

Chapter 1721: Taste It Yourself

After leaving her lips, Lu Xingzhi moved his cheeks, took two bites, and swallowed. He nodded solemnly and said, "It is a touch sour."

Jiang Yao's ears were flushed. They had been together for so long, yet they were never fussy about what they ate from each other's mouths.

When she thought about the sensation that made her entire body numb and soft, she removed her hand from the peach and washed the pears without saying anything.

"Silly wife."

Lu Xingzhi's heart warmed in response to her reaction. They were a nearly old married couple, but she still felt shy around him.

Lu Xingzhi took the peach that Jiang Yao had nibbled on and ate it. He took one bite at a time. That peach was crunchy, but it was not sweet, possibly because it was a wild fruit.

Jiang Yao disliked sour food.

When Lu Xingzhi picked it, he did not take a bite because there were only two on the tree. He was also worried that it would not last until he returned at night.

If that were the case, she would miss out on the treat.

He could not stand it.

Lu Xingzhi was not in a hurry to return after getting the water. He sat down on the ground next to the stream. Nothing was more exciting than watching Jiang Yao wash the pears and then glancing at her slightly red ears.

When Jiang Yao was done and saw Lu Xingzhi seated there, she sat next to him in the spur of the moment. However, she maintained a two-fist distance. Even if someone did arrive, there would be no confusion.

She was astounded to see Lu Xingzhi consume the peaches she did not like.

Lu Xingzhi had a strong sense of taste. He enjoyed spicy and sour foods. His teeth were very impressive.

"Do you want me to sample the peaches to determine if they are sweet?" Lu Xingzhi asked solemnly.

Jiang Yao paused, looked around, and then raised the peaches to his mouth.

Lu Xingzhi swallowed the fruit in his mouth before he bit into the one in Jiang Yao's hand. Then, he took two slow nibbles, and a mouthful of sweet liquid burst into his lips.

The pear was quite sweet, unlike the sour peach.

"Is it sour or sweet?" Jiang Yao asked after she looked at him after a long silence.

Lu Xingzhi curved his lips and stepped closer to her. Jiang Yao had expected Lu Xingzhi to do that, so she kept a close eye on his every action. She knew what he would do the moment he curled his lips.

As a result, Lu Xingzhi pressed his lips and kissed the back of Jiang Yao's palm, which covered his lips.

"You've gotten smarter."

Lu Xingzhi apologized and feigned to sit back down.

However, after he moved to sit down, he drew her into his arms the next second. He raised his palm and pressed it on the back of her hand, which was covering her mouth. He kissed her lips briefly before releasing the fruit in his mouth.

"Try it for yourself. Is it sweet or sour?" he said.

It was difficult to stop him from becoming and behaving like a hooligan.

Jiang Yao lacked the strength even to look him in the eyes. She kept the fruit in her mouth for a long time before spitting it out. Then, with a half-smile on her face, she took two bites and swallowed it.

"What do you think?" Lu Xingzhi inquired slyly.

It seemed doubtful that Jiang Yao would pay attention to him. She stood up with the pear in her hand and moved more than 10 meters away from him before sitting down. Then she clutched the pear and ate it, bite by bite.

It was delicious.

The pear was delicious.

His kiss was also delightful.

Chapter 1722: What Will You Do In The Future?

He had been provoked.

Young Master Lu had never had a bottom line with his woman, so he did not have a temper with her.

Jiang Yao walked away, and he stood up and approached her, and then he sat next to her.

The first thing he said was the question he asked just moments before that. "Sour and sweet?"

"You've too much free time on your hands."

Jiang Yao nudged the person next to her. When she opened her mouth, her voice sounded a little coquettish.

"Sweet." Lu Xingzhi took the opportunity to hold her hand. "As sweet as you."

As he spoke, he reached out to touch his own lips. His gaze was still fixed on hers. After a long while, he took another two bites of the peach and said, "I'll bring you more pears tomorrow. It's good to eat some fruit every day."

Besides, she loved fruits.

Jiang Yao nodded. However, her eyes twinkled.

He casually threw the peach pit to the side and rubbed her hands. Suddenly, he asked, "What will you do in the future if you don't like sour food?"

"What do you mean?"

Jiang Yao did not understand him. "I just don't like sour food. I'd rather eat spicy food than sour food."

After returning from Shu City, she was no longer afraid of spicy food. She could eat spicy food then.

"I mean, what will you do when you're pregnant?" Lu Xingzhi asked very seriously, "Didn't you say pregnant women need sour food to quell their appetite? What will you do when you're pregnant if you can't eat sour food? It'll be harder, right?"

"Some people love to eat sour food when they're pregnant, but some people don't. It's not like you have to eat sour food when you're pregnant. You're worrying too much." Jiang Yao burst out laughing. Plus, it was too early to worry. She was not pregnant yet, and her period had just ended two days before she arrived at the mountain.

"Didn't you say we'd get a son?" Lu Xingzhi picked her up from the rock and into his arms.

"To think that you were a university student. Is that all you have?" Jiang Yao tugged at his hat and crawled out of his arms like a loach. Even if no one were there then, it did not mean that no one would come by later. That guy promised to behave, but in reality, he had no intention of doing that.

Lu Xingzhi shrugged and smiled. He said, "When my closed-door training is over, we'll have so much time together. Eventually, you'll get pregnant. Won't I have the experience when you're pregnant?"

Jiang Yao glanced at the man who was smiling happily. Then, she lowered her head and quickly ate the pear in her hand. She stood up and washed her hands. She ignored Lu Xingzhi and walked back alone.

Since Jiang Yao had left, Lu Xingzhi did not stay there. He was not in a hurry to call for help either.

It was not until the two of them had returned to the command center that Lu Xingzhi said, in front of everyone, "Miss Jiang, I still have your bottle. I'll put it in your tent for you."

Jiang Yao almost fell to the ground. That guy was definitely doing it on purpose!

He knew that she had forgotten to take her bottle. He did not tell her, but he waited until he was back in the camp!

After Lu Xingzhi put Jiang Yao's bottle in the tent, he went to the thatched cottage.. As he chewed on his rations, he told everyone about that day's situation.

Chapter 1723: Two Spies

Xiao Gao scratched his head and asked, "Colonel, you don't seem surprised about the Red Team's doctor being a fake." Of course, what he wanted to ask was why the Colonel had spoken to Miss Jiang alone for so long the moment he returned.

Xiao Gao had observed Miss Jiang the entire day. Even though the Colonel had been with her the whole night, he confirmed that the man had not done anything to her.

“Colonel Lu had guessed it last night. We were in the mountains today looking for the Red Party’s secret base and looking for the whereabouts of Colonel Shao and the others.” Old Yang said, “Last night, Colonel Lu told us that the Red Party’s doctor had also escaped and had been transferred to another place by Shao Fucheng. However, the doctors on here are not all fake.”

“Liu Chao is a doctor,” Lu Xingzhi said. “He doesn’t look like a soldier. I’ve looked at his hands. His fingernails are short, and his fingers are very clean. He often goes to the stream to wash his hands. It’s obvious that he has a slight obsession with cleanliness.”

“That’s true. How many soldiers can have that kind of behavior?” Xiao Gao recalled that it was indeed the case. Liu Chao did not look like a soldier at all. Instead, he had a slight obsession with cleanliness. He also never suspected the others because of Liu Chao.

“The information from the scouts was not wrong. The doctors on the Red Team include four women and three men. Shao Fucheng had given up on the three women doctors. The other two male doctors must not have acted like doctors at first glance. They might even be people who usually exercised and had good physical strength. That way, they would not be a burden for Shao Fucheng when he took them away.”

“It’s not easy for us to find two people like them among the Red Team.” Old Yang nodded in agreement.

“Shao Fucheng’s surprise attack last night was never meant to capture our doctors.” Lu Xingzhi drank a mouthful of water and put the bottle on the table before continuing to say, “He just let us capture the two captives on purpose and so that he could let them spy on us. It won’t be long before Shao Fucheng saves the two of them. Therefore, those two people are his real targets. They are used to gather information in our command center. Rather than saying that they are spies, they are more like spies.”

Xiao Gao looked at Colonel Lu with a heart-warming expression. “Colonel Lu is really extraordinary. He’s taken notice of Colonel Shao’s little schemes.”

“Shao Fucheng probably wouldn’t have thought that he had arranged for a fool to come here. He had revealed his identity as a spy. You guys did not see it. It was so funny! Someone from the Red Team even beat him up.”

“Today, when we heard the news from the command center, we also burst into laughter. Shao Fucheng will definitely die when he finds out!” Old Yang patted Xiao Gao’s shoulder. “You can stay at the command center and keep an eye on them. You can lead them in an act in the next few days.”

“Lead them? Are you serious?” Xiao Gao immediately jumped in excitement. He clenched his fist. “Colonel Lu, don’t worry.. Even though I’m the youngest in the group, I will not make any idiotic mistake!”

Chapter 1724: You Are So Bad

Xiao Gao joyously hopped out of the thatched cottage as he received Lu Xingzhi’s nod.

Jiang Yao, Liu Chao, and the rest were seated together in the tent. The two soldiers had already recovered from the morning's shock. They called out to Jiang Yao when she returned.

"Miss Jiang, why does the Blue Team's leader always look for you in private?"

"He doesn't look like a good person," Liu Chao said after Jiang Yao entered.

"Is Hades Lu attempting to mislead you again?" the dumb soldier from the morning asked Jiang Yao.

"Last night, it didn't work. Today, he realizes we are spies, so he is attempting to dupe you once more."

Someone else stood up and shoved his comrade away. "I assume Colonel Lu must have observed your nice looks and used that reason to get near to you," he said as he sat down alongside Jiang Yao. "Miss Jiang, please don't pretend you don't know anything the next time he asks you. Make up whatever you want, as long as you believe in it. Let's see if he believes it!"

"You are so bad!" The soldier, who was pushed aside, was not angry at all. He stretched his little finger outward and looked at his comrade with disdain. After a while, he changed his expression and said, "But I like it bad."

"Retard, go to the side!" After scolding his comrade, that person turned around and wanted to continue talking to Jiang Yao.

Finally, the person who was reprimanded was dissatisfied. "Who is retard?" he murmured as he kicked his comrade who had snatched his spot. "You even said that Hades Lu admired Miss Jiang's attractiveness. Did you think Hades Lu saw Miss Jiang's real face? Who could tell if she was ugly or not?"

Jiang Yao noticed the two of them squabbling. Then, she shrugged and smiled at Liu Chao before leaving the tent.

Liu Chao chased after her and stopped Jiang Yao. Then, he brought Jiang Yao to an isolated corner.

"Miss Jiang." Liu Chao said, but he did not speak the next sentence for a long time. He stuttered and hesitated for a few minutes before continuing to say, "Miss Jiang, you are Professor Ouyang's assistant. Even though your medical skills may be better than all of us, you are still young. You may not understand some things, so I think I have to remind you that you must take care of your own safety. Although those soldiers are protecting the country, it is unkind of me to assume some people's intentions, but one must be wary of others. Next time he calls for you alone, come and find me. I will go with you!"

Jiang Yao did not expect Liu Chao to say such things to her when he was alone. She was shocked. Then, a gentle smile appeared on her face.

"Okay, I got it." Ouyang Chenrui was wrong. Professor Ouyang's taste in students was not bad at all.

Perhaps everyone had minor issues, but those issues did not make the person good or bad.

After she said goodbye to Liu Chao, Jiang Yao returned to the tent. She did not know if Lu Xingzhi was busy or worried about the number of people there, but he did not show up when Jiang Yao went to bed. Instead, she saw her bottle and a lonely peach that had been washed.

Jiang Yao touched the peach and smiled gently. Then, she tidied the tent and lay down on the bed to sleep.

Lu Xingzhi had occupied the tent while they were training in the mountains, so it reeked of his odor.. His backpack remained in the corner.

Chapter 1725: In The Wilderness

Jiang Yao cleaned the tent and fell asleep soundly.

A nice breeze was blowing, and the noises of insects and birds could be heard.

Jiang Yao would have been able to sleep till the next morning if Lu Xingzhi had not awakened her in the middle of the night.

Jiang Yao was still sleeping when Lu Xingzhi woke her up. She thought she was at home until she opened her eyes and discovered it was Lu Xingzhi who had woken her up again. She was disgruntled, so she covered his face with her palm, took the blanket, and went back to sleep.

“Get up, Yaoyao. I will bring you out for some meat. If you do not get up, I will kiss you,” Lu Xingzhi said into her ear as he hauled her up.

Jiang Yao sniffed and massaged her eyes. “What kind of meat?”

“Come with me, and you will understand. Put on your clothing and follow me.” Lu Xingzhi took her coat, then pulled something from his suitcase and handed it to Jiang Yao. “The dew is thick in the mountains at this time. You should put on a different outfit.”

Jiang Yao laughed and nodded her head. She sat there like an idiot, holding the clothing in her hands, not moving at all.

Lu Xingzhi could tell she was not awake because of how she looked. He chose to assist her in putting on her clothing because she was still in a state where her reactions were delayed.

Jiang Yao woke up five minutes later, after she had put on her clothing. She paid attention to Lu Xingzhi while carrying the bottle on her back. When she saw Moe, she put him into her coat pocket.

After the two of them left the command center, Jiang Yao followed Lu Xingzhi and walked lightly like a cat. However, Lu Xingzhi did not bring Jiang Yao to the stream. Instead, he brought Jiang Yao to the edge of a pool.

The pool was a little far from the command center. They walked for over 30 minutes before they arrived. When they arrived, Lu Xingzhi tidied a space for Jiang Yao and then let her sit there and wait. He stood by the side and began to take off his clothes.

“Lu Xingzhi, why are you taking off your clothes?”

Jiang Yao was enraged. If he brought her there to have sex in the middle of the night, she would kick him into the pool without hesitation.

“Why do you think I’m taking off my clothes?” Lu Xingzhi asked in return. “Do you think I want to f*ck you?”

Jiang Yao gritted her teeth and looked at the man who had stripped down to a short-sleeved t-shirt. “You said you wanted to bring me here to enjoy some meat!”

Lu Xingzhi said calmly, “Yeah, I was preparing to go into the water to fish for you. Otherwise, what did you think I was going to do? Look at your lustful expression. You’re dreaming in this wilderness.”

Then, Lu Xingzhi jumped into the water.

The water came to a little above Lu Xingzhi’s waist. After he jumped in, he shouted at Jiang Yao, “Pass me the flashlight and the spear.”

Jiang Yao stood up and handed the flashlight and the spear to him. Then, she watched as Lu Xingzhi shone the flashlight on the water. He stood there without moving, holding the spear in one hand, his eyes focused on the surface of the water.

Only then did Jiang Yao realize that he meant to catch fish when he said he was bringing her meat. There were fish in the pond, and the fish would follow the light at night, so it would be easier to catch them than during the day.

However, he knew that she had misunderstood, so he had to explain it clearly. Why did he still say those words that made her even more misunderstood?

It was getting progressively worse with him!

What did he mean by her wishful thinking?

What did she think?

Chapter 1726: Grilled Fish

Jiang Yao looked at the man who was focused on the fish in the water. After a while, she could not help but defend herself. “I’m not thinking about anything. You’re the one who’s doing some wishful thinking.”

Lu Xingzhi turned around to look at Jiang Yao. Then, he gestured for her to be quiet and not disturb the fish. However, when he turned his head, he smiled mockingly.

Jiang Yao sat by the bank with her hands on her cheeks and watched her husband. It was common knowledge that fishes would follow the light at night. Jiang Yao had also fished with Jiang Lei at night when she was younger. However, the fishes in her village’s river were only as big as an adult’s palm. The fish in that pond were quite huge because of the good environment. They swam very fast in the water. Some might think those were monsters in the river.

The two of them stared at the water quietly. About seven to eight minutes later, there was still a black shadow where the flashlight shone. The shadow seemed to be chasing the light. They swam toward Lu Xingzhi.

Jiang Yao saw Lu Xingzhi's hand that held the spear move quickly. The next moment, half of his body was in the water. A few seconds later, when he raised his hand, he had a fish that was almost as big as his palm.

Lu Xingzhi took the fish off the spear and threw it ashore. Then, he continued to search for the next target.

Lu Xingzhi's actions were swift. There were already three fishes of different sizes lying at Jiang Yao's feet in just a few minutes. Lu Xingzhi raised the spear again. Jiang Yao picked up a small stone on the side and threw it into the water where he wanted to attack.

Unsurprisingly, he missed his target.

The stone had caused ripples that scared the fishes away. It even splashed some water onto Lu Xingzhi's face.

Jiang Yao giggled like a naughty child who had succeeded in a prank. Her smile was ostentatious and proud.

"Three is enough for the two of us."

Jiang Yao walked toward the pool and reached out to Lu Xingzhi to pull him up.

However, she did not expect moss on the rocks by the pool. She slipped when she stepped on it.

"Argh!"

Jiang Yao cried out in a low voice.

Lu Xingzhi quickly ran to the shore and lifted her upper body. That was how she narrowly avoided falling into the water.

"The rocks are covered in moss. Hurry back to the shore, and don't get too close." Lu Xingzhi helped her regain balance before he told her to retreat.

After she moved further back, he nimbly jumped back to the bank and walked toward Jiang Yao. "Did you bump into anything just now?"

He was not sure if she was injured.

"I'm fine." Jiang Yao shook her head. "It just scared me a little."

Jiang Yao shook the water droplets off her hands. Even though Lu Xingzhi had managed to get a hold of her, her shoes and hands were still wet.

Jiang Yao finally realized that the water was even colder at night. It was summer, but the water still chilled her to the bones.

Jiang Yao hurriedly reached out to hold Lu Xingzhi's hand to feel the temperature of his palm. She looked annoyed.. "Why are you catching fish in such cold water?" Fortunately, his hand was still warm.

Chapter 1727: I'll Kiss You

“Are you worried that I’ll get sick?” Lu Xingzhi snorted and immediately took off his undershirt, leaving only his wet pants dripping with water. He smiled and said, “I’m in good health. It’s a hot day. I’ll cool down when I’m in the water.”

“You’re just trying to be brave.”

Jiang Yao took his undershirt and twisted it. Then, she looked around and said, “You take care of the fish. I’ll look for something to start a fire and dry your clothes at the same time. Even if it’s summer now, the temperature in the mountains is different from the temperature in the city. Furthermore, the water is several degrees lower too. You can’t wear wet clothes all the time.”

Jiang Yao shook her head. While she told Lu Xingzhi to take care of the fish, she quickly picked up a large bundle of dry branches around her to start a fire.

Lu Xingzhi had a lighter with him, so Jiang Yao started the fire by herself. Jiang Yao, born in the countryside, had known how to do that since she was young. When she was young, she did not have to go to school during the holidays. Jiang Lei would dig up sweet potatoes, and she would start a fire. Roasted sweet potatoes were the most common food that she and Jiang Lei ate at that time.

After the fire had started, Jiang Yao hooked Lu Xingzhi’s clothes up with a tree branch and dried them near the fire. She turned around and saw Lu Xingzhi by the pool. He was killing the fish with a knife. She walked toward Lu Xingzhi and said, “There’s no one here. Why don’t you take off your pants, and I’ll dry them by the fire? With this weather, it should dry quickly. Remember to wring your pants first.”

Lu Xingzhi skewered the fish with a tree branch as he said, “No need. I’ll sit by the fire when I roast the fish. It’ll dry soon enough.”

“That’s different. Don’t you feel uncomfortable when your pants are wet? It’s cold.” Jiang Yao shook her head in disagreement. She bent down to pull Lu Xingzhi’s pants as she said that. She had to touch his pants.

“Hooligan!”

Lu Xingzhi imitated Jiang Yao’s usual tone of scolding him. He gently pushed Jiang Yao aside, got up, and brought the fish to the fire.

Jiang Yao was stunned by Lu Xingzhi’s words. She had never heard Lu Xingzhi speak in such a tone before.

How should she put it?

Anyway, it was a strange feeling. He was a tough and masculine man. What was the point of imitating her?

Furthermore, her voice was naturally soft and sounded more delicate than other girls’ voices. Yet, he had imitated her perfectly.

“Why don’t you take it off and dry it for ten minutes?”

Jiang Yao did not give up and continued to persuade him. Lu Xingzhi had soaked in the water for so long, so she was worried that he would catch a cold.

If she were at home, she would immediately take off his wet clothes and prepare a cup of tea for him. However, she was still in the mountains, so she could not do that.

Lu Xingzhi rejected her again. Then, he placed the fish on the bonfire that Jiang Yao had set up. He admired her effort. His wife was quite skillful; she had managed to set the bonfire quicker than most people.

“Hey!”

Jiang Yao strode toward Lu Xingzhi. Just as she was about to persuade him again, she heard the man in front of her suddenly say something.

“Repeat it, and I’ll kiss you!”

Jiang Yao was so angry that she raised her leg and kicked Lu Xingzhi. She was so angry at that guy!

Chapter 1728: You’re Too Sweet

Lu Xingzhi drew Jiang Yao to his side and sat down when he noticed she was staring at him. “It is not that I am trying to be brave; it is just that I am quite familiar with my own body. When I am on a mission in the winter, it is not uncommon for me to spend a few hours lurking in the water. My body is unique. The water that you believe is cold is actually quite warm for me.”

Lu Xingzhi gently explained to her since he knew she was frightened. He felt terrible, even if she did nag a little.

Furthermore, as he spoke with her, he bent down and removed her shoes and socks, which he placed by the fire to dry. Then he wrapped his coat around her feet, which he had left by the side before entering the river. “The routes in the mountains are difficult to navigate. Don’t stomp your feet.”

Lu Xingzhi’s caring deeds cut through all of his remarks.

Her shoes and socks were wet, so the temperature was too cold for her. However, there was a little bit of warmth seeping into her heart from the soles of her feet at that moment.

She was enraged, so it did not take long for her to detect the aroma of the fish. Lu Xingzhi was aware that Jiang Yao was staring at him, but he did not say anything to divert her attention.

It was not until he smelled the grilled fish that he picked up the fish and placed it in front of his nose to smell it. He reached out and tore a small piece of the fish, put it on his lips, and blew on it. After it was cold, he brought the fish to Jiang Yao’s lips and said, “Let’s see if it tastes good.”

Jiang Yao opened her mouth and bit into the fish, chewing on it twice. The aroma had exceeded her expectations.

“How did you cook this?”

Jiang Yao was overjoyed. "Did you bring salt and spices? I expected the fish to taste rather fishy without the seasonings."

However, that was not the case. Not only did the fish not taste fishy, but it was also a little salty. Aside from that, there was another flavor that tasted like spices.

"If it is tasty, then you should eat more." Jiang Yao took the tree branch from Lu Xingzhi. "It is quite hot. Blow on it first. My heart aches as I watch you drink water and eat dry food with us for so many days while you're here."

That was why he brought her there in the middle of the night. She might have to sleep later than planned, but she could take a nap in the morning to make up for it.

"I used grass to remove the fishy taste when I prepared it. I even tucked some herbs into the fish's belly before roasting it. These herbs can be found throughout the mountains. It is a type of herb," Lu Xingzhi said. "I learned it while doing wilderness survival training in the mountains."

"Do you frequently sneak out at night to barbecue fish?"

Jiang Yao examined the fish's belly and noticed the grass and leaves inside.

"Do I come off as that kind of person?"

Lu Xingzhi posed the rhetorical question to Jiang Yao. Then he said, "Coming out here to train is typically really tiresome. It is sufficient to have dry food and water to keep our stomachs full. Who wants to catch fish, kill and grill them when they do not even have time to rest?"

Lu Xingzhi would not have gone to the pool if Jiang Yao were not there.

He was not particular about eating, and he also did not like getting into trouble.

"You are too sweet!" Jiang Yao realized Lu Xingzhi was worried that she could not get used to the food. He felt terrible when he saw her unhealthy food ration, so he brought her there to eat meat. He had stood in the cold water to try to get some fish for her to eat.

"It's good that you realize it now." Although Lu Xingzhi was pleased with Jiang Yao's compliment, he remained neutral.. The smile in his eyes had long revealed his state of mind.

Chapter 1729: Daydreaming About You

Jiang Yao suppressed her laughter when she noticed Lu Xingzhi's expression. He was obviously overjoyed, but he was trying hard not to show it.

Jiang Yao exhaled a sigh. "If you ever make me furious again, I will probably forgive you if you grill a fish for me."

Lu Xingzhi's grilled seafood was delicious. The fish's skin was crispy, but the meat was fresh and soft. It did not smell fishy, but it did have a mild plant scent. However, it did not conceal the fish's freshness. Lu Xingzhi was clearly skilled at controlling the amount of fish used.

Jiang Yao had a small appetite. She was full after just one fish that she could not continue to eat. Lu Xingzhi enticed her for some time, but she refused to eat anymore. So, he ate the remaining two fishes when she confirmed that she no longer wanted them.

Jiang Yao stood there watching as Lu Xingzhi ate. Then, she reached out to touch his pants to see if they were dry. However, just as she stretched her hand outward, he grabbed her hand so quickly that it was as if he had an extra pair of eyes.

“What? Do you want to pull my pants off again?” Lu Xingzhi cast a glance at Jiang Yao.

“I just want to check if your pants are dry,” Jiang Yao said blankly.

Lu Xingzhi smiled and held her hand. He allowed her to touch his pants. “Almost. They will be dried in no time.”

He did not intend to let go of her hand after that. Instead, he kissed her on the lips.

“It is made of oil.”

Jiang Yao’s tone was mocking, but she did not withdraw her hand. Instead, she drew closer to him and rested her chest on his.

“Are you tired?” Lu Xingzhi observed her sluggish appearance and asked, “Lean against me for a few moments. Let’s talk about it again. I will have you back before the sun comes up.”

“Are you going to sleep tonight?”

Jiang Yao grew more energized. “We didn’t leave before dawn today, and after a long day, you brought me here without any rest. Are you going to sleep tonight?”

“You’re not willing to share a tent with me, and I would like to spend more time with you. Other than sneaking around like this, what else can we do?” Lu Xingzhi grabbed her nose.

Lu Xingzhi knew Jiang Yao would never let him stay in the tent and sleep with her that night.

However, his wife was there. How could he sleep if she would not let him see or embrace her?

Instead of resting, he wanted to hug her to his heart’s delight.

“Is it that important for you to complete that task in a few days?” Jiang Yao sat up straight after releasing her grasp.

Lu Xingzhi’s response was solemn. “Yes, I have to do that.”

When he saw her disapproving expression, he said, “I haven’t seen you in a day, but I have been daydreaming about you. And now, I really do get to see you.”

Lu Xingzhi did not expect that he knew so much. He had memorized all of the poetry and phrases in the textbooks, as well as all the famous poems and phrases he had read in the extracurricular books, but those were for the exam.

He did not know how the authors composed those poems.

Whenever he thought of Jiang Yao, he would recall certain words he had forgotten after several years at university.

He was slow to recognize those words' emotion and creative vision.

Chapter 1730: Won't Watch Them Anymore

Therefore, experiencing it firsthand was better than the fancy description and explanation that the teacher said on the podium back then.

After a day of not seeing each other, she felt like she was going crazy.

Just as he had said.

Just as she had thought.

Jiang Yao sat there and did not take her eyes off his face for even a second. He said that he had missed her. At that moment, she wanted to kiss him.

She wanted to use a kiss to tell him that she was thinking about him too.

Jiang Yao did precisely that.

She put one hand on his shoulder and the other on his chest. She took the initiative to kiss him.

The two of them had been together for so long, and the number of times Jiang Yao took the initiative could be counted on one hand.

Therefore, every time she took the initiative, her effort touched his heart.

He could feel her dependence on him, and he could feel that her feelings for him were getting stronger.

He also knew that she did not know when she had started to have feelings for him, and the more she loved him, the deeper those feelings got.

What could be more worthy of making him happy than something like that?

The woman he loved had loved him just as much.

That was the case when two people were in love.

It was as if the two of them were the only ones left in the world.

The two of them hugged each other tightly. They kissed so passionately that they forgot where they were.

The two people behind a tree not far away looked at each other for a few minutes. Their faces were filled with astonishment and shock.

"Let's go back. We shouldn't watch them anymore." Old Yang nodded at Xiao Gao. Seeing that his eyes filled with sadness, he said to Xiao Gao, "Let's go. If we don't leave now, we'll be discovered."

After a long while, Xiao Gao finally nodded and followed Old Yang to leave the place quietly. When they were quite far away, Xiao Gao finally said, "Colonel Lu was so absorbed that he wasn't even vigilant anymore. If it were any other time, he would definitely notice us as soon as we got close to that place."

"Beauty is alluring, and beauty is a disaster. It's true what they said." Old Yang rubbed his chin and said, "If you hadn't dragged me here in the middle of the night to catch fish, I wouldn't have seen this. It's really terrible. If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have come with you. Why do we need fish? I felt like I ate something I shouldn't have. If I keep this in my heart, I might feel terrible later."

Of course, Xiao Gao did not understand the hidden meaning in Old Yang's words.

"How can Colonel Lu act like that?" Xiao Gao's face was bitter. "He is married. How can he do such a thing with another woman?"

"I heard from the scouts that Miss Jiang is charming. Perhaps he was tempted." Old Yang patted Xiao Gao on the shoulder. "Let's pretend that we don't know anything about that. Don't let it slip in front of the Colonel."

After Old Yang finished speaking, he shook his head and returned to his tent. Xiao Gao stood there by himself.

Finally, Jiang Yao was worried that Lu Xingzhi would be too tired, so after the uncontrollable kiss ended, she urged Lu Xingzhi to send her back to the tent.

Lu Xingzhi waited for her shoes and socks to dry before bringing her back to the command center. Since no one paid attention to them, he sent her to the tent. After a long period of intimacy with her in the tent, he reluctantly left. Then, he went to another tent to find an empty place to sleep.

Jiang Yao did not know when Lu Xingzhi had left, nor did she know where Lu Xingzhi went to rest last night. Did he get any rest that night? By the time she woke up, the sun was already up.. It was already past eight in the morning, and the morning dew was almost gone.
