

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 180

Realizing that Liam Lu and Shiyue were looking at them at the same time, Du Lanfu gently pulled the jacket on her shoulders and explained softly.

“Sorry, I can’t fall asleep and get up early. I didn’t mean to hear you talking.”

She looked at Liam Lu sincerely with an innocent look.

“Mr. Lu, you have been sitting here all night, what can I do to help?”

Liam Lu suddenly squinted his eyes, looked Du Lanfu from top to bottom, and suddenly pulled his lips, spitting out a word unclearly.

“Have.”

A week later, Logan Fu completely improved.

But what Logan Fu did that day left Zoey’s heart with lingering fear. Therefore, so far, I will not mention bringing news to Berven City, I only hope that Liam Lu can find her and father as soon as possible.

As a result, as soon as the door opened early in the morning, Zoey Gu looked up and saw Logan Fu standing outside.

Without thinking about it, she raised her hand and closed the door.

“Hey, don’t don’t!”

Logan Fu squeezed over with a cheeky face, stretched out a leg to block the crack in the door, and pushed the door open, “Little girl, stay calm!”

Zoey Gu looked at him coldly, her eyes calm and distant.

Logan Fu suddenly appeared wounded with poisoned arrows, leaned his head back on the door panel, looked at her pitifully and said.

“I took back what I said that day, but I definitely didn’t mean to humiliate you. I really like you.”

Zoey Gu closed his eyes.

“Logan Fu, I will...”

Before she could speak, Logan Fu interrupted her directly.

“I don’t want to listen if I refuse, you can’t even deprive me of my right to like you.”

After Logan Fu finished speaking, he suddenly approached Zoey Gu and raised his eyebrows and said meaningfully.

“It’s better for us to make an agreement.”

“I personally send you back to Berven City. But if you are injured at Liam Lu and plan to leave him, you must give me a chance to chase you as a wife.”

Zoey Gu was overjoyed immediately.

“You want to send me back to Berven City?”

But when he heard the second half of Logan Fu’s sentence, her face suddenly became cold, “Liam Lu will not hurt me.”

“Logan Fu, I do it for your own good. Even if you are serious, don’t waste time on me. There can be no results.”

Even if Liam Lu really hurt her in the future, that beloved would not be Logan Fu.

As a result, Logan Fu laughed after listening.

“Is there any result? How can I know if I don’t try?”

Logan Fu did what he said.

Not only did she take her on the boat back to Berven City that same day, she also sent someone over to take care of her poor father.

Before leaving, Zoey Gu repeatedly assured his father.

Within a week of returning to Berven City, he will definitely use the best way to take his father home.

It’s just that after many years, every time Zoey Gu thinks of this moment, there will be a feeling of pain and regret.

The ship floated on the sea for two days, and finally arrived at Berven City.

Logan Fu sent Zoey’s resignation all the way to the city center, but Zoey Gu refused him to continue sending her.

“Logan Fu, thank you for these. It’s very close to the hometown. I can just take a taxi to go there by myself.”

Besides, she also wanted to give Liam Lu a surprise.

Logan Fu’s face was still grinningly, watching her speak meaningfully.

“I live in Berven City Hotel. If you have nowhere to go if you cry for a while, I can take you in.”

Zoey Gu frowned.

Suddenly, I saw that not far behind Logan Fu, the huge TV wall suddenly lit up, and the voice of the hostess came slowly from inside.

“Today, the whole city was sensational because of the marriage with the ex...”

Bang!

The sound of Logan Fu falling on the car door instantly overshadowed a person’s name.

“It is suspected that the marriage has changed. He brought Xinhuan to the streets of the city in a high-profile manner, intimate. There are many rumors that Xinhuan is the biological mother of his child...”
