

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1880

“Boss,? You do not know is normal, I have been in the immortal world for so many years, but I have never heard of immortal artifacts divine artifacts or anything, this kind of existential magic artifacts I am not I can even touch the road!”

Li eight also said.

“I also just heard Qin Bing said some, it is said that they also use the top magic weapons, half-step immortal weapons are very rare, let alone immortal weapons and divine weapons!”

“They only used top magic weapons too?”

Lin Ran frowned at his words, I’m afraid that Qin Bing and the girls’ current status belonged to them, apart from the Immortal Emperor and some of the Immortal Emperor’s cronies and great powers.

However, this status only allowed them to use top grade magic weapons, which really surprised him a little.

After all, he had an immortal weapon like the Pillow Book before, and now he even had a divine weapon like the Clear Violet.

“Could it be that he was just too lucky?”

Lin Ran was a little speechless in his heart, listening to Li Ba, it seemed that not many people had seen immortal and divine weapons within the entire Immortal Realm.

But he had possessed two at once before, if this was known by the great powers of the Immortal Realm, would he be directly infuriated.

“Forget it, now is not the time to think about that!”

Lin Ran was busy shaking his head, shaking off this useless information, and then was busy continuing to look back.

Whether it was a magic weapon, an immortal weapon or even a divine weapon, all of them could actually nurture a spiritual intelligence.

Because of the limitations imposed by their own strength, it was almost impossible for ordinary magic weapons to breed.

There are some top magic weapons that possess spiritual intelligence, but the most common ones are immortal and divine weapons, and such top existences are almost bound to breed spiritual intelligence!

“Here it is!”

The further Lin Ran looked down the more nervous he became, mentioning the spiritual intelligence of immortal and divine weapons, then there was definitely a way to awaken these spiritual intelligences recorded below.

Lin Ran quickly skimmed over some of the useless information, and sure enough, he soon found the way to awaken these spiritual wisdoms at the back.

“The so-called spiritual intelligence is actually a type of divine consciousness, the genius of magic weapon does not have a physical body, and spiritual intelligence initially exists in the form of consciousness!”

And as the spiritual intelligence becomes stronger and stronger, this wisp of consciousness will gradually form the divine consciousness, which is like a carrier that carries the existence of the consciousness.

Throughout the ages, there are three ways to awaken the dormant divine consciousness,? One of them is to nurture it, the cultivator constantly nurtures it with his own heaven and earth spiritual energy, this is the best method.

This is the best method. The cultivator’s own heaven and earth spiritual qi is the most compatible with his or her own divine sense, and can also bring out the strongest power of the magic weapon.

The second method is to nurture the artefact on its own, relying on the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to nurture the artefact on its own over the years.

In this way, the spirit of the artefact is highly autonomous, and the degree of compatibility with its owner is affected.

The third method can also be used to awaken a sleeping artefact spirit, which is to use heaven and earth treasures to nurture it.

“Heaven and earth treasure materials?”

When Lin Ran saw this, he couldn’t help but be pleased and was busy looking down.

“The heaven and earth treasures to awaken the artifact spirit are nothing more than some treasures that can embed divine sense, and by placing such treasures next to the artifact, they can help the artifact spirit recover its divine sense, thus achieving an early awakening!”

“Indeed!”

Seeing this, Lin Ran’s heart couldn’t help but rejoice, finally, he had found a way.

“Just where do I have to find this heaven and earth treasure material that can contain the divine sense?”

Lin Ran was at a loss in his mind, the Luo Ran Trading Firm definitely had it, but it was just that the price for it was not too expensive.

After all, if it could be called a heaven and earth treasure material, its value must be very high.

Thinking about this, Lin Ran couldn’t help but be stumped again, with his current wealth he was afraid that he wouldn’t be able to buy a single strain.

“Ai!”

Lin Ran sighed helplessly and immediately closed the book, the solution had finally been found, but he was afraid that he could not buy any herbs that could restore his divine sense even nowadays.

“I have to think of a way!”

Lin Ran said to himself in his heart.

Just then, a figure suddenly made its way down next to him, and Lin Ran turned his head to look and found that this person was none other than Bu Er Jian Ke.

“What brings you here?”

Seeing Bu Er Swordsman, Lin Ran asked with a smile, among the entire Sword Immortal Sect, he only knew this guy sort of.

“I’ve been here for a long time!”

Bu Er Swordsman said, while pointing to the tome in Lin Ran’s hand and asking.

“So? You want to buy herbs to restore your divine sense?”

“Mm!”

Lin Ran didn’t hide it and nodded his head.

“I was assassinated by a guy last night and suffered some trauma to my divine sense!”

Lin Ran casually found an excuse to put it off, and Bu Er Swordsman didn’t suspect anything and said.

“I heard from someone earlier today that there is also a trading market within the Sword Immortal Sect, but the things in it are of average quality, and the really good things are put on consignment within the Sword Immortal Sect!”

“Consignment?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but be stunned at his words, he hadn’t really heard of this before.

“That’s right, it is said that there are two places where you can find things in the Immortal Sword Sect, one is the trading market that has disciples gathering to form!”

“But this place is mixed with fish and dragons, not many good things are seen, but there is a whole lot of rubbish, I went to see it this morning, there is indeed nothing good!”

“And this second place is a trading ground run by the Sword Immortal Sect itself!”

“Usually good things are put up for sale there, you can go and have a look when you have time!”

“Hmm thanks a lot!”

Lin Ran nodded at his words, it seemed that there were still plenty of places to get divine sense herbs.

But whether it was the Luo Ran Trading Firm in East Flag City, or this Sword Immortal Sect’s consignment yard, to were both good choices.

“Deceased brother, although this Sword Immortal Sect has a trading market, but I advise you not to pay too much attention to it, it is said that what circulates inside this trading market is not extremely high quality spirit stones, but contribution value!”

Bu Er Swordsman said.

“Contribution value?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, not quite understanding what Bu Er Swordsman meant.

“This trading market requires at least the strength of the Enlightenment Realm to enter, and it is said that many tasks will be released inside, and completing them will get you the corresponding contribution value!”

“With the contribution value, you can buy things inside and exchange them for extremely high quality spirit stones, but on the contrary, extremely high quality spirit stones cannot be directly purchased with the contribution value!”

“So, it’s naturally fine if you want to go inside and sell things, but if you want to buy things then you can only improve your strength and do quests!”

Lin Ran smiled and suddenly understood, the Sword Immortal Sect was a cultivation sect after all, everything still had to focus on the disciples’ cultivation.

And to come up with this consignment yard, I guess it was also to give the disciples more opportunities for experience, it wasn’t good to keep cultivating within the sect while missing out on actual combat.

“Many thanks!”

Lin Ran said with an arch of his hand.

“It’s alright, you’re the only friend I have in this Sword Immortal Sect at the moment, it’s all as it should be!”

Bu Er Swordsman laughed.

It seemed that he still felt somewhat guilty for what he had done earlier when he and Mai Yang had joined forces against Lin Ran.

For this kind of character of Bu Er Jian Ke, Lin Ran appreciated it instead, this kind of person was straightforward and could be befriended.

“Let bygones be bygones, there’s no need to take the past to heart!”

Lin Ran said and got up, and then pointed to a short distance away and said.

“It’s not too early, let’s hurry up and see if there are any suitable gong methods!”

“Hm!”

Bu Er Swordsman nodded his head, and then the two of them separated, each looking for a suitable gong method for themselves.
