

Chapter 193

"Let's go."

Alyssa put the lemon water down immediately and pulled Kelly with her.

Kelly looked at Alyssa, "Where are we going?"

"Hospital."

Kelly couldn't refuse Alyssa and soon they were back at the hospital.

Alyssa went to the doctor she knew to check Kelly out.

The test result showed that she had lung cancer.

Alyssa couldn't believe it.

She asked the doctor to do the test again.

The doctor looked at Alyssa and said, "Mrs. Hunter, the result of the test is very clear. She has problems with three or four indicators. The same result comes out by checking the lungs. It can't be wrong. As it is now ... I only advise her to prescribe some medicine. If it hurts, she can take a little medication. All I can do is try to make her happier every day. That's all I can do."

"Check her again."

Alyssa didn't believe it. Kelly looked fine, not like she was sick at all.

"Mrs. Hunter, we did diagnose her. There is no mistake. People are like that sometimes. Life and death is an unpredictable thing."

Life and death were uncertain.

People couldn't stop it.

Alyssa heard the doctor's words and sat on the side without saying anything.

Kelly nodded. In fact, she had already accepted the fact that she had lung cancer.

After the day she and Kelly separated.

Alyssa could never forget the way Kelly talked about her children with red eyes.

She was a mother. In her opinion, Kelly was a very strong mother.

If something really happened to her, what would happen to her children?

Her two daughters were only two months old and needed their mother very much.

Without their mother, what would they do in the future?

No wonder Kelly was so determined.

But what should Kelly do now?

Alyssa returned home and remained sullen. Leon came home and saw Alyssa's upset face.

"What's wrong?"

"Nothing."

"If you don't tell me the truth, I'll get mad."

Looking into Leon's eyes, Alyssa was really worried that he would get angry. She hurriedly took his hand, "I just think life is unpredictable. Do you remember Kelly from Sky?"

Leon shook his head. He didn't know this person.

"Before, I went to the hospital because I had to take Chinese medicine. While I was in the hospital, I met Kelly, who was abandoned by her husband because she had two daughters. Kelly wanted to jump off a building, but I told her that women didn't live for men. Why would she want to jump for a man? Later, Kelly and her husband divorced. She raised her children. But now she had lung cancer and she was in a bad condition. She went to her ex-husband to discuss how to take care of the children, but he didn't want to take care of them at all."

Alyssa said what was on her mind.

Leon knew about it. At the time, he was surprised because of it.

He hugged Alyssa and whispered, "Don't think about that."

Alyssa nestled into Leon's arms, "Hmm, I don't want to think about that anymore. Leon, will you be unhappy that I have two daughters?"

"I like daughters the most. If you really give me two daughters, I will be very happy."

Leon had never had a preference for sons.

On the contrary, if Alyssa did give birth to two daughters, he would be even happier than he was now.

Their daughters would be as beautiful as Alyssa.

Leon hugged Alyssa, "You look a little tired. Should we rest early?"

"You're not busy today?"

"Yes, I'm not that busy today. I'm almost done with the company. Brown Brothers has announced its asset structure."

Asset structure?

Alyssa looked at Leon curiously.

Leon told her what had happened in the company in the past few days.

Alyssa nodded, "You bought Brown Brothers? Will they agree?"

"If I didn't buy Brown Brothers, they would face the possibility of bankruptcy. After signing with Hunter Group, Brown Brothers has been ostracized by its peers, especially Jacob, who has been unhappy with Brown Brothers and has always picked holes in it. I can take this opportunity to protect Brown Brothers."

"Is it a little inappropriate for Brown Brothers to follow the track of Hunter Group in the future?"

"That's fine. I will separate Brown Brothers after a while. I don't need to maintain such a relationship with them all the time. They've been really good at their job these past six months."

After half a year of cooperation, Leon was satisfied with them.

Otherwise, he would not help them this time.

Alyssa nodded and said, "Since things are settled, you don't need to be so busy. During this period, you must be exhausted."

"In that case, why don't you reward me?"

Leon moved to Alyssa and gently kissed her face. Looking at her red face, he said softly, "Alyssa."

"Um?"

"Alyssa ..."

"I am here."

Leon called her name over and over again, and Alyssa was suddenly a little curious. Why did he suddenly call her name over and over again?

She was a little curious, "You've called me twice. What is it?"

"Nothing, I just want to call your name. I think your name is very nice. Being with you makes me feel happy. I feel like I'm wanted."

"You're so silly."

"I'm not."

"I'm just happy to be with my beloved."

Leon didn't think he was silly at all.

On the contrary, he felt that it was natural for him to express his thoughts with the person he loved.

Alyssa was about to sleep with Leon when Leon's phone suddenly rang.

Leon frowned. He answered the phone and looked at Alyssa apologetically, "I still have some things to deal with."

"I'll sleep first then."

Alyssa was a little disappointed. But she knew Leon was busy with serious matters. She couldn't disturb Leon, so she didn't say anything.

After Leon left, Alyssa opened her phone and started to read the news about Hunter Group.

It had everything she wanted to know in the news.

Brown Brothers' things were finished.

There were other companies to deal with.

It seemed that Hunter Group was indeed busy.

But Leon hadn't told her about the company.

She was a little disappointed.

But when she thought of her grandfather's words, she suddenly didn't feel disappointed anymore.

Grandpa was right. She had to trust Leon's ability.

Alyssa thought this and suddenly felt at ease. After being with Leon, she could hide behind him no matter what happened. She felt especially warm.

Leon went to the study and started working on his work.

He quickly took care of the problem and had another quick video conference.

It was already one o'clock in the morning after the video conference.

He had been very busy lately. At the same time, he could detect some different airs.

It seemed that there was a pair of eyes in the dark that had been staring at him.

Those eyes were cold. He didn't notice them at first, but then he felt that they looked like Colton's eyes.

Colton might not have given up yet.

Leon was uneasy. Even though it was a little late, he called his grandfather.

Grandpa quickly answered the phone. Once the call came through, he heard his grandfather's voice.

"Leon, why are you calling so late? What's the matter?" Kevin hadn't been sleeping soundly these few days. He always felt that something was going to happen. However, nothing had happened in the past few days.

He couldn't help but suspect that something was wrong in his head. It could be that he was old. Compared with the past, he was more afraid of things.

In fact, as far as the situation was concerned, everything was normal.

Now, he was only worried about George. But he knew Leon's temperament, and Leon could handle everything very well. He should be able to handle George's matter properly.

Maybe his restlessness was only related to George.

He was, after all, the Hunters' child.

"Nothing, I just wanted to give you a call. How have you been, Grandpa?"

"I'm still the same as before. How about you? You must have something to do with calling me so late."

"Well, I feel that Colton is watching me lately. I've asked my people to look into it, but I haven't found out anything."

"Colton is tricky. It's no surprise that he hides. Leon, you need to be careful. By the way, the books Alyssa gave me the other day are very good. I love them. I wasn't feeling well the other day, so I didn't let her stay for a while. You tell Alyssa to come to the old house often when she has time. I have a gift for her, too."

Leon smiled, "Grandpa, what gift do you prepare for Alyssa?"

"If I tell you, you'll tell Alyssa, won't you? I won't tell you."

Kevin was smart!

He would never tell.

Anyone could see that Leon was obedient to Alyssa.

He probably said it all once he was forced to by Alyssa.

Leon didn't hear a sound and couldn't help but ask, "Grandpa, are you really not going to tell me?"

"This is a gift I prepared for Alyssa, it's not for you. Why should I tell you?"

Leon smiled, "Grandpa, you be safe. I'll pass your words to Alyssa."

"Wait, Leon, there's actually one more thing I want to discuss with you. George is always your brother."

"I know, Grandpa. I'm dealing with this matter, too, but I still need time. You should not rush yet."

"Okay, then I'll listen to you."

This time, he really put down the phone.

Kevin looked at the phone and knew that ever since Leon and Alyssa got married, he was not the same as before. He became much gentler.

His gift to Alyssa would not be wrong.

Kevin was happy just thinking about it. He wished he could see Alyssa soon.

Sooner or later, the Hunters would be given to Leon.

That day would come sooner or later.

As for George, the Hunters' children wouldn't suffer.

He wasn't worried.

Hunter Group became much more stable because of Leon.

No matter what kind of problems they encountered.

Hunter Group could always solve the problem in the shortest time.

Leon became famous in the circle instantly.

Hunter Group never seemed to have any problems with him.

On this day, Alyssa was finally relieved to see that Hunter Group was in a peaceful state as reported by the media. When the phone rang, she was preparing to taste Wendy's flower cake. She saw that it was Kevin calling and hurriedly answered the phone.

"Alyssa, what are you doing now? Why don't you come and play with me!"

"I'm eating something delicious. Then I'll bring you some. Wait for me, I'm going to the old house now."
