

Chapter 178

He was a little guilty when he said this. In fact, he didn't intentionally hide it from Alyssa. He was just worried that Alyssa would be worried if she found out!

Alyssa knew that this matter was definitely not as simple as Leon said. Despite Leon's relaxed tone, things were definitely not that simple.

She wanted to figure out what was going on. If Leon wouldn't tell her, then she would find out on her own.

She pretended to believe Leon's words and said softly, "Okay, it seems that nothing is wrong. It's getting late. Let's go to bed."

Leon smiled, "Do you sleep so early?"

"You're the one who said I should go to bed early when I'm pregnant. You don't even let me go to school. It's no fun for me to be home every day, except for sleeping and gaining weight!"

Although Alyssa said so, she was very unhappy. But Leon was right, too. He couldn't just tell her about the danger and then let her worry about it.

She could feel that Leon wanted to protect her. She was actually touched.

Leon understood Alyssa's meaning and knew that Alyssa was still doubting what he said.

He went over and took Alyssa's hand, "Okay, then you just sleep and get fat. I never cared about you getting fat. In my opinion, it's good that you gained some weight. Alyssa, I want you to be happy with me, okay?"

Alyssa looked at Leon and thought to herself that she would only be happy if he made her feel at ease!

Alyssa sighed, "I'm really tired. You sleep with me. I know you're the best, so you have to stay with me."

"Okay."

Hearing no unhappiness in Alyssa's voice, Leon just carried Alyssa to bed.

The next day, they had breakfast together.

After Leon left, Alyssa started to investigate Leon.

Because she knew that Leon was the little boy who saved her life a long time ago, she really hadn't investigated Leon. It took her a lot of searching to find out something about the Hunters.

The information she found out was similar to what she knew originally.

Kevin founded Hunter Group.

Leon's mother died very young. Later, Leon's father married Audrey, who then gave birth to George, solidifying her position at the Hunters.

The information showed that Leon and Audrey didn't get along, which was all true.

But there was a prerequisite, and that was Audrey's bad attitude towards Leon.

Alyssa searched for a long time without finding out anything about Leon's mother. She only knew that Leon's mother's name was Amelie. Alyssa also saw her photos when she was young. She was the kind of beautiful woman who was cold and aloof.

In the photo, she held little Leon. There was no smile on her face.

Alyssa thought of the environment Leon grew up in and looked down at her belly. When she and Leon's child was born, she would definitely give this child the warmest love and make this child feel warm enough.

Alyssa smiled just thinking about it. She now felt that she was the happiest person in the world.

She was blessed to be with the person she loved and was happy to be pregnant with the child she wanted.

So, such a quiet and beautiful life must not be broken.

Alyssa tried her best to find out about the Koherrs.

She checked for two hours but found nothing.

She felt she needed help. So she talked to Wendy and went to the Graham's.

At this time, her mom and dad should be at Graham Group.

Only Grandpa was home.

Alyssa went to see her grandfather. Seeing that he was still in good spirits, she came up to him, "Grandpa, I came to see you."

"Are you here to see me? If you wanted to see me, you would have come a long time ago. I think you have something else to ask me. What is it?"

Milo read Alyssa's mind. She smiled in embarrassment.

Milo took Alyssa's hand, "Since when do you start hiding things from me? If there's something you need to know, just tell me. You're the Grahams' only kid. If there's anything you need from me, just tell me."

Milo felt a little uncomfortable watching his granddaughter get distant from him. Although Alyssa was married, how could she not be close to her grandfather?

Alyssa noticed her grandfather's mood. She looked at her grandfather and whispered, "Grandpa, are you angry?"

"What do you think? My granddaughter is not close to me now. Do you think I will be happy?"

"I don't want to bother grandpa and mom and dad. Grandpa, I've already caused you guys a lot of trouble. Before, it was me who was too ignorant and didn't recognize Ryan's true face. Otherwise, I wouldn't bring so much criticism to the Grahams."

Alyssa was so sorry for what happened before, so she didn't want to cause trouble for the Grahams anymore.

"Then you must come to me today because you've encountered something you can't solve!"

Alyssa nodded seriously.

Milo smiled. He was still happy to see that Alyssa still knew to go home to her family at the critical moment.

Looking at her grandfather's happy look, Alyssa was even more embarrassed.

"Grandpa, I'm sorry. I've been getting along well with Leon all this time. I also have a child. We're really good, so don't worry."

"You want me to be relieved, huh? Then you come here and sit in front of me. Tell me what happened to you?"

Alyssa looked at her grandfather and said that Leon had been followed recently and also what Leon had told her yesterday.

After hearing Alyssa's words, Milo looked into Alyssa's eyes, "You're worried about Leon?"

"Yeah."

Milo smiled and said, "What do you want to know? I'll tell you what I know."

Alyssa was happy, "Grandpa, I want to know about the Koherrs, about Leon's mother."

"The Koherrs?" Milo looked at Alyssa and said softly, "The Koherrs started by running the bars before. They weren't in A City before, though. I know very little about them."

"Is that all?" Alyssa was a little anxious. She actually wanted to hear more information.

Milo smiled, "I heard that the Koherrs didn't follow the normal channels. How could they possibly support such a huge family by running the bars?"

"I see."

Alyssa understood. She looked at her grandfather, "Then why did the people from the Koherrs want to see Leon this time?"

"I don't know about that. But something did happen to the Koherrs some time ago. Leon's grandfather was sick, quite seriously. The Koherrs only have two children, Amelie and Colton. Colton is vulnerable on his own, so I guess the Koherrs are not in a good position right now. I guess the Koherrs' relatives might want to seize the Koherrs' property."

"Then if that's the case, Leon's uncle must want Leon to go back to settle the Koherrs' business. Leon won't go back. He has left the Koherrs, and he has never cared about the Koherrs all these years. Why did they ask Leon to go back at this time? Leon can't go back, or he'll be in danger."

Alyssa quickly sensed the danger. She didn't want Leon to be in danger.

Milo looked at Alyssa and suddenly smiled.

Alyssa looked at her grandfather, "What are you smiling at?"

"Even if you want Leon to go, will his grandfather let him go back? Don't forget Leon's last name! How could he possibly go to deal with the Koherrs' things!"

"Leon won't go."

She knew Leon.

He wouldn't care about the Koherrs.

And besides, the Hunters' business was expanded by him little by little, and it wasn't easy for Hunter Group to get to where it was.

Alyssa thought about it and agreed with her grandfather.

Kevin valued Leon.

He wouldn't let Leon go to the Koherrs.

When she thought about it, Alyssa was relieved.

She looked at her grandfather and smiled, "Grandpa, you're right. No one is more understanding than you."

"Alyssa, you really like Leon, don't you?"

"Of course."

Alyssa nodded.

"Well, whatever happens in the future, you'll have to face it together. Alyssa, you have to be prepared. In the future, there are more things for you to face more than just the Koherrs."

Milo noticed the determination in Alyssa's eyes. She didn't look like a half-hearted person. But even so, he had to remind her of these things.

Alyssa looked at her grandfather with some confusion.

Milo looked at Alyssa's confused gaze, "Later, you will know. It's late. You should go back now!"

"Grandpa, you said Leon will be in danger, right?"

"Maybe he will, maybe he won't. When he is in danger, what are you going to do? Alyssa, you can go back to the Grahams. The Grahams will always be your home. Grandpa won't let you suffer."

Milo felt that his granddaughter was still too young. If she really couldn't accept this, she could go home. The home was always a safe haven.

But Alyssa shook her head, "Grandpa, I know you mean well. But since I'm with Leon, we have to stay together. I don't think there's anything wrong with being with Leon. On the contrary, I think it's good to be with Leon. No matter what I have to face, I will face it with him."

Milo nodded, "You have to be prepared. If you have any problems, come to me. I will do my best to help you."

Hearing Grandpa's words, Alyssa felt warm inside. She really wanted to give Grandpa a big hug right now.

Although Grandpa was old, he was not an indiscriminate person.

"Then do you want to have lunch at home today? I'll have the maid cook your favorite dish for you."

"No, grandpa, I want to see Leon. He has been very busy these days. Only when I see him can I feel at ease. I always feel that something is not right about this."

"Okay, you go then! By the way, did you drive here? Your belly is getting bigger and bigger every day. In the future, try not to drive."

"Got it, grandpa. I'll take care of myself. Don't worry."

"Good." Milo was finally relieved.
