

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1886

Lin Ran glanced at the other party indifferently and found that it was none other than Ah Kuan who had spoken.

“Deceased brother!”

The Buji swordsman was angry at this, but Lin Ran smiled blandly and said.

“Let’s go, back to cultivation!”

After saying that, Lin Ran stopped paying attention to that abduction and left the martial arts arena amidst the crowd with watching eyes.

Although Lin Ran had left, the storm of this worship meeting had never passed.

The situation had gradually expanded under Ah Kuan’s fanning the flames.

The elders of the Sword Immortal Sect did not care about this, making Lin Ran the laughing stock of the entire Sword Immortal Sect.

“Bastard! Boss,? These people are really damaging too, they don’t have an elder to choose themselves, instead they all laugh at you!”

Li Ba was also furious when he found out.

“Especially the elders of the Sword Immortal Sect, what are these people doing, they actually don’t even account out to stop it, who would dare to try to earn the first place after this situation!”

Li Ba was so angry that he was about to explode.

Lin Ran, however, patted him on the shoulder and said comfortingly.

“Forget it, the Sword Immortal Sect obviously has its own intentions for doing this, besides I’m here to cultivate, not to educate these people on the three views, what they like to think is their own business!”

“Old man! I really admire you, the outside is all over the city, you actually still have the heart to cultivate here in peace, you are really my boss!”

Li Ba said helplessly, he knew Lin Ran’s nature, and he really didn’t care about such things.

Seeing that Lin Ran didn’t say anything either and began to cultivate on his own, Li Ba could only sigh helplessly and began to cultivate as well.

Instead, on top of one of the pavilions of the Sword Immortal Sect, the sect master Tian Xuanzi was sitting alone drinking tea, ? On the side was Elder Leng Chen standing.

“How is it?”

Tian Xuanzi asked as he poured a cup of tea at the same time.

“It’s been three days since I left the residence, I scouted once and it was in cultivation!”

Leng Chen said, but his brow was tinged with a hint of worry.

“Sect Master, this kid won’t be able to bear the blow and shut himself up over this!”

“Not so much!”

Tian Xuanzi said.

“This son has extraordinary talent, and he himself obviously knows that although he has not left his residence for three full days, it is a side indication of his hard work in cultivation!”

Said Tian Xuanzi got up and looked at the direction of the three-character sword tablet and said.

“The Lancang Sword Technique is infinite in its mysteries, you can’t make rapid progress by cultivating alone! You should go tomorrow and give this to him!”

With these words Tian Xuanzi took out a purple stone and handed it to Leng Chen.

“No harm! If this son is trained well, he may be the basis for our Sword Immortal Sect to rise again in the future. Tomorrow, I will go to the Heavenly Kui Sect to get another one back!”

Tian Xuanzi said indifferently.

Seeing this, Leng Chen said no more, and his heart was a little less worried about Lin Ran.

The fact that Tianxuanzi could take out his own amethyst puppet and give it to Lin Ran clearly showed that he valued him greatly, which made him feel very comfortable in his heart.

After all, in the end, Lin Ran was brought back by him, Leng Chen, and to the latter he was the Bole.

If Lin Ran was buried in the Sword Immortal Sect, it would be a loss to the Sect itself, and a blow to him, Leng Chen.

Who would dare to bring disciples back in the future like this, it would simply be a mistake.

“I thank the Sect Master for that boy!”

Leng Chen said.

Tianxuanzi waved his hand and then said.

“You tell him that when he finishes practicing the first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique, I will naturally go and find him!”

“Yes!”

Leng Chen was overjoyed at his words, Tian Xuan Zi’s meaning was obvious.

The next morning, after a night of practice, Lin Ran’s understanding of the Lancang Sword Technique had become more thorough.

The Lancang Sword Technique had a total of three stances, although the last one had been interrupted by Ah Kuan, so he had not fully obtained it.

However, these first two stances alone had already given Lin Ran a great harvest.

After three days of day and night cultivation, he had already mastered some of the subtleties of the first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique.

Only there were still some essences that he could not comprehend.

The first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique is about using the sword to oppress people, and the sword comes out of its sheath like the sea overturning, the seawater has not yet reached the momentum.

This was the essence of the first stance, which Lin Ran naturally understood, but trying to comprehend and execute it was a huge headache for him.

Sword strokes were ever-changing, but what remained the same was the essence of the stance.

It was like when two people fought, the moves were alive, but the comprehension of the Dao was dead.

“The Ocean Immensity was originally ten million swords, but under Su Rou’s simplification only three swords would be enough to rival ten million swords in terms of momentum!”

“With my current level of sword dao, it is not a problem for me to perform the first stance, but the problem is that this sword stance is mutilated!”

“It only has its form but not its meaning!”

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, this Lancang Sword Technique was infinite, the sword stance was easy to understand and the sword intent was hard to find!

“I can’t rush everything, I’ve only been practicing for three days after all, it’s not bad to have mastered the sword moves!”

Lin Ran consoled himself in his heart.

But if Su Sa or Tian Xuanzi knew that Lin Ran had already mastered the first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique in just three days, he would probably be dumbfounded.

This was because even Su Sa had taken three months to master the first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique.

It had taken her half a year to complete the first stance!

To this day, she has only completed the second stance, and only the third stance has not even been shown to her at all.

Strictly speaking, Su Sa had already spent three years practising the Lancang Sword Technique, but it had only taken Lin Ran three days.

“Boss, someone’s coming!”

Lin Ran was just about to get up and go to the Three Character Sword Tablet to see if he could have an epiphany when suddenly Li Ba’s voice rang out.

Bang, bang, bang.

The next moment came the sound of knocking on the door.

“My late young friend, I am Leng Chen!”

“Elder Leng Chen, please come in!”

Lin Ran said busily, Leng Chen suddenly coming to find him, surprising him as well.

“Little friend of the deceased, I didn’t disturb you, did I!”

Leng Chen said politely as he entered.

“Elder is joking, I don’t know what Elder wants to see my little friend about?”

Lin Ran was busy asking, he adhered to the principle that it was up to the master to lead him to the door, so he didn’t expect Elder Leng Chen to help him much after entering this Sword Immortal Sect.

All at this time, seeing Elder Leng Chen come looking for him made him a little surprised.

“My old friend, I am relieved to see that you are fine, to be honest I was really afraid that the previous worship meeting would make you discontented!”

Elder Leng Che said.

Lin Ran was stunned at his words and then laughed.

“Elder is joking, the elders must have their own reasons for choosing who is to be their disciple, so naturally the kid won’t be discontented, and it would have been the same wherever you cultivate!”

“If I have a problem with my cultivation and find an elder, will the elder still hide his clumsiness and not answer?”

“Haha! You do see things through!”

Elder Leng Chen laughed.

“Alright, since that’s the case I won’t hide it from you, I’ve come to find you this time because I have something to give you!”

Said Elder Leng Chen with a wave of his palm, and instantly a purple puppet appeared directly in the room.

“This purple crystal puppet was bestowed by the Sect Master, and it will be yours to use for the time being!”

“At the same time, Sect Master asked me to tell you that after you finish cultivating the first stance of the Lancang Sword Technique, he will personally come and find you!”
