

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1982

“Hey! This matter is a long story!”

Old man Wu sighed, then filled a glass of wine and drank it all before continuing.

“I think back in the day, I was also a strong man in the village!”

“One year, near the New Year there was a custom in the village to go hunting in the Fallen Dragon Valley for the New Year!”

“So I took a few of the village youths with me!”

It was supposed to be a pretty happy occasion, after all, it was going to be New Year’s Eve.

But who knew that the happy event would end up being a funeral event.

That day, under the leadership of Wu Lao, a group of village men headed straight for the interior of the Fallen Dragon Valley.

As they had grown up here, they were familiar with the Valley of the Fallen Dragon and knew that there were no powerful magical beasts in it.

So the group went for a trip.

But who knew that just as they reached the interior of the Valley of the Fallen Dragon and were about to start hunting, a change occurred.

A human-headed, snake-bodied beast suddenly appeared in front of them.

Her hair was dishevelled and her body was drenched in blood, as if she had been seriously injured.

And on her snake’s tail was a man.

It was a middle-aged man, who seemed to be more seriously injured and unconscious.

When Elder Wu saw this, he thought it was a magical beast hurting someone, so he was about to go and save the middle-aged man.

Who knew that the human-headed, snake-bodied beast would spurt out a mouthful of poisonous mist, instantly enveloping the youths who were rushing ahead.

Wu Lao almost watched as his childhood friends were turned into blood by the poisonous mist.

He was so frightened that he turned and ran, but the poisonous mist still tainted his back.

The human-headed, snake-bodied beast didn’t come after him, so he was able to save his life and returned to the village and became very ill.

He was in a coma for half a month. Luckily, an alchemist who had travelled in all directions happened to pass by and with his help, he was able to control the toxins in Wu’s body.

He was able to save his life, but his back was left with a scar that will never be cured unless he finds a powerful alchemist or physician.

Old Wu had lived in this village for generations, so he knew no great alchemists or healers, so his back was always with him!

“The alchemist who saved my life admonished me before he left!”

“That although the snake poison in my body was under control, it was only suppressed in my body, and he was not strong enough to detoxify the toxin at all!”

“So he told me that I’d better not have any offspring if I didn’t have to, or else the child might not live past the age of ten!”

“I’m still all alone because of this, originally! I still have snake venom in my body, so there’s no need to harm other girls!”

Wu Lao spoke in a light-hearted manner, but Lin Ran could feel the helplessness in his words.

If it wasn’t for the snake poison in his body, who would be willing to spend his life as a single person?

People in the Immortal World generally lived long lives, and the pain of not having a partner for such a long period of time was self-evident.

“Young man, speaking of Fallen Dragon Valley, are you planning to go there?”

Elder Wu suddenly asked.

“No, I just heard that the Fallen Dragon Valley around here is very famous, so I just asked!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Ao! That’s best! Young man you mustn’t go!”

Elder Wu was busy reminding.

“That place is dangerous, ever since that incident with me, poisonous fog has started to appear within the entire Fallen Dragon Valley!”

“The poisonous fog doesn’t disperse all year round, some years ago there were a few daring cultivators who went to break into it, and they didn’t come out even now!”

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head, but in his heart he already understood.

That Green Demon Snake Lady was afraid that she was in this Fallen Dragon Valley.

But why would she be cooped up in the Valley of the Fallen Dragon when she was a Third Dao Realm powerhouse?

Moreover, Elder Wu had said that when he first saw her, the god was seriously injured, but could it be that after so many years her condition had not only improved, but her strength had also increased greatly?

But even if that was the case, there was no need to keep guarding the Valley of the Fallen Dragon all the time, there were probably some secrets hidden in the Valley of the Fallen Dragon!

Lin Ran thought to himself.

“Elder Wu, can you show me the injury on your back?”

Lin Ran suddenly asked.

“There’s nothing to see about the wound!”

Elder Wu laughed.

Lin Ran didn’t hide it and laughed.

“Actually, I’m a physician!”

“You’re a physician?”

Old Man Wu’s eyes lit up at his words and he busily got up and said.

“Yes! Good!”

With that, Elder Wu removed his shirt and quickly revealed the wound on his back.

Lin Ran couldn’t help but frown slightly at a glance.

He saw that the wound on Elder Wu’s back was so large that the skin had become wrinkled, as if the skin had been melted and then stuck together and solidified.

Lin Ran raised his hand and pressed it, while a strand of true qi had already invaded Elder Wu’s body.

He soon discovered that there was indeed a ball of sealed snake venom in Elder Wu’s body.

It should have been the work of that traveling alchemist back then.

“How is the youngster?”

Elder Wu looked at Lin Ran with anticipation, this snake poison had been with him for decades, if Lin Ran could help remove it naturally it would be perfect.

“Old man Wu, this snake poison is not that powerful, I can help you get rid of it!”

Lin Ran said.

When Old Man Wu heard this, he immediately grabbed Lin Ran’s hands in excitement and gratitude.

“Really?”

“Mm!”

Lin Ran heavily nodded his head, he could see the excitement in Elder Wu’s eyes.

Without any nonsense, Lin Ran then greeted Elder Wu and laid him down on his side on the bed, before finding a basin and making a basin of hot water.

First, he warmed up Elder Wu’s back with a hot towel before Lin Ran took out three silver needles.

The silver needles fell and soon landed on Elder Wu’s back.

The three silver needles all fell in at an inclined angle from the bottom to the top.

As the three silver needles fell, drops of black blood began to drip down from Elder Wu's back.

Starting with the first silver needle, it dripped down onto the second, and then from the second onto the third.

Finally, it fell straight into the basin.

The three silver needles just formed a line, guiding all the dirty blood draining out of Elder Wu's body into the basin.

It didn't take long, just a few moments for the black was tainted blood to start turning red.

Seeing this, Lin Ran directly waved his hand and withdrew the silver needles, while helping Elder Wu up.

"It's done?"

Elder Wu was a little shocked, he hadn't felt anything at all just now, but Lin Ran had stopped.

"It's already done!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"But I don't feel anything here either!"

Elder Wu said with some confusion.

"Indeed it doesn't matter, this snake poison has been in your body for a long time, you've basically adapted to it"!

"But after it's drained out this time, you can look for your old companion without worry, and your back won't be chilled in the cold weather!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"Good! Good!"

Old man Wu was very excited and rushed to salute Lin Ran unceasingly.

"Living Bodhisattva, young man! You are a living Bodhisattva!"

"I never thought that I would be able to expel this snake poison in my lifetime, thank you! Thank you!"

Lin Ran smiled and waved his hand, gesturing for Old Man Wu not to take it to heart.

As a doctor, treating illnesses and saving people was his job, although he was now in the Immortal World.

However, Lin Ran had not forgotten his ancestor's teaching that medicine was good for people when it was practiced in the world!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1983

The next morning, Lin Ran bid farewell to Elder Wu early in the morning and headed towards the Fallen Dragon Valley alone.

The target of his own visit this time was precisely the Green Demon Snake Lady, so there was no need to stay too long.

Moreover, Lin Ran had some interest in the scroll of the Art of Indestructibility at the Sword Immortal Sect's auction house, and wanted to get his hands on it as soon as possible.

Although Tianxuanzi said that few people could practice the Art of Undying, mainly because there were not enough heaven and earth treasures.

But Lin Ran wasn't worried, after all, Luo Qiqi controlled the entire Luo Ran Merchant Firm.

Even if he could not practise it at the moment, he could still do it in the future when he found Luo Qiqi.

With the huge power of the Luo Ran Trading Firm, it did not seem that difficult to find all the materials.

It was dawn when Lin Ran had already arrived at the so-called Fallen Dragon Valley.

The area of Fallen Dragon Valley was not large but definitely not small either.

The entire valley was right on the plain.

On three sides were plains, and only at the back was a winding mountain range.

The mountain range is not very tall, but rather resembles a large mound.

It was covered with trees and lush greenery and stretched all the way into the entire Fallen Dragon Valley.

Standing at the entrance to this Fallen Dragon Valley at this moment, Lin Ran could clearly see that there was a very dense poisonous miasma within the Valley.

These poisonous miasmas were not powerful, but the difficulty was that they were too dense.

Even if Lin Ran was not careful when he entered it, he would probably be eaten away by the poisonous miasma.

A person's attention span was limited, but the poisonous miasma was everywhere.

"This Green Demon Snake Lady has found herself a good place!"

Lin Ran sighed, this place was easy to defend and hard to attack, plus there was still the poisonous miasma as a barrier, so it would not be easy to rush in and find the Green Demon Snake Lady.

Moreover, at this moment, standing at the entrance of the Fallen Dragon Valley, Lin Ran vaguely felt a hint of heart palpitations.

"Brother, Li's emotions are a little agitated!"

Suddenly Little Nine transmitted a voice.

"Stirring? What's going on?"

Lin Ran busily asked, while moving both Little Nine and Lizzy out.

As soon as Lizzy came out, the hairs on her entire body stood up, as if she was facing a great enemy.

“What’s going on?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“This place has a very noble aura that makes me very uncomfortable!”

Li spoke.

At the same time, his gaze was fixed dead on the earthen slope at the back of Fallen Dragon Valley, as if something was declaring war on him.

“A noble aura? Could it be a powerful magical beast?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

The Li was a very noble kind of magical beast among all magical beasts.

Even Zhen Yan had said when it appeared that he was the Qi of the entire Beast King Domain.

It was enough to see Lizzy’s unique status, but now there was actually something else that could challenge his majesty.

This really made Lin Ran very surprised.

“What do you feel it is!”

Lin Ran asked busily.

I’m afraid that no one knew this middle matter better than Lizzy.

“A dragon!”

Lizzy said.

“A dragon?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, this thing really existed?

“Although this is a multiple dragon pit, there has never been a legend about dragons!”

Lin Ran was puzzled and was busy asking Qing Zi if she knew about dragons.

Qing Zi thought for a moment and said.

“Dragons do exist, and they are a very powerful magical beast!”

“The Dragon Wind Clan are all of very high status among magical beasts!”

“They don’t usually have dealings with the Beast King Domain! It’s like a magical beast family of hermits!”

“They have very few members, yet each of their powers are very strong!”

“You mean that there really are dragons in the Immortal Realm?”

Lin Ran said helplessly, frowning.

“There are! But there are very few of them anymore!”

Qing Zi said.

Lin Ran smiled but did not say anything, instead he turned his head to look at the alignment of the mountains around the Fallen Dragon Valley.

The art of Feng Shui was incomparable, and even in the Immortal World Lin Ran had found that many places were secretly relevant to the art of Feng Shui.

This Valley of the Fallen Dragon, according to its feng shui location, was in fact a poisonous dragon source!

The so-called Poisoned Dragon Source was the location of a dead dragon.

The dragon is a divine beast in heaven and earth, with few equals in strength and majesty except for the phoenix!

Therefore, the fall of each dragon is in fact in line with the reincarnation of the Heavenly Dao.

The stronger the strength and the more dignified the identity, the more precise the fit with the heavenly dao.

For example, if an immortal emperor and an ordinary person die at the same time, no one will remember the ordinary person, but everyone will remember the immortal emperor.

This is a kind of fit, and the fit of the heavenly dao is never elusive!

“We’ll have to be careful later, if there really are dragons in this place, it would explain why the Green Demon Snake Lady had placed her lair here!”

Lin Ran said to himself, seeing that the sun was already rising in the east, so he walked in without further delay towards the Valley of the Fallen Dragon.

The Valley of the Fallen Dragon was filled with miasma, so Lin Ran let everyone go back to the scroll space, leaving Li outside alone.

This creature had a special physique and was not afraid of the poisonous miasma, so Lin Ran was not worried about its safety.

After radiating his true qi, Lin Ran then brought Li into the Fallen Dragon Valley.

His true qi forced all the poisonous miasma around him back, and Lin Ran’s vision before him was much more expansive.

However, in this Valley of the Fallen Dragon, one mistake would probably cause him to be trapped.

Therefore, to be on the safe side, Lin Ran still emitted his divine sense and enveloped his surroundings in order to avoid being attacked by the enemy.

Time passed, and as Lin Ran continued to go deeper and deeper into the Valley of the Fallen Dragon.

A strange scene also began to appear.

The entire Fallen Dragon Valley was surprisingly quiet, not even a single movement of a magical beast could be heard.

In a valley as big as Fallen Dragon Valley, even the sound of birds must be heard!

But at this moment, where Lin Ran was, the surrounding area was so terribly quiet that he could hear even a pin drop on the ground very clearly.

“Lin Ran, there’s something strange about this place! Be careful!”

Qing Zi was busy speaking up to warn.

Lin Ran nodded and said no more.

At this moment, he could feel that he had already travelled at least half of the way.

In an hour at most, he would be able to enter the core of the Fallen Dragon Valley.

No matter why there was no sign of magical beast activity around.

When he reached the core of the Fallen Dragon Valley, the Green Demon Snake Lady would definitely reveal herself.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran did not delay and continued to stride ahead.

What Lin Ran did not know was that just as he passed by a large tree, several blood-red rays of light suddenly peeked out.

The light was like the pupils of an eye, peeking out from the tree’s drooping branches and leaves, looking at Lin Ran warily.

....

Deep in the Fallen Dragon Valley, in a space located a dozen metres underground.

“How’s it going?”

A woman wearing red scaled armour and having fiery red hair asked in a cold voice.

In front of her, a middle-aged man with white hair was sitting on his knees in place, and in front of him was a furnace censer, under which a burning fire was burning.

But if you look closely, you will see that there is no wood under the censer, the fire is simply burning out of thin air!

“Not yet, it will take at least another month!”

The middle-aged man said.

“A month? I’ve already spent nearly thirty years here, when on earth will I succeed!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady said angrily.

The middle-aged man, however, seemed to be used to it and said blandly.

“Is it useful to rush? Don’t I want to get out of here?”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1984

“Humph! You’d better not play tricks on me, or you know the consequences!”

The Green Demon Snake Maiden spoke coldly, and immediately left the place.

Only before she took two steps, suddenly the Green Demon Snake Lady’s eyes snapped cold, and she whirled her head up and looked towards the entrance of Fallen Dragon Valley.

“Someone is coming? Just in time, I’ve been craving for food lately, it’s time to have some!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady said as a greenish glow emanated from her brow.

The light instantly dissipated, as if nothing had happened.

....

Inside the Fallen Dragon Valley, Lin Ran still made his way forward.

But as the moon approached the core place, he realised that the trees here had become very strange.

All of the trees were so huge that they blocked the sunlight from the sky from coming in at all.

And on the branches of these trees, there were dense aerial roots.

The so-called aerial roots are the branches that stand out from the trunks of the trees and hang down.

It was like a mass of weeds all attached to the trunk of the tree.

It was impossible to see clearly what was going on inside the trunk.

“Whoosh.”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was rushing along, a loud noise actually came from a large tree next to him.

He hadn’t even seen a single magical beast all the way here, so this sudden noise immediately alerted Lin Ran.

He waved his palm, and in an instant a wisp of sword qi was already heading straight for the big tree.

“Bang!”

An explosive sound came out violently, followed by a waterfall of branches and vines on a large tree being blown out pulling a gaping hole.

Countless branches popped and shattered, among them would be something white that was still interspersed, not knowing what it was.

However, when Lin Ran turned his gaze towards the inside of the gap, his entire body froze.

Only to see that behind the vine waterfall of the large tree, there was actually a white skeleton hanging. Most of these skeletons were those of magical beasts, ranging in size from large to small.

There were even some human skeletons interspersed among them.

“This....”

Lin Ran’s heart couldn’t help but seize at the sight, and he waved his hand towards a large tree next to him and slapped it again.

“Bang.”

The sound rang out, and the waterfall branches instantly burst, followed by the same white bones actually being revealed behind them.

“Bang Bang!”

Lin Ran cleaved through two more branches and vines in quick succession, and almost all of the bones behind them were clear white.

Seeing this, Lin Ran’s brow had furrowed to the extreme.

At this moment, he finally understood that it wasn’t that there were no magical beasts in Fallen Dragon Valley, but that they had all been killed!

And they had all been hung from this tree.

“Could it have been the Green Demon Snake Lady who did this?”

Lin Ran was puzzled in his heart.

This guy was reasonably strong, but why would he do it to a group of magical beasts?

“Lin Ran be careful, there’s something behind that branch and vine!”

Suddenly Li’s voice came from ahead, followed by Lin Ran seeing it.

Behind those branches and vines that he had broken open, a pair of blood-red eyes were actually poking out.

These eyes didn’t have the slightest bit of warmth, as if they were prying eyes from hell.

“What the hell!”

Lin Ran shouted coldly, and in an instant a wisp of sword mane had slashed past.

“Bang bang bang.”

A large splash of blood splashed out from where the sword mane had passed.

Then countless figures quickly scurried out from behind the vines.

There was a large swath of them, all of them were actually small green coloured snakes!

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but have his scalp explode as he watched, fortunately he didn't have dense phobia. Otherwise, he would have been scared to death just by looking at them.

He saw that the entire ground was covered with these small snakes, so dense that it almost filled up the entire Fallen Dragon Valley.

Lin Ran was busy looking back.

Only then did he realize that the road behind him had somehow been crawling with little green snakes.

These little green snakes seemed to have no upper limit at all, and everywhere they passed, there were little green snakes.

“Get lost!”

When Lin Ran saw this, he didn't say anything, he instantly took out his Condensing Frost Sword and slashed out directly towards the front with the Sea of Immensity.

“Bang!”

The sword aura was extremely powerful, instantly crushing the countless little green snakes in front of him directly into pieces.

A path was washed out alive.

“Go!”

Lin Ran didn't dare to slow down as he dashed forward with a single arrow step towards the front.

“Hiss!”

Almost at the same time, the other small green snakes around them all spat their snake letters and surged towards Lin Ran.

“Explosion!”

Lin Ran emitted his entire body's aura instantly, and the three dao's mighty pressure overlapped each other, instantly forming a domain around him.

The little green snake within the domain was reduced to pieces almost instantly.

The Sword Dao was originally the Dao of Killing and Destroying, plus the Dao of Lightning, the Dao of Wind and the Dao of Water.

These little green snakes did not even have the strength to resist, and were instantly crushed into pieces.

But there were even more little green snakes around, and Lin Ran found that he could not kill them all.

So he didn't dare to stop and rushed all the way towards the depths of the Fallen Dragon Valley.

However, just as he was able to break out of the surroundings of these little green snakes.

Suddenly, a strong wind came from in front of him, and the next moment Lin Ran saw that a green object as thick as a bucket of water was flung towards him.

“What is it!”

Lin Ran dodged on reflex, and the next moment the Condensing Frost Sword in his hand struck it with a slash.

“Clang gear!”

The sword mane and the cyan object collided, instantly flashing out a large amount of sparks.

Followed by the warp was a trail of green scales falling down, along with a spray of fresh blood.

“A green snake?”

Lin Ran looked stunned as he waved his Condensing Frost Sword horizontally in his hand, and instantly the sharp sword Qi slashed towards the front.

It instantly cut off a large portion of the surrounding trees at the waist.

Immediately a huge green figure appeared in front of him.

It was a huge green snake with a human head and snake body.

“Green demon snake lady! It really is you!”

There was a cold aura in Lin Ran’s eyes, having come all the way here to finally meet the right person at this moment!

“Human! You dare to trespass on my place, today I will make sure you don’t come back!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady sneered.

“Just you?”

Lin Ran’s expression was indifferent, at this moment when he saw the main character he had a few judgments about the strength of this Green Demon Snake Woman.

Middle Third Dao Realm, this strength was already not weak among magical beasts.

But she was facing herself in a few days.

“Humph! A tiny Third Dao Realm human dares to come to Old Mother’s territory to spill the beans!”

“Today, I’ll show you how unbearable the insignificance of humans is!”

“Later, when I catch you, I will use you as nourishment for my next clutch of snake eggs!”

With that, the Green Demon Snake Lady’s body moved violently and her huge snake tail slapped directly towards Lin Ran.

“Seek death!”

Lin Ran was not polite when he saw this, and with a shake of the Frost Condensation Sword in his hand, a wisp of sword aura instantly slashed towards the other party.

As a single strand of sword mane appeared, thousands of sword manes vaguely appeared around it.

These sword maces converged together frantically, and then formed a white sword mace heading straight for the Green Demon Snake Woman.

This sword was precisely the second style of the Lancang Sword Technique, Sword Intent to the Sky!

It was just that under the cover of the black bead's aura, the aura of this sword became incomparably cold.

As the sword struck out, even the temperature around it dropped by several degrees.

Even the air near the sword's aura showed vague signs of being frozen.

"What kind of sword technique is this? So bizarre?"

The Green Demon Snake Lady's heart sank, but at this moment, her own snake tail had already reached the other party, and it was impossible to stop!"

"Bang Bang!"

A loud sound came out, the sword intent through the sky instantly collided with the Green Demon Snake Maiden's snake tail!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1985

"Bang!"

The sword mane instantly collided with the green demon snake tail.

The next moment even Lin Ran didn't expect that the Green Demon Snake Lady's snake tail would instantly break through a huge gash.

Fresh blood spurted out directly along the wound, splashing down onto the ground.

"You!"

The Green Demon Snake Lady's face instantly changed as she looked at Lin Ran with shock in her eyes.

"How did you do that! Obviously you're even weaker than me!"

The Green Demon Snake Woman couldn't believe it, this human in front of her was clearly also at the Third Dao Realm, and only at the early stage, while she was a genuine mid Third Dao Realm powerhouse.

Moreover, her own body was still a magical beast, although snakes were no match for bears, apes and rhinoceroses, which had amazing innate defence.

But snake scales are also an extremely strong means of defence, and even the materials of some of the very best clothing magic weapons are also chosen from snake scales.

It was reasonable to say that he was stronger than his opponent, and even more so with the snake scales protecting his body, how could this guy have broken through his defence with a single sword.

“Just because your strength is weaker than yours doesn’t mean that your combat power is weaker than yours!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“You’re the Green Demon Snake Lady, aren’t you! Is there anything else you want to say before you die?”

Lin Ran got straight to the point.

“Before you die? What do you think you are, kid, telling me to die! You’re worthy too!”

The next moment, the scales all over her body began to clatter, and Lin Ran heard countless sounds around him.

Without having to look, Lin Ran knew that the sounds were coming from the countless little green snakes.

This green demon snake woman was afraid of her own sword maneuvers and was actually trying to mobilize these little green snakes to deal with herself.

“It’s useless!”

Lin Ran smiled faintly, and with a shake of the Condensing Frost Sword in his hand, countless sword mists appeared like stars in the sky, directly floating in the surrounding space.

“Pfffffffff!”

As soon as the sword mangles appeared, instantly, green snakes crashed into them.

There were mostly green snakes and many sword mangles, as if two torrents kept clashing together.

For a while it was difficult for the countless small green snakes to enter at all.

“Damn it!”

The green demon snake woman looked gloomy, and her two green snake pupils even had a slight cold aura.

“It seems that you have no last words! Since that’s the case then I’ll send you on your way!”

Lin Ran waved his palm once more, and instantly countless sword maces around him converged towards the front.

The countless sword mists converged, and a black sword shadow instantly emerged, the sword shadow was incomparably sharp, and the instant it appeared even the surrounding space was vaguely cut with cracks.

“This move again! Damn it!”

The Green Demon Snake Maiden looked gloomy, while at this moment, the little green snakes around her did not dare to come forward at all out of fear.

This move of Lin Ran's Sword Intent Through the Sky was simply too intimidating.

Even the green demon snake woman's heart was trembling a little, her own snake tail was still spewing blood from the wound at this moment.

"Bully too much!"

The Green Demon Snake Maiden let out a furious rebuke, followed by her huge snake tail flinging itself towards Lin Ran again.

At the same time, one could only see that her two originally green snake pupils had actually turned blood red at this moment.

"Get in here for me!"

The green demon snake woman's two blood-red pupils looked straight at Lin Ran.

For a moment, it actually made Lin Ran feel like his mind was in a trance.

The sword mane that was originally slashing at the other party actually instantly deviated from its position and blasted the ground on one side.

"A divine sense attack?"

Lin Ran's mind burst, and instantly his divine sense returned from a new calm.

He looked at the Green Demon Snake Lady in front of him, and at this moment, he was also on guard.

He knew very well how his own divine sense was, although he hadn't deliberately cultivated any other divine sense secret techniques other than the Frightening Thunder Secret Technique that Lei had given him.

But the strength of his own divine sense was definitely very high.

There were really not many people he had come across who could shake his own will with a divine sense attack, and even enter an illusionary realm for a moment.

Unexpectedly, this Green Demon Snake Lady in front of him was actually capable of doing so.

It was just a pity that this illusionary power would not be able to succeed at all before his own Lightning Stunning Secret Technique.

"Bang!"

The huge snake tail smashed heavily onto Lin Ran's body.

It was just a pity that Lin Ran did not fly backwards, and the huge snake tail went straight through his body before finally landing on the ground.

"A residual shadow?"

The Green Demon Snake Maiden was greatly alarmed in her heart, her two blood-red pupils glaring round as the next moment a wisp of red light actually emanated from her body.

The red light was like a mist that converged in all directions, enveloping the entire surroundings in just a few moments.

“Human, come and have some fun!”

A cold smile appeared on the Green Demon Snake Lady’s face, and the next moment the two blood-red snake pupils closed up.

At this moment, Lin Ran only felt something in his mind being stirred up frantically, and he forced himself to calm down with his eyes closed.

Only after a few moments did he open his eyes when he felt the power in his mind’s summary disappear.

However, everything that appeared in front of him at that moment had changed.

In between was a huge manor house, surrounded by flowers and a very beautiful landscape.

Not far in front of him, there was a swimming pool, in which a silhouette was swimming.

Her figure was so perfect that it could even be described as enchanting.

Just one look made Lin Ran a little unable to move his eyes.

Her skin was as white as snow, her long hair was scattered like a waterfall, and her pair of eyebrows were even more as if they were transmitted, not showing a bit of affection.

The woman soon reached the shore and peeked out of the water like a hibiscus out of water.

Drops of water slid down her skin, as if interpreting how tender the woman’s skin was.

The woman smiled at Lin Ran and then walked to the bed on the side.

The white veil fell around the bed couch, blocking her appearance, but adding a bit of hazy beauty.

“Not coming?”

Suddenly a pleasant voice came from the front, while a fair palm poked out of the white gauze.

That palm was as white as jade and as fine as a jade flute, one couldn’t help but be impressed just by looking at it.

Lin Ran also enjoyed looking at it, and following him, he took a step over.

When he reached close, Lin Ran raised his hand and caught the other’s palm.

Instantly a soft sensation came over.

“Come on in!”

The woman’s melodious voice sounded again, and the next moment she pulled Lin Ran directly into the white gauze bed.

Lin Ran stumbled and fell directly onto the bed.

The beautiful woman was being pressed underneath him at that moment.

The two of them were facing each other, and the faint scent of the woman's body was burrowing into Lin Ran's nose.

The woman had a shy smile on her face as she slowly pushed the white veil over her shoulders a few inches away, revealing a large area of snowy white.

"Do you want to see?"

The woman asked in a slightly teasing manner.

Lin Ran couldn't help but gulp and spoke.

"It's really beautiful! It's just a pity that it's all fake!"

"Fake? Does this feel fake?"

The woman said as she raised her hand and placed Lin Ran's palm on her cheek.

The warmth and softness felt so real.

"Stay with me, will you?"

The woman exhaled like an orchid.

Lin Ran, however, smiled and said.

"I'd like to, but unfortunately I don't play with snakes!"

After saying that, Lin Ran's eyes fiercely chilled and instantly a divine sense aura swept directly towards the four directions as if it were a thunderbolt.

The scene around him instantly collapsed, followed by the reveal of the Green Demon Snake Maiden's figure.

The red light in her eyes had already disappeared, and there were even two traces of blood faintly flowing out from within the snake's pupils.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1986

"Bastard! How did you do that!"

Looking at Lin Ran in front of her, the Green Demon Snake Lady's entire being was incomparably furious.

Her own Green Demon Illusion Art was already her most powerful attack, but who knew that it would actually be useless against the brat at all.

"Your illusion technique is still not well practiced!"

Lin Ran's voice was bland, and then he only saw his palm lift as a purple thunderbolt instantly struck out in front of him.

“What? Heavenly lightning!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady’s face changed drastically when she saw it.

What the illusionary arts feared most was the most virile thing in heaven and earth.

And Heavenly Thunder was the representative of justice and virility since ancient times.

Therefore, it was very difficult for someone who had cultivated the Way of Lightning to be trapped by an illusion!

Not to mention that what Lin Ran possessed at this moment was the real Heavenly Lightning.

If one wanted to trap Lin Ran with an illusion, there was almost no such possibility at the same level.

“Go!”

Seeing that the matter was untenable, the Green Demon Snake Lady immediately wanted to run.

Even her strongest illusion technique could do nothing to her opponent, so she wasn’t stupid enough to stay and look for death.

“Want to leave?”

Lin Ran smiled blandly at this, and instantly the two divine wings behind her instantly unfolded, turning into a stream of light as she chased after the Green Demon Snake Lady.

In front of the divine wings, the Green Demon Snake Maiden’s speed was simply not enough.

After just a few moments, Lin Ran had already caught up with her.

“You.... Who the hell are you!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady looked at Lin Ran and was already a little anxious.

“Burn!”

Lin Ran said blandly.

“Burn? I don’t even know you, so why are you here to kill me!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady questioned.

“You’d have to ask yourself that!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland, how would he know why he had come to kill you.

This was a mission issued by the Sword Ranking Token.

“Ask myself?”

The Green Demon Snake Lady was stunned at her words, and after a moment she asked tentatively.

“Is it because of the massacre of the Dan Pill Village? You are a villager there?”

“Slaughtering the village? It seems that you really deserve to die!”

Lin Ran's eyes were instantly icy cold, and he honestly disliked this kind of mission where he somehow came over to chase and kill without knowing the circumstances of the person being chased.

However, at this moment, when he heard the words of the Green Demon Snake Lady, he had already developed a killing heart.

This was already the bottom line that he could not tolerate.

"Don't do it, let's talk about it!"

Seeing this, the Green Demon Snake Lady was busy saying.

"There's nothing to talk about!"

Lin Ran's eyes were icy cold, he really didn't know what there was to say to a village slaughtering beast, it was better to kill it quickly afterwards.

"Don't kill me! Don't kill me, I can tell you a chance, I just beg you to spare me!"

The Green Demon Snake Lady was busy saying.

At this moment, she was truly afraid, Lin Ran's sword technique was too powerful, it was simply beyond her ability to resist.

"A chance? What chance?"

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

"You better not play tricks or you'll only die faster!"

Lin Ran threatened.

"Don't dare, it really is a chance, as long as you promise to let me go, I'll tell you!"

The Green Demon Snake Lady said busily.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

"You're negotiating terms with me?"

"You can think of it this way, if you don't let me go, I guarantee that you won't get that chance either!"

The Green Demon Snake Lady said, with a threat in her eyes.

"You are not qualified to negotiate terms with me!"

Lin Ran said as a wisp of sword aura had once again surfaced.

"The entire Fallen Dragon Valley is just this big, even if you die, I can still find it inch by inch!"

With that Lin Ran was about to make his move.

Chance could not be as great as the attraction of the Art of Undying to Lin Ran.

Therefore, this mission was bound to be completed, and as for the chance that the Green Demon Snake Lady had spoken of, Lin Ran did not care too much about it.

“You!”

The Green Demon Snake Maiden’s face was unusually ugly at this.

However, she was also clear in her heart that what Lin Ran said was the truth.

The entire Fallen Dragon Valley was just this big, so if it were an ordinary person, I was afraid that they wouldn’t be able to find it at all, but when faced with a cultivator who was even stronger than herself, it wouldn’t be difficult at all to find her lair.

“Good! I’ll take you there!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady said at once.

Taking Lin Ran over at least she could live a little longer, but if she didn’t agree, that brat was afraid that he would kill herself immediately.

And when they got to their own lair, they might still be able to take advantage of the chaos to escape, or at least have a chance of survival.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Ran opened his mouth and urged.

The Green Demon Snake Lady gritted her teeth and immediately led the way in front.

The two of them made their way towards the centre of the Fallen Dragon Valley.

It didn’t take long to reach a water pool.

At the edge of this water pool was a very large cave, the inside of which was abnormally dark with no visibility of the inside.

“It’s inside!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady greeted.

“Then let’s go in!”

Lin Ran didn’t say anything and directly let the Green Demon Snake Lady lead the way.

The two of them entered the cave one after the other.

The entire cave was very dark, yet it had little effect on Lin Ran.

After all, his strength was there, and he could clearly see the entire situation inside the cave just by his divine sense probing.

The green demon snake woman didn’t say anything, and Lin Ran didn’t bother to ask.

This fellow’s life was now in his hands, and Lin Ran was not afraid that she would dare to play any tricks.

Moreover, Lin Ran had suspected before that this Green Demon Snake Woman, a strong person of the Third Dao Realm, was hiding in this shitty place.

There must be a reason, but he could not figure out the reason.

He was afraid that this opportunity he was going to see was the reason why the Green Demon Snake Woman was staying here.

The two of them walked all the way towards the inside of the cave.

The path in this cave wound downwards and was very steep.

After walking for just half an hour, Lin Ran noticed that the glaze on the side had actually started to stir a little.

“What’s going on?”

Lin Ran asked with a busy voice transmission.

“There’s something in this place, and the threat I felt before is even stronger now!”

Lizzy replied back, its entire body was in a tense state at this moment.

The fur all over its body also stood up, with the look of a great enemy.

“Your magical beast pet is quite perceptive!”

The green demon snake woman laughed.

“Cut the crap, have you arrived yet!”

Lin Ran questioned.

“What’s the rush, it’s just ahead! :”

The Green Demon Snake Lady said discontentedly.

Although she herself was a magical beast, she could also manifest a human form, and at this moment she was manifesting a human form.

And to be fair, the human form that the Green Demon Snake Girl had transformed into was also very beautiful.

She had thought that she might be able to escape with her beauty on the way.

But this guy didn’t even look at her the whole time, which made the Green Demon Snake Woman feel very unhappy.

Suddenly, the Green Demon Snake Woman who was walking ahead of her stopped.

Lin Ran also followed suit and stopped.

“Here we are!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady greeted, and immediately went forward and lit the lamps on both sides of the cave.

Following this, Lin Ran saw that in front of the two of them was actually a mountain wall.

“You’re playing with me?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly, with killing intent in his eyes.

“How dare the little woman!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady said as she stepped forward and slapped her palm on the mountain wall.

The next moment, a loud “rumble” was heard, followed by the mountain wall exploding apart.

Then a huge underground space appeared in front of Lin Ran.

Lin Ran could clearly see that in this underground space, there was a white skeleton lying flat.

The skeleton was so large that the whole picture could not be seen.

However, the aura emanating from the white skeleton caused a thought to pop up in his mind instantly.

“This.... This is a giant dragon relic bone!”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1987

With excitement in his heart, Lin Ran immediately rushed in.

Only when he entered did Lin Ran realise that the entire dragon’s skeleton was staggeringly large.

The entire underground space was already huge, but he still hadn’t been able to dig out the entire dragon’s skeleton.

This should be near the dragon’s head, of which there were still very many bones embedded in the mountain wall near the dragon’s tail.

Lin Ran looked very excited, although he had heard Qing Zi say before that there were indeed dragons in the Immortal World.

But Lin Ran had never seen one after all, so seeing a giant dragon’s remains at this moment really made him very excited.

“This is a dragon!”

Li’s entire body muscles were tense, as if they would explode at any moment.

“It’s a skeleton, you can’t be serious!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Instead, Li shook his head and said.

“I don’t want to be this tense, but it’s instinct! The instinct of a bloodline confrontation!”

“Bloodline confrontation?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, and suddenly remembered that Lizzy was also a magical beast, and had a very high status as well.

In fact, it wasn't just magical beasts, humans were the same.

All had bloodlines only.

For example, a powerful cultivator, his bloodline actually contains his understanding of the Dao, or even some special existence.

The stronger the strength the more exotic treasures they can access, and the more wondrous treasures of heaven and earth.

And there are herbs that can change a person's physique and meridians.

And the descendants of such people will inherit more or less the power of their bloodline in their bodies.

So once such people are born, they will display superb cultivation talent from an early age.

It is much easier to cultivate than ordinary people.

Although the Dragon and Wind Clans were small in number, they were each very powerful because of their bloodline power.

Although Li did not know what kind of magical beast his body was.

The bloodline of this magical beast is also very noble.

Li possessed the bloodline of the Amazing Earthquake Fire Lynx, so at this moment, when she was in the same place as the bloodline left by the remains of the giant dragon, she would unconsciously tighten her body.

This was precisely the battle of resistance between the bloodlines of the two magical beasts.

“Lin Ran, if I could devour this giant dragon bloodline, what do you think would happen?”

Li suddenly spoke up and asked.

“Devour the giant dragon bloodline? This giant dragon has been dead for so many years, where would you find the bloodline?”

Lin Ran asked in surprise.

“I don't know, aren't you a healer? Can you refine the bloodline from the giant dragon's remains?”

Li asked.

Lin Ran smiled and thought for a moment, saying.

“An alchemist might be able to do it, but I've never been exposed to alchemy after all, so if you want it badly, I can find an alchemist to ask after we go later!”

Xu Gu was in the Dan Pavilion, although this guy was not good at alchemy, he was at least an alchemist, so he should know something about how to refine the bloodline from the remains.

As he was thinking, he suddenly heard a loud “bang” coming from the side.

Lin Ran and Li were both startled and turned their heads to look, only to find that the Green Demon Snake Lady had quietly withdrawn a few dozen metres.

At that moment, another gap had been opened in the mountain wall beside her.

Only this gap was obviously not opened by her, but from the inside.

“Haha! I’ve done it! I’ve done it! Green Demon Snake Lady, I did it! This is what you wanted to let me go!”

An excited Daoist voice rang out, followed by a middle-aged man walking out from inside the cave.

He was also holding a bottle in his hand, which was containing half a bottle of a blood-red substance, just like blood.

“Lin Ran, that’s a giant dragon bloodline, that’s a giant dragon bloodline!”

Li exclaimed at once.

Lin Ran also felt that the bloodline emanating from within that bottle was extremely powerful.

“He’s a bound alchemist!”

Lin Ran instantly thought of something.

When he was in the village before, Old Man Wu had recounted what had happened to him when he was young.

Lin Ran clearly remembered that at that time, he said that there was a middle-aged man tied to the Green Demon Snake Lady’s snake tail.

At first, Lin Ran did not understand why this green demon snake woman was tying up a middle-aged man.

Even if he was an enemy, he could just kill him, why was it necessary to bring him all the way here?

And now Lin Ran finally understood.

This Green Demon Snake Lady clearly had her eyes on this giant dragon’s bloodline as well.

So she had directly kidnapped an alchemist and brought it over.

After so many years had passed, it was unexpected that the giant dragon bloodline had really been refined by this alchemist.

“Give it to me!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady was at the side at this moment and raised her hand and snatched the bottle.

“Green Demon Snake Lady, what I promised you has been done, now you can let me go!”

The middle-aged man said excitedly.

“Yes!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady smiled blandly, yet the next moment her eyes were fiercely cold, followed by a palm slap directly on the middle-aged man’s chest.

“Poof!”

A mouthful of blood spurted out from the middle-aged man, and the next moment the entire person’s breath had died out.

“You!”

Lin Ran’s eyes looked icy cold, this Green Demon Snake Lady had actually killed that middle-aged man!

“Want to leave? The remains of the giant dragon in this place are so large that the power of the bloodline must still be extractable!”

“None of you will be able to leave today!”

The Green Demon Serpentess looked like she was mad, and there was fierceness in her eyes.

Yes! She was no match for Lin Ran.

But now she had the giant dragon bloodline in her hands.

As long as she swallowed this giant dragon bloodline, it was still unknown who would lose and who would win by then!

“Li! What are you doing!”

Lin Ran was thinking about the opposite side when suddenly Lizzy, who was on the side, was charging directly towards the Green Demon Snake Lady.

“That’s mine! She can’t eat it! I’m taking it back!”

Lizzy shouted.

At this moment, the fur all over its body had begun to change.

The originally white fur actually turned pitch black in an instant.

At the same time, wisps of black qi gushed out frantically as if they didn’t want money and headed straight for the Green Demon Snake Lady.

“Humph! A little pet dog still wants to steal something from me! Get lost!”

With a face full of disdain, the Green Demon Snake Lady immediately changed into her original body, and her huge snake tail slapped towards Li.

Although Lin Ran had already rushed over by now.

But he was a step too slow after all.

He watched as the Green Demon Snake Lady's gigantic snake tail slapped directly at Lizzy's body.

"Li!"

Lin Ran's eyes instantly turned red.

However, before he could make a move, the Green Demon Snake Lady's enormous tail was actually restrained out of thin air.

The countless black Qi around her instantly wrapped around the Green Demon Snake Lady's snake tail, making it unable to move a single inch!

"Robbing my stuff! You're a bad person!"

Li's voice was childish, but it was dripping with anger.

This was the first time Lin Ran had seen Li so angry.

Back then, even when he had left the Beast King's domain and was in the Beastmen Village, Li's outburst had not been this angry.

And thinking about that time, Lin Ran's heart settled at this moment.

There were too many secrets in Lizzy's body, and Little Nine had said that if Lizzy were to explode with all his might no one but Uncle Zhen Yan could suppress him!

But equally it would hurt him very much.

That was why Li didn't even make a move on a normal day.

But once it did, it was clear in Lin Ran's mind that there really weren't many people who could be its match.

"What is it?"

The Green Demon Snake Lady was also taken aback at this moment, her own tail had actually been captured.

And at this moment, black Qi filled the surroundings and surged towards herself.

Seeing that the situation was not right, the Green Demon Snake Lady did not dare to delay any longer and directly opened the bottle stopper to swallow the Dragon Bloodline.

"How dare you!"

Li's voice was tinged with anger, and in an instant, a surge of black Qi surged in speed and rushed towards the Green Demon Snake Woman.

However, the Green Demon Snake Lady was not slow either, and almost the moment the black Qi rushed closer, she had already placed the bottle to her mouth.

The next moment the black Qi instantly submerged the Green Demon Snake Woman, not knowing what the outcome would be!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1988

Black fog filled everywhere, and Lin Ran knew how terrifying this black fog of Li Li really was.

When he had just come out of the Beast King Domain, his strength was only around the Heavenly Mansion realm, but he was directly overturned by this black fog of his.

And at that time, Li was also leaving the Beast King Domain.

This way over, Lizzy did not know how many inner guts of magical beasts he had swallowed, and his strength had progressed greatly.

At this moment, Lin Ran actually had no idea in his heart just how powerful the Lizzy in the midst of a rage was.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran noticed that the black fog around him had actually started to exert a pressure on himself as well.

This pressure was not just on strength, but also on his own divine sense as well.

It was actually suppressing him on all fronts.

“Brother you come back first! Once Li gets angry these black mists will attack anyone!”

Little Nine was busy reminding.

Lin Ran nodded at his words and busily hid in the Qiankun Violet Qi Vase.

The Qiankun Violet Qi Vase was a divine weapon, so the black fog would naturally not affect it.

Lin Ran hid in the Qiankun Violet Qi Vase and looked at the black fog that filled the outside, his heart was worried.

Although Li had always been mysterious, the Green Demon Snake Woman was a Third Path Realm powerhouse.

It would take some time for him to deal with it, and it was still unknown if Li could stop her.

However, according to what Lin Ran saw at the end, nine times out of ten, Lizi was afraid that she would not be able to stop her.

After all, the bottle was already in her mouth, and she was just one last shiver away from devouring the dragon’s blood.

If this were to be snatched away by Lizzy, then this Green Demon Snake Lady would be too wronged.

“Let you snatch my food! Let you rob!”

In the black mist, Lizzy’s angry voice suddenly rang out.

This was followed by the crunching sound of “click, click, click”.

There was no telling what was going on.

“Whoosh!”

Suddenly, all the black fog around them converged in the direction of the Green Demon Snake Lady.

All at once, it was as if all the black fog was being pulled by a tug.

The black fog was extremely fast, and almost in the blink of an eye, it all disappeared in front of them, as Lin Ran could see clearly.

All of these black mists had actually disappeared into the Green Demon Snake Lady’s body.

At this moment, the Green Demon Snake Lady was frozen in place, motionless.

Her posture was extremely bizarre, still maintaining the same posture as before when she had tried to devour the dragon’s essence blood.

Her entire body’s skin had turned an earthy grey at this point, as if she was a statue, frozen in place and motionless.

“This?”

Lin Ran looked a little dumbfounded.

What kind of tactic was this, to actually be able to directly turn the Green Demon Snake Lady into this.

Moreover, it made this fellow freeze directly in place, and the giant dragon essence blood that was about to reach her mouth stopped at the edge of her mouth.

“This Green Demon Snake Lady is afraid that she’ll have to die of anger from Lizzy!”

Lin Ran laughed.

It was just a shiver away from the dragon’s essence blood, but it had become a stone’s throw away.

I’m afraid that even if it were anyone else at this point, they would have to be pissed off to death alive.

“I’ll let you snatch it! I’ll let you grab it!”

Li was just a short distance away next to her, her pink little paws constantly scratching at the Green Demon Snake Lady’s arm to express her displeasure.

“This guy! How on earth did he do that!”

Lin Ran gulped, and the heart he was carrying gradually relaxed and pulled down.

It was good that the result was still something he could accept.

After venting for a while, Li didn’t delay and flew directly next to the Green Demon Snake Lady and snatched the bottle out of her hand.

At this moment, Lin Ran clearly saw that the two snake pupils of the Green Demon Snake Woman had become blood-red and seemed to have become completely furious.

But the sculpted colour of her body was such that she couldn't move a bit.

She could only watch as Li took the dragon's essence blood away from her.

"Bang!"

With a muffled sound, Li had opened the cork of the bottle, and the next moment picked up the bottle and shoved it directly towards her mouth.

"Goo dong!"

The essence blood quickly went where it did not go into Lizzy's mouth.

Lizzy seemed to enjoy it very much, and after devouring the essence blood his whole body's white white hair instantly turned into a fiery red.

He let out two childish cries as he leaned up to the sky and then just plopped down on his knees in mid-air.

As Lizzy got down, a red glow soon began to emerge around him.

The red light quickly enveloped Li.

After just a few moments, Lizzy was wrapped up in a large cloud of red light so tightly that it was impossible to see inside.

"This is?"

Lin Ran looked stunned, this was the first time he had seen Lizzy like this.

"Lizzy's going to break through! Brother it's going to break through!"

Little Nine said excitedly.

"Breakthrough?"

Lin Ran was stunned at hearing this, it seemed like this guy would do this every time he finished devouring the inner bile before, right?

"Brother this time it's different!"

Little Nine was busy explaining.

"Before, although Lizzy would also shut down after devouring the inner bile, it was only shutting down to devour the inner bile's power!"

"This time it's breaking through, breaking through to the youth stage from the juvenile stage!"

"Breakthrough to the youth stage?"

Lin Ran was stunned and busy asking.

“What about after breaking through to the youth stage? What will happen to the strength?”

“I don’t know about that, but Uncle Zhen Yan seemed to have said that Li’s youth stage would be enough to rival a cultivator’s one hundred thousand eight hundred thousand realms.”

“Huh? Comparable to a cultivator’s Hundred Thousand Eight Hundred Realms?”

Lin Ran froze as he listened.

Wouldn’t this be stronger than even himself?

Lin Ran was somewhat helpless.

Also having arrived at the Immortal Realm, Pillow Book and the others had been cultivating for a thousand years.

He himself, however, had been asleep for a thousand years.

Everyone’s strength was stronger than his own, so he had accepted it.

As a result, the glaze that had left the Beast King Domain with him was now stronger than himself.

This made Lin Ran’s heart extremely speechless.

“Damn it! So I’m the weakest!”

“Haha! Isn’t that bad, brother? Look around you, Wolf Ba and Li Ba a hundred thousand eight hundred thousand realms and a peak Extreme Dao realm!”

“Sister Qing Zi is still a divine weapon, isn’t it bad to have so many experts protecting you?”

Xiao Jiu laughed.

“Great! Great, making it sound like you’re a professional soft-shelled eater!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

A comment that made Xiao Jiu smile even wider!

That was all Lin Ran had to say, he was naturally very happy with everyone’s strength being strong.

After all, Li Ba and Wolf Ba had both come to this Immortal Realm with himself.

If they could be strong, there was still hope that they could return to Earth in the future, even without themselves.

Even if they couldn’t go back, at least they would be able to protect themselves and live comfortably in the immortal world.

As he was thinking in his mind, there was a sudden “weng” tremor in front of him.

The next moment, Lin Ran saw it.

The layer of red light that Li was wrapped in actually began to swell up.

From the original size of a watermelon, it instantly soared to the size of three or four meters.

Because the expanding red light was being stretched so thin, Lin Ran could even vaguely see that a huge figure was trembling within the red light at this moment, as if it would break out of its shell at any moment.

“Ka ka ka!”

Finally, after just a few moments, a crack appeared on the red mass of light.

Then a “bang” sound was heard.

In an instant, the red light broke apart and a huge fiery red figure jumped out directly from within.

Lin Ran was dumbfounded at this moment, and his mouth opened wide in his place.

Only a moment later did he spit out a sentence.

“Holy shit! This is Li? It’s too racy too!”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1989

“It’s so beautiful!”

Little Nine on the side also couldn’t help but exclaim.

And at this moment, Li Ba and Wolf Ba who were inside the scroll space also shouted.

“Holy shit boss, this magical beast is too racy, ask him if he wants to be my mount!”

“Yes boss, I want it too!”

“Fuck off!”

Xiao Jiu opened his mouth to dislike him.

“Li is not going to be your mount!”

“No Little Sister Nine, let’s talk about it, how about being a brother for a day and getting him a magical beast liner!”

Wolf Ba laughed.

“No need for a day, I only need half a day!”

Li Ba was also busy saying.

“No way!”

Xiao Jiu, however, refused back in one breath.

It was no wonder that the two of them were moved, at this moment, Li Li was indeed too racy.

At this moment, they could see that Li Li was standing in front of them, and all of his fur had turned into fire red.

Every single hair seemed to be burning with fire flames.

He was the size of a tiger and had a single horn on top of his head, but it was black.

The two pupils emitted a golden light, and the overall appearance was like that of an unparalleled ferocious beast.

“This fellow’s original body should also be the Zhen Yan Fire Lynx!”

Lin Ran said to himself.

Li’s body size was similar to Zhen Yan’s, only much smaller.

However, the fur colour and condition were the same as Uncle Amazing’s original Amazing Fire Beast.

The only difference was the black horn on the top of his head.

The difference is the black horn on top of his head and the golden glow in his eyes.

The Amazing Fire Lynx’s body was as red as fire, but the difference between Li and the Amazing Fire Lynx was still very obvious.

“Li?”

Xiao Jiu tried to shout.

Li really looked back at Xiao Jiu, a trace of tenderness in her eyes.

“How is your strength now, Lizzy?”

Lin Ran asked.

“I don’t know, but killing her seems easy!”

Lizzy said, her voice not as childish as before and becoming much clearer.

As he spoke, Lin Ran then noticed that the Green Demon Snake Lady in front of him had surprisingly changed as well, the earthy grey colour of her entire body began to gradually fade away.

Her skin began to appear blood-coloured again, as if she was about to break free from her bonds as well.

“Be careful, she’s about to break free from her bindings!”

Lin Ran spoke up and warned.

Li, however, seemed to not care at all, turning her head and quietly looking at the Green Demon Snake Lady without speaking or making a move.

“Why aren’t you making a move?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“She’s too weak!”

Li said blandly.

Lin Ran smiled at this, what did he mean by she was too weak?

Had Lizzy really reached the Hundred Thousand and Eighty Thousand Realm?

As he thought in his mind, the skin on the Green Demon Snake Lady in front of him had completely changed back to its normal colour.

Following this, her eyes snapped to look at Lizzy at the side, with incomparable anger in her eyes.

“Bastard! Give me back my blood! Give me back my blood!”

The Green Demon Snake Maiden’s huge snake tail flung itself straight towards Lizzy.

She had been working hard here for decades, but in the end, she had done it for someone else, and the dragon’s essence blood that she had painstakingly guarded here, which she had easily refined, had actually been swallowed by this guy.

It was already a miracle that the Green Demon Snake Lady didn’t die of anger on the spot.

“The essence blood is gone, so it’s time for you to go on your way!”

Li looked at the Green Demon Snake Lady, his voice bland.

“I’m going on my way? What are you, sending me on my way?”

There was disdain in the Green Demon Snake Lady’s eyes, and her huge snake tail had already slapped in front of Li’s face.

However, it was as if Lizzy did not see it, just standing still in place without moving.

“Li!”

Xiao Jiu saw this and shouted.

The next moment, one of his claws lifted up and slapped the huge snake’s tail directly at him.

“Bang!”

A loud sound was heard, and the next moment the crowd was dumbfounded.

Only to see that Li’s claw instantly sent the Green Demon Snake Lady flying backwards and smashing heavily against a rock wall to the side.

“You.... How could you!”

There was panic in the Green Demon Snake Lady’s eyes, the other party had seriously injured herself with a single claw, this strength was clearly no longer something she could fight against!

“If it wasn’t for the fear of collapsing this place, you would have died with a single claw just now!”

There was disdain in Li’s eyes.

“Hand over your inner guts!”

“Don’t you dare!”

The Green Demon Snake Lady was instantly anxious.

If she handed over her inner guts, all her years of cultivation would go down the drain, and she would even turn into an ordinary magical beast.

At that time, her life would not be easily taken away by anyone.

“If you don’t hand it over, then you will die now!”

Li’s eyes fiercely chilled, and the next moment his body violently shot out.

As if a ball of fire, he instantly arrived in front of the Green Demon Snake Lady.

Without any stopping, he instantly passed through the Green Demon Snake Maiden’s body.

Before the Green Demon Snake Lady could react, her entire body had frozen in place.

Only to see that on her snake body, a huge wound was bubbling out with fresh blood.

Instead, Lizzy’s mouth was holding a green inner lining, big enough to be the size of a fist.

“No!”

The green demon snake woman looked like she was going crazy.

But the next moment Li opened her mouth and instantly swallowed the inner urchin.

“End it!”

Lin Ran saw this and instantly slashed his sword out to result in the life of the Green Demon Snake Lady.

The sword ranking mission made it so that this final strike had to be done by him.

“Boom!”

The huge body of the Green Demon Snake Lady fell straight to the ground, her breath already dissipated.

In normal times, Lin Ran Kendy would have collected this Green Demon Snake Lady’s corpse, after all, it could be exchanged for money when he took it to the auction house.

But after the last trip to the Immortal Palace, Lin Ran’s wealth was already quite large, so naturally he couldn’t see this corpse of the Green Demon Snake Lady.

Besides, this thing was so big that it took up space on his body.

Lin Ran opened the Sword Ranking Order and took a glance at it, seeing that the Green Demon Snake Lady’s quest had disappeared and that his points had increased by 10,000, he was satisfied.

“Get ready to go!”

Lin Ran greeted.

“Wait!”

Li, however, suddenly spoke up.

“What?”

Lin Ran looked at Lizzy and inquired.

“Isn’t it too bad that we’re leaving like this!”

Lizzy pointed at the remains of the giant dragon in the distance and said.

“Shit! You don’t still want to refine the dragon’s essence blood, do you? That alchemist is already dead!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Li, however, said with a heated smile.

“The alchemist is dead, but the giant dragon’s relic bones are still there!”

“Lin Ran, why don’t you help dig out all these dragon bones? We’ll take them back and find an alchemist to slowly refine them later?”

“I can feel that my strength is at a bottleneck right now, the kind of bottleneck of a hundred thousand or eight thousand realms that you mentioned, if I can refine the entire dragon remains! ”

“My strength will definitely be able to increase very much!”

Li was very excited.

Lin Ran was also a little excited as he listened.

Just kidding, above the Hundred Thousand and Eight Thousand Realms was the Star Realm and the Purple Sea Realm and these three realms were also known as the Middle Three Realms.

As long as one crossed the Violet Sea Realm, that side was the Upper Three Realms, and the lowest was the Small Perfection Realm.

If Glaze could reach the Upper Three Realms, wouldn’t he or she be able to walk across the Immortal Realm.

As long as the great powers sitting in the Immortal Emperor’s seat did not make a move, no one would be a match for Li at all.

But if one were to just agree to it, it wouldn’t work!

A large part of the dragon’s bones were still embedded in the rock wall, and the amount of work needed to dig them out was no joke!

If I couldn’t get any benefit from it, how could I do that?

Thinking of this, Lin Ran looked at Li and said with a smile.

“I can help you dig out the dragon bones, but I have a condition!”

“What condition?”

Lizzy looked at Lin Ran blearily.

“The condition is that you become my mount for a year!”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1990

“Deal!”

Lizzy didn’t even think about it and agreed straight away.

“You’re too spineless!”

Xiao Jiu looked displeased.

Li, however, laughed.

“It has nothing to do with backbone, Lin Ran’s nature is to my liking and I’m willing to be his mount!”

“And the essence blood of this giant dragon’s relic bone is too important to me!”

“Holy shit! We can help dig it up too!”

“Yeah! And me too! Or else you can be our mount for two days too?”

Li Ba and Wolf Ba were busy running out and saying.

It was inevitably impossible for Lin Ran to go digging on his own, and it was obvious that the two of them couldn’t escape by acting as drudges.

If they could let Li Li be their mount for a day or two, then they would be willing to accept even the most painful and tiring situation.

“You two? No way! Your qualifications are too poor, I won’t be your mounts!”

Lizzy refused straight away.

“Holy shit!”

“Damn it!”

Wolf Ba and Li Ba were simply furious.

This Li Li actually disliked them.

“Alright, Li’s original body is the Zhen Yan fire lynx, if you guys dare to force him, he’ll go back and tell Zhen Yan, and you’ll be finished!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Right! If you guys dare to force me, I’ll go tell Uncle Zhen Yan!”

Li waved his fist and said.

“Don’t dare!”

“Yes, yes! Don’t bother Lord Zhen Yan with such a trivial matter!”

The two men were so scared that they were busy saying.

They had all seen how strong Zhen Yan was.

And even if they took a step back, nowadays, Li's strength was not something that the two of them could fight against!

Just now, he had slapped the Green Demon Snake Lady into serious injury with a single slap, a strength that even Wolf Ba sighed to himself.

The power of that slap, Wolf Ba knew very well, was already at the peak of the Hundred Thousand Eight Hundred Realm.

Even he himself was quite inferior to it!

"Ai! Magical beasts still have the advantages of magical beasts, we've worked so hard for so long, and the moment someone breaks through, they directly overtake us!"

Wolf Ba said helplessly.

"All right! Stop whining and get to work!"

Lin Ran greeted.

The entire dragon relic bone was very large, and the Green Demon Snake Lady was too lazy to do anything about it, perhaps she hadn't wanted to dig out the entire dragon relic bone from the start.

Therefore, the entire underground space had only the head and a small section of the dragon's body exposed.

In the previous refinement, the Green Demon Snake Lady had used the dragon's head.

So at this point, all that was left for Lin Ran was the dragon's body.

Based on his visual inspection, Lin Ran could probably tell.

At least three quarters of the dragon's body was still in the rock wall.

However, this was not a mining excavation site, so they did not need to pay attention to the integrity.

As long as they collected all the dragon bones, they could find an alchemist to refine them later.

Under the incessant mining of Lin Ran, Wolf Ba and Li Ba.

Finally, after three months of mining in the dark, the entire dragon was finally dug out.

But the result of the speed was that the whole dragon was already completely unrecognisable.

In the end, all they collected was the remains of the dragon in pieces.

However, Lin Ran was already satisfied with the fact that he was able to collect the entire dragon's remains.

After loading up their things, Lin Ran and the others finally left this Fallen Dragon Valley.

Seeing the sunlight outside again, Lin Ran and the others could not help but let out a long breath and stretch their legs.

They hadn't seen the sun for three months, and even if they were cultivators, they were going crazy.

"Boss, I don't care! You have to treat us well this time!"

Wolf Ba said discontentedly.

"How do you want to treat in?"

Lin Ran asked as he lay on Li's back with great enjoyment.

"That's easy, weren't there a lot of rivers on the road when we came here before? Let's go and touch the fish!"

"Touch the fish? Go!"

Lin Ran had a craving for it himself at the sound of it.

He was a bit tired from all the hard work he had done in the past three months, so this time he could go and smear some fish to quench his thirst.

As soon as he said that he would do it, Lin Ran led the group straight to the nearby river.

They didn't dare to touch fish in this Fallen Dragon Valley to eat.

This place had been occupied by the Green Demon Snake Lady for so many years, who knew if the fish were poisonous or not.

The most crucial thing was that there were no fish in the river here either.

The three of them left the Fallen Dragon Valley, then found a river bank and started to feel the fish in the water.

Lin Ran was also having a great time.

A few moments later, ten big fish were caught.

Naturally, Lin Ran was the one who did the grilling himself.

But he was so skilled that it didn't take long for all the fish to be roasted.

Everyone ate them in a hurry.

As they ate, they kept lamenting that it was a great loss to the culinary world if they didn't go to the stall.

Lin Ran came to the side and ate the grilled fish while opening the sword list.

The mission of the green demon snake woman was completed, but I still lacked 90,000 points to exchange for the law of indestructibility.

Since I was out, I had to get more points before going back.

Lin Ran thought and browsed through the sword list information.

Those with more than 30,000 points were all at least at the Extreme Dao Realm.

Lin Ran didn't want to bang these difficult bones just yet.

After this incident with the Green Demon Snake Lady, Lin Ran had also discovered that none of these people registered by the Sword Ranking were easy to mess with.

It would be easier to deal with the Three Dao Realm itself, but if he dealt with the Extreme Dao Realm he would have to use Wolf Ba Li and the others to help.

This was something Lin Ran did not want to see.

After all, he still had to rely on himself in his cultivation.

Originally, he had planned to send Wolf Ba and the others to the Feng family first, so that they would have a place to cultivate.

However, after thinking about it, Lin Ran decided to take the mission first and see what happened.

If the mission was not far from him, he could go and complete it first and send them back.

Lin Ran flipped through the list of 10,000 points.

There were quite a few people with 10,000 points.

Soon Lin Ran saw a name, "Bear King of Liangcheng!"

Liangcheng? I think I've seen it somewhere when I came here!

"Do you guys remember where Liangcheng is?"

Lin Ran asked.

"I know, I bought a map when we came over, Cool City is around Waiting City, but it's a long way away!"

Wolf Ba said as he took out his own map.

Lin Ran also flipped out his own map.

This Waiting City happened to be the town they had teleported directly from East Flag City.

It was sort of the only town around this area that had a teleportation array.

Lin Ran's map didn't have the location of Liangcheng marked on it.

But on Wolf Ba's map, it was marked as such.

This Cool City was just a few hundred kilometres outside Waiting City.

There wasn't even a village around it, and only a solitary Cool City stood here.

"The area around this Cool City is too desolate, how could someone have set up a town here?"

Lin Ran frowned as he watched.

But soon he spotted the problem.

This Cool City was near a mountain range, so one would think that it would be a place that relied on hunting magical beasts and mining timber.

“Whatever! We’re located right in the middle of Cool City and Waiting City, so we can instead go and finish this Bear King before heading back!”

Lin Ran did some calculations and instantly claimed this quest for the Bear King of Cool City!

“Weng!”

As soon as Kindle’s seal fell, an instant stream of information came into Lin Ran’s mind.

“The Bear King of Cool City, the city lord of Cool City, with strength in the middle of the Third Dao Realm and a combat power comparable to the peak of the Third Dao Realm! Reward points of ten thousand!”

Mid Three Dao Realm? But his combat power is at the peak of the Third Dao Realm?

Looks like another difficult bone to chew!

Lin Ran sighed and rose to greet the crowd when he saw that they had all eaten almost enough.

“Let’s go, set off for Cool City!”
