

Chapter 1761: Prettier Than You

It was still summer break for the primary schools, but Ye Xueli did not want to return to the army base. Other than the inconvenience of entering and leaving the base, the people there were too dull. She had grown up there, and she did not like the monotonous life in it.

Even though it was already past ten o'clock, Ye Xueli was still sleeping. When she heard the knocks on her door, she thought it was her roommate. She even complained in her heart as she wondered why they did not have keys with them and had to bother her sleep. However, she saw Ye Jianguo when she opened the door.

"Eldest Sister, you look well. You don't go home during the summer vacation, and you're still sleeping at this time." Ye Jianguo shook his head when he saw Ye Xueli's messy hair. However, he was not there to complain about Ye Xueli's laziness.

"When Colonel Lu moved next door, weren't you quite curious about his family? Auntie said you asked her a lot of questions about him." Ye Jianguo grinned. "Guess who I met on the way here? You definitely won't be able to guess!"

Ye Jianguo did not wait for Ye Xueli's reply before he opened her mouth excitedly. "I met Colonel Lu's wife! Haven't you always been very curious about her? It's a pity that you didn't go home. Otherwise, you'd have met her. Do you want to go home with me to take a look later today?"

Ye Xueli did not believe it at all. She thought that she was beautiful. There were not many ladies as beautiful as her in a big city like Luo City, let alone that small army base. She did not lack suitors either.

"Mrs. Lu is better-looking than you. If you don't believe it, then forget it." Ye Jianguo chuckled. "I don't know where you get your confidence. Anyway, I think Mrs. Lu is much better-looking than you."

Ye Xueli felt as if there was a thorn in her heart. She thought Ye Jianguo was deliberately looking for trouble that day.

"Apart from being good-looking, a woman must also be smart and have a decent job. Otherwise, what good are good looks? Sooner or later, our faces will age. No matter how good-looking we are, we will still get old." Ye Xueli tidied her messy hair as she snorted.

"You are right. I agree with you on that point." Ye Jianguo nodded very thoughtfully. "Mrs. Lu is a good-looking person with talent and a decent job. She is a graduate student from Nanjiang Medical University. She is also her professor's assistant while she is still studying. She must be good at her studies, so her professor asked her to be his assistant. She will definitely go to a prominent hospital to be a doctor when she graduates.."

Chapter 1762: I'm Warning You

Ye Jianguo did not notice that Ye Xueli's expression had darkened. She looked terrifyingly gloomy. He sighed and said, "Colonel Lu is really lucky to be able to marry such a wife. She's good-looking and knowledgeable. When she graduates, she'll be a doctor with a bright future. No matter what, she'll have a brighter future than a primary school teacher like you. I'd be proud to have such a wife. If I were to marry such a wife in the future, I'd even laugh in my dreams."

"What's wrong with being a primary school teacher? A primary school teacher can't compete with a doctor?" Ye Xueli shouted.

"How can a primary school teacher compare to a doctor? Even though a teacher is quite respectable, a doctor saves lives and helps the injured. Their salary will definitely be higher than yours. However, I reckon that doctors will be very busy. Unlike teachers like you, they can't have three months of long holidays in a year."

Ye Jianguo's analysis was comprehensive, but it made Ye Xueli's face turn darker.

"Why does a woman need to earn so much money? Isn't it better to have the men make money? Busy women can't take good care of their families." Ye Xueli snorted. "Anyway, I think I'm a thousand times better than her. I'm prettier than she is, and my job is better than hers."

"None of your business!"

Ye Xueli scolded her stepmother in her heart. She blamed her for being too talkative. Why would she say that to Ye Jianguo?

"Let me remind you that Colonel Lu is married. His wife is not inferior to you at all. Don't think about those impossible things," Ye Jianguo said seriously.

"I'm good-looking and have a good job. Why is it impossible for me to be with Colonel Lu? So what if we get married? Didn't our father get a stepmother for us?" Ye Xueli knew that Ye Jianguo had seen through her thoughts.

"Father only married Auntie after Mother left many years ago. How is that the same? I'm warning you—people who destroy other people's families are the most disgraceful. If you dare to be such a person, don't blame me for not calling you my sister!" Ye Jianguo said those harsh words and turned to leave.

Chapter 1763: Chance Encounter

Ye Xueli was so angry that she broke her long fingernails. "Do you think I'd still like you in the future? You only love your fat little brother, right? When did you think of me as your sister? Just you wait—I'll marry Colonel Lu. When that day comes, don't beg me for anything! We'll see what happens when that day comes!"

Even though she had finished scolding her brother, Ye Xueli still sat down and cried in anger. The more she thought about it, the more pitiful she felt. Her father did not love her, and her brother had angered her.

Jiang Yao did not know what had happened between Ye Jianguo and Ye Xueli, When she arrived at the market, she bought some vegetables that she and Lu Xingzhi liked to eat. Then, she met a few children at the market.

Those were the children that Lu Xingzhi had sent to the Welfare Institute. Their leader was the boy Lu Xingzhi brought home that day. After not seeing him for a few months, the boy had gained a lot of weight.

Those children were selling vegetables at a stall. The stall was not big, It was just a place with a sack spread on the ground at the intersection. On top of it were fresh leeks and some vegetables such as beans and eggplants.

‘When Jiang Yao saw him, the boy recognized Jiang Yao. When he saw her, the boy stood up with some restraint.

Jiang Yao walked toward him and greeted him with a smile. “Why are you selling vegetables here?”

“We want to make money. It’s the Director’s birthday in a few days. We want to buy a birthday cake for the Director. We have no money, so we’re selling vegetables to make money,” the boy replied. It was obvious that he was a little nervous. As he spoke, he tugged at the corner of his shirt and quickly said,

“If it’s not possible, we’ll go back now.”

“It’s good that you have such intentions. Why not?” Jiang Yao raised her hand, touched the youngest child’s head, and said, “You came up with your way to earn money. You did the hard work to buy a birthday cake for your director. When your director receives it, he will be delighted. But the weather is too hot. You can’t keep basking in the sun all the time. Be careful not to get sunstroke. You must also pay attention to your safety when you go back.”

Jiang Yao did not ask them how they got to Jindo City. Those children had been in the community for many years, so their experience would not be much less than hers. They knew how to survive that place.

Since they wanted to make money, they would not use improper means to earn that Jindo City.

They respected and loved their director, so they would not use improper means to make money to buy a birthday cake for him.

After not seeing those children for a few months, Jiang Yao felt that their temperaments had developed positively. That was something that made her very happy. It proved that Lu Xingzhi’s expectations for them had not been disappointed—those children were worthy of his help.

Society might have tainted them, but their innate kindness had not changed.

“No, no, we brought water.” The small child showed her the bottle on his back. “We have water. It can relieve the heat. Furthermore, the Director cooks soup for us every day.”

“That’s good.” Jiang Yao nodded. “Continue with your work then. I’m going to buy some other vegetables. The sun is hot in the afternoon. You guys can go back early after you finish selling them.”

Jiang Yao waved at the children and left their stall. When she passed by a small store, she bought some ice cream. Then, she went to the children's stall and gave them the ice cream..

Chapter 1764: Need To Grumble

"This is your reward for being sensible. Eat them quickly." Jiang Yao handed the bag of ice cream to the youngest child and left without waiting for them to say anything else.

There was a shop that sold cars across from the bus station. It was not very big, and it did not have that many models. Since there were few customers, the shop's employees sat in front of an electric fan to cool off. When they saw Jiang Yao walk into the shop with bags of vegetables, they did not think much of her. It was obvious that she had just been to the market.

Jiang Yao did not like the cars they had in the shop; she liked the black car in the brochure. Jiang Yao did not have any interest in cars, so she did not know much about them. When she thought the price was suitable, she immediately made a down payment for the vehicle.

The salesperson stood at the store entrance and watched as the customer left. It was like a dream-like illusion. The customer had bought the car like she had shopped for an extra cabbage at the market.

He lowered his head to look at his watch and silently calculated. The customer had only spent less than ten minutes in the shop.

That was probably the most pleasant customer he had met in his career.

Jiang Yao was already at home when Lu Xingzhi returned. He must have heard that Jiang Yao had gone out in the morning, so the first thing he did when he got back was to look for Jiang Yao. He was worried that she was unfamiliar with the city. She might not know her way home.

'When he entered the study and saw Jiang Yao sitting cross-legged on a chair reading a book, he heaved a sigh of relief. He looked at the book's title and asked, "Did you go out to buy vegetables this morning?"

"Yes, I've already put the groceries in the fridge. I also bought some fruit. I even bought some pears. They're bigger and tastier than the ones you picked for me in the mountains." Jiang Yao returned the book to its original place. "I saw the children you sponsored at the market. They're much more sensible now. They're earning money to buy a birthday cake for their director. The sun is so hot, but none of them felt bitter about it. Oh, right! When I came back, I also bought a car. It's not in stock yet; it will arrive in two days. It's black, and it's the same brand as the car I was driving in Nanjiang City."

"Hmm, where did you buy it? Tell me the address, and I'll get someone to get you a special license plate." Lu Xingzhi did not ask how much it was. In fact, he did not even know what kind of car Lu Yuging was driving in Nanjiang City. Whether it was buying groceries or cars, it was fine as long as Jiang Yao

“By the way, did Chen Xuyao call you?”

Coincidentally, Lu Xingzhi’s phone rang just as he finished asking Jiang Yao. It was Chen Xuyao.

Jiang Yao burst into laughter. “Speak of the devil. Is that him?”

Lu Xingzhi nodded and let Jiang Yao pick up the phone.

“Chen Xuyao, Lu Xingzhi asked me if you called me just now. I didn’t even have time to answer before you called ” Jiang Yao teased Chen Xuyao. “So there’s no need to grumble..”

Chapter 1765: Chu Sheng’s Disappearance

“That’s because I called him first.” Chen Xuyao’s tone was somewhat helpless. “Jiang Yao, has Chu Sheng contacted you recently? I went to look for her this morning, but her neighbor told me that Chu Sheng went out yesterday afternoon and had not come back since. I called her, and her phone number indicated that she was not in the service area.”

“She ran away again?” That was Jiang Yao’s first reaction. Chu Sheng had followed Chen Xuyao to many places. Recently, their relationship seemed to have eased, and Chu Sheng had returned to Jindo City.

“She wouldn’t do that.” Chen Xuyao shook his head. “We made an appointment two days ago to have lunch today. After lunch, we were supposed to watch a movie. She promised that she would be fine, and she would even pick which movie to watch.”

Chen Xuyao said, “I don’t know why I’m always worried that something might happen to her. I’ve been feeling uneasy since last night.”

Jiang Yao and Chu Sheng were on good terms, so they had each other’s numbers. Sometimes, they would send text messages to one another. So, when Chen Xuyao could not get in touch with Chu Send, he looked for Jiang Yao to ask if she knew anything about the situation.

“Have you gone to her teahouse? Maybe the signal in the alley isn’t good? Or maybe she’s working and can’t pick up the phone? Chu Sheng is the teahouse owner, but she is also a top student in criminal psychology from studying abroad. Sometimes, she helps in some cases. Maybe she went to help with an urgent case?”

“No matter how urgent it is, she would have told me earlier as she had already made an appointment with me. She would tell me not to look for her today. She would not have made me wait like this.” Chen Xuyao’s tone was a little flustered. “Jiang Yao, do you believe in premonitions? I keep feeling that something is wrong. My heart is always flustered, especially after learning that she didn’t come home last night. I am even more afraid.”

“Ask Big Brother and the Chen family to look for her. You have a big network in Jindo City. Don’t scare yourself. Maybe she had gone to handle an emergency case.” Jiang Yao had never seen Chen Xuyao in a panic. It was clear how important Chu Sheng was to him.

It had only been one night, but he was already worried about Chen Xuyao.

“Te already spoken to Big Brother and asked the Chen family to help look for her.” Chen Xuyao thought, ‘I hope it’s like Jiang Yao said—she’s gone to handle an emergency case.’ When he found Chu Sheng, he would have to give her a good lesson. How old was she? She still made him worry.

Chen Xuyao did not talk much to Jiang Yao. He was in a hurry to look for Chu Sheng. After he hung up the phone, he went to Chu Sheng’s teahouse, ready to try his luck.

“If Chu Sheng contacts you, tell him immediately,” Lu Xingzhi instructed after Jiang Yao put down her phone. “He has been chasing after Chu Sheng recently. I don’t know what Chu Sheng is thinking. She’s always hiding from Chen Xuyao.”

“Didn’t Chen Xuyao get kidnapped with Chu Sheng when they were young?” Chu Seng could no longer speak after the kidnapping incident. She did not know what had happened, but Chu Seng was traumatized. Maybe Chu Seng wanted to hide from Chen Xuyao because of the incident. Pethaps she could think of the kidnapping whenever she saw Chen Xuyao.

That was what Jiang Yao thought. Chu Sheng was a courageous girl, but she could not speak for psychological reasons. Chu Sheng had a demon in her mind, and if she could not defeat it, she would never learn to talk again..

Chapter 1766: Where Are You Going?

Even though the Chen and Liang families did not control Jindo City, they could still find someone pretty easily. Previously, Chu Sheng had deliberately hidden from Chen Xuyao, but he managed to find her anyway. It was only a matter of time. After Lu Xingzhi finished speaking, he pulled Jiang Yao out of the bedroom. First, he went to the kitchen to see what she had bought.

“You cook, I’ll go back to the bedroom to laze for a while.” Jiang Yao leaned against the door. She watched as Lu Xingzhi took vegetables from the refrigerator that she had just bought. When she saw the fruits, her eyebrows raised. Suddenly, she said, “I bought ice cream for those children today.”

Lu Xingzhi said, “You’ve told me already.”

Jiang Yao wanted to tell him that.

“Even though it was so hot that it made me want to eat it, I still listened to you.”

Then, Lu Xingzhi raised his head to look at Jiang Yao. He smiled with a hint of indulgence and helplessness. From the look in his eyes, he finally understood what she meant when she said that.

She was not waiting for him to praise her. Instead, she was waiting for him to reward her with a plate of fruits.

It was apparent that she would be hot and thirsty when she came back since the weather was so hot. Jiang Yao had been incredibly hard-working when he was not around. However, as long as he was around, his wife would laze around and wait for him to feed her.

However, Lu Xingzhi liked her coquettish ways.

When a woman truly loved a man, she would reveal her true self in front of him without any reservations.

Lu Xingzhi took some fruits from the fridge and led Jiang Yao to the stove with one hand. He took a fruit knife and a vegetable board to peel apples for Jiang Yao. He also washed a bunch of grapes for her and then placed the fruits on the fruit plate.

Jiang Yao smiled brightly as she tiptoed and kissed the corner of Lu Xingzhi's lips. Then, she held the plate of fruits and turned to leave.

"Where are you going?"

Lu Xingzhi quickly pulled her back.

"I'm going to the living room to eat some fruits."

Jiang Yao gently shook the fruit plate in her hand.

"Just eat them here. I'll cook, and you'll accompany me." After saying that, Lu Xingzhi went straight to the living room to grab a chair and place it on the side. He did not mind her sitting there and getting in the way. He pressed Jiang Yao onto the chair so that she would sit there and accompany him.

The sound of cooking in the kitchen was not low. Jiang Yao's gaze was fixed on Lu Xingzhi. Her hand occasionally delivered some fruits to her mouth, but she focused on Lu Xingzhi.

The weather was hot. He was wearing a short-sleeve training uniform. The clothes seemed to be tailor-made for him. It fit him perfectly. He had broad shoulders and a slim waist. In addition, he was wearing an apron. He still looked very handsome, but he looked more homely than he did on the training field.

He was an elite soldier, but he was willing to put aside all his glory at home and cook for her. He could spare time to learn how to cook some of her favorite dishes to entice her to eat more.

Jiang Yao suddenly thought of an important matter that she had almost forgotten. "Uncle Liang called me this morning. He said that YN is going to war. Will it affect us if YN really goes to war?"

"It will affect border security to a certain extent," Lu Xingzhi said. "Uncle Liang said that there would be a war soon.. He wants Jiang Lei to come home as soon as possible, right?"

Chapter 1767: Work Hard

Master Sen was a militant and ambitious man. Someone like Master Sen loved power. They would not think about the damage that war would do to a country or how much damage it would do to the people of that country.

Therefore, Lu Xingzhi guessed that YN would go to war, but he did not expect it to be so soon.

“According to Uncle Liang, it will happen soon.” Jiang Yao did not know much about the country’s politics and military affairs. If Lu Xingzhi had not said that it would have an impact, she would not have known what effect it would have had.

“When the time comes, they won’t send you guys to help fight the war in YN, right?” Jiang Yao suddenly thought of that question.

Lu Xingzhi smiled. “General Min Pang isn’t so useless. The YN government leaders aren’t so useless. They probably won’t ask us to help. If they ask for our help, then it means our country will need the support. But with General Min Pang, it won’t come to that.”

Lu Xingzhi thought that he would most likely deploy several teams to the border to protect the lives and property of the people there when the time came. He would also be on guard against those who took advantage of the chaos.

However, Lu Xingzhi did not tell Jiang Yao about that. He kept his knowledge to himself. If he told her about it, it would only add to Jiang Yao’s worries.

Lu Xingzhi finally finished cooking to satisfy Jiang Yao’s cravings at noon. She was not disappointed. Finally, she ate until she was full. He even had to rub her stomach.

Lu Xingzhi still needed to go out in the afternoon. It was hot outside, so he did not drag Jiang Yao out for a walk. Instead, he dragged her around the house for a few rounds before agreeing to let her sit on the sofa in the living room to rest.

The television was on, but the two did not have much interest in watching the news. Jiang Yao leaned into Lu Xingzhi’s arm. His broad palm rubbed her stomach gently. His strength was neither too heavy nor too light. It felt so comfortable that she felt drowsy.

“Your body is almost recovered, right?” Lu Xingzhi suddenly asked.

Jiang Yao groaned in a daze. She felt Lu Xingzhi’s hand slide down a little from her stomach. She snorted discontentedly and moved his hand back. “Rub here.”

Lu Xingzhi chuckled in a low voice. He lowered his head slightly and kissed her eyelids. “You’re here now. After my closed-door training is over, we’ll work hard to have a child as soon as possible.”

Jiang Yao, who was about to close her eyes and fall asleep, suddenly perked up. “Why wait until your closed-door training is over? You can work hard for the next two days.”

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. He raised his hand and rubbed her head, saying, “I still have two months of closed-door training. Who will take care of you for the next two months if you get pregnant now? If you get pregnant after my training ends, I will take you to school every day. No matter what, that is my business. It is better if I work hard for you.”

How could he bear to let her take care of herself alone in the city when she was pregnant?

“You did not take any safety measures yesterday.”

Jiang Yao poked his arm and then touched her flat belly. “Maybe your son has already started to hide here.”

Perhaps she had said too much about the same thing, Jiang Yao gradually became thick-skinned. She would still be a little shy when talking about children in the past. At that moment, she was like a female hooligan, lying in Lu Xingzhi’s arms, blushing and saying all kinds of intimate things.

Chapter 1768: I’m Afraid You’ll Die Of Laziness

“Impossible.” Lu Xingzhi sneered and chuckled. “I know everything. If I say you’re not pregnant, then you’re not pregnant.”

“Don’t be so full of yourself. Be careful not to slap yourself in the face in the future.” Jiang Yao was amused by his expression, which she knew very well.

Jiang Yao looked forward to the child’s arrival much more than Lu Xingzhi. That guy was so full of himself. If she were really pregnant after his closed-door training, she would be able to give him a good scolding for his arrogant attitude.

‘When she was recuperating, Lu Xingzhi did not dare touch her because he was afraid of hurting her. Since she had recovered, Lu Xingzhi, who had been a celibate for a few months, could finally taste her again. He was like a wolf who did not know what it meant to be satisfied. Then, he had become even more beastly with his urges.

‘Two nights in a row had tormented Jiang Yao so much that she woke up late every morning. Before she went to bed every night, Jiang Yao had to worry whether or not he wanted sex.

Time seemed to pass very quickly after they parted ways. Every time they stayed together, time seemed to slip by like quicksand. In the blink of an eye, it was time for Lu Xingzhi to leave the army again.

Jiang Yao left the army base with Lu Xingzhi’s military car that morning. She got off in the city. After that, she watched as the vehicle drove Lu Xingzhi away in a direction she did not know.

Jiang Yao took a taxi from the downtown area and went straight to school. The weather was so hot that if it were not for the fact that people would starve to death if they did not eat, she would have stayed in the dormitory 24 hours a day and never come out.

Lu Xingzhi continued with the training. The students at the Luo City School had returned home for the holidays. Jiang Yao had nothing to do in Luo City, so she decided to return to Nanjiang City. She would stay until school started before returning to Luo City with Professor Ouyang.

‘There was nothing else in Nanjiang city, but at least she still had her family and friends.

After Jiang Yao made that decision, she gave Lu Yuqing a call. Lu Yuqing thought it was strange for Jiang Yao to take the initiative to say that she wanted to return to Nanjiang City.

"I thought that you would always stay in Luo City. Even if you did not have anyone to accompany you, you would still be willing to stay there." Lu Yuqing clicked her tongue. "I'm afraid that you will die in an accident one day, and I can't explain it to Xingzhi."

"What accident?"

Jiang Yao followed Lu Yuqing's line of questioning with confusion.

"I'm afraid you'll die of laziness," Lu Yuqing said.

Jiang Yao felt that Lu Yuqing's resentment toward her had probably gotten deeper. It was so deep that she did not know how to answer Lu Yuqing.

"When you come back, it's almost time for us to launch the first batch of antidepressants on the market. The company has arranged a charity banquet on that day. As the boss of Changkang Pharma, do you want to show up?" Lu Yuqing wanted to hear an affirmative answer.

However, Jiang Yao still gave the same answer, saying she did not want to do that.

"I'm not going. I've decided to keep a low profile. No one here knows that I'm the Divine Doctor student. No one stares at me. I find that I like that kind of relaxed life now." Jiang Yao genuinely liked that kind of life where no one would stare at her.

"Okay."

Lu Yuqing did not force or hope that the slacker would agree.

After hanging up the phone with Lu Yuqing, Jiang Yao called the car shop owner and asked about her car. After learning that the car would be ready to be picked up in two days, Jiang Yao stayed in Luo City for two more days..

Chapter 1769: Collision

She waited until two days later when the sun had set and took away the day's heat before she took a taxi to the car shop.

Ah Lu and Big Ke got into another car after Jiang Yao left the school and followed Jiang Yao from a distance. The two of them protected Jiang Yao as usual and did not leave Jiang Yao's side. When Jiang Yao greeted the military officers at the bus stop in front of the shop entrance, the two of them stood more than 100 meters away and pretended to be waiting for someone by the roadside.

The bus stop for rides to the army base was right in front of the shop. It was not strange to meet soldiers there. After Jiang Yao exchanged a few words with them, she took the car keys from the boss.

comment

Lu Xingzhi said that he would get her a special license plate. That license plate was not for the army base but also because of the unique number.

It was meant to tell everyone not to provoke her as she was a member of the army base, and she was also a rich and powerful person.

The car plate was a little flashy, but Jiang Yao did not have any dissatisfaction with the car she had bought. After taking away the car keys, she gave a hand signal to the nearby Big Ke and Ah Lu, then got in the car and drove away.

The location of the military base was different from the direction of the university. She would have to drive through half the city to go to the army base from the car shop.

As Moe sat in the passenger seat, he played a game on Jiang Yao's phone. His hair stood on end when a call came through. However, when he noticed that Jiang Yao had glanced at her phone, Moe jumped onto Jiang Yao's shoulder, answered the call, and pressed the phone beside Jiang Yao's ear.

"Director Jiang, we're being followed. The other party seems to have three cars. Not good, Director Jiang! One of the cars overtook our taxi and headed straight for you! Director Jiang! They are blocking our path! *

Ah Lu did not finish his sentence, but the situation had gotten more dangerous.

Ah Lu and Big Ke did not have time to listen to Jiang Yao's reply before a loud sound came from the front. The taxi driver suddenly stepped on the brakes and said in horror, "There's a collision in front of us! A minivan crashed directly into a black car. The black car has hit the barrier, and it is wrecked. I don't know what happened to the people inside. It's too scary. That minivan has done that on purpose, right? It passed us and rushed toward the black car."

Big Ke and Ah Lu's hearts pounded violently. They had never felt that way before, not even when they were in the mercenary group on a mission.

The two of them quickly got out of the car. However, they were blocked by the people in the two cars in front of them and some other passersby.

"Director Jiang! Director Jiang!" Big Ke forced his way out of the car while Ah Lu continued to shout at Jiang Yao on his cell phone.

No matter how good Big Ke was, there were too many people, and they had blocked their car. Big Ke grabbed his gun and fired two shots into the sky.. He roared, "Those who don't want to get shot, get out of the way!"

Chapter 1770: The Order

Those two shots had stunned those people. A few seconds later, those people quickly retreated and returned to their original cars.

Then, Big Ke and Ah Lu ran toward the black car that had fallen on the side of the barrier. They discovered that Jiang Yao's figure had already disappeared from the car, and the van that had crashed into Jiang Yao's car was also gone.

There was a small pool of blood on the black car's driver seat. When Big Ke noticed it, he shouted at Ah Lu, 'It doesn't look like much blood. Director Jiang's injuries shouldn't be serious. Then, Ah Lu said, "Looking at the position, there might be some blood on her arm. Director Jiang's reaction is faster than we thought. She should be okay, but the people in the van must have taken her. *

"The person who blocked us in must have been an accomplice." Big Ke gritted his teeth. By the time they got to the car to save Jiang Yao, those people had already taken her away.

"Young Master Lu is locked in his training, so we can't contact him now. We must look for his leader then; perhaps he can find Young Master Lu." Ah Lu immediately pulled Big Ke back to the taxi, and the two of them asked the driver to turn around and head to the military base as soon as possible.

'When Jiang Yao heard Ah Lu's call, she had already noticed the car behind her before it crashed into her car. She even heard them speak.

"Crash into her and force her to stop! Our car has been modified, so there won't be any problems!"

Jiang Yao quickly took measures to save herself. Even though she did not have the time to abandon the car, she only suffered a minor injury. She only suffered a small cut on her arm.

With Jiang Yao's ability, it was not difficult for her to escape, but Jiang Yao wanted to know who had planned that attempt in such a short time since she had just arrived in the city.

Furthermore, she saw quite many people had participated in the kidnapping. Who could arrange such a thing in such a short time?

Jiang Yao also heard them mention that they wanted to kidnap her and send her to stay with another woman. It meant they had also kidnapped another woman.

Jiang Yao changed her ming; she decided not to run away immediately.

She had a gun on her, and she had Moe with her. There were still some things in her system lab that were more secretive and useful than the neurotoxin. Big Ke and Ah Lu were behind her, and if they could not find her, then they would go to the army.

Therefore, Jiang Yao was not worried at all.

Her kidnappers quickly carried her into the modified van; they casually threw her in the back. The van moved pretty quickly as if it had grown wings, and it was heading in a direction that Jiang Yao did not understand.

About two hours later, the car finally stopped. It stopped at a factory. Jiang Yao took a look at the location. She was a little surprised to see that it was a gemstone processing factory.

'There were some stones piled up in the corner. Some of the workbenches even had half-polished jade stones. The closer the workbench, the better the jade stones were.

“The order is to send her to the room on the third floor, in the same room as the other woman. Get a few more people to guard her. If anything goes wrong, we won’t be able to pay for it..
