

Chapter 1911: It's A Tie

"Does it have a name?" Jiang Yao also thought that Gu Haoyu's golden retriever was too cute. It looked as if it was welcoming the guests with a smile.

"No," Gu Haoyu answered. "There's also a husky in the house."

"I didn't know you like animals." Jiang Yao was the first to enter the residence with her suitcase. Indeed, on the first floor, there was a sleeping husky beside the stairway.

When it heard movement, the Husky only raised its head to look at the door, unlike the Golden Retriever outside. It looked at Gu Haoyu for two seconds before continuing to sleep.

"They're not my dogs. They belong to Ruoran. She went abroad at the beginning of the year and came to my place briefly. She stayed here for a few days and picked up those two for me in those few days. Those two were originally stray dogs. They were very ugly when they first came here. If it were not for Ruoran protecting them, I would have probably thrown them out."

Gu Haoyu admitted that. He was a person without love, and he lacked the patience required to raise those animals.

The two dogs stayed with him after Luo Ruoran left. Gu Haoyu found someone to feed them daily. Luo Ruoran would occasionally phone him to inquire about the two dogs' situation. He knew that she loved the dogs, so he did not send them away.

"Since I'm not attending the conference, I'll visit Sister Ruoran for a few days. I haven't seen her since she left the country. It's just one plane ride away, so I'll take a flight out to see her." Since she was already there, she might as well visit Luo Ruoran.

"If Young Master Lu finds out, he will definitely cry," Xiao An muttered softly. "His son is a thousand miles away, and he is worried. Now, Director Jiang is flying even further away, and she is unwilling to return to his side."

"Stop saying that nonsense." Jiang Yao tapped Xian An's head.

It was hard to imagine Lu Xingzhi crying. Would he still be Lu Xingzhi if he did that?

However, he would definitely be unhappy.

Gu Haoyu's mansion was enormous. Aside from the third level, which was his private domain, the others could stay in the rooms on the second and first floors. The beddings in the rooms were all freshly changed.

Gu Haoyu arranged for a servant to look after Jiang Yao and the others. He still had to do some work in his office. He changed his car and drove away after settling Jiang Yao and the others.

Xiao An was having a wild time in the living room with the two dogs. Moe could not take the loneliness any longer and jump out of Jiang Yao's pocket. He pounced upon the Husky's head, terrifying it so much that it whined in terror. It scratched and shook its head wildly, attempting to shake Moe off its head.

The Husky almost knocked Moe off its head. Moe was furious, and he clawed and slapped the Husky. He was like a bully; he showed his prowess in front of the Husky.

Jiang Yao selected a room on the second floor. It was not a small room, and it had its own bathroom. Wen Xuehui's expression changed the instant she walked into the room. "You did good. You didn't tell me about Gu Haoyu."

"He said he wanted to apologize to you."

Jiang Yao raised her hand as if she was surrendering. "You and him, one each. It's a tie. By the way, how are your studies?"

"It is not too horrible. It is fairly simple. I didn't schedule too many classes in the first half of the year, but I will be exhausted by the end of the semester." Wen Xuehui shook her head. "But I am a smart person. It is not a big deal.."

Chapter 1912: I See

"Of course, you're the smartest!" Jiang Yao was relieved when she noticed that Wen Xuehui's response was not forced and that the confidence in her eyes was genuine.

Wen Xuehui had great results in her previous school, so she should not feel pressured about her studies.

Gu Haoyu was swamped with work. He did not get home until after 10:00 p.m. local time. Jiang Yao and the others had already returned to their rooms to rest, and Jiang Yao, a pregnant woman, had long fallen asleep.

When Gu Haoyu got home, the place was so silent that it did not appear as if he had any visitors. When he got out of the shower and walked downstairs to look for food, he ran into Wen Xuehui, who was drinking water in the kitchen.

They met in the kitchen, but Wen Xuehui pretended not to notice him and continued to boil the water.

"Give me a cup too." Gu Haoyu handed his cup to her.

Wen Xuehui did not even look at him. Her voice was low and soft. Gu Haoyu might not have heard it if the house were not silent.

"I'm sorry for what happened last time. I went back to look for you, but you had already left." Gu Haoyu felt that he needed to repeat himself. He had to apologize to her again.

"There's no need for that. I meant what I said. You didn't have an obligation to help me when I got lost, just like I had no obligation to help you in Nanjiang City." Wen Xuehui swirled the cup in her hand, and suddenly, she smiled. "But it's a good thing that I got lost because I met someone then."

Wen Xuehui did not explain who she had met, but Gu Haoyu knew what she meant.

She must have met someone she liked. There was a hint of girlish shyness in her excitement.

"I see."

Wen Xuehui had already left the kitchen after Gu Haoyu finished speaking.

Gu Haoyu stayed in the kitchen for a while. After taking some food from the fridge, he went up to the third floor to continue his unfinished work.

The most painful thing for those who were jet-lagged was that it was still dark even though they had just woken up. It was still a quiet night.

After Jiang Yao woke up, she saw that Wen Xuehui was still sleeping, and she went to find Xiao An. Sure enough, Xiao An slept while holding onto the Husky.

“Director Jiang, since we don’t have anything to do here, I can head back to Nanjiang City with the others.” Xiao An seemed eager to go home. “The research institute is busy with work right now. If we go back early, we’ll be able to help as well.”

“Sure. You can have a good rest when your experiment is over.” Jiang Yao nodded. “Let’s play cards for now. I’ll get Lin Techeng and Qiong Hui. We’ll play a game to exercise our brains. It’s pretty good.”

Xiao An was bored and immediately agreed to Jiang Yao’s suggestion. The two of them went to get the other two. Then, they gathered in Lin Techeng’s room and started to play.

The four of them and the dog had a great time. They could not sleep, but the other people in the hotel were in deep slumber. A group of people armed with guns silently crept into the hotel in the middle of the night. They instantly took control of the hotel and used its delivery truck to quickly transport the group of unconscious guests out of the hotel. They pried open the hotel safe and took all the documents kept there. They swept everything clean..

Chapter 1913: Dodged A Bullet

Jiang Yao and the others played a few rounds of cards, and time seemed to pass very quickly. It was not until the servant had prepared breakfast and called them that they left the room. The pregnant woman was starving. Fortunately, breakfast was finally ready.

“Where’s Gu Haoyu?”

Wen Xuehui’s tendency to sleep in was unchangeable, while Gu Haoyu did not appear to have such a habit.

“Mr. Gu worked late again yesterday night. When I arrived, I thought I saw him leaving the studio and heading back to his room to rest. Mr. Gu La has never been one to eat breakfast. Miss Luo would drag him to meals when she was around. Mr. Gu reverted to his former self after Miss Luo’s departure.”

That servant was already familiar with Gu Haoyu, though she disapproved of his habits. However, she was just a servant, so her words were not as effective as Mr. Gu’s sweetheart.

“Again? Does he often do that?” As a doctor, Jiang Yao immediately frowned. “He doesn’t eat breakfast and often stays up late at work. Is he trying to get sick?”

“That’s indeed the case. Staying up late to work is a common occurrence for Mr. Cru.” After the servant finished speaking, she returned to the kitchen.

Xiao An sighed. “So that’s how people from Jindo City work.”

“Second Young Master Gu is not from Jindo City,” Qiong Hui stated candidly.

“Well, I wonder how he keeps his body in such good shape despite his busy schedule.”

Jiang Yao was envious of that. “Staying up late gives me acne, especially when I’m studying for exams. I always get acne on my forehead the next day.”

The four of them then discussed if Gu Haoyu had his own skincare routine. Then they discussed which cosmetics on the market could not be used and which had been tested for heavy metals. They next discussed how much damage heavy metals could bring to people’s skin.

When researchers talked about skincare, they would always discuss that. Suddenly, Xiao An said, “Why don’t we make cosmetics in the future? We can produce and monitor the brand. One day, we might be an international brand.’

“Not interested,” Jiang Yao replied quickly. “I’m tired. I’m lazy.”

Her reply was met with disdain from the rest of them. “If only Director Jiang could be as devoted to her work as Second Young Master Cru.”

Jiang Yao did not have that much ambition to expand the company. It was already very busy at that scale. She still had a jewelry company that had not officially started operating yet, and when it began, it would be another busy business.

“Director Jiang, you are the most—”

“The kindest, right?” Jiang Yao quickly followed up.

Xiao An shook her head, “The laziest boss,”

Lin Techeng and Qiong Hui laughed out loud. Jiang Yao lowered her head and ate some food, indicating that she was too lazy to argue with them. Just then, she got a new text message. It was Cheng Jinyan; he asked her to listen to the news on the local radio.

There was a radio in the living room. Jiang Yao got up and turned it on to the local radio station. Coincidentally, the news reported something that Jiang Yao wanted to hear.

“Come quickly!”

Jiang Yao waved at the three people at the dining table. “We really dodged a bullet last night.”.

Chapter 1914: Pregnant Women Are Stupid

The three people at the dining table went to stand beside Jiang Yao. The news reported the major incident that happened the previous night. At the moment, all the researchers who attended the medical research conference had been kidnapped. No one knew where kidnappers came from, and they even obtained all the information given at the conference.

All participants were kidnapped in one night, and all the materials were stolen. Lin Techeng was so taken aback that his eyeballs nearly popped out. “This must be an insider’s job.”

“There must be a mole,” Jiang Yao said firmly. “Perhaps some spies. Maybe they have infiltrated the hotel since the beginning of the conference.”

“Those people should be envious of us, right?”

Xiao An smiled sneakily. “They probably said that we were stupid for leaving. Now, they must be envious of us that we left early yesterday. We haven’t given them any information or materials either. We’re just too lucky.”

Jiang Yao sat there and nodded, gloating over those people’s misfortune.

After hearing the broadcast, Jiang Yao went back to the dining table and took out her phone to send Cheng Jinyan a text message to thank him.

If Cheng Jinyan had not told her in advance, she would probably be one of the people kidnapped.

Jiang Yao did not know how the kidnappers managed to kidnap so many people without anyone noticing. The authorities did not know anything about them, and they did not even know who had taken those people. They did not know their motive, so they hoped that the citizens could provide some clues.

That huge incident soon captured the attention of the entire world. After all, those kidnapped researchers were from many countries.

Lu Xingzhi called Jiang Yao right after she finished her breakfast. When he heard her voice, he breathed a sigh of relief.

“I was shocked when I heard the news on the radio. It’s good that you’re okay.” Lu Xingzhi’s heart was in his throat when he heard the news. Fortunately, he managed to call Jiang Yao, and she was not captured. Their country’s government had not received any information about that incident.

After all, Jiang Yao’s Changkang Research Institute was the only one invited. Jiang Yao was unharmed and had not been kidnapped. The organizers were so preoccupied that they did not have time to engage with countries not involved in the incident.

Jiang Yao said, amused. “I told you that I left with Lin Techeng and the others. They might say that pregnant women are stupid, but do I look stupid to you?”

“I was just too worried about you.” Lu Xingzhi scoffed. That was the most appropriate way to describe his reaction. “Are you coming home today? If yes, are you going to Luo City or staying in Nanjiang City for two more days? If you are coming back to Luo City, tell me your flight time, and I’ll pick you up at the airport.”

Jiang Yao had only left for two nights, but Lu Xingzhi felt like it had been forever.

His wife had gone abroad with his child. He had to stay at home alone with a huge bed. There was no wife to hug him at night, and he could not touch his child. His life felt empty.

“I’m going to visit Sister Ruoran since I’m already here. It’s just a two-hour flight. I’ll stay with her for one or two days before I head home.”

Chapter 1915: Being In-laws

After Jiang Yao finished speaking, she did not give Lu Xingzhi a chance to speak. "Well, I'll call you when I've booked my flight back. I'm having breakfast now. I won't talk to you anymore. I'm hanging up."

Then, Jiang Yao quickly hung up the phone. If she did not do that, Lu Xingzhi would make his displeasure known.

However, Lu Xingzhi still expressed his dissatisfaction with her.

"Two days, max. I'll pick you up at the airport in two days." Lu Xingzhi sent Jiang Yao a text message.

Jiang Yao had just finished reading it when a new text message came in a few seconds later. It was still from Lu Xingzhi.

"Be reasonable. You're my wife. Why are you always accompanying others?"

Jiang Yao put her phone aside and pretended not to see that complaint.

'Oh, yes! Director Jiang, your friend is incredible. He was even aware of such news ahead of time. Does he know anyone capable of such a big thing?' Qiong Hui was intrigued by the identity of the mastermind behind the incident.

"Have you not heard that curiosity kills the cat? The more one knows, the faster one dies." Jiang Yao knocked Qiong Hui's head. Then, she put down her spoon and took her phone into the room.

She had already finished her breakfast, but Wen Xuehui was still sleeping. She hugged the blanket and had no intention of waking up.

Wen Xuehui was extremely capable. When it was time for class in the morning, she could sleep in until the hour was right and then ring step into the classroom. She could sleep till noon when it was not time for class, and no one could wake her up.

Jiang Yao sat on the edge of the bed and pulled at her quilt for a long time without waking her friend up. In the end, Jiang Yao, who had wanted to wake Wen Xuehui up, almost fell asleep when she saw Wen Xuehui sleeping so deeply.

Jiang Yao thought that anyone who had insomnia in the future could watch Wen Xuehui sleep. It had a miraculous effect on insomnia.

After failing to awaken Wen Xuehui, Jiang Yao returned downstairs to phone Luo Ruoran and informed her that she would be visiting her. Luo Ruoran's due date was still some time away, so she was overjoyed when she heard Jiang Yao was on her way.

'Come on over. Let the babies in our bellies say hello for the first time. They might become good siblings in the future, and we have a boy and a girl, we might get to be in-laws too!'

Luo Ruoran was delighted with her arrangement. They should get a good match for their children's future. They should be the ones to nurture their children.

"That's not a bad idea, but you have to come home. Otherwise, Lu Xingzhi will never agree to that. If I have a son, he can marry your daughter. Then, shouldn't you come home to enjoy life? If I have a girl and you have a son, Lu Xingzhi will never let her leave his side to live abroad. He is also a soldier, so he can't travel so casually."

"The future is still so far away."

Luo Ruoran smiled and said, "I am now on maternity leave. I am making preparations to take care of myself. It is good that you are here to accompany me. I can also share my experience with you. Even if you are a doctor, I definitely have more experience than you. Chapter 1916: A Difficult Birth

"Yes, yes, yes. Wait for me. I'll have to learn from you," Jiang Yao said, amused. However, Luo Ruoran was right. Even though she was a doctor, she did not have as much experience as Luo Ruoran.

Jiang Yao had planned to stay at Gu Haoyu's place for two days, but Wen Xuehui had to return to the school on the first afternoon. Meanwhile, Lin Techeng and the others had returned home, and Gu Haoyu was so busy that he did not have time to see Jiang Yao. She was alone, so she brought Big Ke and Ah Lu to visit Luo Ruoran a day earlier.

Jiang Yao overheard the aftermath of the incident involving the kidnapping of conference attendees while waiting for the plane.

Someone contacted the research institutes and their governments to ask for a hefty ransom, or they would kill all those individuals.

Jiang Yao could hear people discussing it all across the departure hall. She did not pay much attention to it. Then, someone mentioned Changkang Group. They said that it was a stroke of luck that Changkang Group's team had been chased away by the organizers.

Jiang Yao dialed Luo Ruoran's number before boarding the plane, but no one answered. She assumed Luo Ruoran was sleeping, so she ignored it. In any case, she already knew Luo Ruoran's address. She would phone her when she got off the plane. It would be nice to surprise Luo Ruoran.

Jiang Yao dozed quickly during the two-hour flight. The plane touched down safely on the ground. She called Luo Ruoran after she got her luggage.

That time, someone answered Luo Ruoran's phone, but it was not Luo Ruoran. Instead, it was Luo Ruoran's husband.

"Ruoran had an accident two hours ago and was sent to the delivery room. She's still in the delivery room."

'What?!'

Jiang Yao almost hurled her phone out the window. How could she be in an accident? She had been perfectly fine. Was it for real? What had happened? 'Which hospital is she in? I'm at the airport. I'll get a cab and head there right away.'

Luo Ruoran had been fine when Jiang Yao called her the previous day. She did not expect something to happen to Luo Ruoran in just one day.

"It's a difficult birth. The doctors in the hospital are doing their best to save her, but they might not be able to save the child."

Even though Jiang Yao had never seen Luo Ruoran's husband, she could hear the anxiety in the man's tone.

"Tell me the address, and I'll go there immediately."

Jiang Yao frowned and turned around to speak with Big Ke. "We have to rush to the hospital."

The three drove to the airport in a cab. They urged the cab driver along the way and finally arrived at the hospital in half an hour.

If not for her stomach, Jiang Yao would have flown into the operating theater.

"What's the situation? How long has she been in there? Did the doctor say anything?"

Jiang Yao saw Mrs. Luo, who thought she had seen her savior. "Yaoyao, please save Ruoran. It doesn't matter if the child is gone. My daughter must live."

"Auntie, don't worry. I'll find the doctor to understand the situation." When Jiang Yao saw a nurse come out of the delivery room, she immediately walked toward the nurse and asked, "How's the situation with Luo Ruoran? Tell me the specifics now. I'm also a doctor.. The more detailed, the better!"

Chapter 1917: The Only Bond

The nurse was terrified by Jiang Yao's tone and unconsciously told her about the situation on the inside.

"Let her go!" Mrs. Luo ran to hold the nurse's hand and said, "She's a doctor we trust." She would feel at ease if Jiang Yao was with Luo Ruoran.

"I want to go in." Jiang Yao nodded and said, "Let me go in to look at the situation."

Jiang Yao hurriedly got changed and entered the operation theater, especially when she got Luo Ruoran's family members' approval.

Other pregnant women were in the delivery room, but Luo Ruoran was a special case. She had been transferred to the operating theater. When Jiang Yao went in, she could hear Luo Ruoran's suppressed crying and the doctors' incessant encouraging words.

Just as the nurse said, Luo Ruoran's condition was not optimistic. Luo Ruoran had accidentally fallen down the stairs. That had contributed to her difficult labor.

"Ruoran. "

Jiang Yao scanned Luo Ruoran's condition to understand her situation. She walked forward and called out to Luo Ruoran softly.

Luo Ruoran, who was on the verge of passing out, heard Jiang Yao's voice and gritted her teeth to keep going. She opened her eyes slowly and glanced at Jiang Yao. Her eyes welled with tears. "I beg you, Jiang Yao, please help me save the child. It doesn't matter what happens to me. Please save my baby."

Luo Ruoran reached out and grabbed Jiang Yao's sleeve. Her face was filled with grief. "Jiang Yao, that child is the only bond between us. If the child is gone, then I have nothing. I will have nothing of him. This child is more important than my own life.

“Jiang Yao, I beg you, help me protect my baby. I want my baby. “Luo Ruoran begged Jiang Yao. “I have nothing. I only have this baby.”

Luo Ruoran’s words moved Jiang Yao. She had always believed that Luo Ruoran belonged with Liang Yueze. Luo Ruoran thought she could let go of everything. However, she could not even fool herself.

“Since you love him so much, why did you divorce him? Sister Ruoran, aren’t you too silly?” Jiang Yao held Luo Ruoran’s hand. Her heart ached. Jiang Yao did not understand. Since Luo Ruoran loved him so much that she could even give up her life, why did she let him go?

“He didn’t love me. He took care of me like a sister. We were only friends. His loved one is back, and I have taken her position. I have to make room for her. If I stayed with him, he might not lose whatever friendly affection he might have had for me. He might even hate me. So, I might as well let him go.’

Luo Ruoran almost used up all her strength to say those words. “Jiang Yao, I loved him, but I couldn’t be with him. I felt uneasy when I was with him. Could you understand how I feel? I feel uneasy even if I get him. Do you understand how I feel? I left him and took this with me. So, I only have this baby now.”

“Don’t speak anymore. I won’t let anything happen to you and your child. You and your baby will be fine,” Jiang Yao said.

After she finished speaking, Jiang Yao conveyed her words to the doctors in the operating theater. When the doctors heard that Jiang Yao wanted to take over the patient, they pointed at Jiang Yao and said, “Even if you know the patient, you can’t take her life as a joke. There is no discussion. We won’t agree to this.”.

Chapter 1918: Relieved That Everything Is Well

“I give my consent. I will bear the consequences. I believe in my friend,” Luo Ruoran said with gritted teeth.

“You have heard of the Divine Doctor, right? I am her student. I can complete this procedure by myself.” Jiang Yao had no choice but to name-drop the Divine Doctor.

Everyone in the medical community should have heard of the Divine Doctor. In addition to the fact that anti-stress medicine had attracted the world’s attention, Jiang Yao felt that there was no reason they would not know of the Divine Doctor.

Since Jiang Yao was the Divine Doctor’s student and Luo Ruoran had given her consent, they finally allowed Jiang Yao to stay in the operating theater alone.

After the other doctors left, Jiang Yao quickly moved Luo Ruoran to the medical system. The baby showed signs of bleeding, but the baby was strong because of prenatal care. Luo Ruoran’s situation was caused by her fall.

As soon as Jiang Yao entered the medical system, she quickly called for the System Admin to be her assistant. Jiang Yao was quite experienced in the fields of obstetrics and gynecology. She and Wen Xuehui worked as doctors in a small town in her previous life. She had dabbled in almost all kinds of diseases and treated them too. She and Wen Xuehui had also delivered many children for the women in the village.

With the help of the medical system, Jiang Yao quickly stopped the bleeding. Without any hesitation, she immediately performed a c-section on Luo Ruoran.

Time seemed to pass by very quickly. She did not have the extra energy to pay attention to time. However, it was a torturous wait for Mrs. Luo.

Mrs. Luo looked at her watch repeatedly. She looked in the direction of the operating theater. It was as if a long time had passed each time she raised and lowered her head. However, it had only been about five minutes.

After more than an hour, Jiang Yao transferred Luo Ruoran and her baby out of the medical system.

"It's a boy. He weighs about four kilograms, and he's very strong. The labor had been difficult for Ruoran." Jiang Yao could not put the baby down. "Don't worry, Auntie. Ruoran is fine, but she hasn't woken up yet. We'll take her to the ward now."

Mrs. Luo looked at the child in Jiang Yao's arms, and her eyes immediately reddened. "I'm glad to hear that she's fine."

Mrs. Luo clasped her hands together, and her heart calmed.

Before Jiang Yao came out of the operating theater, the nurse had asked her to sign a consent form for the surgery. She had also asked them to save her daughter. Mrs. Luo wanted a grandson, but her daughter was even more important to her.

She only had one daughter, and she had nurtured her well. Whenever she thought about her daughter's suffering in the operating room, she wished she could go in and help her.

'Where's Uncle Luo? Is he here?' Jiang Yao handed the baby in her arms to Mrs. Luo.

Mrs. Luo explained, "He was in Jindo City when the accident happened, so it's only me. He should be on a plane right now."

Then, she looked lovingly at the child in Jiang Yao's arms, but she sighed. "This child looks too much like his father. They're practically two peas in a pod. I've seen pictures of Yueze when he was a newborn. He looks just like this. This child's facial features also resemble his father."

It was not a bad thing for a child to resemble his father, but the situation was not the same for Luo Ruoran..

Chapter 1919: You Know About It Too?

Luo Ruoran had planned to raise the child alone because she had divorced Liang Yueze. However, the child resembled Liang Yueze. Everyone who knew Liang Yueze would know that he was the child's father once they saw the baby.

It would be difficult for Luo Ruoran to live abroad with only her child. Furthermore, the child would not be able to go back to their country.

Jiang Yao knew that Mrs. Luo was worried about that, but that should be reserved for the future. Luo Ruoran and her baby were fine, so why should they worry so much?

She had wanted to give Luo Ruoran a surprise, so she did not expect Luo Ruoran to surprise her instead.

The hospital staff took Luo Ruoran to the ward, and Mrs. Luo was also there to take care of her. Jiang Yao went to a hotel near the hospital to take a rest. She had gone straight to the operating room from the airport, so she was tired. She planned to go to the hospital to visit Luo Ruoran the next day.

Big Ke and Ah Lu had already arranged the accommodation in advance. When Jiang Yao returned to the hotel, she took a shower. When she came out of the bathroom, her phone rang.

It was Lu Xingzhi. He must have called because of Liang Yueze.

“Are you with Luo Ruoran? How is she?” Lu Xingzhi went straight to the point.

“You know about it too?”

Jiang Yao was puzzled. How did Lu Xingzhi know about Luo Ruoran’s accident?

“Auntie Luo left her home in a hurry. After Auntie Liang saw it, she asked the Luo family’s servant and found out that something had happened to Ruoran. She fell down the stairs. Seeing how anxious Auntie Luo was, it seemed a little serious.” Then, Lu Xingzhi immediately reminded her; he said, “No matter where you are, you have to take care of yourself.”

“I just left the hospital. Don’t worry, she’s fine,” Jiang Yao said. Then, she said, “Don’t worry, I will take good care of your baby.”

“And yourself.”

Lu Xingzhi could hear the sourness in Jiang Yao’s tone. Was she jealous of her child?

“Since Ruoran is fine, go to a police station near you. You need to bail Big Brother out of jail.” Lu Xingzhi finally mentioned the purpose of his call. “He went to see her after he heard about the accident. He saw Luo Ruoran’s husband at the hospital entrance, and then he beat him up. The hospital called the police, and they took him away.”

Jiang Yao facepalmed. “Okay, I got it. I’ll go over now.”

“Take Big Ke and Ah Lu with you. Don’t go alone. Let them protect you.” Lu Xingzhi would not let Jiang Yao go alone. After he heard about Luo Ruoran’s accident, he was even more worried about Jiang Yao.

“Come home after that. I worry when you’re not with me.” It was not up for discussion. “I’ll get Big Ke to book the plane tickets.”

“Okay.”

After all, Jiang Yao did not want to stay abroad any longer. She was also worried about Lu Xingzhi.

She also missed him. It had been a few days since she last saw him.

After the call, Jiang Yao went to get Big Ke and Ah Lu. When she arrived at the police station, Liang Yueze and another man seemed to be coordinating in the police station’s office..

Chapter 1920: What's The Difference?

Liang Yueze looked at Luo Ruoran's husband as if he was a poisoned knife.

"Big Brother."

Jiang Yao called out to Liang Yueze.

Liang Yueze sat there with a solemn face. Liang Yueze seemed unscathed, but the man opposite him had many bruises on his face.

Liang Yueze looked at her. "Jiang Yao? Did Lu Xingzhi tell you to come here?"

"Yes."

Jiang Yao nodded obediently and then looked at the man opposite Liang Yueze. The man looked at her too.

"You are Ruoran's friend. She said that you were coming to see her." The man recognized Jiang Yao after hearing her name. Then, he pointed at the man opposite him. His expression was no better than Liang Yueze's. "Who is he? Is he crazy? He rushed forward and hit me when he saw me at the hospital entrance."

"I am Ruoran's ex-husband." Liang Yueze sneered. "Do you not remember, or are you pretending not to remember? I even went to your wedding!"

The man thought for a while and then said, "Oh."

It seemed that he had remembered, but he was even more confused. "Since you are Ruoran's ex-husband, why did you hit me?"

"Hitting you is a light punishment! Why didn't you take good care of her after marrying her? Why did you leave her alone at home? Why did you let her have an accident? Since you married her, how could you let her have an accident? What on earth have you been doing?"

The more Liang Yueze spoke, the angrier he became. If the police were not still there, if they were in Jindo City, he would have attacked again.

"Aren't you with your old flame? Why do you still care about your ex-wife's affairs?" Then, the man explained a few things to the police. He did not pursue the matter.

After leaving the police station, the man did not pay any attention to Liang Yueze. Instead, he looked at Jiang Yao and said, "I'm going to the hospital now. Do you want to go with me? 'I

"No, I just came from the hospital.

Jiang Yao shook her head.

Liang Yueze did not move until the man left. Jiang Yao turned to look at him and said, "When did you become such an impulsive person? The laws of foreign countries are different from our country's. If it weren't for him not pursuing the matter, you would have been prosecuted. You might not be able to come here in the future."

"Pfft. "

Liang Yueze was not afraid at all. If it were not because he had no choice, he would not have been willing to go to that country.

Liang Yueze remembered that Jiang Yao mentioned she had been to the hospital. "She's alive? Is she okay?"

'Yes."

Jiang Yao nodded. "I rushed here for the emergency. I was the one who performed the surgery.

Liang Yueze nodded. Then, he took out a cigarette from his pocket. Just as he was about to light it, he turned to look at Jiang Yao. He knew she was pregnant, so he put the cigarette back into his pocket in frustration.

"Do you want to know about the baby? After all, she fell from the stairs." Jiang Yao could see that Liang Yueze was in a terrible mood, but he knew that she was pregnant. Otherwise, he would continue smoking.

Liang Yueze shook his head.

"You don't want to know about that?" Jiang Yao asked.

"What's the difference?"

In the end, Liang Yueze still put the cigarette in his mouth, but he did not light it. At that moment, it was better than nothing..
