

Chapter 1731

Hearing this voice, Tenglin Qingtian's liver and gallbladder were cracked!

This really confirmed the scariest assumption in his heart!

That man has been here all the time and never left!

And from the beginning to the end, he didn't hear this person's breathing or heartbeat. How did he do it? !

Moreover, he slapped his shoulder twice, which proved that he was close to his body at least twice, but he didn't even hear anything, not even his footsteps!

At this moment, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and throw out the shuriken, but he was a little worried deep in his heart.

After all, he only has six swords in his hand. Four of them have been thrown out just now, and now the two in his hand are the last two!

What if these two are also on the empty target?

The opponent is right in front of him, and he will never give himself a chance to dig out other weapons. In other words, the sword in these two hands is his last chance.

If you use it rashly, you may put yourself in a situation where you can never recover!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to act rashly, so he could only swallow his saliva nervously, and said with some humility: "You gentleman, you may have misunderstood. I am not a ninja, just a shuriken fan."

"Oh?" Charlie smiled playfully and asked him: "You are not a ninja, so what are you doing with me?"

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: "I didn't follow you, I just finished my dinner at night, come here to practice my shuriken..."

Charlie sneered and said, "Do you think I will believe such a bad reason?"

Tenglin Qingtian said innocently, "I...I...I'm telling the truth..."

Charlie sneered: "If I guessed correctly, you should be a member of the Takahashi family? I now give you a chance to survive and tell me everything exactly. If what you say satisfies me, then I can consider letting you go."

Hearing this, Tenglin Qingtian knew in his heart that denying was no longer useful, and blindly denying it was likely to be a disaster.

Therefore, he can only cower and say: "Sir, I say! I say everything! I was indeed sent by the Takahashi family, and they asked me to follow you all the way from Tokyo to here..."

Charlie asked again: "What is the plan of the Takahashi family? Do they want you to follow me like this?"

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: "No, Mr. Takahashi Machi meant that we should follow you first, and wait for his instructions. He is now negotiating cooperation with a big family from China, so he doesn't want to be out of the question, but wants to wait until after the cooperation is finished. , Let us kill you then.”

Charlie nodded and asked, “What is the origin of you four ninjas?”

Tenglin Qingtian said truthfully: “We are all members of the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is one of the major ninjutsu families in Japan.”

Charlie asked him with interest: “Since your family is a relatively large ninjutsu family in Japan, why should you follow the Takahashi family as running dogs?”

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: “This...actually, the main reason is that in the postwar years, ninjas and samurai have become less and less important. At the same time, the underworld is also rapidly rising, and they are equipped with very powerful heat. Weapon, so our living space is even smaller. In addition to being good at ninjutsu, the entire family has no other skills. It is not good at doing business and Making money, so it can only survive by attaching to the big family...”

Speaking of this, Tenglin Qingtian begged: “Sir, what I told you is all the truth, can you let me go?”

Charlie smiled and said: “Don’t worry, I still have questions to ask, you can leave after answering all of my questions.”

Tenglin Qingtian’s mind turned slightly, and he asked: “Sir, I...can I turn around and talk? I’m so nervous with my back facing you like this... “

Charlie said calmly: “Yes, turn around.”

Tenglin Qingtian turned around slowly, and when he turned around, the shuriken in his hand had not been put down.

At the same time, his toes slid gently on the ground, seemingly nothing unusual, but Charlie still noticed the other’s intentions.

Tenglin Qingtian’s shoes are special ninja shoes, which are not only light and quiet, but more importantly, they hide a short-edged dagger in the sole.

The short-edged switch is a slider with a special pattern on the sole.

Normal walking and running will not trigger the shoe sole slider to eject the short blade. Only after the slider completes the S-shaped movement, will the short blade eject mechanism be triggered.

This kind of weapon is very common in the era of cold weapons. Even in China a hundred years ago, it was also a necessary hidden weapon for many people to walk the rivers and lakes.

In many film and television works, this hidden weapon has also been shown, but the principle is not revealed. In fact, this s-shaped slider is equivalent to the simplest mechanical code. Others don’t know how to trigger it, but the user himself knows it. Obviously, you can be surprised at any time.

Chapter 1732

However, as the thermal weapon became more and more mature, this weapon gradually withdrew from the stage of history.

But unexpectedly, Japanese ninjas are still in use.

The moment he moved the sole of his shoe, he realized that this guy was preparing to unlock the short blade in the ninja shoe.

Even, his toes have completed 80% of the entire S-shape, as long as they move one centimeter in the correct direction at the end, the short blade hidden in the sole will suddenly pierce from the toe!

At this time, Tenglin Qingtian has made up his mind. Once he finds the right opportunity, he first uses the sword in his two hands to attract the other's attention. When Charlie's all attention is on the shuriken, he immediately uses the ninja shoes. The short blade launched an attack.

At that time, the upper and lower sides and the four sharp blades will come out, as long as one of them stabs Charlie, Charlie will undoubtedly die!

Although he explained that he should not kill him for the time being, he felt that Charlie had already threatened his life, and he did not care about Zhenzhi's instructions. The most important thing was to kill Charlie first!

After Maching up his mind, he began to attract Charlie's attention and said, "Sir, if you have any questions, just ask, I will answer truthfully!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "Are you four of you the strongest under Machi Takahashi?"

"Yes."

Charlie frowned, and said with a bit of contempt: "I don't think the four of you are really good at it. Isn't your skill just throwing knives? And you're dying. If you have this skill, In China, no one looks at performing arts on the streets, and you can't keep up with the heat if you eat sh!t."

Feeling humiliated, Tenglin Qingtian blurted out: "Nonsense! My shuriken has always been accurate. Within 100 meters, the wings of flying flies can be cut off!"

Charlie smiled and said, "So powerful?"

Tenglin Qingtian said sternly: "Of course! If you don't believe me, I can show you something!"

Charlie smiled contemptuously: "Come on, start your performance."

Tenglin Qingtian gritted his teeth, realizing that the opportunity is coming, and sneered: "Okay! Then you are optimistic!"

After that, both hands suddenly shook, and the sword in both hands instantly pierced the air and dashed towards Charlie!

Immediately afterwards, he rubbed his feet on the ground slightly, and the two short blades of his toes popped out instantly!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to delay half a minute, and immediately raised his foot and kicked Charlie!

Charlie had already guarded his hand, a trace of contempt flashed between his brows.

Immediately afterwards, he did not move. He just snapped two fingers with both hands, and then separated two invisible vigor, and slightly pushed the two shurikens that came straight to his door.

Immediately afterwards, the sword in the two hands was like a Chinese character “eight”, swiping and flicking it, just passing Charlie!

Tenglin Qingtian was so scared that his face was pale by this strange scene. At this time, he could only hope for the short blade of his toes!

A strong wind blew, and his feet kicked in front of Charlie.

Charlie’s expression was indifferent, and he quickly attacked with one hand, and grabbed his ankle tightly.

Tenglin Qingtian looked at the short blade of the toe, and was only a few strands away from Charlie, but Charlie’s hand was too strong, and he was completely unable to enter even half a minute!

At this time, Charlie sneered and said contemptuously: “Since you like to hurt people with short blades so much, then I will fulfill you and arrange a happy ending for your life!”

Tenglin Qingtian was frightened and collapsed, and he blurted out and pleaded: “No! Please...”

As soon as the voice fell, he felt a sudden pain in his ankle and knee!

With a crisp click, Tenglin Qingtian saw his calf bend forward from the knee!

It turned out that Charlie completely broke his calf from his knee with one hand!

He was tortured to collapse by the severe pain, opened his mouth and yelled hysterically: “Ah!!!”

The next moment, his voice stopped abruptly.

The short blade on the toe of his shoe had already pierced into his mouth at this time, and the bloody blade tip came out directly from the back of his neck!

Chapter 1733

The moment Tenglin Qingtian pierced the sharp blade, he felt pain and numbness at the wound, and a sense of weakness spread from the wound to his whole body.

The pain comes from the wound of a sharp blade;

The sense of powerlessness originates from the poison on the blade.

He was already unable to breathe, his face became more and more bruised, staring at Charlie with an expression of horror, and sobbing in his mouth.

Charlie looked at him and asked with interest: “Did you follow me first, how did I do it?”

Tenglin Qingtian nodded desperately.

He didn’t want to understand until he was on the verge of dying, why Charlie had such a strong strength, why he could hide everything in front of him in an instant, and why he could make his two-handed sword deviate from the original trajectory.

Charlie smiled slightly at this time and said: "Did you learn physics when you were a child? The transmission of sound depends on vibration. As long as you can control vibration, you can control any sound. No matter how sensitive your ears are, you won't feel it."

Tenglin Qingtian's eyes were full of shock!

Sound transmission depends on vibration, he knows this, but how can people control the vibration of sound? !

Immediately, he looked at Charlie with eager eyes, Maching a um ah ah ah sound in his mouth.

Charlie smiled and asked, "Do you want to ask, how did I make your two swords deviate?"

Tenglin Qingtian nodded uncontrollably.

Charlie smiled indifferently: "This is the same principle as how I control the vibration, but this ability is a profound heritage, far from your ninjutsu, so you don't think too much, go on the road."

Tenglin Qingtian's expression was full of shock and regret.

What is shocking is that this man actually has such an inheritance of heavenly skills. Regrettably, he has come to an end in this life, and it is impossible to learn such a heavenly skill.

At this moment, Tenglin Qingtian's face had begun to turn black and purple, and his eyes were staring, almost shooting out of his eye sockets.

And his whole person couldn't stop convulsing suddenly, and his whole person was shaking violently.

The reason for this is also because he himself smeared cyanide on his short blade. This highly toxic substance killed him very quickly and in a tragic manner.

This state continued for about ten seconds, and Tenglin Qingtian lost his vitality and turned into a stiff corpse.

Charlie didn't have any sympathy for the tragic death of Tenglin Qingtian. This man carried so many poisonous weapons with him. God knows how many people he killed with these weapons before. Now, it is best for him to let him eat the consequences.

In other words, this is also his best destination.

Otherwise, if the crime is in the hands of other enemies someday, you may not even be able to keep a whole body.

At this moment, there was a short and slight vibration in Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

If it weren't for Charlie's extremely keen senses, it would be impossible to detect it.

Astonished, he reached out to touch the inner pocket of Tenglin Qingtian's shirt, and he found a mobile phone.

This mobile phone seems to have specially modified the vibration motor, which greatly shortens the period of vibration and greatly reduces the force of vibration. It is estimated that it is to prevent the mobile phone from revealing its whereabouts when it is hidden.

At this time, a message was displayed on the screen of the phone. After Charlie unlocked the phone with Tenglin Qingtian's finger, he saw a text message with the title Tenglin. The text message contained only two numbers: "07."

Charlie couldn't help frowning, scrolling up the text messages of the two and found that they were all communicating with two digits. Tenglin sent a 03, and Tenglin Qingtian responded with an 11.

Chapter 1734

Charlie speculated that this should be some kind of agreed code between them. Only they themselves know what the different numbers mean, so that they can realize basic communication encryption, even if he has Tenglin Qingtian's mobile phone, There is no idea what the two are passing on.

However, Charlie felt that the 07 sent by Tenglin should really mean to ask Tenglin Qingtian about his situation.

Thinking of this, he gently bends the phone with both hands, and when the phone is powered off, he put the phone back into Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

Immediately afterwards, he took out his mobile phone and called Issac.

As soon as the phone was connected, he ordered: "Old man, let your hands prepare a light refrigerated car, and then drive to the park on the outskirts of the river."

Issac asked in surprise: "Master what do you want to freeze the car for?"

Charlie said lightly: "A big popsicle of personal flesh."

When Issac heard this, he immediately became nervous, and blurted out, "Master have you been attacked?! Are you okay?"

"Of course okay." Charlie said: "You quickly do as I told you to find a car first, and I will send you the address in a moment."

"OK, Master!"

At this moment, inside a hotel in downtown Nagoya.

Tenglin was about to install a bug in Charlie's room. Just to be cautious, he sent Tenglin Qingtian a message to ask him about his tracking, such as where Charlie went and how long it will take to return.

If Charlie can't come back for a while, then he can safely sneak into his room.

However, when the message was sent, Tenglin Qingtian never responded, which made him feel a little uneasy.

The other two juniors were also in his room. Seeing Tenglin Qingtian not responding to messages, everyone looked a little worried.

The four of them have worked closely for so many years and are very familiar with each other. There is no lag in the communication between them under any circumstances. The information is basically returned within seconds, and there has never been a situation where there is no reply for a few minutes.

Tenglin couldn't help muttering: "Could it be that Qingtian was discovered by the other party?"

The second junior brother said: "No, senior brother! The fourth child has the strongest concealment ability. If he gets serious, the three of us together may not be able to find him. How can the subject detect his trace?"

Tenglin waved his hand and said solemnly: "Qingtian hasn't responded to the message for so long. This is obviously very abnormal. Therefore, it is no longer meaningful to discuss his strength. The key is to find him!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly sent another message to Tenglin Qingtian. The content of this message was the number 10, which means one hundred thousand in a hurry, and he responded quickly!

However, when the message was sent, it still fell to the ground!

He waited anxiously for another minute, but there was still no response.

The expressions of all three people became very ugly.

The Third Junior Brother couldn't sit still, and stood up and said, "Big Brother, go out and look for it!"

"Looking for?" Tenglin smacked his lips: "Where to find? Qingtian has not communicated with us since he separated from us, we don't even know which direction to choose when we leave the hotel!"

The second younger brother blurted out: "What if there is an accident with Qingtian?"

Tenglin said with a black face: "I think with Qingtian's strength, even if it is discovered by the opponent, he can still fight. It may not really be an accident. Maybe it has already started with the opponent!"

After that, he blurted out: "Second, give Qingtian a call!"

Chapter 1735

Tenglin's last hope is to pray that the reason why Tenglin Qingtian didn't reply was that he was following Charlie or was fighting Charlie fiercely.

In short, as long as he is still alive.

The second child picked up the phone and immediately called Tenglin Qingtian.

As a result, a series of prompts appeared on the phone, telling him that the other party's mobile phone might not be able to connect temporarily because of no signal.

The cold sweat of the second child shed at once.

He hurriedly said to Tenglin: "Brother, Qingtian's phone cannot be connected..."

"How come..." Tenglin stood up immediately and blurted out: "Qingtian's mobile phone is always on standby all the time, why can't it be connected suddenly..."

The old third looked panicked and said, "Brother, has Qingtian already encountered an accident?"

The second child said with certainty: "There must be a big problem! Otherwise, Qingtian will never be so abnormal!"

After that, he looked at Tenglin: "Brother, we have to find him!"

"Look?" Tenglin's expression was extremely ugly, and he said: "We don't know where to look. If Qingtian really encounters an accident, even if we find him, he may become a corpse. We risk it. If you look for it, you might expose yourself..."

"Then what to do?!" The third asked: "Brother, we can't just sit and wait for death, right?"

Tenglin gritted his teeth and said, "Of course you can't sit and wait! So, you two will go downstairs and watch. I will install a bug in the room. If they come back, tell me immediately."

The second child asked eagerly: "Brother, what is the point of installing a bug now? What we are looking for now is the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

Tenglin said coldly: "If Qingtian really encounters an accident, then only the subject will know his whereabouts. Only by closely monitoring him can we know the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

With that, Tenglin sighed and said: "Second, third, you two must be mentally prepared that Qingtian is not alive..."

The expressions of the two suddenly became indescribable pain.

They are all senior brothers. Although they are not real brothers, they are also members of the Tenglin family. They are distant relatives. They have grown up together, learned ninjutsu together, and have the same siblings. Suddenly they were prepared for this. The two of them were naturally very sad.

However, Tenglin's words are indeed correct.

Nagoya is not very big, but it is definitely not a small city. With the capabilities of the three of them, it is impossible to find a missing person in this city.

The only clue is the Subject they are following. Therefore, all clues and truth must wait for him to return before they can surface.

As a result, the three immediately divided the work and cooperated. The two watched in the entrance hall downstairs of the hotel, and Tenglin sneaked into Charlie's room and installed multiple bugs in the secret location of the room.

Ten minutes later, Issac, one of his subordinates, and the three of them, including Orvel, drove a refrigerated truck to the park where he was.

After the car stopped outside the park, Issac and Mr. Orvel ran all the way to see Charlie standing in front of a black and purple corpse, and the corpse even swallowed his own toes with his mouth wide open, and he was shocked!

Orvel couldn't help asking: "Master, this...who is this person?!"

Charlie said lightly: "A ninja, a member of the Takahashi family."

Chapter 1736

"The Takahashi family?!" Both were shocked.

Issac blurted out: "Master! Is the Takahashi family going to attack you?!"

Charlie nodded: "They want to follow me first, and then find a suitable opportunity to kill me."

Issac gritted his teeth and cursed: "Takahashi family is just as powerful as the Eastcliff Gu family at best, so they have such courage!"

Charlie smiled and said, "People are still very strong at least in this three-acre land in Tokyo."

With that, Charlie asked him: "Has the refrigerated car been found?"

"found it"! Issac said: "We bought a freezer box to transport seafood directly from the seafood market at a high price. We drove over before the car had time to unload the cargo."

Charlie asked: "According to that, the carriage is still frozen, right?"

Issac nodded: "In the car, it is 20 degrees below zero. The fish inside is so hard that it can kill people."

Charlie said with satisfaction: "Okay, you and Mr. Orvel lift this guy up and move it into the car before freezing."

Issac asked hurriedly, "Master what about the Takahashi family? Don't you ask them?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "The Takahashi family sent a total of four ninjas, one dead, and three more. When the four brothers have gathered in the freezer, they will be sent to Machi Takahashi at once. I will give him a big gift!"

The frozen container truck has a quick-freezing function. When the power is fully turned on, the body of Tenglin Qingtian can be frozen into a pile of ice in ten minutes.

Before a few people put Tenglin Qingtian on the freezer container, Charlie took off the cowhide cover that stored the shuriken from him, planning to use it for others.

Afterwards, Charlie told Issac's subordinate who drove: "You first drive the car to a hidden place and park it properly. Remember not to cut off the oil and power of the refrigerated truck. Make sure that the container keeps cooling. I want to send four ice sculptures to Machi Takahashi. Don't look back. People will turn into four piles of rotten meat when they receive it. It won't be good if they give me a bad review. After all, I am an overseas customer and an international friend.

The subordinate nodded quickly and said, "Don't worry, we must arrange this car properly!"

Issac asked at this time: "Master we are going to Osaka next stop. Will this car follow us? Will it be alerted by the other party?"

Charlie said: "In principle, where we go, this car will go wherever we go, but there is no need to follow us closely. If we set off tomorrow, let this car leave before two hours in advance."

Issac nodded immediately: "Okay!"

Charlie waved his hand: "The three of you go back. I will deal with the scene and go back by myself."

Issac asked hurriedly: "Is there anything I can help? Or I will stay!"

"No." Charlie said lightly: "I will go back after I finish handling it. This will also prevent the group of people from seeing the clues."

Seeing this, Issac nodded and said, "Master since this is the case, then I and Mr. Orvel will go back first."

After Issac and Mr. Orvel left, Charlie dealt with some traces in the park.

He found all the six-handed swords in Tenglin Qingtian. He did not discard the six-handed swords, but put them all back in the cowhide case and kept them next to him.

Afterwards, the bloodstains on the ground were also cleaned up by him, leaving no traces.

After doing all this, he was alone, walking back to the hotel leisurely.

Chapter 1737

The two juniors of Tenglin were watching around the hotel lobby.

Seeing that Charlie returned to the hotel without incident, they immediately notified Tenglin. At the same time, the two of them were surprised at the same time. This guy seemed to have just gone out for a walk, and could not see anything. Didn't Tenglin Qingtian act with him for the traces of fighting with others? !

The reason why they think so is because both of them feel that even if Tenglin Qingtian's strength is not as good as Charlie, it will certainly not be so weak.

If he has encountered an accident now, then his opponent will be injured a little bit, and it is absolutely impossible to look like nothing happened.

Tenglin, who had already installed several bugs in Charlie's room, quietly walked out of Charlie's room, and then told them on the intercom: "Come to my room!"

In fact, as soon as Charlie entered the door, he noticed the breath of these two people.

After all, they followed him all the way from Tokyo to Nagoya, and he was already familiar with these four people to a certain extent.

Seeing these people waiting for him in the hotel lobby, Charlie knew that they must have a plan.

So he took the elevator back to his room quietly.

As soon as he entered the door, he felt another familiar feeling in the air.

From the inheritance of the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures", Charlie knew that everyone has their own unique aura.

The so-called breath is like the magnetic field in physics.

A big living person, no matter how good he is to hide his figure, if he doesn't have the ability like Charlie, it is difficult to hide his breath.

This is like a running car, no matter how environmentally friendly it is, it will definitely emit a faint exhaust gas, and the exhaust will still be in the air when the car is gone.

However, the smell of exhaust gas can be detected by anyone with a keen sense of smell.

However, the faint breath of a person is easy to dissipate, and unless the sense organs are extremely sensitive, it is impossible to detect it.

Tenglin thought he was hiding well, but he didn't expect that Charlie would have noticed the traces he left as soon as he entered the room.

So Charlie calmly looked around in the room and found several wireless bugs hidden on the back of the furniture, the bottom of the sofa, and the ceiling.

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help but sneer.

Since these friends even used the wiretap, and he didn't perform a play for them, he is really sorry for their troublesome arrangements.

So he took out his mobile phone and sent a text WeChat message to Issac and Orvel: "My room was tapped. Mr. Orvel will not come to my room for now. Old man will cooperate with me in a show later."

Issac hurriedly sent a text asking him what arrangements he had.

Charlie sent him a bunch of lines he played live, and then sent him a voice: "Old man, come to my room."

After half a minute, Issac knocked on Charlie's door.

When the door was closed, Charlie spoke nervously, "Old man, I feel that Nagoya is a bit weird."

Issac hurriedly followed Charlie's script and asked him: "Master what do you mean by weird?"

Charlie said with some worry: "When I went for a walk just now, I always had a strange feeling, as if someone had been following me."

"No, master!" Issac hurriedly said, "We have already left Tokyo, and we went to Yokohama in the middle, and now we are in Nagoya. Maybe no one will follow us here all the time?"

"It's hard to say." Charlie sighed: "I played that b@stard on the streets of Tokyo. It seems that he has a d*mn background. As the saying goes, strong dragons do suppress local snakes. We go out and provoke the local big family. It's still a little troublesome!"

At this moment, in Tenglin's room, the three of them were already dumbfounded when they heard it on the radio.

The third blurted out: "Brother, I heard what this guy meant, he didn't seem to meet Qingtian directly?"

Tenglin stopped him with gestures, and said: "Keep listening!"

At this time, Issac said again: "Master are you a little too sensitive? I don't feel anyone is following us."

Chapter 1738

Charlie said very seriously: "I always feel that something is wrong. Just now when I was out for a walk, I inexplicably heard someone behind it seemed to be fighting, and there was the sound of weapons colliding, but I looked back, what? There was nothing."

Issac thought for a moment, and said, "Master I think you are still too sensitive. Maybe you have auditory hallucinations."

"It's still not quite right." Charlie smacked his lips: "The movement I overheard was very chaotic. It seemed that several people struck for a while, and then someone struggling and whimpering as if their mouth was covered, waiting for me to follow. When following the voice I came over, there was a pool of blood on the ground, and there was also a shoe. That shoe was f*cking weird..."

Issac said: "Master the blood may be stupid. As for shoes, what's weird about a shoe?"

Charlie said very seriously: "Do you dare to believe that there is a *damn knife on the toe of that shoe? It's like a fcking movie, it's a d*mn door.*"

Issac exclaimed: "What? There is a knife on the toe of the shoe? Is this not too weird?!"

In Tenglin's room, when they heard Charlie's words, all three looked terrified!

The second child said with some horror: "Brother, this should be Qingtian's ninja shoes!"

Tenglin also became nervous and frowned, "According to what he said, it is possible that Qingtian was harmed by others?"

The third added at this time: "It is very likely that he is also a ninja!"

On the other side, Issac asked Charlie: "Master do you think this is the legendary Japanese ninja?"

Charlie nodded and said in agreement: "I think it's possible too!"

Issac asked curiously: "Did you happen to see a ninja fighting with a ninja?"

Charlie groaned: "I always think it shouldn't be so coincidental. I feel vaguely in my heart that maybe this matter has something to do with me."

"Can't be?" Issac blurted out: "According to you, is it because someone wanted to mantis catch cicadas at you, and then was followed by other oriole?"

Charlie said: "The ghost knows, it's possible, so I think this place in Nagoya is a bit weird. Let's finish our work as soon as possible and leave as soon as possible!"

Issac snorted and said: "Master I will make arrangements to arrive at the airport in the middle of the night, and the pharmaceutical factory will start trial production in the early morning. As long as the trial production is okay, let's leave this place sooner than planned!"

“Okay.” Charlie sighed and cursed in a low voice: “It’s f*cking annoying. I have never had to worry about it since I’ve been in Japan. If I don’t withdraw quickly this time, I might have to get involved in the disputes of the big Japanese family.”

Having said that, Charlie waved his hand and said: “Okay, you go back and tell everyone to stay alert to avoid Maching mistakes!”

“OK!”

After Issac finished speaking, he left Charlie’s room.

At this time, Tenglin was a little confused.

He and his two younger brothers felt that what Charlie said should be true.

There are four reasons.

First, it is impossible for Charlie to retreat unscathed after starting hands with Tenglin Qingtian;

Second, Charlie couldn’t detect the bug in the room, so he didn’t have to lie in the room and act;

Third, Charlie mentioned Tenglin Qingtian’s ninja shoes, and mentioned the short blade hidden in the ninja shoes! This feature is very secretive. With the three of them understanding Tenglin Qingtian, it is impossible for Tenglin Qingtian to use this hand to press the bottom of the box when it is not a last resort and must work hard!

Fourth, Charlie just said that he heard that there were many people fighting, and there was only one person Tenglin Qingtian. If many people were fighting, it would prove that he was ambushed by many people, so this is also right with his sudden disappearance. Ok.

After analyzing all of this, Tenglin gritted his teeth and said: “All of this shows a fact: He was targeted by another group of ninjas!”

Tenglin’s second junior brother blurted out and asked, “Brother, who do you think it will be?”

Tenglin thought for a moment, and said seriously: “We have never offended any ninja family on weekdays, so I guess that the one who did it on Qingtian is most likely the enemy of the Takahashi family!”

The third junior slapped his thigh immediately: “d*mn, is it the Ito family?!”

Chapter 1739

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

Machi Takahashi ended a whole day of talks with Zhifei and Zhiyu.

The talks between the two sides can be said to be very in-depth, and both sides are very satisfied with each other.

This is mainly because Zhifei and Zhiyu feel that this person Machi Takahashi is very good, and he does not need to guide him to kill the Ito family himself. He already has this consciousness.

Secondly, it is also because, in order to finalize the cooperation as soon as possible, Takahashi deliberately released a few percentage points of the profit share on the specific cooperation terms.

Zhifei originally wanted to talk about the next three-to-seven cooperation agreement. Whether it was with the Takahashi family or the Ito family, only 30% of the benefits would be given to them.

But what he didn't expect was that Takahashi himself reduced his expected profit share to 25%!

Even Zhiyu feels that the target of this cooperation can basically be finalized, that is, the Takahashi family. As for the Ito family, there is no need for negotiation.

But out of business reputation, the siblings decided to talk to the Ito family before reaching the final decision.

After all, before she came, she had made an appointment with someone from the Ito family, and she couldn't just kick the opponent out before she met.

Therefore, even if they just walked through the scenes, they couldn't let the Su Family talk.

This is the business field.

Even if he has sharpened his knives secretly and is about to slaughter the other person to eat meat, he will still be very polite on the surface, and even call him brothers and sisters.

Machi Takahashi is indeed a smart man.

He knew that the Ito family could never offer better terms than their own. Even if the Ito family could accept a 25% share of the bill, they couldn't take the initiative to propose to the Su family to unite with the Su family to kill.

After all, when doing business in peaceful times, most people are afraid to shout and kill. Even if they have this idea, they are still hiding in their hearts and afraid to speak out.

Takehiko didn't know the malicious plan of the Su Family, and naturally it was impossible to actively cater to their tastes.

But he is different.

He had made a mistake and had known Su's hole cards in advance.

Therefore, he believes that the Su family will eventually choose himself!

By then, the Takahashi family will also become the top presence in Japan!

Just when he was excited about this, he suddenly received a call from Tenglin.

Seeing that it was his call, Machi Takahashi immediately thought of the Chinese man who abolished his son's arms in the street!

This incident is simply the greatest shame the Takahashi family has suffered over the years! Every time he thinks about it, Takahashi really gets angry!

So he immediately connected the phone and asked in a cold voice, "Tenglin, how is the matter going? Where is that b@stard now?"

Tenglin hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, something has happened to accidents. If I guessed correctly, my junior brother should be dead now, and there is no dead body!"

Chapter 1740

"What?!" Takahashi blurted out in shock: "You mean, Tenglin Qingtian is dead? Who did it?! Is that the Chinese?!"

"No." Tenglin said with a gloomy expression: "There is a high probability that another ninja family did it!"

"Another ninja family?" Takahashi Machi frowned. "Did you provoke anyone?"

"No." Tenglin said: "Mr. Takahashi, our brothers have been doing things for you all these years. Except for your enemies, we have not made enemies outside, so I suspect that the other party should be directed against you!"

"Targeting me?!" Takahashi blurted out, "Who is targeting me? And the other party also used ninjas. It seems that the background is not small!"

Tenglin asked him: "Mr. Takahashi, do you think it is the Ito family? As far as I know, the famous Koga family in the ninja family has always been closely related to them!"

"This" Takahashi was also a little confused.

He didn't know what happened to Tenglin Qingtian and who was killed by him.

So I thought in my heart: "There are not many ninja families in China. Except for the ninjas of the Ito family, the remaining families seem to have no need to be an enemy of me."

"Could it be that the old dog, Takehiko Ito, is also plotting to kill me?!"

At this time, Machi Takahashi, because he originally wanted to kill Takehiko, he felt somewhat preconceived in his heart that Takehiko might also be planning to kill himself!

"It seems that everyone is a swordsman, and they want to put each other to death!"

Thinking of this, he blurted out: "This time the big Chinese family came to Tokyo to meet me first. Takehiko must be furious, maybe he is targeting me!"

"And I guess, he is now waiting to discuss cooperation with the Su family. In order to leave a good impression on the Su family, he dare not directly act on me at this time, so he acted on you first. I estimate Ito's purpose. It is to weaken my strength in advance, and then slowly clean me up!"

Tenglin hurriedly asked, "Mr. Takahashi, what shall we do now?"

Takahashi really thought about it for a long time, gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice: "Tenglin, you have been a little low-key these days, and you will send more people to watch the b@stard secretly and wait for my news. Once I successfully sign the contract with the Su family, I will first Get rid of that b@stard! To snow the shame of my Takahashi family!”

Tenglin immediately said: “Good Mr. Takahashi, I will definitely fulfill my mission!”

Machi Takahashi said again: “In addition, you will mobilize a group of people from your family to rush to Kyoto overnight!”

“Go to Kyoto?!” Tenglin asked in surprise: “Mr. Takahashi, why should I send people to Kyoto?”

Machi Takahashi said coldly: “Takehiko’s baby daughter has been recuperating in Kyoto since he was injured. You will monitor her closely. When I started with Takehiko, I didn’t want to leave any troubles, so his daughter Nanako must also dead!”

“Furthermore, it is good for me to monitor Nanako in advance. If Takehiko dares to attack me, then I will use his daughter as a threat and force him to dictate him! In this way, I will have double insurance!”

Tenglin immediately said: “I understand Mr. Takahashi, then I will notify the family, immediately arrange for personnel to go to Kyoto, and secretly monitor Takehiko’s daughter!”

Machi Takahashi gritted his teeth and said: “Tenglin, you must make sure that as long as I call, your people will immediately kill Nanako!”

Tenglin promised: “Don’t worry master, I should go all out!”

Takahashi hummed, and said, “Tenglin, don’t worry, after you cooperate with me to destroy the Ito family, I will definitely give you a very generous remuneration, and then a generous settlement allowance for your junior.”

Tenglin hurriedly said, “Then I would like to thank Mr. Takahashi in advance!”
