

Chapter 1801 - War of the Lower Gods

After all, players in the temple have not experienced such a decisive battle. Usually, the presidents of Lu Yang and other major guilds will be cursed aggressively before the war, and they have shown their limelight in front of audiences all over the world.

They also want to do this, but they are a group of people who entered before the public beta. They cannot be known by the majority of players. Once they know it, the entire game will be labeled unfairly, so these People can only hide.

Normally they could only watch Landing Yang and Jerez. They were in the limelight in front of the TV. Now they finally have a chance to be in the limelight. Whether it is Golden Lion, Captain or Rex, they secretly thought about the battlefield before the battle. First of all, how to be a ferocious scolding with Lu Yang.

But what they did n't know was that if they could win the battle quickly, no one wanted to scold. At that time, Lu Yang did something uncomfortable. Why should he scold the enemy like a shrew under the general public?

The reason for such scolding is to boost the morale of your players. This is a means of battle on a large-scale battlefield. Starting from the battlefield of tens of thousands of people, the president of a guild cannot take care of all players.

If he wants everyone to know his orders, he will not play a few words on the guild channel and everyone will join him.

During this period of scolding, the president of each guild needs to constantly ask the vice-presidents or legionaries under his command. The preparation status of each team is at the stage of preparation, which is the stage of scolding, ready After that, the battle of scolding was over, and the two sides also fought.

Lu Yang's current situation is that there are only 2 lower gods and 2,000 players who have been in a state of war. There is no need to prepare anything, so why not scold?

“Kill Lu Yang, kill him.” The 200 lower gods also aimed at Lu Yang’s position at the same time, countless skills hit Lu Yang’s position, but Lu Yang had evaded.

“Shen Yan Tian burst”

Lu Yang decided to let go, he increased his reaction speed to less than 0.1 seconds. At any point on the vast battlefield, he would not stay longer than 0.1 seconds. After releasing his skills, he quickly jumped to another area to release his skills. , So fast that Luyang’s phantom is everywhere.

“Di Shi Tian Huo”

“Holy Word of Destruction”

...

More than 200 people can see Lu Yang’s shadow in various areas. Under panic, they aim at Lu Yang’s shadow release skills and can all be empty, while on the other side, Lu Yang releases the * of flame every time he stops on the ground. Explode, two rounds of flames can kill the lower * of a temple, and in less than 2 seconds, he was killed by four.

“Everyone is jumping fast.”

“Don’t stay where you are.”

“Don’t stop jumping, jumping is dead!”

The two assistants of Rex, also the deputy captains of this group, shouted. Their reaction speed was about 0.13 seconds. Although they could not capture Lu Yang, they were able to avoid the Shenyang Skyburst skill at a distance.

The two reacted. Lu Yang wanted to eat the 200 of them with the speed of reaction. In the case of no lower-level gods at the same level, they could only ask their men like this.

More than 190 people who were still alive heard the order to quickly jump around and capture Lu Yang's position, but how much magical value did they have and how many times could they jump.

Lu Yang has a code of rebellious gods, an increase of 300 points of intelligence, giving Lu Yang more than 3,000 mana, and this piece of equipment alone makes Lu Yang jump more than 300 times.

Soon, after the first temple player continuously jumped, the magic value was exhausted, and just stopped at the same place, Lu Yang launched his skills with his left hand.

"Shen Yan Tian burst"

A small pure gold fireball hits the face of the stopped temple player, triggering a crit effect to die on the spot.

"Damn it, avoid it." Aledri, one of Rex's deputies, said angrily.

Another deputy attacked Lu Yang's shadow, and said helplessly: "No way, they not only can't jump, but the conscious reaction is also in a fatigue period, and can't keep up."

After entering the lower god, in addition to the * of space, the jumping method of the other people is not a jump through time and space, but a high-speed movement. That is to say, people see Lu Yang reaching a certain position like a flash, which is actually Lu Yang moved to the area in an instant while moving at a high speed.

This high-speed movement is the same as the speed of a pilot who ejects and takes off, but Lu Yang is different from the pilot in that he has always been in this state of ejection, and still ejects every 0.1 seconds.

This is also true for players on the side of the temple, but they are not active, they are forced. Anyone who dares to stay in place for more than 0.5 seconds will be caught by Lu Yang, and he will jump in front of this person to start the flame Skyburst or Instant Blast, in this way, the side of the persecuting shrine jumps continuously with the landing sun.

The result of this is that many people feel dizzy before their mana value is exhausted. When their mana value is exhausted and stopped, their heads are already in a state of pain, and there is no dropout. The reason they usually exercise.

"I can't do it anymore, my head is about to hurt and explode." A temple player stopped his body and squatted on the ground with his hands on his head, but in the next second, Lu Yang appeared in front of them.

"Shen Yan Tian burst"

Lu Yang pointed his left hand, and a pure golden fireball hit his face at close range, killing him in place. At this moment, three pure golden fireballs and two lightnings hit Wu Tian's Body, just when these five people showed excitement on their faces, they were shocked to see that the lightning passed Lu Yang's body and hit the distance.

"Not hit?"

"This can jump away like this."

"Does he need to rest?"

...

A group of people are ignorant. Although the time is not fast, it has been more than 10 seconds, it seems that the time is very short, but Lu Yang has jumped more than 100 times, 100 consecutive ejections and take off the same high-speed movement, which is in their In the eyes, only six of their own bosses can do this.

"Rex can't stop Lu Yang, but I don't believe that Lu Yang can continue to jump like this, everyone will hold on, and it won't take long for Lu Yang to stop Aledri shouted .

“Yes.” The voice was very sparse.

Aledri looked back in surprise, only to find that in 10 seconds, Lu Yang killed more than 70 of them. Among those who were still alive, one-third were holding their heads, three-thirds Once stopped, only the last third can fight.

“Damn, hell, how could Lu Yang be so strong.” Aledri yelled, gnashing his teeth, and rushed towards Landing Yang. He decided to fight Lu Yang closely, and only then might there be a trace The chance, at least to give his men a breathing chance, if he can stop Lu Yang close even 0.3 seconds, these people under his hands can also kill Lu Yang.

“Lu Yang, Zambis is close.” Aledri yelled and rushed towards Landing Yang. Among the crowd, he was the only one who could capture Lu Yang’s figure, but he could only capture it, Lu Yang did not Fighting with him, he couldn’t catch Lu Yang.

Lu Yang also found Aledri, and when he heard that he dared to get close to himself, he sneered and said, “Fulfill you.”

“Embers!” A ray of light flashed, and Lu Yang and Aledri suddenly gleamed. The next second, Lu Yang stopped at the same place, Aleidri fell to the ground and died!

Chapter 1802 - Small people also play a big role

At the moment when the two were just fighting, they fought each other for 3 attacks. Lu Yang avoided Aletri’s spell of attacking his head and ate two other attacks. At the same time, Lu Yang’s Divine Flame burst into only one He hit Aledri but it was his head.

Aledri is equivalent to being killed by Lu Yang's one blow, but he is extremely suffocated. This is a matter of absolute strength and a problem of skill. He is not reconciled.

However, Lu Yang did not take Aledri seriously. After killing him, he didn't stay for more than 0.1 seconds. He continued to beat and kill. More than 40 of the more than 100 subordinate gods in front of him could no longer jump.

He stared at these people and killed them. A * of flames killed one, 40 people took only 4 seconds, and the remaining 80 people had no way to deal with it. They could only fight back while playing magic. The afterimage of Yang.

Looking up at Weiguang and Hansha, they were almost unable to carry it, but suddenly found that the pressure around them was gone. Looking closely, Lu Yang even attracted the enemy's firepower all by himself, and suppressed them.

"Boss is amazing." Han Sha said, he is also a player with a reaction speed within 0.1 seconds. Originally, he thought that the difference between him and Lu Yang would not be too big, but now it seems that the distance between the two is quite the same. Big, this is not easy to understand in one or two sentences or one or two things.

"Fortunately, the boss won, and I can't hold on anymore." Looking up at Weiguang is worse than Han Sha, he is also on the verge of collapse.

Han Sha smiled at him and said, "You take a break, I will help the boss."

"No, I can fight for a little longer." Looking up at Shimmer, he gritted his teeth and rushed towards the front.

Han Sha was worried about his problems, and followed him 30 meters away, but the effect was limited. In this level of battle, life and death were only instantaneous.

But in the same way, morale is also more important. When the morale of one side rises and the morale of the other side falls, you only need to find such a critical point to find the breakthrough.

“Boss, our support is here.” Looking up at the shimmering light, he rushed towards the temple player.

In the five years of war in the blood-stained battlefield, the sharpened mental perseverance looking up at the shimmer, when he roared and rushed up, the sound scared the players of the temple.

They jumped at high speed to avoid Lu Yang’s attack, and they were extremely nervous. They were afraid of being killed by Lu Yang’s explosion at any time. In panic, they had no time to look back. Only this sound became the last to crush their inner defense. A straw.

“Run, the enemy’s reinforcements are here.” I don’t know who shouted first, and the remaining 100 people turned and ran.

Lu Yang looked at them using various high-speed mobile skills to escape, and then looked back at the shimmering light, and could n’t help but laugh, and walked to the side of the light, helped him up, Said: “Good job, your roar scared the enemy away.”

“Hey.” Looking up at Weiguang and scratching his head, he said, “So I was so powerful.”

The next second, looking at the twilight falling down, his head hurt, he had to cover his forehead and could not stand at all.

Lu Yang looked at the Three Thousand Killing Sword that came over and said, “Send him back to rest, he has done enough.”

“Yes.” Three Thousand Killing Swords found two players around him, but now he is fighting, who wants to leave? Just when the two showed an unwilling expression, looking up at Weiguang but holding his head, said: “It’s fine Boss, you are moving forward. It is safe here for the time being. I will be able to keep up with it after a short break. Do n’t worry about me. “

Lu Yanggang wanted to persuade him to look up at Weiguang and continue to say: “The opportunity did not come easily because I was defeated. I can’t afford this responsibility. Leave me alone. I’m fine.”

The gap has just been torn open three times, but it has moved less than one kilometer, and there are more than 50 kilometers behind. If you want to completely tear this gap, you need more effort, maybe tearing so a bit It's not easy anymore. If you can't keep it, it will be replaced by the opponent, and the battle will return to the original point.

In order to give the sisters a chance to dive into the Firestone Mountain, Lu Yang must lead the team forward, dared to kill the enemy's defense line, and disrupt the enemy's entire front.

"Okay, rest at ease, don't be too crazy, there is more than just fighting, there are many battles behind, we all need you." Lu Yang patted the shoulder looking up at Shiguang.

Looking up at Weiguang, he nodded and forced to see Lu Yang disappeared in the distance. He fell to his knees on the ground, and the pain caused him to roar out.

No one can feel his current pain, and no one knows how painful his heart is. I thought that then, I would look up to Weiguang to join the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. The purpose is only one, that is Xia Yuwei.

But later, five years, five years of crush, this pain and torture is not what ordinary people can imagine, and it is precisely because of this torture that he became more and more powerful, but slowly, he found that he gradually recognized The Iron-Blood Brothers Alliance, like this guild, are willing to dedicate and pay for this guild, and are more willing to stay close to Xia Yuwei.

But for this companionship, he hopes to be accompanied by a strong man. Now he does not expect Xia Yuwei's love. This kind of wonderful feeling, he likes to let Xia Yuwei feel dependent on him.

Sometimes he also feels that he is a little abnormal, but he just likes to get Xia Yuwei's recognition and praise, but now, he has fallen behind.

In the Divine Realm, his reaction speed did not enter 0.1 seconds. He knew that if he did n't work hard, they would be thrown away by Hansha. They did n't want this, although his love was humble, but this is him .

It is the humbleness of an ordinary person and the dedication to love that should not be!

On the vast orange light plain, looking down at the shimmering one kneeling on the ground, the unwilling roar came thousands of meters away, the kind of loneliness and loneliness, and the unwillingness of the heart were caught by the camera.

Du Bin looked at this scene and said with a sigh: "No wonder the Iron-Blood Brothers Alliance can be so arrogant, just pull out a person and be so desperate for the guild."

Ma Feng said: "Yeah, it's terrible. The connection between his consciousness and helmet will never exceed 91%, and there is only one line away from the drop. I am afraid he did not drop the line with perseverance."

...

Almost every anchor in the major live broadcast rooms who saw this shot was lamenting the strength of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, but the shadow thief Xia Ye Chenfeng who was rushing to this side scolded.

"What are you talking about?" Xia Ye Chenfeng gritted her teeth and ran desperately towards the position of looking at the shimmer.

They are two brothers. The famous light and dark thieves, Bai Hong killer looked up at the shimmer and shadow killer Xia Ye Chenfeng. When Xia Yuwei recruited players, both were because of the blood brothers who entered Xia Yuwei together.

No one knew the pain in his brother's heart better than he did. The two had always acted together, but there were no buildings and trees on the orange plains to provide shadows, and the summer night and morning wind did not participate in the fighting here.

His strength is in the place where there are many buildings. This time, he stayed behind as a reserve team. Lu Yang opened his mouth and Xia Yuwei sent him over.

Not only him, there are more than 100 subordinate gods behind Just now he was worried about whether he was on a fork. In the war state, the map coordinates are blocked, he can only find it by feeling , Now it's easy, there are videos and shouts of looking up at the shimmer in the distance.

“Brothers keep up.” Xia Ye Chenfeng waved his hand and ran towards the 11 o’clock direction. Within two minutes, he saw the glimmering kneeling on the ground in the distance.

He quickly came to his side, holding one hand on the shoulder looking up at Shimmer, looking at the painful expression of his brother, and said, “Hold on, brother, I believe you.”

Only two of them knew what this sentence meant. He looked up at the shimmering head, and although his head was still sore, he could know that the people around him were Xia Ye Chen Feng, and that his own reinforcements were coming.

“In front, the boss is in front, you go first, and I’ll be there later.” Looking up at Weiguang, he pointed to the road ahead.

“Okay.” Xia Ye Chenfeng punched in the chest looking up at Shimmer, and said, “Don’t fall down, I’ll pass first, there are big troops behind.”

He chased forward with the next 200 gods.

Chapter 1803 - Killer debut

While the Iron-Blood Brothers moved forward bravely on the other side, the Gertz side was messed up. In the conference room, Gertz scolded Rex at the table and said, “Can you guys stop this? Lu Yang couldn’t stop saying earlier, I directly admit defeat, and can save most of my family property. “

Rex, Golden Lion, Captain and others all glared at Gertz one by one. They tried their best to help each other, but they could n’t beat Lu Yang. They were also troubled. They had no place to vent, they wanted to scold Gerr. Good meal.

Vice President Margaret felt something was wrong, she quietly patted Gerlz's waist, walked to Rex with a smile on her face, put her arm around Rex's shoulder, her body lying in her arms Here, he said: "Can you think of a way to go on like this, we will really lose, and you don't want a tag on the back of the temple that can't be marked by the Brotherhood of Blood."

The Golden Lion and the captain looked at the status of Ricks and Margaret in surprise. No one expected it. It took less than 3 days for the two to be so close.

Ricks blushed a little and dared not look at the people around him, saying, "There is one way, but this is a secret weapon that we use against saints and dark warriors and other organizations. It is used now and will not be easy to explain in the future."

Gertz clapped the table excitedly and said, "What's wrong? I'll apply with your boss. I don't believe it. He dare to watch me die."

In order to envelop one of the six bosses behind the temple, Gerlz gave 10% of the other party's dry shares, and gave a big gift to every temple senior he saw.

On the spot, he took the phone and called, and it didn't take long for Ricks to receive the text message. He said excitedly, "The boss agreed, let's go."

The Golden Lion and the captain nodded, and more than 100 people followed Ricks together, and Gerz walked with curiosity.

"What does it mean to be in formation? Is there any special method of fighting?" Gertz asked the captain when he looked at the captain.

The captain said with a smile: "It's okay to tell you now. Our formation is actually a variant of Fengshen Lei. He has a name called Ningfeng Lei."

Ningfenglei, this is a weapon with extremely low lethality, but he is special in that it has a very large range and can be released to enemies within 30 meters. Ningfenglei also has a special effect that will reduce the target's consciousness response by 1% speed.

This reduction is easy for ordinary players to condense to 5 layers, but for top players like Lu Yang, stacking 10 layers may not react.

A person with a reaction speed of 0.04 seconds reduced the conscious reaction speed by 10%, but it changed from 0.04 seconds to 0.044 seconds, which is almost undetectable.

Even if it feels wrong, people who do n't know think it 's a cause of tiredness. This is a very deceptive weapon.

Now everyone has a limited understanding of the game, and in the case of sudden use, they think Lu Yang will also play.

There is nothing to reduce by 10%, it can be reduced by 100%, or reduced to more than 50%, not to mention Rex, the captain has a chance to defeat Lu Yang, not to mention they still have Fengshen Lei.

"After a while of fighting, I'm responsible for entanglement Lu Yang, you throw thunder at the same time, be sure to slow down his speed." Rex said.

Everyone nodded.

These weapons are hidden in the Celestial City of Heaven. In the orange fortress area, the skills to cut off the world are not available. After the return of Ricks and others, they each brought a storage bag, which was filled with Ningfeng Thunder and Fengshen Thunder.

"Go, get rid of Lu Yang and take away his demon god's heart. I suspect that his demon god's heart must have reached the * level." Rex said.

The crowd followed behind, and on the other side, Lu Yang had rushed into the 8-kilometer area of the enemy's front without any obstruction. The orange fortress in the distance could see the blurred shadow.

As Lu Yang was about to move on, suddenly, he received a message, and the person who sent the message made him smile.

Ponce: "The temple organization has a weapon called Ningfenglei. Rex is taking more than 100 people in your direction. Be careful, I can't detect the specific role of Ningfenglei for the time being."

This was what Pence heard from Gertz who had just returned to the front. At this time, Gertz was still yelling at Ricks that they were stupid, and this weapon should have been used long ago, otherwise, why should Lu Yangxiang He advanced so far 8 kilometers, and even a small village in front of the orange fortress was occupied by Lu Yang.

Orange Devil Village.

A small village in the 140-level area. This village is one of the only three villages on the Orange Plain. Occupying this is equivalent to taking the initiative. Now the village is occupied by Lu Yang, making Gerz extremely passive.

Lu Yang looked back at the village that had just come out, and said to the three thousand killing sword: "Tell the brothers, first go back to the village and rest."

"Yes." Three Thousand Killing Sword executed Lu Yang's order without hesitation.

2000 people quickly turned around and returned to the village. Lu Yang sat down at the entrance of the village and said to the somewhat puzzled Hansha: "The support is coming. Let's wait for them."

Hansha looked back. In a short time, Xia Ye Chenfeng brought 200 people to the distance. When they ran near, Hansha couldn't wait to ask: "Have you seen the glimmering light, how is he doing?"

"He's okay." Xia Ye Chenfeng turned to look at Lu Yang, said: "Report the boss, Yu Wei ordered me to bring 200 lower gods to come to support, there are 200,000 people behind."

Lu Yang said: "All the rest of 10 minutes minutes and continue to move forward."

“Yes.” Xia Ye Chenfeng immediately issued an order, and 200 people were all tired, and all sat down to recover.

It took just less than 5 minutes to recover here, and a group of people ran towards here in the distance. Lu Yang took a closer look and found that it was Ricks and others who asked with a smile: “They all take God Lei Locked up with Time and Space. “

“Take it, 10 shots of God Thunder and 10 shots of Time and Space Locked God Thunder on everyone.” Xia Ye Chenfeng said.

Lu Yang said: “The enemy leader’s one belongs to me, and the rest belong to you. Give them a lesson and let them know that our secret weapon.”

“Yes.” Xia Ye Chenfeng was a little excited, shouting: “Brothers, get ready to lock up Shenlei in time and space, and they went in seconds.”

Among the weapons that restrict the action of the lower gods, there are nine types of condensing thunder, falling dust, arc thunder, water boiling thunder, pollen mine, shadow mine, holy light mine, heart fire mine, and space-time locking * mine.

Among them, the most powerful one is the time and space locking of God Thunder. With a fatal blow, Lu Yang is going to educate the temple. A Ningfeng Thunder alone has no meaning to him.

Chapter 1804 - More and more chaotic

Lu Yang rushed to meet Ricks, at the same time, holding the time and space locking Shenlei in his hand, Xia Ye Chen Feng followed others with him.

Rex saw that Lu Yang dared to rush over, a slight smile appeared on his face, and Ning Feng Leizhao landed in his hand and threw it at the location where Yang was.

“Throw”

Rex shouted, and more than 100 people threw out Ningfenglei at the same time, but when everyone threw it, there would be a momentary stagnation. Lu Yang resisted his Ningfenglei and locked the * in time and space. Ray threw at Rex.

After an instant, Lu Yang glowed blue all over his body, and dozens of Ningfeng Lei hit him, causing his reaction speed to drop a lot, but similarly, Rex was set in place for 1 second. .

“This, this turned out to be not Lu Yang’s skill, but something thrown out?” Rex was stunned.

The first time I met, Ricks was locked by Lu Yang’s time and space locking Shenlei, but at that time, Ricks and Lu Yang were moving at a high speed. He did n’t even see Lu Yang throwing it out. Thought it was Lu Yang’s skill, this time he saw clearly, and he was shocked.

“The response is really sluggish.” Lu Yang pointed his hands at Rex’s head and continuously released Shenyang Skyburst.

Ten pure golden fireballs hit the past, two hit the head of Rex accurately, and the remaining eight hit other players who were hit by the time and space locking God Thunder.

Xia Ye Chenfeng and others also successfully locked their opponents. They replaced God Thunder and killed the enemy cleanly.

“It’s too easy.” Xia Ye Chenfeng said excitedly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Go ahead.”

He can imagine the state of the player in the temple at this time. When he entered the void to do the task of killing the thunder, he felt that no one had done this task before, that is to say, whether it is a temple or a saint, I don't know that there are two big killers in the game, God Killing Thunder and Space Time Locking God Thunder.

After a simple assessment, Lu Yang also knew what state the temple players were in. It was nothing more than entering the game earlier than them, but the strength was still far from that of his guild.

Throughout the battlefield of the Orange Plains, the state presented at this time is the same as Lu Yang guessed. The players of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood rely on the killing of God Thunder and Time and Space to lock the God Thunder and play against the side of Gerz.

In addition to Luyang's side, a deep hole was pierced like an awl, and the other battle areas also destroyed the pits on the Gerz side one by one.

The Jerz side also thanks to the defense line set by Andre, if there is no such defense line and defense system, now the entire Iron-Blood Brotherhood can break below the orange fortress.

Judging from the map, Gertz has found that his lineup is not stable as a whole, but he feels that he can still stick to it, because the transmission array system is the reason.

"We should revise the combat method." The third vice president Barnes said.

"How to change?" Gertz asked, he now urgently needs a way to break the game, otherwise continue to fight like this, failure is sooner or later.

Barnes thought for a while and said, "Since we are at a disadvantage on all fronts, I suggest that we temporarily abandon the three or two areas, gather the lower gods of these three or two areas, and attack a point in Luyang. Clear the enemy at Luyang, and then bring people back to the occupied area. Anyway, we have a teleportation array. As long as the teleportation array is not lost, we will still not fail."

Gertz's eyes lit up and said, "This method is feasible, just do it."

Several people immediately began to design this attacking method. During some noises, the Jerz side researched the best way, and soon passed it to the frontline battlefield.

Half of the players who were attacking by the Iron-Blood Brotherhood suddenly felt a slight light in front of them, and the pressure was suddenly reduced. They found that the subordinate gods that blocked them in front of them all disappeared, and Fengshen Lei disappeared.

They were also curious about whether it was the enemy's conspiracy, and no one reported it for the first time, and it was in this situation that the other half of the Iron Brothers players who attacked suddenly felt the pressure.

The enemy surrounded them with twice the number. In the chaos, neither side had a player with a reaction speed of less than 0.1 seconds. The battle was to win with the number of people. Soon, the subordinate gods of the Brotherhood of Blood and the player team were killed and defeated. .

On the other side, the players of the Iron-Blood Brothers who had felt the pressure were suddenly attacked by returning enemies. They were also double defenders and defeated the Iron-Blood Brothers.

The commander Xia Yuwei and the White Lion quickly discovered the reason, and after several people discussed it, they decided to change the battle plan.

"We assembled a number of people, only attacked a limited number of places, so that the enemy could not divide troops." Xia Yuwei said.

"Agree."

Several people immediately assembled their players, no longer advancing in parallel, but everyone only attacked the 200-meter-wide area in front of them. For a time, the main forces of the two sides were fighting together.

Players below the lower gods of this kind of battle can't help. Chen Qiang is in the area directly facing the Firestone Mountain. Seeing the battlefield in front of him show such a state, he gritted his teeth and looked at his brothers and shouted: "When it's time for us to play, the brothers are paying attention. After a while, how can we fight a wave."

At this time the sky had gradually darkened in the game, and many army commanders looked at Chen Qiang curiously.

"Boss, is there any good way?"

"How to fight?"

Chen Qiang looked at them and said, "Although there is no order, we can't be idle here. My idea is to learn the method of killing swords by three thousand and go to the thunder."

None of the dozens of regiment leaders shook their heads. The previous three wars made each of them profitable. Now let them pay for the Order Corps. They have no opinion.

"Everyone remembers that we want to advance in parallel to show a large combat space for the subsequent war." Chen Qiang said.

He knew that the ultimate goal was Fire Rock Mountain, but he couldn't tell the story. If he said it, it wouldn't be a secret.

The commanders of the soldiers have no doubts about the fighting. In the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, they can be promoted to become the commanders of the main battle. None of them come from the relationship.

"Relax, we understand." The commanders of the legions agreed.

Ten minutes later, the sky was completely dimmed, and Chen Qiang felt the opportunity. He looked at the players behind him. He pointed his left hand forward, and hundreds of thousands of people lined up in two rows, crawling on the ground and crawling forward.

The gap between the two rows is 50 meters. Players in the front row place the shield on the ground and move forward with the shield as the protection. Players in the back are responsible for adding blood to the players in front and providing protection skills such as blessing of sacrifice.

On the other side of the battlefield, ordinary players on the Gerds side, many people think that ordinary players of the Brotherhood of Blood will not attack them anymore, and have set their sights on the main battlefield in each main city area.

The fight was too fierce there. The speed of death and injury of the lower gods on both sides was the same as the bitten ants. Although Jerz also had orders, the degree to which his players executed the orders was as high as the blood brothers. When hundreds of thousands of people broke through Gerz's first line of defense as a whole, Gerz could only swear and swear, there was no way to do it.

Chapter 1805 - Sisters sneak under the moon

No one thought that Lu Yang and Zhuo Jiu who were fighting in the front, Chen Qiang and the players of the Iron-Blood Brothers could desperately want the Guild, even their own equipment and level.

Even more terrible is that Chen Qiang took hundreds of thousands of people to launch a death charge, and the commanders of the large left and right wings successively ordered his players to attack in the manner of Chen Qiang.

For a time, on the battlefield, millions of Jagged Brothers players as a whole carried forward a death charge, forcing the players on the Gerds side to conduct a decisive battle.

Compared to the fighting strength of the Jagged Brothers, the players on the Gerz side can't bear the pressure.

If someone yells at you, you are not afraid, you know, he is just a person, but when there are millions of people yelling at you at the same time, glaring eyes rushing towards you, few people can Bear it live.

For a time, Gerlz's entire first line of defense became precarious, and it took only half an hour for the entire first line of defense to be broken, followed by the second line of defense.

It wasn't until the third line of defense that Gerzi's players returned to the battlefield to use the traps in front of the line of defense to block the Predator's attack, but even so, there were some areas that were broken by the players.

Chen Qiang and the other six large army commanders led the team to the fifth line of defense, which messed up the entire front of Jerz.

"Boss, you really did it by swapping your hearts. This time, all the brothers are desperate for you and our guild." Xia Yuwei called to tell Lu Yang.

This is not tens of thousands, or hundreds of thousands of people, but millions of players, most of them are not game city players, but they can still do such a thing, can only say that they regard the Brotherhood of Blood After taking his own home, he really regarded himself as a member of the Brotherhood of Blood.

Lu Yang also expressed some emotion, and said with a smile: "With such brothers, why don't we worry that we can't beat the whole new continent, look, this new continent will be ours sooner or later."

Xia Yuwei firmly believed that Lu Yang's words would be realized, not only him, but also the foreign legions of Ayala, Padu, Sidell and Li Wenxing who also led the players to the battle.

"What kind of magic did Lu Yang use, my God, this is terrifying."

“Lord, I saw an incredible scene. Can I do it in the future?”

“God is above, I can’t believe it.”

Millions of people spontaneously launched a death charge. In the dark night, facing the sky of skills and traps all over the ground, the expressions of millions of players in the Blood-Blood Alliance vowed to die, so that the players of the affiliated guild could not understand.

“Shall we go?” Pado asked.

Hiddle shrugged his shoulders and said, “You are sure that you will not be treated as an enemy by the mad Brotherhood of Blood Brothers. You can send people up. Believe me, it is not a good opportunity to attack now.”

The presidents of several foreign legions nodded thoughtfully, Li Wenxing shouted excitedly: “Sooner or later, one of my players can do this, I did not follow the wrong person, Lu Yang is invincible Yes, the Iron-Blood Brotherhood is invincible!”

Both Paddu and Ayala nodded with emotion, they also found that, in terms of fighting will, so far, no player from any country has been seen, which is comparable to Chinese players.

“You said, if there were no oceans and snowy mountains in ancient times, would China have unified the world?” Pado made a joke.

Everyone thought about it for a while, and it felt really possible!

Wasn’t the first emperor of China in those days the most common words?

“Unified Kazakhstan, Unified Kazakhstan” just beat down all the countries that can be seen, and unified their measures.

While the foreign legion was feeling this, on the other side, Gerds began to make quick adjustments. The four main vice presidents of the Liberal Legion, Elvasa, Kushchak, Banis and Malik, quickly led The elite masters attacked Chen Qiang and other large army commanders who counterattacked into the fifth line of defense.

For a time, the two sides started a more fierce battle around the fifth line of defense. Chen Qiang and others not only faced the attack of the frontal enemy, but also the attack of the players who rushed over from the wings.

Although the battle morale of Gertz is not as good as that of the Brotherhood of Blood, with the help of the teleportation array, Gertz can mobilize superior forces at any time to fight more players of the Brotherhood of Blood in a certain area.

This is Gertz's advantage, but it is also a major disadvantage!

Just as Gertz was nervously mobilizing other players without a combat zone to Chen Qiang and other areas for encirclement and suppression, on the east side of Flint, in a forest 30 kilometers away from the purple fortress, there were more than 10,000 girls quiet Hidden in a place nobody noticed.

This area is called Tieshanling, and among the low hills, there are hemlock trees up to 100 meters high. These cedar branches are lush and leafy. From the bottom to the top, they are all blocked by the branches and leaves. On the situation.

On the Gerds side, Hemlock Ridge belongs to the defense zone between Elvasa and Barnes, that is to say, this defense zone is the junction of the two.

The more this kind of place, the more prone to blunders. Once the battle starts and the upper layers of the two parties have no time to communicate, the most likely thing is that both sides have transferred the defensive players in this area, thinking that the other side has someone to defend here.

It has been several hours since the battle started, and the two sides have played so stalemate. Barnes and Elvasa have mobilized players from the surrounding areas where there is no battle to participate in the battle, but once the battle is over, they will immediately These players are sent back to the original area to defend.

Those who are experienced are also very worried that Lu Yang will send someone to attack from the junction. The three deputy heads of the Spider Sisters Li Mao, Liu Xiang and Tao Fei have been watching the situation here secretly.

Their mission is to break through this hemlock ridge and quickly rush into the Firestone Mountain along the mountain range to kill the enemy's teleportation. .

During this time, Li Mao and they were under a lot of pressure. These girls were obviously members of the game city, but they could not worry about Lu Yang. Instead, because of them, they exposed Lu Yang's combat plan in advance, causing the Iron-Blood Brothers to only Being able to face the enemy hard, many people think they are not qualified to stay in the game city.

They hated themselves and wanted to leave, but Lu Yang's words gave them hope. After Li Juan and ten others committed crimes, they did not leave the studio building, and lived and ate in the building for half a month. It is for this day to prove myself.

"Sisters, our opportunity is here." Li Maoyan watched the video of Chen Qiang and others fighting like a fight through the video and the enemies hidden in the front of Tieshan Ridge began to teleport to In other areas, she said excitedly to all the sisters on the team channel.

"For Li Juan, for us, for ourselves, for the game city, for the guild, everyone follows me, everyone must take out 100% of the strength, and cross this hemlock area with the lightest steps."

Li Mao suddenly turned into a huge black spider under the dark night. A bottle of potion suddenly appeared on her forelimb. This was a narrowing potion. Li Mao drank it and the 2 meter spider became 20 cm.

In the same way, other members of the sister group also turned into spiders and took out the potion and drank it. For a time, the black little spiders everywhere, if the spider's eyes were not green, they had no flaws at all.

"We have practiced this road countless times. This time, we are really authentic. I beg everyone. Don't make mistakes. For the glory of our sister group, listen to my orders and move forward." Li Mao ordered.

Ten thousand little spiders began to sputter spider webs at night with the lightest footsteps. This kind of spider webs could not be seen at night. At the same time, huge spider webs were stuck on the grass, allowing small spiders to step on the web Without having to worry about stepping under the leaves and trapping them in the soil.

Chapter 1806 - Break through Hemlock Ridge

Players in Tieshanling are now bored and watching videos in the tunnel. Some people who like to watch the battle stare at the battles in other regions. Some who like to watch the anchors dance and sing are watching the anchor.

For these players, the purpose of coming here is to get guild points. As for Gertz and the Liberty Army, they don't care too much, because Gertz has not given them any benefits.

Jellz's first vice president, Pons, didn't have much salary, let alone these ordinary players. It was only because of this battle that Jellz put a return of blood, and gave out money and equipment to reward the participating players. As for If there is no battle, only guild points will be given.

In this case, with the exception of a small number of management personnel, ordinary players have no one to observe the surroundings without fighting.

In the Tieshanling defense area, there are a total of 37 legion chiefs who are responsible for receiving wages. After the personnel can be transferred, there are four heads left.

These four people are responsible for patrolling the vast Tieshan Ridge, which is basically stretched. The area that everyone needs to monitor is a few kilometers wide.

In fact, there is no way, these army commanders want to find the leader of the first-level players to help, but the other party said: "We don't get salary, you look at it yourself."

It is almost impossible to send wages to the level of the head of the league like the Iron-Blood Brothers. The players under these heads are also ordinary members, who can gather together. It is all about the head of the individual, regardless of the head of the army. Therefore, these army commanders still have to rely on them, and they dare not lose their temper with them.

“Brothers, anyway, we are here too. With some effort, let’s go to the tree to monitor and see what’s going on.” The head of the large army commander, Achilles, looked at these forty The head said.

“You haven’t paid us the salary to monitor the surrounding area. If you are willing to pay an extra amount than the salary, we are willing to pay the labor.” Head Ogers said.

Achilles scolded the bastard, and said with some excitement: “You have already earned the guild points.”

“That’s the guild points that let us participate in the war, not the guild points that are monitored. We are fair, and we will monitor the money immediately.” Ogers was still not relieved.

Achilles, where are they willing to pay this money, this is what Gertz should pay, not what they should pay, he shrugged his shoulders and said: “Forget it, let’s take 4 army commanders to monitor. “

“How to monitor such a large area.” Malfoy Commander asked.

Achilles looked at him uncomfortably and said: “With your eyes, there are traps all around, and there are traps on the top of the tree. As long as you are not stupid, you can see clearly.”

Malfoy didn’t dare to talk back, he was paid, if Achilles hit his small report, he would be finished, so he honestly climbed the tree and looked around at night.

But the sky was dark, and there was no moon in the night sky. Malfoy and others were able to see the situation around them. Under desperation, they could only continue to lay traps on top of the trees.

There are really few people, and they don’t have a better way, but what Malfoy didn’t know is that just under the top of the tree where they placed the trap, between the branches, Li Mao, Liu Xiang, and Tao Fei Their sister group adopted a new method.

They simply walked on top of the tree, but used the spider silk that was spit out to make a connection between the tree branch and the quake area between the trees. They were walking at two-thirds of the height of the tree, neither at the top of the tree On, not under the tree.

Ten thousand little spiders, so quickly on the road in front of them, while spinning, below them are Gertz players, and even they can clearly hear the voices of the players below.

Faced with various variables that may occur at any time, members of the sister group such as Li Mao and Liu Xiang clenched their teeth and moved quickly and carefully between the branches. For three hours, when the distant horizon rose a red sun At that time, Malfoy and Achilles and others looked at each other.

“Huh, it’s finally daylight.”

“Are you all right?”

“Me, too, without any hostility.”

...

The four people looked at the vast tree top area of Tieshanling, and they all showed a relaxed expression, but what they did not know was that on the cliff of the poisonous demon bee immediately behind Tieshanling, little girls like Li Mao and Liu Xiang There are 10,000 sisters who are hiding in a cave on the cliff.

Not even Gerlze knew about this cave, but his vice president, Pons, knew that the betrayed Pons used the summaries of intelligence reported by ordinary players.

In many cases, the situation uploaded by ordinary players is very important, but they are not obscure. For example, in this cave, someone told the poison demon bee to see a burrow in the middle of the cliff. Ask more.

Because the Toxic Bee Cliff itself is not a place where players often come. At the top of the Toxic Bee Cliff is a red-colored stone mountain named Red Neck Mountain. The top of the mountain is very flat, but very narrow, the narrowest area It is only 3 meters wide and 50 meters long.

And behind the narrowest area, it is very wide, just like the area where a person's neck and shoulder are connected. If the enemy wants to pass, he has to go to the neck, and the defending enemy is in the shoulder and chest area. This terrain allows The enemy can arrange a large number of players to defend and the attacker is not even enough for one tenth of the opponent.

Therefore, Gertz has a second line of defense here, where there are not only teleportation arrays and 10,000 players, but also three lower gods. Pence explained the situation here very clearly.

Li Mao, Liu Xiang and others looked at each other, nodded their heads, and did not need to speak. Before the battle, they had already figured out the terrain here.

Why did they know they could climb between the branches, and Pongs slept in the office for more than half a month, in fact, using his position to investigate the weaknesses of various defense areas.

As a vice president, he naturally has advantages over others. Pons's strength is to use terrain and enemies to fight. When he inspected Tieshanling, he saw the flaws here, simple and Lu Yang. Negotiations set a method for the Spider Legion to walk through Tieshan Ridge and Poison Deer Bee Cliffs into Firestone Mountain.

Normally you have to enter the Firestone Mountain, and the straight-line distance is 60 kilometers, but the 60-kilometer area is full of traps and defensive positions. If you want to hit there, it is impossible for a few months.

If you attack from the side and walk here on the cliff of the Poison Deer Bee, although it is farther away, there are more than 100 kilometers, but you can enter the Fire Rock Mountain without encountering the enemy all the way. It is more suitable.

Chapter 1807 - Battle upgrade

Li Mao saw that ten thousand sisters had safely rested. She dialed Lu Yang's phone number. After two beeps, Lu Yang, who was fighting the enemy, pressed the call button and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Boss, our sister group arrived at the scheduled location successfully and was resting in the cave under the cliff of Poison Deer Bee." Li Mao said in a clear voice.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Good job, according to the scheduled plan, wait until it gets dark before acting."

"Yes." Li Mao said.

Lu Yang hung up the phone. He stood at the entrance of the village and continued to rest. The more than 200 subordinate gods and the following 200,000 players had arrived, but the problem now is that he cannot attack forward.

Although Rex was defeated again, he was stationed at the defense line in front of the Orange Light Village, and he learned from Pons that there were thousands of subordinate gods rushing towards this side, and he used the method of encirclement and annihilation. , Not only to kill him, but also to completely sew up the torn opening in his area.

"A tough battle." Lu Yang sighed.

He must stick to it, so as to give the Spider Sisters enough protection, as long as there is no main force to track down, there will be no problems.

Now the battlefield has evolved into four main battle areas, namely the front area of the orange fortress, the west area of him, the front area of the Firestone Mountain, and the purple fortress area.

All the battles in the frontal battlefield are carried out around these four positions. The main and secondary battles cannot be distinguished on the bright side, but if it is necessary to distinguish, the frontal area of Firestone Mountain and the frontal area of the orange fortress are the most important battlefields.

As for the area where Luyang rushed into, although Gertz and others were caught off guard, it was more because the area's defense was weaker, which made Lu Yang break into it so easily. Erz sent a large number of high-level subordinate gods in the other three regions to Luyang, which caused the combat power of other regions to weaken.

This is a frontal battlefield. In the area controlled by Luyang, there are several battlefields, namely, the Shenhua Crystal Quarry Mine Area, the Fire Spirit Tower Area, the Tiger Fortress and the Tianjian Fortress.

The old enemies defeated in Luyang's battles over the years, this time gathered seven seven eight eight, all of the subordinate * levels are disrupted in various important areas of Luyang.

Some specialize in important fortresses, others specialize in important trade centers, and the entire area within the Jagged Brotherhood is panic-stricken.

Fortunately, Lu Yang guarded them before each important area. There were subordinate gods in every important area. Even if there was no subordinate defense area, there were 180-level players holding Time and Space Locked God Thunder and Kill God Thunder.

It is also these people who are stupid. They can clearly attack areas without defense and stare at these important areas. Although they look at the strongholds inside the Predator League, they are actually as stable as Mount Tai.

When Han Yu and Han Ying reported, Lu Yang took a lot of peace of mind, so he had enough confidence to support here.

On the other side.

Gertz also received news of frustration from all parties, especially when he learned that Ricks was defeated again in the hands of Lu Yang. The angry Gertz broke the furiously broken coffee cup and shouted: "The waste is all waste."

Everyone on the temple side looked ugly, and they couldn't understand what happened to Rex. They had to struggle with talking when fighting Lu Yang.

The dead grass saw this scene and said, "I can't think of Lu Yang as so difficult. Since that's the case, let's not hide it. Everyone will send out players with a response speed of 0.1 seconds. Otherwise, I am afraid this time. It is impossible to block Lu Yang."

The commanders of the players from all over the world who stayed at Gerlz nodded sneer when they heard this sentence. A blond young man flicked his robe and said dashing, "I also think it's time for us to play."

"Although there is no cooperation between us, these days have been practiced many times. It is not difficult to cooperate to kill someone." A brown-haired woman said.

"Kill Lu Yang with equal credit, no one wants to swallow alone, otherwise don't blame me for killing him first." A strong man sneered coldly.

Everyone glanced at him, and they all showed helpless expressions and shrugged their shoulders. There were six people in this group. They were masters of Roland, Radvedev, and Stephen.

Originally, Radvedev and Stephen were determined not to participate in the war, but the two men who came here were special. The two were brothers, but they each lived in two countries and found fighting on behalf of their respective guilds. The two proposed not to participate in the war. , This was sent to Gerz side.

"Let's go to meet Lu Yang together. The stage of the next * is not the same as before. It's time for us to enter the stage." The brown-haired woman said.

Everyone nodded, took out their teleportation reels, and disappeared at the scene. Gertz wanted to thank them. When they saw them all gone, they only smiled awkwardly and said to the dead grass: "Thanks. "

The dead grass smiled and said: "You're welcome, we are together, there is no need for my help for the time being, I will go first."

It was already late at night, and Gertz understood it as soon as he turned his head and said, "You have a good rest."

The dead grass smiled and used the telescope to return to the northern plains. Looking at Liu Jie and Ruyue Taishan who were waiting for him in the room, he smiled and said: "The plan was successful, and the main forces of all parties went to fight Lu Yang. , Cannot be withdrawn in a short time."

Liu Jie said with satisfaction: "It seems that our plan can also be implemented.

As Yue Taishan said excitedly, "The boss is assured that the number of the next gods who can participate in the war in Steiger is less than 2,000. We have more than 10,000 people. Within three days, I will definitely knock down all the Steiger areas. "

This is the strategy that Dead Grass and Liu Jie had set up before. In order to have a complete preparation, it should not only let Lu Yang have no time to intervene in his war, but also make Steiger have no time to use the existing subordinate gods. To fight for more materials and equipment, the strategy set by the two of them was late at night on the first day. When the battle between the two parties was the most exhausting, a decisive battle was launched against Steiger. Make sure that Steiger has no preparation.

In order to do this, Liu Jie withdrew all players in the border area between him and Steiger, leaving only an empty fortress, and at the same time ordered the players to go to the copy to fight monsters. guild.

Steiger was originally very protective against Liu Jie, but Liu Jie did this, but instead made Steiger feel that he lost the dignity of the knights and nobles. In order to express his sincerity, he also reduced the number of personnel, but did not completely withdraw.

What Steig didn't know was that before this, Liu Jie had negotiated the conditions with nearly a hundred chiefs under his command, completely isolating these chiefs from the outside world. After entering the copy, he took people to sleep and didn't wake up until now. !

Chapter 1808 - Jertz\'s retreat

Although Steiger put a lot of spies on Liu Jie's side, he was eventually a trick worse than dead grass. Most spies have been found by dead grass in the previous player movements, and very few were found. Are also excluded from this operation, and only players from the Chieftain Tribe participate in this battle.

"My warriors, it's time to make money. In front of you is the wealthy European player area. If you plunder them, you will get a lot of money, follow me, and rush~!" Liu Jie shouted and commanded Millions of Horde players attacked the Steiger area.

In the German area, it was already late at night. More than half of the players under Steiger and Daniel had fallen asleep. Steiger did not sleep, and was watching the video of Landing Yang's battle stupefied.

"Unexpectedly, Lu Yang has become so powerful, no one can still threaten him in the lower * realm." Steiger muttered to himself.

Daniel was pacing back and forth in the room, frowning and saying, "I don't know why, I am so panicked today, I suspect something is going to happen."

Steiger looked at Daniel with a smile, and said in a joke: "Only the sixth sense of a woman is naturally prepared, my friend, do I have any misunderstanding about your gender?"

The blood butchers and Koster and others all showed goodwill smiles. Here at Steiger, they really blended into this guild. At present, the friendship between them is getting deeper and deeper, so jokes are getting more and more The more carefree.

Daniel frowned and said, "Guys, I'm not kidding. I always thought that it was a conspiracy that Dead Grass proposed that every family send 10,000 gods out. It feels particularly strong today."

Steiger shrugged his shoulders and said, "But Renren has already been dispatched, and we can't return it for the time being. Besides, we have many spies on Liu Jie's side. If Liu Jie gathers in any main city, We can't escape our eyes."

Daniel said depressively: "I worry about this, but I don't have any evidence, * it."

Steiger smiled and said to Daniel: "Man, you should take a bath and relax now. If you are with me, I will drive you to France. Believe me, you will be free from your troubles soon. of."

The blood butchers and Coster and others knew what Steig meant, and they laughed all the time, but their laughter did not last for 2 seconds. A player suddenly slammed the door of the conference room. I ran in and looked at Steiger and Daniel in panic and said: "It's a big deal, Liu Jie personally led us with 8 million players to hit us. At this time they have reached the location 1 hour away from our border main city. ."

"What?" Frightened, Steiger stood up and asked excitedly: "Nonsense, are your spies all stupid? How come you know so close?"

Normally, when there is any change in the main players of the enemy, you should know it. Unfortunately, this time it is dead grass. For the surprise attack, on the one hand, the chiefs players are in the copy. On the other hand, after these players have made a copy, they don't Assembled, but the daring whole rushed to the area only one hour away from the border fortress on Stege and stopped.

Relying on Steiger's lack of preparation, he assembled in front of the enemy, because he had rehearsed in advance, so this method, although bold, was very feasible.

Who would have thought that when this new continent was trying to save Gerlze and defeat Lu Yang, he would count the dead grass and Liu Jie, and dare to send troops to fight Steiger?

Frontline battlefield.

The pressure on the entire front of the Brotherhood of Blood was almost violent at the same time, and everyone was stunned by the lower gods who suddenly reduced the enemy.

“Strange, what happened?” Zhou Tianming didn’t understand.

“How did the enemy who fought with me do it on his own.” The bitter love scratched his head for half his life.

Lu Yang also couldn’t understand that in the orange light village area, he was leading a team to fight a large number of enemy subordinate gods, but he was halfway through. The enemy’s six subordinate * masters, one of them even launched an attack on the other.

Not only was Lu Yang stunned, but the players on the Gerz side were also blinded. Ricks stared blankly at the two men who were fighting fiercely and shouted: “What are you two fighting, did you make a mistake, Lu Yang is our enemy .”

The next * under Steiger gritted his teeth and scolded: “Liu Jie is the enemy, * bastard. I’ll tell you the president soon. Liu Jie took nearly ten million people to sneak attack on our boss Steiger’s station. Now, Liu Jay is no longer an ally of everyone. He cheated all of you.”

“What?” Rex was stunned.

Lu Yang realized that what happened, looked at Rex with a smile on his face, and said, “I don’t think we need to fight anymore, let me go back.”

Rex is crazy, he feels that the world is too terrible, far from being as simple as he is in the temple, it turns out that the game is long, no one can understand him.

“Liu Jie is a lunatic.” Rex cursed and led the person back.

Lu Yang looked around and said to Xia Yechen: “Send someone to notify Xia Yuwei, and at the same time, tell the commanders in other areas.”

“Yes.” Xia Yechenguang ordered his cousin to do it.

Soon, in less than an hour, the entire Iron-Blood Brotherhood knew about this matter. To this end, Lu Yang formulated a new tactic to attack fully.

Originally, because the enemy’s defense line was too long, there were tens of kilometers. Even if the spider sisters burst into the Firestone Mountain, Lu Yang was very worried that the sisters could not keep them from breaking the orange fortress.

Now it is simple, and the overall attack can be won. He saw the time entering 4 pm, pointing at the enemy position in front of him and shouting: “All attention, start the attack~!”

“Slay~!” Tens of millions of players in the entire Iron-Blood Brotherhood began to attack wildly forward!

On the other side, Gertz has overturned the table and scolded: “Liu Jie, you bastard, you took advantage of me, and abandoned me. I won’t let you go, I won’t let you go. .”

Sanyou Weimen and Roland looked at Gertz crazy, and they were a little silent. None of them thought that Liu Jie and the dead grass had such a conspiracy. Now 10,000 people of Steig are gone, Liu Jie’s ten thousand people also left.

Originally, they had 50,000 subordinate gods, and in a blink of an eye, there were 30,000 left, which was 20,000 fewer than the side of the Brotherhood of Blood.

Sanyoumen put their hands in the sleeves of the large kimono and sighed, “Abandon the front line of defense. Everyone will retreat to the area within 5 kilometers of the fortress. Let’s compete with the Iron-Blood Brotherhood here.”

This is the Gerz defensive zone, the strongest and hardest to break through.

Gertz gritted his teeth and scolded: “I have to.”

Chapter 1809 - Last 5 kilometers of defense

In the orange and purple fortresses and the vast frontal battlefield in front of Firestone Mountain, the players of the Brotherhood of Blood suddenly felt that the resistance of the enemy suddenly disappeared, and no spells and arrows were thrown out of the enemy's position, let alone melee. As soon as they get close, they will assault them.

This surprised the players of the Brotherhood of Blood, and curiously walked towards the front line. When they came to the position and took a closer look, they found that the enemy had disappeared as they really thought.

Not only that, the teleportation arrays, catapults, and lightning towers behind the positions were also destroyed, and the defensive trenches were so empty and lonely.

"Quick report boss." Zhou Tianming, White Lion, Half-Life, etc. issued orders to the opponents, because the enemy's retreat, even the electromagnetic storm skills disappeared, which made their communication unimpeded.

Inside a special space.

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming and other main vice presidents summoned by him and said easily: "The latest news, Liu Jie launched a surprise attack on Steiger, our front line is less than 20,000 lower gods, so, Jie Erz felt that he could not resist, and everyone retreated to the last 5 kilometers."

"Liu Jie has done a good thing?" Zhou Tianming and Bai Shi and others were happy.

Lu Yang also smiled and projected a map in front of him. This is a line of defense within 5 kilometers of the orange fortress, Firestone Mountain, purple fortress and blue fortress. He said: "Liu Jie is looking for his own death. He wanted to swallow Steiger, but Steiger was not so easy to beat, now we can see that we can defeat Gertz in time. If we can win, we can rush out of the Sky Sword Fortress and cooperate with Steiger first. Eliminate Liu Jie.”

Zhou Tianming and others looked at the simulated map in front of Lu Yang and frowned half a lifetime. “How come there are so many trees, swamps, and hills in front of the enemy’s stronghold?”

Unlike the previous Central Wars, Gerds Land was in the southernmost part of the New World. The area five kilometers in front of each fortress was not a plain, but swamps, hills, and forests.

Lu Yang said: “This is the most time to test us. In this last 5km area, it will be the most difficult war. You have to be mentally prepared. The disadvantage of the terrain will make us difficult, and there are fewer enemies. The lower gods, there must be more items like God of Thunder, don’t think we can easily win if we have more lower gods.”

Everyone didn’t care. In their view, the enemy had less than 20,000 subordinate gods, the balance of offense and defense in the war had been broken, and there was only time left for them to lay down the fortress.

Lu Yang felt that Zhou Tianming and others despised the enemy and shook his head with a smile. If it were not for a rebirth, he would show contempt for the enemy’s last five kilometers of defense like Zhou Tianming and others.

But he knew that in the last life, the orange fortress and purple fortress in Gerz and other areas really made the guild that attacked that year suffer a big loss.

In those years, this was a sensational battle in the world. The two sides fought in the last five kilometers of terrain for a month. After a month, not only did they not lay down the orange fortress, but also gave the attacking guild to the Bankruptcy.

Of course, Jerz must not be confident in his defense now, thinking that it is impossible to stop himself. Lu Yang wants Jerz to feel more afraid. He said to everyone: “Today’s war is here. Everyone rested with his men, and at the same time, the vice presidents and the presidents of the affiliated guilds issued a call order. I want to call all the players who can be called to fight the final battle against Gertz.”

“Everyone?” everyone asked in shock.

If the Iron-Blood Brotherhood convenes with all its strength, the number of players that can be convened easily exceeds 30 million, and the player’s levels are all above 170. However, such convening will consume the strength of a guild.

Not to mention the rest, even if Lu Yang wants to use these people to fight, the money paid will make Lu Yang unable to support more than a week.

If Gertz could not be beaten within a week, they would retire, and Xia Yuwei couldn’t help saying to Lu Yang: “Boss, is it too risky to do this?”

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile, and said, “If you don’t do this, you will take the risk. Tell all the lower gods to enter a rest state. In addition, tomorrow morning, the lower * players will immediately enter the fire tower to fight for equipment and materials, giving Xinyi The approved subordinate gods provide resources, and I want to crush Gertz with an absolute advantage.”

Seeing that Lu Yang was so firm, Xia Yuwei and Kuai Banbian knew that they couldn’t persuade any more, and each nodded and exited the special space, and began to recruit players.

On the other side.

Gertz stood in front of the last five kilometers, staring at the front with a fierce face, and muttered to himself: “Come on Luyang, come on, as long as you dare to come, I will let your army Destroy, let you taste the power of my marshland defense.”

The most prestigious between the Orange Plains and the Orange Fortress are the Orange Ghost Swamp and the Orange Ghost Forest. This is an area where swamps and forests coexist. How many traps there are in this area is not clear to Gertz, but he knows Of the money he gave to Professor Andre, half of the money was on the last five kilometers of defense.

Not only that, in this area, Gertz took his men to upgrade here for nearly a month. Before the war, they practiced here for a few more days, knowing this swamp and forest.

During the war, they can hide in any area they are familiar with. When fighting against the enemy, they can even deliberately lure players of the Brotherhood of Blood into the swamp and be swallowed by the swamp.

Facing the swamp, even the lower * was swallowed and suffocated to death!

Gertz has become crazy. He didn't think that playing Liu Jie would pit him at this time. In the face of the double blows of the enemy and his teammates, his entire face became distorted.

Sanyouweimen and Radvedev and other guild leaders stood behind Gertz, and they all sighed. They have been able to foresee Gertz's failure.

"We don't need to hide, let us provide him with what we can provide." Sanyou Weimen said What does it mean? Asked Radvedev.

Sanyouweimen closed his eyes and said, "I have a weapon called Fallen Thunder and Earth Spirit Thunder, which can slow down and damage the next god. I can provide 20,000 each."

Radvedev, Roland and others were a little surprised. No one expected that Sanyouweimen could say such a thing at this time.

"Since you gave it, I won't be stingy, I gave it too. Gertz must support it, at least to support me and Stephen to win or lose." Radvedev snorted, said: "I Give 10,000 pollen mines and 10,000 wood spirit mines."

"I give the same amount of Ray." Stephen said.

After learning that Liu Jie assaulted Steiger, Stephen and Radvedev stopped the war, and the two hurriedly transported to the area of Gerz. After seeing the scene, the two had to make up their minds to give Gertz necessary assistance.

Although the two sides are still at war and the lower gods can't be transferred out, such weapons can still be funded. At least, the two sides can't let Lu Yang kill Gertz before they win the war.

Chapter 1810 - The decisive battle of 40 million people

In the blink of an eye, although Jerz lost 20,000 lower gods, he had nearly 50,000 more weapons to kill the lower gods, which made Jerz show an excited look.

“Thank you, thank you guys, I must have a good report.” Gertz said excitedly to Sanyou Weimen and others.

Sanyouweimen sighed and said, “Guys, try to hold on as much as possible. We will try our best to provide you with this weapon. You and the temple organization behind you will also try your best to find a way to this war. It has become extremely difficult.”

“I know.” Gertz was extremely depressed.

At this time, the men ran in to report and said: “Just after receiving the news, Lu Yang stopped the attack, except for the surrounding trap sweepers, the rest of them rested in place.”

“Stop attacking? What is he going to do? Hit Liu Jie?” Gertz asked excitedly.

He shook his head and said with a solemn expression: “Lu Yang issued a gathering order to call for all dark gold equipment players above 170 in the guild and affiliated guilds, and the total number is expected to exceed 30 million.”

“What?” Gertz stunned his eyes wide and said, “Lu Yang wants to call 30 million people?”

Sanyou Weimen lamented and said, “Lu Yang really wants to do his best this time, his goal is still you.”

Gertz also understood, and his face roared with grim, "Will I be afraid of him? No matter how many people he comes, it doesn't make any sense in my swamp defense area. How many people come, how many people I kill him."

While Gertz roared and roared here, on the other side, players watching the world were wondering why Lu Yang stopped attacking.

Du Bin in the live room did not understand, but soon he got the news and excitedly said to the audience: "Friends, tell everyone a message, Lu Yang decided to attack Gertz with all his strength, he is calling for players The total number of people recruited this time will exceed 30 million, and everyone will once again see the strongest side of the Brotherhood of Iron Jade."

Of these 30 million people, Ayala contributed 8 million people, Padu and Darvi contributed 10 million people, Li Wenxing contributed 5 million people, G8's Heidel contributed 3 million people, and the remaining nine-star alliance, The combined contribution of the Heisha Candidate Army and Orma's Candidate Army contributed 6 million people.

In addition to the more than 10 million people currently in Luyang, the total number of people on the side of the Predator Brothers in this war exceeded 45 million.

The frypot is already in the live broadcast room. Everyone hears this data and feels incredible, but when they saw the whole of these people appear the next afternoon, they could not describe it with shock.

More than 40 million players lined up in countless squares along the vast plains in front of the orange fortress, Firestone Mountain, purple fortress, and blue fortress. Pulling the perspective to the sky, we saw only dense crowds.

Everyone in the world is shocked at how such a war is achieved, and the anchors in the major live broadcast rooms are crying wildly.

In a live broadcast room in the United States.

Hei Sha was invited to the scene again, and the host said madly: "This is incredible, how could Lu Yang have such a charisma, how could he let so many people follow him to fight, this is not 4500 people, and 45 million people, not so many people in World War II."

Heisha has worked hard in Hollywood for a year, and has faded the former greenness, and said with a mature and indifferent smile: "This is not difficult to understand. This is not Lu Yang's personal charm, but the charm of this game, players are willing to Helping Lu Yang is not out of love for Lu Yang, but because he is willing to pay the players the rewards they deserve."

"Do you mean money?" the host asked.

Heisha shook her head and said: "Guild points, equipment, and main position, players have the smallest requirements for money. As long as you want, you can make money in this game. The real appeal of players is what I just said. "

In fact, these words were said by Lu Yang, who was instructed by Hei Sha. He was laying out, but players around the world saw this scene, but many people were moved.

In-game.

On the frontal battlefield of the Orange Fortress, in this area alone, there are 10 million players. In order to win the war, Lu Yang asked everyone to be online at this time. He flew into the air and watched the assembly was completed More than 10 million players nodded in satisfaction and said loudly: "My friends, brothers and sisters, there are only about 2.5 million defensive players in the orange fortress, the number is one quarter of us. Secondly, I have only one command for everyone to attack freely. The first one rushes under the orange fortress and rewards one million dollars in cash. The attack begins!"

Ayala, Darwin, Li Wenxing and others issued orders, and at a time, tens of millions of players attacked the fortress from three directions at the same time, each direction had 3 million people, divided into six levels, and entered inside the slough forest.

At the same time, the White Lion, Half-Life, Zhou Tianming, and Tian Yao also issued orders in turn, and the tens of millions of players under each of them simultaneously launched forward attacks.

For a time, more than 45 million people stepped into the forest, and all players watching the world were almost breathless from the shock of the sight.

“I bet Gertz can’t hold an hour.”

“I bet for half an hour.”

“A wave of offense won.”

Gertz closed the video with a cold face, he personally came to the front line, watching the players who were already ambushing in various areas in the forest and swamp, he said on the guild channel: “My brothers, today is It’s time to test everyone, I hope everyone will attack with all their power, and block the enemy. As long as for a week, Lu Yang will be unable to wage war. I beg you to hold on.”

The players under Gertz did not want to fail like this. Billions of people all over the world were watching it. Soon, the first players entered the forest, but one minute after they walked into the forest.

“Woo~!”

There was a dull sound of breaking the air, and the players of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood looked up, and countless arm-thick crossbows shot over.

The shield player is still in the top shield state, but even then, the moment the crossbow hits the shield, the shield player is killed in place.

The bed crossbow, like the catapult, is a siege tool, but the difference is that the bed crossbow cannot be projected or shot upwards, but can only be shot horizontally. In terms of power, he does not have the ability to do one side damage like the catapult, but his single kill ability Extremely strong.

Even a 180-level anti-war player wearing a dark gold-level suit and being hit by a bed crossbow that has been upgraded to level 9 hits a shield in front of him will also die on the ground.

When Jerz hit the entire southern area, he realized the importance of bed crossbows. Therefore, his guild has average strength of catapults, but bed crossbows are all at level 9.

Chapter 1811 - Battle of Firestone Mountain

At the beginning of the offense of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, they were intensively shot by a large number of bed crossbows, almost impossible to walk on the north and east sides of the orange fortress.

The crossbow of the bed crossbow has a range of more than 300 meters, and the wizards and archers of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood are still unable to hit it. If they use the lower * to open the way, they will be attacked by a large number of Tulinglei and Fengshenlei.

Lu Yang wanted to play in person, but was stopped by his men. Xia Yuwei said: "You can't go on the battlefield anymore, so many people have been dispatched. If you need to come in person, we will be too shameful. The credits are all taken away, let the following brothers play, they also expect these credits to enter the game city."

"But you have to know that we can only stick to one week, and after this week, we will lose." Lu Yang said.

More than 40 million players have been found. Lu Yang is betting on most of his net worth. If he can't beat Gertz within a week, it will be left to Lu Yang.

Xia Yuwei said: "Give me half a day, just half a day, the sister group has arrived near Firestone Mountain, as long as they cut off the transmission line of Firestone Mountain, the Orange Fortress is no problem for you to attack."

The sudden change in the situation on the battlefield made the sisters a bit unprepared. When the enemy retreated in large numbers, girls such as Li Mao and Liu Xiang did not stand by, but boldly carried out an adventure plan.

They followed the enemy's retreating players, and sometimes even mixed in the enemy's team. With their beauty and wisdom, they successfully let their 10,000 people successfully ran to the foot of the Fire Stone Mountain.

Even the enemy's defense line 5 kilometers in front of the volcano was easily passed by them. Lu Yang had to lament the luck of these girls, but luck is only one aspect. Xia Yuwei knows that the best of these girls specialize in learning. In addition to Irish and Japanese, this is the key to their ability to mix into the enemy front.

Lu Yang said: "I believe in them and watch their performance."

Xia Yuwei showed a smiling expression, looked at the time, and said: "There is still 10 minutes before dark. When the night falls and the enemy is tired, it is time for them to act."

In order to drill into the Flint Mountains, Li Mao and Liu Xiang chose to launch a raid at three o'clock in the middle of the night in Game City.

A little bit of time passed, and in the process of waiting, the whole war became a large part of the players who began to support from the situation that everyone at the beginning thought Lu Yang would defeat Gertz in a crushing gesture. Gertz, think Gertz can hold.

"I don't think your swamp forest defense is so much stronger than before. With this defense, I don't think Lu Yang is capable of defeating you in a week." In the room, Sanyou Weimen said to Gertz.

Roland said: "No wonder Tom was attacking you at the time but couldn't attack it. It turned out that this slough forest was so difficult to fight."

Gertz showed a terrible look, gritted his teeth and said: "This slough forest buried Tom. Now I will also use him to bury Lu Yang. I will let him know how terrifying this forest is."

Sanyou Weimen thought for a while and said, "Be careful, Lu Yang will attack you with all his strength now, and within a day, your orange fortress will be besieged on all sides. If Fire Stone Mountain is lost, you and several others The connection to the fortress is broken, which has to be guarded."

Gertz showed slightly, and said: "I placed 100 lower gods stationed in Fire Stone Mountain. Outside Fire Stone Mountain, there are 2,000 lower gods and more than 1 million players. It is more than the mud forest, Fire Stone Mountain. It's hard to attack. There are steep peaks and there is no jumping place. I can only take a narrow path. I haven't figured out how to attack Huoshan Mountain for so long. Luyang has no way."

Flint Mountain, a mountain that is not very high, is only more than 800 meters high. The name is given because the shape of the entire mountain looks like a burning flame.

The bottom of the mountain is steep, just like the cliffs on the facade. There is no place to climb. There are only three roads in the whole mountain. The width of each road can only accommodate two people in parallel.

Jerez's men are hiding in the middle of the mountain, attacking from the ground 400 meters high. All the spells, bows and arrows, bed crossbows are hit from the top. On this steep bottom wall, even There is no place to hide. Gertz has performed countless internal calculations. This Firestone Mountain is unbreakable.

On the mountainside of Firestone Mountain.

The third deputy chairman, Barnes, the commander well-known in the Liberty Army, is one of Gerz's most important deputy presidents, and he is also one of the inferior gods with a response speed of about 0.1 seconds.

I hadn't seen it on the Orange Light Prairie before, because Gerds asked him to strictly guard against the stone mountain, which shows how steady and rigorous this person is.

“Brothers are all in the spirit, it is already the middle of the night. The enemy is most likely to launch a sneak attack during this time period. For the guild and for us not to lose face in front of players around the world, everyone must stick to it.”

“Think about how his Guild players were when Olma lost?”

“Think of what happened to Tom’s players when they were looted by the League of Predator Brothers when he lost?”

“We must not be the next Olma and Tom. As long as we hold on, I will give credit to everyone, and the top 500 according to credit, I will definitely let the boss invite you to enter the game city.”

...

While patrolling Firestone Mountain, Barnes cheered his players. The players under him were very inspired by him, staring at the three roads of Firestone Mountain and the surroundings under the cliffs.

“The flare bombs are thrown down. Every five minutes, the shooter throws a row of flare bombs to keep the brightness around the flint mountain.” Barnes continued to shout.

Thousands of shooters at the same time fired flashes to the bottom of the cliff 400 meters below. At the moment when the flashes of the flashing light fell at the foot of the mountain, the whole mountain was illuminated like daylight.

“No one on my side.”

...

The players responsible for observing through the telescope have reported the situation at the foot of the mountain to Barnes, but when these players reported, no one knew that two small spiders, only 10 centimeters in size, were clinging to the bottom of the cliff. Above the wall.

Although the walls at the foot of the mountain are steep, they are still all kinds of stones and bulges. Li Mao and Liu Xiang are hiding here, watching the enemy's defense so tight, both of them showed a dignified look.

Chapter 1812 - Hard success

"Why is Barnes defending so tightly? This man is too scary." Li Mao said with a frown.

Liu Xiang gritted his teeth and said, "Don't be afraid. For Li Juan, our sisters will have to fight for everything this time and continue to look for loopholes. I don't believe I can't find it."

"But the boss Yuwei asked the chairman for only a few hours, are we still enough?" Li Mao asked.

Now the entire Iron-Blood Brotherhood is serving their 10,000 sisters, orange, purple, blue and green fortresses. In each fortress, there are tens of millions of players attacking with all their strength. Jerz can't leave any player. Support other regions.

Liu Xiang thought of it here, suffocated and pained in his heart, typing and said: "No matter what time, we just look for loopholes, I will leave after the big deal, but now we must find the loopholes of the enemy."

When Lu Yang fought in this way, the money consumed every minute was astronomical. Liu Xiang knew this, but she finally took her sisters to this step. If she was exposed, she would give up her previous achievements. She didn't want to give up. The opportunity, also want to rely on this merit, completely change the perception of the sister group in the outside world.

"We walked separately, you walked on the left, and I walked on the right." After Liu Xiang typed, he quickly crawled along the mountain toward the side.

Now Liu Xiang and Li Mao are like dancers dancing on the tip of the knife. At every step of the walk, they must be sure that they are under the protrusion of the rock. Beside the rock, there is a flash of light that shines. They Spit nets are useless.

The two climbed around the bottom of the volcano, but found that there was no gap at all. There were people throwing torches at the foot of the whole mountain. One or two people could climb the mountain secretly. If 10,000 people climb the mountain, there is absolutely no way.

When the two of them returned to the original point, they were all sad, and Tao Fei sent a message to ask: "How is it, it has been more than an hour, and it hasn't been long before dawn."

Li Mao said sadly: "The location of the mountain was not found. The enemy patrolled at night more frequently than during the day."

"So what to do, when time is up, Sister Yuwei will be punished." Tao Fei said anxiously.

In such a large-scale war, anyone who makes mistakes cannot be forgiven in a simple sentence or two, but must pay a high price.

Both Li Mao and Liu Xiang became more and more anxious, and Lu Yang and Xia Yuwei were also anxious. They could not call to urge Li Mao and Liu Xiang to avoid any psychological pressure on them.

In this way, the time passed little by little, and the night passed quickly. After an hour and a half, light appeared on the horizon of the sky, and before the sun rose, all the darkness had been driven away. See clearly.

Li Mao and Liu Xiang still did not find a way to go up the mountain, but when the two were anxious to cry without tears, suddenly, a familiar voice came.

“It’s dawn, stop throwing the torch, and each team sends members to search down the mountain. It must be meticulous and rigorous.” Barnes’s voice echoed on the Flint Mountain, while he was still patrolling the mountain.

“Boss, there can be no enemies.” The head of a free legion not far from Li Mao turned around and asked Barnes, looking tired.

Barnes also looked at the leader with some regrets and said, “If you persist, Fire Stone Mountain can’t be lost. If you are attacked by the enemy, the orange fortress will be dangerous.”

The leader sighed and yawned again, saying, “Brothers, come down with me to check the situation.”

Dozens of players stood up with the leader and walked down the mountain. Barnes nodded with satisfaction and turned to other areas.

But Barnes walked away, but the head of the patrol who had come out to patrol with his men only searched for less than 50 meters at the foot of the mountain. Even if he walked 30 meters further, he could see tens of thousands hiding in the grass. Little spiders.

“Why is there anyone, the boss of Barnes is just too cautious, go, let’s go back to sleep.”

“The opportunity is rare. He will never come again during the day.”

“Brother, you’re affected. You have less sleep. We went to bed.”

...

The commander looked at the sleepy appearance of the surrounding players. On the one hand, he was soft-hearted, on the other hand, he was also angry that people who did not agree with the Brotherhood of Blood could secretly come here, so he waved his hand and said, "Go, go back to sleep, You all sleep, I will send you a whistle."

Dozens of people giggled and complimented the leader and returned to the mountain's defense tunnel. He fell asleep and the grunt soon came out. Only the leader was staring at the surroundings, but it didn't take long for the leader to be sleepy. No, it fell asleep.

The area guarded by the regiment and these dozens of people is very special. They are located at the corner of a concave mountain in Firestone Mountain. At the foot of the mountain, only the regiment can see it. If they sleep, this area is Same as unmanned defense.

Li Mao and Liu Xiang looked excitedly at the player who fell down and slept. The two knew that the opportunity to attack finally came.

"Sisters, gather together." Liu Xiang quickly climbed to the foot of the mountain while sending a message, leading Tao Fei and the members of the 10,000 sister group to climb up the mountain.

The spider's movement speed is very fast, even if it is reduced by 10 times, 10,000 people only climbed to the mountainside of the 400-meter-high Firestone Mountain in less than half an hour.

When passing by this group of people, they showed no signs of waking up, Liu Xiang breathed a sigh of relief, and led the sister group members into a cave 450 meters away.

System prompt: You have entered Firestone Mountain!

Liu Xiang, Tao Fei and Li Mao glanced at each other with excitement. They knew that from here onwards, they really entered Fire Stone Mountain, and the war would become more intense from here.

"Sisters, it is not easy to get to this step, and you will soon be successful. Please be sure to work hard. For Li Juan, for the boss of Yu Wei, and for ourselves, you must not fail. Please listen to me." Liu Xiang Excited message.

Ten thousand little spiders nodded one after another.

Liu Xiang glanced around. The biggest feature of Huoshi Mountain is that the internal cave is very huge, because Huoshi Mountain has experienced hundreds of eruptions. The height of the cave is nearly 100 meters. Although the torch is bright around the wall, it can be found in the The top of the cave is still dark.

Liu Xiang took 10,000 sisters to the top of the cave along the wall of the mountain, and walked forward in an inverted form. The spider's feet were barbed a lot, allowing them to easily grasp the fine lines of the rock on the top of the cave.

As they walked forward, suddenly, a group of people came on the ground of the cave. They replaced the torch that was about to burn out. Liu Xiang quickly sent a message to everyone to stop. If they throw a fireball or shoot a flare, they can only break through.

"What sound?" A mage player looked at his head while changing his torches.

"You scared me." A warrior player next to him looked uncomfortable and said: "Don't always be so suspicious, so many people are defending outside, how many lines of defense, and there can be no enemies coming in."

The mage player shrugged his shoulders and said, "Sooner or later, I will burn the top from start to finish, which always makes me feel creepy."

The warrior player laughed and said: "You are timid, hurry and go, the teleportation array has not changed yet, if the teleporter is black when it arrives, the boss will not clean you up."

"I'm not afraid of smearing to go outside? Anything inside is easy to say." The mage player grumbled.

The women like Liu Xiang and Li Mao glanced at each other in surprise. None of them thought that there was such a good thing. Originally, they needed to look at the map to find the location. Now, just follow these two people, the speed is faster than the original. Double it.

"Follow them." Liu Xiang sent a message and walked towards the front.

The women nodded, and as Liu Xiang followed the two players on their heads, the range of Firestone Mountain was very large. The cave inside turned around and walked for half an hour. The sky outside was already bright.

Inside the frontline headquarters of the Brotherhood of Iron-Blood Brothers, Xia Yuwei couldn't hold her breath and couldn't help sending a message to Liu Xiang's three girls and asked, "Where are you."

Liu Xiang watched that the time had been more than half an hour longer than scheduled. He was grateful and excited in his heart and sent a video sharing to Xia Yuwei, saying, "Boss, we live up to expectations and find the enemy. Teleportation."

In the video, a large number of players around the teleportation group are constantly teleporting and teleporting away. Xia Yuwei sees this scene, and the tears of excitement almost came down. The pressure she took for a while was too great. Finally, she Freed.

"Boss, the sister group is in place." Xia Yuwei said to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang has not questioned Xia Yuwei once since the battle began. He gave Xia Yuwei and the sister group sufficient time and confidence. Sure enough, they did not live up to their expectations.

Lu Yang looked at the video and said: "It's a very good job. I sent a message and ordered everyone to stop the attack and rest in place."

"Yes." Tu Feng issued an order immediately.

On the side of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood who are attacking with all their strength, all the people stopped, and nearly 45 million people stopped the attack. The scene is quite spectacular.

From the high altitude, from the orange fortress to the red fortress, tens of millions of people stopped the attack, and on the other side, the Jerz side suddenly felt a loose body.

"Stop attacking?"

“What is Lu Yang doing?”

“What does he want to do?”

...

Gertz has become a crazy demon in the front line headquarters. This day's war has made him feel that it has been as long as a year. Every minute and every second there are reports from the front line. Under the circumstances, desperately mobilizing all players who can be mobilized and regrouping the professional assignments, it can be up to now, he is already a little crazy.

Vice President Margaret looked at the time, frowning and said: “Lu Yang's strongest attack is just like this wave. Players will soon be off the line to rest. Players in different countries have different work schedules. Attacked with 40 million people.”

Gertz looked at the time and gasped and said: “It makes sense that Lu Yang should not be able to direct so many people over there. I don't believe he can let these people stay with him for another day.”

Margaret looked at Gertz distressedly and stroked his cheek: “My dear, take it easy. We have passed the most difficult stage. Now we just have to wait for Lu Yang to collapse on their own. The forest defense line stood firm.”

Gertz's spirit gradually eased and said: “We will take a break right away and tell the brothers to persevere and insist that tonight, you can rest in batches off the assembly line.”

Compared with the offense of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, on the one hand, Gertz's battle against the Nation, the players all surging to support Gertz, many people voluntarily do not go offline all day and night.

If, say, Gertz can trust these players who are fighting for the honor of their country and guild, let them defend the Firestone Mountain, Li Mao and Liu Xiang, even if they have the greatest ability, they can not go up the mountain silently.

Unfortunately, Gertz sent these people to the front and sent them to the muddy forest. Although they cooperated with Gerz's main team to defeat the players of the Iron-Blood Brothers time and time again, Flint Mountain, which can really play a decisive role, became the largest. Loophole.

In the interior of Flint Mountain.

The players who teleported and teleported quickly left the teleportation circle, but they could wait for half an hour continuously. The people here are not over yet.

Both Lu Yang and Xia Yuwei looked at the video and frowned. Suddenly, Xia Yuwei reacted and said, "Boss, is there any possibility that the enemy's supply warehouse is near Huoshi Mountain."

Lu Yang nodded thoughtfully and said, "Not only is it possible, it must be so. The Gerzi side did not put all the equipment materials in the orange fortress, but partly outside."

Such a guess makes sense. In a fortress warehouse, the number of equipment that can be stored is limited. Even if the warehouse is built more, the consumption of more than 2.5 million players will make the fortress stretched.

In order to prevent problems in the warehouse of the fortress, Gertz has a great possibility to build a simple teleportation array behind Firestone Mountain, next to the equipment warehouse.

In the area that cannot be cut off by the world, equipment is constantly being transported from the Celestial God City to this equipment warehouse. After the player drops the equipment in battle, it is quickly transferred to this area, and after being supplied from here, it is sent to the orange fortress through the Firestone Mountain. .

Although the journey is a bit farther and more troublesome, the victory is not messy, and can support any position on the front line in time.

In the past, the Jagged Brothers were fighting fiercely with the Gerds side in the mudflat forest, because the area was too large, and there were too many trees and swamps. Even the Jagged Brothers could not spread out the fight, so that the war between the two sides Many times they are entangled in a certain tree, or even a certain mud pond.

The Iron-Blood Brotherhood, inside the frontline headquarters.

The projections of the main vice presidents such as White Lion, Zhou Tianming, Hard Love Half-Life and Tian Yao and the presidents of the affiliated guilds such as Ayala have appeared beside Lu Yang and Xia Yuwei.

“Why stop the attack.”

“The place where we finally made it down was taken back by the enemy.”

“Boss is about to start an offensive. Players in different countries have different rest breaks. After resting, the courage will be gone, and it is easy to not want to join the war.”

...

The sudden stagnation of the war has filled each main vice president and affiliated guild president with resentment. They now represent not individuals but countless players.

A problem that may be caused by negligence is extremely serious. They have already strained their spirits to the limit. At this time, no one is qualified to make mistakes. The pressure makes everyone feel collapsed, as if they are really fighting on the battlefield. .

Lu Yang looked at everyone’s eager expression and showed a light smile, syncing the video sent back by Li Mao and Liu Xiang to Bai Shi and others, and said, “Look at this first.”

“This is?” White Lion’s face was curious.

Lu Yang said: “Here is the internal teleportation array of Firestone Mountain.”

“What?” Everyone could not help but blurted out in surprise.

“In this way, the sister group has infiltrated Fire Stone Mountain and came to their teleportation array.” Zhou Tianming asked excitedly.

“Very correct.” Lu Yang punched * the table and pointed to the Firestone Mountain on the map: “Our chance of success has finally arrived. Now as long as the players inside Firestone Mountain have completed the teleportation, the sister group can attack. , Once the attack ends the enemy’s teleportation array, then we can encircle the orange fortress and break him.”

Only then did everyone understand it, and they all showed relief expressions, and loved for half a life, saying: “Then we will cooperate with you and listen to your boss.”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Soon this opportunity will come. Now we suspect that the enemy has a supply warehouse behind the Fire Stone Mountain, otherwise there will not be so many people going back and forth here, staying calm, and talking for more than half an hour. It’s done.”

White Lion and others nodded and sat quietly in their chairs to rest. After a series of battles, Gertz couldn’t stop eating. They also felt great pressure.

Ayala, Darvi and others turned their heads to look at Lu Yang. They did not expect that Lu Yang could do such an incredible thing. How tight the line of defense of Fire Stone Mountain was, they knew clearly.

If they could sneak attack, they would have attacked long ago, but under such strict defense, Lu Yang could even have a 10,000-member army secretly sneaked into the enemy’s view as the safest and most tightly defended without the enemy’s knowledge. The hinterland They feel that the Predator Brothers are terrible.

If it is said that only Lu Yang is terrible, it is nothing. The key is that there are endless talents in the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. There are presidents and vice-presidents such as Lu Yang and White Lion, Zhuo Jiu, Zhou Tianming in front, and cute queens, Wan Zhonghui, Liu Ruohuai, the head of the iron-blooded army, followed by Chen Qiang and the leader of the secret army in front of him.

The former managers are still young and powerful, and the succeeding talents are still mature enough to stand alone. In the case of talents like a blowout, it is impossible for the Jagged Brotherhood to sweep the world. This is a terrorist war machine that no one can stop.

“Fortunately, I’m with them~!” This was the only thing that Ayala and Sidell thought.

“There are fewer people!” Suddenly, a half-life of the bitter love suddenly roared, pulling everyone’s thoughts back to the video. In the picture, there were only a few hundred players in and out of the Firestone Mountain Teleportation Array.

In two minutes, there was no one in the teleportation array. Lu Yang raised his head and looked at everyone. The white lions nodded to Lu Yang one after another.

“Order, Spider Sisters, attack~” Lu Yang looked at Xia Yuwei solemnly.

Chapter 1813 - Reversal

“Yes.” Xia Yuwei immediately issued a command excitedly.

The roof of the cave is 500 meters away from the Firestone Mountain Teleportation Formation. The members of the 10,000 sisters group have sorted out the formation. Every member of the sisters group is looking forward to this moment when they hear Xia Yuwei’s life.

Liu Xiang didn’t come out with excitement, but instead endured his excitement and issued an order on the team channel.

“My sister group, Sister Yu Wei formally issued an order to attack us. Waiting for this moment, we have been waiting for too long, for Li Juan who is serving his sentence in prison, for us to have a place in the game city, for us The future of life is also for our loved blood brotherhood, everyone listens to my orders, sister group, attack with me~”

Liu Xiang’s two spider forelimbs in the spider form pointed forward, and 10,000 spiders quickly ran forward in batches at the top of the cave.

In front of the teleportation array, there are only 10 lower gods and nearly a thousand players guarding. In contrast, the sister group includes Liu Xiang, and their team has a total of 100 lower gods. The equipment they wear is all the * flames of the lower * level 3, in addition They also have 5000 killing gods.

When Liu Xiang clenched their teeth and endured excitement to come to the top of these 10 people, 100 people each locked a lower * in groups of 10 people, and jumped down.

In mid-air, they changed back to human form and size, and with their daggers in their hands, they stabbed in the deadly parts of the neck, heart and other parts of these 10 people.

The 10 subordinate gods of Jerez died instantly. At the same time, other members of the sister group also fell from the air, killing more than a thousand players in an instant.

“The first team is finished.”

“The third team is finished.”

...

The 10 teams successively reported that the assassination mission was completed. Liu Xiang did not look back. He completely trusted his sisters and jumped into the teleportation. He looked at the gang badge on the shrine. He smashed the badge of the Free Legion from the backpack. Here he took out the chairman of the Brotherhood of Blood and placed it on it.

“Report the boss of Yu Wei and the presidents, the sister group successfully laid down the Firestone Mountain, and ask for support.” Liu Xiangqiang endured the excitement and reported the situation to the guild general channel word by word.

In the video, Lu Yang saw Liu Xiang’s success with his own eyes, and he made a fist. He said: “Good job, clean up the remaining enemies inside the Flint Mountain, and guard the Flint Mountain is the cave entrance. I will send someone to support you immediately.”

He turned to look at the body of De Bu, who was already ready to go, and said: “Order, you take all the air combat players to support the sister group. Be sure to keep the Fire Rock Mountain one day and one night. Successful, all of you are the first Merit.”

“Yes.” De Buchen answered with a fist, jumped into the air, turned into a fire phoenix, and quickly flew towards the Firestone Mountain. In mid-air, De Buchen corpse made a burst of phoenix sounds.

With his cry, more than 20,000 fire phoenixes and tens of thousands of black iron war eagles and vultures spread their wings to his side. They spread their wings together to cover the sky and cover half of the sky. Too.

The players on both sides of the ground saw that there were so many people suddenly appearing in the sky, and they were all taken aback. The side of the Iron-Blood Brothers found out that they were themselves, and they all showed excitement and excitement. Ugly emoji.

Lu Yang looked at the legion, with a hopeful expression, muttered to himself: “I hope they can hold the Firestone Mountain. If they hold it, our war will really win.”

Flintstone Teleportation Formation, just like the fortress teleportation formation, he can teleport not only players on the Jerz side, but also players on the Jagged Brotherhood side, but after changing the guild badge, a buffer time of one day is required.

The focus of the two-sided war between the Brotherhood of Blood and the Freedom Legion is not only the orange fortress, but also the Fire Stone Mountain. If the sisters and the Druid Army resist, at this time tomorrow, ten million players of the Brotherhood of Blood You can enter the rear of the enemy’s defense line through the Firestone Mountain teleportation array, and attack the Liberty Legion on both sides.

Xia Yuwei said: "Please rest assured, boss, I have confidence in the sister group, they will definitely be able to do it."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "The battle over there is up to them. We should now clean up the orange fortress. Everyone listens to my orders and returns to their respective positions to launch the most intense attack on the enemy. The enemy will have extra troops to support the Firestone Mountain."

"Yes." Hard-loving half-life, Zhou Tianming and White Lion responded loudly. They had seen the hope of victory in this war, and everyone was full of energy.

The presidents of the affiliated guilds such as Ayala and Darwin also stood up and showed serious expressions, following the half-life of love and Zhou Tianming and they left.

Lu Yang looked at the remaining Xia Yuwei and said, "You are responsible for attacking the front. I personally lead the team to fight the side of the orange fortress. Within two hours, we strive to beat him."

"Yes." Xia Yuwei said.

Lu Yang withdrew from the special space and rushed to the forefront, with more than three million players including three thousand sword killers, light and dark thieves, and Hansha, and swooped to the north side of the orange fortress.

At this time, the orange fortress has completely become an isolated city, which is itself besieged on all sides by the Brotherhood of Blood, and the only way to transport supplies is to rely on Fire Stone Mountain.

Now Firestone Mountain has been beaten down. More than 2 million players inside the Orange Fortress have completely lost the supply line. That is to say, if the players inside the Orange Fortress now lose their equipment, they can only supply through the warehouse in the city.

When the supplies in the warehouse in the city are used up, they will completely lose their resistance. Therefore, Lu Yang chose one of the simplest offensive methods, and com to attack on all sides.

There are more than 10 million players around the orange fortress in the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, besieged on all sides, no matter how difficult the muddy forest outside the fortress is, for four players for one player, even forty players for one player. Law, Lu Yang dare to use it.

By virtue of the fact that the side of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood has supplies, the players in the orange fortress have no supplies!

Frontier position of the Liberty Army.

Gertz is violently throwing everything that can be thrown at his hand, and frantically pointing at the vice president Barnes, who has just returned from the defeat of Firestone Mountain, scolded: "Stupid, stupid, you stupid stupid, why did I? You gave Huoshishan to you just because you are stable, but you have failed my trust and lost Huoshishan.

Do you know what this mountain means? He means that we are completely passive now, and the hope of victory is completely gone, do you know? "

Barnes felt depressed and wronged than anyone else at this time. He really didn't know where the sister group came out. With his tight defense, he could be attacked by the sister group, and he was a sister compiled by tens of thousands of people. The regiment infiltrated into Firestone Mountain, and he felt really stupid.

Chapter 1814 - New Skill-God Light

"Your excellency, I ask you to trust me again and let me lead the team to retake the Flintstone Mountain." Barnes said with a rueful voice.

Gertz stared at Barnes, saying one by one: "I will only give you three hours, if you can't hit it within three hours, you will leave me."

"Yes." Barnes gritted his teeth and left.

Gertz looked at his back, and when no one noticed, his body shook violently, and his heart panicked. Although he scolded Barnes so much, Barnes was already the most thinking person under his staff. The meticulous and reliable vice president.

But in such a situation, Flint Mountain could still be stolen by the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. Gertz felt so crazy that he had no idea what else he could do.

Margaret came to Gerlze's side and said nervously: "For the time being, don't think about Firestone Mountain, what about the Orange Fortress? Only 2 million players defend the Orange Fortress, and the Iron-Blood Brotherhood has more than 10 million people. Now they are attacking from all sides, and the players in that fortress can't hold on for long, and Guland has repeatedly asked for help."

Gertz roared: "Where am I from to help him, tell him that he must hold on, and I will support as soon as possible."

Margaret could feel Gerlz's helplessness. He said: "We have another way to recruit more people to support us."

"What way?" Gerz asked fiercely.

Margaret said: "Spend money to invite people and call on all players in our area. If you are willing to spend money and give things, someone will come."

This is a trick, if Gerds is defeated, he will become poor and down, but sometimes people are like this. The more they say, the more they care about what is in their hearts.

At the beginning, Gertz and the Golden Lion opened their mouths and shut up to say that they would surrender to Lu Yang. In fact, Gertz never thought of surrendering. Not only that, he also wanted to unify the whole new continent and become the only king.

So, after Margaret said this, Gerlze did not hesitate and shouted: "Order Gulland to stay at the orange fortress and give me time."

Margaret looked at Gertz in surprise. She nodded vigorously, turned to the next room and called.

Gertz stood there thinking for two minutes. He took out the phone and called the president of the guild of more than 50,000 people in his territory.

"If you are willing to come to the gang, I will give you guild shares."

"As long as you can help me block Lu Yang, I will share this guild with you."

...

If you lose, the guild will be gone. Gerlze decided to fight hard once. His decision was not made hastily, but for a long time.

As early as the defeat of the Group of Eight, the defeat of Olma and the defeat of Tom, Gertz wondered why they could not beat Lu Yang, and why they would fail every time at a critical moment.

The first reason is that there are so many blood-blooded brothers, so he once simulated that if Lu Yang came to fight him one day, he would use this trick when he couldn't.

There are more than 200 million players in the southern part of the New World. There are hundreds of thousands of guilds, only a few people in the small one, and more than 100,000 people in the big one. Gertz found more than one hundred guilds in a blink of an eye, nearly 700. Ten thousand players were recruited by him.

Not only that, but the number of people is still increasing. Pang Si reported this incident to Lu Yang for the first time, which made Lu Yang show a solemn expression.

“Sure enough, Gertz is not so good.” Lu Yang muttered to himself, and he looked up at the orange fortress in the distance.

The war in the quagmire forest is too cruel. Even in Luyang’s weakest period of the year, it was not as difficult as it was against the bloodthirsty domineering and black blood.

This is a war that tests the will of both parties. Which side’s will collapses, the battle will end. The best way to destroy their wills is to use a large-scale special magic bombing, such as Shenguang Tianzhao.

Lu Yang looked at the black inflammation on his side and said, “Are you ready?”

“The Master Group has been prepared and can be released at any time.” Hei Yan said.

“Shenguang Tianzhao launched in batches without interruption.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Heiyan waved his arm.

More than 10,000 cursed mages appeared. Among them, the weapon of the thousandth was pointed at the forest in front of them, and the spell was spoken in the mouth.

“The true God is above, listen to the voices of your believers, and give you the humble servant to redeem the world with the Holy Light-God’s Light!”

Ten thousand stars of white light flew into the forest at the same time, which made the players who met in the quagmire forests curious. They haven’t seen such a skill yet, but it is in the next second.

“Burst~!”

The violent white light burst suddenly, and all players within 100 meters of the light spot could not be opened by the white light.

“Damn, what skill is this.”

“How could there be something that specifically dazzles people’s eyes.”

“Where is the enemy, I can’t see it.”

“Beware of enemy sneak attacks.”

There is a mess in the forest, but Lu Yang is not in a hurry to attack. This powerful skill is powerful enough to hit. The maximum shooting distance is 1500 meters, and the duration after the skill is released is 30 seconds.

Lu Yang pinched the time and said, “The second wave of divine light shines, let go.”

Black Flame waved his hand, and the second wave of white light struck past. Once again, the players who had not regained their eyesight were hit even more invisible things. These players were originally hidden in the mud, but they still showed their eyes.

People cannot close their eyes for a long time, unless they sleep, especially if they are surrounded by enemies, and they may not attack at any time.

The dazzling light forced them to close their eyes. In the forest area of 5 kilometers wide and 1500 meters long, all the free legion players were attacked by strong light skills.

Those who hide their eyes in the quagmire are lucky. Players hiding in the trees and in the water are the most unlucky. There is no place to hide in the trees. They can only close their eyes and bore dry in the face of strong light, and The people in the water dare not open their eyes at all, and the light reflected from the water surface is even more dazzling.

1 minute

2 minutes

For two full hours, Lu Yang did not launch King Kong forward, but irradiated these players with white light. Finally, some players could not bear this psychological pressure and collapsed and escaped from the forest.

“If you have the courage to attack, use flash to count what you can do. Come and fight.” A free legion player roared.

Lu Yang killed Shenyang with a burst of flames in one hand, and looked at the three thousand killing swords around him: “It’s time to lead the team to attack.”

“Yes” Three Thousand Killing Sword raised his long sword and took 300,000 people into the forest.

Chapter 1815 - Crazy Goers

As the leader of the lower gods, Lu Yang walked to the front. Like the previous tactics, there was a lower * every 50 meters, and behind them were 1,000 players.

Within a distance of 1500 meters in the forest, a large number of players were unable to withstand the pressure of closing their eyes for two consecutive hours and left their original positions.

Looking at the free legion players running around on the ground, Lu Yang raised his hands.

“Shen Yan Tian burst”

Small pure gold fireballs hit their bodies with precision. When the following * skills are hit on ordinary players, an ashes effect will be produced.

Any player who is hit by a golden fireball and spikes, the flame will wrap the body and burn to ashes in an instant.

The three thousand killing swords and others who were behind Lu Yang saw the enemies were killed by Lu Yang one by one. The clean killing method made everyone excited.

Not only Lu Yang, but the lower gods of the entire forward team are doing the same thing. Some of the lower gods have bad skills. They will hit gems on the equipment, turn on the automatic mode, and fireball and thunderball skills automatically track the enemy. .

In the mudflat forest, every 500 meters is the position of the enemy’s crossbow car. Normally, a crossbow car is operated by four people, and 50 crossbow arrows are released at a time.

But now the player in the position of the crossbow car has either escaped, or screamed and screamed everywhere, watching the three thousand killing swords and others who followed him with a surprised look.

“Boss, it’s so uncomfortable to keep a person’s eyes closed for two hours in a row?” Han Sha couldn’t help asking.

Lu Yang smiled at him and said, “I believe you are a person with great perseverance. You can do it, but most people can’t do it. In the normal circumstances, keep your eyes closed for two hours. Most people can't stand it, not to mention the situation in which battles are held together and every second is competing.

We have been throwing God's Lights all the time but never attacked. This kind of pressure in our hearts will increase with time. They don't know when we will attack, but they keep closing their eyes and suspecting that we secretly came.

Once you open your eyes, you will be unable to see things within 30 seconds of being shone by the divine light, and all kinds of things will accumulate together, and it will become like this, grabbing their crossbow car and moving on. "

Three Thousand Killed Sword nodded, ordered the players in the back row to * the crossbow vehicle, pushed back and drove towards the depths of the swamp forest, and the others continued to follow Lu Yang, walking for 1,500 meters, before stopping again.

Lu Yang said to Hei Yan behind him: "Continue to use God's light, we are not in a hurry to attack."

The other three directions forcibly attacked for two and a half hours, and had not advanced a thousand meters. The level of warfare was far beyond the imagination of the players.

"Swoosh"

"Swoosh"

...

Countless white light * once again fell into the 1500-meter-long muddy forest in front, and players in the area fell into a white light again.

On the other side.

Commander Guland, who defended the Orange Fortress, already knew what was happening here, shouting at the commander of the large army in the direction of defense, said: "I don't care what method you use, take me back the lost place, Do you know how fierce the fighting is on the other three sides? Only you have the least war on your side, but you are the most defeated. Take me back, if you don't take it back, you will get out of the guild."

Guers knew that it was useless to justify now. With excitement, he shouted: "Yes, I will take it back."

He withdrew from the projection dialogue and looked at the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, which continued to launch the God of Light, and he chose the most tragic way of fighting under the condition that the defense had not moved.

"Offense, all attacks, follow me to launch a counterattack to defeat the Brotherhood of Iron-Blood Brothers." Geers roared and led only 300,000 men under his command, and launched a counterattack against more than 2 million people on Luyang's side from both wings.

400,000 people were divided into two parts by him, and they were inserted into the two rib positions of the Luyang team at the same time as two pliers.

If the military strength of the two sides is not much different, this move is very useful, but Lu Yang is not only an expert at using this move, but his strength is four times that of the Guers side.

For a time, the two sides launched a life-and-death battle in the central area. Lu Yang was determined to attack forward, but there were 100,000 defensive players in the front to block the last line of defense, including many top-level gods.

In desperation, Lu Yang returned to the rib area with his army, and fought with the 300,000 people in Gores.

"Kill~"

"Rush~!"

...

As the first general of Guland's men, Gers is best at attacking head-on, especially when he fights with his enemies, he often plays a decisive role.

At this time, Geers, carrying the banner of the Legion of Liberty, rushed to the front line. Around him, there were 30 lower gods protecting him, and he was also a lower * himself.

The team on the side of Gores showed the shape of an arc moon knife, similar to an arrow but not an arrow. The semi-arc attacked forward.

Lu Yang looked at Hansha and the light and dark thieves, and said, "You are responsible for killing Geers and taking his banner."

Lu Yang looked at the Three Thousand Killing Sword again and said, "You are responsible for leading the team through the arc of Moon's Circle from the side."

"Yes." The people replied together.

Lu Yang is standing on the spot. At this time, he cannot come out in person. This is an unwritten rule in the game. The war has reached this level. Unless it is a life-and-death battle, the president of a guild cannot do anything against the head of the army.

One is to lose status, and the other is to take credit for his work. Lu Yang is not the president of the small guild with only a few hundred people in his early years, but the president of a large guild with tens of millions of people. At this time, he only needs to sit. It is enough to watch this war on the high platform.

In fact, this is already a must-win war for the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. No matter how Guerz struggles, when he takes 300,000 people against Lu Yang's main force, he has already lost. It's just a matter of time. .

Hansha looked at Geers in the distance, and was leading the team to storm forward. He raised his two-handed sword, and hundreds of lower gods behind him, as Hansha hit the front of Geers side.

“Kill~” Gerls and his charge were like a high-speed moving roller machine, and anything that stood in front of him would be crushed.

Even if there is a lower * standing in front of them, the gulf that has killed madness can still kill his opponent in a desperate state.

Dozens of lower-level gods of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood were killed by Geers. Just when Geers was like a * of war, and no one could stop him, Hansha hit him in front of him.

“Kill~”

The lower gods on both sides were fighting together. At the same time, the three-thousand-kill sword took the opportunity to take 300,000 sides into the ribs of Gore’s arc moon array, and the Gore’s side was immediately cut into Two halves.

Normally, ordinary enemies collapsed quickly, and Kogels’ men were extremely powerful, just like snakes with their bodies cut off, the upper body struggled more violently, and the poisonous blood in the lower body also brought close blood A large number of Brother League players died.

Lu Yang stood in the distance and watched the competition between Hansha and Geers. In the Iron-Blood Brothers League, Hansha’s strength was ranked in the top 10, but he did not have an advantage in playing against Geers, but instead In a state of suppression.

If it were not for the assistance of other lower gods, Hansha would be even more embarrassed, but now that the Iron-Blood Brotherhood has more people, better equipment, and more morale, Geers’s defeat has become a foregone conclusion.

“Come on, kill, what do you hide, have the guts to fight me head-on.” Geers growled at Hansha frantically.

Hansha looked at Gers with admiration and said, “Your men are almost dead. Leave this area. I won’t kill you.”

Geers looked at Hansha with a smirk, pointed at him with a sword and said: "If the number is equal, I will kill you, you are just relying on a large number of people, I don't admire you, and I don't need your mercy. ."

Hansha shrugged her shoulders and said, "This is war, not to mention, I have a good boss. You don't have it. This is the fundamental reason why you lose."

"Our Liberal Corps will not admit defeat, waiting, we will meet again soon." Geers attacked the cold sofa crazy.

The next second, the two daggers of the light and dark thief were inserted into his back neck during the battle between Hansha and Geers.

A flash of light flashed, and Geers died in place!

Han Sha and Wang Guangwei and others just returned to Lu Yang to report the situation, the formation of the team was completed, and the shouts in the forest revived.

Lu Yang looked up and found that Geers rushed out again with hundreds of thousands of people, these people have complete equipment and supplies.

Lu Yang understood that Geers wanted to use their advantage of being closer to the resurrection point, forcibly dragging his legion, and even defeating his team by virtue of distance, but in this way, the Geers side would be sharp Consumption of equipment will actually increase the fall time of the orange fortress.

"According to the fighting style just now, defeat him." Lu Yang ordered.

"Yes." Hansha and the three thousand kill swords and other people organized the team to face the battle, and the two sides were glued together again.

Chapter 1816 - Cruel Flint Mountain

It was during the melee battle on the other side that the fiercest war broke out on Firestone Mountain. Barnes, the vice president of the Liberty Army, personally took more than 1 million players to charge the entrance to Firestone Mountain.

“Kill~”

“Recapture Flint Mountain.”

“Give me, at all costs, grab the Firestone Mountain back.”

From the beginning of the battle, they entered a fiery state. The lower * shield of the Barnes side roared forward, and they also felt extremely angry when they lost Firestone Mountain.

The guards for many days, looking for loopholes every ten minutes, day and night, but this tight defense was successfully attacked by people. They not only felt dull on the face, but also felt the hot pain on their faces, as if they were People slapped the same.

They can now think of how players all over the world mocked them, and what kind of situation they will face in the future. Everyone will think that they are a group of waste, especially if they know that it is a group of women who hit Flint Mountain, making them feel more To madness and anger.

“Sisters, hold on, the boss’s support is coming soon. Hold on for the sister group.” Liu Xiang’s voice echoed in the cave.

The 10,000 sisters of the sister group have forgotten that they are women. At this time, there is no weakness or fear in their hearts, and only faith.

Faced with waves of attack from millions of enemies, the only thing they knew was that they had to guard the fortress, as to how and when they had guarded, they could no longer care.

“Sister Xiang, the enemy’s subordinate * rushed up. This time, their subordinate gods are all wearing shields, and they are moving very fast. What should I do?” Tao Fei looked at the subordinate * on the Jerz side that flashed like a phantom. His attack was no longer aimed at the enemy.

There are more than 200 subordinate gods responsible for attacking Firestone Mountain. They are all elite. They are sent from the underground teleportation area one kilometer behind Firestone Mountain, where is the second warehouse of Gerz.

Watching Tao Fei and others who are constantly releasing long-range spells near the door, the lower-level * players headed by using the quick move trick, not that players with a reaction speed of less than 0.1 seconds simply cannot control their position.

“Want to hit me, let me die.” The lower * on the Gerds side moved to the position 10 meters away from Tao Fei for more than ten times in a row. The next moment, just before this lower * hit Tao Fei, Tao Fei’s expression of relief on her face, she knew what she should do.

“Kill God Thunder~!”

The next second, the next one from Gerl’s side was inserted into Tao Fei’s neck, and at the same time, the two killing thunders on Tao Fei’s body exploded on her.

“boom”

Tao Fei died, and the next * on the Gerzi side was blown up and died on the ground!

Seeing this scene, other female players around them all showed relief expressions, and they knew how they should fight.

“Come on, I will fight with you.” The weak girl is no longer weak, and at the moment when she feels that she has been killed, she has detonated the thunder god.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

...

Every girl commits suicide. This crazy fighting method is not common in men, not to mention girls, and every girl is fighting like this.

The lower * on the Gerds side was instantly frightened. The lower * does not exist forever. If you experience too much, you will fall into the * realm and change from the lower * to an ordinary player.

The level of the lower gods on the Jerz side is mostly only level 180, and has just reached the standard of the lower gods. After 10 deaths, they will fall into the * realm.

Even a player of level 181, who has died 20 times, will fall back to level 180 and fall into the divine realm. The ability of the Jerz side to knock down the material of the * is very limited. If they fall into the divine realm, it is very difficult to add it back. So, the subordinate * on the Gerds side became scrupulous.

Barnes was a bit ignorant to see this scene. For now, there are countless people fighting for the material of any guild, especially for top guilds like the Brotherhood of Blood, there are countless people waiting to use materials to upgrade For the next god.

He detailed that if the sister group in front of him loses his dignity and needs to be added, he also needs to re-queue. Lu Yang cannot give a green light for them, because, after the war is over, there are more creditable players.

Lu Yang's bowl of water is not easy and difficult, not to mention supplementing the materials of the lower gods to the sister group alone. This means that the sister group has lost the divinity of the lower * and will not add them for a long time.

Now the lower * has become a manifestation of the status of a player in the guild. Without the * of the lower god, no one knows how long they can manage their position in the guild. Only when they get the * will they be at ease.

Barnes couldn't understand what kind of motive force the girls in front of him made them dare to work so hard, even the prospects were gone.

Where does he know that the sister group can still appear on the battlefield, their elder sister Liu Juan and several other sisters, in exchange for them at the cost of going to prison.

For the sake of their own sisters, they would rather give up their personal honors, and try their best to rectify the names of the sisters and Liu Juan. So, if they can exchange the simple price of falling down the divine divinity for them to hold the Firestone Mountain, they think it is worthwhile.

"Come on, who else dares to come, I'm waiting for you." Li Mao held the killing * thunder in his hand. The next * sisters blew themselves up, now it's her turn.

In front of the Huoshi Mountain gate, dozens of beautiful girls scattered around the station, each holding the * of thunder, with a decisive look on his face, through the live video broadcast, the whole network saw the determination of the sister group.

In the live room.

"too crazy."

"These girls are incredible."

"My God, how did they do it? Although they are enemies, I admire them."

This is what the live broadcast host from Poland said. As a bystander, their analysis of the situation is more clear, so they also understand how incredible the choices made by the sister group are now.

The guests and other presenters in the live broadcast room were very silent at this time. None of them spoke, and they were all shocked by the scene.

In the Japanese live broadcast room, Sanyou Weimen said with emotion: "These girls should be people of our country, they have all the good qualities of our people."

In the American live broadcast room, several guests were already crazy. The host looked at Hei Sha and asked, "Has this legion met you before?"

Hei Sha nodded and said admiringly: "Maybe they were not famous before, but this time the reputation of the sisterhood will be heard throughout the world, and these girls will get the glory they deserve."

In the domestic live broadcast room, Du Bin has screamed with exhaustion, this is the first time he used such an excited tone to players outside Lu Yang.

"Obviously a group of weak women, but they formed a steel defense line. The lower gods of the Barnes side were afraid. They were afraid. The League of Predator Brothers once again defended their glory. The sister group became famous in one battle." Dubin shouted. The sound was so sharp that he was exhausted.

Ma Feng pushed his glasses next to him and waited for Du Bin to recover, saying: "In fact, the sister group has long been famous, but the person who led this legion was called Liu Juan. When fighting against the Tangerus Guild, the sister group The logistics team that followed Lu Yang to attack Orma's cousin many times and made a fortune."

Du Bin recalled and said: "I remember, that girl is called Liu Juan, it's a pity."

At the end of the talk, Du Bin couldn't help but sigh. He also knew clearly about Liu Juan and others, he knew the details of the sister group, and he knew why the sister group is so desperate.

“Look at the video. Barnes seems to be on his own.” Hitomi shouted suddenly.

On the battlefield.

Barnes couldn't convince his subordinate god, but could only lead by example, and rushed to the position of Li Mao with the subordinate * himself.

Barnes's strength is second only to Guland. Although he did not enter 0.1 seconds, it was not far from 0.1 seconds. Li Mao was not sure to win Barnes, but her reaction speed was similar to Barnes. So, when Barnes When rushing over, Li Mao bumped into Barnes.

“The speed is so fast?” Barnes thought that Li Mao, like the other goddesses of the sister group, did not react fast enough, but he did not expect that Li Mao was as fast as him.

This momentary error made Barnes too late to avoid, and Li Mao was hit in front of him. From the outside, it was two phantoms colliding together.

The system prompts: Two people violate the first rule of the game at the same time, prohibit strangers from excessive contact, warn 1 time, stay in place for 1 minute!

Li Mao and Barnes landed at the same time, separated by a distance of 1 meter. At this interval, Li Mao shouted: “Sister Juan, you are not alone, the sister group will always thank you.”

“Boom~!”

The killing * thunder exploded. It turned out that at the moment when Li Mao and Barnes collided, Li Mao threw out two killing * thunders, which were right under her feet, killing the gods and the Barnes without any enemy. At the same time tried to crush.

“Sister Juan, you are not alone, we will always be grateful to you.” This sentence sounded again and again, accompanied by the roar of killing God Lei again and again, the next * of each sister group exploded and would shout out This sentence.

distance.

Liu Juan, who is serving his sentence in the prison, saw this scene through the public television in the prison. She and several sisters who also entered the prison, tears in their eyes could not help but shed.

“They remember us.”

“We didn’t pay in vain.”

...

Several sisters held hands and held them together!

Liu Juan said nervously: “Sisters hold on, they must hold on.”

On the battlefield of Fire Stone Mountain, even if the sisters fight so hard, Barnes personally took the lead, and after promising, the battle returned to the origin, and the lower gods of the Gerzi side began to die.

The two sides engaged in the most brutal melee combat on the battlefield. The thousands of square meters of open space in front of Firestone Mountain became the graves of both sides.

“Forbid curse, let go!”

“Resistant to injury.”

...

The Barnes side has a complete set of professional collocations. Numerous banned spells are bombed from a distance. The sister group guarding the open space in front of the entrance of Firestone Mountain can only be suppressed behind the stone. At this time, Barnes attacked, sister The regiment had to be forced to fight, and it was extremely difficult.

One hour

Two hours

...

Five hours

By this time in the fighting, the sister group had been suppressed to the position of the entrance of Huoshi Mountain, and the number of the sister group had also changed from more than 10,000 to less than 1,500.

During this period, the sister group has been resurrected many times, so many times that they cannot count Liu Xiang and Li Mao. Because there are resurrection scrolls in the backpack, they can always be resurrected, but their level, Liu Xiang is only 168. , Li Mao and Tao Fei are stronger than her, but only 171.

It is conceivable how terrible this battle was. The average number of deaths of the sister group exceeded 100!

Looking at the enemy who attacked again, Liu Xiang, Li Mao and others showed a desperate look, and the supplies in their backpacks were almost exhausted.

“Sisters, how much is there to kill God Lei, count.” Liu Xiang asked, looking at the sisters around him.

“1.”

...

More than a thousand people finally left the killing thunder mine, only 17 left. Liu Xiang distributed the killing thunder mine to the main hands of Tao Fei and Liu Xiang, glanced at the whole team of Barnes, and looked back Sisters who showed a desperate look all around them.

Liu Xiangqiang endured the thought of crying and said, “No matter what the result is, our sister group will do their best. Sisters, don’t be sad. As I hold on to the last attack, even if there is only one person left, our sister group has not lost. let me try.”

More than a thousand girls, with the determination to die, walked out of the cave of Firestone Mountain and set out their final defensive formation.

At a distance of 100 meters away, Barnes looked at the sister group opposite with a gasp, a look of relief on his face, looked at Liu Xiang with admiration, and said, “I admit that you are very strong, it’s my game until now The strongest opponent encountered.”

Liu Xiang wiped the sweat on her forehead and looked at Banis unwillingly. She didn’t want to admit defeat, but she had no war capital.

The lonely and helpless girl in the face of despair, such as Liu Xiang, made the players all over the world pay close attention to this war, and also made the players on the Barnes side more proud. With Liu Xiang waiting for more than a thousand remnants to approach.

“Sizzle”

At this time, a sharp whistle sounded in the sky, and Liu Xiang and Banis looked up at the same time. The clouds that were originally covered by the curse were suddenly destroyed by countless black spots like heavy rain.

Looking closely, this black spot is none other than the Phoenix Legion, the Black Iron Warhawk Legion, and the Vulture Legion who came to support the Iron-Blood Brotherhood.

“Our reinforcements~!”

“Enemies’ reinforcements~!”

At this moment when both parties were shocked the phoenix suddenly turned into a ray of light, struck the ground in the blink of an eye, and while stirring up a dust, he took out a reel in his left hand and forced one tear.

“Forbidden Curse, Great Resurrection~!”

With this player as the center, all the players who died in the battle within 1 km all received the news of the resurrection. In a blink of an eye, all the 10,000 sisters were resurrected. At the same time, a large storage bag dropped in the sky like raindrops to the sisters. In a position on one side.

“The head of the Grand Druid Army did not taste the corpse, and was ordered to come to support it.” De Buchen presented a handsome poss and smiled to the girls such as Liu Xiang and Li Mao.

Barnes was terrified and shouted: “No, give me an attack, and never let the sisters get supplies.”

Hundreds of thousands of people are just about to attack, and countless bans in the sky have fallen. Each of the Phoenix Legions has a banned scroll. At this moment, all of them are released, and half of the Firestone Mountains are caught in the ban. The Barnes side Hundreds of thousands of people are all within the scope of the ban.

Chapter 1817 - Lay down the orange fortress

The Barnes side originally thought that they had achieved an absolute advantage. The sisters had already exhausted the food and had no ability to carry out range attacks. Therefore, they all came out of the hidden area. They did not expect that the German army would lead the air force. To support.

The most important thing is that they didn't taste the corpses. They were drilled out of the clouds. Because of the ban on curses, the entire sky was surrounded by black clouds. I couldn't see the sky.

Therefore, when the ban came down, hundreds of thousands of non-subordinate * players under Barnes were all killed on the spot.

Various skills such as flame, frost, cold wind, thunder and lightning can kill the player realistically. The corpses are either burning or frozen. From a control point of view, it is shocking to be calm for a long time.

The last thing to calm is Barnes. Even a calm person like Barnes saw this scene and collapsed.

"How is it possible, this is impossible, this is absolutely impossible, I will not fail, I will never fail, I have to win." Barnes' psychological defense was broken, hundreds of thousands of people died instantly and The contrast from victory to defeat made him look terrible.

While watching this scene, De Bu didn't taste the corpse, and felt timely for his support. At the same time, his heart became more alert. It turned out that the moment between the victory and defeat of the war was such a moment. The winning person became the object of worship and lost. People, feel the infernal hell.

He walked in front of Barnes, a dagger appeared in his hand, and simply penetrated Barnes's neck. Barnes didn't even have the idea of rebellion, so he died on the spot, and the rest of the living gods were also virtuous. The killing of the next Divine Legion brought by the corpse was very simple, and almost no resistance was encountered.

De Bu didn't taste the body and went back to the girls like Liu Xiang and Li Mao, saying, "Are you all okay."

Liu Xiang could no longer support it, and could only lean on the rocks outside the Huoshi Mountain Cave. A severe headache made her consciousness blurred. She smiled and said to De Bu Shi, "Will win, here I'll leave it to you, I'm afraid I'll take a break."

De Bu didn't taste his body and nodded, while conveying to his men's command to station, he called Lu Yang and said: "Report the boss, the sister group successfully guarded the Firestone Mountain, our support has also arrived, and now the defense has been deployed, please ask the boss for instructions."

The girls such as Liu Xiang and Li Mao originally had some complaints about the Germans who did not taste the corpses. They thought that if they did not taste the corpses, they would * the credit of their sisters. In one sentence, the Lui Legion suddenly felt that the girls were much more friendly to Germany.

Lu Yang is watching the video and knows very well the situation of Flint Mountain. He smiles and says, "Stay on the spot and stay at Flint Mountain."

"Yes." De Bu replied loudly.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, he found that Germany did not taste the body and grew a lot, and it was a very rare quality to be proud of the merits. For most people, it would be good to not be greedy, and some people would directly give credit. Are added to themselves.

He felt that the end of the war, Germany can be promoted a bit if it does not taste the body, and become the head of the large army. The entire Druid Army, including the Spider Sisters, can be placed in the hands of the body.

Of course, this was after the war. He looked at the frontal battlefield of the Orange Fortress. Five hours had passed, and Geers could no longer be impulsive.

With 300,000 players rushing out of Geers, the average level dropped by more than 5 levels, and the equipment burst out of count, but it is certain that the warehouses in the city have run out of supplies.

Looking at Geers, who rushed out again, Lu Yang looked admired and said, "Unfortunately, a tiger general, attack fully, and give him the final glory."

"Yes." Three Thousand Killed Sword and Hansha and others nodded together, leading more than 2 million people to launch an attack on Geers.

Global broadcasters in this region have once again made the world see an extremely beautiful war.

Lu Yang has to admit that Guerrez is a strong man. Not only is he strong, but his players are also strong, but unfortunately, if Flint Mountain just lost and Barnes recaptured the underground transmission array of Flint Mountain, then Guerrez is to save the orange fortress Hero, but now Firestone Mountain is guarded by the Brotherhood of Blood, the previous approach by Geers is tantamount to accelerating the fall speed of the Orange Fortress.

In this battle, Geers and his 300,000 brothers did not persevere for an hour. A wave of attack led by Hansha and the three-thousand-kill sword hit the wall of the orange fortress.

"Earthquake"

"Earthquake"

...

Thousands of earth masters read spells at the same time. A large * with a width of 100 meters and a length of more than 300 meters suddenly rose from the ground and was tightly connected to the top of the orange fortress wall.

“Brothers, let me kill~!” Hansha and Three Thousand Kill Sword roared at the same time, leading the player to the city head.

At this time, there is no excess defensive force inside the orange fortress. Anyone who can participate in the war is in the mud forest outside the city wall. Although there are people in the city, most of them are brought back from the dead.

When the players of the Brotherhood of Blood entered the city wall, Guland knew that he needed to send someone to defend, but he had no one to send him. He could only watch the players of the Brotherhood of Blood enter the orange fortress.

“Break through, everyone leaves the position, and then break through to the black fortress and retreat.” Guland made the most sensible choice.

From the beginning of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood into the Orange FortressThe resurrection point inside the fortress can no longer be used. Guland knows that even if you play for another half an hour, all players in the Orange Fortress will be killed!

In order to save equipment and experience, after gathering all the players, Guland fled to the village behind the orange fortress and chose to arm there.

However, none of this mattered. As the orange fortress was broken, Jerz’s strongest line of defense had been penetrated, and the entire southern region was within the range of the Bronze Brotherhood.

From then on, the business of Gertz’s fortress will shrink greatly, or even stop. Without the support of money, Gertz will struggle.

More importantly, the Iron-Blood Brotherhood can attack from the orange fortress and attack the transmission hub behind the blue and purple fortress.

On the city wall, Lu Yang looked far away, and the projections of Vice Presidents Xia Yuwei, White Lion, Zhuoju and Zhou Tianming appeared beside him, congratulating Lu Yang.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Continue to storm the fortress without giving Gerz any chance to breathe."

"Yes." Everyone answered excitedly.

Chapter 1818 - Stormwind Canyon

While the Iron-Blood Brothers attacked with all their strength, the other side, angry Gertz kicked the sand table model in front of him and shouted: "Fool, waste, Gerz is a fool, Barnes is a waste, waste. ~!"

Margaret and Andre wanted to comfort, but they didn't know what to say. They could only stare at the cracked sand table. This thing recovered well. It only needed a button to recover, but it's already There is no need for recovery.

The orange fortress was broken, and the defense line constructed by Gertz spent hundreds of millions of euros and the labor force of countless players collapsed. The entire defense line must be withdrawn and rearranged. Otherwise, all hidden teleportation arrays in the middle of the fortress will be iron-blooded. Brotherhood captured from behind.

If you lose the hidden teleportation array again, just like the orange fortress, the blue, purple and other fortresses will be broken down by the Iron-Blood Brotherhood in turn.

"Your excellency, please give an order. Now every minute more delay, the siege of the Brotherhood of Blood will accelerate our siege by one point, and you can't wait any longer." Andre said calmly.

“I’m not reconciled, I’m not reconciled.” Gerz hysterically roared, he took all the factors into account, and built a perfect line of defense in front of the Firestone Mountain. Before the battle, he personally inspected it and found nothing at all. Loophole.

This time, instead of saying Barnes made a mistake, it is better to say that he made a mistake. He couldn’t imagine how this group of girls came in, and even less, what kind of willpower this group of girls relied on at the cost of 10,000 people. , Blocked the attack of millions of people for five hours.

Gertz has always considered that his players are the best. Compared with the sister group of the Brotherhood of Blood, he thinks that his players are all waste, even a group of women is not as good as waste.

Andrey listened to Gerlz’s roar, and his expression did not change at all. When Gerlz was finished, he said in a non-emotional voice: “Your Excellency, you just lost your first line of defense, don’t forget In addition, we also have the village defense line behind and your newly recruited more than 10 million players. In addition to the first day, the Brotherhood of Blood can guarantee the combat effectiveness of 30 million people, and there will never be so many after that. In battles, we may also form an advantage in numbers.”

The area controlled by Gertz is too large, not only in the southern area, but also in the entire southeast of the original Claudio. There are more than 600 fortresses, and the territory under control is not much smaller than Luyang.

Before Andrei and Gertz discussed how to defend for the second time if the first line of defense cannot be defended. After the two of them discussed at the time, the result was that the iron-blooded brothers came in and proceeded from all sides. Siege.

Even if you are in the occupied area, you must always attack the players of the Brotherhood of Blood. Of course, this is the last step. Now the Jerz side can also station a large area in the villages, forests, swamps and other areas behind the orange fortress.

No matter how many people are in the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, when you open the Internet to search, the personnel density will be greatly diluted, and the players of the Free Legion will indeed be formed locally, and the players in the Iron-Blood Brotherhood will be played more and less.

What's more, Gertz recruited hundreds of guilds and more than 10 million players. Together with the old gang players, there were nearly 30 million people.

Gertz was also able to recruit so many people to fight for him for the first time. He took the initiative to recover the sand table and looked at the vast forests and villages behind the orange fortress. He said: "Lou Yang cannot be so easily penetrated into our hinterland. Everyone went to the village and forest behind the orange fortress."

"Okay, yes." Andrea was hesitant. He didn't expect the battle method given by Gertz to be like this. He frowned and asked, "What about the supply warehouse behind Fire Stone Mountain, where it is too close to the enemy, yes?" Not withdraw first."

Gertz looked at the map. The supply warehouse was only half an hour away from Firestone Mountain. In a hidden canyon, there was a 100-level map. He said: "I guess Luyang doesn't know that we are here yet. There is a supply line, and as it is, keep it."

"But..." Margaret was a little worried, and just about to speak, Gertz indicated that he should not persuade, saying: "The defense line of the village behind the orange fortress, give priority to use this supply warehouse, I think the most is supply three Days, and then it's gone. Three days of defense in this area is enough."

Andrea and Marguerite looked at each other. The two no longer persuaded, but each was ready to go. Hundreds of guilds that had reached an agreement with Gerz and received orders from Gerz at this time, they The player in hand already has his own number in the Liberty Army.

Tens of millions of players who have already prepared are rushing to more than 30 villages and woodlands behind the orange fortress, preparing to fight against the Brotherhood of Blood.

When Lu Yang was leading the team, Pons called and explained the situation. For this reason, Lu Yang had to suspend the team and think about the solution.

"The defensive players in these villages have high morale and are very strong, and there are a lot of weapons such as Fengshen Thunder to kill the lower gods. You have to be prepared to fight hard battles." Pons said.

While looking at the map, Lu Yang asked, "So many people must need supplies, where are their supplies? Also, there is a supply station behind Fire Stone Mountain, right, Pons, don't deceive me, you are not qualified to be a bifacial, Tell me everything you know, otherwise what is the consequence, you are clear."

Pons showed his painful face. He didn't expect that the Iron-Blood Brothers had such a strong analytical ability. He even guessed the supply warehouse behind Firestone Mountain. He said: "There is indeed a supply warehouse. It is in the deepest part of Stormwind Canyon, coordinates 786483.293829, There are only 800 defensive players."

Lu Yangqiang resisted the ecstasy and asked, "How many supplies are there?"

Pons said: "There are 8,000 supplies like Fengshenlei, 3 million sets of 180-level dark gold sets, 7 million sets of 170-level dark gold sets, and supplies such as potions, mixtures, and reels can supply 1,000. Tens of thousands of players have been fighting for three consecutive days.

"Everything before is forgotten. Nothing will hide from me in the future. This is the last time I spare you." Lu Yang said.

If you already know that there is a supply warehouse, Lu Yang will order the sister group to take the warehouse first. In this way, the supply of materials in the orange fortress and other areas will become very difficult. Maybe the fortress can be laid down earlier.

Pons was afraid that Lu Yang would sue the incident. He not only had his reputation ruined, but also had to bear criminal responsibility. He and his wife and family needed to take care of them. He dared not make mistakes at all. Interrupted the call.

Lu Yang took the phone and called Liu Xiang and asked, "Does the sister group still have combat capabilities?"

At this time, Flint Mountain is no longer fighting, the orange fortress is broken, and Flint Mountain loses the value of recapture. Barnes no longer knows where to go with people. On the entire Flint Mountain, only Liu Xiang's sister group and De Bu Big Druid Corps.

Liu Xiang was in the whole team at this time. She also had the intention to take out the enemy's supply warehouse and said: "Report the boss, the whole team is here. The battle is over here. I want to take someone to find the location of the other party's supply warehouse."

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "Can I still fight?"

"Able to fight," said Liu Xiangsu, his voice full of confidence.

Lu Yang said: "Okay, the enemy is in the wild wind valley half an hour away from Huoshi Mountain. I will give you the coordinates. You took the sister group and brought this warehouse to me."

"Thank you boss for your success." Liu Xiang said excitedly.

She knows that as long as they make more credit, the sister group can be more stable in the game city station. If the sister group is enough to win this battle, no one will really say that the sister group is a spy group.

Chapter 1819 - Field battle

Lu Yang hung up the phone and transferred the coordinates and map from Pangs to Liu Xiang. On the other side, Liu Xiang just ended the call. The whole person suddenly tranced and almost collapsed to the ground. Fortunately, the sisters Li Mao and Tao Fei around The person was there, and she supported her together.

"Sister, are you okay." Tao Fei's face was full of anxiety.

Liu Xiang shook his head, stood up hard, and said: "I'm fine, but the connection of consciousness is too low, and I can still live."

De Bu didn't taste the dead, looked at Liu Xiang, and said, "Your mission has been completed. If you continue to work like this, your body will be unbearable."

Liu Xiang smirked and said, "Sister Juan is still in prison. She hasn't said any bitterness to us. What qualification do I have to call hard and tired."

"All the sister groups pay attention, gather~!" Liu Xiang turned around and turned around, and 10,000 girls quickly stood up from the rest, all with a solemn look on their faces.

De Bu didn't taste the corpse to see this scene, nodded in exclamation, the fighting will erupted from these girls, it was too strong, he sincerely blessed them.

"I will stay here to defend Firestone Mountain. There is nothing to help you. I lent you 5000 Phoenix to let them investigate for you in the air." De Buchen said.

"Thank you." Liu Xiang said gratefully.

De Bu Tie nodded at them and nodded toward them. Although there was no enemy attack, his mission was to stay here. Once the orange fortress had problems, this was the most important stronghold.

The sister group left on the other side. On the other side, Lu Yang was gathering players outside the first village behind the Orange Fortress, Huogui Village. Tens of millions of players were forming a team.

Lu Yang opened the map, pointed to a large open space in front of Huogui Village, and said: "This is Huogui Village's farm, which grows crops similar to wheat, but these crops are very high, all look one meter high.

According to the intelligence given by the spies, at least five million people are hiding in this vast crop field. "

This is the news from Pons. Because of the teleportation, and in the rear, the Space-Time Master of the Jagged Brotherhood did not have time to release the partition world and the super-electromagnetic storm. Ambush in the farmland around the five villages of Huogui Village, Youlan Village, Bunuo Village, Gas Village and Evil Dog Village.

The problem is that if Lu Yang wants to go to the fortress behind the orange fortress, he must pass through this cultivated field, otherwise, it will take another 12 hours to detour.

So many players can stay in the game for up to 18 hours, and then they will go offline to rest. Before resting, they must find a place that can go offline safely. After that, they must gather and form a team. Together, there are 2 to 3 hours of wasted time.

It is simply unrealistic to let a large army go around the road. The number of people is small, and they will be attacked halfway. Moreover, the terrain around the road is more dangerous, and it is not as easy as this flat land.

“How to fight? Do you want to bomb the side with banned curse first?” Xia Yuwei asked.

Lu Yang said: “The ban on curse attack and ground combat are carried out together, let the brothers move forward as a whole, the anti-war is ahead, the treatment is behind, and the shield is formed.”

“Okay.” Xia Yuwei immediately issued an order.

Lu Yang looked at the players who are gradually forming a team with some emotions. In fact, he can now use another method to solve the enemy in front of him.

Didn't Gertz give these guild shares to come in reinforcements? Lu Yang can use the same method to allow a small number of guilds to become affiliated guilds of the Jagged Brotherhood after the defeat of Gertz, and participate in the management of the Gertz area.

As a result, the Gerzi side would be messed up by itself, and the Jagged Brothers would beat the entire Gerzi area at a very fast speed, but there is a problem.

If Lu Yang does this, he can win the Gertz area, but if he fights in the future, he will definitely not recruit so many players.

The reason is simple. Lu Yang cannot pay everyone, so only the victory on the battlefield and the seizure of materials can meet the needs of affiliated guilds and a large number of ordinary players.

The current war is not a battle of destiny like the guarding the tiger's mouth, but the expansion of the outside world.

At that time, these brothers unconditionally supported the war in Laokou, and now Lu Yang must return them. Otherwise, Lu Yang couldn't bear it. Therefore, even if Lu Yang now spends huge amounts of money every day to maintain the war, he must fight this battle. .

Moreover, every battle must be promised, and the brothers must be able to get the equipment to sell the money. Now they are playing in European countries, which is equivalent to making euros. The things sold are all converted into credit at ten times the price. Ordered.

"Brothers~!" Lu Yang put on the Komodo dragon mount and looked at the entire team of players while reviewing loudly: "In front, our enemies have the 2 million main force of the Liberal Army under Jerz, Similarly, there are 5 million Gertz players affiliated with the Guild."

"The main force of Gerz is not counted, but those 5 million people are ordinary players who have not experienced a large battle. Tell me, how do you deal with such a person!"

Tens of millions of players also showed excited expressions. Now, they are not afraid of the large number of enemies, but they are afraid of the small number of enemies.

Without the catapults on the walls of the orange fortress, without the traps in the mudflat forest, on such a great plain, although there are strange plants more than one meter high or even more than two meters high in front of them, they have great The confidence of defeating the enemy The reason is that players who have not experienced large battle arrays, faced with this kind of clustered battle, have no experience at all, this is not a simple shield battle ahead, long weapons follow , The treatment is centered, the formation of the master is behind, but a combat method that requires coordinated combat, cross cover, and fire support.

Both the Predator Brothers League and the major guilds who came to support it all understood this style of play. Only an hour later, the formation of the entire team was completed.

Lu Yang put on a flying dragon, stood in midair, pointed his staff with his staff in his hand, and commanded loudly: “All attack~!”

“Drink~!” Tens of millions of people shouted at the same time.

“Meteor Fire Rain”

“Ice Storm”

“Time and Space Cutting”

...

Various secondary banned spells landed in the field in a covered manner, and at the same time, tens of millions of people in the Iron-Blood Brotherhood pulled open a large net of hundreds of kilometers and advanced in parallel.

Chapter 1820 - Game overhaul

The Gerzi player hiding in the field did not experience a large number of deaths. Like the previous method, they used a shovel to dig a large number of pits in the field, specifically to avoid the banned curse.

When the players of the Brotherhood of Blood approached, they immediately raided a sneak attack. However, the parallel forward shield formed by a player of the Brotherhood of Blood, unless they were attacked by the same weapon as the Killing Thunder, otherwise, the ordinary The attack did no harm to them.

The only problem is that some enemies are hidden in the dirt. After the shield warrior players stepped on their bodies in front of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, they will raid the wizards and healers in the team.

Both sides have used all the available combat methods, from the field to the forest behind. Since the war has been insufficient, the fighting situation has been described here. Both sides can only be described by blood fighting.

external.

In the official headquarters of "Second World", the official principal looked at the banned spells in this area and said to all the military leaders of the countries: "See, this is no different from actual combat, as long as I changed my skills from magic to modern hot weapons. Your actual combat drills do not need to be carried out in reality, and you can do full simulation in the game."

An official representative of a country frowned, saying: "In reality, under the cover of long-range firepower, our personnel will never launch an attack, which is too far from reality."

"We change it, we will release an update in a moment. In the future, the damage of remote players will cause damage to melee players. The melee attacks will also cause damage to other teammates. There will be no team mode and peace mode. Free mode." The official said.

The official representative of a certain country nodded with satisfaction, and said, "Well, then the US$80 billion in cooperation funds will be received within one week."

"Our 50 billion euros will also arrive in a week."

The military representatives of more than 30 countries signed the order at the same time, and the Huaxia representatives saw this scene and could only sigh and signed the contract.

Soon, the official patch is ready, and at this time, the war in the game has reached the early morning of the next day, and there is no idea of stopping on both sides. Many players have stayed up and played for almost 20 hours without him. The orange fortress is broken, and the rest is to kill and grab equipment. No one wants to miss this opportunity.

Lu Yang stands on the podium formed by the skills of the Earth Dragon Shock in the front, and there are many such podiums next to him. Xia Yuwei and the players of the affiliated guild are directing the battle.

Looking at the situation in the distance, Lu Yang understood it. Gertz was using these guilds to exchange time with personnel.

Now everyone knows that the funds within the Jagged Brothers League can only be played for a week. After this time, the battle must stop and all players will be disbanded. Otherwise, he will not have the funds to pay the high bonus during the war.

Tu Feng appeared beside Lu Yang, frowning and asking, "This is not a way to fight, is there any way to break through the enemy's defense line in a short time."

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile, and said: "How can there be such a method, this is no longer the kind of battle before, Gertz's strength is more than twice as strong as Orma and the G8 team."

Gertz's real strength is not inferior to that of Lu Yang. Lu Yang only hit an orange fortress when he had Pence's internal response, so many spies, and countless high lights.

How many areas are needed to fight behind? These five village areas are one, and there are various formidable places such as fortresses, mountains, and intersections behind.

Tu Feng's face was anxious, and he said, "What can I do? I just received a message that the official will upgrade the game three hours later."

Lu Yang showed a surprised expression and asked, "A new information piece has been released?"

Tu Feng shook his head and said: "The official explanation is that only a small patch has been added. In order to make the war in the game more real, in the future the range of the mage's attack, if the player is in the range, his player will also be hurt."

Lu Yang was very happy and scolded: "I'm fighting now, he has such an update patch, what does it mean."

Tu Feng said: "I don't know."

"I asked." Lu Yang picked up the phone and called the director of "Second World", asking: "What are you doing, want to add patches, why at this time?"

The director looked at the military representatives from various countries who were talking in the distance and sighed, "Man, I am really sorry this time, and I have no choice. "The Second World" has just negotiated with the military of various countries. According to the agreement, a part of the military training will be carried out in the game in the future. For this reason, we have received a large order worth hundreds of billions of dollars. With this order, in the future players in the game who want to rely on the game to make money to make a living, it is true is not a problem."

Lu Yang understands that the official is to make the game longer, and it is also a way for countries to ease population pressure and employment pressure. But when the war hits this critical point, isn't this pitting him?

"So what should I do?" Lu Yang asked.

The director said embarrassedly: "Sorry guys This time it was not me who made the decision, but the members of the plenary meeting voted it. You know, this is too much money. In front of the money, it is trivial, and, as you understand, the person who takes the money has the right to speak."

In fact, the person who initiated the motion was a Polish person. The director did not dare to tell Lu Yang. He was worried that Lu Yang would poke out, so the official would be embarrassed. It can be said that it is already the reason for the particularly good personal relationship between the director and Lu Yang. .

Lu Yang understood that this is tantamount to being in the real world, with real power institutions interfering with the game world. He couldn't help but scolded, saying, "I know, didn't I just modify the attack mode? I let Gertz die. Faster."

The modification of the game mode seems to be just a small change. In fact, the impact on the game is difficult to estimate. Normally, when players play monsters, many people have no brain output.

Spells and archers are aimed at the area carried by the anti-war, throwing range spells at will, random range skills in melee, and treatment is also directed to a certain area. After modification, you can fight this way again, and your own anti-war will be attacked by your side. The player is killed.

Not only is it anti-war, long-range may kill all melees, but also may kill the teammates around by melee, the whole battle will become shrunken.
