

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1999

“Boss! Take care of yourself!”

“Yes boss, make sure to inform us if anything happens!”

Amidst Wolf Ba and Li Ba’s admonitions, Lin Ran left the Feng family with Li and Xiao Jiu.

“Brother! Where are we going?”

Xiao Jiu asked curiously.

“I don’t know, let’s see what other missions there are first!”

Lin Ran laughed.

He himself now had 20,000 points, and was still a full 80,000 short of the Art of Undying.

Even if he were to find all of his enemies in the Three Dao Realms to hunt down and kill, he was afraid that it would take him a good three months to complete the mission.

And one’s current Sword Dao had already reached a bottleneck, as long as one practiced the third style of the Ten Thousand Swords Extermination, one could no longer advance in the East Flag City Sword Dao.

As for the Dao of Lightning, one has also obtained the Heavenly Lightning, and divine lightning is unattainable.

For a long time to come, I was afraid that I would have to keep the company of Heavenly Lightning.

Moreover, this Heavenly Lightning is still a Purple Qiong Light, and it is entirely possible to reach the level of Divine Lightning by chance in the future.

In other words, I am not that desperate for Heavenly Lightning.

As for the two dao of Feng Shui, they are completely minor dao among the hundred thousand and eight thousand realms and do not need to be deliberately cultivated.

After analysing his situation, Lin Ran found that what he seemed to lack the most nowadays was still the Art of Undying.

“Got to find a way to exchange the Art of Undying first!”

“Even if something big is really going to happen in Immortal Emperor City, if I don’t have the absolute means to protect my life, I’m afraid that it will be very dangerous to go there!”

Lin Ran calculated in his mind.

Opening the Sword List, Lin Ran searched around and eventually chose an opponent at the early stage of the Extreme Dao Realm.

The Third Dao Realm was no longer a threat to the current Lin Ran.

Whether it was the Green Demon Snake Lady or the Bear King.

It simply could not allow him to exert his full strength.

The Heavenly Thunder Transformation and the power of Chaotic Cyclone hadn't even been used by him.

This was undoubtedly somewhat of an insufficient grind on his cultivation.

So this time he had directly chosen a strong person at the early stage of the Extreme Dao Realm.

This person's name was Hai Tuo, and he was the lord of a mountain fortress.

He had always dominated the mountain and made himself king, and could be said to be a great pest in the nearby generation.

After Lin Ran had chosen him as his target, he rushed straight over.

After searching for three days, he finally found him in a mountain range.

Later, after a day of fierce battles, he was finally killed after Lin Ran had used all his means.

This Haituo had directly provided Lin Ran with 15,000 points.

There was only 65,000 left until 100,000!

Lin Ran took a short rest and then began to continue his hunting mission.

Time passed day by day, as Lin Ran continued to hunt and kill.

In the Sword Immortal Sect's auction house, as well as in the cultivation community of East Flag City.

The name "Burn" gradually began to be mentioned by the crowd.

"Hey, guess who this Burn could be?"

"I don't know! But it seems very mysterious!"

"Who cares, as long as he doesn't come looking for us!"

"Yeah yeah, you're talking, it's said that everyone he comes after ends up dead!"

"Shit, when you say that, why does it feel like he's just like the Grim Reaper!"

"It was, it's said that his mount was so fierce that one of the elders of the Ten Thousand Dharma Hall was directly swallowed alive by his mount just a few days ago!"

"Shit! Really, it's so terrifying!"

Rumours of the burning incident were circulating in almost every tavern in the streets and alleys of the entire Eastern Flag Domain.

Inside the Sword Immortal Sect's auction house.

"Sect Master, isn't this Burn too high profile! Do we need to remind him of that!"

One of the elders spoke up and asked.

"No need!"

Tai Xuanzi shook his head and said.

“But if this goes on, I’m afraid that someone will notice this assassination force!”

The elders were worried.

“So what if they notice it, no one will know it’s someone from our Sword Immortal Sect!”

“Moreover, recently, there have been frequent disturbances in Immortal Emperor City, and it is said that the Immortal Emperor’s son, Immortal King Fu Gu, has even obtained the Immortal Emperor’s supreme immortal weapon, the “Tai Cang Diagram”!”

“I’m afraid that this Immortal Emperor City is about to make a big move, this storm of assassination will soon be covered up!”

Tianxuanzi said.

“The Tai Cang Diagram? That’s a real immortal weapon!”

The elder exclaimed in shock.

“Right, so don’t worry, what can really affect the pattern is still the change in this Immortal Emperor City!”

Tian Xuanzi said.

“There’s not much time left for him, it’s better not to bother him during this time, so that he can adapt to the cruelty of the Immortal World as soon as possible!”

“When the time comes and the Immortal Emperor City chance reveals the news a little, the entire Immortal Realm will fearfully be shaken by it!”

“Sect Master, can you guess what exactly is brewing in this Immortal Emperor City?”

The elder asked busily.

Tian Xuanzi shook his head and then said.

“It’s hard to say, but it’s definitely not something good! The Immortal Realm has been divided into three parts for so long, the Immortal Emperor is afraid that he has already been unable to hold back!”

“After so many years of holding back, I’m afraid that he’s ready to completely unify the Immortal Realm!”

“Unify the Immortal Realm?”

The elder’s brows furrowed as he listened.

The Immortal World had been divided into three parts for such a long time, how could it be unified by just talking about it!

“We’ll have to see exactly what moves are made in Immortal Emperor City!”

“I’m afraid that it will soon be made known to the world!”

Tian Xuanzi said.

Time passed day by day, and Lin Ran was still constantly hunting down and killing people who were only on the Sword Ranking.

After a month, Lin Ran's Sword Ranking points had reached a terrifying 50,000!

There was only an average left to the Art of Undying.

And in the constant battles, Lin Ran's strength had finally reached the middle stage of the Three Dao Realm.

At the same time, news had finally arrived from Immortal Emperor City.

A message that was personally made known to the world by Immortal King Fu Gu, the son of the Immortal Emperor.

"Immortal Emperor City will soon hold a grand opportunity conference!"

"Regardless of whether it is the Anti-Alliance or the Beast King Domain, as long as the strength is under the Hundred Thousand and Eighty Thousand Realms, all cultivators can participate!"

"Those who eventually win the top one hundred will all receive one hundred thousand cubes of spirit liquid!"

"The top fifty will even receive an additional 500,000 cubes of spirit liquid!"

"The top ten will, in addition to that, receive an extremely high quality Hundred Thousand Eight Hundred Realm Armament!"

"And for winning the first place, in addition to the above rewards, Immortal King Fu Gu will even grant him/her a wish!"

"Whether that wish is to be crowned king and worship a minister, or a half-step immortal weapon or even the release of a prisoner currently held by the Immortal Emperor, it will all be granted!"

When the news came out, the entire Immortal Realm continent was shaken.

Such a reward could be said to be unprecedented.

No one was unmoved.

All things at once paled in front of the great opportunity of Immortal Emperor City.

Even Lin Ran's heart was moved.

He didn't care about the 500,000 cubes of spirit liquid, what he really cared about was the wish for first place.

If he could get first place, then wouldn't Su Rou be released!

"Su Sa is afraid that she will also go!"

Lin Ran's first thought was Su Sa, as Su Rou's disciple, her obsession to save Su Sa was too strong, and she would definitely not miss this Immortal Emperor City Opportunity Conference.

"But what exactly is the purpose of Immortal Emperor City making such a big commotion?"

Lin Ran was puzzled in his heart, the Immortal Emperor couldn't be so kind, making such a big commotion obviously had some other purpose.

It was just that Immortal Emperor City hadn't announced it, so no one knew exactly what the purpose was!

But even so, almost the entire Immortal World shook when the news came out, the reward alone was already very attractive!

For many cultivators, the spirit liquid was not what attracted them the most, but rather the desire to win the first place!

Imagine if someone won first place and proposed that I wanted to become a half-step Immortal King, then they would definitely be fully cultivated by Immortal Emperor City.

It would only be a matter of time before he became a half-step Immortal King!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2000

"I just don't know when the time is set!"

Lin Ran rushed to the other mission destination he had picked up while calculating in his mind.

The news that had come out of Immortal Emperor City this time had undoubtedly directly set off the entire Immortal Realm.

Even the Anti-Alliance and the Beast King Domain had people starting to gear up and prepare just waiting for the time to be announced.

In the Beast King Domain, on the small island in the heart of the lake in the Forest of Beast Kings.

Zhen Yan sat cross-legged under a giant tree in the sky.

"Lord Beast King!"

A voice suddenly came, followed by a youth who appeared in front of Zhen Yan.

The youth was wearing a beast skin, his expression was cold and stern, while on his eyes there were actually two red scars, which added a bit of wild beauty to the look of a man.

"Sky Wolf! Are you ready?"

Zhen Yan suddenly spoke up and asked.

"My lord, I am ready! For the sake of my demonic beast clan, I will go through fire and water!"

Sky Wolf's voice was firm, and there was even more fervour in his eyes.

“Very well, then you can set off! The things I have prepared for you are enough for you to protect yourself!”

“Remember, you must protect yourself, and if something happens to Li in the future, you will be the successor of my Beast King Domain!”

Zhen Yan’s voice was solemn.

“Li will be fine, I will protect it!”

Tian Wolf said.

Magic beasts were different from humans, they had a common king, and that side was Zhen Yan.

Although some magical beasts did not live in the Beast King Domain, as long as the magical beasts were in the Beast King Domain, then they were definitely all subservient to Zhen Yan.

The Sky Wolf’s loyalty to Zhen Yan did not need to be doubted in the slightest.

“This time when you go to Immortal Emperor City, if you see Lin Ran, thank him for me for taking care of Li!”

“Yes!”

“Right, there’s one more thing you must keep in mind!”

Zhen Yan’s face suddenly turned serious as he said.

“From what I know about the old Immortal Emperor, there’s no way he Jedi would have staged this so-called chance conference without an advantage!”

“There must be another purpose behind it! If you see Lin Ran, you must instruct him not to participate in anything after the Opportunity Conference!”

“The Immortal Emperor’s purpose must be after the Opportunity Conference!”

“Yes, my lord!”

Skywolf respectfully replied.

“All right, you set off! Protect yourself, and be careful at all times in human territory!”

Zhen Yan said and waved his hand.

Skywolf saluted respectfully and left in a whirl.

Meanwhile, in a huge palace within the Anti-Alliance.

A young woman was respectfully kneeling on the ground.

And at this moment, in front of the woman, a woman figure shrouded in black robes was standing with her hands folded.

“Linglong, are you ready?”

The black-robed woman suddenly spoke.

“In reply to Master Long, Linglong is all ready!”

The woman in kneeling clothes respectfully replied.

“Very well!”

Master Long nodded, and then with a wave of his palm instantly a man dressed all in black tights appeared next to him.

The man was not fit, and he could not see his face clearly, but he stood there as if he were a viper in the darkness of the night.

“For you, your Uncle Cat has rushed back from the Immortal Emperor Domain, so go back and pack up and leave with your Uncle Cat immediately! Go to Immortal Emperor City!”

“Yes, Master Long!”

The woman said respectfully.

“Alright, you go down first! I have something to say to your Uncle Cat!”

The black robed woman said.

Linglong saluted respectfully then got up and left as she did so.

“Are Big Brother Leng and Big Brother War both alright? How are your missions in the Immortal Emperor Domain going?”

The black-robed woman asked busily.

“It’s all going pretty well, but on the contrary, we got a message not long ago, I don’t know if it’s true or not, I was going to investigate it properly, but there was a change of heart!”

Uncle Cat said.

“What is it?”

The black-robed woman was busy questioning.

The man in black was silent for a moment and spoke.

“We got a message from the boss!”

“Weng!”

At those words, the man could clearly see the black-robed woman’s eyes under her black robe instantly light up!

“A message from him? He’s not in.”

“I know, but after all, we haven’t been in the Beast King Domain since we left!”

“For thousands of years, only the four of them, Song Nuan, would still go occasionally!”

“So this situation is afraid that they are clear after that!”

Said the man in black and continued after a pause.

“And it was Luo Yi who passed on the news of the boss when we first heard about it!”

“At that time, she told the East Flag City Master to search for the Boss throughout the East Flag Domain! Unfortunately, there had been no results!”

“Have you guys contacted Roy?”

The woman in black was busy asking.

“No!”

“We wanted to make secret contact, but she left just as we arrived at East Flag City! At the same time, we pried that Song Nuan and Qin Bing had also left their respective clans, and we were afraid that it was related to this Opportunity Conference in Immortal Emperor City!”

Uncle Cat said.

“Alright I get it, your mission is the priority, and Roy should be reminding us of this by spreading this news!”

“When you guys are working in the Immortal Emperor Domain, you incomparably have to keep an eye out, if you really have news of him immediately bring him to the Anti-Alliance!”

The black-robed woman said.

“Understood!”

Uncle Cat nodded, and then left.

Apart from these two forces that were in opposition to Immortal Emperor City.

Various other great clans, great sects and even some reclusive geniuses had also moved on!

As the saying goes, the times make the heroes, and after ten million years of silence in the Immortal Realm with the three major powers divided.

Finally a dark storm was about to open up again.

It was clear to everyone that the Immortal Emperor’s City Opportunity Conference was just a lead-in, and that the Immortal Emperor’s true purpose would come to light after the Opportunity Conference!

All the younger generation moved, they all wanted to seize this opportunity, either to build a career for the Immortal Emperor and make a success of themselves.

Or to find their chance to become immortal in the midst of the chaos!

All the quiet and peace began to change after the news of the Immortal Emperor’s City spread.

Countless geniuses across the Immortal Realm continent stirred at the sound of the news.

Lin Ran, however, was as if nothing had happened, still carrying out his mission on his own.

Time soon passed by for another month.

During this month, Lin Ran had hardly rested, and the rewards were equally great.

After a month of constant busyness, Lin Ran's strength had also faintly felt like he was about to reach the peak of the Third Dao Realm.

Only the last barrier had not yet been broken through.

However, the points did not lie, and at this time, Lin Ran's Sword Ranking Order points had already reached a full 80,000.

He was only 20,000 points away from the Undying Art he wanted.

In a tavern in a small town, Lin Ran opened his Sword Ranking Token and prepared to accept his last quest.

A quest that only required 20,000 points.

Once he completed this one mission, he could return to the Sword Immortal Sect to exchange his Undying Art!

"Granny Leng?"

Soon after, Lin Ran found this 20,000 points mission on the Sword Ranking Order list.

It just surprised Lin Ran that this Granny Leng was only at the peak of the Third Dao Realm!

"Fifteen thousand points are already at the Extreme Dao Realm, how come this Leng Granny only has the strength of the Third Dao Realm and actually has twenty thousand points?"

Lin Ran was puzzled in his heart.

But still, he took it, after these two months of practice, he would rarely hesitate anymore.

This was because he had discovered that almost all of the people on this Sword Ranking Order were villains who were unforgivable.

It was just that this Leng Granny's strength and points were clearly not equal, which made Lin Ran's heart a little puzzled.

He didn't know whether it was because of this Leng Granny's great tactics or some other reason, but in any case such high points.

This Leng Granny was afraid that she would not be easy to deal with!
