

Chapter 191

The Policewoman Chapter 191

Bullets!

Gunfire was loud and bullets were flying.

Gao Yunxiang looked on coldly, ignoring the men, and fired his rocket launcher again.

Boom!

Another Mercedes was blown over.

The blond man with the flesh on his face who had used the rocket launcher on the van also put the rocket launcher on his shoulder and prepared to attack the speeding BMW.

If this cannon blasted out, Gao Yunxiang would be in danger, and Lin Kai could not let him have his way. Quickly dashing out from under the tree, he raised his Braun semi-automatic rifle and fired a volley at the man and those around him.

A burst of fire!

A barrage of bullets was fired and several men fell to the ground.

As the men jumped out of the car, Lin Kai pulled the trigger in quick succession, and dozens of men fled for their lives under his fierce fire, collapsing.

With Lin Kai's fire support, Gao Yunxiang was even more comfortable in using the rocket launcher.

Boom!

Boom boom!

A violent explosion rang out.

The second, third and fourth ..... Mercedes parked in front of all of them became living targets, all of them were blown up by the rocket launcher in Gao Yunxiang's hand.

The whole highway was filled with explosions, thick smoke and fire.

For a while, it looked like both a human purgatory and a slaughterhouse, and Lin Kai and Gao Yunxiang were like messengers who were harvesting lives.

The men in the car were almost blown up, and those who jumped out were blocked by the powerful fire from the Browning semi-automatic rifle in Lin Kai's hand, with no way to escape.

Some of them rushed up towards Lin Kai, ready to raise their guns and shoot at him, but before they could raise their guns, they were already taken out quickly by Lin Kai.

"Not one of them should be left behind!"

Lin Kai knew that to be lenient with the killers was to be cruel to himself, in the eyes of the killers, there was no sympathy or gratitude, if you didn't kill them, they would kill you.

Besides, with so many people dead and such a big massacre happening, although they were theoretically considered international friends and were doing the people a favour, if they fell into the hands of the police, they would still not be able to get away with it.

Therefore, Lin Kai and Gao Yunxiang had their hearts in the right place and worked in tacit agreement, doing their work in a particularly clean manner.

Within a short while, they had taken care of the whole gang of mafia losers.

Suddenly, a Ford car behind them crashed towards Lin Kai.

Lin Kai dodged and aimed the Browning automatic rifle in his hand at the car, quickly pulling the trigger.

Bust!

Faced with such a large target, Lin Kai actually missed and immediately realised that there must be an expert in the Ford, raising his gun again to fire.

“Boss, jump out of the car!” The tall-nosed man shouted, pulling open the car door and jumping out.

BANG!

The car door crashed open and two men jumped out from inside the car before rolling quickly on the ground.

BANG!

A volley of bullets all hit the Ford.

The unoccupied vehicle held its forward position for a long distance before exploding with a bang, sending flames and a puff of smoke straight upwards.

Brown rolled on the ground a few times to make sure he was safe for the moment, then immediately reached into his pocket, pulled out a pistol and crouched on the ground, pulling the trigger towards Lin Kai.

PING!

Lin Kai rolled on the ground holding his Browning automatic rifle, dodging the bullet, then stood up from the ground and walked over to the two men step by step.

“Old ..... boss, that guy is coming towards us.” The tall-nosed man said in a trembling voice.

“Are you scared?” Brown asked.

“There ..... is a little.” The tall-nosed man had just seen the scene when Lin Kai killed someone and had long been shocked by his methods and cruelty.

“Don’t be afraid,” Brown said in a deep voice, “The madman in the BMW in front of us hasn’t come back yet, so while we’re at it, let’s join forces to finish him off and then deal with that madman .....”

“Okay, I’ll do as the boss says.” The driver got up from the ground with his gun raised and stood side by side with Brown.

As the two were talking, Lin Kai blasted a shot over.

PING!

Before the tall-nosed man could react, he only felt a little pain on his body, then lowered his head to see that a big hole had been shot in his chest by Lin Kai and blood was gurgling and gushing out.

“Ah!”

The tall-nosed man screamed in agony and fell to the ground dead.

“This sick bastard, I’m going to kill you!” Brown cursed in his mind.

With a dash, he raised the gun in his hand, aimed at Lin Kai’s head and viciously pulled the trigger, firing one bullet, and Lin Kai also pulled the trigger without hesitation, firing three bullets.

Ping! Bang! Bang!

With several gunshots, the two bullets collided in the air and exploded violently, the heads of the bullets deviated from their original trajectory of movement and cut two arcs in the air.

Clang!

With two crunching sounds, the bullets landed on the ground.

However, the other two bullets fired from Lin Kai’s gun, one bullet hit Brown in the chest and one bullet exploded his head.

In the country of China, on the 28th floor of the independent office building of the Dragon Python Group in Yanjing City, the luxurious, spacious chairman’s office had a large pile of documents on a wide desk.

Zhao Wenlong felt a bit of a headache when he looked at the mountain of documents, and he leaned back on the soft leather sofa chair as if he was sleep deprived, his whole body showing a look of exhaustion.

In recent times, he and Robert had been racking their brains to get rid of Lin Kai, thinking that this time, by kidnapping Song Lina to the Japanese country and through Robert’s strength in Rio, they would be able to get rid of Lin Kai and Tang Huimin.

However, it was not to be, and he had just received a call from Robert saying that Lin Kai had not only saved Song Lina, but had also injured him and his gang of brothers.

“What if Lin Kai finds out that I’m in cahoots with Robert, the one behind the arms deal and the theft of the laser film, and comes back to haunt me?” After speaking on the phone with Robert, who was staying in a private hospital after being injured by Lin Kai, Zhao Wenlong was greatly alarmed.

With the skinny monkey dead, he only had one trustworthy bodyguard by his side, how could he stand up to a man of Lin Kai’s terrifying stature?

It was imperative to find a way back with himself and hire world-class assassins to get rid of Lin Kai and Tang Huimin, and definitely not to let them return to the country easily.

After his mind was made up, he used his mobile phone to dial out a special number, and only after he got an answer from the other party did his mood calm down a little.

Duk Duk Duk!

Liu Yuting, the new secretary, knocked on the door and when she saw Zhao Wenlong looking tired, she came over and stood behind him.

“Zhao Dong, don’t let yourself get too tired,” Liu Yuting said in a delicate voice while massaging his head, shoulders and back, “You should know that your body is your own, you should pay more attention to maintenance and rest, and combining work and rest is the way to go.”

“Ai,” Zhao Wenlong sighed and said helplessly, “Why wouldn’t I want to rest? But, look at the current situation, can I rest properly?”

“You can delegate some of the work in your hands to your subordinates, why do you need to personally interfere with everything big and small?” Liu Yuting, unaware of Zhao Wenlong’s troubles, suggested.

“Of course I want to, you know, how many people in the company are trustworthy?” Zhao Wenlong said, shaking his head.

The Policewoman Chapter 192

“Even so, you can’t play hard to get like this and take your body for granted, huh?” Liu Yuting hesitated for a moment and said, “Today is the weekend, I do have a suggestion, I don’t know if you are willing to .....

“Let’s go out for a walk together, what do you think?” Liu Yuting smiled charmingly.

“Where do you want to go?”

“Wolong Mountain,” Liu Yuting explained, “The environment there is nice, you can just get some fresh air and a change of mind.”

“I’d like to go, but, as you know, with Skinny Monkey dead and Big Head out on an errand, who’s going to keep us safe without a reliable person around?” Zhao Wenlong said with a smile.

“What’s not safe about it? In broad daylight, who would dare to kidnap us?” Liu Yuting said in a soft voice, “Besides, even if Skinny Monkey isn’t here, you can still send the inch-headed man to lead the other two competent bodyguards with us.”

Even though Liu Yuting had followed Zhao Wenlong for so long, she still didn’t know that Zhao Wenlong was the head of the Yanjing City gang, the leader of the Black Dragon Gang.

“Then let me think about it again.” Zhao Wenlong was starting to waver a little.

“Honey, don’t think about it, let’s go together .....” Liu Yuting said softly as she leaned her plump breasts on Zhao Wenlong’s shoulder.

Zhao Wenlong felt the elasticity and fullness of her body, and his heart swelled a little as he grabbed her snow-white, onion-like, delicate hands and said with a smile.

“What do you think, what are we going to play there?”

“Soaking in hot springs,” Liu Yuting introduced, “soaking in hot springs can make muscles and joints relax, to eliminate fatigue function; soaking in hot springs can dilate blood vessels, promote blood circulation, accelerate metabolism often preserve youth; hot springs in the calcium, appropriate ultraviolet interaction, beneficial to the body .....”

“It seems that you know a lot,” Zhao Wenlong was very satisfied with Liu Yuting’s answer, patted her small hand, picked up a landline telephone receiver on the desk, dialed a mobile phone number and said, “You guys immediately drive the car to the entrance of the company and wait for me, I need to go out.”

After making the call, Zhao Wenlong stood up from the sofa, looked Liu Yuting in the eyes and scratched her nose with his hand, saying.

“Now you should be satisfied, right? Little goblin!”

“Hehehe,” Liu Yuting laughed and threw herself into Zhao Wenlong’s arms, and opened her arms, wrapped her arms around his neck and gave him a passionate kiss, saying softly, “Honey, you’re too good, I love you so much!”

“Come on, don’t be fleshy,” Zhao Wenlong said as he removed her hand from his neck, “Let’s go, the car is already waiting for us downstairs.”

“Alright then,” Liu Yuting said in a delicate voice, “Honey, when we get to Wolong Mountain, I’ll have a good time with you again.”

“Nasty!”

Liu Yuting’s pretty face flushed as she made a gorgeous turn and headed for the door.

The form-fitting black professional suit wrapped her exquisite body tightly, with a curvaceous front and back, a curvaceous body that made Zhao Wenlong want to get into trouble.

This woman was very good at pleasing Zhao Wenlong, and every time she could make him reach a state of intoxication and desire, he even had the idea of staying with this woman for life.

When Liu Yuting arrived at the door of the room, she turned around and saw Zhao Wenlong still standing in place, dazed, so she threw him a charming look and said softly.

“Honey, let’s go, don’t look, after we get to Wolong Mountain later, I will let you see enough, then, you can look as much as you want, hehehe .....”

“Okay, let’s go!” Zhao Wenlong swallowed a mouthful of saliva and walked quickly to the office door.

Since this was a company, there were cameras installed everywhere outside the office, and in order to maintain his image as the chairman, Zhao Wenlong still had to act like he was a serious person.

After leaving the office, Zhao Wenlong stabilised himself and with a steady pace, led Liu Yuting along through the corridor to the lift entrance and took the lift downstairs.

Dingdong!

With a bell ringing in the lift, the ground floor arrived.

The two of them walked out of the lift one after the other.

When they passed the lobby on the ground floor, Liu Yuting looked around, noticed that someone was watching them, pretended to look unwell and said to Zhao Wenlong.

Zhao Wenlong grumbled from his heart and walked towards the main door without looking back.

Two tall, brawny bodyguards dressed in black suits hurriedly jumped down from the car and stood respectfully in front of Zhao Wenlong.

“Chairman, please get in!” A bodyguard with an inch haircut held the car door in his hand and let Zhao Wenlong sit in the back seat position of the car.

After Zhao Wenlong got into the car, the other long-haired bodyguard sat in the driving position of the car and the inch-headed man sat in the passenger seat.

The long-haired man started the car and prepared to drive away.

“Wait a minute, Secretary Liu is not here yet.” Zhao Wenlong said to the long-haired man.

“Okay,” the long-haired man nodded, turned the car off, turned around, and asked Zhao Wenlong, “Chairman, where are you planning to go today?”

“I’m feeling a bit physically fatigued, and I’m going to go to Wolong Mountain to take a hot spring bath.” Zhao Wenlong replied.

“Do you need us to send some more men over?” When the inch-headed man heard that Zhao Wenlong was going that far away, he was a bit uneasy and took over the question.

“What’s the point of sending so many people, aren’t the two of you enough?” Zhao Wenlong looked at him in disbelief.

He knew that these two people were from the special forces, although they weren’t as good as Skinny Monkey and didn’t have as much experience in the field as Skinny Monkey, but with their protection, it shouldn’t be a big problem.

Another reason, in broad daylight, no one dares to touch him, when he goes out, he should keep a low profile, he doesn't want to make such a big show and make it look like a triad.

Liu Yuting went into the women's bathroom on the ground floor, and seeing no one around, she went into a convenience compartment, locked the door, squatted down on the commode, took out a delicate mobile phone from her kun bag, called up a number and sent this text message.

"Snake to move out, arrive at destination, Wolong Mountain, arrange someone to meet you there at once!" After the text message was sent, Liu Yuting deleted the content of the message, then pulled out the phone card and threw it into the toilet.

In case someone came in from outside and got suspicious, Liu Yuting pretended to squeeze out a bubble of urine and flushed it with water before walking out of it and out of the women's bathroom.

She stood by the dressing table and washed her hands, tidied up her appearance, then twisted her delicate body and walked with delicate steps through the lobby on the ground floor towards the main entrance of the company.

She went straight into the Mercedes Benz saloon car parked at the entrance, sat next to Zhao Wenlong in the back seat and smiled at the long-haired man driving the car, gesturing for him to drive.

The long-haired man nodded knowingly and started the car.

The Policewoman Chapter 193

The Mercedes Benz saloon car slowly drove out of the Dragon Python Group and soon merged into the traffic flowing north and south on the busy street, passing through the city and following a straight highway on the outskirts, heading towards Wolong Mountain.

When the Mercedes-Benz passed through the open area around the Western International City, Zhao Wenlong opened the glass door and stared at it for a long time as if it were a treasure.

His heart could not be at peace, and this grand blueprint flashed in his mind –

A new city with Jinshan scenic area as a large tourist attraction, factories, schools, cinemas, commercial and residential communities, shopping malls and other supporting facilities is rising here .....

"Zhao Dong, this is a picturesque place, a real feng shui treasure," Liu Yuting said without emotion.

Although she had a close relationship with Zhao Wenlong, she still had to put on the image of a full-time secretary in front of the company's two competent bodyguards.

"Yeah," Zhao Wenlong said smugly as he pulled his gaze back and closed the glass window, "Otherwise, how else would there be so many powerful developers competing with us?"

"In the end, weren't they still defeated by us?" Liu Yuting smiled charmingly, "It's still our Zhao Dong who has the ability to take this cake in one go, next, it's up to us to distribute this cake."

"Yes, we have a heavy burden on our shoulders." Zhao Wenlong was a bit emotional.

"It's a long way to go!" Liu Yuting complimented, "I believe that under the chairman's leadership, this piece of land will bring us untold economic benefits."

“Let’s hope so ……” Zhao Wenlong gave Liu Yuting a sideways glance, feeling a bit odd, thinking, “Doesn’t Liu Yuting usually act very steady when talking to me in front of the company staff, why would she today patting me on the back today? That’s not her style, is it?”

On second thought, I thought, “Liu Yuting probably thinks that I am under too much pressure at work, so she has come out once in a while and is deliberately saying nice things to make me happy.”

After thinking about it, his mood became lighter and much more pleasant, and if it wasn’t for the two bodyguards in the car, he would have wrapped Liu Yuting in his arms and made out with her.

The scenery along the way was beautiful, simply breathtaking.

Zhao Wenlong, who had not taken any serious rest due to his usual work, did not care to appreciate the beauty, so he closed his eyes and leaned back on the soft seat, unconsciously falling asleep.

Liu Yuting also closed her eyes and intentionally leaned on his shoulder to pretend to sleep.

Her relationship with Chairman Zhao was not a secret in the company, and the two bodyguards in front of her knew all about it, pretending as if they hadn’t seen anything.

The long-haired man concentrated on driving, while the inch-headed man kept a close eye on his surroundings. The tense nerves lasted for a long time, and it was only when he realised there was no vehicle following him that he relaxed a little.

Bodyguards are a special profession, in layman’s terms, they are the ones who take the bullets for their employers.

To them, there is no emotion, but the safety of their employers comes first, and their own lives can be put aside.

Two hours later, the Mercedes finally arrived at the foot of Wolong Mountain.

Liu Yuting was the first to open her eyes, pretending to rub them, looking out of the window and then at Zhao Wenlong, who was still asleep beside her, with an imperceptible smile on her face.

Seeing that the inch-headed man sitting in the passenger seat did not notice them, he passed a wink to the long-haired man driving, who complied and drove the car towards a secluded path leading to the back of the mountain.

The path was lined with tall trees and few travellers passed by.

The inch-headed man felt something was wrong and said to the long-haired man, “Hey, didn’t Zhao Dong say he was going to a hot spring, why are you driving this way?”

“Zhao Dong is going to meet an important person!” Liu Yuting answered for the long-haired man.

At the same time, pulling out a delicate pistol from her kun bag, she aimed it at the inch-headed man’s head, attached her mouth to his ear and whispered.

“Don’t squeal, you’d better be honest, or else I’ll blow your head off with one shot!”

While the inch-headed man was in a daze, Liu Yuting quickly gagged him with a wet wipe soaked with a special ecstasy. The inch-headed man felt difficulty in breathing, and after a dizzy spell, he passed out .....

After taking care of the inch-headed man's bodyguard, the long-haired man pulled the Mercedes Benz saloon over to the side of the road and Liu Yuting used another wet towel to gag Zhao Wenlong.

The sleeping Zhao Wenlong felt difficulty in breathing and woke up from his dream at once. He opened his eyes only to see Liu Yuting's brilliantly smiling face, like a poppy in full bloom.

This face is quite charming if you smile in normal times, but now you feel very disgusting, he never thought that this gentle and considerate woman Liu Yuting in front of himself would actually betray him.

"Well ....." Zhao Wenlong opened his eyes wide and pointed his finger at Liu Yuting, struggled hard for a few times, and suddenly felt his whole body weak, suddenly his eyes went black and he gradually lost consciousness.

A van drove by and pulled up behind the Mercedes, the door opened and four big men came down from inside and ran straight to the Mercedes.

These men had thought that Liu Yuting would be in trouble for taking hostages and had come to support her after receiving instructions from her employer, but to their surprise, Liu Yuting easily took control of Zhao Wenlong and a bodyguard.

Liu Yuting opened the car door and stepped out of the Mercedes wearing a pair of sunglasses, stood in front of them and said to one of the men in black who was leading the group, saying.

"You guys go now and take down the long-haired man driving the car, then drag him out with the inch-headed man sitting on the passenger side and dispose of him, make sure you do it cleanly and don't leave any traces!"

"Please don't worry, we promise to finish the job!" The man in black muttered to Liu Yuting, waved at his companions behind him, came to the driver's side and bowed to the long-haired man sitting in the cab and said, "Brother, hard work, I'll drive this car away now, you get out and go take the one behind you, they'll take you back to the company."

"That's ..... fine!" The long-haired man took a glance at the inch-headed man and Zhao Wenlong who were lost in the Mercedes and reluctantly stepped down from the car.

Suddenly, the man in black threw a punch at him, the long-haired man felt bad and dodged the punching attack, reaching his hand into his pocket ready to pull out his gun.

"Be honest and don't move!" The man in black bellowed.

The other three men in black quickly surrounded him, simultaneously aiming three black guns at the long-haired man's head from different angles.

The long-haired man could only surrender when he saw that the situation was dire.

Liu Yuting walked up modestly and said with a smile, "Brother Long Hair, just go with them, they will send you to a place where you should go."

Only then did the long-haired man realise that he had been tricked by Liu Yuting.

Thinking of the times when he had sneaked around in bed with this woman for a quick fling, and thinking she would intercede on his behalf, he pleaded with her.

“Secretary Liu, I was the one who drove Chairman Zhao here and you got it easy, was there some misunderstanding between us?”

“No, there is no misunderstanding between us,” Liu Yuting shook her head and said with a smile, “Your mission has been accomplished, you are of no use to us now, we can only send you to a place where you should go, and as a result of your selling out .....”

“You ..... you bitch .....” the long-haired man pointed at Liu Yuting’s face and cursed.

“That’s enough!”

The Policewoman Chapter 194

PING!

A shot rang out, and the long-haired man’s brains burst out.

A puff of green smoke came out of Liu Yuting’s exquisite pistol, she blew into the muzzle with her mouth and with a commanding tone, she said to the four men in black around her.

“You guys hurry up and go drag this man’s body away with that punk in the car and get rid of it immediately, I never want to see them again!”

Two men in black lifted the unconscious Zhao Wenlong out of the Mercedes Benz saloon and shoved him into the van they had driven over.

The other two men in black dragged the long-haired man’s body into the Mercedes Benz RV and then killed the inch-headed man who had been charmed by Liu Yuting into the passenger seat of the car with a sharp dagger.

Immediately afterwards, they drove the Mercedes saloon directly to the edge of a cliff at the top of the mountain behind the clouds.

After a man in black strapped a time bomb to the Mercedes saloon, several men in black worked together to push the Mercedes off the cliff.

Boom!

There was a loud sound.

The Mercedes-Benz instantly exploded in the air, a strong explosion echoed across the valley, and the burning flames shot up to the clouds with a thick cloud of smoke.

The bodies of Zhao Wenlong’s two bodyguards were blown apart and plunged into the valley floor along with the pieces of the car, and the birds in the woods flew around in alarm .....

After disposing of the Mercedes and the two bodyguards, Liu Yuting and a few men in black walked over to the van and prepared to drive it back to the city.

Clamour!

Suddenly, Big Head led a large group of bodyguards armed with mini submachine guns to rush out from the woods, surrounding Liu Yuting and the four men in black around the van and pointing their black guns at them.

Big Head stood out from the crowd and asked, "Secretary Liu, where are you trying to take Master Long?"

"Master Long?" Liu Yuting felt bad and asked in surprise, "Who is Master Long?"

"Zhao Dong ah," Big Head said with a smile on his face, "You've followed Zhao Dong for so long, don't you know that he's Master Long, the leader of the Black Dragon Gang?"

"Huh?" Liu Yuting exclaimed and reached out to pull open the door of the van, ready to take control of the unconscious Zhao Wenlong and use it to get away.

Zhao Wenlong, on the other hand, leapt up from the car seat as if he had been hit with chicken blood, reached out and stuck his hand around Liu Yuting's throat, roaring in anger.

"You rotten bitch, how dare you betray me?"

As he spoke, he gave a wink to Big Head and, like a hawk catching a chick, pulled Liu Yuting into the car and slammed the door shut with a bang.

Several men in black then fell into the circle of Big Head and the others.

When Big Head gave the order, the men he had brought with him grabbed their mini submachine guns and fired at them.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

After a few bullets, the four men in black were sifted into a sieve and fell one by one in a pool of blood.

After the battle was over, Zhao Wenlong pushed Liu Yuting out of the van.

Liu Yuting stumbled and fell to the ground.

Zhao Wenlong jumped out of the van, stomped on Liu Yuting's head and asked in a stern voice, "Tell me, why did you betray me and who ordered you to do this?"

"Cut the crap, I will not tell you even if I die, count yourself lucky today, I will not let you go even if I am a ghost," Liu Yuting gritted her teeth and said unyieldingly, "Tell you what, if you have the guts, come with me and have a good time."

"Fine, I'll make you whole today!" Zhao Wenlong's murderous spirit appeared and he lifted his foot and stomped down on Liu Yuting's head.

This powerful kick could have killed Liu Yuting, and Liu Yuting's body twitched a few times before she died.

It turned out that Zhao Wenlong had long been suspicious of Liu Yuting. When Liu Yuting asked him to come to Wolong Mountain for a hot spring bath, he felt that she was a bit perverse and estimated that there was some kind of conspiracy, so he secretly gave a directive to Dafa to set up in advance at Wolong Mountain and had taken an antidote beforehand.

He pretended to be unconscious when Liu Yuting put a wet handkerchief with an antidote over his mouth for the purpose of watching Liu Yuting's brilliant performance.

In a corner of Cloudy Mountain, an assassin called to report to his employer, saying.

"Boss, the operation failed, Liu Yuting and the four brothers we sent to meet her were all killed, what should we do next?"

The employer replied, "Since we've alerted the snake, that old fox Zhao Wenlong will definitely be on guard, we can only cancel all operations and wait for the right moment!"

The killer did not wait to reply before a "ping" was heard and the other party screamed "ah", which then ended the conversation between them.

When she woke up, Lin Kai and the others had already finished fighting and she knew nothing of the rescue at Robert's residence or the bloody scene of the shootout on the highway.

When she opened her eyes, she found herself lying in the arms of Tang Huimin, who was sitting in the seat of the van, which was driving on the highway with Zhang Shuo and other Special Forces members in it.

Song Lina hurriedly left Tang Huimin's embrace and asked, "Where am I?"

"You have been freed from Robert's control and saved, and we are preparing to take you out of Rio and back to China." Vivian Tang replied.

Song Lina swept past the faces of the people in the van, missing Lin Kai, and couldn't help but ask, "Where is Lin Kai? Didn't he come to Rio? Where is he now?"

"He still has some unfinished business, he'll meet up with us soon!" Tang Huimin said with relief.

As soon as the words left her mouth, the driver braked sharply and pulled over to the side of the road, Lin Kai and Gao Yunxiang pulled open the door and got into the van, which then started and moved on.

Tang Huimin asked eagerly, "Xiao Kai, what's the situation?"

"The obstacles have been removed, we must leave immediately." Lin Kai replied.

As soon as she saw Lin Kai, Song Lina's heart warmed up and she threw herself into his arms, unable to stop her tears from staying, sobbing, "Lin Kai, I thought I'd never see you again in my life, oooh ....."

Lin Kai patted her back with his hand and said, "Silly girl, aren't you seeing me now? Don't cry, we'll take you back to your country now."

When Tang Huimin saw this affection between Lin Kai and Song Linna, she felt sour in her heart and said to Lin Kai.

“Xiao Kai, you guys take Song Linna and go back to your country first, I still have some things to finish, when I finish them, I will come back to you.”

“Didn’t you say that you would return to China with us?” Lin Kai asked in surprise.

“It seems that I can’t now.” Tang Huimin said, shaking her head.

“Why?” Lin Kai asked, puzzled.

Tang Huimin explained, “As the saying goes, catch the thief first, the guy who intercepted us must have been sent by Robert, and only if we take care of him first will everyone get out safely.”

Lin Kai felt that Tang Huimin’s words made sense and said, “Then I’ll stay behind and go with you to take care of Robert.”

“No, if you don’t go with them, Song Linna’s safety will not be guaranteed.” Knowing that Lin Kai was worried about her, Tang Hui Min said, “Don’t worry, I’ll be fine, I’ll go back home as soon as I’ve finished with Robert.”

Lin Kai said regretfully, “If we had known this would happen, we should have killed Robert then.”

“Since it’s already like this, there’s no use regretting it,” Tang Huimin pouted, “Don’t worry, I’m more familiar with Rio, besides, there are still our people here, nothing will go wrong, you guys can go back in peace.”

With that, Tang Huimin pulled open the door of the fast-moving van, leapt, rolled a few times on the ground, stood up and quickly crossed the highway guardrail.

The Policewoman Chapter 195

When Tang Huimin’s figure disappeared from Lin Kai’s sight, his heart thumped and he secretly felt a cold sweat for his sister-in-law and prayed silently for her.

When he thought of the last time they saved Tang Huimin from Robert on Liberty Island, when she helped everyone retrieve the laser piece, and when they left Liberty Island, when his sister-in-law helped Lin Kai to block the bullets, his heart was filled with emotions.

“Captain, do we need to go back and help Officer Tang?” Zhang Shuo asked with concern.

“No,” Lin Kai said, shaking his head, “We are not familiar with the situation here, and even if we wanted to help her, there is nothing we could do.”

“Then what do you think we should do?” Gao Yunxiang asked, taking over.

“Continue on and return home from Hilton Airport.” Lin Kai said with a non-negotiable tone, “After we return home, we have a vicious battle ahead of us.”

“What vicious battle?” Song Lina Li, who was nestled in Lin Kai’s arms, looked at him with a puzzled expression.

"I already know the person behind this kidnapping of you, they are very strong in Yanjing City, we have to deal with them, a vicious battle is inevitable." Lin Kai replied.

"Who is behind this?" Song Lina asked in surprise.

"The Black Dragon Gang's people ....." Lin Kai said lightly, not telling everyone for the time being that Zhao Wenlong, the chairman of the Dragon Python Group of Companies, was the Dragon Master.

As they were afraid of being chased by the mafia again, they were very vigilant along the way, and the group got off the highway when they were still a few dozen kilometres from Hilton City and took a detour to Hilton Airport.

At this time, night was falling and the lights were bright.

As their van pulled up in the airport car park and just got out, Lin Kai felt a strong murderous aura and shouted

"Run!"

With that, he picked up Song Lina and rushed forward lifelessly, with the team following along.

When they were about five metres away from the van, a bullet came flying in and hit the van's fuel tank.

Boom!

There was a loud bang.

The van exploded instantly, followed by the burning and exploding vehicles parked next to it, and in a flash, the airport car park was ablaze with smoke.

They rushed into the airport lobby to take advantage of the chaos.

It turned out that the group's whereabouts had been revealed before they arrived at the airport, and the assassins paid by Zhao Wenlong in Yanjing had set up an ambush at the airport in advance.

As soon as they arrived in the van, the assassin, who was hiding a few hundred metres away, aimed at the car's fuel tank and pulled the trigger. Fortunately, Lin Kai was alert, otherwise, they would have been buried in the fire.

As the airport was guarded all around, the killer was spotted by the police just after the shot was fired, and he fled in a hurry before he could shoot at Lin Kai.

Tang Huimin scurried to the corner of the hospital wall and, using a legendary trick of flying over the wall, crossed the fence and tumbled into the courtyard.

The fence was very high, about five metres high, and there was a large courtyard inside, with a three-storey building to the inside, which was Robert's hospital building.

After her demonic training at Liberty Island, climbing over the fence was a piece of cake for Tang Hui Min, and after a few seconds she had already climbed into the courtyard and was lurking under the corner.

In order not to let anyone see her true face, before she came in, she deliberately changed into a black leather jacket and trousers, and wore a mask over her face.

In this way, her body completely blended in with the darkness.

The place looked heavily guarded from the outside, but in fact the inside was not heavily guarded at all, and Tang Huimin was lurking in such a place as if it were a game.

The night was pitch black and the surroundings were as quiet as death!

Tang Huimin's athletic figure blended in with the darkness of the night, climbing over the wall like a Batman, leaping through the window and into Robert's room like a swallow.

At that moment, Robert was lying alone in his bed, bandaged, and when he noticed a dark figure coming to his bed, he was about to scream, when Tang Huimin had already stuck her hand around his neck.

"Don't make a sound or I'll choke you to death!" Tang Hui Min bellowed.

"You ..... who are you?" Robert asked nervously.

Tang Hui Min turned on her own recording device and said in a cold voice, "Never mind who I am, just answer my questions truthfully and I won't kill you!"

"What questions, you ask!" Robert said in a panic.

Tang Huimin jammed his neck hard and asked in a cold voice, "Last time, was that shipment of arms that we intercepted in Yanjing City purchased by you and intended to be shipped to Southeast Asia?"

Robert did not directly answer Tang Huimin's question, but asked in surprise, "You ..... are you Tang Huimin?"

"Yes, I am Tang Huimin," since the other party already knew her identity, Tang Huimin had nothing to hide and continued, "Let me ask you, last time, when I was kidnapped to Liberty Island, did you send someone to do it?"

Robert nodded his head.

Thinking of all the hardships she had endured on Liberty Island, the shame she had suffered when she was controlled by Island Master Smith with drugs and forced to marry him, Tang Hui Min's heart burned with anger.

She then increased the strength of her hand around Robert's neck and continued to ask, "Last time, was it you who sent that laser piece to Liberty Island?"

Robert nodded again.

"Tell me quickly, from whom did you purchase the arms and the laser piece? Who was behind those two cases?" Tang Hui Min forced down the anger inside herself and asked angrily.

"I ..... I ....." Robert knew he was in danger of falling into Tang Huimin's hands tonight, and did not want to reveal his cooperation with Zhao Wenlong, so when Tang Huimin was not looking, he reached out and pressed the alarm button under the bed pillow.

Ring, ring, ring!

A sharp alarm bell rang out.

Clang!

A muffled sound.

A group of black-clad men with guns standing at the door of the ward broke through the door.

"Go to hell!" Tang Huimin shouted and snagged Robert's neck, after which she rushed to the window and prepared to jump out of it.

Bang bang bang!

The men in black fired a burst of shots in the direction of departure.

Tang Huimin leapt and disappeared into the darkness of the night.

Despite her agility and lightness, she was not as fast as the bullets, so much so that she received a gunshot wound, leaving a few drops of her crimson blood on the windowsill.

The red sun was high in the sky, the autumn sky was high, and the white clouds were lingering.

With an ear-splitting roar, a Boeing 777 landed safely at Yanjing International Airport, taxiing some distance down the runway before docking firmly in the car park.

A moving exit lane quickly docked to the plane's security exit window.

"Gentlemen and ladies, welcome to this flight, see you next time!" In the midst of a beautiful air hostess with a professional smile and a goodbye, Lin Kai, Song Lina, Gao Yunxiang and the rest of the party walked out of the window in turn.

The Policewoman Chapter 196

When Lin Kai set foot on this hot land again, a sense of familiarity and intimacy emerged, a feeling that only comes to a person after he has come back from the dead and survived a robbery.

At this moment, he truly realised how important life is to a person. Only by living can one do more things, create miracles and brilliance, and enjoy a good life.

After injuring Robert, Scarface and the Japanese hitman in Rio and taking out Brown and a gang of mafia members on the highway, they were attacked at the Hilton airport and instead of taking a plane out of there, they went to the Hilton and took a flight home from there.

When they got on the plane, they thought that the gang of desperadoes would follow us on the plane and create a hijacking on the plane and everyone's nerves were on edge.

They knew that the plane was flying over the ocean and if there was a hijacking on board, causing the plane to go out of control and crash into the ocean, every passenger on board would not survive.

So, for nearly 20 hours of the journey, everyone was on tenterhooks, keeping an eye on every passenger on the plane for fear that something might happen to it.

However, the hijacking did not happen, the plane landed safely and they returned home safely, so the stone hanging in everyone's heart finally fell to the ground.

It seemed that the Japanese mafia hadn't noticed their whereabouts either, or if they had, the thugs who were after them wouldn't have been able to get past airport security.

"How is my sister-in-law doing now? Is she in danger?" Although Lin Kai had returned to China, the safety of Tang Huimin's stay in Rio was always a piece of Lin Kai's mind.

The Pacific International Hotel is a comprehensive accommodation, leisure and entertainment venue with rooms, restaurants, a teahouse, chess and poker rooms, a nightclub and a sauna and massage centre.

The revolving restaurant is located on the top floor of the 28th floor and prepares classic delicacies from Europe, Japan, India and China. The main dishes are varied and delicious, and guests can enjoy a full view of the city of Yanjing while indulging in a delicious meal.

The chefs, who come from a variety of countries, are all skilled in their craft and create a wide range of delicious dishes for guests to enjoy.

The revolving restaurant is decorated in an original style, with a stylish design that blends traditional elegance.

Bright granite flooring, elegant crystal chandeliers, rows of smooth and clean glass tables and groups of light-coloured sofas are neatly placed in all corners of the hall, giving people a sense of comfort and security.

The double and four-seater elegant seats are exquisite and comfortable, allowing you to savour delicious food while admiring the scenery outside through the glass windows.

The entire city of Yanjing seems to be at your feet, the city's business district seems to be in the palm of your hand, the Fu Cheng River, Yanjing Square, Riverside Park, Villa Mei Lu, Villa Xiang Shan and Villa East Lake Villa seem to be close at hand.

"Welcome!" As soon as a man and woman stepped out of the lift, a pretty woman in a cheongsam greeted them and warmly greeted them, "May I ask if you two will sit in the lobby or the elegant room?"

"Let's sit in the lobby!" Song Mingyuan replied, and then brought Sun Li, the secretary of the chairman of the Far East Group of Companies, along with him into the restaurant.

"Two of you, please follow me!" Under the guidance of the welcoming lady, the two of them found a seat in the lobby facing the glass window and sat down face to face.

Sun Li took the menu from the waiter, which had a wide variety of dishes from all over the world, in addition to the traditional eight major Chinese cuisines.

Sun Li ordered six or seven dishes in one breath, all of which were Song Mingyuan's usual favourites, however, Song Mingyuan seemed to have little appetite.

Ever since his wife Liu Tongshu stole the laser piece from Song Mingyuan's office and things fell through, she then teamed up with security chief Liu Hao to kidnap his daughter Song Lina to a villa in the suburbs. To escape their pursuit and fall into everyone's hands, Liu Tongshu committed suicide and died in Song Mingyuan's arms, and he became unusually depressed.

In addition, after his daughter Song Lina was kidnapped by Robert and the others to the Japanese country, although Lin Kai led a team to rescue her, he has not heard from her so far, which makes him feel very worried.

Soft music was playing in the hall, the gentle sound of music slowly echoing around the room, the flowing sound pleasant to the ears and the eyes.

At the dining table, there were a few guests sitting in twos and threes.

They were all holding chopsticks and forks in their hands, whispering, laughing or chewing slowly.

Although there are many guests, they do not seem to be noisy.

Perhaps the guests here are all rich gentlemen and ladies, or, perhaps, some have come here for the fame of the place, for a walk of youth and to pretend to be gentlemen and ladies for once.

Everyone spoke softly, and all ate slowly and chewed.

Song Mingyuan did not have the heart to study the way these people sat and ate, he cast his gaze out of the window and looked longingly out of the window, overlooking the night scene of Yanjing city –

The lights were brilliant, the gorgeous neon lights were changing into seven colours, dazzling and charming, and the laser beams crossed and reflected in the night sky, Yanjing was like a wide galaxy in the vast starry sky, blossoming into a gorgeous and charming light.

The night view of this city is spectacular and truly beautiful.

In a short while, the wine was served and the waiter opened the wine for them, poured most of it into two tall glasses and left consciously.

Sun Li lifted her glass and gently clinked it with Song Mingyuan, taking a small sip as the wine gently crossed her throat and soaked into her heart.

Suddenly seeing that Song Mingyuan did not show any indication, but only looked at herself with a bewildered expression, she said softly.

"Song Dong, you're still thinking about Liu Tongshu, right?"

"Well," Song Mingyuan nodded, feeling suffocated in his heart, so he took advantage of the wine to dispel his sorrow, only to see him pick up his glass and swallow the wine in one gulp like plain water before he began to complain: "Secretary Sun, tell me, I was so good to Liu Tongshu, treating her heart and soul, how could she cheat me and betray me?"

This kind of unstable behavior of Song Mingyuan caused Sun Li to roll her eyes. In Sun Li's heart, the chairman of the board had always been very stable, and usually almost never drank, even when socializing outside, he rarely drank, but tonight he drank so quickly.

This is something Sun Li has never seen before, hurriedly handed him a piece of tissue paper and said, "Song Dong, things have passed, you should not be too sad, drink slowly, eat some food first!"

Song Mingyuan wiped his mouth with a napkin, continued to pour a glass for himself, lifted his glass and said loudly.

"Come on, let's continue to drink!"

After saying that, Song Mingyuan tilted his head and drained his glass of wine in one gulp .....

The Policewoman Chapter 197

The guests at the neighbouring tables all looked at them with strange eyes, everyone was probably thinking that this guy must have a brain problem and be stimulated in some way, otherwise, how could such an elegant place mix in a drunken madman!

"Song Dong, your health is not good, drink less!" Sun Li advised.

"It's alright," Song Mingyuan said as he patted his chest with his hand, "Look, isn't my body fine? It's not a problem!"

"Then ..... is fine!" Sun Li knew that Song Mingyuan was in a bad mood and was too embarrassed to stop him.

She looked around and saw no acquaintances, so without hesitation she clinked her glass with the one in Song Mingyuan's hand, put the mouth of the glass to her red lips, tilted her head back, and then drank it all in one go.

After finishing her drink, Sun Li wiped her lips and, seeing Song Mingyuan staring at her with wide eyes, smiled smugly and asked.

"Song Dong, why don't you do it?"

"OK, Sun Li, you really can't tell," Song Mingyuan looked at her strangely and said, "OK, I'll finish it too." After saying that, he finished dumping the wine in his cup in one gulp.

"Here, fill it up." Sun Li poured red wine into his cup and filled it up for herself, saying in a delicate voice, "Song Dong, is this cup still dry?"

"Bottoms up, of course!" Song Mingyuan picked up the wine and once again drained his cup.

"Cheers!" Sun Li did not show any weakness either, clinking her glass with Song Mingyuan and then draining it in one gulp.

The people at the neighbouring table saw the two of them start to fight with each other, not knowing what their relationship was, they all looked at them with curious eyes, but the two of them didn't seem to care, clinking their glasses and drinking as if no one was watching.

After a few glasses of wine, Sun Li's face was already full of red.

As they sat face to face clinking glasses and drinking, Song Mingyuan gazed at her delicate and charming face and could not help but compare her to his late wife Liu Tongshu.

Tonight, Sun Li was wearing a pink dress, her tall figure was slim and pavilion-like, her dress wrapped around her full body, showing an S-shaped curve of beauty.

A white and pretty duck egg face, a head of dark shoulder-length hair, slender body, standard trim, everything was so perfect.

"Secretary Sun, tonight, let's not get drunk!" Song Mingyuan said meaningfully.

"Okay," Sun Li nodded, smiled and said, "It's rare to see the chairman so interested, let's not get drunk, cheers!"

After a bottle of red wine was finished, Song Mingyuan once again asked the waiter for a bottle and the two of them continued to raise their glasses and drink.

Before the second bottle of wine was finished, Song Mingyuan suddenly felt a bit off, his head was dizzy, he felt weak all over and slouched down on the dining table .....

"Song Dong, what's wrong with you?" Sun Li reached out and shook Song Mingyuan, and when she saw that he didn't respond, she complained, "If I had known that you were such a poor drinker, I shouldn't have accompanied you to drink so much."

After drinking so much wine, Sun Li acted as if nothing had happened, it seemed that this woman really had a large capacity, only to see her stand up and beckon to a waitress standing not far away.

The waitress came over and asked warmly, "Excuse me, ma'am, can I help you?"

Sun Li pointed at Song Mingyuan who was lying on the table and said, "My boss is drunk, give us the check!"

"Yes, please be a moment!" The waitress nodded and left, and came over with their bill a short while later, saying, "That's three thousand eight hundred in total."

"Okay." Sun Li pulled out forty red suns from the handbag she was carrying and handed them to the waitress, saying, "This is four thousand dollars, no need to look for it, please ask someone to accompany me to help him to room 808 of the hotel."

"No problem, I'll go and ask the security guard to come over now!" The waitress counted the banknotes in her hand, said to Sun Li, and headed towards the restaurant bar.

In a short while, the waitress led a security guard wearing the hotel's security uniform, who was big and thick, over.

The waitress pointed at Song Mingyuan, who was lying motionless on the dining table, and instructed the security guard, "Master, please accompany this lady and help this guest into hotel room 808."

With a nod, the security guard helped Song Mingyuan up from the dining table and walked out of the restaurant with Sun Li to the lift and took it downstairs.

At this moment, the two men in suits sitting at their table not far from the meal were watching Song Mingyuan and the others intently as they left the restaurant.

One man took out his mobile phone and made a call, "Boss, Song Mingyuan is drunk and is being helped out of the restaurant by the hotel's security, do we need to make a move now?"

"The target in the restaurant is too big, you must not do it outside, wait until Song Mingyuan enters the room, then you can do it, make sure to do this beautifully and cleanly, don't leave any flaws!" The other party instructed.

After receiving the instructions from the "boss", the two assassins did not move, finished their check with the waiter, left the restaurant, took the lift down to the 9th floor, and then used the safe passage on the 9th floor to feel their way to the 8th floor.

At this moment, the security guard in the Pacific Hotel had already sent the drunken Song Mingyuan into hotel room 808 together with Sun Li.

"Song Dong, take a good rest, I'll come back to see you later!" Sun Li helped Song Mingyuan to lie down on the big bed, seeing that he was only drunk and not seriously hurt, and after covering him with the quilt, she excused herself and left the room.

Just after Sun Li left, two assassins quickly arrived at the door of room 808, they opened the door with special tools and gently closed it again.

Ping! Ping!

Immediately afterwards, two gunshots sounded out from the room.

It turned out that the man who had just been on the phone with the killer in the restaurant was Zhao Wenlong's bodyguard, Big Head.

That day, when Zhao Wenlong's secretary Liu Yuting tricked him into carrying out an assassination attempt in the back of Cloud Mist Mountain under the pretext of going to a hot spring, it was fortunate that his bodyguard, Big Head, had long ago sent someone to set up an ambush and killed Liu Yuting and the others, otherwise, he would have gone to meet the King of Hell.

After returning to the city, he thought that the person behind this assassination was Song Mingyuan, so he secretly sent someone to follow and monitor him, keeping a close eye on his whereabouts.

Unexpectedly, this guy did not live at home tonight, but came to the Pacific Hotel to drink and get a room with his secretary Sun Li.

This was a good time to get rid of this big trouble in his heart, so Zhao Wenlong instructed Big Head to send the two men he had sent to follow Song Mingyuan and get rid of him in the Pacific Hotel room.

When Song Mingyuan and Sun Li came together to dine in the restaurant, two assassins in suits dressed as guests in the hotel were dining at a table not far from them, closely watching their every move.

When Sun Li got Song Mingyuan drunk and finished the bill, she asked one of the hotel's security guards to help the drunken Song Mingyuan out of the restaurant and into hotel room 808.

Once Sun Li had settled Song Mingyuan down, the two assassins used special tools to open the room door and sneak into the room.

The two men then fished out their pistols from their suit pockets, tiptoed past the parlour outside the suite, walked into the bedroom inside, saw Song Mingyuan sleeping on the bed and raised their guns separately to fire.

The Policewoman Chapter 198

The two men saw that after Song Mingyuan was shot, there was no movement at all in the bed, and only then did they realise that something was wrong and the situation was a bit unpleasant.

"Shit, we've been fooled!" A man in a suit shouted in alarm and prepared to flee the room.

In a flash, the whole room was lit up.

"Don't move, put the gun down!"

With a yell from a burly man, countless men in black appeared as if they had burst out of the ground and surrounded the two men in the middle of the parlour, pointing their guns at their heads one after another.

The two men were so startled that they immediately made a trapped move and raised their guns to fire at these men in black.

The two men in black fired in advance.

PING! Bang!

The two bullets hit the wrists of the two men holding the snatch with precision as if they had eyes.

Aah! Aah!

Clang! Clang!

Two screams, two crunching sounds, and two p7 pistols fell to the ground.

In the instant they froze, several men in black swarmed up and tackled them separately, twisting their arms to their backs and putting handcuffs on their bloody wrists.

Song Mingyuan, on the other hand, walked out from behind the gang of black-clothed men under him like a ghost, looked at the two killers with a smile on his face and asked.

"Two distinguished guests, are you here to see me?"

When the two killers took a look, they were startled.

The man in front of them was a far cry from when he had just been drunk in the hotel restaurant and sent in by the hotel security and his secretary, Sun Li.

“Aren’t you ..... drunk?” One of the killers asked in disbelief.

“Do you think my drinking capacity could be that bad?” Song Mingyuan laughed loudly and said, “Let me tell you, not only am I not drunk, but I also set up a trap for you, I didn’t expect that you would go into it so easily .....”

Before Song Mingyuan stayed at the Pacific Hotel, he knew there would be a vicious battle.

Therefore, he took the lead in sending his new security chief to have him lead a dozen of his elite soldiers to stay in the other rooms on the 8th floor of the Pacific Hotel in advance.

In this way, the entire floor was occupied by their men.

Moreover, they had installed surveillance cameras in the parlour of room 808, where Song Mingyuan was staying, so that Song’s bodyguards would be the first to arrive if there was any movement.

When he learned that the laser piece had been stolen by his wife Liu Tongshu and sent to Liberty Island, and that Liu Tongshu had “died” in his arms, he suspected that Zhao Wenlong, the chairman of the Dragon Python Group of companies, had ordered him to do so, especially when his daughter Song Lina was kidnapped and sent to the Japanese invasion.

But suffering from the lack of conclusive evidence, he dared not denounce the powerful Zhao Wenlong, let alone fight him hard, so he secretly sent Liu Yuting to lurk around Zhao Wenlong and assassinate him.

Unexpectedly, the Tao is one foot tall and the devil is one foot tall. Zhao Wenlong did not take the bait and took the bait to find out Liu Yuting, the mole, and get rid of them.

After the operation failed, Song Mingyuan realised that Zhao Wenlong would retaliate against him, so he and his secretary Sun Li took a room and a drink at the Pacific Hotel as a way to lure the snake out of the hole.

For security purposes, he divided his bodyguards into two groups.

One group was ambushed in room 808 of the hotel, while the other went ahead to the restaurant on the top floor, disguised as dinner guests, to covertly monitor and protect them.

Only after everything was arranged did he take Sun Li with him to the hotel restaurant, deliberately eating in the lobby, and soon learned from the bodyguards who had entered the restaurant in advance that two people were following them in the restaurant.

So, he deliberately sparred with Sun Li and pretended to look drunk.

After paying the bill, Sun Li asked the restaurant waiter to call one of the hotel’s hotel security guards to accompany Sun Li to take Song Mingyuan back to room 808.

In fact, the person who accompanied Sun Li to help Song Mingyuan into the room was not a hotel security guard at all, but a bodyguard beside Song Mingyuan.

He had disguised himself in advance as a hotel security guard and stood at the entrance of the restaurant. The waiter thought he was new and called him over to help.

The two assassins sent by Big Head saw that Song Mingyuan was drunk and was helped into room 808 by the hotel security guard and Song Mingyuan's secretary, who left the room one after another before they made their move.

When they used a special tool to open the door of room 808 and sneaked into the room, they saw that the room had no lights on and felt their way into the bedroom inside.

Finding a swollen and bulging object covered by a quilt on the bed, mistaking it for Song Mingyuan, the two raised their hands at the same time and shot at the bed from different angles –

The two killers were good shots and did hit the object on the bed, but unfortunately, they hit the two pillows on the bed instead.

Song Mingyuan walked to the bed and uncovered the covers as soon as he could, a big hole appeared on each pillow and said to the two killers with a smile.

"Your marksmanship is good, I like it, if you are willing to say who told you to assassinate me, I will consider releasing you ....."

Only then did the two assassins realise that they had been caught in Song Mingyuan's trap and had fallen into his hands, knowing that they had failed in this operation.

This meant that it was a death no matter what, so the two exchanged glances and nodded to each other, simultaneously topping off the poisonous teeth in their mouths.

Suddenly remembering the way Liu Tongshu looked before she died, Song Mingyuan shouted to the bodyguards escorting the two killers.

"Not good, they're going to kill themselves!"

Only unfortunately, it was still a step too late, the two killers were already spitting blood from their mouths and dying of breath.

"Lin Kai, now that I'm back home, where are you going to let me stay?" Song Lina asked worriedly, with the air of a man once bitten by a snake and ten years afraid of a well rope.

This wild, mischievous little girl seemed to have become much more mature and aware of the importance of safety after all she had gone through.

"Stay at my house." Lin Kai said with a smile.

"Your house?" Song Lina asked in surprise, "Where is your house?"

"Of course not." Lin Kai shook his head and said in a pretentious manner.

In order to give her a surprise, he didn't want to tell her for the time being that he had used the money Song Linna's father had given him to buy a villa in Villa Meilu.

“Do you live there alone?” Song Linna asked suspiciously.

“Of course not,” Lin Kai shook his head again and said, “My brother-in-law lives there too .....”

“Then is it convenient for me to stay in your house?”

“What’s so inconvenient about it?” Lin Kai smiled and said, “For your safety, you still have to live in our house, if you feel uncomfortable, it’s not too late for you to move out when we’ve finished with things, don’t you think?”

“Well, that’ll have to do.” Song Lina nodded her head in agreement.

During the conversation, the group had arrived at the airport exit port.

At this moment, Song Lina’s father, Song Mingyuan, personally led a large group of bodyguards to greet them at the airport.

“Daddy, I thought I would never see you again, oooh .....” As soon as she saw her father, Song Lina hurriedly jumped forward and sobbed into his arms.

The Policewoman Chapter 199

“Lina, it’s alright, it’s good to be back!” After relieving his daughter, Song Mingyuan stepped forward to shake Lin Kai’s hand and said, “Mr. Lin, thank you for saving my daughter once again.”

“You’re welcome,” Lin Kai shook his head modestly, pulled Song Mingyuan aside and asked, “Do you know who is behind this kidnapping of Song Lina?”

“Zhao Wenlong!” Song Mingyuan replied without hesitation.

“Ah? How did you know that?” Lin Kai asked in amazement.

“I don’t think there is anyone else in Yanjing City other than Zhao Wenlong,” Song Mingyuan said through gritted teeth, “I suspected him a long time ago, but unfortunately, two days ago, the people I sent to catch him were all killed.”

Song Mingyuan recounted to Lin Kai what happened when he sent Liu Yuting to work undercover beside Zhao Wenlong, failed to assassinate him, and what happened at the Pacific Hotel.

After hearing Song Mingyuan’s account, Lin Kai was shocked and asked in surprise, “Song Dong, it’s too dangerous for you to do this, why don’t you use the strength of the police and the military to eradicate Zhao Wenlong?”

“This kind of murder and arson, something that can’t be on stage, can’t alert the police and military, I can only eat a dumb loss.” Song Mingyuan said helplessly.

“Song Dong, this is not the place to talk, let’s go back and talk about it!” Lin Kai saw that some people around had noticed them and was afraid that there were killers sent by Zhao Wenlong among these people, so he hurriedly said to Song Mingyuan.

Song Mingyuan nodded his head and led the group out of the airport pick-up lounge and to a Mercedes bulletproof car and two Audis they had parked in the car park.

After Lin Kai and Song Linna got into Song Mingyuan's bulletproof Mercedes, Zhang Shuo, Gao Yunxiang and several other members of the special forces got into the other Audi.

After the car was started, one Audi took the lead and left, followed by Lin Kai in that Mercedes bulletproof car and the other Audi followed.

At Lin Kai's suggestion, the three cars slowly drove away from the car park and along the airport highway into the city, towards the Mei Lu Villa area.

The Mei Lu Villa area soon arrived.

After the people in the front and rear Audi cars safely escorted Lin Kai, Song Mingyuan and his father and daughter to their destination, they drove Zhang Shuo, Gao Yunxiang and other special forces members away quickly.

After Lin Kai asked the gatekeeper to open the community gate, Song Mingyuan had his driver drive his bulletproof Mercedes to the front of the villa building Lin Kai had purchased.

Before getting out of the car, Lin Kai asked Song Mingyuan to take a rest in the villa.

Song Mingyuan politely declined, "Mr. Lin, I still have some things to take care of, so I'll leave Lina to you."

Lin Kai pulled Song Mingyuan aside and said, "Dong Song, actually, I have one more thing I want to tell you."

"What is it?" Song Mingyuan asked in confusion when he saw Lin Kai's mysterious look.

"I met Liu Tongshu in Rio .....,," Lin Kai replied.

"Ah? Didn't Liu Tongshu die? You didn't mistake anyone, did you?" Thinking of the scene where Liu Tongshu had died in his arms after taking poison to commit suicide, Song Mingyuan was still haunted.

"I didn't mistake anyone .....,," Lin Kai told Song Mingyuan in one breath that he and Tang Huimin had seen Liu Tong Shu being molested by two foreigners in the bar and brought her to Tang Huimin's temporary residence.

After listening to Lin Kai's account, Song Mingyuan asked eagerly, "Then where is she now? How come she's not with you guys?" After all, the two had been a couple for some time, and Song Mingyuan still had feelings for Liu Tongshu.

Although Liu Tongshu had betrayed Song Mingyuan and kidnapped his daughter, this was all in the past tense and Song Mingyuan was still concerned about her life and death.

Lin Kai said regretfully, "We advised her to return to her country, she said that she had once wronged you father and daughter, she had no face to return to see you, she refused to die and insisted on staying in the Japanese country, I am afraid that she is also in bad luck .....,,"

"Why?" Song Mingyuan asked in disbelief.

"Soon after we left Rio City, the mafia people caught her and forced her to tell them our whereabouts and talk to me on the phone, our whereabouts were thus exposed, and for that reason, we were chased by the mafia on our detour to the Hilton, and I reckon she has been killed by the mafia people... ..” Lin Kai gave a brief description of their fierce battle with the mafia on the highway.

“She had a hard time surviving, why didn’t she appreciate it? It seems that we are really fated to be together,” Song Mingyuan asked with a melancholy expression, “Does my daughter know about this?”

“At that time, although we rescued Song Linna, always in a coma, after waking up, for fear of her being stimulated, I didn’t tell her.” Lin Kai answered truthfully.

“Let this matter pass, there is no need to tell her,” Song Mingyuan said regretfully, “I’ll leave my daughter to you, please take care of her for me, I’ll take my leave first.”

“That ..... is fine,” Lin Kai knew that Song Mingyuan was in a bad mood, so he was not in a position to insist, so he admonished him, “We will take care of Zhao Wenlong’s matter, to avoid making unnecessary sacrifices, so you don’t have to bother about it. ”

“Okay, I understand, I believe you can bring Zhao Wenlong, the culprit who kidnapped my daughter, to justice.” Song Mingyuan said with a nod.

Thinking about how he had sacrificed Liu Yuting, who had been planted beside Zhao Wenlong, and the few assassins he had paid for in order to catch him for nothing, Song Mingyuan felt a little heartbroken.

“Don’t worry, I will.” Lin Kai said seriously.

After getting out of the car, Lin Kai led Song Linna to the door of the villa and pulled out the key.

Just as he was about to open the door, the door to the room suddenly opened from the inside, followed by a sturdy figure rushing out from inside and diving headfirst into Lin Kai’s arms.

“Brat, you’re finally back, I thought I’d never see you again!” Lin Kai felt a burst of elasticity and softness in front of his chest, and when he looked down, it was actually Tang Huimin.

“Ah, little aunt,” Lin Kai couldn’t believe his eyes and asked in amazement, “You ..... how did you get back before us, did Robert die?” Suddenly noticing a piece of gauze wrapped around Tang Huimin’s wrist, he hastily asked, “Are you ..... you hurt?”

“It’s not a problem,” Tang Huimin shook her head, seeing Song Lina standing behind Lin Kai, she realized she had lost her temper and hurriedly left Lin Kai’s embrace and said, “Robert has been taken out by me, I only suffered a slight injury... ..”

She then briefly described to Lin Kai the process of assassinating Robert after she had turned back to Rio, and how she had returned to Yanjing one step ahead of Lin Kai and the others with the help of Interpol.

After listening to Tang Huimin’s account, Lin Kai was then relieved and suddenly remembered Song Lina who had come with him, so he turned around, made an inviting gesture and said.

“Lina, this is our new home, please come inside!”

The Policewoman Chapter 200

After the group walked into the villa and sat down on the sofa in the living room, Tang Huimin regained her normal demeanor as the head of the Security Division of the Municipal Public Security Bureau.

She took Song Lina's hand and sat down on the living room sofa, saying, "Lina, you have suffered, this matter of your kidnapping is taken very seriously by our bureau, can you tell us a little about your kidnapping?"

Song Lina wiped a tear from her eyes and told everyone exactly what happened when she was kidnapped by Robert in front of the school and taken to the Japanese country.

"Robert didn't bully you, did he?" After listening to Song Lina's account, Lin Kai eagerly asked an idiotic question.

"No," said Songlina, shaking her head, "he always treated me with respect and invited me to play chess with him before you came to rescue me in Rio."

"Seems like quite a gentleman, this guy!" Linquet said with a sarcastic smile.

"Do you guys know who did this?" Song Lina asked suspiciously.

Tang Huimin replied, "I have investigated clearly, the person behind the cases of stealing laser tablets, smuggling arms and kidnapping Song Linna is Zhao Wenlong, the chairman of the Dragon Python Group of Companies, and all signs indicate that he is the Dragon Master of the Black Dragon Gang."

"Let's go and catch him now." Lin Kai suggested.

"As far as I know, Zhao Wenlong's social background is very deep, and we have his inner circle inside the city bureau, so it would be very difficult to move him without solid evidence." Tang Huimin asked slyly.

Lin Kai inquired, "Before we left, when you returned to kill Robert, did you leave any useful evidence behind?"

"I have a recording of Robert's conversation, but it can't be used as evidence in court."

"Why?"

"If this recording was brought out, wouldn't that show that Robert and the others were killed by us? Besides, even if we had something like that, what if there was no proof of death and Zhao Wenlong didn't admit it?"

"Then what do you think we should do next?"

"Hold your horses for now, I'll go back to the bureau and talk to Director Xiao to see how to take action."

"If Zhao Wenlong knows that we got out safely in the Japanese country and have returned to Yanjing City, will he be the first to retaliate against our families?" Lin Kai asked worriedly.

"It's possible." Tang Huimin replied, "It's imperative that we try to protect our families."

"Do you think Xiaobo will be in danger?" Lin Kai asked with concern.

“There shouldn’t be,” Tang Huimin replied, shaking her head, “I’ve already moved them to a safe place after I returned home ahead of you.”

“I think this is the safest place, you might as well pick them up.” Lin Kai suggested.

“That’s fine,” Tang Huimin said after thinking about it, “I’ll tell you what, I’ll go back to the bureau to report on my work first, then I’ll pick them up .....”

“Okay, I’ll go with you.” Lin Kai replied.

“No need,” Tang Huimin shook her head, glanced at Song Lina and said, “Song Lina was frightened after being kidnapped to the Japanese country and has just been rescued by us, so you’d better stay and keep her company!”

“That’s ..... fine,” Lin Kai said as he couldn’t refuse in front of Song Linna, “You be careful out there, call me if anything happens.”

“Brat, you still don’t believe in my skills?” Tang Huimin pouted.

Lin Kai explained, “As the saying goes, it’s easy to hide in plain sight but hard to guard against dark arrows, they’re in the dark and we’re in plain sight, it’s better to be careful.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll be fine, just take care of Song Linna.” Tang Hui Min said while squeezing her eyes towards Lin Kai.

“I really don’t get it, she lets me and Song Linna be alone together and isn’t worried about us doing something like that?” Lin Kai was muttering in his heart.

Seeing that Lin Kai didn’t squeal and Song Linna didn’t say a word, Tang Hui Min barked at Lin Kai, “I’ve prepared your change of clothes and put them in that bedroom of yours.”

“Thanks!” Lin Kai smiled gratefully at Tang Huimin.

“Brat, why are you still being polite in front of me?” Tang Huimin smiled slyly, then stood up from the sofa and walked towards the outside of the living room.

Looking at her departing figure, Lin Kai was a bit at a loss for words, and only after Tang Huimin’s figure disappeared at the entrance of the room did he say to Song Lina, who was red-faced and with her head bowed.

“Lina, after such a long journey, you are probably tired, go to the bathroom and take a shower first, then go to the bedroom and rest.”

With that, he got up and went to his bedroom and took out the change of clothes that Tang Huimin had prepared for them.

Song Linna, unaware of the affair between Lin Kai and Tang Huimin, took the underwear, bra and pajamas that Tang Huimin had prepared for her into her hands and said with a smile.

“It seems that your sister-in-law is still very thoughtful and quite attentive!”

“Hehehe .....” Lin Kai blushed, gave a naive laugh and hurriedly excused himself, “You go take a shower first, I ..... I’ll go clean up your room .....”

Song Lina nodded her head.

Lin Kai led her in the direction of the bathroom, and just as she reached the bathroom door, Song Linna suddenly hugged Lin Kai from behind, a pair of firm peaks pressed tightly against Lin Kai’s back.

Feeling their firmness and softness, Lin Kai immediately turned around and took Song Linna into his arms, unable to help but reach out his hands to hold her peaks through her clothes and gently caress them.

“You’re so soft and supple here!” Lin Kai exclaimed as he moved his hands to her waist, grabbing part of her blouse and slipping his hands inside again.

The hand slid across her belly, over her smooth skin and into her bra, Song Lina’s breath gradually caught and her body trembled slightly as she softly leaned against Lin Kai’s chest.

Breathing in the smell of her hair and feeling the elasticity and fullness of her body, Lin Kai moved his left hand down to her thighs, lifting the hem of her skirt and stroking it between her legs, attacking her peaks with one hand as if scratching an itch for her, running the other between her legs.

As if enjoying his caresses, Song Lina’s body gradually became softer.

“Honey, wait a minute .....” Song Lina crouched on Lin Kai’s chest and panted, “I’m going to take a shower first, then .....

With that, she pushed the door open and fled into the bathroom, closing the door with her backhand.

Lin Kai slowed down a bit, went up and pushed, saw that the room door was unlocked from the inside, knew that Song Linna was a bit embarrassed here and did not want to take a love bath with him.

So he slunk back into the living room and sat down on the sofa to watch TV.

After finishing her bath, Song Linna put on the bra and underwear Lin Kai had given her, then draped herself in the thin, cicada silk nightgown and walked out, standing in the middle of the living room.

“You’re done washing?” Sitting on the sofa, Lin Kai looked straight at her with both eyes.

“Well, I’m done,” Song Lina asked softly as she squirmed and walked over to Lin Kai, “Do I look good in your little aunt’s pajamas?”

Lin Kai swallowed a mouthful of saliva and tsked in praise, “It looks good, it’s so good.”

“Really?” Song Lina guffawed and parted the pajamas with both hands.

The pyjamas automatically slipped to the ground.
