Before, the timing was not ripe.

The Chu family's opinion is very big, Mark's background is destined to make his return suffer great resistance.

Even though Chu Zhenghong was already the head of the Chu family, before he had certain confidence, Chu Zhenghong categorically did not dare to let Mark recognize his ancestor.

Because this is very likely to harm him.

For big families like the Chu family, the struggle for power has always been cruel.

Mark is also the son of the Chu family. Even if he has no intention of being the head of the Chu family, he will inevitably be involved in a family dispute.

Therefore, Chu Zhenghong has been waiting for so many years.

When he has enough power, he can shelter Mark mother and son.

Waiting for Mark to grow up, he can stand alone!

Now, the time is ripe.

Markian's eleventh strength was enough to protect himself in the Chu family.

Therefore, Chu Zhenghong couldn't wait to wait for Mark to return.

What happened back then should also be explained clearly to Mark.

Time finally came to nine o'clock in the morning.

As the time for Mark's return approached, Chu Zhenghong's heart suddenly became excited and nervous.

However, just when Chu Zhenghong was full of expectations, waiting for the reunion with his son again.

However, who could have thought that there was bad news coming from the broadcast in the waiting room.

“On May 18th, Gengzi Year, at 10:23 am, the Imperial cruise ship sank in an accident near the coast of Japan.”

“Rescuers at the scene are making emergency rescues, but no one has been found surviving yet.”

“Specific circumstances , The relevant departments are negotiating with Japan~”
“On the morning of May 18th, Gengzi Year, the Imperial cruise ship sank off the coast of Japan~” “No one has been found surviving yet~” In the waiting room, the low sound of broadcasting echoed over and over again.

Chu Zhenghong’s face suddenly turned pale.

Finally, his body staggered a step and lay directly on the seat behind him.

“Imperial, sinking?” “No...”

No personnel, survived?

“This news was like a bolt from the blue. For a moment, the man before him was just like an old ten-year-old. The look in his old eyes dimmed immediately. “Patriarch, Patriarch~” “Don’t worry.

“The little lord will definitely be fine.”

“The young master is superb and can be a titled master.”

“With such strength, the cruise ship hits the rocks and sank, and the little lord will definitely be able to retreat~” Upon seeing this, Old Han hurried forward to support Chu Zhenghong, comforting him again and again. However, Chu Zhenghong’s expression did not There is no relief from this. If it is a normal accident, Mark will be able to retreat all by himself. But, is this really a normal accident? Mark just became famous during the First World War in Japan, and he rode on the way home. The cruise ship wrecked bizarrely. If you link the front and back, the answer is undoubtedly clear. Obviously, this accident was caused by someone who started on Mark! After a brief gaffe, Chu Zhenghong’s expression suddenly cooled down. He picked up the phone and dialed out. “Send my order to summon all the powerhouses of the Chu family to gather on the East Vietnam Sea coast tonight!

“The deep voice contains no emotion. It is cold, like the immortal ice rock on the iceberg.

Chapter 1930

Old Han on the side was stunned.

The Chu family is the world's largest wealthy family.

He also controlled nearly half of Trumen's power.

Now, Chu Zhenghong suddenly summoned all the powerhouses of the Chu family.

Old Han didn't dare to imagine what terrible power those people would have if they gathered together.

He looked at the man and asked in horror: "Patriarch, what are you doing?" "What are you doing?" "I want to spend peace in Japan!" Chu Zhenghong clenched his palms, and in his words, murderous intent raged.

Old Han was shocked.

"Family..."

Patriarch, don't be impulsive.

"The life and death of the young master is still unknown, and everything has not been ascertained."

"The most urgent thing is to figure out the ins and outs of things."

"Moreover, with the strength of the young master, it is impossible to fall so easily.

Adam Han repeatedly persuaded. The Chu family assembled the strong and attacked Japan. This is not a trivial matter. If it is not done well, it will affect the whole body. At that time, the whole world of martial arts may even be involved in this. Disputes. "They better pray, my son is still alive.

"Otherwise, I want the whole country to be buried with my son!"

Chu Zhenghong clenched his palm, and his eyes were red. I thought that today would be the day when their father and son were reunited, but who would have thought that what was waiting was the silent sad news of the cruise ship. However, what Old Han said. It is not unreasonable. Before Mark's body is found, life and death are not enough to make a conclusion! "Mark, you must live~" In the hall, Chu Zhenghong's old eyes were red and he prayed in his heart. ———— ———— ———— That night, a large number of powerful people gathered urgently on the coast of East Vietnam Sea. “On the coast of the East Vietnam Sea, a large number of foreign powerhouses are surprised?”

“There are more than ten strong masters alone?”

“The titled master, there are more people?”

” “Oh my God!

“What kind of power is the other party?”

“What do they want to do?”

“Does it have to raid my Vietnamese martial arts?”

“After learning the news, the Juggernaut and others were dumbfounded. More than a dozen masters? This lineup is the strength of Vietnam’s entire country, and it is difficult to get it together in a short time. Moreover, it is actually gathered in Vietnam’s coastal waters? This kind of news, like the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier formation of the United States, suddenly appeared in the Vietnam Inland Sea.

It is conceivable that after the Wushen Temple learned the news, how terrified was in his heart?

“Quick!” “The King of Fighters, inform the God of War that there is a change in the country.”

“Let’s go there first, and let the God of War receive the news, and quickly go to the shore of the East Vietnam Sea to support!” In panic, Sword Saint Xiao Chen, King of Fighters Mo Gucheng, and Hao The three of Tianzong Master Tang Hao rushed to the coast of the East Vietnam Sea overnight to monitor the movements of these mysterious powerhouses.

It is a matter of the country’s martial arts safety, and they cannot tolerate any negligence.

However, it turns out that the Juggernauts are too worried.

The goal of these people does not seem to be Vietnam.

After they assembled, they all rushed towards the Japanese sea area.
