

Chapter 201: Jian Ji's new talent, witch's new profession

"Consumption 15 points."

"Ash Heath can exploit the weaknesses of threats: Igola Borkin, Archibald Harvey, Liz."

"...what?"

For a moment, Igola really thought that he had an extremely important place in Ashiu's heart, and almost ecstatic in his heart-won't he who is favored will be able to squeeze the leader of this violent cult in the future?

However, when he saw the name Liz, he calmed down: He and Harvey are nothing more than fellow citizens + comrades in adversity, but they have just met each other for less than a day, and they almost pitted A Xiu. How could the little girl in the second half of her life become a bargaining chip to threaten Ya Xiu?

If Liz was kidnapped and burned to death without paying a ransom, according to the temperament of Ashiu, he should think about giving a match or giving it fuel.

It's impossible because Liz is a cute little white-haired loli, so let's treat Axiu differently!

Igola is also good-looking, and he ranks higher than Lisi on the list of beauties, so I don't want to be pitted by Yaxiu!

Therefore, the “Gospel” here is obviously wrong: Igola, Harvey, and Liz are the characters who have the closest relationship with Ashiu and are in the same camp, so the Gospel mistakenly regards them as an alliance of interests, and inferred that The weakness of Ah Xiu is the three of them.

If Igola is right, Harvey’s weakness must be him, Axiu, and Liz. But he didn’t bother to verify-15 points were gone. Now his source of wealth depends on Miss An Nan, so he has to spend it cautiously!

It turns out that revelation means this. If he asks a question about Ash Heath, the Gospel will definitely give the wrong answer.

I blame Asia Xiu!

These 15 points must be returned thousands of times to Ya Xiu!

Axiu, who was sitting across from Ikola, didn’t know that he had inadvertently owed another debt. He was watching the reply of the gospel and frowned slightly.

“Can almighty wish allow me to travel back to my own world?”

“1 point is consumed.”

“Almighty wish can travel through time and space, and through the world, but whether it can travel through a specific world requires specific analysis of specific circumstances.”

‘Analysis of specific circumstances’, as soon as I saw this official response, Ya Xiu was about to trigger traumatic stress disorder. He has heard too many words like this in the workplace, and the subtext is “I can do this, but I don’t want to try my best to do it for you.”

But on the other hand, this remark also gave Asia a lot of confidence.

If the gospel vowed to say ‘absolutely,’ Ah Xiu would doubt whether this * Lord is a fellow of Ikola—no matter what world he is in, only a liar can guarantee that all your wishes will be fulfilled.

In other words, if I can get this almighty wish, can I go home?

After realizing this hope, Ya Xiu was not too excited. It's not that he doesn't care about his mother's old hot soup and his father's nagging, but as he said to Jian Ji in the virtual world, he is not the kind of person who has to rely on any wish to survive.

It's too sad to embrace hope with self-righteousness, and then sink into disappointment with self-righteousness.

When Adam came to this world, he never expected to go back alive.

Therefore, I got this omnipotent wish and succeeded in going back and continue to face all kinds of pressures to urge marriage, mortgage and retirement. It is certainly good enough to resign and celebrate;

But if this omnipotent wish is not so omnipotent, Ya Xiu will not be too disappointed;

If he can't get it, Ya Xiu will only curse the lucky one in circles, and forget about it later.

After verifying the availability of Almighty Wish, Ya Xiu suddenly felt that he had nothing to ask.

What kind of magic spirit is summoned? What kind of magic faction is it suitable for? But his cultivation experience is full of water, not even a bit of dry goods. It is completely relying on Jian Ji as a pendant to have the strength of today. There is no need and no ability for him to practice independently-'diligence' and 'focus' are The foundation of all magicians, but after passing the third year of high school, Asia Xiu lost these two skills.

There is no need to ask if the existing Shu Ling is used efficiently. Because as long as Ya Xiu can explore the virtual realm, he will surely upgrade the Shu Ling soon. Except for the Heart Sword, Stand-in, Earth Sword, and Wind Wall, the other Shu Ling must be replaced, or replaced. Become a high-level Shu Ling, or directly enter the cold palace.

Just like Freya wouldn't be too picky about the masons that only used one night, Ya Xiu was not interested in wasting his thoughts on this batch of magic spirits that were about to be replaced.

This development strategy can even be further deepened-it is not necessary to waste resources on Asia Xiu, the pendant must have the awareness of the pendant, don't try to surpass the talents of the operators with effort and resources!

Self-knowledge is my strength, Ya Xiu!

With a thought, he opened the "Aurora's Handbook for Magicians", and a message popped up immediately.

"Growth Report of the Dead Sword Princess 4.26~5.2"

"Swordsmanship Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Lights Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Water Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Mind Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Magical Power: Silver Full Wing → Golden Void Wing"

"Cultivation evaluation: S!"

"Because of the S-rank evaluation, the dead berserk sword girl has received the professional enhancement of the wizard's manual: soul-breaking silver wizard → mad dancer!"

"Dancer·Professional Features: Attacking the same target can increase the attack speed by 2%, up to 5 times, and the transfer of the attack target will immediately be invalid."

“Because of the increase in mana, the talent of the Dead Sword Girl has increased!”

“Because of the S-rank evaluation, the dead berserk sword girl got the professional assessment task “Kuangwu”!”

“Mad Dance: Perform 10,000 effective slashes in the next 7 days. After completing the mission, you can permanently solidify the professional characteristics of the Mad Dancer! Current progress (0/10000).”

Ya Xiu didn’t expect that the Magician’s Manual could actually make a new trick for him—why is it the personal welfare of Jian Ji? He wants it too!

Permanently solidify the class characteristics, that is to say, even if you change to a new class next time, Jian Ji still has the characteristic of ‘dancing wild’ with attack acceleration, which is equivalent to an additional passive skill.

Ya Xiu naturally understands the power of this mechanism: this time it can solidify the ‘crazy dance’ feature, what about next time? Next time?

This is equivalent to that Jian Ji and other operators have a strengthening system other than Shu Ling. It is not that Jian Ji can crush ordinary two-wing mages with this. In fact, in the current situation, ordinary two-wing mages can easily be crushed. They crushed the two black households who smuggled to the mainland of time—but with the long-term training, more and more solidified professional characteristics, the combat power of the operators will also usher in a day of accumulation.

It’s like a part-time job. Even if the salary is the same, your colleague can still collect rent after working. In the past ten years, you haven’t collected the down payment, and the colleague has already borrowed to buy a second set.

Only this professional assessment task is not easy to handle. It was naturally and casually completed before, but now he and Jian Ji’s souls don’t know when they can fully recover. I can ask Jian Ji to work part-time in the slaughterhouse...

In addition to this, Jian Ji’s talent has also become stronger!

“Intrinsic talent-Sword Ji (median position): get an extra 150% swordsmanship experience, a low chance of gaining 10000% swordsmanship experience, and a very low chance to trigger the phantom of Yu Huanglong (the talent level can be unlocked after the strength is increased

The talent of Sword Fairy has also been raised to the mid-level, which is similar to that of the Witch, but just like the Witch has a chance to trigger the ‘Bronze Dragon’s Favor’, the Sword Fairy also has the probability to trigger the ‘Phantom of the Resent Huanglong Dragon’. A detailed description will pop up.

Sword Ji’s training strategy has nothing to say. Although the system is suggesting entertainment time, Ya Xiu still does not accept this suggestion.

What a big deal, tell Jian Ji a few more cold jokes in the virtual world, I am her entertainment equipment!

When Adam opened the interface of the black and white witch, he found that after only one day, the black and white witch had made great changes—

“Occupation: Daughter of the Bronze Dragon”

“Professional characteristics: The girl who is favored by the bronze dragon is in a special curse state. After the curse is removed, the bronze dragon’s blessing can be obtained. Under the curse state, the black and white witch gains the learning efficiency of all factions -75% and the effect of lucky check +10.”

“Example of a curse: a girl turns into an old woman, and the curse can be lifted by getting a kiss of true love, but she cannot tell others about the content of the curse.”

“Curse of Knowledge: Bronze Dragon Secret Poison”

This curse... looks pretty fairy tale.

No wonder the witch did not let Ya Xiu ask about her condition. It turned out that she was also gagged, and she asked for nothing.

But with that said, is the witch's current state of reality an old woman?

may not even be a human being, maybe it has become a frog or a rabbit, or a fat man.

It's just that the debuff of this profession is too strong, and the learning efficiency is -75% directly with half the effort, UU reading www. The uukanshu.com gain only has +10 on Lucky Checks, which is equivalent to the former career "Cult Leader" of Ya Xiu, but the cult leader does not have such a serious negative effect except for turning Ya Xiu into a rat crossing the street.

To put it simply, this profession is currently a pure negative benefit, similar to the eternal robber of Asia Xiu.

However, according to the principle of "the greater the risk, the higher the return" in the world of wizards, the "Blessing of the Bronze Dragon" that the witch gets after the curse is lifted should be very strong, maybe it is a direct dragon-then what will Ya Xiu sit in the Void Realm? Automatic car, be a dragon knight directly!

The other is that the witch suddenly added a bronze dragon secret poison, which may have been obtained after triggering the 'Bronze Dragon's Favor'. Ya Xiu wanted to see the content of this secret poison, but a prompt popped up:

"You don't know this secret poison."

Nonsense, how can I know if you don't tell me! ?

A Xiu estimated that the secret poison is different from other data. If the player does not know it, it will not be displayed, so as to avoid the player being fed by the operator-like the expulsion of the secret poison, Ya Xiu would rather not know.

As she was preparing to arrange a training strategy, Ah Xiu suddenly scratched his head: The Witch's talent is undoubtedly the Time Faction, but the Golden Faction she majored in is the Fist Faction. Obviously, the Witch's main output method is also Fist, and Ah Xiu happens to be. There is a training glove with a +15% efficiency. Is the training direction of the witch to choose the fist faction or the time faction?

Before replacing it, Ah Xiu chose whatever he wanted, but now he has the "Gospel", so he can go directly to the gospel!

"I have a friend..."

Chapter 202: Preparation before cheating

At this time, Igola finished inquiring about his next development route, with a very complicated expression on his face.

The smoking butler boy paid attention to this scene and asked: "Mr. Bokin, do you have any questions?"

"It's nothing, I just think... the people here are really happy."

Igola's tone was a little lonely: "The answer I got by spending 82 points just now is placed in the previous country. It is a guide that I can't exchange it for no matter how much money I spend. However, Mr. Butler, you have lived here since you were a child, and you should not be able to understand it. Isn't it the emotion of a countryman like me?"

"This is not necessarily." Panji smiled: "Although the gospel is selflessly spread to the world, not everyone is qualified to consume the gospel. When I prayed for the gospel for the first time, I was shocked by the greatness of the All-Knowing Weaver."

"Speaking of which, I have had a question since last night." Igola asked: "The number of all lists is less than 10,000, and the number of lists on each list is only 10. The list is less than 100,000, and being on the list is the only source of points, so how do ordinary people get points?"

“Organize the list.” Pan Jiyang said concisely: “For example, if the funeral agency is on the list, the lady will give me a certain percentage of the profit. As long as ordinary people join the top ten companies in various fields that can be listed, the salary is basically contains points.”

“In addition, the points on the list of various types of cities will also be shared among workers in various fields. For example, a large part of the points in the “Public Security List” must be distributed to red hats. Basically, as long as citizens who pay taxes normally, they will be paid at the end of the year. Get certain bonus points.”

Igola nodded: “Sounds fair...”

Axiu, who was editing the question, raised his eyebrows: “Igola, do you really think it’s fair?”

Igola subconsciously wanted to refute, but when he saw Panji’s unexpected expression, he knew that Ah Xiu was right. It’s just that the deceiver thought for a long time, and didn’t think of any strangeness here.

“Igola, you are a smart person, naturally you can’t see the deceit in it.” Harvey smiled: “Because you are pretty sure that you can join a good company through hard work, get the first points, and then gradually snowball slowly. Slowly grow up. But thinking about it with a corpse, you know that the positions or companies that can share points are limited. Those who are eligible to compete for these positions must use points to improve themselves into high-quality talents in all aspects.”

“Points are a universal currency, no one too much, and unlike wealth, no matter how extravagant a person is, there is an upper limit, but the points can be used up easily. Therefore, the Gospel Kingdom must follow the 28th law, and a large number of points flow in. In the hands of a small number of people. In addition, there is a family system here. The more profound the accumulation of parental generations, the easier it is for children to be on the list.

“Isn’t it?” Igola frowned, “There should be free basic education—”

“So, Igola, you are too smart to see through.” Harvey said, “Can a child in the same nursing home as you become a two-wing wizard like you? Your wisdom and self-discipline It has long been beyond the scope of ordinary people. You can improve your knowledge system only by self-study, but ordinary people need guidance and check for missing vacancies when learning. This is where the points come into play.”

“Of course, maybe I guessed it wrong.” Harvey looked at Panji: “Points are really a gift from the Gospel Kingdom, and they haven’t become a barrier between classes.”

Panji shook the soot from his palm, and smiled: “Mr. Harvey, you are basically right, but because of the loopholes in the gospel, the social system of the Gospel Kingdom is not that simple.”

“Vulnerability?”

“Miss didn’t seem to mention this,” Panji said: “Except for the ‘criminal lists’ of the murder list, most normal lists will consider personal credit.”

Almost instantly, Yaxiu saw a strange light in the eyes of Igola and Harvey—that was the joy of the laid-off workers suddenly discovering that there was a new job.

“Although not all crimes will be caught, in fact, even if crimes such as murder are committed, as long as the red hat does not find out, it is equivalent to having never done it. But the gospel will record all illegal acts into the credit report. If someone suddenly drops off the list, As long as the red hat is willing to check, most of it will be rewarded.”

“The loophole in the gospel is that as long as you don’t do it yourself, it won’t affect your credit report.”

“So those who are not qualified to be on the list also have jobs that they can do.”

Igola thoughtfully: “I thought the office was the organization responsible for the dirty work...”

“The office doesn’t work wet or dry. At most, it trims branches and leaves, removes insects and bacteria.” Panji pointed to the outside of the balcony with smoke: “Azura is actually a three-story city.”

“The two-story canopy of the sun, the one-story trunk that entangles the earth.”

“And the one responsible for absorbing nourishment...a layer of roots.”

...

Azura Sewer, Mermaid Palace.

“Are you really planning to buy a dehumidifier?” An Nan squatted by the pool and complained, “It’s so slimy and uncomfortable.”

“The humidity is just right for our Kraken.” Slimolo in the pool danced lazily, splashing water from his tail fin, and was blocked by An Nan’s barrier: “Don’t make trouble, I don’t want to get wet. Go back.”

“You can change clothes here.” Slimolo put his hands on the poolside, speaking as if singing: “Anyway, your office has been removed from the task list. You must not be entrusted by you who betrayed your employer. Why not come and play with me in such a free time.”

“You are really well informed.”

“Water knows everything.”

Slimolo dragged his chin, raised his head and looked at An Nan: “Why don’t you just join us as a mermaid? Although you are not a sea monster, you certainly can’t become a ten sea witch, but I will reuse you and hold a bubble ceremony for you. !”

“Thank you for your kindness.” An Nan said angrily: “But I don’t have anyone I like, and I’m not interested in losing my voice.”

The kraken is a branch of the murloc, but it is very different from the murloc: the murloc derives its limbs and maintains the characteristics of a fish, while the kraken has the upper body and is not much different from a human, except that the head retains the fin like a coral. Thorny, but the lower body is like a snake like a fish.

Thanks to the outstanding prophetic faction talent, in the inner world of the Gospel Kingdom, the sea monsters are almost the only uncrowned kings, and they are born to get the most information from the gospels at the lowest cost. The ten sea witches took root in the nine most prosperous cities in the Gospel Kingdom. For example, the Slimolo in front of An Nan, and all the members of the entire Azura organization must be controlled by her.

The Kraken does not refuse outsiders to join, but it requires new members to pass the bubble ritual: murder their lover or lose their voice. Complete one of them to gain the trust of the Kraken, and even share part of the Kraken's prophetic talents, but at the same time. Losing the qualification to log in to the normal list is equivalent to a vote of the li organization.

"I need to—"

"If you want to talk about things, then you know the rules."

An Nan was stagnant, helplessly lying on the ground and starting to do push-ups.

Mermaids have a very strange hobby—they like watching people do sports, they usually fall down, but if you want to talk to them about business, then you must have to talk to them while exercising, just like drinking and drinking.

"I want, use my favor, let you do something for me." An Nan started to gasp before doing a few.

Seeing the fragrant sweat on An Nan's forehead, Slimolo smiled and jumped out of the pool, but did not splash any water. She slid to the side of An Nan, her smooth voice resounding like double echoing music: "Are you sure? This is your favor to help me become a sea witch. After you use it, you won't have any discounts in Mermaid."

"I confirm."

"Say your request, the water is listening."

“In the last fifteen years, there have been deaths in the Azura area. Does it echo young children?”

Slimolo summoned her dark blue gospel, and when he thought of it, related resources were automatically organized and presented-after everyone got the gospel, the gospel would automatically get all the information around the holder, and when the holder needed it, he could open it at any time. The gospel book reads all the content that you have “previously known” without consuming any points, which is equivalent to bringing an independent library with you.

“There are 76.” Slimolo smiled gleefully: “There are few successful examples. The best one died at the age of 5.”

“Your people are responsible for handling it?”

“Of course, how dare they personally touch this kind of wet work, they are all entrusted to our people to be responsible for the final execution.” Slimolo said: “But if you want to obtain the miracle technology of these families, I can’t do it. We signed. It’s contracted. In the Gospel Kingdom, even legendary magicians can’t violate the contract on the weaving paper.”

“I don’t need their skills.” An Nan said, “Do you also solve the corpse disposal?”

“Of course, it’s all smoothly anyway.”

“How is the quality of those echoing young children?”

“It’s very good. After all, it has been iterating for so many years.” Slimolo said: “Almost every one is a genius of all factions with extremely high intelligence. There are even babies who have the silver faction state at the age of 2, but this kind of reliance is miraculous. Forcibly created geniuses are almost inevitable. They just want to defraud a seat in the knitting ceremony, they must have a life span of at least 10 years, otherwise the knitting ceremony will not recognize these echoing young children.”

Echoes young children, only the specialty of the Gospel Kingdom. These babies were given miracles during their gestation period and developed their wisdom prematurely. Almost every one of them possessed the talents of the whole faction. As long as they live to be 10 years old, they will surely be able to master a golden faction.

But basically all live to be less than 10 years old.

The existence of these echoing young children is to sneak attack and deceive the weaving ceremony.

As long as these young children live to be over 10 years old and are recognized by the Knitting Festival for their potential, they will basically become true echoers. After all, the Knitting Festival list is random, but the echoing young children are all faction geniuses. Feel free to ask questions. I don't know how to count. I lose.

Of course, the rewards of the knitting ceremony will naturally be taken away by his family, as for the echoing young children, they will be raised until they die naturally. Without rewards to prolong lifespan, young children can only live to 15 years of age at most. After all, this forced genius is too counterintuitive. If there is no serious cost, the whole gospel kingdom would have soared.

Just like the Kingdom of Blood Moon is good at biological transformation, the Kingdom of Gospel can be said to have a deep cultivation in terms of artificial genius. From the first day of the weaving ceremony, countless people have thought about how to deceive the 'prophecy' of the All-Knowing Weaver.

Perhaps in the future, we can create all-faction geniuses who will live to be 20 years old, but for now, echoing young children is more like a lottery for major high-scoring families. It is gratifying to win, but it is right to fail. It is to verify the accumulated technological achievements over the past 50 years, which is equivalent to an arms race.

An Nan said: "I need you to modify the information that echoes the young children to specific three people, and even create the illusion that they are not dead and have been active in the suburbs, sewers, and forests in the past."

Slimolo was a little surprised, and asked casually: "No problem, do you need to pick the year of birth?"

"No, you can change all the echo children who have died in the past fifteen years. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

"all?"

“all.”

Slimolo narrowed his eyes slightly.

She knows what An Nan wants to do.

There are many loopholes in the Gospel. One of them is the ‘search loophole’. When the Gospel wants to search for people with the same name and surname, it is possible to mix the information of multiple people into the same person.

But this loophole was fixed a long time ago. As long as you were born in the Gospel Kingdom, the Gospel will give you a number that only it knows, and the same name and surname will not be confused.

An Nan undoubtedly knows this, but she does not hesitate to consume her favors and merge the resumes of the echoed young children with these three, which means that she is very sure that the gospel will trigger the ‘search loophole’, Making the Gospels mistaken that these three are also geniuses of all factions.

In other words, these three people...

Suddenly, a piece of contract woven paper stretched out in front of Slimolo.

“Although I can trust the character of the Sea Witch very much, but still, sign the contract and be safe.” An Nan couldn’t hold on to it, and lay on the ground tired, the amethyst earrings swayed swaying light: “I signed the contract. Just give you the names and appearances of those three people.”

Slimolo took the woven paper to sign his name, watched the woven paper burn, and asked: “You don’t hesitate to let the firm drop off the list because of this? You did your best to support me to become Azulahai. Wu, also for this moment?”

An Nan nodded, his tired face full of firmness.

“I have bet on Dulan’s name.”

Chapter 203: Witch's Entertainment

After several revisions, Ash entered all the data of the black and white witch, and the Gospel finally gave a useful answer:

“50 points are consumed.”

“The first conclusion: practice the fist faction.”

“The learning efficiency of the time faction is low in reality. It is really suitable for practicing the time faction and only has the time continent. Your friends practice fist faction in reality to increase their combat power and carry out high-intensity adventures in the virtual world. The most cost-effective option.”

“The premise is: ①Your friend does have time to faction talent (a little doubt); ②Your friend does have items that can be practiced in reality by +15% Fist faction (more doubtful); ③Your friend can be in the virtual world Summon two special creatures of second-wing combat power to assist in the adventure (strongly questioning your friend’s ability to lie, and the ability to summon special creatures of the same level in the virtual world, rarely appears on the second-wing magician).

“Therefore, a second conclusion can be drawn: Does your friend have any serious illness?”

This gospel book is unexpectedly poisonous...

Since the Raiders say so, there is no reason why Asia Xiu should not follow its instructions—after all 50 points can not be wasted—he equips the black and white witch with “training gloves”, consumes “high-level stamina potions” and “high-level experience potions”, and then pulls Full three action points.

But at this moment, Ya Xiu suddenly remembered that the witch seems to have another choice—

With the blessing of “The Twenty-sided Dice of the Prince of Joy”, the operators can also gain magical experience for entertainment. Previously, Yaxiu was not cold about this option, because the income of entertainment must be lower than training, and you have to gamble on luck—Yaxiu’s Weibo account is only used to forward the lottery but has never won a lottery. Low-quality male users have already treated themselves Luck did not hold any expectations.

But now I find that the 20-sided dice is suitable for the situation of the witch.

The witch’s trial class will greatly reduce the learning efficiency, but the pleasure spell experience rewarded by the twenty-faced dice will not be reduced, only the bonus will be accepted, and the negative state of the witch will be perfectly bypassed.

Yaxiu suddenly realized—it turns out that entertainment is not really used for entertainment, but a special form of training used to avoid negative states!

He almost misunderstood the game mechanics. Fortunately, he was not a person before, and he didn’t arrange entertainment for Jian Ji, otherwise he would suffer a lot!

However, entertainment only occupies two action points, and there is another action point to arrange... Rest is impossible, training efficiency is low, it seems that only battle can be arranged.

In the training strategy, the option “Entertainment” has changed. Simply put, the icon has an extra twenty-sided dice, which looks particularly like the entrance of an online casino.

“Entertainment” interface pops up two types of entertainment: professional and all-round.

Professional entertainment, such as “Fire Faction-Burning Candles”, “Water Faction-Swimming in the Pool”, “Prophecy Faction-Hide and Seek”, “Mind Faction-Live Alone”, “Truth Faction-Do a few sets of papers” Wait, these entertainments will only increase the spell experience of certain factions, but they have more experience points.

All-round entertainment, such as “playing mud”, “catch beetles”, “turning the rope”, “playing football”, which are not very professional, or involve more factions, it will increase the spells of multiple factions Experience, but the experience value is low.

looks so complicated, it’s better to let the witch go to train.

But the mobile game is a mobile game, which provides intimate options for lazy players like Ya Xiu—is this!

“Random game: random entertainment, can only gain experience of a certain spell faction, but an additional 10% experience bonus.”

“Whether to activate the end-viewer’s inherent talent and register the black and white witch in the wizard manual?”

Ya Xiu was startled, only to remember that the magician manual needs to be bound to the operator to arrange the operator’s schedule, and Jian Ji also has this step.

There was an idea in his mind—if he gets a new operator in the future, but there is no place in the manual of the operator, can I delete the old operator and change the cage?

The thought of just passed by, and Ya Xiu chose “OK”.

“Sword Girl Training Strategy: Training, Training, Fighting”

“Witch training strategy: entertainment (random game-fist experience), battle”

After arranging the training strategy for the witch and Jian Ji this week, Ash closed the gospel book. At this time, the butler boy just finished smoking a cigarette, extinguished the cigarette * in his palm, stood up and said: “Miss has two requirements for you.”

Everyone looked up at him.

“First, you are not allowed to leave home for the time being.”

“Second, no practice of any magic faction is allowed for the time being.” Panji paused: “At most, it is reading the reference books of the magic faction, but the lady hopes that you can have fun and do less business.”

Ya Xiu stunned—there is such a good thing?

What Igola guessed: “In order to prevent our actions from ‘contaminating’ our evaluation?”

“Yes.” Panji patiently explained: “Your learning efficiency will be recorded in the gospels. The more diligent you study, the deeper the knowledge of the gospels of you will be. This is very unfavorable for you to become echoers—on the contrary, you The more lazier you are, the gospel will overestimate you. After all, you all have two-wing mana as your resume. When you find that you don’t work hard, the gospel will naturally increase your talents.”

Understood, isn’t it just a bitch? It seems that I don’t do business every day, but in fact, I have finished all the books for the whole semester before semester, just to show effortlessly and let everyone overestimate their talents.

Compared to Igola and Harvey, who are eager to improve, Ya Xiu is very happy now—yeah, everyone lie down with me!

“Liss, you can play as much as you like during this time... Why don’t you seem very happy?”

Lisi's expression looked very tangled (/// 囧): "Where can you tell that I am unhappy? I am very happy, Dad!"

"You at least change a happy face and fool me!"

Panji said: "Speaking of, I haven't introduced you to the various facilities at home. There are a library, swimming pool, shooting range, audio-visual entertainment room, simulation game room, and fun game room, among which gunsmiths are not allowed to enter the shooting range. In the same way, hydrologists are not allowed to enter the swimming pool, and illusionists are not allowed to enter the simulation game room. Please come with me..."

"I'm not interested." Harvey stood up and said, "I'll go back to the room, please buy me a box of cat grass."

Panji was startled slightly: "A box? Are you sure?"

"What grass? Vegetables?" Ah Xiu asked curiously.

"Does Harvey look like a good kid who eats vegetables? It's almost the same as eating a corpse." Igola muttered: "There are only two possibilities for him to ask for it, or it is related to the corpse, UU reading www.uukanshu.com is either..."

"Cat grass is a niche category of tobacco." Panji added an accent to the 'niche', and everyone naturally understands it—others get points to ask about the direction of development, and ask if the girlfriend was born, ha Wei is pragmatic, asking if there is any substitute for moon candy here? !

Watching Harvey go back to the room alone, Asia Xiu was a little confused: "Can the Necromancer faction increase the resistance to poison? Even if he is resistant to poison, but if he consumes psychedelic products like this, it should have a strong impact on his mind?"

"Perhaps he just wants to influence his mind."

Igola glanced at Yaxiu: "Although the starry sky is good, I can't reach it with my hands straight; although the gutter is very dirty, it is a place to sleep as long as I lie down."

"Not everyone wants to be sober."

Yaxiu said, "Isn't this time for your psychiatrist to play a role? Your professional counterpart psychotherapy! Harvey is now in the same camp as us, helping him get back to normal?"

"First, if you follow the criteria of the blood moon, Harvey is now normal."

Igola said lightly: "Moon candy is one of the classic drugs of psychotherapists. You go for psychotherapy. Nine out of ten recommend you to eat moon candy, and the last one recommends you go to the black market to buy more powerful dancing powder. "

"Second, do you think I still have enough energy to deal with other people's psychological problems?"

The defrauder met the cult leader's sight and sighed softly, "Axiu, you are stronger than us."

Ya Xiu was startled, and shook his head: "I just have experience

Chapter 204: Witch and princess

At this time, the housekeeper boy greeted them to come, Liz followed very well, looking like a little brother and a little sister.

Igola walked over, and the scene suddenly became a beautiful young woman and two angel children.

Ya Xiu subconsciously stayed away from them, so as not to lower their average appearance.

Panji took them to visit other rooms on this floor, but Ah Xiu thought about what Igola said just now.

Because the plan to escape from the blood moon was formulated and implemented by everyone, even if they encountered a series of incidents after crossing the passage, both Igola and Harvey still showed the high-level criminal ability that the death row prisoners should have, so Ah Xiu did not think that they would have a place to live. Unfamiliar panic.

But think about it carefully, even when Ah Xiu is most rebellious and eager to escape from the family, when he goes to university alone, he will still be cramped and fearful. And they escaped from the blood moon this time, and they were basically unable to return for the rest of their lives. From then on, they will live in this strange, different culture, and different political system.

Perhaps they will adapt to the new life soon, but during this period of adaptation, they need to fight with their own thoughts, their regrets, and their loneliness.

The reason why Ya Xiu didn't fart was because this was already his second crossing. He changed the universe server directly last time, and this time only changed a region. How could Ya Xiu feel nervous?

The most important thing is that Ash is different from Harvey and Igola.

He is no longer alone.

So, the correct treatment for Igola and Harvey should be...

"Igola." Ya Xiu patted the cheater on the shoulder, and said with concern: "You see, you are also big and young, shouldn't you go to have a relationship and find a partner?"

Igola looked at Ya Xiu as if he was looking at a pile of shit.

The housekeeper boy took them around and said, "You can enjoy food and drinks as you like, but please keep your weight, don't lose weight or overeating; if you have anything you can call me, I usually stay in the room; I personally recommend you Watch the documentary "The Gospel" first to get a rough idea of the general composition of the Gospel Kingdom...Are there any questions?"

“Brother Panj, Brother Panj!” Liz raised her head to look at the boy butler: “How old are you?”

Good question! Igola and Ya Xiu cried out, they had vaguely guessed that Panji’s age was definitely far beyond his appearance in the previous exchanges, or that Panji didn’t hide this at all.

They were still thinking about how to extend the topic and knock on the side. They didn’t expect Liz to ask directly. This is the child’s advantage. Even if he hits the painful spot of the panji, he can be fooled by the cuteness. If I change to Igola and Yaxiu, the atmosphere will become very embarrassing if they don’t get rid of it.

Panji glanced at them, took the starting strap and * his light blue long hair, tilted his head and said, “I am 61 years old this year.”

61 years old! ?

Are you sure you are not 16 years old?

However, Igola’s eyes lit up: “You are 61 years old, the last knitting festival...”

“Do you know why Miss is willing to pave the way for you at all costs?” Panji smiled: “I am actually also a foreigner. I used to be.”

“So... you were the last respondent?”

Panji nodded, and poked the dimples on his cheeks with his fingers: “This is my reward for echo.”

Lisi also poked her face with her finger, showing her innocent and cute appearance. Ya Xiu glanced back and forth and shook his head: “Lis, you lost.”

“...I didn’t ask Dad.”

“There is no other problem, let’s move freely. Lunch starts at 12 o’clock, I will inform you.” Panji waved and left.

“I’m going to watch the documentary “The Gospel”.” Igola decided to follow Panji’s advice.

“I want to go to the simulation game room to play the virtual game here.” Ya Xiu was full of enthusiasm.

Two vicious adult criminals looked at the little girl, Liz raised her hand and said, “I’m going to the library to read! I can take care of myself! Father Ash, Aunt Bokin, you can do your job!”

“Axiu, I will help you educate your daughter—”

“Wait, I have a contract with her. I have to protect her. If you want to spank her, you have to cross my body first!”

“There is such a good thing?”

.....

...

Liss ignored the two adults who were like children, and ran to the library here and closed the door.

She found the mirror in the library and said to the beautiful white-haired girl in the mirror:

“Secret Princess Dia, are you there?”

“Little Witch Liz, I’m here.”

When Liz blinked, she was already Dia.

Diya turned around, twisted her neck, and jumped twice, complaining in her heart that this body was too inconvenient. She would rather the bronze dragon turn her into an old woman than this one can only rely on being cute. The appearance of living...

But, now I finally have free time!

She set up the ladder and found several reference books from the library: “How to Cause a Storm in the Void Realm with Your Hands”, “100 Rules of Interpersonal Communication”, “Introduction to Void Creatures”, “A Brief Analysis of Spell Factions”, “The Essentials of Guardians’ Fighting Skills”, “Starting a Dog’s Wilderness Survival”.

In order to prevent someone from coming in suddenly, she took a few cute picture books and laid them aside, and then read these complicated big books carefully.

Maybe someone has already seen the clues from this book list—Diya actually never went to school, or even received a formal education as a technician.

She can read characters, can sing, play the piano, know rhythm, and be proficient in painting. In short, she has a touch on elegant art that has nothing to do with life, but she basically knows anything about magic factions or survival skills. Not mastered.

Her current magic factions, survival skills and even interpersonal skills are all derived from reading the wizard’s manual and consuming experience orbs in the virtual world.

If it weren’t for gaining knowledge in the virtual realm, she would still be a princess on a high tower now, looking at the sky cut into squares by the window, with a foolish smile, and gladly accepting her own destiny.

After leaving the tower with the help of the bronze dragon, Dia set one of her goals as soon as possible to find out and fill up the vacancies to acquire knowledge, improve her knowledge system of machinists, and learn various survival skills for future exile. Preparation for career.

Originally, Deya wanted to practice the Time faction, but since Panji said it's better not to practice, she didn't intend to defy this order.

Because she really wants to join the "blasphemy of the gospel" project!

Although he first crossed to the site of the Four Pillars Church, was taken away by the cultists, and then was favored by An Nan and forced to become the * of the Purple Moth, this series of events met Deya's needs!

Diya did everything possible to choose to trigger the favor of the bronze dragon at this time, is to wash away everything in the past, participate in the weaving ceremony with a blank body, and become an echoer and seize the wish of the god!

Becoming An Nan's chess piece is not only a danger for Dia, but also an opportunity she dreams of!

Diya only knows that if she wants to drill the loopholes in the weaving festival, she must delete the 'past' through the bronze dragon, but she is still at a loss as to how to drill the loopholes.

And at this time, An Nan appeared.

is like a knight about to starve to death meeting a greedy dragon, either the knight killed the dragon to fill his stomach, or the dragon fattened the knight to satisfy his appetite. But in any case, one of them can definitely achieve the goal!

There is no doubt that the encounter between An Nan and Diya was a deliberate arrangement of the bronze dragon!

As the most rare virtual realm mechanism "Bronze Dragon Favor" in the Time Continent, Deya received not only curses, but also the evil blessings of bronze dragons.

The current situation is exactly the same as described in the wizard's manual. While granting trials, "Bronze Dragon's Favor" will also help the trialers achieve their wishes as much as possible~www.mtlnovel.com~ But this process is often the same as fairy tales. Romance-in simple terms, the bronze dragon will continue to mess up, and must tease the tester.

Like Diya, she was wandering all the way, but finally joined An Nan's office because of a blessing in disguise, which is equivalent to embarking on a shortcut to capture the wishes of the gods. This destiny arrangement is obviously that the bronze dragon is working.

If it weren't for this series of coincidences, it would be impossible for Dia to encounter An Nan, a blasphemer who was in line with her goals; but also because of this series of accidents, Dia had to sell cuteness to survive and was indirectly controlled by An Nan.

Complain, the bronze dragon does a good job; but thank you, the bronze dragon is a bit bad.

is really hateful, but I can't get angry.

But fortunately, Dia's new sister, Little Witch, is smart enough to avoid direct contract with An Nan, and instead chooses to conclude a contract with the stupid-looking Ah Xiu. Not only does she leave room for resistance, she also adds another one. You can use the subordinates.

The only problem is that this subordinate does not seem to be practical... It would be nice if Liz chose Igola as her father at that time, but since Liz did not do so, it means that Igola was very wary in her heart and was very resistant to being cute. High is not a low-quality human who can easily charm you.

But, if Liz calls Ash's father and Igola's mother, is there a chance to drag Igula into the water?

Diya recalled An Nan's style, feeling that the terrible woman would definitely not mind adding a yoke to herself, she couldn't help sighing—Lisi was still too cautious, otherwise they would now have two servants.

Chapter 205: No you are going to play

This generation of Lisi is undoubtedly a younger sister with many flaws.

The main reason is that Dia hasn't met many people either. Her database is either a magician's manual or a fairy tale. However, she was caught by the Four Pillars Cult as soon as she passed through, so Dia could only refer to the fairy tale "Little Witch" she had seen. The heroine, urgently pinch a younger sister who fits her age and appearance.

Then the little witch Liz was born.

In fact, Lisdiya is not a name, but two "positions". Who is responsible for manipulating the body in reality, then she is "Lisi"; who is responsible for the actions in the virtual realm, then she is "Diya".

And their real names are actually Little Witch, Secret Princess, Black Butler, White Queen, Red Dead, etc. But generally speaking, the actions in the virtual realm are dominated by the secret princess, so the name "Diya" is almost exclusive to the secret princess.

The name "Lisi" used to be exclusive to another sister, but now the body is cursed by the bronze dragon, and she is no longer suitable for the position of "Lisi". Therefore, before passing the trial of the bronze dragon, "Lisi" should be the exclusive name of the little witch.

Although the current Lisi is lacking, Deya has no idea to replace her.

After all, the new sister needs to grow up. After experiencing a series of events in person, Liz should become more and more adaptable to the environment. And even if she wanted to change, Deya had no other choice, and only the little witch was the only one who met her age.

In fact, the little witch has already done a good job. Instead, Dia will do it herself. I'm afraid she will not even be able to pass the Four Pillar Cult, let alone cheating with An Nan.

Diya was reading and chatting under her voice:

"Do you want to play? Is there anything fun? Wouldn't it be fun to chat with your sisters? Hey, wait until we enter the virtual world and you will play again. Real time is precious and you can't waste it on fun."

“You don’t like An Nan? Normally, I don’t like it either. She is the same type of person as the White Queen...”

“Well, pancakes are indeed dangerous, so you have to be careful at ordinary times. In order to protect An Nan’s interests, he will never show mercy...”

“Then who do you have a good opinion of? Igola Borkin?”

“What, Dad?”

“We chat, you don’t need to use that name, right?”

“He’s not kind, he’s simply stupid, so he was caught in your words... Well, anyway, you are in charge of your daily interactions. You like it. But don’t be soft-hearted. Hold on to Ash as soon as possible. He is We rebelled against An Nan’s best pawn.”

Suddenly an unfamiliar voice came from beside : “Have you been thirsty after talking for so long? Take a break with a glass of water.”

“Oh thank you.”

Diya subconsciously took it and took a sip, and looked down, it was a cup of strawberry-colored unknown liquid. She turned her head and looked, her pupils vibrated instantly!

“It’s great, chatting between brothers and sisters.”

The viewer in the dark red trench coat sat on the desk, propped his chin and said: “I haven’t talked to my brother for a long time, and I haven’t beaten my naughty nephew in a long time...”

“you you-”

“Witch, I advise you not to be too loud, the hostess should install monitoring equipment here.” The viewer smiled and said: “If you meditate in your heart, I will hear your mind.”

Listen to my heart! ?

But compared to the fact that the viewer can actually appear here, listening to the heart is only a trivial detail. To be honest, although he met the viewer in the tower at that time, Deya didn't pay much attention to him.

She thought that the viewer was looking for the “Princess Lisdiya”, but after being favored by the bronze dragon, the “Princess Lisdiya” had disappeared. Only the little girl who was caught by the Four Pillars Cult was left. Liz.

Therefore, Dia never thought that the viewer could catch up—even the gospels could not capture her past. Why did the viewer find her! ?

“What do you want to do?”

“Don't be so nervous, I'm not a good person.” The viewer said leisurely: “Look, didn't you agree to be my teammate?”

“I didn't promise!”

“But witch you have no right to refuse.”

Diya wanted to say something, but she suddenly remembered the favor of the bronze dragon.

The timing of the viewer's appearance is a coincidence.

Just when Dia decided to trigger “Bronze Dragon's Favor”, he suddenly appeared in the tower bedroom, covering the guardian miracle of the imperial capital, and the alert mechanism in every corner of the palace. Even the sanctuary magician could not detect him. Traces.

He seems to be an existence beyond the world.

Except for the bronze dragon, Diya has never seen other lives that can be compared with the viewers. Although there is a reason for her short-sightedness, the pressure on her by the viewers is too strong, and it is difficult for Diya to forget them. In his own spiritual world, he was abruptly blown by the viewers—yes, in addition to the secret princess, the most powerful Red Dead and Black Deacon also shot together, but they still couldn't beat the viewer.

Even if the viewer said that he was a Second Wing Sorcerer, just to invite her to take an adventure in the virtual world, Dia would not believe that he was a punctuation mark, thinking that he must be a microservice private visit to the game world, deliberately pretending to be a pig, but did not know which one he planned to eat Tiger.

But why does he stare at me...

Diya suddenly thought of it: Is he also affected by the bronze dragon, right?

Yes, the trials arranged by the bronze dragon all have this characteristic: the result is good, but the process is bound to be very torturous. And there is no doubt that the days with the viewers must be enough to torture people.

So that's it, it really is that the bronze dragon is working again.

Since this is the case, Deya doesn't have to continue to refuse: "Well, I promised to be your companion, then what?"

"Since you are my companion, I certainly have the responsibility to take care of you, right?" the viewer asked.

Dia always feels that there is a trap in his words: "Theoretically...yes."

“And now that you have become a child, am I rightly one of your guardians and obliged to take care of your daily life?”

“Of course...no!” Deya resolutely shook her head: “I don’t need your care, get out, don’t disturb my reading!”

“This is the purpose of my coming.” The viewer said: “Drink the rest of the strawberry juice first. This is a big tonic, don’t waste it.”

Before Deya could react, she took the cup of water and drank the liquid of unknown origin.

“Then, pack things up and be educated children.”

Diya was horrified to find that her body was completely out of her control, and she shoved the books back into the bookshelf.

“What are you doing? Why can you control my body? A miracle of mind?”

“Let go of me, I still have to read!”

“No,” the viewer shook his finger: “You are going to play. UU reading www.uukanshu.com”

“I’m not a real kid, what am I playing!” Dia was going crazy: “Don’t you want me to be your teammate? Then you should let me learn to cultivate and become stronger. I will play against you. How can I help?”

“But you are a kid now. The kid should combine work and rest, play vigorously during the day, and take risks at night. This is a good boy.” The viewer took out a pair of gloves: “You must wear them before you play. Gloves, lest your little hands get dirty...”

“Viewer, are you crazy?”

“Witch, you are really rude sometimes.” The viewer clicked on the glove, and the adult glove suddenly turned into a pair of pink children’s half-finger gloves, which she handed to Deya to put on herself.

“That’s because you don’t listen to people!”

Flute looked at him arrogantly. She rolled her eyes, looked sideways at her glasses, her expression suddenly became cute: “Hey, brother viewer, why are you doing this to me?”

“Oh, is it a little witch?” The viewer didn’t panic: “It’s like this, I control your body now, so you can’t read a book.”

“Uh-huh!”

“You can’t investigate sister An Nan and brother Panji, let alone instigate Igola and Harvey.”

“Oh oh!”

“Under my compulsive control, you can only find others to play games, isn’t it pitiful?”

“It’s so pathetic!”

“Then what are you waiting for, go and play!”

“Great!”

Chapter 206: You are so annoying

The Chosen One...”

In the audio-visual room, Igola, who finished watching the documentary "Gospel" at 8x speed, wrote this word in his notebook and circled it repeatedly.

This documentary was filmed in 1680, and it is only 8 years ago. After ignoring the basic tendencies of such social science documentaries as 'catering to the audience', 'great work', and 'ignoring the price', this documentary can basically become important reference material for Igola to act in this country.

There are a lot of information that needs attention in the documentary, such as the millennium company "Salome" that is responsible for the production of gospel props. For example, each city is divided into ethnic autonomous regions and multi-racial mixed areas. For example, it will be vigorously promoted in the next 30 years. Multi-tier cities' to deepen urbanization. For example, in the Gospel Kingdom, education is completely free. As long as you pass the entrance examination, you can enroll for free in technical colleges, and provide free board and lodging. The number of colleges and universities will increase from 89 to 135 every year. Enrollment numbers are increasing year by year...

From the ratio of notes Igola took, he knew how envious he was for the educational environment of the Gospel Kingdom. He crazily wants to question that the free education here is definitely just a gimmick, but the documentary slapped his face time and time again, and Igola had to admit that-when he was carrying a school loan, occasionally had to go to a clay coffee part-time job, and gritted his teeth to finish college. There are a large group of * in this world enjoying the carefree, rose-colored college life.

So even if Igola drove 8 times speed, it took almost half an hour to watch this documentary-the more I watched, the more I felt that I had lived in the sewer before, and I couldn't breathe with heartache, so I had to stop and slow down.

He is the kind of person who is easily swallowed by jealousy. He feels sick and nauseous when he sees other people's happiness, so he occasionally feels his eyes sting when he sees Ah Xiu's optimistic smirk.

However, even in this kind of documentary that was obviously used for celebration, Igola still captured several unusual information.

First, there is no church in the Gospel Kingdom.

Although everyone knows that the Gospel is the gift of the All-Knowing Weaver, it is just that. No one preaches the doctrine of the All-Knowing Weaver. No one builds a statue of the All-Knowing Weaver. No one can even set up an 'All-Knowing Weaver Study Group'—because You only need to open the gospel and ask, you can know that all churches are non-authorized pheasant cram schools.

In fact, thinking about it, you can understand that the foundation of the church is “God selects spokespersons and shepherds the world”. Simply put, “This group owner is lazy, so I chose an administrator to help manage the group of friends.” But all know that the owner is not lazy Ah—As long as you have points, the gospel representing the omniscient weaver listens to your nonsense 24 hours a day, how does this kind of service quality compare to the church?

In a sense, the church is the middleman who makes the difference, and the Omnisknow Weaver is a direct point-to-point factory direct sales, and there is no soil for the survival of the church.

Second, although there is no church, the Gospel Kingdom...has an imperial royal family.

As early as in the blood moon kingdom, Igola heard about the existence of royal nobles in other kingdoms, so I shouldn't be surprised. But the gospel kingdom is really too developed and prosperous, so it is difficult for Ikola to understand why this kingdom is still a centralized monarchy, not a democratic system?

Even vampires know that they cannot be dictatorial!

However, the Yisu royal family that currently rules the Gospel Kingdom has stretched for 760 years. Since its birth, it has shrunk and centralized power from generation to generation. Legislative power, judicial power, and political power are all firmly in their hands. Violent armed forces such as the Red Hat responsible for public security and the Blue Beard who suppressed the abyss were led by the royal family. National government decrees all came from the imperial capital “Nabistine”. All military and political affairs are in his hands.

It stands to reason that in such a centralized monarchy country, a huge bureaucratic interest group will surely appear, which will lead to the dissatisfaction of the people, and then collapse from the inside leading to the change of dynasties—in fact, there was no dynasty before the Issu royal family.

But for some reason, the Yisu royal family broke this cyclical law. Not only can it last for more than 700 years, but the country has also developed soaring all the way, completely beating the blood moon country of the democratic system, and Igola began to suspect that the monarchy may be the kingdom of magicians. The only way out.

Third, everyone in the Gospel Kingdom may have different specific goals, but the ultimate goal is the same-to be on the list and become the chosen one.

The term the chosen one has been used almost throughout the documentary.

Only the Chosen can innovate new technologies, only the Chosen can lead the times, and even only the Chosen can obtain happiness... Just like the Blood Sage Moon Shadow in the Blood Moon Kingdom, the Chosen is the privileged class of the Gospel Kingdom.

But unlike the Blood Moon Clan supported by the Lord, the Chosen is an aristocrat supported by mortals. Moreover, the threshold of the chosen one can be said to be very low, as long as you log in to any list, then you are the chosen one.

You can enter the list even if you turn the flower rope to the top ten in the region.

But in a sense, the threshold is high-if you don't have enough talent and enough hard work, then you have no chance at all. Even if you do everything well, you still have to consider the course of history. If there are many geniuses in the same era as you, then you can't make it into the top ten.

Unless you work harder...

Igola's heart moved.

He finally realized what made him feel "kind" in this documentary.

Although everything is good in it, everyone is full of vigor, multi-racial harmony and division of labor, and society is thriving, but Igola did not see the 'happy smile' on their faces that made him jealous.

Every person and every sentence in the film conveys the same meaning—do the best!

To be the strongest!

To defeat other colleagues!

To be the best in the industry!

Those who have not logged into the list are holding their breath and those who do not dare to relax in order to maintain their advantage. The whole society is like an infinite gear, and everyone is spontaneously speeding up.

You don't even have to be afraid of running the wrong way, just spend a little points, and the gospel will point you in the direction of your struggle at any time.

It is clear that the social atmosphere is very different from the blood moon country, but Igola feels very cordial.

is like a fly discovering a pile of dung in the cake.

is very interesting, really interesting.

Igola intends to watch a few more documentaries in the future to fully understand the Gospel Kingdom.

He left the audio-visual room, intending to get some food and drink, so that he could fight for a long time.

When passing by the fun game room, Igola heard a dejected grumble from inside. He looked through the crack in the door and found that Liz was inside. There was a large box of building blocks in front of her, which seemed to be assembling toy building blocks.

This little drama is actually playing with blocks?

After these two days of contact, Igola naturally recognized the essence of Liz's cuteness. After all, Liz looked a lot like him when she was a child, deceiving the adult's trust with her cute appearance, while slandering the adult's stupidity in her heart.

Igola is very sure that Liz is the same type of person as him, and people like them will not be satisfied with using toys to entertain themselves.

After all, after experiencing the fun of fooling others, toys become meaningless.

will not be angry, will not have temperature, and will not scream, what is the value of this kind of thing to play with?

So what is Liz doing? Is An Nan's secret hidden in the building blocks? Or is she here waiting for someone to come over?

Igola was hiding behind the door to observe, UU reading www.uukanshu.com looked at Lisy seriously compared to the shape of the building blocks on the opponent, and assemble it when she saw the right one.

One minute.

ten minutes.

fifteen minutes.

Igola couldn't help it anymore, and went in and pointed to the messy building block and said, "There is the manual next to it. Wouldn't you follow the manual to play!? This is obviously a castle building block. You all pretend to be a dungeon. NS!"

Lisi stared at him with her mouth closed, and didn't speak, just pulled over the instructions.

Igola squeezed his fist and walked up with an angry face: "You rude kid, it seems I must give you some color..."

After another ten minutes, Ya Xiu, who was tired from playing virtual games, was going to the kitchen to get some drinks and snacks. When he passed by the fun game room, he heard a quarrel inside:

"This is obviously pressed here, look at the manual!"

"Do you know how to play? I have never seen you such a stupid kid!"

"o(≧□≦)o Why did you choose such a large building block castle! This is not a big project that two people can complete!"

"o(^ ^ o#)You are so annoying."

Yaxiu glanced inside through the crack of the door, looked at the castle building block that hadn't even assembled the foundation, showed a thoughtful expression, and walked away.

then brought Panji and Harvey.

Chapter 207: 20-sided dice

At 8 o'clock in the evening, An Nan came home and found no one in the living room, even the living room did not turn on the lights. Only a few mechanical spiders responsible for cleaning were crawling around. They quickly returned to the nest to charge as soon as they heard the sound of footsteps.

“Crepe?”

An Nan yelled, but there was no response.

Panji has been taking care of her since she was born. Except for the never-old and delicate face that makes people jealous at sight, he has always performed the duties of a housekeeper perfectly and has never neglected his duty.

Clearly let Panji stay at home to watch the new employees, why is he missing?

An Nan had a hint of vigilance in his heart—Could those people have the means to dissolve the contract and weave paper, secretly get rid of the control of the contract, and Panji did not notice their bad hands for a while?

She took off her boots, stepped on the wooden floor in silk stockings without making any sound, holding the miracle technique in her hand, searching for traces at home.

Soon, she found that there was light in the fun game room, and when she approached the past, she heard the voice of new residents coming from it:

“My side is the same.” Igola’s voice was full of excitement.

“Me too...” Harvey’s tone of voice that seemed to be a corpse also had a hint of passion.

“Goo...Come on, I’m ready! Let’s get together!”

Panji is also inside!

And what kind of conversation is this!

What are you guys putting together!

You are all males, how can four of you be grouped together!

Don’t look at Panji so cute and wantonly ravage him!

“What are you doing—”

An Nan squeezed the door open, and was ready to rescue the filthy pansy.

Then she saw four adults and a child inside assembling a dark building block castle over one meter high.

Panji, Harvey, Ikola, Yaxiu, and Lisi turned their heads to look at An Nan and blinked. Panji, who was in charge of assembling the middle part, immediately stood up: “Miss, you came back so early?”

“...seriously, what are you doing?”

“Isn’t this very clear at a glance?” Ya Xiu said, “We are assembling Sky Screen City.”

Of course An Nan recognizes this building block castle.

When she was a child, her father bought a lot of these very complicated and high-end building blocks. Several times he wanted to pull An Nan to assemble Sky Screen City together. However, An Nan had no interest in such toys, so these blocks were put on hold in the playroom. . After An Nan became the head of the funeral office at the age of twelve, she never entered the game room again.

“...Why are you suddenly interested in playing blocks?”

Axiu looked at Igula: “I saw Igula’s childlike heart playing with Liz with blocks, so I pulled everyone in. I didn’t expect the male Veeva to be so soft in heart...”

Igola blushed: “I just saw Lisy playing for so long and couldn’t understand it. I really couldn’t see it before teaching her how to play! Actually I have already planned to leave, but Ya Xiu, you brought someone over to play so hard. , I just stayed to take care of your experience...”

Ya Xiu cursed: “Fart, I made a mistake just now. You scold me so badly. This is the experience of taking care of me?”

“You guys who don’t even understand the manual, don’t blame each other. They are all rubbish.” Harvey said unceremoniously, “If it weren’t for you guys, I would have finished this castle. I have done a lot of work like this assembling the “fragmented parts” into the “complete whole”. This building block can only be regarded as a pediatrics. I think back then I—”

Ya Xiu covered Lisi’s ears: “No one here wants to hear your glorious deeds!”

An Nan was dumbfounded and asked: “So...you just played with blocks until now?”

“Yes, miss.” Panji nodded slightly, and took out his pocket watch: “I should almost...how come it’s 8 o’clock!?”

“Speaking of it, it seems to be dark outside...”

“No wonder I’m a little hungry, I thought it was because I digested quickly for breakfast.”

“Dad, I am too hungry to walk.”

“Let Aunt Bojin hug you.” Ya Xiu murmured, turning his head to look at the “Sky Screen City” behind: “Should we take a picture to commemorate it, after all, it took us a whole day...”

Igola said coldly: “I don’t have the habit of leaving video data—”

Axiu thought that Ikola would refuse, and just wanted to talk and mock Ikola as the one who played the most passionately, but heard the latter’s words change: “However, my case in the Gospel Kingdom is innocent, so taking pictures should be fine.”

The cult leader blinked his eyes and looked at the deceiver in surprise. The latter turned his head and didn’t know who was explaining what to him: “And this castle is also quite magnificent...”

“Miss An Nan, can I trouble you?” Harvey took out a cat’s cigarette and held it in his mouth, but did not light it.

“Of course it’s okay.” The purple moth summoned its own gospel, and then stretched both index fingers and thumbs, and drew a picture frame, illuminating the five of them and the sky screen city in it.

The next second, this scene appeared in her gospel. She reversed the gospel to show them, “In this way, your gospel will also have this photo. I suggest that you can create an album in the gospel and put important photos in it...”

“Where is this kind of photo important.” Igola walked away quickly, and Yaxiu followed Liz to find something to fill his belly. Harvey walked to the balcony to light a cigarette. Panji stayed at the end and said: “Miss, I need Do you prepare dinner for you?”

“After eating, you can take care of their dinner.”

Panji nodded, opened the gospel book and ordered takeaway.

Yes, the gospel thumbwheel they provided to Ash and others is actually a castrated version or a ‘collector’s version’.

The real gospel props have already integrated multimedia functions, such as curtaining, instant messaging, watching videos, forum discussions, ordering takeaways and other functions. Gorgeous accessories like the gospel thumbwheel that can only open the gospel book are actually a luxury to show their identity. Taste.

Just like you can know the time when you open the gospel, but there will still be people who buy a clock specially-pancake is this kind of person, he thinks pocket watches are very handsome-so there will be many wealthy people who like to buy this type that can only open the gospel Gospel thumbwheel, gospel bracelet and even gospel glasses.

As for why only Ash and others are allowed to open the gospel... of course it is to prevent them from contacting the outside world and at the same time allow them to feel the charm of the gospel.

People are social animals, and communication is an extension of boundaries. When you see the news thousands of miles away, you are thousands of miles away; when you communicate with people on the veil, you are not alone; when you see the tens of thousands of real people in the gospel kingdom, your room It's the whole country.

On the other hand, when they cannot leave or communicate with the outside world, then this house is their world.

The field of vision is limited to the four walls, and their ambitions cannot encroach on the wider world. Naturally, they can only cast their eyes on the inside.

Just like the ancient courts often bred conspiracies, and the banquet was full of intrigues, An Nan had long expected that Ash and others would conspiracy to rebel against herself-or, this is exactly the result she was looking forward to.

The more they move secretly, the more obedient they are on the bright side.

With the * of contract weaving paper, An Nan is not afraid of their rebellion at all. On the contrary, the more they think about how to deal with Zi An Nan, the happier An Nan is, because it means that they waste their energy in useless places.

Conspiracy and suspicion are twins, and the shadow of revenge is shortsighted.

When each of them is occupied by negative emotions, An Nan finds a way to sow discord, please some, suppress some, then he can easily divide them, strengthen their control, and consume their spirits with palace fighting.

Although they saw through their tricks at first, An Nan never gave up dominating these aliens. She just made the plan longer, more secretive, and more difficult to resist.

But in any case, the first step is to fill their hearts with negative energy.

An Nan went to the Mermaid Palace today, also deliberately leaving room for them to play freely. She had thought that when she got home, these new employees might not give themselves a good face, or they might greet them with a smile on their faces, or some people might even surrender to them.

She made all the plans, but her leg was broken by these people.

Why do you guys have so much fun playing with blocks together!

All five of you are over a hundred years old together!

Don't you worry about your future? Don't you yearn for the Lord's wish? Don't you want to resist the constraints of contract weaving paper? I finally gave you a chance to connect together, you actually played with blocks and even played with Panji!

An Nan looked down at the picture in the Gospel. Five people were standing in front of Sky Screen City. Panji stood upright, Harvey was smoking, Igola squeezed, and Ash squatted down and made a V sign. Although Liz couldn't do it. Understand and follow him to compare the V word...

Who is the one who brought this stagnant water to life?

The purple moth swept across the face of the new employee, and finally stayed on Ash and Liz.

.....

The takeaway arrived soon, and the drone also put down the hot lala fat on the dining table very intimately. As soon as Ya Xiu sat down, she stood up: "Chi Yan Lala Fei save me some, I'll go—"

"Stop, don't say it, go quickly, no one will rob you." Igola decisively interrupted the cast of Ashiu's curse.

The hungry Liz couldn't wait to take a piece of cake from the takeaway and stuff it into her mouth, making her mouth full of cream. Igola said softly: "Liss, eat dessert after the main meal. Come on, eat Lala Fatty first."

Igola took the initiative to pick up the knife and fork to divide the fattest food, Harvey, one for himself, one for pancake, one for Lisi, and then finished.

"Auntie Bojin, you are targeting dad again..."

"Give me if you don't eat, I'll be wronged." Igola looked around for a week and looked at Harvey and Panji with threatening eyes.

Harvey doesn't matter, he guts.

Panji didn't seem to have any appetite, but he licked it to make it fat.

Liss thought for a while, felt that instead of feeding Igola, it was better to eat it herself, so she feasted on it.

"Did you have fun?"

Liss was startled, turned her head and saw the viewer sitting in Ah Xiu's seat. Just as he was about to speak, the viewer raised his finger: "Say it in my heart, I can hear it."

"Happy!" Liz said to her heart: "The viewer brother, you are so amazing, can no one see you?"

"Just like Dia, no one can see me except you." The viewer probed over and smelled the fragrance of Lafai, "Speaking of a witch?"

"Sister Princess? She is arguing in her heart to change people." Liz: "But wait until I finish eating."

"Well, it is indeed time to change people. After all, the next activity is more violent and bloody, and it is not suitable for Lisi to do it."

"what activity?"

"Before that, please settle your entertainment results today!"

The viewer flipped his hand and took out a twenty-sided dice.

He tossed lightly, the dice rolled a few times on the table, and finally stopped at 8 o'clock.

"Today's entertainment is evaluated as extraordinary, +7 points; Liz, you are in a good mood, +5 points; Liz, you have a lucky check +10, you can throw an extra ten-sided dice to add points..."

The viewer lightly clicks, and the 20-sided dice suddenly becomes a 10-sided dice, and it stays at 3 o'clock after lightly rolling it.

"Your points today are $7+5+3=15$ points, and Prince Pleasure's points are only 8 points, so Lisi, you won the praise of Prince Pleasure today, and you have gained 150% of the Fist Claw faction experience~www.mtlnovel.com~ As soon as the viewer's voice fell, Liz felt as if there was ice cream melting in her mind, and a steady stream of sweet knowledge flowed into her mind.

She was taken aback, suddenly picked up a stainless steel spoon and stared at her reflection on it.

Then she put on a serious expression and stared directly at the viewer: "Why do I have a feeling of absorbing knowledge in the virtual world? Viewer, who are you?"

"Is it a witch? In fact, I prefer to chat with little witches." The viewer said, "In short, I arranged you to play for your own good. After all, you can't practice normally in this posture. You are not simply trying to play with you." -At least not all of the reasons."

"Not all, what percentage does that account for?"

"Probably 76.85%...but this is not the point." The viewer clapped his hands: "The entertainment is over, and the next thing is the highlight, which happens to be a task suitable for you to complete the witch."

Diya was a little nervous: "What task?"

"Fight." The viewer spit out a cruel word.

"Watcher, you should know that I don't have any fighting power in this posture—"

"But I just want you to fight." The viewer said coldly: "You know, this is not an order, but you can't refuse."

Diya took a deep breath and resisted the desire to debate: "Who is the goal?"

"The goal is..."

The viewer raises his hand.

points to the toilet in use.

Chapter 208: Finally meet

“Liss, who challenged you my courage?”

“You are seeking your own death!”

Igola looked at the subtitles “The victory has been divided” appeared in the light curtain, and recorded on the tablet next to him: “5:2, I declare that it is Liz’s—”

“Wait!” Ah Xiu grabbed the cheater’s trousers, begging with a face: “Six wins in eleven sets, change to six wins in eleven sets, continue to play, I can come back! I already know how to play, take it Down is my round!”

Harvey, who hid by the window and smoked cats and grass, couldn’t help but said, “Axiu, don’t continue to be ashamed. Even a little girl can’t win...”

Yaxiu said stiffly: “I’m just not accustomed to the gamepad in this world, and the cushion is too soft. Igola often interferes with me next to me, so I will—”

Igola felt too embarrassed, and covered his face and said to the panji next to him: “Although I have said it several times, but I still want to say—Axiu is an example. Don’t elevate your personal behavior to the kingdom.”

The young housekeeper who always maintained a smile but a smile was also a little bit unable to control his expression management at this time, his eyes were almost narrowed with a smile: “Mr. Axiu, why don’t you let me play a game with Liz, you see how I control it.” This character...”

“Do not!”

Liss suddenly said loudly: "I'll fight him, I must beat him!"

"Hmph, soon you will pay for your arrogance!" Ya Xiu yelled frantically, and quickly began the next set of magician duel.

While eating, Liz didn't know why, so she suddenly offered to fight with Ya Xiu.

Everyone felt a little strange, but they didn't stop it. Panji even offered to arrange a fighting method for them-that is the classic masterpiece "Magic Duel 14".

Magician duel series, the classic battle game of the Gospel Kingdom over the past 30 years, players can control different legendary magicians to fight.

Not only ordinary people love to play, but even magicians are also loyal users of this game-it can even be said that the current combat magicians under the age of 30 in the Gospel Kingdom are almost all affected by this game. Many people dream of having a follower The characters inside are equally powerful, even affecting the proportion of wizards in the entire gospel kingdom.

The most popular characters in the Mage Duel series are the "Alchemy Master" and the "Queen of the Earth". The former can be forged into an organ statue with bare hands in battle, summoning ten thousand swords, and using water, fire, wind and thunder, to be familiar with all factions by the alchemy faction; Every move of the player changes the terrain, the moves are extremely gorgeous, and the Queen of the Earth is the most beautiful, naturally it has become the heart of countless players.

Therefore, in the Gospel Kingdom, the number of alchemy factions and earthcraft factions is the largest. Of course, they will soon find that they have been deceived-the alchemy faction is basically a craftsman in the silver realm, and it is extremely lacking in combat methods; the earthcraft faction Basically join the engineering team, not to mention the queen, she can't even see the female cat when she is working on the barren mountains and ridges.

But because these two factions have too many magicians and even formed a demographic dividend, the urbanization of the Gospel Kingdom can progress so quickly in the past 30 years, and there are even enough manpower to build multi-storey cities... Hey?

It's a long way off. Now, Axiu and Liz are fighting with "Magic Duel 14", but neither of them has chosen a popular character.

Lisi uses the "Time Witch". Although it is called the Time Witch, in order to balance the intensity, this character mostly uses throwing skills and close-range boxing, which has a strong sense of strike but the special effects are not gorgeous.

Yaxiu uses the "Wandering Sword Master", and the swordsman is a minority in the Gospel Kingdom. Therefore, although the wandering Sword Master is still strong, the combat effects are relatively poor, and naturally no one plays.

Igola has no interest in this kind of battle game. The reason why he came here is because of Panji.

He secretly observed Panji and found that the butler boy was very concerned about the battle between the two of Asia Xiu, and this game was actively recommended by Panji, so he approached Panji and asked, "You like this game very much?"

"I don't like it very much..." Panji seldom showed that the teenager should be ashamed: "It's just a little happy."

"Why are you happy?"

"Because this game was placed in my favorites "I will play with my kids in the future". "

Then why do you have no children... Igola glanced at the young body of Panji that seemed to be underdeveloped, and decided to collect this sad question.

When will he become hostile with Panji, then use this question to humiliate him.

But compared to Panji, now Igola pays more attention to Liz.

The little white-haired girl stared at the light curtain earnestly, rubbing the joystick and buttons skillfully with her little fingers, playing all kinds of speculation, counterattack, and defensive skills more and more proficiently, and the time-controlled witch beat the wandering sword master.

Igola could see that she was indeed playing this game for the first time. The first game was very rough and was beaten by Ya Xiu who had a little competitive game ability.

But she made rapid progress in the second set, and Ya Xiu could only rely on repeating the Wandering Juggernaut's "defense-breaking skills" to force her to death, and then in the third set she tried to counter various skills. Singing all the way and crushing Asia Xiu.

Igola thought that she would end up after winning a set, and then sell a cute and lose to Ash, but she didn't expect that she would not give up any face, so Ash came up to look for a draw, and she slammed hard.

Although someone like Ash should be drawn hard, this is not in line with Liz's behavior style-she is the same type of person as Igola, and profit is the only purpose of doing things. Winning Ashiu has no benefit other than being very cool. .

She has been taking the route of being careful before, deliberately selling cuteness to please everyone. Although everyone can see that she is pretending, she is so cute.

Apart from anything else, she was able to trick Ya Xiu into her taunting follower so smoothly, 99% of it was because she was a little white-haired Lori, and only 1% was Ya Xiu's stupidity.

Just like men like green tea, women are addicted to scumbags, and fools love Igola. If the victim doesn't know what the other person's breed is, it must be a lie. It's just that the other person provides an emotional experience that others can't provide, so the victim doesn't want to think about it at all, but only hopes that the dream can grow longer.

But Lisi's current behavior is a bit of a "disruption": not only did she not give face to Asia, she was very serious, and she seemed to call him by her name just now... Doesn't she want to continue to use her as a shield? NS? But even the wet toilet paper has useful value, so I don't want to abandon the mocking follower of Ya Xiu so quickly, right?

I don't know if it's because Liz won Yaxiu, or because she behaved very truthfully, but now Igola thinks she is very cute.

"The victory is divided!"

"It's 6:2, are you going to challenge a ten-game losing streak?"

"I made six sets, I should show my real ability..."

"as long as you are happy."

...

At 10 o'clock in the evening, Deya was lying on the bed in her pajamas tired after taking a shower. Unfortunately, her hair was so long that she had to wait for a while to dry and she couldn't sleep directly.

But sleeping is not her job, but Liz's job.

If it hadn't been for Lisi to accidentally hit her head and fainted, she would have tried to explore the virtual world here.

An Nan gave them enough freedom, and in reality, there was Lisi who helped to sleep and cover. Dia was not afraid that others would discover that she was a two-winged magician-even in the tower of the palace, Dia could be legendary. Under the eyelids of Sanctuary, explore the virtual realm.

Diya was sitting in front of the mirror, combing her hair, and said, "Wait, you have to go to bed obediently, don't read books, don't go to other people, if something happens, find a chance to contact me in the virtual realm."

Liz's mouth is flat in the mirror: "I also want to fight my father's gamer..."

“He is so poor, you might as well play with Panji.”

“I like to fight the weak! Isn't it fun to bully the weak? Panji is very strong at first glance, and you will definitely lose when you fight against him. It's boring.”

“Hey, you are good or bad... By the way, Ya Xiu seems to have some points in his hands. You might as well be gambling with him tomorrow and cheating all the points.”

Then came a familiar and frightening voice: “Witch, don't instigate children to gamble. If you don't have a good opponent, why don't you play games with me next time?”

Diya turned her head abruptly, and there was no one behind her.

But when she turned back, she saw the hateful and terrifying man sitting on the bed behind Liz in the mirror!

Viewer!

“Good evening, witches.” The viewer in the mirror put his hands on his chest, and said lazily, “Have you a good day?”

^▽^)I'm not happy!” Liz said fiercely, “Don't do this tomorrow! Or I will hate you!”

The viewer was 'angry' and said: “Little Witch, you are so rude, I must let you have no time to study tomorrow and can only play as much as you want——”

“Okay. You two.” Diya looked speechless, looked at the viewer and asked: “I have completed your mission. I have fought with Ya Xiu and defeated him. You won't give me any personal time. Bar?”

“The fighting I'm talking about shouldn't be the same thing...but as long as you learn something, I don't mind.” The viewer spread his hands: “Look, I'm actually quite talkative.”

Good talking means that I don't give me any choice, break into the girl's boudoir without asking at night, and force a child to stop learning and play games? If this is all good talk, then Ashiu who is not willing to obey her orders can be regarded as a father who truly loves her.

Diya was slanderous, and suddenly remembered that the viewer could hear her complaints, she changed the subject: "What can I learn from playing games with Ya Xiu?"

"After experiencing the fighting style of the Time Witch, don't you think it can be applied to your own combat system?"

"That's just a game..." Diya stopped halfway through her words, stood up thoughtfully, and gestured twice in the clearing, her expression gradually becoming serious.

Viewer Yoyo said: "The Master Duel series can become the most widely spread game in the Gospel Kingdom. It is not without reason that countless people become so fierce."

Diya nodded excitedly: "You're right, I'll go to the virtual realm to have a try—"

"That's why I came to you."

Diya was taken aback and saw the viewer sitting on the window sill, overlooking the bustling city below.

"Have you forgotten? The reason why I am so prickly with you is because I need you to be my companion and explore the virtual world together."

"You said you were tricking me?"

"You got it wrong, I mean to guide you." The audience's tone did not change: "Since everyone is free tonight, shall we officially start exploring the virtual world? But you have to wait a moment, we need to prepare. ."

is it true?

Does he really want to invite me to explore the virtual world with them?

But there is more than one person in the virtual world...

Although Deya wanted to question the authenticity of this incident, what the viewer did in the past two days undoubtedly proved that he was a person who did what he said-she said let Liz go to play, and she would do it in a second. Can't stop; it is said that Dia will fight with Ah Xiu, and she can't leave the handle with her hands until the game is over.

There is no need for the viewer to say such a lie that can be revealed later.

Diya was silent for a moment: "Then what do you need me to do?"

"You don't need to do anything."

The body of the viewer gradually faded, leaving only one sentence:

"The divine destiny connects you and me~www.mtlnovel.com~We will meet in the virtual world soon."

.....

On the other side, after taking a shower, Asia Xiu was lying on the bed, holding a book and immersed in the ocean of knowledge. The name of the book was "Master Duel Series Raiders".

When Ash was imagining how to use a set of tricks to kill Liz tomorrow, his gospel suddenly popped out by himself.

A red exclamation mark appeared in the upper right corner of the "My" column. Everyone with a little obsessive-compulsive disorder would want to click on it, and then three messages appeared in it.

“The device binding and data transfer of “Aurora’s Handbook” has been completed! Players can choose the device to log in to the game in the future, the resolution will be increased to Ultra HD, and the operator will add dynamic CG effects.”

“The health of the soul of the operator “Last Viewer” has been restored to 100%.”

“The health of the soul of the operator “Dead Sword Princess” has been restored to 100%.”

Ya Xiu blinked.

What is this game? When he didn’t know this game, he actively migrated to the new device “Gospel” and added dynamic CG?

This is no longer progress, it can be called evolution!

From a money-swindling mobile game to...a more conscientious money-swindling mobile game.

But compared to the huge transformation of the game, Ya Xiu cares more about the last two messages!

The soul is completely restored, which means that they can finally explore the virtual world tonight!

In other words...

can finally meet.

Chapter 209: Our dormitory is really...

“Drink wins!”

In the secret garden, a group of four in the Jianhua dormitory sat in the hall to toast and celebrate.

Today, the decks are full. They choose the small table in the hall, and the students around are secretly watching them, but they can already accept the baptism of their eyes calmly. If someone wants to come forward and strike up a conversation, they just need to scan their eyes, and they basically turn to the bathroom to look in the mirror with wit to see what they look like.

Four days ago, in full view, Sonia challenged Leonie again.

This time Leonie did not make any concessions, but regarded Sonia as a strong enemy and accepted the challenge happily. Both sides put on star suits, holding open-front swords, doing everything they can and doing their best!

Four medical practitioners were arranged on the spot, for fear that these two Juggernaut Seeds would die in battle!

Swordsman vs. Swordsman, sharp to sharp!

Although the star suits of both sides broke at the same time in the end, the instructor pronounced a tie. But everyone knows that from this moment on, the red-haired sword girl has stepped on the stepping stone of the orange dancer, and has become the top prince in Jianhua University!

After all, Leonie has been a silversmith for more than two years, and Sonia hasn't been... a month!

Before Sonia picked Leonie's sword, it could be said to be a fluke, but this time it was a one-on-one duel between the two sides. Even if it's a bargaining expert on the construction site, she can only question Sonia's beauty. , Can't question Sonia's strength!

And Sonia hasn't finished her first grade yet, and many people think that Sonia can become a Golden Master before graduation.

Even in the University of Truth where geniuses are gathered, students who can step into the mainland of time before graduation are also the brightest meteors. For the first-year students of Jianhua University, their college life is destined to be in the red-haired Jian Ji. It became dim and dull under the stars.

Many people even think that perhaps their greatest achievement in this life is “once Sonia Servi was a student in the same grade.”

If a person is a little ahead of you, you may be jealous; but if a person is ahead of you beyond your reach, you will only admire her and even fanatically admire her, hoping that she will gain more honors in the future and let yourself have Opportunity to show off this rare cause.

It is said that Sonia Servi’s support club has appeared in the curtain of the school, but they are still arguing whether it is better to call themselves ‘Sorpi’ or ‘Seppi’.

On the other side, since Sonia has such a high degree of attention, her roommates have naturally become the focus. After all, Sonia is already a goddess who can’t be seen directly, and everyone can only look far away and dare not talk. But if you can make good friends with Sonia’s friends, won’t you be able to join Sonia’s circle of friends in a roundabout way?

I don’t know, but everyone was surprised to find that Sonia actually has a group of treasure roommates.

Ingulite need not mention, the best students in the swordsmanship department except Felix and Sonia are diligent, studious and heroic;

Lois is one of the most dazzling and beautiful girls in the water department. After Sonia transferred to the sword department, this “one” can also be deleted;

Adele is even more powerful, because she was the original organizer of Sonia’s support club. Later, with the identity of “Sonia’s roommate”, she undoubtedly became the president of the support club, and she was called the red-haired sword girl. The number one * meal.

Propelled by Adele’s concealed jab, the nickname “Sword Flower Dormitory” spread like wildfire in the academy. Everyone knows that Sonia is an outstanding dormitory. There are four sword flowers in the small dormitory. Hua University really picked up a treasure, and they will definitely become the number one heavenly group of Gales in the future...

In the face of increasing attention, Sonia and Lois are naturally happy. They are originally 'performance personality' who can draw superiority and energy from their eyes. They are like absorbing vitality bombs every day. Fully go to school.

Although Adele is not as arrogant as the two of them, he still enjoys the feeling of being the focus, showing off and receiving several love letters expressing his admiration every day.

Only Ingulite was not accustomed to this kind of attention at first, and she felt even more annoyed when she was accosted when she was running training in the morning.

But then she was transformed by Sonia and Lois. She changed her hair style, trimmed her eyebrows, bought a plain but more slim-fitting sportswear, plus Ingulite's original figure and foundation, her appearance suddenly To catch up with Sonia and others, currently only slightly inferior to Adele, if Adele's weight continues to increase, surpassing Adele is not a dream.

After becoming beautiful, Ingulite was also a little shy, but soon became more and more confident, and did not have stage fright in the face of hitting up. Recently, she also started to learn how to skin care and sunscreen from Sonia.

Makeup is a woman's arm, and love is a man's surrender. Ingrid didn't care about appearance before, but felt that the swordsman didn't need to waste time on it, but that didn't mean she really didn't want to be beautiful. The reason why she wanted to be a swordsman was originally because she saw Dedaros in the light curtain. Playing the handsome swordsman.

beautiful, elegant, and powerful! This is the female swordsman Yinggurit longs for!

With Sonia and Lois helping to avoid detours, Ingulite found that it only takes a small amount of time every day to have the appearance that defeats 90% of her peers, and it will not delay her daily practice, so she is naturally happy. Join the ranks of beautiful girls and achieve one-third of the elements of the "Female Sword Saint" in your dream.

And tonight, Ingulite is one step closer to his dream.

“It’s amazing. We had two magicians before the first grade in our dormitory.” Adele blushed and said with a grin: “Our dormitory is really amazing!”

In the daily practice tonight, when Ingulite cut into the ten rings of the armor with a sword, the phenomenon of knowledge resonance occurred, and she independently summoned her first natal magic spirit and became the second official magician in the dormitory. !

Lois unceremoniously reveals Adele’s shamelessness, but she also looks at the new female swordsman curiously: “Ingulite, can we see your Shu Ling?”

“Actually, there is nothing pretty.” Although Ingulite said so, she proactively stretched out her hand, and a Shu Ling holding a sharp blade appeared in her palm.

“This is the ‘Sword Slashing’ magic spirit.” Adele looked at it for a moment, and said in surprise: “Hey? It’s obviously a magic spirit you summoned yourself, why does it look like a man? Are you in Gullit as a man? Women’s clothing? No wonder the * are so—”

“The spontaneously summoned magic spirit is related to the inner projection of the magician. Don’t talk nonsense before you attend the class.” Lois patted Adele’s head: “Maybe Ingulite thinks the male swordsman is better?”

“Yes.” Ingulite said frankly: “Although I don’t think I lose to men, I also know that men are better than women in all aspects of strength and agility. I need to work harder to surpass male swordsmen of the same age. . Sometimes I also wondered if I were a man, would the road to swordsmanship be smoother than it is now...”

“In fact, after becoming a formal magician, the influence of individual talents such as strength agility is minimal.” Sonia ate the chicken rice noodles and said: “The magician’s strength is determined by the magician’s spirit, power, and faction level. The gender is different. It’s worth mentioning, do you think Felix has been hammered out of temper by me? There is absolutely no need for inferiority.”

"I know, I understand all these principles." Ingulite smiled apologetically: "But some concepts are difficult to reverse in a moment. Only when I become stronger and have enough confidence to affirm myself, can I get rid of it. These low self-esteem...Thank you for your concern."

Sonia stared at Ingullit for a few seconds, then turned her head and said to Lois: "You wait, she will stand at the pinnacle that we can't reach. This woman has more powerful power than her talent."

"Sooner or later, both of you will stand on the pinnacle that we can't reach." Lois said in angrily.

"It's the three of you." Adele added: "Lois is about to summon the 'Spa' magic spirit."

"You're okay, mean, say!" Lois knocked Adele's head every time she paused: "Let you follow me to practice, you don't practice, and you lie in bed to watch the drama; let you follow me to self-study and you don't go, Lie down in bed and watch a drama. If you continue like this, I wonder if you can step into the virtual world before graduation. What should I do if you can't graduate by that time?"

"Then marry someone." Adele said, clutching his head.

"Then what? When a lady who only knows the beauty of life?"

"In addition to wind and snow ~ www.mtlnovel.com~ I can still lie in bed at home and watch dramas."

"You—"

Seeing that Lois was about to tear Adele into a pie face, Sonia thought for a while and said: "Adele, I know you are not interested in water magic, maybe you have chosen the wrong faction... but somehow learn it. After more than a year, you shouldn't be far from the silver realm. You can step into the virtual realm with a little harder. After stepping into the virtual realm, you can slowly choose a new faction. There must be a magical faction you love in this world. ."

"You are the same as Ingulite, you know the truth, but you can't do it yourself... so I can only tell you that the virtual world is really a very fun and interesting place, what is described in the book It's not as bad as the virtual world. Our magicians conduct virtual adventures every night, not just to become stronger, but more because the virtual world is an unstoppable activity that is happier than lying in bed and watching a drama.”

“Moreover,” Sonia made a fatal blow: “After Lois has stepped into the Void Realm, our daily topics may gradually become bits and pieces in the exploration of the Void Realm. By then, we will not be soaked in the sea of knowledge. You may not be able to participate in our topic.”

Adele was silent for a moment, slammed a glass of wine, and said with a ‘ha’, “Okay, okay, I won’t watch the show again from tomorrow!”

“Tomorrow?” Lois raised her eyebrows.

“I will make up the drama I’m chasing all night... Okay, well, I won’t watch it from now on! For you, this sacrifice is nothing!”

“For yourself!”

Chapter 210: Who is she?

Seeing them noisy, Sonia raised her glass to Ingulite: “Congratulations on stepping into the world of the magician.”

“My pleasure.” Ingulite clinked glasses with her, took a sip and said, “Actually, I’m a little scared.”

“What are you afraid of?”

“Afraid to explore the virtual realm alone.” Ingulite said: “It is said in the book that when a magician first enters the virtual realm, he will fall into himself because of the unfamiliar environment, the ubiquitous danger, and the absence of any communication partners. Tormented panic.”

“A person stays alone in the sea, there is no object to rely on, no goal to pursue, vicious intellectual creatures may emerge in the white mist at any time, and there are secrets that cannot be explored in the deep sea...it feels terrible to think about it.”

“It is said that some magicians can’t bear this kind of fear, and would rather stay in the same place than enter the Void Realm.”

“Don’t look at me like this. Actually, I don’t have much experience of living alone. Except for killing a brown bear that broke into the yard when I was 16 years old, there is no commendable record. I guess it will take a lot of time to adapt to the virtual world. Fighting rhythm.” Ingulite looked at Sonia: “Speaking of which, Sonia, you seem to be completely unaffected. You enter the virtual realm enthusiastically every night, and you feel very good every day.”

Adele spit out secretly: “It always feels like Ingullit has secretly raised the average combat power of a sixteen-year-old girl...”

“If someone hadn’t seen Sonia you come out of the meditation building, we would have thought you went on a date.” Lois also complained.

“Is there any secret to share?” Ingulite blinked: “Or Lord Sonia can give a piece of advice to the newcomer who is about to enter the virtual world?”

Lois and Adele also pricked their ears, hoping that Sonia would really give a cheating order that was not recorded in the book but they could use.

Sonia was startled slightly, and suddenly fell into a long silence.

Ingulitt glanced at each other and said cautiously: “Sonia, I’m just kidding...”

“Ah, I’m sorry.” Sonia shook the glass: “I just suddenly remembered other things...well, the reason why I adapt to the virtual world so quickly is because...”

It's fine to tell a lie here, and it's okay to even make a joke. For example, 'you don't have to go back to the dormitory to listen to Adele snoring' when you go to the virtual world. But perhaps it was the drunken drunkenness, or the inexplicable resentment in her heart, Sonia couldn't help telling the truth: "...because I went on a date in the virtual world."

Everyone blinked.

Go on a date in the virtual world?

The village girl regretted it as soon as she said it. She wanted to explain a few words, but suddenly she stood up suddenly.

"What's wrong with you?"

"Me," Sonia clenched her fists: "My soul is healed."

"What?" Lois reacted quickly: "You mean your soul is restored? But only seven days have passed—"

"What time is it?" Sonia interrupted her suddenly.

Adele glanced at the clock in the hall: "10:45."

"That's too late, goodbye, I'm going to the virtual world!"

Before the three of them could react, Sonia had hurriedly left the secret garden, so fast that it was doubtful whether she had used Shu Ling.

"Is the Void Realm really that interesting..." Adele was shocked: "The first time I went on a date at the age of 15 was not as excited as her."

“What does her phrase ‘go to the virtual world’ mean?” Lois looked confused: “It takes at least two people to date. Who on earth is she dating?”

“I understand.”

“Do you understand again?”

Lois and Adele looked at Ingulite, who had a suddenly realized expression.

“Sonia meant that she had a date with the ichthyosaur, the mud ichthyosaur, and the umbrella bird dragon, which means that she wanted to kill these intellectual creatures.” Ingulite said seriously: “to drive her to adapt to the virtual world. What keeps moving forward is the indomitable sword spirit deep in her heart! She is indeed the proud son of Jianhua University, and this spiritual cultivation has surpassed the waiting swordsman!”

Lois feels that what Ingulite said is wrong, but there is no better way—it is impossible that Sonia’s date is really literal, right?

still walked fast at first, but quickly turned into a jog, and finally ran directly on the school road.

The night view of the campus was flying fast on both sides, and the sky was full of stars to guide her way. Sonia didn't care about her image at all, running wildly, the cool breeze caressed her face, and the shadow urged her to run faster.

Sometimes, walking is really too slow.

Her soul is restored, and the viewer's soul must have been restored.

Because they died in the virtual realm in the same way, the amount of soul lost must be the same.

Yesterday morning, when Sonia got up and combed her hair, she noticed that a bottle of medicine that looked like sparkling water suddenly appeared on the table. Under the bottle was a note "Pure Eurasian Special Drink". She also introduced that this bottle of beverage can restore the soul. Speed up the absorption of mana.

Sonia knew it was sent by the viewer at a glance, complaining in her heart why the viewer didn't show her face, and she finished drinking.

As for whether the viewer will drink the potion first, the soul has long been restored, Sonia has never thought about it this way—after all, the viewer has no ability to enter the virtual realm alone, and it is meaningless to restore the soul. Only when Sonia opens the door of truth can she explore the virtual realm.

And she has a strong self-confidence: if you find a good thing, the first reaction of the viewer must be to let her, not to embezzle it!

So Sonia is worried about whether there will only be one bottle of "Pure Eurasian Special Drink", and whether the viewer has not recovered their souls yet. And whether the viewer has successfully escaped from prison, what is his current situation, is there a place where he can enter the virtual realm with peace of mind, whether he eats well, is he injured...

Why didn't he come to see me?

Mingming used to harass me often...

Is it because he is really in a dangerous situation right now, and he can't even squeeze out any spare time to visit me?

But anyway, she has to fulfill her promise.

Even if the viewer does not come, she has to wait for him in the virtual realm.

At the same time, Felix feels that the atmosphere at home is still not meditating on the building, so I chose to drive to the meditation building to check in to work tonight.

As soon as she got off the car, she saw a red hair rushing into the meditation building, and she was taken aback by the noble master.

Isn't her soul damaged... She is Silver Full Wing, and she has to recuperate for half a month after she dies. Now it has only been less than seven days... Even if her soul recovers, wouldn't she be so anxious to enter the Void Realm?

However, Felix soon remembered her experience of being beaten by Sonia the other day. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com suddenly had an idea-Sonia shouldn't be rushing into the void to kill knowledge Creature?

Her temperament may be appreciated by the Lord of billions of brilliance...

Maybe I should...

When Felix was thinking about whether to push the village girl in the sect, Sonia had entered the meditation room and sat cross-legged, summoning the wave of swordsmanship spirit, capturing the gate of truth, and connecting to the world of virtual reality!

come!

When Sonia opened her eyes, she felt that she was stepping on the real ground, surrounded by lush forests, and the plants released drops of bright golden droplets, which flowed against the golden sky and turned into a dazzling curtain. The rain curtain makes everyone who is fortunate enough to step into the time continent to be bathed in the countercurrent golden rain.

But Sonia didn't even bother to pay attention to the unique wonders of the Time Continent. The red-haired sword girl's eyes were all locked on the man wearing the crimson gradient windbreaker not far away.

The viewer looked at her and narrowed his eyes slightly. The man who hadn't looked for her for a few days with his mouth turned up slightly, his hands spread out, as if he wanted to hug her.

She opened her lips slightly, but did not speak, but all the questions and dissatisfaction in her heart just disappeared.

She couldn't help but walked over physically and stretched out her hand to the viewer—strangled his throat.

Sonia glanced at the black-and-white witch Deya, who was as beautiful as hers, and then stared straight at Ah Xiu.

"Who is she?"
