Chapter 1883 The Abe Family

“I” Kong Hui’s words made Cynthia Chen speechless.

In fact, Cynthia Chen wanted to say that her brother Mark is also very good, and countless big brothers listen to his orders.

However, Cynthia Chen didn’t say anything after all.

Kong Hui and the others are right. This is Dongjing, the capital of Japan, and its prosperity ranks among the top in the world.

Noirfork and other places, even Kong Hui and the others look down upon, let alone Dongjing.

It is estimated that the people in Winter Capital have never even heard of it.

As the saying goes, there is heaven outside the sky, and there are people outside the world.

The Lord of Noirfork may be able to dominate Noirfork, but in Dongjing, where top powers and dignitaries gather, it is not enough after all.

Therefore, Cynthia Chen finally said nothing.

Instead, he looked at Mark and whispered: “Brother Mark, otherwise, let’s go slowly, I will go to the staff room.”

Mark chuckled, “It’s okay.”

“Where to sleep.”

It’s not sleep.”

“Professor An is right. The Hilton Hotel is a big hotel, and the staff rooms are more luxurious than the outside hotel.”

“I don’t suffer.”

Mark smiled faintly. No one knew what Mark said. Is it true or ironic.

However, among the people present, except Cynthia Chen, the others didn't care about Mark's opinion.

It's nothing more than a trivial person. If it weren't for Cynthia Chen's face, someone dressed like this would probably not be able to enter this hotel.

After getting the room card, Mark followed Cynthia Chen and others to the reception scene.

In the luxurious hall, magnificent.

The crystal chandelier is shining with colorful lights.

In my ears, there is a melodious song echoing.

The surrounding wine tables are full of delicious food.

On the dance floor in the middle, there are handsome men and beautiful women dancing together.

The atmosphere of the audience is very relaxed and pleasant.

Obviously, the host of the reception has not arrived yet, and some guests are chatting around.

Cynthia Chen and others also quickly found a table and took their seats.

"Wow~" "That old man with eight-character Hu seems to be the vice president of the Yasuda Foundation Managers' Association, right?" "When I visited Vietnam that year, Gritsberg received it as a state guest."

"My God, that's not Japan."

Is it the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Vietnam?" "This is in Vietnam, probably all ministerial officials, right?"

"Is this all here?" "Teacher, it seems that this Abe family is so powerful in Japan?" At the wine table, Mark just quietly sipped tea.

He almost never drinks, Helen doesn't like it.

So every time at the wine table, Mark would send someone a pot of tea.

Today is no exception.

The steaming heat, mixed with the scent of tea, refreshes the heart.

But Kong Hui was not idle. After taking her seat, she looked around, observing the guests around.

Kong Hui plans to study in Japan at the doctoral level, so she is very concerned about some things in Japan.

Kong Hui also recognized some well-known people in Japan.

Professor An nodded: "That's natural."

"The Abe family is one of the five top giants ruling Japan."

"Officials from generation to generation!" "The Lord of Japan today comes from the Abe family."

Aristocratic family, their background is as powerful as you can imagine."

"Today is the reception held by the head of the Abe family. Naturally, there will be many top dignitaries to join in."

Professor An said in a deep voice.

Kong Hui became more frightened as she listened. She didn't expect that the Abe family they were cooperating with this time would have such a powerful force.

Chapter 1884 Are You Crazy?

Yes, a scientific research project carried out by Professor Ann is mainly facilitated by Abe's family business.

"Speaking of this, I still have a lot to lose to Honan."

"If Honan hadn't led me on this line, it would be impossible for our project to cooperate with the Abe family."

"Honan, this glass of wine, teacher respects."

You."

While speaking, Professor An raised a toast to Liang Haonan.

"Haha~" "Teacher, you are polite."

"This is what students should do."

Liang Haha laughed, and was toasted by the instructor himself, Liang Haonan was undoubtedly proud.

“Xiaohui, you have found a good home.”

“When you marry Haonan in the future, you can wait for Mrs. Koo.”

“Haonan’s house is in Gritsberg city. Is there a lot of power?” “Right? , When will you get the marriage certificate? Remember to invite me to have a wedding drink.”

Professor An laughed.

At the end, Professor An looked at Cynthia Chen on the side.

“Nan Nan, teachers and students, you are the most worried.”

“Kong Hui and the others are natives of Gritsberg, but you are from a small place.”

“The appearance conditions are very good, but it is a pity that you have not joined the WTO. Deep, inexperienced and easy to be tricked by people.”

“The teacher has always been worried that you will be unfair to others, so I always wanted to introduce my nephew to you.”

“My nephew is very energetic and his family background is also very good. Gritsberg has several sets. In the house, the teacher always thinks that you two are a good match.”

“Before, you refused, I thought you had a high-sightedness and looked down on my nephew.”

“Now it seems that I was wrong.”

“It’s not that you have a high-sightedness.”

, But you have a unique vision.”

Professor An said jokingly, but his words clearly showed that he looked down on Mark.

After all, the guy in front of him couldn’t compare to his nephew in any way.

In terms of appearance conditions, his nephew is 1.85 meters tall, handsome and handsome. He is still studying film and television. This major is based on his face for food, and his appearance is absolutely nothing to say.

Not to mention his background, a house worth nearly 10 million in Gritsberg’s land.

There are several sets of his nephew's house, and they drive more than half a million Mercedes Benz to college.

Professor An likes Cynthia Chen very much.

If it wasn't for his son who had already married, he would have to take Cynthia Chen as his daughter-in-law.

But fortunately, he has a nephew who is of the same age, so Professor An has always wanted to accept Cynthia Chen as his nephew, and counted it in his home.

But who would have imagined that Professor An would naturally feel a little unhappy in his heart when such a thing came in halfway.

"Teacher, you can't look good."

"Maybe, my brother Mark's house is also a giant?" "Is it right, Brother Mark?" Liang Haonan asked with a smile.

In fact, looking at Mark's dress, it doesn't look like the noble son of some powerful family.

But to be able to win Cynthia Chen's heart, there is always something outstanding.

Therefore, Liang Haonan and others believe that Mark's family background should be extraordinary.

It's just that he is low-key, so he wears ordinary clothes.

But to the surprise of Liang Haonan and others, Mark shook his head and replied, "I disappoint you."

"I came from an ordinary background, and my ancestors mostly worked in the countryside, not the rich and powerful."

"What?" "Working in agriculture?" "You are the son of a farmer?" "Is there anything wrong?" "Nan Nan, are you crazy?" Kong Hui screamed out in surprise.
