

Chapter 1933– 1934 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1933: Panic Sato

Not only the King of Fighters and others, but also Ye Qingtian, the God of War, felt sorry in his heart.

Although, he had never met this young man named Brian Chu.

However, his fall caused Ye Qingtian's heart to sting like a needle.

After all, for Huaxia Martial Arts, the fall of Brian Chu was undoubtedly a great loss.

“The billowing Yangtze River flows eastward, and the waves wash away the heroes.”

“The success or failure turned around.”

“The green hills are still there, and the setting sun is red for a few times.”

..... “White-haired fisherman on the river, I used to watch the autumn moon and spring breeze. ” “A pot of dirty wine is happy to meet each other.”

“How many things from ancient to modern times are in the process of laughing~”

On the top of Yanshan Mountain, there is a strong wind.

One table, one case, one person, one wine, are displayed here.

Ye Qingtian sat on the white clothes, but sat on the ground, sighed at the sky, and drank his sorrows.

“Hey~” “It seems that the fall of Brian Chu this time really saddened the God of War.”

Not far away, looking at the white-clothed man who was drinking to dissipate his sorrows, the Sword Saint and others, he sighed long. .

However, after so many years, they have seen many similar things.

Time will erase everything eventually.

It didn't take long for the name Brian Chu to dissipate in the long river of years like the snow on the top of the mountain.

At that time, their Vietnam will also have new geniuses appearing.

Some died, some were born, and the rest continued to live.

This is how the wheel of history keeps turning.

Yes, for the people like Sword Saint, no matter how dazzling Mark is, it is only a cluster of dazzling waves among the billions of Vietnamese people.

If this cluster is gone, there will be another cluster.

At most, they sighed for Mark's fall.

However, to other people, Mark is all they have.

—————On the second day when the Japanese military admitted that they had killed Brian Chu, Chu Zhenghong, who was furious, led his thirteen masters, Directly into Japan.

In just one night, more than thousands of people at a certain Japanese military base were slaughtered.

Moreover, Chu Zhenghong also let out a word, he wants to reunite with Japan.

Let everyone be buried with Brian Chu!

This incident caused a sensation in all walks of life in Japan.

Sato, who learned of this, rolled off the bed in shock.

"You...what did you say?" "There are a large number of martial arts powerhouses entering Japan, wanting to avenge Brian Chu?" It was early in the morning, and Sato was still asleep, so he was awakened by his subordinates.

His old face was pale, and his eyes were full of horror to ask his men forward.

"Yes, Commander."

"Just last night, at a military base in Japan, more than a thousand people were slaughtered by it."

"It is estimated that soon, it will..."

He will kill us here~” This man is also a little panicked tomorrow, and his words are shaking. Even he is like this, let alone as the commander of the attack on Brian Chu, Sato? “More than a thousand people. , All... all dead?”

“A base, was...was flattened?”

“Sato has already urinated, and the whole person is almost frightened. Although he is not a man in martial arts, he knows a lot about martial arts experts. He knows very well that even if he holds a large army of hundreds of thousands, he is in close combat. Grandmaster kills him like a dog. Sato, panicked, immediately picked up the phone and called Chu Zhengliang. “Chu Zhengliang, you bastard, you lie to me?”

“Before the action, how did you tell me?”

“You said that Brian Chu was lonely and widowed. After killing him, there must be no strong person to avenge him.”

“

Chapter 1934 the opportunity is finally here

“But now?” “A dozen or so masters have entered Japan.”

“They want to wash Japan, let us all be buried with Brian Chu!” “Is this the lonely person you said?” “This What is it that you said that no one will give him revenge?” “You bastard, bastard, you cheated me~” “Chu Zhengliang, let me tell you, if Sato dies this time, I will become a ghost, and neither will I I’ll let you go~” In the room, Sato picked up the phone and cursed Chu Zhengliang with red eyes.

Before that, Sato had listened to Chu Zhengliang’s words, thinking that Mark was a lonely man, and there was no terrible background or influence behind him.

Therefore, even if it is killed, there will be no follow-up trouble.

However, who would have thought that on the second day after they announced that they had killed Mark, there were so many powerful men who killed him directly at the door of their house and wanted to avenge Brian Chu.

Fear, fear, anger, various emotions swept through Sato’s heart.

If he had known that Brian Chu was a hornet’s nest, he would have killed him in the first place, and he would definitely not deal with Brian Chu with Chu Zhengliang.

“What are you talking about?” “A dozen grandmasters killed Japan and want to give him revenge?” On the other end of the phone, Chu Zhengliang was shocked when he heard it, only surprised.

Before rushing to Japan, Chu Zhengliang had already investigated Mark.

He can be sure that there are no other masters around Mark to protect him, and even those who are effectively loyal to him are just some innocent gangsters.

It stands to reason that when Brian Chu dies, the forces he manages in Noifork will also fall apart.

How could it be possible that there are so many powerful people suddenly appearing for him?

“Is it the eldest brother?” Reminiscing about the movements of the Chu family these few days, Chu Zhengliang suddenly gave initiation.

“Commander Sato, don’t get excited.”

“I will solve this matter.”

“Don’t worry, I said that I will guarantee your safety, so I won’t break my promise.”

After Chu Zhengliang gave Sato a relief pill, He immediately hung up and returned to the family to verify his guess.

The fact is just as Chu Zhengliang expected.

Those strong men who have entered Japan now are the masters of the Chu family.

After learning about this, Chu Zhengliang suddenly smiled.

“Big brother, big brother, you are a wise one, but after all, you are confused about this matter.”

“These years, I have been worried that I can’t get your handle, and I can’t find an excuse to get you off the position of the head of the house. “Unexpectedly, you delivered it to me now.”

“Haha~” “I, Chu Zhengliang, have waited for so many years, and now the opportunity has finally come.”

In the Chu family, Chu Zhengliang smiled triumphantly.

Amidst the laughter, there was joy and wanton.

The Chu family is an ancient family that has been passed down for a long time, and families like these have strict family rules.

Even the head of the family must not act in violation of the rules.

One of them is that the Patriarch of the Chu family strictly prohibits abusing of power and uses the power of the family on a large scale to suppress dissidents on a large scale without consultation with the top of the family.

And now, Chu Zhenghong, undoubtedly seriously violated this family rule!

“A dozen powerful masters, big brother, big brother, you have almost moved out the martial arts power of the entire family.”

“Just to avenge an abandoned son, but put the family and the father and son at risk?”
“This time, how do you tell the family?” Chu Zhengliang sneered.
