

Chapter 1931: She's My Wife

Jiang Yao was speechless.

She looked at Big Ke. Did he come up with those words on his own?

Lu Xingzhi had asked Big Ke to book a plane ticket without telling her the time, right? He had texted her a few hours ago, but he did not say anything about that. He must have known that she would not agree to go home so early.

That guy had so many tricks up his sleeve; he acted first without worrying about the consequences.

"Director Jiang, do you want to call Young Master Lu?" Big Ke asked tentatively.

"Forget it; I'll go back to the hotel to pack my things."

Jiang Yao smiled helplessly and shook her head. Then, she got into the car and went back to the hotel with Big Ke and the others to pack their things. If she disagreed, she did not know what Lu Xingzhi would ask Big Ke to do.

Before Jiang Yao left the hotel, she called Liang Yueze to inform him of her return to the country. After Mrs. Luo found out, she asked the Luo family's driver to send Jiang Yao and her team to the airport.

It was a direct flight; they finally reached their airport in seven hours.

The slow-paced Jiang Yao was like a strange creature in the crowd of rushing passers-by. Big Ke helped her carry her luggage while she lowered her head and took out her phone to text Wen Xuehui to let her know she was safe.

"Director Jiang, Young Master Lu is at the exit."

Big Ke pointed at the figure at the exit and teased in a low voice, "He's staring at you."

After Big Ke finished speaking, Lu Xingzhi, who was waiting outside, shouted in Jiang Yao's direction from afar, "Yaoyao."

He waved at her; perhaps he was afraid she would not see him.

Jiang Yao looked up when she heard him. Lu Xingzhi was tall, and he stood up straight at the exit.

However, he attracted many people's attention due to his military uniform.

At that moment, he was one of the ordinary folks.

Jiang Yao's eyes sparkled, and she could not hide her smile.

She put the phone into her pocket, quickened her pace, and walked toward Lu Xingzhi.

"Slow down, watch where you're going."

Lu Xingzhi's heart almost jumped out of his throat when he saw Jiang Yao slowly running toward him. The airport was crowded, and he was afraid someone would bump into her.

‘Young Master Lu, this is Director Jiang’s luggage. I’ll leave it with you.’ Big Ke and Ah Lu followed closely behind, smiling as they handed the luggage to Lu Xingzhi. Jiang Yao returned to Lu Xingzhi’s side.

Lu Xingzhi nodded as he reached out to take Jiang Yao’s luggage. She did not have much stuff because she did not have the time to go anywhere.

Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao’s luggage in one hand and her hand in the other.

A child on the side kept staring at Lu Xingzhi. When Lu Xingzhi went to hold Jiang Yao’s hand, he turned to his mother and said, “Mom, look at that man holding that woman’s hand. Is she his girlfriend? Are they in a relationship?”

Lu Xingzhi touched the tip of his nose and thought, ‘Do all overseas children know so much?’

However, he was wrong.

Lu Xingzhi turned to the child and said, “She is my wife.. Do you understand?”

Chapter 1932: Give Me A Hug

Lu Xingzhi only realized how awkward it was when he saw the child’s mother smile awkwardly. He was arguing with a child.

“Let’s go!”

Jiang Yao did not know whether to laugh or cry as she pulled her husband away.

As soon as they left the airport and arrived at the parking lot, she did not need Lu Xingzhi to say anything before finding Lu Xingzhi’s car. The army’s green jeep was the most eye-catching in the parking lot, just like Lu Xingzhi.

“It’s almost Independence Day. The army has been busy recently. You won’t be going home on that day, right?” Lu Xingzhi opened the car door while talking to Jiang Yao. “In addition to the cultural troupe’s performance, there will also be activities for family members. We will invite some family members to watch our training. There will also be a skill and physical fitness competition. I don’t have time to go home.”

“Then I won’t go home,” Jiang Yao replied as she got into the car and fastened her seatbelt. “We often go home recently. We can go back whenever we have time. It doesn’t have to be during that day.”

Lu Xingzhi smiled. He seemed to be in a good mood.

After Jiang Yao sat down, he turned his head and watched Jiang Yao fasten her seatbelt. After she fastened her seatbelt, he was not in a hurry to start the car. Instead, he maintained his original posture and stared at Jiang Yao.

His gaze was very murderous, like a wolf in the wilderness. She raised her head and met his eyes.

Jiang Yao was stunned. Before she could react, he had already leaned over and lowered his head to kiss her.

He kissed her a little urgently. He bit her lower lip and sucked on it a few times before the tip of his tongue probed her teeth. Then, he kissed her even more passionately.

It was as if a traveler lost in the desert for several days had suddenly found a spring. The kiss gradually slowed.

Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao's face and tried to use that kiss to vent his feelings for her.

That kind of heart-wrenching longing could not be described with a word.

Lu Xingzhi sighed. "I wish I could keep you here and not let you go anywhere." As he looked at his little wife, whose cheeks flushed red, he opened his hands toward Jiang Yao. "Come, give me a hug."

Jiang Yao was very obedient. She unbuckled her seatbelt and leaned into his embrace. Needless to say, her movements seemed a little exciting.

Even though Jiang Yao had gained a lot of weight, her figure was still slim. Lu Xingzhi still felt that she was too thin. He was afraid that he would accidentally break Jiang Yao's waist if he used too much strength.

"Let's go home."

After kissing and hugging her, Lu Xingzhi was satisfied and put the safety belt back on for Jiang Yao. Then, he whistled and started the car back to the army base.

Lu Xingzhi drove while looking at the woman by his side from time to time. He liked the feeling of having Jiang Yao by his side, even if she was too lazy to say a word.

"By the way, Luo Ruoran's child is Big Brother's, right?" Lu Xingzhi felt that Jiang Yao must have known about that.

"Yes," Jiang Yao said.

Then, she noticed that the man beside her had gone silent again. Only then did she look at Lu Xingzhi. Finally, she saw him gnashing his teeth..

Chapter 1933: Let's Not Hurry

"Good." Lu Xingzhi could not find any other words to describe his current mood. "When did you find out?"

"I knew from the beginning. Ruoran was already pregnant when she came to look for me in Jin City. If it wasn't Big Brother's, whose could it be? At that time, they had just gotten divorced. She must have gotten pregnant before the divorce. But Ruoran did not know about it. She only found out after she came to look for me in Jin City and waited for me to tell her."

After Jiang Yao said that, she shrugged. "Don't blame me for not telling you. If I had told you, you would definitely tell Big Brother. Ruoran begged me to help her hide it. I did not know what happened between Big Brother and her, so I didn't dare tell him."

Lu Xingzhi did not blame Jiang Yao. He just felt that she was competent. She hid the matter so well that he did not notice anything at all.

It was no wonder that Jiang Yao always asked him to encourage Liang Yueze to look for Luo Ruoran. She even goaded him so that Liang Yueze would not let her out of the country.

Finally, Liang Yueze chose to watch Luo Ruoran leave, but he did not do anything.

"I'm not blaming you. I'm just asking." Lu Xingzhi was afraid that Jiang Yao would overthink it, so he quickly explained. People said that pregnant women were sensitive and sentimental. It was easy to imagine things with just one sentence.

Jiang Yao nodded. "When Zhou Weiqi gets married, I should change how I address Ruoran as Sister-in-law, right?"

"Probably."

Lu Xingzhi sneered at the thought of Liang Yueze showing off his son. Have you seen Big Brother's son? Does he look like Big Brother?"

"The baby is still too young, and I've never seen pictures of Big Brother when he was young. Even so, I still think that he looks like him." Jiang Yao had delivered many children. However, it was rare to see a baby so fair.

Luo Ruoran must have had a lot of nutritious food when she was pregnant, so the baby's hair was jet-black and beautiful, and his eyes were like beautiful black gems.

"I must eat more grapes so children's eyes will be as beautiful as grapes." Jiang

Yao touched her belly and said, "I feel curious when I see Sister Ruoran's baby. I also want to see if our child looks like you or me."

"Maybe don't have the baby that early." Lu Xingzhi was afraid. He had been frightened when he heard about Luo Ruoran's accident, so he did not want Jiang Yao to have early labor. He just wanted to let nature take its course. The baby should come when Jiang Yao's pregnancy reached the due date. Jiang Yao would suffer less, and the child would be healthy.

Time flew by as they talked. It was as if they had shortened the journey home. Before long, they had reached the army base entrance.

Jiang Yao jumped down from the jeep and even smiled at Lu Xingzhi. When she saw Lu Xingzhi frown, she realized that she was pregnant.

She always forgot that she was a pregnant woman.

Lu Xingzhi was about to say something nice to Jiang Yao, but he suddenly heard someone calling him Uncle Lu, so he turned around to take a look.

"It's those kids," Jiang Yao exclaimed. It was Saturday. Even though those kids did not have classes, it was still strange for them to be at the army base..

Chapter 1934: I Don't Want To Look For Them

Jiang Yao thought that the children had unique personalities and were very sensible.

Those children were hiding behind the bushes, so Lu Xingzhi did not see them when he was driving.

They must have been there for a while; they were sweating under the sun. They must have found out that Lu Xingzhi was not in the army base, so they waited for him in the shade.

The children must have felt touched when they saw Jiang Yao. They grinned at her and called out in unison, "Auntie Lu."

Jiang Yao had met them at the market the last time and exchanged a few words with them. She had also bought ice cream for them, so they thought she was a good person. She was also a beautiful and gentle person.

"What's the matter?"

Lu Xingzhi looked at the little boy who was leading the group. "Xiao Ding?"

Lu Xingzhi remembered the nickname from the welfare institute's teacher. The boy was called Xiao Ding.

"Uncle Lu, is it true that you said you could help us find our family? The welfare institute's director said that we have to find out family members before we can join the army when we grow up. We have to find our family. Except for Yanzi."

'You want to join the army when you grow up?

Lu Xingzhi's tone was a little doubtful. "Have you guys thought about it?"

'Yes!'

Xiao Ding nodded, and the other children did the same.

All the children had similar personalities. Lu Xingzhi thought they were well-suited to join the army, so he tried his best to nudge them. It was good that the children sought him out about it.

"Then, do you have your family's information? Do you know their names? Do you still remember your full name? Do you remember any notable features near your home?" After Jiang Yao asked that, she looked at the child named Yanzi. That child was the youngest in the group and the shyest. She stood quietly beside or behind her friends most of the time, and her eyes looked very innocent.

'What about you? You don't want to look for your family?' Jiang Yao asked.

"No, Auntie Lu, I'm not looking for them."

Yanzi shook her head and then lowered her head.

'Yanzi was the last one to join us. She's bald like us, so we treated her like a brother. We've only learned recently that she's a sister.'" Xiao Ding scratched his head in embarrassment. They had played together for so long, eating and sleeping together, but they did not know Yanzi was a girl.

"Auntie Lu, Yanzi's parents left her, so she didn't want to find them," another boy said.

'My slippers were broken. My parents said they would take me to buy shoes, but I overheard them saying they didn't have enough money to support me. My younger brother needed milk, clothes, and toys, so they just threw me away. They left me at a square and told me that they were going to pick out shoes for me. They told me to wait for them there. I stayed for an entire night, but they didn't come and get me. I knew they didn't want me, so I left by myself..”

Chapter 1935: I Will Stay With Her

When Yanzi said that, her expression had a hint of coldness that a child her age should not have. It was as if being abandoned by her parents was no longer something that could make her sad.

“Auntie Lu, I heard that you are a doctor.” When I grow up, I want to study medicine like you. I will also become a doctor. My brothers will join the army, and I will become a doctor. They will protect the country, and I will protect them!” Yanzi’s expression only changed slightly when she talked about her friends; it was her hope for the future.

“I’m not going back either. I’ll stay at the welfare institute to accompany Yanzi,” one of the boys said. “Yanzi will study medicine, and I’ll study medicine with her. When we grow up, we’ll be doctors. Yanzi and I will protect my brothers together!”

“You have ambition and loyalty.” Jiang Yao patted the boy’s shoulder. “Don’t you miss your home? Don’t you want to find your family?”

“No, not at all. My dad married my stepmother, and she gave birth to a son. I was dispensable in that home, so I ran away.” The boy shook his head.

“Everyone will go back to their family. I have to stay and take care of Yanzi. Otherwise, Yanzi will be alone.”

Lu Xingzhi nodded and said, “Wait here. I’ll get someone to take you to the police station to register your cases.”

“I’ll collect blood samples for you in two days,” Jiang Yao said. “Shengqi Hospital has already collected blood samples from many people. Recently, there have been nationwide samples sent to them too.”

“Thank you, Auntie Lu and Uncle Lu. It’s hot here. You guys should go in now. Don’t mind us. We’ll wait here.” Xiao Ding noticed the sweat on Jiang Yao’s forehead.

Jiang Yao did not know what to say. Most children at that age were like babies in their parents’ arms. However, many of them still wandered outside.

It was just like Ding Xiaomei’s younger brother. There was still no news about him. She did not know where Ding Xiaomei’s younger brother was. After Ding Xiaomei escaped with her son, she did not dare go home because of that issue.

When she returned home, Jiang Yao took off her shoes as if she had been liberated and returned to her room. Her entire body sank into the soft bed. It was so comfortable.

“No matter how high-end the hotel is, it will never be better than home.”

Jiang Yao lay on the bed and waved at Lu Xingzhi. “Come here and give me another hug. I was not comfortable in the car just now.”

Once Jiang Yao started acting coquettishly, no one could resist her. Her soft and delicate smile words had a magical power that made people want to fulfill her wishes involuntarily.

Lu Xingzhi walked toward her and placed his hands beside Jiang Yao's ears. He looked down at her and smiled. He tapped her forehead when he saw her bright smile. "I thought you were enjoying yourself outside."

Jiang Yao sat up and hooked her arms around Lu Xingzhi's neck. She leaned forward and kissed him passionately, but he pushed her back.

"Don't touch me. Lie down and rest." Lu Xingzhi crudely pulled the blanket over Jiang Yao's chest..

Chapter 1936: Those Who Didn't Come

Jiang Yao was pregnant, so her features had softened. Lu Xingzhi thought that Jiang Yao's attractiveness did not decline because of her pregnancy.

On the contrary, because she had been pregnant for some time, Jiang Yao's return had tempted Lu Xingzhi, provoking his tolerance.

Before he married Jiang Yao, Lu Xingzhi had not thought about the relationship between a man and a woman. However, he could not stop thinking about it after he married her.

"You're not even going to give me a kiss? Stingy." Jiang Yao avoided Lu Xingzhi's hand that had come to ravage her head. Then, she slid off the bed like a loach. She turned back to look at Lu Xingzhi's empty hand, lifted the hem of her skirt, and giggled as she entered the bathroom to wash her face.

Lu Xingzhi followed her to the bathroom door. He leaned against the door with an indifferent expression. When he saw Jiang Yao turn around to smile at him, his lips curled upward slightly. "You can be arrogant for a year. After that, just wait and see."

Then, he put his hands in his pockets and straightened his body. "After you're done washing, go back to bed and rest. You must be tired after sitting on the plane for so long. I need to get back to work. I'll be back to cook dinner for you in about an hour.

"Go on then."

Jiang Yao waved her hand and asked Lu Xingzhi to go to work.

Lu Xingzhi walked out, but after a few seconds, he returned and said, "If someone comes to talk to you about something, blame it all on me."

Before Jiang Yao could ask Lu Xingzhi more questions, he had already walked out the door.

"Why don't you tell me the whole story? You're so annoying!" Jiang Yao muttered at Lu Xingzhi's back as he walked away. One second ago, she said that he was annoying, but she was mesmerized by his back the next second. He walked like a gust of wind; objects swayed wherever he passed.

The setting sun shone on their courtyard. From Jiang Yao's perspective, Lu Xingzhi looked as handsome as if he was stepping into the afterglow of the setting sun as he left the yard.

Lu Xingzhi called Zhou Junmin when he returned to his office. He asked Zhou Junmin to bring the group of children at the door to the police station to register the children's cases.

Zhou Junmin left the army base after receiving the order. Just as Lu Xingzhi was about to pack his things, the people from the next office walked into his office. When they came in, they were still mumbling about something.

"Why can't those people be that enthusiastic during training?"

"They are so anxious about Independence Day."

That person just happened to walk in front of Lu Xingzhi. Then, he pretended to turn his head to look at Zhou Junmin, who had just left, and said, "You sent Platoon Leader Zhou to help those little children at the entrance?"

"Yes.

It was not a secret that Lu Xingzhi had helped those children in the army. Lu Xingzhi had even received praise for his efforts. Many people said that those from Jindo City were very efficient. However, those words did not sound too good.

After Lu Xingzhi had arranged all the documents on the table, he looked at the person who had entered his office. The person was about ten years older than Lu Xingzhi and was in the same position as Lu Xingzhi. However, he was the leader of another regiment.

"By the way, are your family members coming on Independence Day?" the person asked.

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. "No.."

Chapter 1937: The Younger Soldiers Will Do Well

"That's right. As leaders, we shouldn't compete with the younger soldiers since we have a limited guest quota anyway. Some haven't returned home for a few years, unlike the special forces team. Did your team get a break after the selection process? It's also something I'd like to discuss with you. Can your team give some quota to my regiment for the Independence Day event?"

"The higher-ups usually allocate the quotas for each regiment, and most will always wish for more. The soldiers are from all over the country, and some haven't seen their family members in a long time. I've given my quota to my regiment as well, and we don't have any extra the other regiments." Lu Xingzhi's rejection was very straightforward. He did not say anything, and he did not use too many nice words to explain.

The people in the army said that Lu Xingzhi was aloof and very difficult to get along with. That man pretended as if he had never heard of that. He thought that Lu Xingzhi would behave better since he was new at that army base, so he pretended to ask that.

see."

That person looked at Lu Xingzhi's expression for a few seconds, changed the topic, and said, "Are you participating in any of the competitions?"

Lu Xingzhi lowered his head and took out a document. He looked at it while talking to that man. It seemed casual, but it was also to let people know that he was busy.

He paused for a few seconds. After he finished reading the first page of the document, he acted as if he remembered that there was someone else in the office. He raised his head and said, "All of them."

His actions showed that he was too lazy to continue talking to the person in front of him.

"The younger soldiers will do well too. It looks like you're busy; I won't disturb you. I look forward to seeing your results in the competitions. I shall take my leave now."

Then, Lu Xingzhi raised his head from the documents. He thought for a moment and snorted. That man was probably there to find out which competition he would participate in.

It was rather obvious—they wanted to see how Lu Xingzhi would be defeated.

Lu Xingzhi sorted the urgent documents in his office and called for someone to send them to him. He was busy for more than an hour. When he left the office, it was already dark outside. Zhou Junmin had yet to return to the army base.

Lu Xingzhi returned home a little late. When he reached home, he smelled the aroma of food.

When he entered the house, Jiang Yao was holding her phone and making a phone call. She was chatting with someone while munching on the apple in her hand. She was leaning against the sofa unsteadily, her bare feet stepping on the ground, swaying gently from time to time.

She was so happy on the phone that she did not notice Lu Xingzhi, who had entered the room. It was not until Lu Xingzhi walked up to her and touched her head that she looked at Lu Xingzhi in surprise. She diverted some of her attention to Lu Xingzhi.

"You're back? I've already cooked the rice." Jiang Yao poked her tongue in the direction of the kitchen. "But you don't want me to use cold water, so I didn't wash the vegetables."

"Leave that to me. In the future, you just need to cook the rice.." Lu Xingzhi nodded and asked, "Who are you talking to?"

Chapter 1938: Spokesperson

"It's Xiaoxiao." Jiang Yao chuckled. Then, she said to Lu Xiaoxiao on the phone, "You can talk to your brother."

Lu Xiaoxiao was in a good mood, so she was happy to talk to anyone.

Lu Xiaoxiao excitedly recounted what she had told Jiang Yao to Lu Xingzhi. "Brother, I'm going to Luo City in a few days! I've been cast to film in an advertisement. I'm going there to shoot with a very popular actress. The producer is in Nanjiang City, but we're filming on a mountain in Luo City."

Lu Xiaoxiao was happy that she could shoot an advertisement with a famous celebrity. She did not even mind the supporting role.

She was also excited because she could visit the city after the shooting. She could also visit Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao.

“Oh.”

Lu Xingzhi did not understand the fuss about celebrities, so he did not share her excitement. However, he would never tell Lu Xiaoxiao not to visit them.

He always had a lot to say in front of Jiang Yao. However, he was still almost always silent in front of everyone else, even his family members.

Lu Xiaoxiao had long gotten used to Lu Xingzhi’s behavior, so after a few words, she took the initiative to hang up the phone.

“When Xiaoxiao is here, you don’t have to go out with her. Just tell Big Ke and Ah Lu to take her around. Don’t go with her. It is still very hot here, unlike in the north. You are pregnant, so you need to take care of yourself.”

Lu Xingzhi was worried that Jiang Yao would go around with Lu Xiaoxiao, so he wanted to give her an early warning.

“Don’t worry; I know that even if you don’t tell me.”

Jiang Yao had been walking barefooted around the house, so she hurriedly retracted her legs. Then, she looked at Lu Xingzhi and met his smiling gaze.

“Don’t do it again.”

“Okay.” She giggled.

Jiang Yao nodded, got up, and knelt on the sofa. She turned to face Lu Xingzhi behind the couch and said,

“That silly girl, Lu Xiaoxiao, still doesn’t know that the company she mentioned is ours. Before Xiaoxiao called me, Sister told me that our jewelry company needed a lot of investment and that advertising fees are very important. We need to hire a popular star to endorse us and use their popularity and influence to make our brand famous. We are collaborating with an advertising company. She also said I should keep an eye on it and Xiaoxiao’s performance ability.”

“The jewelry company is new, so now is not the time to hand the endorsement to Xiaoxiao. Just follow Sister’s plan. If Xiaoxiao’s performance is good and the company develops, Xiaoxiao can take the lead and become the company’s second spokesperson. Xiaoxiao is still young anyway, so it’s good for her to gain more experience.”

Lu Xingzhi agreed with Lu Yuqing. Jiang Yao clicked her tongue and said, “No wonder Chen Xuyao said you can be a businessman if you’re not a soldier.”

Lu Xingzhi saw through things at a glance. On the other hand, if Lu Yuqing had not told her those things, she would not have asked Lu Xiaoxiao to be the spokesperson anyway..

Chapter 1939: Fear Of Losing

Lu Xingzhi had never taken those compliments to heart. He patted Jiang Yao's head, walked to the door, and brought Jiang Yao's slippers to her feet. He patted her head again and said, "Put on your shoes when you get down."

Then, he turned around and went to the kitchen to cook.

When Lu Xingzhi had finished cooking, she realized that he had cooked many dishes. He had cooked four dishes for the two of them; he even cooked some new cuisines for her. He must have learned to cook for her.

The army base was too far from their home. Mrs. Lu had to work, and Mrs. Jiang had to care for her daughter-in-law. So, the burden of taking care of Jiang Yao while she was pregnant fell on Lu Xingzhi's shoulders.

He had done much better than Jiang Yao had expected.

Jiang Yao had fantasized about Lu Xingzhi being a father, but it was not what she had imagined. He was more meticulous than she had imagined.

She remembered his suicide note from their previous life—he did not hide his feelings for her, nor did he conceal his desire to have a child. At that time, Jiang Yao thought that Lu Xingzhi would definitely be a loving father.

It seemed like she was right.

When Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi were about to rest, Zhou Junmin went to their house. As they were not talking about anything private, Jiang Yao listened from the side.

"The situation of those children has been reported. Can Mrs. Lu go to the welfare institute tomorrow to collect their blood samples? Or do you want them to go to Shengqi Hospital in Nanjiang City?" Zhou Junmin asked.

"I can go there tomorrow. It's no trouble." Jiang Yao's medical system could complete such a small task. She only needed to send the results to the hospital and let them compare them.

"Okay, then I'll take Mrs. Lu to the welfare institute tomorrow morning." Zhou

Junmin nodded. No matter what others thought, Zhou Junmin thought Jiang Yao was a doctor with extraordinary medical skills. His impression of her further improved when he learned that she had graduated early.

"When I came back, it was already dark. I heard a few people talking about you, Colonel. They were sitting in the corner talking and didn't notice me. I only heard a few comments. They are discussing how to deal with you in the competition. They wanted to send the best team with the best skills to compete with you, Colonel."

“I know.”

Lu Xingzhi was not surprised at all. He had guessed the purpose of that person when he heard that person’s question in the office.

“They want to take turns competing with you?” Jiang Yao was suddenly energized. “Shameful! So hateful! You should report them. They only applied for a few competitions and then chose the most outstanding person to compete with Xingzhi. They don’t want him to win the competition!”

“Are you afraid that Colonel Lu will lose?” Zhou Junmin burst into laughter when he saw Jiang Yao’s indignant look. He was not afraid that Lu Xingzhi would lose, but he looked down on people who looked down on Colonel Lu’s abilities.

Competition? It was useless for Lu Xingzhi. He was not Tianjin City Army and Jindo City Army’s champion for consecutive years for nothing..

Chapter 1940: I Will Win

“I’m not afraid of him losing.” Jiang Yao thought for a moment and added, “It doesn’t matter even if he loses. After all, there are so many people participating. Some are only participating in one or two events, but they have the advantage in terms of physical strength. Isn’t that how they plan to stop Xing Xing from losing?”

“Mrs. Lu is indeed afraid that Colonel Lu will lose.”

Zhou Junmin laughed as if he had heard a funny joke. “He won’t lose, Mrs. Lu. He even breaks his own record every year.”

Jiang Yao did not know much about the happenings in Lu Xingzhi’s army. She did not know much about records or competitions.

Before she was reborn, she was not in the mood to care about him. She had not encountered such a thing after she was reborn.

“Go back and rest. Come back tomorrow morning after breakfast to pick her up.” Lu Xingzhi chased Zhou Junmin out of the house. He walked Zhou Junmin to the door. After saying a few more words to Zhou Junmin at the door, he went back into the house.

In just a few minutes, Jiang Yao had already returned to the bedroom and was lying on the bed as if she was in deep thoughts about something.

When she saw Lu Xingzhi, she turned around and removed the blanket again. She lifted it and gestured at Lu Xingzhi while moving closer to him.

Lu Xingzhi hugged Jiang Yao and placed his chin on her head. He smiled and asked, “If I lose, will you be disappointed?”

Jiang Yao shook her head without thinking. “You said that you don’t want to be a hero. You only want to be my husband, and I don’t mind losing.” “Do you have a rule against a hero being invincible?”

Lu Xingzhi lowered his voice, but he sounded sexy.

“Victory and defeat are common occurrences in war, so there is no such thing.”

Jiang Yao shook her head. “It’s the same with my studies. Even if I don’t come in first, I will never feel sad or angry.”

“I will win.”

Whether Jiang Yao was speaking the truth or trying to comfort him, Lu Xingzhi knew that she wanted him to win.

Finally, the pregnant woman fell asleep. After a while, Lu Xingzhi did not get any replies from Jiang Yao. He looked down and noticed that she was sleeping soundly in his arms.

Lu Xingzhi enjoyed having Jiang Yao in his arms. She slept peacefully and was not worried at all. One of her hands habitually tugged at the hem of his pajamas. It showed that she wanted him near.

Lu Xingzhi did not know if he imagined things. When he lowered his head to look at Jiang Yao, his gaze paused on her chest for a few seconds before he moved his gaze away with difficulty. He thought her chest was a little bigger.

He wanted to touch them, but he was afraid it would affect Jiang Yao’s sleep. He was even more worried that he would not be able to control his urges.

His wife had been abroad, so he could not hug her then. He could not sleep while she was away.

His wife felt soft in his arms. Lu Xingzhi found it even more difficult to sleep. He was restless, but he did not dare to do anything.

Regardless of whether Lu Xingzhi had a good night’s sleep, Jiang Yao woke up naturally the next day. After breakfast, she followed Zhou Junmin to the welfare institute..
