a lump in her throat.

Leah sighed. “It’s all fate.”

The room fell silent for a while. Tang Jian had been a doctor for many years and she couldn’t stand the lifeless atmosphere.

“It’s just a problem accumulated from years of hard work. Next, you just have to calm down and recuperate. It’s not the time to part ways. Can you all not be so sad?”

“And you... Mrs. Bo, watch your emotions. You’ve been very unstable these two days, do you know that?!”

Tang Jian’s words made Shen Fanxing take a deep breath. She opened her eyes and looked at Tang Jian to confirm, “Will you be fine as long as you recuperate?”

Tang Jian raised an eyebrow. “Suspecting me?”

Shen Fanxing’s shoulders relaxed.

After a few seconds of silence, she looked at Leah and asked, “Did you hide the news of Grandma fainting?”

Leah shook her head. “I didn’t deliberately give the order to hide it. There are too many people in the palace. I’m afraid I can’t hide it.”

She sighed and said, “She has persevered for so many years. Now that she has finally brought you and your daughter back and is about to abdicate, there’s no point in hiding it anymore. Actually, this is quite good. She should rest well.”

Shen Fanxing nodded and remained silent for a while before continuing,

“So be it.”

Leah gave her a puzzled look. She didn’t understand, but she nodded silently.

There was nothing to hide.

What had happened at Miss Fina’s birthday party last night had already caused an uproar. Everyone was talking about what Bailey and Bei Xi had done last night with undisguised sarcasm.

In less than a morning, the news of Queen Yulia fainting spread.

Just as Ye Jingyun and Bailey were worried, the entire country's citizens were shocked.

"Something happened?"

"The two princesses caused a commotion at the banquet last night. Today's headlines are filled with sarcasm. Just because we know this doesn't mean that the Queen doesn't!"

"Yes, the matter is so serious. The mother and daughter must be going to the palace to beg for forgiveness today, right? The Queen must have been angered by them!"

"They've embarrassed the royal family. How can the queen not be angry?"

"No, no, no. According to the news from the palace, the three of them have been stripped of their titles as princesses! That lowly one couldn't take it anymore. The Queen of Curses has lived for too long and isn't worthy of being the Queen of Country Y! Hence, the Queen fainted from anger!"

"Oh my god... This Bei Xi deserves to die!"

"I also heard that the new princess met with an accident on her way to Miss Fina's birthday party yesterday and almost lost her life. It was all arranged by the mother-daughter trio!"

"..."

For some reason, these facts spread throughout the entire palace and even Country Y.

Instantly, the mother-daughter trio became the hottest topic.

When the dukes and ministers came to ask about the queen, Shen Fanxing realized that the news had spread like wildfire.

Although she didn't deliberately hide it, there was no suspicious publicity. Although she had this intention, it was only after Grandma woke up.

However, a moment later, she understood.

Yu Song was also present.

This matter was inevitably his doing.

Her lips twitched involuntarily.

With them around, she saved a lot of trouble.

They would always know what she wanted to do next.

This lesson was enough to make the three of them lose too much.

Not just the title of a princess!

No one knew better than her what it felt like to have a bad reputation!

The image that they had built up in Country Y over the years had collapsed. Their connections would definitely be damaged.

He wanted to peel off their skin layer by layer, but this time, he even pulled out their tendons.

Chapter 1707: Misunderstanding

Queen Yulia woke up that afternoon.

Shen Fanxing stayed by the bed.

When she first saw Shen Fanxing, there was an indescribable emotion in her eyes.

“You’re awake.”

Shen Fanxing said softly with a faint smile on her face.

Queen Yulia nodded gently and turned to look out of the window. The sky had darkened.

After a moment of silence, as if recalling everything that had happened, she took a deep breath.

Without a word, Shen Fanxing poured her a glass of water and swirled it gently.

She felt melancholy, pity, and even sadness. She couldn’t say anything.

She was hurt by her granddaughter whom she had doted on for more than twenty years. Even though she was the closest person to her, she couldn’t judge her.

“Fanxing.”

Queen Yulia spoke slowly, her hand grabbing Shen Fanxing’s shirt.

Shen Fanxing looked down at her.

“Yes?”

“Are you blaming me in your heart?”

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and replied, “No.”

Her answer was too simple and sounded too cold.

Queen Yulia pursed her lips. “You still resent me.”

“Grandma.” Shen Fanxing put down the cup and helped Queen Yulia sit up.

“Putting everything aside, I’m actually very grateful for the existence of the three of them all these years. Since they can be so arrogant and use this matter as a bargaining chip, it’s not without reason. It’s my appearance that shattered your relationship for so many years. You insist that I blame you. Do you also agree that I made you sad?”

Shen Fanxing picked up the cup again and handed it to her. “Actually, it’s not wrong for you to blame me. But I’m your grandson. You can’t do anything about it.”

Queen Yulia blinked and looked at Shen Fanxing in surprise.

He couldn’t believe that she would say such shameless words.

She lowered her head and took a sip of water. The temperature was just right.

"I don't blame you. Although I feel sad and regretful, I want to know the truth more than being deceived. I've been in charge of state affairs my entire life and I know everything clearly. In the end, I was deceived for my entire life. It's too insulting to my character. As long as I'm alive, I have to be innocent and clear."

Shen Fanxing nodded and said, "That's good."

If they were stubborn, they would be condemned by the world.

The news of Queen Yulia fainting attracted everyone's attention.

Ye Jingyun and Bailey had been hiding at home for the past few days.

Every day, morning, noon, and night, there would be a large number of reporters watching them.

They couldn't even protect themselves. Even Bei Xi was helpless.

Ye Jingyun was furious and her eyes were bloodshot. She either locked herself in her bedroom or sat on the sofa in a daze.

Bailey was in a similar state.

She hated Shen Fanxing for forcing her, but she hated Bei Xi even more.

It consumed their good impression of their grandmother bit by bit. Her last few words ruined their future.

Not to mention the right to the throne, she had even lost her title as a princess!

With her bad reputation, she couldn't imagine what would happen if she went out now.

Everything was over.

She admitted that she had been improving herself in all aspects all these years.

She thought that she was calm enough and could maintain her best state of mind. Her skills, appearance, personality, popularity, and shrewdness were all on par with anyone.

All these years, she had never questioned herself.

Hence, no matter how terrifying Shen Fanxing's reputation was, she had never taken her seriously.

But now, with just one move, she had been harmed.

Her fingers almost pierced through her palm. She tried her best to calm herself down and find a way out.

But now, she couldn't even leave the door or enter the palace. What could she do?

At this moment, she turned to look at Ye Jingyun.

She had always known that her mother had many tricks up her sleeve. At such a critical moment, she couldn't sit back and do nothing.

But when she looked over countless times, Ye Jingyun still looked distracted.

She sat there in a daze, not knowing what she was thinking.

She gritted her teeth in exasperation. "Mom! What are you thinking?!"

Ye Jingyun turned to look at her in a daze.

Bailey stood up abruptly and looked down at her. Her voice sounded hysterical.

"Bei Xi is now locked up in prison. There are so many reporters outside watching us. Her title as the princess has been taken back. Do you know what's going on? You've been sitting at home like this for two days! What do you want?!"

Ye Jingyun blinked and said calmly, "What do you want me to do? Aren't you good at scheming? You can even scheme against me. Why haven't you thought of anything good?"

Bailey frowned and stared at Ye Jingyun as if she was a monster.

"Are you crazy?"

Ye Jingyun also stood up and stared at Bailey with bloodshot eyes.

"I'm not in the mood to argue with you now. You'd better stay away from me!"

Ye Jingyun's condition had been abnormal for the past few days. Bei Lei watched as she went upstairs with a sinister expression.

Queen Yulia had been recuperating for the past two days and rejected everyone's visits.

The next night, someone informed her that Mr Bo was going to the palace to visit Queen Yulia.

After having dinner with the queen, the queen, who was admiring the flowers in the greenhouse, agreed and smiled at Shen Fanxing.

"It's only been a night and he can't hold it in anymore. When I first found out that the two of you were together, I was indeed surprised. He looked too cold and didn't look like a man who could stay for love. Back then, I even felt that it was unbelievable for a woman to appear by his side. I also felt that he... might be good at anything except dealing with women... I didn't expect my granddaughter to conquer him in the end."

Shen Fanxing was the worst at teasing Bo Jinchuan and her face turned red.

"You might have some misunderstanding about him..."

How was he the cold person she had mentioned? He wasn't the kind of person who didn't stop for love, especially when dealing with women?

"How?"

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and said, "I'm afraid there's no man in this world who can make a woman happy better than him."

Queen Yulia was in disbelief. "He doesn't look like someone who is that enlightened."

She was an emotional idiot.

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and said softly, "He was the one who prepared the cat for me at Miss Fina's birthday party."

Queen Yulia was speechless.

Chapter 1708: Better Than a Thousand Words

Queen Yulia glanced at Shen Fanxing cautiously. Her resentful gaze made one's heart ache.

"Looks like... she does know how to coax a woman."

Shen Fanxing took a deep breath and her face darkened.

Queen Yulia had never comforted anyone before. Seeing Shen Fanxing's expression, she panicked.

"Well... I can tell that he has a good character. I don't think he's someone who goes around flirting. When two people are together, the most important thing is trust..."

Shen Fanxing forced a smile. "I know..."

However, she knew that Bo Jinchuan knew how to please women. Besides, she wasn't the only one who couldn't let go of this matter.

At the thought that Bo Jinchuan might treat other women the same way, she couldn't help but feel stifled.

Although she knew she shouldn't, Finan had said that it wasn't good for a woman to be too sensible.

It was easy to get tired of the sight and there was no sense of existence. It was also easy for men to cheat on each other.

Even though Finan was a few years younger than her and some of his words were not worth taking, she felt a strong sense of agreement.

After all, she had learned her lesson. Wasn't Su Heng too sensible?

Hmph...

Was she a scumbag maker?

Queen Yulia opened and closed her mouth, but she didn't know what to say.

This was a sensitive topic. She felt that anything she said could be wrong.

The atmosphere was awkward. Fortunately, Leah walked in quickly.

No...

Instead of saying that she walked in, it was more like she ran in.

She had followed Queen Yulia for decades and was no longer young. Now that she had stumbled in, Queen Yulia and Shen Fanxing couldn't help but stare at her.

“Leah, what’s the hurry?”

Leah ran in and knelt in front of Queen Yulia when she saw her.

She grabbed the queen’s hand and looked up at her with tears streaming down her face.

“My queen...”

Leah’s sorrowful voice trembled with indescribable emotions. “My queen... the princess...”

Queen Yulia had never seen Leah lose her composure before. She leaned over and took her arm.

“Leah, did something happen?”

Leah shook her head and nodded.

“It’s the princess... The princess is back...”

Shen Fanxing frowned. Ye Jingyun? Bei Lei? Bei Xi?

But did the three of them have to make Leah like this?

However, Queen Yulia stared at Leah for a few seconds before suddenly grabbing her hand tightly. Her voice trembled as she asked,

“You... you’re saying... it’s...”

She didn’t dare to say that name. After all these years, she had experienced too much disappointment. The pain and disappointment were too unbearable.

However, Leah nodded vigorously. “Yes, yes...”

Queen Yulia staggered and looked at the door of the greenhouse. Her eyes had already turned red.

Her grip on Leah’s hand was trembling.

Shen Fanxing had already reacted and she couldn’t hide her surprise as she looked at the door.

Queen Yulia slowly placed her hand on her chest, trying to cover her nervous heart. She bit her lips hard and stared in the direction of the door with endless anticipation.

It was as if she was waiting for salvation.

Finally, the curtain at the entrance of the greenhouse was lifted and two figures slowly appeared in front of everyone.

Bo Jinchuan’s tall figure attracted everyone’s attention. However, the next second, when the woman appeared, the greenhouse fell into dead silence.

There was no sound.

Including the sound of breathing.

Ji Fengmian’s arm was grabbed by Bo Jinchuan’s large palm. His walking posture was stiff and strained.

The moment Bo Jinchuan entered, his gaze landed on Shen Fanxing.

There was a hint of resentment in his eyes, but Shen Fanxing didn't notice it.

Bo Jinchuan pursed his lips. Even though the situation was inappropriate, he still felt neglected and bothered.

He had already brought his mother here. Shouldn't she give him a reward and a look of admiration?

Ji Fengmian's gaze was locked on Queen Yulia.

Her lips moved for a long time, but no sound came out.

That word that she had almost never shouted out was so unfamiliar that it was difficult for her to say it.

God knew how meaningful that call was to her.

This was the first time Shen Fanxing had seen her mother nervous and uncertain.

She might understand her mother's current state, but she couldn't put herself in her shoes.

Queen Yulia gripped Leah's hand so tightly that it seemed to sink into her bones, but Leah pursed her lips and made no sound.

Tears flowed silently. No one in this world knew the queen better than her, and no one knew how excited the queen was.

This was a scene that she had dreamed of for countless days and nights.

The Queen's toes suddenly moved. It was just a small step, but she lost her balance and staggered, almost falling to the ground.

Shen Fanxing and Leah supported her at the same time.

Ji Fengmian, who was far away at the door, also took a step forward. A wave of pain made her frown slightly.

However, she only paused for a moment. Sensing her intentions, Bo Jinchuan helped her forward.

When she reached Queen Yulia, Ji Fengmian pushed Bo Jinchuan away gently and stood in front of her.

The Queen's gaze wandered greedily over Ji Fengmian's face. Even she couldn't help but be moved.

"Feng..."

Her hoarse voice was shattered by the bitterness in her throat.

Ji Fengmian nodded as tears welled up in his eyes. "It's me... Mother..."

The word "mother" made Queen Yulia take a deep breath. She walked forward and caressed Ji Fengmian's face with a trembling hand.

"Thank God... Thank God you're still alive!"

Ji Fengmian bit her lips as tears fell.

Queen Yulia wiped away waves of tears for her before she opened her arms and pulled her into her embrace.

The real touch made Queen Yulia close her eyes and stroke Ji Fengmian's head. Her voice was filled with endless sorrow.

"Child, my child..."

Reunion didn't require much words.

Even the simplest call from each other was better than the most beautiful words in the world.

Tears welled up in Shen Fanxing's eyes and she averted her gaze.

She had never been suited to such a scene.

She had been visiting tears too frequently recently.

Bo Jinchuan walked to her silently and pressed her head against his chest.

Chapter 1709: Daddy

With Ji Fengmian's company, Shen Fanxing's presence became weaker.

This made it easier for Bo Jinchuan to bring her away.

He wanted to settle the score with her for not returning for two nights, but when he saw that she was in a bad mood, this score was...

It was written off.

Well, no reason.

It was because she was in a bad mood.

This was a big deal.

"Why didn't you tell me that Mother was coming?"

Bo Jinchuan raised an eyebrow and said, "You didn't go home."

He had already decided to forget about this matter, but she took the initiative to mention it. It seemed like she was destined to let him settle this score.

His words were calm, but they were filled with resentment.

Shen Fanxing turned to look at her.

"Where's the phone?"

Bo Jinchuan was silent for a while before saying, "Mother informed me after she got off the plane."

Shen Fanxing paused and raised an eyebrow at him.

"Then what's the use of me going home?"

Bo Jinchuan was speechless.

This little woman was quick-witted.

Bo Jinchuan pressed Shen Fanxing against the seat and kissed her before saying softly,

“Use this.”

Shen Fanxing’s lips were red from the kiss. She looked at him and didn’t say anything.

Noticing her disinterest, Bo Jinchuan frowned slightly.

He instructed Yu Song to drive to the hotel.

Shen Fanxing got out of the car calmly and smiled at Yu Song, who had opened the door for her. She thanked him softly before walking towards the hotel entrance.

Yu Song scratched his head and stared at Shen Fanxing’s back in confusion.

Bo Jinchuan’s face darkened.

As Master’s loyal assistant, Yu Song reminded him kindly,

“Sir, Madam has been feeling... I heard that pregnant women are prone to depression!”

With a bang, someone kicked her from behind. She staggered and almost fell to the ground.

She turned to look at Bo Jinchuan. His face was as dark as the King of Hell.

It was just that he was too handsome.

Although it was a kind reminder, it depended on whether she liked it or not.

Yu Song stood up and retreated silently.

Bo Jinchuan walked past him but paused.

“Keep an eye on the mother and daughter.”

“Yes.”

Shen Fanxing waited for Bo Jinchuan in the hotel lobby. It was warmer inside.

Bo Jinchuan walked to her side and pulled her into his embrace.

Bo Jinchuan’s silence made Shen Fanxing feel guilty and guilty.

However, after witnessing the reunion of her mother and grandmother after decades, she had mixed feelings.

Their reunion this time was not only separated by time, but also by fate.

All of this was thanks to Ye Jingyun.

Therefore, in comparison, the outcome of Ye Jingyun being severely injured by her was not satisfactory.

However, this was her own business. She blamed herself for transferring the negative emotions to Bo Jinchuan.

Watching the numbers rise above the elevator, Shen Fanxing turned around silently. She wrapped her arms around his muscular waist and buried her face in his chest.

Bo Jinchuan allowed her to do anything as he caressed the top of her head. His gentle actions made Shen Fanxing feel even more guilty.

“I don’t know why I can’t let it go now, but I’m indignant. Their existence ruined Mother’s life beyond recognition.”

Her mother and grandmother had been separated for decades. She and her mother had been reckless for nearly seven years. There had been assassinations and threats.

Let her be reasonable and forgiving,

She couldn’t do it.

She was a bad person, but she didn’t want Bo Jinchuan to think that she was evil.

Everyone wanted to be a good person in the hearts of the people they cared about.

Bo Jinchuan caressed her hair gently and kissed the top of her head. His deep voice sounded above her head.

“So? Why did you let it go?”

Shen Fanxing looked up at him.

Bo Jinchuan smirked and said, “They have done so many unforgivable things. Why are you so conflicted about letting them off?”

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

“You did the right thing. In the past, this kind of thing wasn’t worth worrying about. Why are you hesitating now?”

Shen Fanxing stared at him for a while before blinking. She looked aggrieved as she rubbed her stomach and said slowly,

“I’m afraid that the babies will think that I’m a bad woman. If I’m too bad, will they dislike me?”

Bo Jinchuan was speechless.

Those two brats had such a strong presence even before they were born?

Wouldn’t she go to heaven after giving birth?

Bo Jinchuan’s face darkened.

Shen Fanxing reached into his suit and grabbed his shirt.

“What’s wrong? Do you think this is a serious problem?”

Bo Jinchuan shook his head and said, "It's fine."

Shen Fanxing was still worried. "Prenatal education is very important. What if they learn bad things from me?"

Bo Jinchuan said softly, "She'll be fine after a beating."

Shen Fanxing widened her eyes and gasped.

She held her stomach and took two steps away from the man. She locked herself in the corner of the elevator and looked at him warily.

Bo Jinchuan massaged his temples.

"Come here."

Shen Fanxing shook her head.

Helpless, Bo Jinchuan stared at her stomach and said, "This is just a hypothesis. If you're not bad, they will be fine too. That's why they won't be beaten up."

Shen Fanxing relaxed her guard and said, "You're my father, okay?"

Bo Jinchuan didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "I know."

"So..."

"That's why I try not to hit them."

"Try your best?!"

"I didn't try my best."

The elevator door opened and Bo Jinchuan pulled her into his embrace before walking out.

"Daddy."

Bo Jinchuan was speechless.

"Daddy?"

Bo Jinchuan was speechless.

"The child's father."

Bo Jinchuan said, "No, no. You don't have to remind me all the time."

Shen Fanxing replied, "Oh."

Ji Fengmian's legs were still a little inconvenient. Back then, because he was worried about the Queen's health, he came without a care.

She knew that she couldn't hide this.

Later on, he told her the truth.

At this point, the queen's heart ached, but she could only accept it.

After asking about her life for so many years, Ji Fengmian only gave a simple smile.

Anyway, she had Fanxing now.

Relationships and family were all in the past.

Every word she said sounded carefree, but she avoided the main point. Her emotions made the Queen know that she had not been living well all these years.

He blamed himself even more.

If she had always been by her side, she would have been the happiest child in the world.

The news of Ji Fengmian's return spread throughout the palace the next day.

At this moment, Ye Jingyun couldn't sit still anymore.

However, she could only smash the house beyond recognition, not daring to take a step out of the apartment.

Bailey was inexplicably angry at her behavior over the past few days.

Her mother wasn't like this in the past!

What exactly had happened?!

Chapter 1710: Meeting

Most of the bedroom upstairs had been smashed.

The living room had been smashed beyond recognition.

Seeing that the last phone had been smashed to pieces by Ye Jingyun, Bailey couldn't help but rush forward to grab Ye Jingyun's shoulder and shake her hard.

"What happened?! What happened to you? Ji Fengmian is back. Do you have to become like this? Are you really willing to let them snatch everything you have now?!"

Ye Jingyun glared at Bei Lei.

Her expression was unfocused and her hair was disheveled. She looked extremely disheveled.

"I can't accept this, I can't accept this... Why does she have to come back now? Why?!"

Bailey was puzzled. "Tell me, what happened?!"

Ye Jingyun covered her face with her hands and slowly landed on the ground.

"My status as a princess is gone, and so is my husband. I have nothing left..."

"Father?" Hearing this from Ye Jingyun, Bei Lei was slightly stunned.

After that, she felt that it was a little ironic. "Father's thoughts are all on that vixen. He didn't even appear at such an important event. It's not important for him to lose your title as a princess, right? Even if you're not in this world that day, I'm afraid he won't attend your funeral!"

The pain in Ye Jingyun's heart intensified. Even her daughter felt that her marriage was ironic?

Yes!

Even if she died, William would never attend her funeral.

Their marriage only existed in name.

In the past, her mother had stopped her. For the sake of the royal family, their relationship had always been superficial.

But now...

Looking at Ye Jingyun, Bei Lei frowned and said, "Don't tell me you think that Father will take the opportunity to divorce you after your princess title is taken away?"

The word "divorce" made Ye Jingyun tremble.

The silent answer made Bailey sneer. "What's there to worry about? Don't you know what kind of person Father is? Although he and you have reached this stage, he still hasn't divorced you, right?"

"He's Grandma's nephew and has the legitimate bloodline of the royal family. No matter how much he loves that vixen outside, he has only said that he wants to bring her back openly. He still has to care about the royal family's reputation. If he divorces you, what will the outside world think of him?"

"Even if he wants to divorce you, now that you've been stripped of your title as a princess, he can't divorce you. He would never do anything to add insult to injury and ruin the reputation of the royal family."

After saying that, she lowered her head to look at Ye Jingyun. "Don't tell me you didn't think of that?"

However, Ye Jingyun was still in a half-dead state. Her hands were wrapped around her head, and she wasn't moved by Bailey at all.

Bailey gritted her teeth. "What's wrong with you?!"

"It's useless, it's useless..." Ye Jingyun muttered, "It's useless. He could tolerate it in the past, but not now. I've lost my status as a princess. That's not the main point. The main point is that Ji Fengmian is back. Your grandmother will definitely get someone to inform him!"

Bailey didn't know what to say.

Ye Jingyun continued, "That's not the point. The point is... the point is..."

Tears streamed down Ye Jingyun's face as she grabbed her messy hair. Her face was pale.

Only then did Bei Lei confirm that something had happened to Ye Jingyun.

"What's the point?"

“The point is... that b*tch is pregnant... that b*tch is pregnant!”

Bailey was stunned!

“In the past, he could tolerate it for the sake of the royal family’s reputation. But now, that b*tch is pregnant. If he wants to come back, he must give that woman and child a status. Now, Ji Fengmian and Shen Fanxing are whispering in Mother’s ears...”

Bailey’s expression turned ugly.

“Why now? Why now? Why must that b*tch get pregnant at this time?!”

For a moment, Bei Lei’s mind was in a mess. She ignored Ye Jingyun who was sitting on the ground and stood up. She walked across the mess and sat on the sofa.

No wonder her mother had been acting so abnormally these two days.

So that was the key point.

That woman was pregnant and Ji Fengmian was back.

Shen Fanxing had severely injured them, and now Ji Fengmian...

She closed her eyes, her mind in a mess.

Other than the sound of their breathing, there was nothing else in the room.

After more than ten minutes, Bailey suddenly opened her eyes.

“In that case, why don’t you take the initiative to bring that woman back?”

Ye Jingyun suddenly looked up and her scarlet eyes shot over.

“Don’t even think about it! Are you crazy?! Let that woman come back and hang around in front of me every day with her stomach bulging. Or do you want me to see the two of them showing off their love in front of me every day?!”

Although Country Y had never been a monogamous country, she could not stand the thought of her husband having another woman, let alone watching her display her affection with another woman every day!

Indeed, once a woman got involved with a man, she would become an idiot.

Bailey took a deep breath and stood up slowly.

“We can’t keep that woman’s child. We can’t sit back and watch the mother and daughter strut around with us.”

Ye Jingyun restrained her expression and frowned at Bei Lei.

“What do you mean?”

Bailey smiled. “We have to call Father back first.”

The weather was getting colder. Queen Yulia, Ji Fengmian and Shen Fanxing were gathered in the study.

Yulia gave up her seat to Ji Fengmian.

Ji Fengmian turned to look at Shen Fanxing. Shen Fanxing rubbed her stomach and ate the clean fruits on the coffee table. Her gaze never met Ji Fengmian's.

Ji Fengmian had no choice but to accept this mission.

Occasionally, he would ask Queen Yulia for her opinion. The atmosphere was warm and harmonious.

At this moment, Leah walked in hesitantly.

"My queen, Ava... and Miss Bailey are here."

The three people in the study paused.

Ji Fengmian and Shen Fanxing exchanged glances.

But Queen Yulia frowned.

"What are they doing here?"

Leah shook her head. "They only said that they have something to discuss with you. They also said that Bei Xi has made a huge mistake and they have indeed taught her a lesson. They're not here to plead on her behalf."

"If there's nothing important, they're gone. I don't want to see them now..."

"Mother!"

Ye Jingyun's voice sounded. Immediately after, she and Bei Lei broke free from the guards outside and rushed in.

When she saw Ji Fengmian sitting on the main seat, the expression on Ye Jingyun's face froze.
