

Chapter 1957– 1958 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1957 Chu Qitian Trembling

“By the way, Mark.”

“I hope you have time to talk frankly with your father.”

“After all, it’s father and son. The relationship is always so stiff and it’s not good.”

“If in the future, in the Chu family, If anyone else can help you, it must be your father.”

“As for when you and your mother were driven out of the house, the reason why your father ignored him, I think it is because of his difficulties.”

“Your father treats you. The relationship between mother and son is deep, besides, Zhenghong is not a heartless and unrighteous person.”

“There must be some misunderstanding between you.”

After a brief silence, the old lady talked with Mark suddenly. Up his father.

However, Mark turned his head and turned his back to the old lady Jundao: “Too grandma, I don’t want to talk about him.”

“I’m tired, I want to rest alone.”

The old lady didn’t say anything when he saw this. .

He just shook his head, sighed, and then turned and left.

After a while, Mark continued to heal his injuries in the Chu family’s old house.

The old lady meticulously changed the medicinal soup for Mark every day, and Mark was also recuperating in this medicinal bath, and his physical injuries quickly recovered.

In a blink of an eye, January has passed.

This month, Chu Zhengliang and his son were still frantically looking for Mark’s trace.

However, there is still nothing.

The salvage team in the Japanese waters, let alone salvaging Mark's body, didn't get the scum.

The more so, the more intense the anxiety in Chu Zhengcon's heart.

"Tian'er, send more people to secretly search for the whereabouts of this abandoned child on a global scale."

"I am now more suspicious that he is still alive."

In the room, Chu Zhengliang said with gloomy eyebrows and coldly.

Chu Qitian was shocked and raised his head and said, "Father, shouldn't it?" "Didn't you say that you killed him with your own hands?" "My Chu family's Yundao Tianjue is the best attacker."

And you did it yourself."

"That bastard, how could it possibly survive?" "The reason why the corpse was not found, I think it was eaten by a fish, right?" Chu Qitian guessed.

However, Chu Zhengliang shook his head: "Before this, I thought the same as you."

"However, I just got news from Japan that Brian Chu has cultivated, the dragon god body."

what?

When Chu Qitian heard the sound, he was immediately startled, his face paled.

"Dragon body?" "This... how is this possible?" "Isn't the dragon body only the Chumen masters who can cultivate?" "The abandoned son of the Chu family, the lowly seed born to the villagers, how could he cultivate dragons? Divine body?" "This is absolutely impossible!" Chu Qitian was truly shocked.

There was a tremor in the heart and more jealousy.

You know, martial arts training is extremely rare in the martial arts world, and every appearance of martial arts training is bound to cause an uproar in the martial arts world, causing competition from many forces.

This "Dragon Body" is the most powerful martial arts known in the martial arts world today.

Back then, the powerful Chumen came out of their nests, only to win this secret technique in the battle of martial forces from all over the world.

For so many years, this powerful technique of refining the body has been under the control of the master of Chumen.

The rest are not qualified to contact and practice.

Even the Patriarch of the Chu family could not practice.

Back then, in order to obtain this “Dragon Body”, Chu Qitian cheeky, let his grandfather be a lobbyist, and finally worshipped under the banner of the Chumen master Tang Yun and became the apprentice of the Chumen master.

Delusion relied on this relationship and learned this body-building technique from the master Tang Yunshou.

how can that be?

“Isn’t the dragon god body only the master of the Chu Sect who can cultivate?”

“The abandoned son of the Chu family, the bastard born to the villagers, how could he cultivate the dragon god body?”

“This is absolutely impossible!”

Chu Qitian was really shocked. There was a tremor in his heart, and he was even more jealous. You must know that martial arts training is extremely rare in the martial arts world, and every appearance of martial arts training is bound to cause an uproar in the martial arts world. It has caused competition from many forces. This “Dragon God Body” is the most powerful martial arts known in the martial arts world today. Back then, the powerful Chumen came out of their nests, and only then did they compete for martial arts from all over the world. Obtained this secret technique. For so many years, this powerful technique of refining the body has been under the control of the Chumen master. The rest are not qualified to contact and practice. Even the Patriarch of the Chu family can’t practice. Back then, Chu Qi In order to get this “Dragon Body”, Tian cheeked and let his grandfather be a lobbyist, and finally worshipped under the banner of the master of the Chumen, Tang Yun, and became the apprentice of the master of the Chumen. Yunshou learned this technique of refining the body.

Chapter 1958

After all, the Dragon God’s body can greatly increase physical strength, enhance physical defense, and greatly increase combat power.

Even in the realm of the grandmaster, relying on the dragon god’s body, can also challenge the titled grandmaster at a higher level.

Chu Qitian could dream of such magic.

But no matter what, he has been a master of Chumen for many years, let alone mastering "Dragon Body", he has never seen Mao.

But now, the powerful secret technique he was thinking about, unexpectedly appeared on Mark.

Chu Qitian was naturally jealous and jealous, and didn't believe it at all.

"Father, this is impossible."

"It must be a mistake."

Chu Qitian shook his head repeatedly.

Chu Zhengliang nodded: "Well, I also think that it should be a mistake."

"The Dragon God technique is the supreme mastery of the Chumen, the exclusive divine technique of the Chumen master."

"An abandoned son of the Chu family, He is not qualified to be in contact."

"However, what is certain is that the abandoned son should have practiced some kind of martial arts."

"At the time of the Japanese Skytree battle, many people were strong in Japanese martial arts. I've seen it all."

"So, I have to suspect that the abandoned son that day is very likely to rely on this body-building technique to save his life."

"Although this possibility is very small, it still cannot be ignored."

Do you understand what I said?" Chu Zhengliang said in a deep voice in the room.

Chu Qitian nodded immediately: "Well, father, I understand."

"Don't worry, I know what to do."

"I will send more staff to pay attention to the news of this abandoned son. And I will focus on monitoring his relatives and friends. After leaving, Chu Qitian began to focus his work from searching for Mark's body to investigating Mark's whereabouts.

At the same time, Chu Qitian also asked his subordinates to call out all the forces of the Chu family in Noirfork.

"Enlighten the three young masters, Noirfork's economic growth has been slow in recent years, so our Chu family has not invested much in Noirfork."

“I have investigated the investment memorandum of nearly ten years. Our Chu family’s investment in Noirfork totaled 32. “Twenty of these investments have been declared failures, and five investments have been suspended.”

“Only seven investments have yielded results.”

“The two largest of these investments have been funded by investors in Noirfork after years of funding.”

Many forces.”

“One is named Zao Wou-ki, and his industries are all over the eight cities in Noirfork.”

“Ling a force is the Meng family of Liaocheng. In Noirfork, it is considered very prestigious.”

In the room, Chu Qitian closed his eyes and sat at the table, listening to the reports from the people.

Now that Mark was suspected of not being dead, what Chu Qitian had to do first was to find him out and eradicate it again.

If you want to find someone, of course you have to start with his hometown.

Therefore, Noirfork Province is Chu Qitian’s first consideration.

“Okay!” “Immediately contact the heads of the Zhao family and the Meng family in Noirfork, and let them use all the energy and connections in Noirfork to give me their fullest effort to find the whereabouts of Brian Chu!” “If you have any news, report it to me immediately. Chu Qitian gave an order, and his subordinates did it immediately.

However, after a few minutes, the subordinate returned unexpectedly, with an ugly face reporting to Chu Qitianhui: “Three young masters, I just learned that the power of the Zhao family and the Meng family in Noirfork has been eradicated by Brian Chu. “The Meng family was relocated, and the young master of the Meng family was forced to commit suicide. As for the Patriarch of the Zhao family, Zao Wou-ki, he was put in a coffin alive and thrown into the Yellow River!” “What?” Chu Qitian was shocked when he heard the sound.

A pair of eyes suddenly tightened.