

Chapter 1931– 1932 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1931 the news spreads

“It’s weird, what are they doing in the direction of Japan?” “Do you want to take advantage of it?” “Unify the Japanese martial arts in one fell swoop?” The Juggernaut and others looked at the distant figures, suddenly wondering.

Today’s Japanese martial arts, after Mark’s slaughter, can be said to have been greatly injured. At this time, it is the time when the Japanese martial arts power is the weakest.

Therefore, the Juggernaut had to doubt that these people wanted to take advantage of the emptiness and unify the Japanese martial arts in one fell swoop.

“However, are they not afraid of Yuedu?” “Today’s Japanese martial arts, although the high-end combat power is almost completely compromised.”

“But the strength of Yuedu is definitely not to be underestimated.”

“After all, this is the only one in the world. A strong man who might have touched the realm of the gods?” On the shore of the East Vietnam Sea, the sword saint looked at the vast distance with solemn and deep eyes.

I don’t know why, the Juggernaut always feels that something big seems to happen.

“The King of Fighters, what are the big moves in Japan recently?” The work of collecting intelligence from various countries is mainly in charge of the King of Fighters.

Therefore, the Juggernaut turned his head and asked in confusion.

The King of Fighters shook his head: “After the battle between Brian Chu and Xuezhao at the top of Japan, no significant events have occurred in Japan.”

“At most, it is just small events such as the sinking of a cruise ship and frequent earthquakes.”

“Huh? That’s weird. Why do these people go to Japan?” The Juggernaut listened, and his heart became more confused.

At this time, the news of the sinking of the Japanese cruise ship has undoubtedly broke out.

But it didn't attract many people's attention.

After all, before this, few people knew that Mark was on this cruise ship.

"Send someone to look at it."

"At least figure out the intentions of these people."

With a simple command, the Sword Saint and others also returned to the Martial God Temple.

However, they did not relax their vigilance, but sent intelligence personnel to monitor the movements of these people.

Later, they discovered that these people had stopped near the sea after they went to Japan.

Then, these people scattered all around, seeming to be looking for something on the sea.

Just like this, one night passed quickly.

The next day, just before dawn, a news came from the land of Japan.

Brian Chu, who had just swept through Japan and reached the eleventh place on the list, has fallen!

At first, the news spread only in a small area.

Moreover, when I first heard it, people in Japanese martial arts thought it was a rumor.

"Brian Chu is dead?" "It's nonsense, right?" "That's the master of the sky list, and Xue Zhao lost to him, so he can die so easily?" "Yes, stop making trouble."

"This Brian Chuyi The battle became famous, and the limelight is flourishing."

"Now the world's major martial arts organizations are digging him, and want to invite him to join."

"It's too late for the strong from various countries to flatter him?" "Who will kill him, who can kill him, and who Dare to kill him?" In Japan, many warriors scoffed at the news.

Similar posts appeared on the online warrior forum.

But without exception, no one believes it.

After all, Brian Chu is a strong man on the sky list. In the eyes of many people, such a strong man on the sky list is almost invincible.

Nowadays, a few thoughtless messages, who will believe?

Chapter 1932

“I’m going, why don’t you believe it?” “The Japanese First Division was dispatched, using the forces of the sea, land, and air forces.”

“Baptized by missiles, bombed by fighters.”

“A luxury cruise ship with a displacement of 100,000 tons was bombed. It’s sinking.”

“My nephew performed this mission himself.”

“Can there be fakes?” “What, you don’t believe it until you see the corpse?” “Don’t be teased, this level of bombing, Even if it is a body of steel, it must be blown into mud.”

“Then Brian Chu, no matter how powerful it is, it is a mortal body.”

“There must be no bones~” With time As time passed, related events began to ferment on the Internet.

In the end, more and more evidences pointed to this news as true.

In addition, after the First World War in Japan, Brian Chu had no news, as if he had disappeared out of thin air, no one had seen him again.

This is undoubtedly confirmed from the side, the authenticity of this news.

Finally, one day, the Japanese military publicly admitted that on May 18th, Gengzi year, Brian Chu was shot to death in the Pacific Ocean.

“This son is cold-blooded and bloodthirsty. During his entry into Japan, he was tyrannical and cruel, causing incalculable losses to the lives and property of our people.”

“His sins are too numerous to document!” “His disgusting is horrible!” “Today, our Japanese military will act for the heavens and kill them to deter the villains from all countries. Our Japan is majestic and not to be trampled on!” Then, it was like a hydrogen bomb exploded.

This news, in just a few hours, set off a monstrous wave in martial arts throughout the world.

Brian Chu, dead!

A rising star, a legendary young man who horrified the world, died just a few days after becoming famous.

That feeling is like a passionate symphony of destiny that stops abruptly when the performance reaches its climax.

The world martial arts was in an uproar.

“A generation of legendary teenagers, just...

Just die like this?

“After hearing this news, many people’s hearts were ups and downs, and it was difficult for a long time to calm down. A few days ago, when the name of Brian Chu horrified the world. Almost everyone believed that an era belonging to this youth was about to begin. After all, at only twenty, he was on the top of the list and broke the entire Japanese nation. Can imagine how dazzling his future will be? I originally thought that the battle of Japan would be the beginning of this legendary teenager. But who would have thought that that battle turned out to be his last battle. “Hey~” “Heaven is jealous of talents~” At this moment, countless people shook their heads and felt regretful in their hearts. Huaxia, Martial God Temple. In the main hall. The atmosphere of Brian Chu was heavy. The Sword Master sighed constantly, and the king of fighters, who had always talked a lot, fell into silence. The air here was exceptionally depressed. The fall of Brian Chu would undoubtedly be the biggest loss. It’s Huaxia Martial Arts. Although Brian Chu hasn’t joined the Martial Arts Hall yet. He is ultimately a Vietnamese native. Even if he does not join the Martial Arts Hall, he belongs to the strong man in the Vietnamese Martial Arts. But now, they are even Brian Chu. I have never seen what it looks like, but the other party has fallen. “This damn Japanese country is deceiving too much!

The King of Fighters roared angrily and smashed the long table in front of him with a punch. Although they were angry in their hearts. However, there was no alternative. After all, Mark did kill too much in Japan, and finally incurred revenge from Japan. This is also reasonable. I can’t blame anyone else! So, even if the Martial God Temple wanted to make a name for it, there was no reason at all.

If Brian Chu’s fall was the biggest loss, it was undoubtedly the Vietnamese martial arts.

Although, Brian Chu has not joined the Martial God Temple.

But after all, he is a Vietnamese.

Even if he didn’t join the Martial God Temple, he was still a strong man in the Vietnamese martial arts.

But now, they hadn’t even seen what Brian Chu looked like, but the other party had already fallen.

“This damn Japan is deceiving too much!” The King of Fighters roared angrily and smashed the long table in front of him with a punch.

Although, they were angry.

However, there is no alternative.

After all, Mark did kill too much in Japan, and finally incurred revenge from Japan, which is also a logical thing.

Can't blame others!

Therefore, even if the Martial God Temple wanted to make a fortune, there was no reason at all.
