

Chapter 1743 - 1744 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1743 the “giant man” descended from the sky

Low-pitched words sounded quietly behind everyone.

Even if there are only a few words, but the majesty and arrogance in it are so rich.

Everyone turned around in doubt.

In an instant, everyone’s eyes fell to the front.

At the end of the field of vision, I saw a middle-aged man walking slowly in front of everyone.

He didn’t wear a suit, but a loose-fitting sportswear with a pair of Nike sneakers on his feet.

His dress is undoubtedly incompatible with the celebrities from all walks of life who are often in suits.

However, the pearl is covered in dust, but it is still difficult to hide its dazzling luster.

Some people, just by listening to their words and watching their deeds, will know that they are in high positions for a long time.

Just like the middle-aged man in front of him, with a broad forehead, a mighty face, and a sharp face, but with a kind of majesty that is not angered and pretentious.

“This...”

“This is...”

“The president is here?” Seeing this person and all the guests present were all surprised.

Among the pupils, the horror instantly enlarged.

“What?” “Chairman?” “You said, is it the global president of Jinyan Club, the head of the triad consortium?” “God!” “He is afraid that he hasn’t appeared in public for almost ten years. Isn’t it?” “Today, this immortal can’t bear it?” After hearing the identity of the visitor, many people present were shocked. They took a breath and sighed in surprise.

Whether a country or a power wants to be strong, it needs a strong leader, a core that can convince everyone.

Only such organizations and forces are truly powerful and capable of combat.

This is especially true for alliances with many forces such as the triad consortium.

If there is no core.

The so-called triad consortium is a pile of scattered sand, fighting each other, and will end sooner or later.

But if there is a leader who convinces everyone to admire, then the future of this consortium will naturally be a different picture.

Yes, the man in front of him is the Sanhe Consortium, now the only core and leader!

Have absolute control over the entire consortium.

...

“It is said that the president of this triad consortium is extremely mysterious.”

“The triad consortium that suddenly rose like a comet back then, completely integrated the scattered sand triad consortium with one person, and became famous for a while.”

“But then, the rapids retreated bravely and settled down on the triad consortium. After the leader took the throne, he retreated behind the scenes and stopped showing up.”

“When the Mayor of Winter Beijing took office the previous year, out of courtesy, he came to visit this person.”

“But in the end, he just didn’t even enter the door. Don’t mention seeing me.”

“Now, I didn’t expect that the mysterious president of the Sanhe Consortium would appear here?” There was a tumult around him.

Everyone talked about each other.

The words are full of admiration and respect.

After all, not to mention anything else, the name of the president of the Sanhe Consortium alone can crush everyone present.

..... "I'll go!" "The president is here?" "Now, that brat of Vietnam must be dead!" "How good is it to collect just now?" "Can I save my life? Said that just letting the Patriarch of the Miyamoto family bow his head to beg for peace is enough to make this Vietnamese boy blow for a lifetime."

.... "How can I pretend to be a force?" "Is still thinking about letting President Miyamoto pay for his life?" "How is it now?" "The global president of the triad consortium has been forced to come forward."

"Now, how do I see him play?" "A good deck of cards is so sloppy, it's a fool! ""Sorry pen~" When everyone trembled as the president of the Sanhe Consortium appeared, their gazes at Mark gradually became interesting.

Chapter 1744 is too young

Some people shook their heads and cursed.

I just think Mark is an idiot.

Just now, as long as he agreed to the Miyamoto family's request, he could completely retreat.

It's all right now, stealing chicken won't lose rice.

"Haha~" "The club has grown up!" "It's really going to kill him~" "Sister, just give it up."

"This is a poor force this time."

"The gods can't save him~" "As soon as he dies, I will let Grandpa punish you for collaborating with the enemy, the traitor, and the sin of eating inside and out! Sweeping you out and expelling you from the clan."

A few minutes ago, Qian Chi Yan was almost desperate.

She originally thought that this time her grandfather, and even the entire Miyamoto family, would be planted in the hands of this Vietnamese teenager.

But who would have thought, come from a dead end!

At the critical moment, the president of the Sanhe Consortium Managers' Association came here.

This is the president.

The absolute head of the Sanhe Foundation!

He can mobilize one-sixth of Japan's financial resources in a word.

Such a monstrous character, crushing a Vietnamese bastard to death, is it not a matter of grasping it?

Therefore, this time Qian Chi Yan absolutely did not think that Mark still had any chance of comeback.

Qian Chiyan smiled wantonly, a face that looked like a villain.

With the arrival of the president of the triad consortium, the situation here will undoubtedly reverse in an instant.

After all, although Intermediary Miyamoto is also the vice-chairman of the Sanhe Consortium, his rights are limited to his family, and he has no control over the other forces of the Sanhe Consortium.

But the president is different. He gave an order and all forces under the triad consortium would respond.

The energy he controls is undoubtedly ten times, a hundred times as much as Miyamoto's intermediary.

That's why, after seeing the president's intervention, everyone thought that Mark would die.

"President, you..."

You finally got it.

"I won't come again, I'm the vice president of the manager's club, I'm afraid I'll be killed!"

"Sure enough, Miyamoto's intermediary at this time also changed his previous respectful attitude towards Mark, and immediately walked up to the middle-aged man to pour out bitterness, full of resentment and accuse Mark of the charges. "This Vietnamese junior, insulting."

That's it for my Miyamoto family.

"He just insulted you and the entire triad consortium."

"He also said that if he wants to, he will destroy the entire triad consortium!"

"President, you can't stay here."

"If you let him retreat all over, how can my triad consortium gain a foothold in Japan?"

"I'm afraid it will completely become a laughing stock among the people."

“Miyamoto’s intermediary said with added enthusiasm and kept encouraging the middle-aged man to get rid of Mark. The middle-aged man nodded: “Well, I know the situation.

“Miyamoto, you should withdraw first.”

“Here, leave it to me.”

“The middle-aged man said lightly, with a calm expression. It was like what was in front of him, in his eyes, it was just a trivial matter. After speaking, he raised his head, and his cold eyes fell on Mark immediately. “Young man.”

, I heard that you are going to kill my vice president of the Sanhe Consortium Managers’ Association.

“Furthermore, listening to what you said just now, it seems that even the world’s first giant, the Chu family, doesn’t take it seriously?”

“I really don’t know, should you say that you are young and arrogant, or are you ignorant and fearless?”

“Speaking of this, the middle-aged man shook his head and smiled. “After all, he is still too young, with too little knowledge and too short vision.

“Young man, remind you that this world is huge.

“It’s a pity, your world is very small~”

After speaking, he raised his head, and his cold gaze immediately fell on Mark.

“Young man, I heard that you are going to kill the vice-chairman of the Sanhe Consortium Managers’ Association.”

“Also, listening to what you said just now, it seems that even the world’s largest wealthy Chu family doesn’t take it seriously?” “I don’t know. , Should you say that you are young and arrogant, or ignorant and fearless?” The middle-aged man shook his head and smiled.

“After all, it’s still too young, too shallow, and too short-sighted.”

“Young man, remind you that this world is very big.”

“Unfortunately, your world is very small~”
