

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 180

There was silence in the boardroom. Everybody reduced their heads and also said nothing.

Harvey really did not anticipate Yvonne to really dare to say it. Had not been she terrified of upsetting every person?

" Yvonne, because you're in fee of the firm's accounts, why didn't you ask on your own where the money went? Harvey said.

" Whose pocket did the cash go into? I am rather clear. Do you desire me to inform you every stroke?" Yvonne asked.

Harvey's face was as dark as water. Every person's corruption was various. If this example was brought up in public, not only would they lose face, yet likewise they would be dissatisfied with each other.

" Yvonne, are you trying to engage in interior strife on purpose?" Harvey asked.

" That's it. Yvonne, they are all benefiting the company, as well as do not do it once again," the old woman stood and stated.

Was this concern the end of the trouble easily?

Yvonne considered the old lady in astonishment. She had actually thought that the old woman would certainly not penalize them, however at the very least she needed to restrain them a little. If they were simulated this, would not they be a lot more lenient with them in the business?

The bank account was without a doubt abundant now, yet for how long had it had the ability to hold them back from corruption?

" Granny, do you suggest that we should simply let it go as well as let them continue to be corrupt in the future?" Yvonne questioned her.

Harvey saw Yvonne's mindset, he quickly snapped as well as stated, "Yvonne, what type of mindset is it when you speak with Granny? Are you so vibrant that you don't also appreciate Grandma?"

" You are actually good currently. Weakriver Real Estate values you, so you do not take the Sue family members seriously, do you?" Yara claimed sarcastically.

Do not state one more word. The old woman stood up as well as said.

Yvonne gritted her teeth. Was the old girl attempting to shield Harvey and also even running the risk of the security of the Sue household?

" Grandma, four million yuan a week. How much time do you assume one billion can last? I chatted with Mr. Jude today. The task in the west of the city has actually currently begun the development payment, if the task is not officially finished, Weakriver Real Estate will certainly not give us money. When the business remains in financial situation, exactly how can you make up for it?" Yvonne claimed.

When the old woman heard this, she promptly stopped. Lately, there was a large amount of funds in the west of the city. In her viewpoint, it would just take one to 2 years to return the funds. So, she really did not take the four million yuan seriously. But if it was really like Yvonne stated, she couldn't let them do whatever they wanted in the firm.

" From today on, if anyone takes any ill-gotten cash from the company, get out of below." The old lady's expression changed quickly. Just now, she was still detached, now she came to be nervous.

" The survival of the company is associated with everyone's interests. If you only care about your pocketbooks, don't blame me for being rude."

" Grandmother, if they do it once again, will you really discharge them?" Yvonne asked.

The old woman recognized that Yvonne was requiring her to establish a rule. Given the present situation, she recognized plainly how immoral these relatives were. As long as they were given a chance, they would absolutely embezzle. The Sue household might not be damaged by these individuals.

" Yes, no matter who it is, they will certainly all be expelled." The Old Madam left the conference room after she completed talking.

The relatives of the Sue household were ashen-faced. With no opportunity of corruption, their living expenses would certainly end up being bad, which was undesirable to them.

" Yvonne, do you have to be so fierce?"

" Who do you think you are? Did we take a cent from you?"

" If you want to break us, you wish to break the Sue household. Do you assume you can break us alone?"

Yvonne checked out the relatives of the Sue family members that blamed her. They took corruption as a matter of course, which was actually ugly.

"I don't require to argue with you. As long as there is anything wrong with the accounts, I will do my best to check them. Even if there is just one cent, I will certainly return to the root cause. You 'd much better follow the guidelines. Grandma claimed that if you do not take it seriously, you can't blame me if you are expelled," Yvonne stated.

Harvey clenched his clenched fists. He had actually guaranteed before that everybody would certainly not be afraid of Yvonne, now Grandma had actually spoken, he can only obey this guideline.

It didn't impact him too much, since the entire firm would certainly come from him from now on. Nonetheless, Harvey could not accept losing face before his loved ones.
