

Chapter 181

The Policewoman Chapter 182

After finishing Maria, Tang Hui Min felt still not relieved to see Obama on the ground, ran up to him and stomped on him severely, as a way to collect her interest after being kidnapped by them.

Those bodyguards under Maria were then easily taken care of by them.

One by one, they fell to the ground and cried out in ghostly tears after being injured.

“What do you think, what should I do with you?” Lin Kai walked over to Scarface, stepped on his head and asked with a smile, “Tell me, where did Robert kidnap Song Linna?”

“Mr. Lin, spare me, I’ll tell you everything I know.” Scarface begged loudly.

“Fine then,” Lin Kai asked as he loosened his grip a little, “tell me where Robert is?”

“He ..... they’re at .....,” Scarface broke off to tell the exact location where Robert had kidnapped Song Lina.

It matched the location shown on the tracker when Tang Hui Min was kidnapped by them, and it seemed that this guy was not telling lies to save his life.

“You’re still quite honest,” Lin Kai said as he moved his foot to his left leg, “In order to increase your memory, I’ll break this leg of yours first, on the one hand, to get a statement for my sister-in-law, and on the other hand, to make you remember.”

Said Lin Kai as he increased his strength.

“No..... don’t.....,” Scarface immediately let out a wail.

Before Scarface could finish his words, he heard a “click!” A bone breaking sound was heard, followed by Scarface rolling on the ground holding his left leg.

“Kai, we can’t leave this beast behind!” Tang Hui Min shouted delicately.

Remembering the abuse she had suffered on Liberty Island and the sisters Scarface had trampled on, her heart snapped and she lifted her foot and collapsed it towards Scarface’s neck.

And there was the blow!

Scarface was instantly killed.

Lin Kai smiled at her with satisfaction, glanced at the people who had fallen to the ground and said to Gao Yunxiang with a smile, “Let’s go, if someone calls the police, we won’t really be able to leave here!”

“You have a point, it’s time for us to leave,” Gao Yunxiang said with a smile as he walked over to Obama who was lying on the ground, “Sorry old friend, I’m still going to break one of your legs just to leave you a souvenir!”

With that, he stepped down with one foot and broke Obama’s right leg.

For fear that the gang would catch up with them, the group simply broke one of everyone’s legs.

From a howl, they left the villa.

As the group stepped into the van, started it up and prepared to leave the scene, not far away, a blackened gun was aimed at the van's fuel tank.

Suddenly, the sniper pulled the trigger.

Bang!

A speeding bullet came hurtling towards the car.

.....

Inside a luxury villa on the outskirts of Rio.

Robert continued to sit face to face with Sunglina playing chess, as he was no match for Sunglina in chess, he now played backgammon instead.

The two played six games in total, with Robert winning only one.

"Miss Song is really clever," Robert complimented Song Lina after watching her set up a long dragon with five white pieces, "I am really no match for you."

"I'm flattered." Song Lina said lightly.

"Where? I am humbled by five defeats in six battles," Robert smiled as he put away the black disc he was holding and invited Song Lina to play again.

"What the hell do you want?" Reluctant to pick up her white piece, Songlina looked quietly at the man across the table and asked in a cold voice, "I really don't understand the point of your doing this ....."

"I'm waiting for a message," Robert said as he looked at Sungina, "and perhaps, that message will come soon ....."

"What news?" Sungina asked deliberately.

"Of course it's the news that your friend Lin Kai was taken out by that gang I sent out to take out yo?" Robert said with a smirk on his face, "But don't worry, I mean you no harm, after my gang of henchmen do away with that nasty guy, I'll let you be my woman before that damn guy ruins our good deed."

"Be your woman? You dream on!" Song Lina sneered and said, "I can see that you are afraid that your men will be killed by Lin Kai, so you have the guts to play chess with me, and when you play chess, you act distracted, that's why you repeatedly lose, right?"

"That's not true," said Robert, playing with a few delicate pieces in his hand and shaking his head, "That Lin Kai guy does give me a headache, but it's not that scary, I guess you'll see him soon, and by then, whether he's dead or alive, I can't guarantee."

.....

"No good, there's danger!"

Before the sniper pulled the trigger, Lin Kai shouted, quickly putting one foot on the driver's foot that was on the accelerator and jerking the steering wheel with his hand.

The car suddenly accelerated and dodged the speeding bullet.

Bang, bang, bang!

A few more shots rang out, and the car lurched forward at lightning speed until the van was out of range of the sniper rifle, and only then did Lin Kai let go of his foot.

"That was close!" Lin Kai finally breathed a sigh of relief and said to Gao Yunxiang who was sitting in the back seat, "Thanks to you guys for saving us this time, otherwise, my life and my brother-in-law's life would have been lost here."

"Captain, just don't be polite," said Gao Yunxiang with a smile, "Obama is considered an old friend of mine, if it wasn't for you, I'm afraid we wouldn't have met in this lifetime, unfortunately, I didn't kill him, but I know that the people of the Japanese nation are not broad-minded and tend to retaliate when they have a grudge, I think he is won't let us leave the Umno country easily."

"Then what do you think we should do?" Lin Kai asked to Gao Yunxiang.

"For safety's sake, we should leave here as soon as possible." Gao Yunxiang said without hesitation.

.....

RING RING RING!

Before Robert and Sunglina could finish their conversation, the mobile phone in his pocket rang, and the mobile phone screen showed Maria's mobile number.

"Looks like they've taken care of that Lin Kai guy!" With an excited look on his face, Robert then pressed the answer button and asked, "Dear Miss Maria, what's the situation on your end?"

"Mr. Robert, no ..... it's not good," came Maria's broken voice from the phone, "I ..... all our men have been beaten by Lin Kai into seriously injured and he ..... he's on his way over to you ....."

"What did you say?" Robert asked angrily, "So many of you couldn't deal with Lin Kai alone?"

"He ..... is not alone, he ..... has accomplices ....." Maria stammered.

"Accomplices? What accomplices?" Robert frowned for a moment, and felt something bad at once, and hung up immediately without waiting for Maria's reply.

The Policewoman Chapter 183

After putting down the phone, Robert lit a cigar and took a puff, saying to Sunglina, who was sitting across from him, playing chess with him.

"It seems that your friend named Linquet is really an untrustworthy man, isn't he?"

Songlina, whose English was not very good, did not understand the conversation between Robert and Maria on the phone and enquired.

“What happened to Mr. Lin?”

“If I remember correctly, the last time we spoke on the phone, we told him to come here alone, but I didn’t expect him to bring a gang of accomplices and injure so many of my men.” Robert asked unhappily.

Knowing that Lin Kai had come to her rescue, Song Linna’s heart was one of joy as she said, “This is called returning the favor to the enemy, dealing with someone like you who is untrustworthy, he is to be prepared.”

“In that case, I’ll have to condescend to Miss Song to rest for a while, and then come back to keep you company after I’ve finished with them.” Robert said and puffed a puff of smoke at Songlina.

Song Lina choked on the pungent smell of tobacco and couldn’t help but cough, she felt her head spin, her eyes went black and she fell head first onto the chessboard, and she lost consciousness.

.....

When a group of people drove to the entrance of Robert’s luxurious villa, the big iron gate was tightly closed, not as Lin Kai had imagined, the place was heavily guarded with heavy troops.

The courtyard was empty, as if no one was there, and the situation inside was very strange.

“Could it be that that guy Scarface was lying and Robert didn’t kidnap Song Lina here?” Lin Kai was a bit puzzled, so he asked Tang Huimin to confirm the address shown by the tracker.

“This is the place, yes!” After receiving confirmation from Tang Huimin, Lin Kai decided to go in first and explore the area, so he said to everyone, “You guys wait for me in the car first, I’ll go in and take a look.”

“What if there’s an ambush inside?” Tang Huimin asked worriedly.

Zhang Shuo echoed, “Yes, Captain, if there are masters hidden inside, how can you handle it alone, it’s better to let us go in with you.”

“Don’t worry, they can’t help me,” Lin Kai said to the group, “Before I came, Robert warned me on the phone that I was only allowed to come alone, otherwise, he would tear up the tickets, if he knows that you guys are here too, it would be bad for Song Linna, you guys should just wait for me in the car and wait for me to go in and poke around. After a bit, you guys will see what you can do.”

“Then ..... okay, you be careful.” Tang Huimin said hesitantly.

Lin Kai’s gaze met Tang Huimin’s for a moment, and seeing her look of concern, his heart just warmed up, then he pulled open the car door and got out, and scurried to the fence with one arrow step.

Lin Kai then leapt like a goose, flying over the two-metre-high fence and landing gently like a feather, without making a sound at all.

There was no one in the courtyard.

In order to lure the people inside out, Lin Kai deliberately crossed the dam with a big grin and walked to the entrance of the villa.

“Does Robert not know that we have taken care of his men? No defences against us at all?” Lin Kai felt a little puzzled.

He was hesitating whether to enter the four-storey villa when two big men suddenly appeared from the side and blocked Lin Kai’s way.

A large, bearded man asked coldly, “Are you here to see Mr. Robert?”

“Yes,” since they had already found out, there was no point in defending themselves, so Lin Kai nodded and said, “I have a business deal and would like to talk to Robert .....

“Good wow, since we are talking business, then please, Robert told us to wait for you here!” The bearded man stepped out of the way and made a gesture of invitation.

“Thanks!”

Lin Kai smiled and nodded as he nonchalantly walked forward.

The two men looked at each other and snapped Lin Kai’s shoulders left and right, then, twisting Lin Kai’s hands, they pressed his body downwards.

“What ..... are you doing?” Lin Kai did not resist, making a defenseless, untethered look, and said in panic.

This reaction of Lin Kai made the two bodyguards a little surprised, they had thought that he was some kind of expert who had come to save Song Lina, but to their surprise, they had subdued Lin Kai in one move.

“Could it be that this guy is not the expert who came to save Song Linna?” The two bodyguards glanced at each other, and the bearded man chided loudly, “Cut the crap, we Robert let bring you up.”

The two men set Lin Kai up to the third floor entrance of the villa, left and right.

Duk Duk Duk!

The bearded man stretched out his hand and gently knocked twice on the door of the room.

No one answered, but the door of the room was pulled open at once.

“Get in!” The bearded man gave Lin Kai a push.

The two men racked Lin Kai into the large living room.

The door was closed again, two big men in black were guarding the door, and Robert was sitting on the sofa in the corner, a glass of red wine in his hand, looking at Lin Kai with a smile on his face.

“Boss, we’ve brought this guy to you.” The bearded man respectfully reported, thinking to himself, “What’s wrong with doing something that has to come here, I’m afraid this guy won’t have a good time today.”

He knew that every time Robert had sized up someone with that look, they were either missing an arm, missing a leg, beaten half to death, or sent straight to Hades to report for duty.

“Mr. Lin, welcome to my villa,” Robert asked with a smile as he took a gentle sip of red wine, “Tell me, why are you doing this?”

“What’s wrong?” Linquet deliberately played dumb.

“Didn’t I tell you on the phone to come to Rio alone, why did you bring a bunch of helpers?”

“I didn’t bring them.” Lin Kai defended himself.

“As a matter of fact, those men joined you in injuring my brothers, didn’t they?” Robert didn’t seem to want to hear Rinkai’s explanation.

“That’s what happened,” Lin Kai said with a nod, “The reason I came was to bring Song Linna back home, where is Song Linna, where did you hide her?”

Since Robert already knew what had happened there, Lin Kai had nothing to explain, and even if he did, the tall-nosed foreigner wouldn’t believe him.

Robert shook his head and said, “There’s no rush, I’ll let her come out to you after we’ve finished with our business first.”

“How will it be settled?” Linquet asked playfully.

“First, of course, we’ll sort you out, yo.” Robert always had a smile on his face, but his smile contained a strong murderous aura.

“That depends on whether you people have that ability or not?” Lin Kai said with disdain.

In China, Lin Kai had killed Island Master Smith from Liberty Island and snatched back that laser piece they had stolen, not to mention intercepting his shipment of arms and repeatedly causing trouble for Robert.

He had long wanted to get rid of Lin Kai and hated to kill him by a thousand cuts. When he finally got the chance, he was so upset to see how arrogant Lin Kai was that he couldn’t help but frown a little.

The Policewoman Chapter 184

“You’re dead, and you’re still talking crazy,” the bearded man was furious and punched his elbow into Lin Kai’s shoulder, cursing, “Be fucking polite to our boss, our boss doesn’t have time to waste on you.”

Although the bearded man used all his strength, Lin Kai had been trained by his instructor Zhang Tianhu after he entered the special forces, and had a thousand hammers and thick skin, and was extremely resistant to blows, so he did not do any damage at all.

“Sir, please don’t move your hands, okay?” Lin Kai glared back at the bearded man, turned to look at Robert and said with a smile, “Robert, are you all like this with your guests?”

“Guests?” Robert said with a sarcastic smile, “Little friend, as far as I can remember, I don’t think there are any guests who come to the door like you, are there?”

Robert knew the bearded man's strength well enough to know the guy's strength, and when he saw that Lin Kai had been struck with an elbow but acted as if nothing had happened, he cried out in his heart, but on the surface he pretended to look as if nothing had happened.

However, once he remembered that he had seven bodyguards included around him and there were still snipers and ambushers outside, he was not so scared anymore.

In fact, after Lin Kai had scaled the wall and entered the courtyard, he was spotted by Robert and his men who had been ambushed around the dam.

When those men saw that Lin Kai had gone in alone, they didn't make any early moves and were prepared to leave Lin Kai to their boss, Robert, to clean up and were only responsible for blocking the people outside and not allowing them to dip in.

"Yes, there really aren't many guests who can be your Mr. Robert," Lin Kai said with a bland smile, "but I believe that you have long considered me an enemy, and, from now on, you will remember me for the rest of your life... .."

"Is that so?" Robert sneered, "Little brother, you have behaved well today, very brave, I admire you somewhat, tell me, why have you repeatedly confronted me? This is your last chance."

"Quite simply, it's because you do things that are detrimental to our national interests," Lin Kai said as he skimmed the two men standing behind him, "Also, I don't want a dog squatting next to me when I'm talking to you, because I'm not used to being bitten by dogs... .."

"Who the fuck are you calling a dog?" The bearded man immediately became furious and cursed at Lin Kai angrily, but remembering that just now, after Lin Kai had been hit with an elbow, he did not show any pain at all, and knowing that his internal strength was profound and that he might not be his opponent if he really started fighting, he did not dare to act rashly.

"Stand down, it's not your turn to speak now," Robert scolded the bearded man, he didn't expect that Lin Kai was already caught in a jar, dead to the world, and still had the audacity to be so rampant, he sneered at Lin Kai and said, "Isn't that good, with them around, won't you answer the questions more faster?"

"I'll let you down then." Lin Kai said with a smile on his face.

"No, there is no such word as 'disappoint' in my literal eyes." Robert spoke with a strong note of fire in his tone, while giving a wink to the bearded man and the other bodyguard.

The wily old man did not want Lin Kai's presence to pose a threat to him, and the first thing he did was to ask his bodyguard to subdue Lin Kai, preferably by beating him half to death.

The bearded man nodded knowingly and smashed his fist towards Lin Kai's face, while the brawny man next to him also clenched his fist and smashed it into Lin Kai's abdomen.

When the bearded man trained, he often smashed sandbags through, and if this punch smashed into Lin Kai's head, he would be smashed half to death even if he didn't crack.

However, both men's fists fell short.

Lin Kai deflected his head and made a sideways turn, pressing his body to the ground with ghostly speed and yanking downwards with the force of the two men.

The two men's bodies instantly lost their balance.

While the two men were still on their feet, he lifted his foot and kicked towards them.

Ping!

Clang!

Two muffled sounds in quick succession, the two men were hit in the crotch at the same time, and after two miserable screams, the two huge bodies stumbled backwards, unsteady on their feet, and staggered to the ground.

"I hate people who talk dirty and move their hands," Lin Kai stood up from the ground with a carp, spat at the two unconscious people on the ground, then turned around and looked at Robert with a smile on his face, "Mr. Robert, have I let you down?"

"Looking for death?" Robert never expected that Lin Kai would beat his two strong bodyguards half to death in one move and humiliate him to his face, he threw the wine glass in his hand on the ground and sneered at Lin Kai, "A guy who doesn't know how high he is, he's really fucking tired of living ....."

"Yeah, well, that depends on whether you have that ability or not." Lin Kai sneered, "I thought you were a gentleman, I didn't expect you to be a man with bad breath too, looks like I'll have to gag you as soon as possible ....."

Suddenly, two big burly men rushed in from outside the door.

Lin Kai took a step forward without looking back, the two bodyguards standing behind Robert ran forward and blocked him, the four men came around Lin Kai one after the other.

These four bodyguards were Robert's most powerful generals, all of them were very skilled and experienced in battle.

"Fight with me to the death!" Robert was furious when he saw that Lin Kai was still acting like he was not subservient when facing a strong opponent, and roared loudly.

Seeing their two companions lying on the ground, these bodyguards held a fire in their hearts and attacked Lin Kai back and forth after getting the order from their boss.

"Looking for death?" Lin Kai said in an imitation of Robert's tone of voice when he had just gotten off his mouth, and quickly charged towards the two men in front of him, not turning back to block the four men's attack.

Both sides were charging forward, and their bodies were instantly close.

"Ah, this guy doesn't want to die?" The two men in front didn't dare to slow down at all at Lin Kai's suicidal attack style, and both of their bodies dodged to the left and right.

Whoosh!

One person's fist struck Lin Kai's temple from the left side.

Swish!

The other turned his fist into a palm and slashed at Lin Kai's neck from the right side. It looked like these two guys had good experience in combat and worked together quite well.

Lin Kai didn't dare to slow down, but he didn't dodge either. He reached forward with both hands and grabbed the wrists of the two men with lightning speed, one left and one right, finding the Daling point on their arms and snapping them with force.

The two men's bodies instantly stiffened.

Lin Kai quickly released the two men's wrists, and before they had time to make a reaction move, his two fists came out in unison, striking them heavily on their temples.

Snap!

Pop!

After the two muffled sounds, both of them fell to the ground with a sound.

Lin Kai did not dare to slow down, and while making a 180 degree turn, he threw his fist out, and in a flash of lightning, it hit the bodyguard running in front right on the bridge of his nose.

The fist hit the bouncer in front of him right on the nose.

The bouncer's nose broke with a crisp sound.

The bodyguard felt his eyes go black and he fell straight to the ground, fainting.

The remaining bodyguard, who was the strongest among these guys, lunged towards Lin Kai.

The Policewoman Chapter 185

Without hesitation, Lin Kai kicked him off.

The bodyguard's tall body was like a world wave, hitting the wall heavily and bouncing off it again. Then, the bodyguard lay on the floor like a dead pig, unable to move anymore.

Apart from these six bodyguards who were kicked to the ground by Lin Kai and could not get up, there was another big and strong bodyguard inside the room.

This man's name was Tom, a loyal dog by Robert's side. Since Lin Kai entered the room, Tom had never said a word and stood quietly by Robert's side.

This man's gaze was sharp and there was a chilling murderous aura about him, like a cobra lurking here, ready to attack Lin Kai at any moment.

Tom was dressed in a suit and appeared to be a gentleman, but Lin Kai knew in his heart that he was the one who was well trained and skilled.

Tom had been watching Lin Kai's movements and saw how easily the six bodyguards were taken care of by Lin Kai, and cast an enquiring look at Robert, who was sitting on the sofa.

Robert nodded to him.

Tom complied and reached into his pocket.

“No good!” Although Lin Kai was fighting with a few bodyguards, he was still keeping an eye on this snake-like guy, and when he saw him put his hand into his pocket, he felt bad and dodged in a hurry.

Ping!

A bullet came whistling towards Lin Kai’s head.

It seemed that this guy had struck hard and tried to make Lin Kai’s head explode in one move.

Bang!

As the bullet hit the wall, Lin Kai had already slumped to the ground.

Tom, who thought he was a good shot, was slightly surprised to see that Lin Kai had dodged the bullet and raised the small calibre pistol in his hand with great penetrating power and pulled the trigger again.

Bang! Bang!

This time, two bullets were fired, heading straight for Lin Kai’s head and heart, forming an angle. If it were an ordinary person, he would not have been able to dodge these two bullets and would have become a ghost long ago, however, Lin Kai did not do as he wished.

Lin Kai judged his intention in advance and turned his body slightly sideways, two bullets grazed his clothes and three bullets fell short, while Tom was stunned, he pulled the trigger again.

Bang!

A bullet shot out, heading straight for Lin Kai’s chest.

This time, where could Lin Kai give him another chance? With a sideways turn, he dodged the bullet and sneered, suddenly raising his hand, a white object flew towards Tom like a lightning bolt.

“Ah .....

Tom screamed miserably, the pistol came off and he crouched on the floor with his hands covering his eyes, only to see a short knife sticking out of his eye, bright red blood seeping out of his fingers and a smell of blood permeating the room.

“When I’m working, I hate it when people stand off to the side and stare at me like snakes.” Linquet sneered.

Afraid that Tom still had the ability to attack, he walked over and lifted his foot towards him, and Tom’s massive body went flying, slamming hard into a wall before bouncing onto the floor.

“Ah!”

Tom screamed miserably and couldn’t get up again.

Seeing that the guy was completely out of the fight, Lin Kai kicked the pistol he had dropped on the floor aside, turned to look at Robert and said with a smile.

"I guess it's time to let you down completely, shall we talk?"

Looking at Lin Kai's playful smile, looking at Tom whose body was lying on the ground wailing in pain, Robert was suddenly at a bit of a loss, and although he put on a feigned calm on the surface, he was incomparably panicked in his heart.

Lin Kai swaggered up to Robert, took a glass, picked up a bottle of French red wine placed on the coffee table, poured himself a glass, and after taking a sip, said.

"This wine tastes good."

"Mr. Lin, what do you want?" Robert suppressed his anger and put on a gentlemanly face as he raised his glass to Lin Kai.

"I just want to know one thing." Lin Kai similarly raised his glass to Robert, took a small sip and licked it with his tongue, making a show of tasting the wine.

"What is it?" Robert said frankly.

"Apart from the kidnapping of Song Lina, did you have anything to do with my intercepting that arms shipment in China and my going to Freedom Island to retrieve that laser piece?" Lin Kai's eyes burned into Robert's face as he opened the door and said.

"Oh, so you're here for this matter, huh?" Robert laughed bitterly in his heart again, because these two matters were not trivial, once they were found out, not only would his life be in danger, but he would also be involved with Zhao Wenlong, the leader of the Black Dragon Gang, and asked rhetorically, "Do you think I am that capable?"

"Of course not, because someone is helping you," Lin Kai asked, shaking his head, "Tell me, who is that accomplice of yours? Who was behind both of these cases?"

"I didn't do those two things, I have no reason to lie to you," Robert denied, "How dare I ..... lie to you under these circumstances?"

"Since you don't want to admit it, then let's talk in another way." Lin Kai drained his glass of red wine in one gulp, put the glass on the glass coffee table, drew two chapters of tissue paper and held it in his hand, walked over and picked up the pistol that he had kicked to the corner, returned to Robert with a murderous look on his face and said with a smile, "I hate people who don't tell the truth, I didn't intend to talk to you by forcing a confession, but, you are very uncooperative, so I have to help you remember carefully, you Don't worry, I won't kill you, I'll just break your arms and pick your hamstrings ....."

"Huh?" Robert couldn't sit still any longer and immediately got up from the sofa, "Sir, I really didn't do this ....."

"Don't worry, I'll soon find out if it was you," Lin Kai said with a smirk as he wrapped the gun in a tissue, "In the words you just used, I can only give you one chance to answer ....."

"It wasn't me, it really wasn't me ....." Robert cried hysterically, "How can I ..... prove it so that you will believe it?"

Lin Kai always looked at him with a smile on his face, this is his own usual trick in dealing with those who will die, since Robert regarded Lin Kai as a kindred spirit, he knew what was meant in this kind of look.

It seemed that Robert was in for a real ride today.

If he had his hamstring broken, wouldn't he be an invalid? What capital would a ruined man have to fight in this world of the weak and the strong, wouldn't he be a living dead man?

Robert had always used this kind of smile to despise others, and had never been pushed to this extent. He really wanted to curse his mother and curse this bastard in front of him for popping out of some crack in the stone.

However, he was not even in a position to bargain with others now, so how could he dare to hurt people with his words?

As the saying goes, if you keep a green hill, you won't have to worry about burning wood. A great man can bend and stretch, so what other choice could Robert have but to beg for mercy from Lin Kai?

Seeing the mighty big boss look like he was about to pull his heart out, Lin Kai really felt sorry for him, but still raised the pocket pistol in his hand with a smile.

"No ..... don't ....., " Robert called out in desperation.

BANG!

A shot rang out, Robert couldn't dodge in time and the bullet had hit him in the calf.

"Ouch ....." gurgling blood flowed from the muzzle of the gun and a wave of pain shot through him, Robert was in a cold sweat of pain.

The Policewoman Chapter 186

"Mr. Lin, I have no enmity with you, you are going too far with this, aren't you?" Robert, who had experienced many great storms and was himself a ruthless character who had once killed like a man, understood that since he could not live on his knees, he would die standing up, propped himself up on the chair in front of him, tried to make himself able to stand, and calmly said to Lin Kai.

"You kidnapped my friend, called and tricked me into coming here and tried to take my life, what is this if not revenge?" Lin Kai said with a smile.

After saying that, he raised his gun again and pulled the trigger without hesitation.

Bang!

Another shot rang out.

Robert's left calf was also shot, blood was pouring out, and his hands could no longer support him.

A crash!

There was a crunching sound and Robert flopped to the floor along with the chair.

"Please let me go, please don't kill me ....." Robert wailed loudly.

Faced with this smiling and ruthless killer in front of him, Robert was almost broken, all pride and self-respect gone.

At this moment, all he wanted to do was to save his old life.

He knew that it was ridiculous and foolish to bargain with a cold-blooded and ruthless killer, but as long as there was a chance of survival, he was going to try to fight for it.

“Haha!”

Lin Kai laughed happily when he saw this look on Robert’s face.

BING BING!

Lin Kai shot him twice in the thigh again.

Blood gushed out!

“Ahhhh!” Robert screamed twice miserably and said loudly, “The reverse ..... arms sale and theft of laser tablets was done by Zhao Wenlong of the Dragon Python Group of Companies, I ..... I was just his buyer... ..”

Lin Kai kicked him down to the ground, then his shoe stepped on his fingers that were on the floor, looked at him condescendingly and said with a smile.

“Listen to me carefully, I’ll spare you this time, if you bother me and my friends around me next time, I’ll never let you go.”

Ten fingers were linked to his heart, Robert’s fingers were in cone of pain from Lin Kai’s foot, but in order to save his life, he still thanked him one after another.

“Tell me, where is Song Linna?” Lin Kai asked in a cold voice.

He pointed to the bedroom inside and said, “In ..... that room inside .....”

Lin Kai didn’t want to nag him, and after knocking him out with a punch, he walked into the bedroom, picked up Song Lina, who was lying on the bed and hadn’t woken up yet, and rushed out of the room.

.....

Meanwhile, Tang Huimin and several members of the special forces unit engaged the bodyguards and snipers ambushed in the courtyard and took care of them without much effort.

Lin Kai had just carried Song Lina downstairs when they rushed in just in time to leave the villa with him and get into the van that was parked outside.

Lin Kai placed the still unconscious Song Lina in the car seat and briefly introduced herself to Tang Huimin, saying.

“I’ve learned that the arms dump and the theft of the laser film was done by Robert together with Zhao Wenlong and others, and Zhao Wenlong is the Black Dragon Gang leader .....”

After listening to Lin Kai's account, Tang Huimin gritted her teeth and said, "If we knew this, we should have controlled Zhao Wenlong, why did we go to all that trouble?"

"You've been exposed now, it's dangerous here, come back with us." Lin Kai suggested.

Tang Huimin hesitated for a moment and said, "Alright then, I'll go home and pack my things now."

"You're already exposed where you live, I guess someone is watching there, aren't you throwing yourself in the net by going back?" Lin Kai said decisively, "In order to avoid being tracked and retaliated by Robert and others, as a matter of urgency, we must leave Rio immediately ....."

"Alright then, listen to you." Tang Huimin shook her head helplessly.

"Zhang Shuo, do you know where Liu Tongshu lives?" Lin Kai inquired of Zhang Shun.

He was not at all familiar with the streets of Rio, and when he went out from Liu Tongshu's place to the Bronze Statue of Liberty, he still took a taxi to get here, and after all that had happened, he had long forgotten Liu Tongshu's residence and contact details, and it was fortunate that Zhang Shuo and the others were following behind.

"Of course I know." Zhang Shuo nodded his head in gesture.

"Then we'll go pick her up in the car too and leave Rio together." Lin Kai explained, "She's Song Linna's stepmother after all, and I'm not comfortable with her being here alone ....."

"That's fine, we'll go over and pick her up now." Zhang Shuo gestured to the driver who was driving.

The driver quickly turned the car around and drove in the direction of Liu Tongshu's residence.

The van weaved through the busy streets and went through countless streets before finally arriving under the apartment building that Liu Tongshu had rented.

The car stopped.

Lin Kai then rushed into the building and took the lift upstairs to the door of Liu Tongshu's rented apartment.

Duk Duk Duk!

Lin Kai knocked on the door, but no one answered, so he thought something had happened to Liu Tongshu and kicked the door open.

At that moment, Liu Tongshu was hiding in the bathroom, too scared to even breathe.

"Liu Tongshu, it's me," Lin Kai stood in the doorway and shouted when he saw the door in the bathroom was tightly closed, "I'm Lin Kai, are you in there?"

"Mr. Lin, it's you," the bathroom door opened from the inside and Liu Tongshu came out of it in a panic, saying in a delicate voice, "Didn't you tell me not to open the door casually, I thought it was the gang that came to my door, I was scared to death."

Lin Kai said urgently, "Liu Tongshu, you are in great danger, you must leave here with us now."

"Where to?" Liu Tongshu asked anxiously.

"Back to China." Lin Kai did not want to explain more to her, much less tell her about the bloody scene in front of that villa on the outskirts just now, simply.

"I can't," Liu Tongshu said, shaking her head, "I've managed to escape to this place, and I can't go back empty-handed like this."

"Then you can't be chased here and wait to die, can you?" Lin Kai said in a panic.

"Who said I was waiting here to die?" Liu Tongshu retorted, "I think those people are coming for you, and as long as you leave the Japanese country, they won't do anything to me."

"Do you mean that I have dragged you down?"

"I didn't say that, but that's what happened."

"And you decided not to come with us?"

"Yes."

"Well then, you settle down here for now," Lin Kai saw how stubborn she was and stopped persuading her, so he wrote his mobile phone number on a slip of paper and said, "If you need anything later, feel free to get in touch with me."

"Okay," Liu Tongshu took the note from Lin Kai and smiled gratefully at him, "Mr. Lin, you're a good man, I'm sure Song Linna will be happy with you, I wish you a safe journey!"

"Thanks!" Lin Kai smiled helplessly and said, "After we leave Rio, you'd better change your residence again, and try to go out as little as possible when there's nothing to do."

"Mm."

Liu Tongshu nodded and walked Lin Kai out.

The Policewoman Chapter 187

Lin Kai took the lift downstairs and found Tang Huimin and her group sitting in a van of a different colour and a very different model, which she had specially asked to be delivered to her after Lin Kai had gone upstairs.

Lin Kai knew their intentions and without saying anything, he opened the door and got in.

Song Lina was lying quietly on the back seat, she hadn't woken up yet.

Tang Huimin glanced behind Lin Kai and asked worriedly, "Where's Liu Tongshu, why didn't she come downstairs with you?"

"She didn't want to come with us." Lin Kai said helplessly, he didn't have a good feeling about Liu Tongshu in the first place, let alone being any kind of friend.

Her death or survival, in fact, had little to do with Lin Kai, only that he was willing to help her on account of her having been Song Lina's stepmother, not realising that he was putting his hot face on a cold ass, and was a little upset.

On the other hand, Liu Tong Shu she had once kidnapped Song Linna and wanted to put her to death, and was afraid that Song Linna would wake up and be stimulated, so she did not force it.

"Will it be dangerous for her to be left here alone?" Tang Hui Min asked with concern.

"It's her own choice, what can I do?" Lin Kai sighed and said, "Forget about her, let's leave here as soon as possible."

"It seems that this is all that can be done." Tang Huimin felt a little regretful.

"Let's go!" Zhang Shuo gestured for the driver to drive.

The driver quickly started the car and left, crossing a few busy streets and heading towards the Hilton after leaving downtown Rio.

Rio was several hundred kilometres from Hilton, and it was a long journey as well as a safe one.

Everyone knew that the further they got away from Rio, the safer they would be.

Even though they had changed into another van, there was still a chance that they might be followed by a killer hiding in the shadows, so the nerves of the ten or so people in the van were all on edge.

.....

Atsu Atsu Atsu!

Not long after the car Lin Kai and the others were in left Rio, there was another knock on the door of Liu Tongshu's house.

"Didn't Lin Kai just leave, why is he back again?" Liu Tongshu was watching TV in the living room, and when she heard the knocking, she got up, went to the door and asked, "Who is it?"

"You are Miss Liu Tongshu, right?" A man's voice came from outside the door, his Chinese was not quite standard and he was obviously a foreigner.

"Who are you?" Liu Tongshu became alert.

"I am a friend of Mr. Lin Kai, when he was leaving, he asked me to give you the same thing, please open the door." The other party explained.

After the visitor said so, Liu Tongshu relaxed her guard and reached out to open the door of the room.

Two tall, blond men with blue eyes quickly barged in, pinning Liu Tongshu's arms left and right.

"You ..... are ....." Liu Tongshu looked at them in shock, and before she could finish her sentence, one of the men gagged her with a wet cloth.

Liu Tongshu's eyes were wide open and she felt a dizzy spell and gradually lost consciousness.

The two men put Liu Tongshu on the sofa in the living room and searched the room, but found nothing of value except the note with Lin Kai's mobile phone number on it that Lin Kai had given to Liu Tongshu.

The two men then dragged the unconscious Liu Tongshu out of the room, closed the door, took the lift downstairs, put her in a van and drove away like a hawk catching a chicken.

.....

In a private hospital in downtown Rio, Robert lay on a bed in a luxury ward, his body wrapped in bandages.

In front of the bed stood a white man with a tiger's back.

"Brown, I don't care what method you use, you must find Lin Kai and his cohorts." Robert snarled at the white man, "I'll make sure that gang is cut to pieces."

"Boss, I've contacted the mafia people and they've agreed to join forces with us to hunt down the gang, and the Japanese Yamaguchi gang are also on the move," Brown said after a pause, "but so far we don't have any clues on them and don't know where they're hiding."

"Tell them that no matter what they offer and how much it costs us, we're going to find this gang even if we dig up the ground in Rio."

Robert had been hit twice in the leg by Lin Kai, the most serious injury he had sustained since he started out, and as an arms dealer, he could not swallow this anger anyway and looked very agitated.

"All right, I'll go and interview them now." Brown said curtly.

He knew Robert's temper, he was a master who couldn't take a loss, no one who messed with him would have a good time, not to mention, Lin Kai had even beaten him badly.

Ring, ring, ring!

At this time, the mobile phone in Brown's pocket rang.

Brown took out his phone, looked at the phone number on the screen, and a smug smile then appeared on his face.

As the saying goes, it takes a thousand days to raise a soldier. Brown had been with Robert for so long, and it was time to show off his skills in front of him.

Many years ago, when Brown was being hunted, Robert had saved his life.

Brown took this opportunity to kneel down and ask Robert to take him in.

Robert saw that he was sincere, a big man, a good martial artist and had the potential to be a killer, so he took him in.

Brown studied hard and learned his skills.

He was often sent on dangerous missions by Robert and gradually became a qualified killer, and countless masters died by his hands.

As a result, he was ranked very high in the assassin community, and his prestige and stature were high, infamous and scandalous.

Today, when Brown went out of town on an assassination mission and returned to that villa in the suburbs after a successful outcome, he was stunned by what happened before his eyes –

After killing Scarface, wounding Maria, Obama, the two Japanese assassins and Maria's men, and knocking off a leg each, they were about to drive away.

Brown knew that these men were good fighters, and that they had actually been taken out in one pot. If he had fought them single-handedly, he would probably not have been a match for them.

So he went over the wall through the back door of the villa, climbed to the roof and fired a sniper rifle at the fuel tank of the van they were riding in.

However, Lin Kai had anticipated the danger in advance and helped the driver, who quickly drove away from the scene, causing Brown, who was suited to close quarters combat and not used to using a gun, to go off target and not cause the car's fuel tank to explode after being shot, avoiding a devastating disaster.

Brown watched as Lin Kai and the others the van disappeared from his sight, before quickly rushing downstairs and pouncing on the badly wounded Maria, asking loudly.

"Miss Maria, who are these people?"

"They are a group of dangerous people, the ones our boss is dealing with, I guess they are running to the boss's side, go and protect him ....." Maria said with a pained look on her face.

After listening to Maria's account, Brown came straight to Robert's residence, however, he was still a step too late.

When he arrived at Robert's residence, Robert and the guys under him had already been crippled by Lin Kai, and the gang of assassins hidden in the villa had also been taken care of by Tang Hui Min and Gao Yun Xiang and others.

Brown pounced on Robert, who had been shot to the ground, and said, "Boss, I'm sorry I'm late, but please don't worry, I'll go find them now and take revenge for you."

"Brown, you are no match for them, get in touch with the mafia people quickly, you must not let these people go." Robert said.

"Okay, I'll call the men now and get them over here, get you to the hospital first and contact them as you go." Brown said.

The Policewoman Chapter 188

For fear of attracting the attention of the police, Brown had to call a private hospital.

Soon after the call was made, several ambulances pulled into the villa.

Several doctors and nurses jumped out of the vehicles, resuscitated the wounded who were all over the floor and carried them to the ambulance to be treated at the hospital.

After settling Robert and the others, Brown quickly contacted the Mafia and asked for an interview with them.

The other side flatly refused the request for an interview, only promising Brown that they would send someone to locate Lin Kai and the others and eliminate them as soon as possible, and as for the fees, they would be charged according to the rates of the assassin community.

The Mafia originated in Sicily, Italy, and Corsica, France, as a local crime syndicate, and later spread around the world with immigrants of Italian descent.

They are very powerful in Rio, penetrating into all sectors and are almost pervasive, even Robert, a Japanese national, has to fear them.

Robert did not expect to encounter such perverted masters as Lin Kai, Tang Huimin and Gao Yunxiang, and was only willing to pay a high price for the help of the Mafia when he was injured and the gang under him could not keep them here.

The Mafia was really good at what they did, they called in less than an hour after Brown's call, they must have had some good news for him.

"Mr. Brown, we haven't found out the whereabouts of those people you are looking for yet, however, we have caught a woman with them, and I think that this woman will be of great use to you." The voice of a man speaking in English then came over the microphone.

"Thank you, why don't you take her to that villa we have on the outskirts of town now, I'll be there now." Brown said in a thick Japanese colloquial voice.

"Okay, see you in a bit!" As soon as the words left his mouth, the other party hung up the phone.

"Brown, what's the situation over there?" Brown was answering the phone in Robert's hospital room and had just put the phone down when Robert asked eagerly.

Brown answered truthfully, "No sign of those men yet, but a woman who was with them was caught."

"A woman? Is that the woman we caught today?" A gloomy murderous look came over Robert's face.

"Not sure yet." Brown shook his head and replied.

"Guess it's the woman who was with Linquet today," Robert said after a moment's thought, "Why don't you go into that ward next door and ask Obama about this woman from him before you go back and pry the gang's whereabouts out of that woman?"

"Okay." Brown nodded his head in greeting before excusing himself and leaving the room.

When Brown had the hospital doctors and nurses bring the wounded to the hospital, Obama was placed in one ward and the two Japanese killers in another to eliminate the language barrier.

When Brown arrived at Obama's ward, he was on an infusion, all bandaged up, and Obama had a look of pain on his face.

"Mr Obama, how are you feeling?" Brown greeted him.

“Mr. Brown, you must find someone to help us get revenge, huh?” Obama said in a tone that bordered on pleading.

“Revenge?” Brown shrugged and said, “Those guys are too powerful, we can’t fight them with our strength alone, I’ve contacted the mafia side to help us eliminate those

“Our friends haven’t found out the whereabouts of that gang for now, however, they have helped us capture a woman beside Lin Kai, can you tell me something about this woman?”

“A woman?” A hint of joy appeared on Obama’s face as he said, “If I’m correct, this woman must be Liu Tong Shu, she’s the one who assisted us in stealing the laser piece in the past, and then fled to us for fear of being hunted down .....

“So, she’s one of us?” Brown asked with a puzzled look on his face.

“I’m not entirely sure yet!” Obama replied.

“Oh, I see,” Brown smiled, clenched his fists and said, “Let’s go over and meet her first and hopefully get something of value out of her.”

.....

The villa on the outskirts.

The bloody scene from the great battle that had just taken place was no longer there, the blood on the ground had been cleaned up and the usual tranquility had returned.

A white van sped up and pulled up outside the villa, honking its horn incessantly.

Several bodyguards rushed out of the villa as if they were enemies, and one ran up and stood through the iron gate in the courtyard and asked loudly.

“Hey, who are you guys?”

“We’re here to deliver your men, open the door.” A blond man stuck his head out of the car window and said, “Is Mr. Brown in there?”

“Inside, please come in!” After confirming the van’s number plate, the bouncer opened the iron gate as Brown had instructed and let the van drive in.

The driver drove the van into the courtyard and pulled up in front of the villa building.

The door was pulled open and two men, one left and one right, lifted Liu Tongshu, who had a wet towel gagged on her mouth, out of the van and, led by one of the bodyguards, walked into the villa and threw her to the ground.

“You two have worked hard!” Brown came out of a room inside, took one look at Liu Tongshu, who was lying on the floor, still unconscious, and greeted her, greeting the two men warmly and shaking hands with each of them.

One man said, “Mr. Brown, we have brought this woman and hope to ask something useful out of her.”

“Thanks!” Brown smiled at the men and said to one of the bodyguards standing beside him, “Quickly wake this woman up, I have something to ask her.”

The bodyguard nodded in agreement and crouched down in front of Liu Tongshu, ripping the wet wipes out of her mouth and sending a pill into her mouth.

Liu Tongshu woke up with a couple of coughs, opened her eyes and immediately saw several tall, tiger-backed, round foreigners, and was instantly scared to death, her whole body trembling.

“Who are you?” Liu Tongshu asked with trepidation.

“Ms. Liu Tongshu, how are you?” Obama took the initiative to greet her as if he had met an old acquaintance.

“Who are you?” Liu Tongshu searched her mind for this man’s appearance, but could never recall.

“It doesn’t matter who I am, but I know that you were once the wife of Song Mingyuan, the chairman of the Mingyuan Group of Companies, and because you betrayed him and stole a laser piece, you were chased and killed by Lin Kai and the others after the incident was exposed,” Obama said in a cold voice: “According to reason, you should hate Lin Kai, so why are you still with them? Why are you still in cahoots with them?”

“I ..... am not in cahoots with them .....,” Liu Tongshu said in her own defense.

Obama didn’t want to nag her, and pointed his finger at the man beside him and said, “This is Mr. Brown, he wants to ask you something.”

“Miss Liu Tongshu, I heard that you have been with Lin Kai in recent days,” Brown asked, in broken Chinese, “do you know where they are now?”

“I ..... I don’t know where they are now .....,” Liu Tongshu said in horror.

“Lie!” Brown bellowed angrily.

He raised his big bear-like palm and slapped Liu Tongshu’s face, “Pah!” After a crisp sound on the ground, Liu Tongshu’s left face had a five-finger mark on it.

The Policewoman Chapter 189

Liu Tongshu looked at Brown, who was standing in front of her like a pylon, and was very nervous in her heart. She really regretted that she had not listened to Lin Kai and left with them, and now that she had fallen into the hands of these people, she was afraid that she would be in bad luck.

However, there was no friendship between them, having betrayed their husbands Song Mingyuan, Lin Kai and Song Lina and others, betraying Lin Kai again was not a dishonorable thing, but where had Lin Kai gone, how would she know?

“I ..... really don’t know where they went,” Liu Tongshu covered her face and sobbed, “Only ..... that, before Lin Kai left , left me a note with his mobile phone number on it .....,”

One of the men who had grabbed Liu Tongshu to come here pulled out the note from his pocket and handed it to Brown.

“Very good!” Brown scanned a glance at the slip of paper, then took out his own specially-made mobile phone and dialed the number according to it.

At that moment, Lin Kai and the others were travelling in that van on the highway, more than a hundred kilometres from downtown Rio.

Ring, ring, ring!

Lin Kai’s mobile phone rang in his pocket, so he took it out and saw that it was a strange phone number.

“May I ask who you are and what is the matter?”

“Hello, Mr. Lin,” Brown’s mobile phone immediately showed where Lin Kai was, and he said wryly in a not-so-fluent Chinese language, “You and your friend came all the way over here, and I haven’t invited you to the lunch I prepared for you, so why did you leave without even How can you leave without even saying hello?”

Lin Kai knew he had fallen for it and secretly hated himself for not answering the call.

“Thank you for your kindness, but I don’t seem to know you and I’m not in the mood to have lunch with you, do you think?” The matter had come to a head and had to be said stiffly.

“NO! NO! NO !” Brown shook his head and hand and replied, “Sir, I think that we will get to know each other, didn’t I give you a salute when you left the villa, besides, your woman is now in my hands, you wouldn’t be seeing death, would you?”

“What did you say, Liu Tongshu is in your hands?”

As soon as the words left his mouth, Lin Kai remembered that this sentence was redundant, since they already had his mobile phone number, how could Liu Tong Shu not have fallen into their hands?

“Of course, without Miss Liu Tongshu’s cooperation, how could I have spoken to you?” Brown smiled wickedly, “Do you want to hear Miss Liu Tongshu’s voice?”

Saying that, Brown put the phone to Liu Tongshu’s ear.

“Lin Kai, I’m already someone who has died once, I’m not afraid of death anymore, leave me alone, take Song Linna and your companions and hurry up and leave Rio, when you return home, please tell Song Mingyuan for me that I’m sorry for them .....

Suddenly, Liu Tongshu’s hoarse cries were sent from Lin Kai’s mobile phone.

This woman had some conscience, at this time, she actually put her life and death at risk, thinking of Lin Kai and Song Linna’s safety, which made Lin Kai very touched.

“BITCH (bitch)!” Brown slapped Liu Tongshu on the right side of her face.

Slap!

After a crisp sound, Liu Tongshu’s entire face was swollen and her nose was bleeding.

Immediately afterwards, Brown hung up the phone.

When Lin Kai was talking to Brown and Liu Tongshu, hacker master Zhang Shuo was sitting on the seat beside him, and he could hear the conversation clearly, seeing Lin Kai put down the phone.

Zhang Shuo asked worriedly, "Our whereabouts have been exposed, that gang will soon carry out a fierce retaliatory action against us, now that Liu Tongshu has fallen into the hands of that gang, what are you going to do?"

"I am going to go back to save her." Lin Kai said decisively, "In this matter, Liu Tongshu is innocent, I can't drag her down because of myself."

Zhang Shuo questioned, "We don't even know where Liu Tongshu has been captured by them, we are in the light and they are in the dark, how can we save her?"

"But I can't let Liu Tongshu die for nothing, huh?" Lin Kai said stubbornly.

"Xiao Kai, I think that they are aiming for you, if you hadn't appeared, Liu Tongshu would be safe now," Tang Huimin, who was sitting in the car, suggested, "Therefore, we should think long and hard about saving people... .."

She had just been kidnapped and rescued by Lin Kai and the others, and knew the habits of some of the gangs of kidnapers, and she had the most say in front of everyone.

"So what do you think we should do?" Lin Kai asked suspiciously.

Everyone's eyes in the car gathered on Tang Huimin, trying to find an answer from her.

.....

"I already know where they are now." After hanging up the phone, Brown looked at the location display on the screen in his phone and said to the two men escorting Liu Tongshu over.

The phone was modified with a wireless tracker installed inside, and once he answered the phone with the other party, it would show their location.

"Where are they now?" One man asked.

"They're on the highway fleeing towards Hilton." Brown replied.

"Well then, I will immediately arrange for men to go ahead and intercept them," the man asked as he looked at Liu Tongshu who was standing aside, bruised and battered by Brown, "What should we do with this woman?"

"This woman is no longer of much use to us, it's a burden to keep around, let her go and meet God!" Brown said as he pulled a pistol out of his pocket and pointed it at Liu Tongshu's head, saying viciously, "All the women around Lin Kai have to die, and you are no exception!"

"no..... please don't kill me..... (No..... don't kill me... ..)" Liu Tongshu's pupils dilated when she saw Brown pointing a blackened gun at herself, and her mouth opened wide as she pleaded loudly.

"young lady, god be with you, bye (miss, god be with you, bye)!" Brown pulled the trigger.

BANG!

A shot rang out and

Liu Tongshu's head split open, her brains burst out and blood splashed everywhere.

The woman who had betrayed her husband, stolen state-of-the-art equipment and kidnapped her stepdaughter had gotten what she deserved.

Last time, after she had kidnapped Song Lina and killed herself by taking poison in that villa outside of China, she had survived, but in the end, she had not escaped death.

For a killer like Brown, killing is as simple as stepping on an ant, no matter if you are a beautiful woman, or a rich man or a politician, there is no mercy, no pity to speak of, and death is not enough.

.....

A white van was driving along a straight highway when a dozen cars formed a convoy that caught up with it from behind like the wind and lightning.

It was a huge, aggressive force!

There was a tendency to catch up with the van in front of them and pull the people inside out to be executed on the spot, or to be executed by torture.

The people in the van seemed to have noticed the vehicle tracking behind them, and the driver quickly pushed the accelerator to the maximum, soaring to the maximum speed of the van.

However, where could the van match the performance and speed of those high-performance cars behind it? Within a few minutes, the lead Mercedes was still less than a hundred metres away from the van.

Suddenly, a rocket-propelled grenade launcher stuck out of the window of the Mercedes and was aimed at the van in front.

Aim! Lock on! Fire!

After a series of skilful movements by a cross-faced blond man, a tongue of fire shot out from the bazooka in the Mercedes .....

The Policewoman Chapter 190

Boom!

There was a loud and violent bang.

The rocket cannon struck the rear of the van, the huge yield of the power caused a ball of fire, and in an instant, smoke rolled in and the pungent smell of gunpowder filled the air.

The heavily deformed van was lifted high by the wave of air, and the ear-splitting sound of metal hitting the ground was heard again as the vehicle fell apart, in pieces, and two of the fallen tyres bounced and rolled towards the highway.

Gradually, the tyres rolled slower and slower, gradually weakening, finally lurching and falling to the ground, bouncing slightly and coming to a standstill.

Vehicles travelling at high speed from behind dodged, and the driver of a BMW closest to the van suddenly applied a sharp brake and jerked the steering wheel as he was unable to dodge.

The wheels suddenly made a powerful scraping sound, sparks flashed and the BMW, under the effect of powerful inertia, crashed into the guardrail at the side of the highway.

Boom!

There was another loud bang.

The concrete guardrail splintered and splattered with debris.

The powerful ramming force sent the deformed BMW flying, its four wheels still spinning at speed, tracing a bizarre trajectory.

The deformed BMW flew a dozen metres, the inertia died down and it plunged headlong into a large tree in the green belt.

Boom!

Once again there was a loud bang.

The BMW exploded instantly, the force of the explosion shattered the trees in the green belt, the leaves burned and the fire spread rapidly, a sea of fire .....

“Wow, it hit!”

Seeing the scene of the van being torn apart after being hit by the rocket launcher, the men in the Mercedes let out a gasp as they seemed to have smelled a whiff of death and celebrated their victory in advance.

“The boss gave us the task of leaving no one alive,” the cross-faced man said triumphantly, “Come on, let’s go up and see if the gang is dead.”

The driver pulled the Mercedes over to the side of the road and the cars behind it followed suit, forming a long line on the highway and getting out one by one.

Following the convoy, driving a black Ford, a tall blonde driver with blue eyes asked Brown, who was sitting in the passenger seat.

“Boss, our guys seem to have got it, should we go up and take a look?”

“No, it’s better to let their men go up first, I don’t think this is that simple,” Brown looked in the rear view mirror, his face was shocked and he cursed loudly, “This bunch of losers, using heavy weapons recklessly without even knowing the target, damn it!”

“Huh? What target?” The tall-nosed man lowered his speed and asked in disbelief, “Could it be that the gang wasn’t in the van and our target wasn’t the van?”

“Yes.” Brown said, “Look at that white BMW behind us coming rapidly towards the front, I think that Lin Kai and the others must be inside this BMW, and that van in front of us is just a live target they have deliberately set up to lure us in.”

“Do we need to pull the BMW over?” The tall-nosed man asked.

“No, not for now, let’s just watch those guys put on a good show, and when they’re fighting to a standstill, we’ll make our move,” Brown shook his head and shrugged, smiling smugly, “In the words of the Chinese, it’s called a praying mantis swooping down on a cicada and a yellow bird in the back!”

“Hey, hey, still the boss is brilliant!” The tall nose gave a thumbs up and smiled in admiration.

Whoosh!

A white shadow flashed past the right side of the Ford like a bolt of lightning.

As the Ford had been driving slowly on the highway, some distance away from the row of crisp black Mercedes cars parked at the side of the road, the men in the BMW didn’t even notice them and didn’t launch an attack on them.

Brown, who was sitting inside the Ford, also did not fire at the BMW and expose himself early, he wanted to see how the men in the BMW were single-handedly engaged in a gun battle with their friends, were there any more vehicles following behind them or not?

If the man in the BMW engaged the convoy in front of him as a way of drawing everyone’s attention and a vehicle drove up behind him to reinforce him, it would become even more passive.

When it’s time to strike, it’s time to strike. The ultimate goal of a killer is to kill, how to kill the other person, and killing is an art, and how to choose the best time is the key to completing the task.

In the eyes of a killer, it is either kill someone or be killed by someone else.

Therefore, the deadliest blow in the course of a mission is what they need, and the result is often more important than the process.

.....

After Lin Kai got off the phone with Brown and anticipated that their whereabouts were exposed, they made an early deployment before the killer’s convoy caught up with them.

It was up to Lin Kai to drive the van alone and drive forward to distract the killers’ attention.

Gao Yunxiang drove the BMW and broke off, while Tang Huimin led the rest of the group into another van with Song Lina, who had not yet woken up, to meet up with the group and continue on their way after they had eliminated all those who were chasing them.

When the convoy of killers followed them, Lin Kai deliberately increased the speed of the van, and with his skilful driving skills, he was able to race the pursuing Mercedes on the highway for a long time.

When Lin Kai noticed in his rear-view mirror that the killer was sticking his rocket launcher out of the Mercedes, he suddenly braked sharply, and before the car could stop, he grabbed a Browning automatic rifle that was placed on the car seat and jumped out of the car.

Immediately afterwards, Lin Kai used several difficult backflips in succession and jumped to a safe area in the green belt by the roadside.

When the van was hit by the rocket, the instantaneous explosion ignited flames and rolls of smoke that just blocked the killers' view.

They mistakenly thought that the people in the van had been blown to bits and celebrated early, letting their guard down.

As he got out of the car, Lin Kai hid under a large tree and raised his Browning semi-automatic rifle, ready to strafe them.

At that moment, Gao Yunxiang's white BMW drove by, only to see him lock his gaze on the long row of Mercedes parked in front of him.

He looked as self-effacing as he would have looked on a mission as a special forces soldier himself, his eyes full of battle eagerness.

Gao Yunxiang opened the window and drove the car with one hand while lifting the rocket launcher, which weighed dozens of pounds, with the other hand, and aimed it at a black Mercedes at the back of the convoy, firing it without hesitation.

Boom!

The rocket launcher spat out a tongue of fire and landed on the Mercedes, causing a violent explosion that split pieces of the car in all directions, with flames raging in the sky and smoke rolling out.

"Shit, they've got heavy weapons too!" Brown in the Ford behind him was shocked at the sight and shouted to the men in the car, "Use the intercom to inform the bunch of losers in front of you that they should hurry up and intercept the BMW."

Upon receiving this message, the line of people in the convoy ahead of them jumped out of their cars and spread out in all directions along the highway, some running forward, some deliberately lagging behind, and some raising their guns to shoot at the BMW .....
