“It has been checked, it is Master Mark.”

The old man bowed slightly and replied with a smile.

There was also a bit of excitement in his tone.

Elder Han, who was next to him, was also touched.

After all, it is father and son, blood relatives, broken bones and still connected to the tendons.

Just when Old Han was touched, the man had already ran out and went straight to Vietnam.

Seeing that, it seemed that he was really going to find Ye Ximei to share his joy.

"Hey, Patriarch, calm down."

"Don't worry."

"You have gone now, and you don't know where the wife is~" Old Han hurriedly chased him, reminding him as he ran.

"Ma De, I'm confused."

"I am happy to patronize."

The man slapped his head when he was reminded by Mr. Han. Then he remembered that he still didn't know the whereabouts of Ye Ximei?

However, what Chu Zhenhong didn't know was that at the same time, on this day, there was one person in the Chu family who had already flown to Japan.

“Mr. Chu, the Japanese side has already been contacted.”

“You will be received by the commander of the First Division, Sato.”

Inside the Norwegian airliner, the facilities are complete, just like a mobile living room.

However, there is only one guest on this special plane at this time.

Listening to the report at hand, Chu Zhengliang nodded.

“Tell Commander Sato that I will arrive later tonight.”
