

Chapter 1875 - 1876 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1875 I' m Naive After All

Gritsberg, Xujia.

Since Xu Lei returned from Noirfork, she has stayed in the family and helped Mark handle the affairs of Yenching.

“Mr. Xu, you have been working throughout the May 1st holiday.”

“Your body will be overwhelmed.”

“You should take a few days off for a few days off?” “Otherwise, even if Mr. Chu knows, he will be worried.”

Room Among them, Xu Lei is wearing an ol suit with a short skirt covering the hips and a white shirt on the upper body.

Simple dress, but it is difficult to conceal his graceful figure and stunning face.

However, even though Xu Lei's good name spreads across Gritsberg, no one dares to hit her idea.

Just because the entire Gritsberg power field knows that she is Mr. Chu's woman.

However, Xu Lei remained silent in the face of the concern of his subordinates.

Just bowed his head and kept looking at a document at the table.

After reading it, Xu Lei chuckled softly.

There is pride, admiration, and happiness from the heart.

But after being happy, it was endless loss.

“Wen Jing, if the person you like is a star in the sky, shining and shining in the dark night, but we are ordinary, what should you do?” “Can you only choose to stand on the ground and look up to him? Is it the light?” Xu Lei whispered, with a touch of loss in her faint tone.

Assistant Lin Wenjing shook her head: “Of course not.”

“If that's the case, then I will try to stand taller and stand closer to him. When we stand high enough, he will definitely notice. We stopped and looked back for us.”

Lin Wenjing replied with a smile.

Xu Lei did not answer after hearing it.

Instead, he got up slowly and walked to the window alone.

Looking down from the nineteenth floor, everything became so small.

The speeding car, the towering trees, as if everything was already under her feet.

But, how high can she stand?

Even if she stands on the top of Huaxia Zun, can she touch the star and moon in Tianhe?

Just like Lin Wenjing said, if the person you like is dazzling, then let yourself stand higher and closer to him.

Therefore, Xu Lei has been working hard for it for so many years.

“I thought that if I stood at the top of Yenching’s power and became the queen of Yenching, I could reach the fingertips of Mark’s brother.”

“But after all, I was naive.”

Xu Lei shook her head and said, there was an inexplicable sentiment in the words.

Xu Lei has never cared about what power and wealth.

She worked so hard, just trying to keep up with that man, get closer to him, and get closer.

But in the end it was discovered that whenever she took a step forward, the man would rise to a new level.

When her name moved to Wrifill, Mark had already ruled Noirfork.

Today, she is at the pinnacle of Gritsberg’s power, but Mark has become famous all over the world!

“Brother Mark, why are you so dazzling?” “It’s so dazzling that everyone is beyond the dust~” At the window, the beautiful lady whispered in tears.

On this day, the martial arts of the whole world are clamoring for it.

Even the world’s number one martial arts force, the Chu Clan, has noticed the existence of Brian Chu.

Especially Chu Qitian, after learning of Xue Zhao’s defeat, the face of the arrogant and confident person in the past was also pale at this moment.

“You...what did you say?” “Even the number one strongman in Japan, Xuezhao, was defeated?”

“This...this...how is it possible?” The moment Chu Qitian got the news, it was like a disaster. Lightning struck, and the whole person sat on the sofa.

He couldn't imagine that an abandoned son from the Chu family who he dismissed at the beginning, a rural boy, had inadvertently grown to such a level?

how can that be possible?

“The moment Chu Qitian received the news, he was struck by lightning, and he was sitting on the sofa. He couldn't imagine that an abandoned son from the Chu family who he dismissed at the beginning, a boy in the countryside, inadvertently, had grown to this point. Point?”

Chapter 1876 Is It My Son?

Today's Chu Qitian no longer has the calmness and pride of the past, and there is frustration and tremor in his heart.

It can be said that the current Mark is no longer something Chu Qitian can deal with.

“No, I can't sit and wait for death anymore.”

“If this son is not removed, I will definitely threaten my position as the heir of the Chu family in the future.”

After panic, Chu Qitian quickly calmed down.

Mark's achievements now have caused a serious threat to his position in the Chu family.

Over the years, Chu Qitian knew that Mark's father, Chu Zhenghong, always wanted his son Mark to return to the Chu family and recognize his ancestor.

If it weren't for the old man's delay in letting go, I guess Mark would have returned.

This is why, for so many years, Chu Qitian has wanted to get rid of Mark and hurry up.

But I didn't expect Mark to grow so fast.

After calming down, Chu Qitian immediately drove to find his father, Chu Zhengliang.

“What did you say?” “Brian Chu, who has become famous in the martial arts world these few days, is the son of your uncle, the abandoned son in the countryside?” After knowing this, if he was struck by lightning, his head buzzed.

It has been more than ten years since Mark left the Chu family.

Such a long time is enough to make people forget some insignificant people.

Yes, among the wealthy of the Chu family, Mark's mother and son are the insignificant people.

After all, who cares about a country woman and a bastard who has been expelled?

The only person who cares more is Chu Qitian who has a stake.

“My God, this matter is related to your future.”

“Remember, don’t let anyone know about this matter, especially your grandfather.”

“Otherwise, your heir’s position may not really be kept.”

After the tremor, Chu Zhengliang calmed down. After weighing the pros and cons, he began to plan for it.

“But father, the paper package can’t keep the fire out. I’m afraid that grandpa will know that this Brian Chu is the abandoned son of that year.”

Chu Qitian said anxiously.

“Leave this to me.”

“Tian’er, don’t worry, the position of the head of the Chu family must belong to my son, and it must also belong to my son.”

Chu Zhengliang’s face became cold, he clenched his palms, his eyebrows were filled with cold light.

No one knew what was brewing in this man’s heart.

When Chu Zhengliang and his son were planning for it, the Chu Family Manor was in a study room.

A middle-aged man with majestic eyebrows and powerful eyes.

In the luxuriously decorated study, pacing back and forth, as if waiting for something.

If the Chu family saw this scene, they would be shocked and curious.

After all, this man has been in charge of the Chu Family for so many years, no matter what danger he faces, he is always in chaos.

Even though the Chumen civil strife back then, when he helped the Tang family to seize the position of the Chumen master, he was not as anxious as he is now.

This has to make people wonder, what is it that makes the master of the Chu family, the Friedman King, who has heard the news in the martial arts world, so anxious?

Finally, with a rush of footsteps, the man hurriedly greeted him.

“Old Han, how about it, have you checked it out?” “The Vietnamese boy who killed Mingzun, defeated the snow, swept through Japan and horrified the world, but my son Mark?” The man grabbed the old man’s hand, eagerly Asked.

When he said this, his brows and eyes were flushed, and his whole body was shaking.
