

Chapter 180

If you don't enter the Department, you have to say hello to the director of the medical department. Doctors who have no fixed department are temporarily under the leadership of the medical department. If there are problems during the transfer period, they are also handled by the medical department. It's business for Zhang Fan to attend the award ceremony. The director of the medical department directly gave a three-day holiday, which is the treatment of top technicians.

On Friday afternoon, the government's largest auditorium was full of people. All kinds of colored flags and slogans were hung all over the hall. This auditorium is the product of the times. It was built when the Soviets helped build it. The name of the hall is friendship hall! A Russian style architecture, everywhere shows rough madness.

Because he is the recipient, he must report to the organizing committee first. The award covers a wide area and almost involves all systems. Young people come to the award ceremony, because they have to sit in the auditorium, otherwise the leadership face will not look good, and all units have to attend the meeting.

The auditorium is really too big. It's not a problem to sit a thousand people. There are also people in the municipal hospital. A group of nurses were assigned to attend the meeting. They were assigned to take a rest. The little girls complained!

This kind of meeting is similar to the mode of the party. Everything needs to be rehearsed in advance. Except that the leaders do not need rehearsal, there is rehearsal on how to receive the award and how to shake hands. Moreover, the group leader of the organizing committee specially explained that if the leaders do not take the initiative to speak, they cannot speak to the leaders.

There are more than 20 people who accept the awards, not only outstanding young people, but also model soldiers! According to the rehearsal, Zhang Fan stood second to last in the team. On his right is a strong man in police uniform and on his left is a cold and beautiful beauty of the customs.

After rehearsing several times, Zhang Fan is a little tired. It's too much. An award should be paid so much attention. What's more annoying is that the strong man on the right keeps talking to him for a clear purpose. In order to attract Zhang Fan's customs sister on the other side, or the position is fixed, it is estimated that Wang Wang must change the position with Zhang Fan.

"Man, what's your unit? Our criminal police just can't. We can't wear suits like you at a meeting. Are you married? I'm still single! But the unit has been divided into houses!" The strong man is estimated to have been single for a long time. No matter what Zhang Fan's reaction, he almost has to explain his ancestors for three generations.

Zhang Fan glanced around at the customs sister. If she wasn't stupid, she should also know what the strong man meant, but the sister looked cool and didn't mean to talk at all.

Zhang Fan really can't stand the pain of being stubbed. The people's police are respectable and it's poor to be single. Zhang Fan decides to help him, "Oh! Our uniforms don't look good. Unlike you and this lesbian, wearing uniforms is heroic. You should be a systematic leader. "

The sister of the customs is also in uniform. Zhang Fan builds a bridge, and the rest depends on the strong man himself. Single Wang glances at Zhang Fan gratefully. If the occasion is not wrong, it is estimated that he can hold Zhang Fan with gratitude.

"We are not a system, but we are very close. Comrade, you are from that port."

"Chalk." The voice is nice, but it's too concise. The sister frowned and said.!

"Great, I'm chakirko's, we're not far!" Zhang Fan almost laughed. The distance between the two counties is almost 500 kilometers!

The strong man asked three questions, and the customs sister answered at most. Zhang Fan was relieved. Rehearsal has been done many times. Now he is waiting for the leader. Zhang Fan enters the system and begins to practice the operation in the system.

To enter the endocrinology department, because there is no point to open the internal medicine, and there is no way to practice. However, the thyroid surgery in general surgery is related to endocrinology. Zhang Fan began to practice. Although he has done it before, he has not done much in this surgery.

Zhang Fan, who had just got the system at that time, was worried that the system would suddenly disappear that day, so it was better to have a bird in hand than a thousand birds in the forest. Orthopaedic surgery is the surgery he practiced most. Later, after upgrading to general surgery, he also practiced the surgery of large organs, which has not been considered for the time being.

General surgery is also very irritable. Those who can diagnose are treated according to the diagnosed diseases. Those who cannot diagnose are exploratory laparotomy. Most of the surgical records of general surgery will make a question mark after the first diagnosis when making the preliminary diagnosis, which means that it is not a diagnosis, because the abdominal organs are too complex and no one dare to make a diagnosis before laparotomy.

Although it is to take off your pants and fart, a patient with obvious tenderness in the appendix will also write an acute appendicitis attack in the first diagnosis, and then make a question mark. This is also a popular writing method in recent years. I don't know whether the diagnostic technology has regressed or the doctor's level has regressed!

Thyroid surgery is not difficult, and the probability of injury is not small. The injury rate of recurrent laryngeal nerve is as high as 0.5%. The nerve innervates the motor nerve. Rough action, careless sewing and pulling during operation can cause its injury. Mild injury can make the patient hoarse, and more serious is asphyxia. This thing is too delicate. It's a little bleeding. If you press it, you may have hoarseness.

"You belong to that unit." It is estimated that the customs sister is annoyed by the strong man. She wants to pull Zhang Fan into the water. After asking twice, Zhang Fan is in a daze "Install!" The sister gnashed her teeth angrily, because the power of single Wang was too powerful. The customs sister pushed Zhang Fan with her elbow and asked.

"Me?" Zhang Fan asked a little uncertain.

"Yes, you are from that unit." The sister stopped talking after asking. She was also changing the topic, because the police brother began to care about her address!

"Oh, I'm in the hospital. The nature of my work is different from yours. You are quite similar." Dead Taoist friends don't die. A strong man talks about it in pieces. Zhang fan can't stand it. He continues to bring the topic to them.

That is, this is a special occasion. If it were normal, it is estimated that this girl would have thrown her face long ago. She has white skin, slender figure, a little smoke Dai, full of collagen, swan like neck without any traces of manual treatment. She is so arrogant that she can stand in this place. Judging from these Zhang Fan, first of all, this girl is not old, no more than 25, It is estimated that either father or mother is powerful.

Turn around and look at the strong man. His face is covered with wind and frost. You can see the scars after sunburn and frostbite, his clear eyes and anxious look. It must be meritorious to be able to participate in the award of outstanding youth in the criminal police team. Zhang Fan is really worried about his wallet and wants to persuade him. However, looking at his strong body and estrous look, Zhang Fan held back and didn't open his mouth for fear of being beaten!

The specification is relatively high, which is directly the award ceremony attended by the top leaders of the municipal Party committee. The leaders spoke for more than 40 minutes, and then the leaders of relevant management ports spoke on the stage. The personnel receiving the award are arranged to sit and wait backstage and listen carefully to the leaders' conversation. The level is still very high. After drinking for such a long time, it actually means that young people should get less salary! More dedication!

When the leader spoke, the strong policeman named Zhu Bing finally stopped. Zhang Fan secretly looked at the girl on the other side and was given a white look! Zhang Fan doesn't care. He has a girlfriend anyway.

Finally, the leaders finished their speech and began to present awards. All the young people raised their heads, and under the flash, a group of young people who had just faded their green faces were solemn and solemn.

That is to say, laughter is laughter. Special music and specially created atmosphere make everyone involuntarily serious. It's Zhang Fan's turn. The leaders of the municipal Party committee have very soft hands and don't feel the hard hand of ordinary men.

"Hard work!" In front of everyone, he would say.

"The leader has worked hard!" This sentence is not trained. It is estimated that the leaders have enjoyed listening. After the first person said that the leaders are hard, the people behind them are all hard.

A certificate of merit, a certificate, and a 5000 yuan bonus, but the money will be directly sent to the unit by the finance department after the meeting.

Exit, end, prepared for three days, just for these seconds! It's really cool! Slowly exit, Zhu Bing walked slowly and stopped Zhang Fan and the customs girl, "it's fate to meet. Let's have dinner together!" Don't worry. If you miss this opportunity and want to see you again, it's unlikely!

"You two go and eat. I'll forget it!" Zhang Fan still plans to go back to the dormitory early and have thyroid surgery several times. Because he also knows that the endocrinology director is very strict. He enters the Department for ward rounds. If he is hung at the door of the ward to turn over a book, it will be really embarrassing.

"Do you know me?" The customs girl is really angry. Now that the meeting is over, she can't bear it. A policeman hates like a fly. The guy who is said to be a doctor is not only slow in reaction, but also always talks about her. So when she heard Zhang Fan's words, she stared at Zhang Fan and said.

Zhang Fan sat on wax and the girl was angry. He could see it! At this time, I saw Tang Jingjing coming over: "Doctor Zhang, it's good. They are all outstanding young people. They should be treated!"

"Sister Tang!" Zhang Fan doesn't have to be embarrassed. She quickly greets Tang Jingjing. Since she didn't serve Kang Hua as a secretary, Kang Jingjing has cleaned up more conservatively than before. It seems that she has been thirty!

"Sister Tang!" Customs girl, she said strangely after seeing Tang Jingjing.

"Lu Renjia!" Tang Jingjing was even more surprised, the daughter of the deputy of the general office of the municipal Party committee!

"What are you?" Tang Jingjing looked at the three and asked.

"Let's talk about how we can better contribute!" Zhang Fan said quickly.

"What! They both want to ask me out. " Since acquaintances set acquaintances, the girl was not angry, but she had a small mind and exposed Zhang Fan's lie.

"Oh, Doctor Zhang, it's not good." Tang Jingjing said with a narrow smile, but why is it bad, but he didn't say it? He didn't say it. He left three points in his speech. Xiao Tang has begun to move towards old Tang!

Tang Jingjing is lucky. She is now the deputy director. Lu Renjia's father introduced his nephew in the finance office to Tang Jingjing. Lu Renjia was there for the first time.

"Hehe, I was found by sister Tang. That's OK. You talk. I'll go first!" Zhang Fan didn't explain. He was eager to get out.

"Why am I reluctant to treat when I come?" Tang Jingjing pretended to be angry and said that she was a little youthful. Officialdom really honed people!

"Well! No, actually, I want to invite you alone! Then we can only work together now. " At this time, the strong criminal police can't pull it out.

"Come on, brother, let me pay?" Zhang Fan said on purpose and worked hard, but now Zhu Bing has let go! Zhang Fan doesn't know whether to harm or help others!

Zhang Fan drove and Zhu Bing lost his words after getting on the bus! Pressure, he can also see that Tang Jingjing is a leader with a position, and Zhang Fan's car gives him a lot of pressure. Their director is a bully. On stage, they were all outstanding young people. After stepping down, the reality cruelly told him that he was a rich outstanding young man!

"It seems that your doctor has not received less red envelopes. He can drive millions of cars." Lu Renjia is still young after all. She doesn't know that talking like this will provoke people innocently.

"Even a thousand a day is not enough now! Hehe, what would you like to eat? " Zhang Fan digress.

"Eat hot pot! Be lively. What do you say, Ren Jia? " Tang Jingjing said.

"Well, let's eat hot pot. I haven't eaten it for a long time. I'm a little greedy."

If you eat hot pot, you'll be a little fat sheep. Although the taste is average, you can win in a good environment. Zhang Fan drove the car. The weather became cold and a thin layer of ice formed on the road. Although the speed was not high, he saw several car accidents along the way.

After parking the car, the two women muttered something. Zhang Fan and Zhu Bing walked behind them. As soon as I got to the door of the little fat sheep, I heard a scream, "ah!"

Zhang Fan looked forward and saw a woman fall. An old lady nearby tried hard to help her up. When Zhang Fan was still stunned, Zhu Bing ran out with a vigorous step. This is the difference between training and untrained.

"What's the matter?" Zhu Bing ran to him and asked.

"Belly! Belly! " The woman who fell was so nervous that she pointed to her stomach and said. Zhang Fan and two women also arrived. Zhang Fan's heart sank when he saw it!

The woman who fell down is a pregnant woman. It is estimated that it is almost time to give birth. Look at the legs again, see red" No, it hurts! My child! Ah! Coming out! Ah! " The woman turned pale with pain and shouted in horror.

Zhu Bing wanted to help, but he didn't know what to do when he saw the situation. Lu Renjia was stunned. Tang Jingjing hurriedly said, "Doctor Zhang, I'll call?"

"It's too late. The pulley is blocked. I don't think I can get to the hospital. Call the hospital to send someone. " Zhang Fan looked around. The temperature was too low, so he couldn't. He looked up again and said to the people watching around: "I'm a doctor in the municipal hospital. Come and help me carry my mother into the hot pot shop!"

As soon as they heard that it was a doctor, a group of men came up. Regardless of the lack of blood, they directly helped the pregnant woman into the hot pot shop.

"Ah! Hey! Hey, what are you doing? " Zhang Fan commanded the crowd to carry the pregnant women into the box. The female manager of the hall had never seen anyone carrying people to eat hot pot. Once again, the woman who was carried was still bleeding. She stood at the door of the box and was not allowed to enter, and shouted loudly.

"I don't have time to explain. I'm sorry. Zhu Bing, you solve it. Sister Tang goes to find hot water and clean towels. Hurry up. Put the pregnant woman on the table and remove the glass turntable. " After Zhang Fan finished, he said to the crowd who followed him, "are there any nurses? No nurses, some women who had children came in. Men are out! "

The men who helped came out, and several middle-aged women came in. They were all enthusiastic people! There are still many enthusiastic people in society" Several eldest sisters, come and give me a hand. "

At this time, I heard Zhu Bing say loudly, "I'm a policeman. There are pregnant women who are going to have a baby! This is my police card. " Zhu Bing said to a steward with his certificate.

"I'm not unreasonable, but this is a hot pot shop. Have children, alas! Why is it so unlucky! " The person in charge looked unlucky. The diners stopped eating and surrounded the door to watch the excitement!

"It's urgent. If it were summer, we would never come in today, but now the temperature is so low, I'm really sorry! What's the loss? "Zhu Bing couldn't say. Can the loss be small in such a big hotel!

"I really don't care about the loss of one day. Everyone will help at this time, but look, how can we do business in the future if someone taboos it! I have to call my boss. I dare not look at your police officer's card! " The person in charge didn't go away, so he stood at the door and called.
